PREFACE

"But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to a day of eternity. Amen."

— 2 Peter 3:18

A Literal Translation of the Bible is the final volume in a series designed to incite thorough and close study of God's holy Scriptures. This series (originally promoted as The Break-Through-the-Language-Barrier Series) originated in the heart of this translator as a fervent desire for all lovers of God to know their God and Savior, Jesus Christ, as only a full understanding of the Bible can reveal Him. Such a knowledge of the altogether lovely Savior requires diligent study, investing both time and spiritual involvement. This Series is designed to save the Bible student time. In a lifetime of study of the Scriptures these ten volumes should save him or her thousands of hours. And that time could and should be used to meditate and pray over the revelatory words that God has given us as our heritage. May God the Spirit work in you to "work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who is working in you both to will and to work for the sake of His good pleasure." — Philippians 2:12,13.

These are the volumes developed by an intensive effort during the past fifteen years, (years they were completed in parenthesis): New Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon (1971); New Englishman's Greek Concordance (1971); New Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew-Aramaic-English Lexicon with Index (1980); The Interlinear Bible, (in 4 volumes, 1976-1980; in One Volume Edition, 1981); New Englishman's Hebrew Concordance (1984); The Interlinear Bible (second edition, with Strong's numbers over each original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek word of the Bible, 1984-1986); A Concise Lexicon to the Biblical Languages (1986); A Literal Translation of the Bible (1986)¹. These volumes provide the serious Bible student with the means for a quantum jump in the knowledge of God and His ways, His thoughts, and His purposes. The result for any earnest student of the Bible will be approval from God, acknowledgment that he or she is "a workman unashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth," — 2 Timothy 2:15. Nothing less than our spiritual happiness and godly character is at stake as we study the Bible, our only source of strength to cope with this ungodly age.

The living God has warned every living soul that "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" — Matt. 4:4. And He has directly provided us with the God-breathed words by which we are to live: "Every Scripture is God-breathed, and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, so that the man of God may be perfect, having been fully furnished for every good work" — 2 Timothy 3:16. Since all men, from the least intelligent to the most brilliant, from all backgrounds and in all lands and languages, must be able to read and understand the Scriptures in order to hear, believe, and obey in order to have everlasting life, God has provided us the Bible in easy-to-understand words! For He chose out words in common use among the Hebrew people to form the Old Testament, and later words commonly used in the Greek-speaking world, to form the New Testament. Whatever mysteries, whatever things hard to be understood (Eph. 3:8-10; 2 Peter 3:15) there may be in the Bible, the words expressing them are not so lofty as to impede understanding. This is proven by the fact that some of the most renowned men of God, even many of the apostles, were unlearned men. Yet these understood and obeyed God's words, and they fulfilled His will.

In a world now inhabited by billions of people, few of them today read Hebrew and Greek. And since the Scriptures are intended for every nation and tongue, a translation into the common language of each person is needed. In the sixteenth century William Tyndale wrote in the preface to his translation: "which thing moved me to translate the New Testament. Because I perceived by experience that it was impossible to establish the lay people in any truth, except the Scripture were plainly laid before their eyes in their mother tongue, that they might see the process, order and meaning of the text." Tyndale labored to translate so that "every plowboy might understand." And thousands of people in his day, and in the coming century, learned to read in order to be able to read and understand the words of God. And such a great spiritual revolution followed that the noted English historian J. R. Green felt compelled to write: "No greater moral change ever passed over a nation than passed over England in the latter part of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. England became a people of a Book and that Book was the Bible. It was read by every class of people. And the effect was amazing. The whole moral tone of the nation changed."

WHY IS ANOTHER TRANSLATED NEEDED NOW?

In the midst of the seventeenth-century spiritual revolution in England the original Authorized Version (King James Version) appeared. And such a golden age of theology followed that most of the classic works, whether expository or devotional, those still being printed today, were written in that century. It should be evident to any unbiased student of history that it was an honest translation that was the very matrix from which came a civilization blessed with more knowledge, more abundance, more individual freedom to worship, more solid intellectual development, more time to read and meditate on God's word, and more of all the blessings which tend to draw men to God. The King James Version was flawed, as all translations tend to be flawed, but considering the available resources of the day, and the development of theology, it was and is an honest attempt to present God's word as it was written. The same may not be said of many, if not most, of the flood of 'versions' poured from the presses recently².

² A Literal Translation of the Bible is needed now because God has further warned us that "And if anyone hears My words, and does not believe, I do not judge him . . . the word which I spoke, that which will judge him in the last Day." (John 12:48). Yet taken in total the recent 'versions' leave out hundreds of the words of God, even though those words are fully authenticated by ninety-nine per cent or more of extant factual evidence in manuscripts, ancient versions, and quotations from the early fathers. Dozens of verses have been either totally removed, or else have had doubt thrown on them; and hundreds of verses have been distorted by the addition or subtraction of words, with no notice given to the reader of what has been done. Here are some of the losses to the reader of these 'versions': (1) By the removal of one little Greek word meaning "without a cause," Jesus when angry is made liable to the judgment, and thus made to be a sinner (Matt. 5:22); (2) God's assurance to us that our Savior was "God manifested in the flesh" (1 Tim. 3:16) is denied in virtually every one of these new 'versions'; (3) the deity of Christ is systematically removed, or questioned —in the NASV He is made to be a begotten god, rather than having been begotten as a Son; but God cannot be begotten, He must have forever been, else not God; (4) the power of His cleansing blood is denied in GNMM, the 'translator' simply refusing to translate the word for blood; (5) our Lord's omnipresence is stolen away from Him because these so-called 'translations' leave out the words "who is in Heaven" (John 3:3). To cover up the stealing away of these words, some 'versions' put 'whose home is in Heaven,' a reading which does not appear in any manuscript; (6) they have denied or else thrown doubt on the virgin birth of our Lord Jesus, in many cases making Joseph the begetting father, or even some other (Luke 2:33); (7) many places they have changed "Son of God" to 'son of man'; (8) they have Christ suffering, but not for us (1 Cor. 5:7); (9) they have Christ sacrificed, but not for us (1 Peter 4:1); (10) they have removed both Luke's and Mark's witness to the ascension of Christ; (11) to these unbelieving translators propitiation becomes merely a 'remedy for the defilement of sins; justification by faith is marred by presenting faith as a meritorious work which procures righteousness; (12) the God-breathed inspiration of the Scriptures is misrepresented by an insipid substitution, 'every inspired scripture has its use;' (13) to them the miraculous darkness on Resurrection Day was merely an 'eclipse;' redemption merely a 'release;' belief degenerates into a mild 'yielding of allegiance;' righteousness in some of these modern 'versions' becomes only 'goodness;' (14) the demon-possession healed by the Lord Jesus Christ is pretended to be no more than 'epilepsy.' Any good-hearted soul should be able to discern that Satan is at work, twisting and perverting the words of God, as He did in the Garden of Eden. That is why a simple, honest, literal translation of God's words is much needed today.

THE PURPOSE AND PLAN OF THIS TRANSLATION

This work first appeared in The Interlinear Bible, the purpose of which was to provide God's children the means to check out all versions of the Bible. For if one sees the original Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek words, and the literal meaning under each of them, then it can be seen how far astray some of these pretended 'translations' go. This separate volume is in response to a host of requests for a carrying Bible with the literal meanings of the original words of the Bible, those penned by the prophets, apostles and historians chosen by God the Spirit to convey all those words by which we are to be judged.¹

The plan of this volume then is to provide every English-reading person with the words of God in their literal richness of expression. The Hebrews were basically a pastoral people. Their language originally was pictorial, and as such it is descriptive by nature. For example, their place names were descriptive: "The Graves of Lust; The Valley of the Giants," etc. In this volume these true meanings are revealed, not mere transliteration of the Hebrew letters being made to suffice. The personification of everything (there were no neuters to the Hebrews, nor any merely secular objects), gleams through a literal translation — for all things and all men were perceived in relation to God Almighty. This literal translation tends to bring the reader into the frame of mind that existed in the times the Biblical words were written, and thus promotes a full understanding. As for the Greek, it is noted as a language that has a word for every occasion. This vivid variety of expression is evident in the Holy Scriptures. Yet the Greek commonly in use, rather than the classical Greek, was written by Peter the unlearned fisherman, Luke the learned Physician, and by Paul the trained theologian. In conveying to the Bible student the commands and principles of God, it is important that the translator also convey in literal, simple English what God has written for His people. A translation of the Bible is no place to show off the vocabulary and erudition of the translator.

There are mysterious things, things hard to understand (2 Peter 3:15,16) in the Scriptures, but it is not the literal meanings of the Hebrew or Greek words that cause this to be so. The “different gospel” preached by those “troubling you and desiring to pervert the gospel of Christ,” cannot be derived from the literal words written by the Divine penmen. For these holy men were “borne along by the Holy Spirit,” (2 Peter 1:21). The plan of this volume is not to lead (or mislead) the reader, but to bring him or her face to face with God by simply giving the literal meaning of the words which He had written for our spiritual direction. In doing this we adhere to His maxim, “Let God be true, and every man a liar” (Romans 3:4).

DISTINCTIVE TRANSLATIONS IN THIS VOLUME

In the application of our principle of translating each word literally, many distinctive translations will meet the eye of the reader. For instance, it disturbs some that in most places in the New Testament the name of the mother of Jesus is written in Greek, Μαριαμ, Miriam, or Mariam, rather than Mary. Apparently she came to be known as Mary because there is no word for Miriam in Latin. So both the mother of Jesus, and her sister Mary of Clopas came to be called Mary in our Bibles. Other distinctive translations are: the descriptive names of place, the instructions in the titles to certain Psalms, the correct names of the history books, etc. Some technical names have been retained (Shephelah for lowlands, Negeb for southland, Arabah for the barren depression of the Jordan valley). In this volume the Red Sea is actually the Sea of Reeds; left-handed persons are seen to be impeded in the right hand; Jephthah is rescued from the charge of human sacrifice⁴; Joseph's master is revealed to be a eunuch, adding light to his wife's lust. Literal meanings often make actions of Bible characters to come alive, e.g., king Ahab saying of the king of Syria, “he is coiling himself toward me,” (2 K. 5:7); people came to Jesus with the sick and the lame and “flung them down at His feet,” (Matt. 15:30); Jesus bending down and then bending back up creates a mental picture of the action to the reader (John 8:6,7). Of all the available translations, in this volume alone you will find proper distinction between vexers, haters, foes, adversaries, enemies or oppressors. Trouble, distress, desolation, pain, etc. are distinguished. Surely, lovers of God are lovers of God's words. The distinctive literal meanings of those words in this volume will cause God's children to more thoroughly discern the Divine mind. Obedience and blessing will follow.

SOME DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED BY THE TRANSLATOR

There are many interpretative decisions made by any Bible translator. Some of these are handled by the format of the work. Always the context has a bearing on the translation of a word. For example, it makes quite a difference whether a person is cured, or is saved, yet the same Greek word may be translated either way. It is the context that will determine which is used. And at times the context covers not merely the surrounding verses, but an entire chapter or even a Biblical book. These are some of the decisions made:

1. Words supplied for sense were kept to a minimum, and these are always printed in italic type. The reader will know that any word in italic is not a translation of any original word of the text, but is supplied for sense.

2. The original manuscripts have no punctuation, capitalization, or other grammatical helps to the reader. We have attempted to aid the reader by punctuation, being careful not to divide words that appear to belong together. We have capitalized in the manner now approved in English works. But we have also capitalized the names and the pronouns of God in all three Persons. This is true when they are recognized as such either by the Biblical penman, or by a person addressing God. But when the person addressing God, such as the Pharisees addressing the Lord Jesus, does not recognize His deity, then the pronouns used are NOT capitalized in this volume. In a number of places we have capitalized I AM, since in those places Christ Jesus is so identifying Himself as the original Creator (See Colossians 1:16). Or so we concluded. We recognize this is highly interpretative, but believe the Bible student is aided by such helps.

3. The premise that "the Scriptures cannot be broken" is demonstrated throughout this volume. With the firm conviction that each word is God-breathed, and that none have been allowed to pass away (Matt. 5:18), we have prayerfully sought to give the meaning of each word in its most literal and understandable form. Chapters are of course arbitrary, but we have followed the commonly used chapters divisions, and the versing in the Bibles of our day. At places we have assigned different sentence structure, even supplying new subject and verb in order to aid the reader to quickly gain the sense. In one place (at the end of chapter 1 and the beginning of chapter 2 of Ephesians) we have ended a chapter with a dash, and have begun chapter 2 with a small letter, because plainly the apostle Paul did not intend for his thought to be interrupted before verse 8 of chapter 2.

In every case there is a desire to cause the Bible student to more fully understand what God has written for the building up of his spiritual character. May it never be said to you, as our God and Savior, Jesus Christ, said to the unbelieving Jews, "You err, not knowing the Scriptures" (Matt. 22:29). Rather may you "know the things freely given to us by God, which things are not in words taught in human wisdom, but in words taught of the Holy Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things" (1 Corinthians 2:12,13).

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

¹In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth; ²and the earth being without form and empty, and darkness on the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moving gently on the face of the waters, ³then God said, Let light be! And there was light. ⁴And God saw the light, that it was good, and God separated between the light and darkness. ⁵And God called the light, Day. And He called the darkness, Night. And there was evening, and there was morning the first day.

⁶And God said, Let an expanse be in the midst of the waters, and let it divide between the waters and the waters. ⁷And God made the expanse, and He separated between the waters which were under the expanse and the waters which were above the expanse. And it was so. ⁸And God called the expanse, Heavens. And there was evening, and there was morning the second day.

⁹And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be collected to one place, and let the dry land appear. And it was so. ¹⁰And God called the dry land, Earth. And He called the collection of the waters, Seas. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹And God said, Let the earth sprout tender sprouts, the plant seeding seed, the fruit tree producing fruit according to its kind, whichever seed is in it on the earth. And it was so. ¹²And the earth bore tender sprouts, the plant seeding seed according to its kind, and the fruit tree producing fruit according to its kind, whichever seed is in it. And God saw that it was good. ¹³And there was evening, and there was morning the third day.

¹⁴And God said, Let luminaries be in the expanse of the heavens, to divide between the day and the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years. ¹⁵And let them be for luminaries in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the earth. And it was so. ¹⁶And God made the two great luminaries: the great luminary to rule the day, and the small luminary and the stars to rule the night. ¹⁷And God set them in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the earth, ¹⁸and to rule over the day and over the night; and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹And there was evening, and there was morning the fourth day.

²⁰And God said, Let the waters swarm with the swarms having a soul of life; and let the birds fly over the earth, on the face of the expanse of the heavens. ²¹And God created the great sea animals, and all that creeps, having a living soul, which swarmed the waters, according to its kind; and every bird with wing according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²²And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas; and let the birds multiply in the earth. ²³And there was evening, and there was morning the fifth day.

²⁴And God said, Let the earth bring forth the soul of life according to its kind: cattle, and creepers, and its beasts of the earth, according to its kind. And it was so. ²⁵And God made the animals of the earth according to its kind, and cattle according to its kind, and every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²⁶And God said, Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over all the creepers creeping on the earth.

²⁷And God created the man in His own image; in the image of God He created him. He created them male and female.

²⁸And God blessed them; and God said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over birds of the heavens, and over all animals creeping on the earth. ²⁹And God said, Behold, I have given you every plant seeding seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree seeding seed — it shall be food for you. ³⁰And to every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the heavens, and to every creeper on the earth, in which is a living soul, every green plant is for food. And it was so. ³¹And God saw everything that He had made; and, behold, it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning the sixth day.

¹And the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their host. ²And on the seventh day God completed His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. ³And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because He rested from all His work on it, which God had created to make.

⁸And Jehovah God planted a garden in Eden to the east; and He put there the man whom He had formed. ⁹And out of the ground Jehovah God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food. The Tree of Life was also in the middle of the garden; also the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. ¹⁰And a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it was divided and became four heads. ¹¹The name of the first was Pishon — it is the one surrounding all the land of Havilah, where gold is; ¹²and the gold of that land is good; there is bdellium gum resin, and the onyx stone. ¹³And the name of the second river is Gihon — it is the one surrounding all the land of Cush. ¹⁴And the name of the third river is Hiddakel — it is the one going east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

¹⁵And Jehovah God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden, to work it and to keep it. ¹⁶And Jehovah God commanded the man, saying, You may freely eat of every tree in the garden; ¹⁷but of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil you may not eat, for in the day that you eat of it, you shall surely die.

¹⁸And Jehovah God said, It is not good, the man being alone. I will make a helper suited to him. ¹⁹And Jehovah God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the heavens out of the ground. And He brought them to the man, to see what he would call it. And all which the man might call it, each living soul, that was its name. ²⁰And the man called names to all the cattle, and to the bird of the heavens, and to every animal of the field. But no helper suited to him was found for a man. ²¹And Jehovah God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh underneath. ²²And Jehovah God formed the rib which He had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. ²³And the man said, This now at last is bone of my bones, and flesh from my flesh. For this shall be called Woman, because this has been taken out of man. ²⁴Therefore, a man shall leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they shall become one flesh. ²⁵And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not ashamed.

¹And the serpent was cunning above every animal of the field which Jehovah God had made. And he said to the woman, Is it true that God has said, You shall not eat from any tree of the garden? ²And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden, ³but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die. ⁴And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die, ⁵for God knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as God, knowing good and evil. ⁶And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and the tree was desirable to make one wise. And she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave to her husband with her, and he ate. ⁷And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed leaves of the fig-tree, and made girdles for themselves.

⁸And they heard the sound of Jehovah God walking up and down in the garden at the breeze of the day. And the man and his wife hid themselves from the face of Jehovah God in the middle of the trees of the garden. ⁹And Jehovah God called to the man and said to him, Where are you? ¹⁰And he said, I have heard Your sound in the garden, and I was afraid, for I am naked, and I hid myself. ¹¹And He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat? ¹²And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she has given to me of the tree, and I ate. ¹³And Jehovah God said to the woman, What is this you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

¹⁴And Jehovah God said to the serpent, Because you have done this, you are cursed above all beasts, and above every animal of the field. You shall go on your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. ¹⁵And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed — He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. ¹⁶He said to the woman, I will greatly increase your sorrow and your conception; you shall bear sons in sorrow, and your desire shall be toward your husband; and he shall rule over you. ¹⁷And He said to the man, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten of the tree about which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat from it, the ground shall be cursed because of you; you shall eat of it in sorrow all the days of your life. ¹⁸And it shall bring forth thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the plant of the field. ¹⁹By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until your return to the ground. For you have been taken out of it; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return. ²⁰And the man called the name of his wife, Eve; because she became the mother of all living. ²¹And Jehovah God made coats of skin for the man and his wife, and clothed them.

²²And Jehovah God said, Behold! The man has become as one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand and also take from the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever. ²³And Jehovah God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground out of which he was taken. ²⁴And He drove the man out. And He caused to dwell the cherubs at the east of the Garden of Eden, and the flaming sword whirling around to guard the way of the Tree of Life.

⁸And Cain talked with his brother Abel. And as they were in the field, Cain rose up against His brother Abel, and killed him. ⁹And Jehovah said to Cain, Where is your brother Abel? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper? ¹⁰And He said, What have you done? The voice of the blood of your brother cries to Me from the ground. ¹¹And now you are cursed more than the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹²When you till the ground, it will not again give its strength to you. You shall be a vagabond and a fugitive on the earth. ¹³And Cain said to Jehovah, My punishment is greater than I can bear. ¹⁴Lo, You have driven me out from the face of the earth today. And I shall be hidden from Your face. And I shall be a vagabond and a fugitive on the earth. And it will be that anyone who finds me shall kill me. ¹⁵And Jehovah said to him, If anyone kills Cain, he shall be avenged sevenfold. And Jehovah set a mark on Cain, so that anyone who found him should not kill him. ¹⁶And Cain went out from the presence of Jehovah. And he lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. ¹⁷And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enos. And he built a city, and he called the name of the city according to the name of his son, Enoch.

¹⁸And Irad was born to Enoch; and Irad fathered Mehujael. And Mehujael fathered Methusael; and Methusael fathered Lamech. ¹⁹And Lamech took two wives to himself: the name of the first was Adah; and the name of the second was Zillah. ²⁰And Adah bore Jubal; he was the father of those living in tents, and with cattle. ²¹And the name of his brother was Jubal; he was the father of all those playing the harp and the organ. ²²And Zillah also bore Tubalcain, the hammerer of every engraving tool of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah. ²³And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, you wives of Lamech; listen to my words—for I have killed a man because of my wound, and a young man because of my hurt; ²⁴for Cain is avenged sevenfold, and Lamech seventy-seven.

²⁵And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son. And she called his name, Seth, for God has appointed to me another seed in place of Abel, because Cain killed him. ²⁶And a son was also born to Seth, and he called his name, Enos. Then it was begun to call on the name of Jehovah.

¹This is the book of the generations of Adam: In the day that God created man,

He made him in the likeness of God. ²He created them male and female, and blessed them, and called their name Adam in the day when they were created. ³And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years and fathered a son in his own likeness, according to his image, and called his name Seth. ⁴And the days of Adam after he fathered Seth were eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ⁵And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years. And he died.

⁶And Seth lived one hundred and five years, and fathered Enos. ⁷And after he fathered Enos, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ⁸And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years. And he died.

⁹And Enos lived ninety years and fathered Cainan. ¹⁰After he fathered Cainan, Enos lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and he fathered sons and daughters. ¹¹And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years. And he died. ¹²And Cainan lived seventy years and fathered Mahalaleel. ¹³And after he fathered Mahalaleel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years. And he died. ¹⁵And Mahalaleel lived sixty-five years and fathered Jared. ¹⁶And after he fathered Jared, Mahalaleel lived eight hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁷And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred and ninety five years. And he died.

¹⁸And Jared lived one hundred and sixty two years and fathered Enoch. ¹⁹And after he fathered Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁰And all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years. And he died.

²¹And Enoch lived sixty-five years and fathered Methuselah. ²²And Enoch walked with God three hundred years after he fathered Methuselah. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²³And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. ²⁴And Enoch walked with God; then he was not — for God took him.

²⁸And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years and fathered a son. ²⁹And he called his name Noah, saying, This one shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord has cursed. ³⁰And after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ³¹And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years. And he died. ³²And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

¹And it came about that men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them. ²The sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were good. And they took wives for themselves from all those whom they chose. ³And Jehovah said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man; in their erring he is flesh. And his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

The giants were in the earth in those days, and even afterwards when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore to them—they were heroes which existed from ancient time, the men of name.

⁴And Jehovah saw that the evil of man was great on the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the day long. ⁵And Jehovah repented that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved to His heart.

⁶And Jehovah said, I will wipe off man whom I have created from the face of the earth, from man to beast, to the creeping thing and to the bird of the heavens; for I repent that I made them. ⁷And Noah found grace in the eyes of Jehovah.

⁸These are the generations of Noah. Noah, a righteous man, had been perfect among his family — Noah walked with God. ⁹And Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ¹⁰And the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹¹And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupted. For all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth. ¹²And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And behold, I will destroy them along with the earth. ¹³Make an ark of cypress timbers for yourself. You shall make rooms in the ark; and you shall cover it with asphalt inside and out. ¹⁴And you shall make it this way: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. ¹⁵You shall make a window in the ark, and you shall finish it above to a cubit. And you shall set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third stories. ¹⁶And behold, I, even I, am bringing a flood of waters on the earth in order to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under the heavens. Everything which is on the earth shall die. ¹⁷And I will establish My covenant with you. And you shall come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁸And you shall bring into the ark two of every kind, of every living thing of all flesh, to keep alive with you; they shall be male and female; ¹⁹from the fowl after its kind, and from the cattle after its kind, from every creeping thing of the ground after its kind—two from each shall come in to you to keep alive. ²⁰And take for yourself all food that is eaten, and gather to yourself. And let it be for you and for them for food. ²¹And Noah did so, according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

¹And Jehovah said to Noah, You and all your house come into the ark, for I have seen you righteous before Me in this generation. ²You shall take to yourself from every clean animal by sevens, male and female; and from the animal that is not clean by two, male and female. ³And take of the fowl of the heavens by sevens, male and female, to keep alive seed on the face of the earth. ⁴For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and will wipe away every living substance that I have made from off the face of the earth. ⁵And Noah did according to all that Jehovah commanded him.

⁶Noah was a son of six hundred years, and the flood of waters was on the earth. ⁷And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. ⁸And they went in to Noah into the ark, male and female of clean animals, and of animals that are not clean, and of fowl, and of every thing that creeps on the earth, ⁹two by two, as God had commanded Noah.

¹⁰And in time, after the seven days, the waters of the flood came into being on the earth. ¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month, in this day all the fountains of the great deep were risen, and the windows of the heavens were opened up. ¹²And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³In this same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark; ¹⁴they, and every animal after its kind, and every beast after its kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind; and every fowl after its kind, every bird of every wing. ¹⁵And they went in to Noah and to the ark, two and two of all flesh, in which is the breath of life. ¹⁶And those going in went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him. And Jehovah shut behind him.

¹⁷And the flood was on the earth forty days. And the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. ¹⁸And the waters prevailed, and were greatly increased on the earth. And the ark floated on the face of the waters. ¹⁹And the waters were strong, exceedingly violent on the earth, and all the high mountains under the heavens were covered. ²⁰The waters grew strong, fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. ²¹And all flesh that moved on the earth died: the fowl, and cattle, and beast, and every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, and all mankind; ²²all died in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land. ²³And every living thing which was on the face of the earth was wiped away, from man to cattle, and to the creeping things, and the fowl of the heavens. And they were wiped off from the earth, and only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ark. ²⁴And the waters were strong on the earth a hundred and fifty days.

¹And God remembered Noah and every living thing, and all the cattle, which were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. ²And the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were stopped, and the rain from the heavens was restrained. ³And the waters retreated from the earth, going and retreating. And the waters diminished at the end of a hundred and fifty days.

⁷And he sent out a raven, and it went out, going out and returning until the waters were dried up from off the earth. ⁸He also sent out from him the dove, to see if the waters had gone down from off the face of the earth. ⁹But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of all the earth. And he put out his hand and took her, and pulled her in to him into the ark.

¹⁰And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark. ¹¹And the dove came in to him in the evening. And, behold! In her mouth was a newly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had gone down from off the earth. ¹²And he waited another seven days and sent forth the dove. And she did not return again to him any more.

¹³And in the six hundred and first year, at the beginning, on the first of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked. And, behold! The face of the earth was dried. ¹⁴And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. ¹⁵And God spoke to Noah, saying, ¹⁶Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁷Bring out from you every living thing that is with you, of all flesh, of fowl, of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps on the earth; and let them swarm on the earth, and bear, and multiply on the earth. ¹⁸And Noah went out, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him; ¹⁹every animal, every creeping thing, and every fowl; all which creeps on the earth. They went forth out of the ark according to their families.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to Jehovah, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹And Jehovah smelled the delightful odor, and Jehovah said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground for the sake of man, because the imagination of the heart of man is evil from his youth. Yea, I will not again smite every living thing as I have done; ²²while the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

¹And God blessed Noah and his sons. And He said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. ²And your fear and your dread shall be on all the animals of the earth, and on every bird of the heavens, on all that moves on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hands. ³Every creeping thing which is alive shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green plant. ⁴But you shall not eat flesh in its life, its blood. ⁵And surely the blood of your lives I will demand. At the hand of every animal I will demand it, and at the hand of man. I will demand the life of man at the hand of every man's brother. ⁶Whoever sheds man's blood, his blood shall be shed by man. For He made man in the image of God. ⁷And you, be fruitful and multiply. Swarm over the earth and multiply in it.

⁸And God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹Behold, I, even I, am establishing My covenant with you, and with your seed after you, ¹⁰and with every living creature which is with you, among fowl, among cattle, and among every animal of the earth with you, from all that go out from the ark, to every animal of the earth. ¹¹And I have established My covenant with you, and all flesh shall not be cut off again by the waters of a flood; nor shall there ever again be a flood to destroy the earth. ¹²And God said, This is the sign of the covenant which I am about to make between Me and you, and every living soul which is with you, for everlasting generations: ¹³I have set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴And it will be when I gather the clouds on the earth, then the bow shall be seen in the clouds. ¹⁵And I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you, and every living soul in all flesh. And the waters shall not again become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶And the bow shall be in the clouds, and I shall see it, to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living soul, in all flesh which is on the earth.

¹⁷And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.

¹⁸And the sons of Noah that went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan. ¹⁹These are the three sons of Noah, and the whole earth was overspread from them.

and covered the nakedness of their father, their faces backward. And they did not see the nakedness of their father. ²⁴And Noah awoke from his wine. And he came to know what his younger son had done to him. ²⁵And he said, Cursed be Canaan. He shall be a slave of slaves to his brothers. ²⁶And he said, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Shem; and may Canaan be his slave. ²⁷God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall live in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be their slave.

²⁸And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood. ²⁹And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years. And he died.

¹And these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

⁶And Ham's sons were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan. ⁷And the sons of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And Raamah's sons were Sheba and Dedan. ⁸And Cush fathered Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one in the land. ⁹He was a mighty hunter before Jehovah; so it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before Jehovah. ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹From that land he went forth to Assyria and built Nineveh, and Rehoboth the city, and Calah, ¹²and Resen between Nineveh and Calah, which is a great city. ¹³And Mizraim fathered Ludim, and Ananiam, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, ¹⁴and Pathrusim, and Casluhim, who came from the Philistines and Caphtorim.

¹⁵And Canaan fathered his firstborn Sidon, and Heth, ¹⁶and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite, ¹⁷and

the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, ¹⁸and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. And afterward the families of the Canaanites were routed.

¹⁹And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you come to Gerar, as far as Gaza, as you go in towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even to Lasha. ²⁰These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countries, in their nations.

²¹And to Shem was born, even to him, the father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder. ²²The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram. ²³And Aram's sons were Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash. ²⁴And Arpachshad fathered Shalach; and Shalach fathered Eber. ²⁵And two sons were born to Eber; the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. ²⁶And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, ²⁷and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²⁸and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²⁹and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. These all were the sons of Joktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go to Sephar, an eastern mountain. ³¹These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.

³²These were the families of the sons of Noah, by their generations, in their nations. And from these the nations were divided in the earth after the flood.

¹And the whole earth was of one lip and of one speech. ²And it happened, as they pulled up stakes from the east, they found a level valley in the land of Shinar. And they lived there. ³And each one said to his neighbor, Come, let us make brick, and burning burn them. And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. ⁴And they said, Come, let us build a city and a tower with its head in the heavens, and make a name for ourselves, that we not be scattered on the face of all the earth. ⁵And Jehovah came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of Adam had built. ⁶And Jehovah said, Behold, the people is one, and the lip one to all of them, and this they are beginning to do, and now all which they have purposed to do will not be restrained from them. ⁷Come, let Us go down and confuse their language so that they cannot understand one another's speech. ⁸And Jehovah scattered them from there, over the face of all the earth. And they stopped building the city. ⁹On account of this its name is called Babel, because Jehovah confused the language of all the earth there. And Jehovah scattered them abroad from there on the face of all the earth.

¹⁰These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a son of a hundred years and fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. ¹¹And after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived five hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹²And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and fathered Shalach. ¹³And after he fathered Shalach, Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴And Shalach lived thirty years and fathered Eber. ¹⁵And after he fathered Eber, Shalach lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁶And Eber lived thirty-four years and fathered Peleg. ¹⁷And after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

¹⁸And Peleg lived thirty years and fathered Reu. ¹⁹And after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁰And Reu lived thirty-two years and fathered Serug. ²¹And after he fathered Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²²And Serug lived thirty years and fathered Nahor. ²³And after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁴And Nahor lived twenty-nine years and fathered Terah. ²⁵And after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived a hundred and nineteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁶And Terah lived seventy years and fathered

Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

²⁷And these are the generations of Terah: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And Haran fathered Lot. ²⁸And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans. ²⁹And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai. And the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

¹And Jehovah had said to Abram, Go out from your land, and from your kindred, and from your father's house, to the land which I will show you. ²And I will make of you a great nation. And I will bless you and make your name great; and you will be a blessing. ³And I will bless those who bless you, and curse the one despising you. And in you all families of the earth shall be blessed.

⁴And Abram went out, even as Jehovah had spoken to him. And Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he went out from Haran. ⁵And Abram took his wife Sarai, and his brother's son, Lot, and all their substance that they had gained, and the persons they had gotten in Haran. And they went out to go into the land of Canaan. And they came into the land of Canaan. ⁶And Abram passed through the land as far as the place of Shechem, to the Oak of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land. ⁷And Jehovah appeared to Abram and said I will give this land to your seed. And he built an altar there to Jehovah, who appeared to him. ⁸And he moved from there to a mountain on the east of Bethel, and stretched his tent with Bethel toward the sea, and Ai on the east. And he built an altar there to Jehovah, and called on the name of Jehovah. ⁹And Abram pulled up stakes, going on and pulling up toward the Negeb.

¹⁰And a famine was in the land, so Abram went down into Egypt to stay there. For the famine was heavy in the land. ¹¹And when he had drawn near to come to Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, Behold, please, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look upon. ¹²And it will be, when the Egyptians see you, then they will say, This is his wife; and they will kill me, and they will save you alive. ¹³Please say that you are my sister, so that it may be well with me for your sake, and my soul shall live because of you. ¹⁴And it happened, when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful. ¹⁵And Pharaoh's princes saw her, and they praised her before Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶And he did good to Abram because of her. And he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-slaves, and slave-girls, and she-asses, and camels. ¹⁷And Jehovah touched Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. ¹⁸And Pharaoh called for Abram and said, What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me she is your wife? ¹⁹Why did you say, She is my sister? And so I was taking her for my wife. Now, then, see your wife. Take her and go. ²⁰And as Pharaoh commanded his men as to him, even they sent away him and his wife and all that he had.

¹And Abram went up out of Egypt into the Negeb, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot being with him. ²And Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold. ³And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been there at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴to the place of the altar which he had made there at the first. And Abram called on the name of Jehovah there. ⁵And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. ⁶And the land was not able to bear them, for dwelling together, for their wealth was great, so that they could not dwell together. ⁷And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived then in the land.

⁸And Abram said to Lot, Please let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are men, brothers. ⁹Is not all the land before you? Please separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right, then I will go to the left. ¹⁰And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the circuit of Jordan, that it was well-watered — before Jehovah destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah — even like the garden of Jehovah, like the land of Egypt as you come to Zoar. ¹¹Then Lot chose all the circuit of Jordan for himself. And Lot pulled up toward the east. And they were separated, each one from his brother. ¹²And Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the circuit, and tented as far as Sodom. ¹³And the men of Sodom were evil and sinners before Jehovah — exceedingly so.

¹⁴And after Lot had separated from him, Jehovah said to Abram, Now lift up your eyes and look northward and southward and eastward and westward from the place where you are. ¹⁵For all the land which you see I will give to you, and to your seed forever. ¹⁶And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then your seed also will be counted. ¹⁷Rise up! Walk through the land, in its length and in its breadth, for I will give it to you. ¹⁸Then Abram moved his tent and came and lived among the oaks of Mamre, which were in Hebron; and he built an altar to Jehovah there.

laomer for twelve years, and the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵And in the fourteenth year Chedor-laomer and the kings that were with him came and struck the giants in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, ⁶and the Horites in the hills of Seir, as far as Elparan, which is by the wilderness. ⁷And they turned back and came to Enmishpat which is Kadesh, and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon Tamar. ⁸And the king of Sodom went out, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. And they set the battle with them in the valley of Siddim, ⁹with Chedor-laomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal the king of the nations, and Amraphel the king of Shinar, and Arioch the king of Ellasar — four kings with the five. ¹⁰And the valley of Siddim was full of asphalt pits and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there. And they that remained fled to the mountain. ¹¹And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went away. ¹²And they took Lot, the son of Abram's brother, and his goods, and left; and he was living in Sodom.

¹³And one who had escaped came and told Abraham the Hebrew; for he was living among the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Escol and Aner. And these had a covenant with Abram. ¹⁴And when Abram heard that his brother was captured, even then he led out his trained men, born of his household, three hundred and eighteen. And they pursued as far as Dan. ¹⁵And he divided against them by night, he and his slaves, and he struck them, and chased them as far as Hobah, which is on the left of Damascus.

¹⁶And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother, and also the women and the people.

¹⁷And the king of Sodom went out to meet him, after he returned from smiting Chedor-laomer and the kings which were with him, to the valley of Shaveh, it being the valley of the king. ¹⁸And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; and he was the priest of the most high God.

¹⁹And he blessed him and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of Heaven and earth; ²⁰and blessed be the most high God, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him a tithe of all.

²¹And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the persons and take the goods for yourself. ²²And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand to Jehovah, the most high God, the possessor of Heaven and earth, ²³that I will not take from all that is yours, from a thread to a shoe-latchet, and that you may not say, I have made Abram rich. ²⁴Nothing for me; only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

¹After these things the word of Jehovah came to Abram in a vision, saying, Do not fear, Abram; I am your shield, your reward will increase greatly. ²And Abram said, Lord Jehovah, what will You give to me, since I am going childless, and the son of the inheritance of my house is Eleazar of Damascus? ³And Abram said, Behold! You have given no seed to me; and lo, the son of my house is inheriting of me! ⁴And behold! The word of Jehovah came to him saying, This one shall not be your heir. But he that shall come forth out of your own bowels shall be your heir. ⁵And he brought him outside and said, Look now at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And he said to him, So shall your seed be. ⁶And he believed in Jehovah. And He counted it to him for righteousness. ⁷And He said to him, I am Jehovah who caused you to come out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it. ⁸And he said, My Lord Jehovah, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it? ⁹And He said to him, Take for Me a heifer three years old, and a she-goat three years old, and a ram three years old, and a turtledove, even a nestling. ¹⁰And he took all these for Him, and he divided them in the middle; and he laid each piece against one another, but he did not divide the bird. ¹¹And the birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

¹²And it happened as the sun was setting, and a deep sleep fell on Abram; and behold, a terror of great darkness falling on him! ¹³And He said to Abram, You must surely know that your seed shall be an alien in a land not theirs; and they shall serve them. And they shall afflict them four hundred years; ¹⁴and I also will judge that nation whom they shall serve; and afterward they shall come out with great substance. ¹⁵And you shall come to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. ¹⁶And in the fourth generation they shall come here again; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. ¹⁷And it was, the sun had gone down, and it was dark, behold! A smoking furnace, and a torch of fire that passed between those pieces! ¹⁸In that day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying, I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates, ¹⁹the Kenite, and the Kenizite, and the Kadmonite, ²⁰and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the giants, ²¹and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Girgashite, and the Jebusite.

¹And Sarai, Abram's wife, did not bear to him; and to her belonged a female slave, an Egyptian, and her name was Hagar. ²And Sarai said to Abram, See, now, Jehovah has kept me from bearing; go in now to my slave-girl; perhaps I may be built up from her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. ³And Sarai, Abram's wife, took her slave-girl, Hagar, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan. ⁴And he went in to Hagar and she conceived; and she saw that she had conceived, and her mistress was despised in her eyes. ⁵And Sarai said to Abram, My injury be upon you; I gave my slave-girl into your bosom, and she saw that she had conceived, and I was despised in her eyes. Let Jehovah judge between me and you. ⁶But Abram said to Sarai, See, your slave-girl is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes. And

⁷And the Angel of Jehovah found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness; by the fountain in the way of Shur. ⁸And He said, Hagar, Sarai's slave-girl, where did you come from? And where do you go? And she said, I am fleeing from the face of my mistress, Sarai. ⁹And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hand. ¹⁰And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, I will exceedingly multiply your seed, so that it shall not be numbered for multitude. ¹¹And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, See you are with child and shall bear a son; and you shall call his name Ishmael, because Jehovah has attended to your affliction. ¹²And he shall be a wild ass of a man; his hand against all, and the hand of everyone against him; and he shall live before all his brothers. ¹³And she called the name of Jehovah, the One speaking to her, You, a God of vision! For she said, Even here have I looked after the One seeing me? ¹⁴On account of this, the well was called, The Well of the Living One Seeing Me. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. ¹⁵And Hagar bore a son to Abram, and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. ¹⁶And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

¹And when Abram was ninety-nine years old, Jehovah appeared to Abram and said to him, I am the Almighty God! Walk before me and be perfect; ²and I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly. ³And Abram fell on his face. And God spoke with him, saying, ⁴As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. ⁵And your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. ⁶And I will make you very fruitful, greatly so. And I will give you (for) nations. And kings shall come out of you. ⁷And I will establish My covenant between Me and you, and your seed after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your seed after you. ⁸And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land of your sojourning, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be their God.

⁹And God said to Abraham, You shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you in their generations. ¹⁰This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you: Every man-child among you shall be circumcised. ¹¹And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a token of the covenant between Me and you. ¹²And a son of eight days shall be circumcised among you, every male in your generation, he that is born in the house, or bought with silver from any son of a foreigner who is not of your seed. ¹³Surely the child of your house and the purchase of your money must be circumcised. My covenant shall be in your flesh for a perpetual covenant. And an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, his soul shall be cut off from his people—he has broken My covenant.

¹⁴And God said to Abraham, You shall not call your wife Sarai by her name Sarai, for Sarah shall be her name; ¹⁵and I have blessed her and have also given to you a son from her. Yea, I have blessed her and she shall become nations; kings of people shall be from her. ¹⁶And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. And he said in his heart, Shall a child be born to a son of a hundred years? And shall Sarah bear, a daughter of ninety years? ¹⁷And Abraham said to God, O that Ishmael might live before You! ¹⁸And God said, Your wife Sarah truly shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac. And I have established My covenant with him for a perpetual covenant with his seed after him. ¹⁹And as to Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. ²⁰And I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this time next year. ²¹And He finished talking with him. And God went up from Abraham.

²²And Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the children of his house, and all that were bought with his silver — every male among the men of the house of Abraham. And he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins in that same day, even as God spoke to him.

²³And Abraham was a son of ninety-nine years when being circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁴And His son Ishmael was a son of thirteen years when being circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁵In the same day that Abraham was circumcised, so was Ishmael his son. ²⁶And all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with silver from a son of a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

¹And Jehovah appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre. And he was sitting at the door of the tent in the heat of the day. ²And he lifted up his eyes and looked; and, behold, three men were standing by him. And he saw, and he ran to meet them from the entrance of the tent. And he bowed to the ground. ³And he said, My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, I beg You, do not leave from near Your servant. ⁴Please allow a little water to be taken and You wash Your feet, and rest under the tree. ⁵And I will bring a bite of bread and will sustain Your heart. Then You may pass on, for this is why You have passed over to Your servant. And they said, Do so, as you have said. ⁶And Abraham ran into the tent to Sarah and said, Hurry, prepare three measures of fine meal, knead it and make cakes. ⁷And Abraham ran to the herd and brought a son of the herd, tender and good, and gave it to a youth. And he hurried to prepare it. ⁸And he took curds and milk and the son of the herd which he had prepared, and he set them before them. And he stood by them under the tree. And they ate.

⁹And they said to him, Where is your wife Sarah? And he said, See, in the tent. ¹⁰And He said, I will certainly return to you at the time of life; and, behold, a son shall be to your wife Sarah. And Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, and it was behind Him. ¹¹And Abraham and Sarah were aged, going on in days. The custom as to women had ceased to be to Sarah. ¹²And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After my being old, shall there be pleasure to me, my lord also being old? ¹³And Jehovah said to Abraham, Why has Sarah laughed at this, saying, Indeed, truly shall I bear, even I who am old? ¹⁴Is anything too difficult for Jehovah? At the appointed time I will return to you, at the time of life, and there will be a son to Sarah. ¹⁵And Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh—for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

¹⁶And the men rose up from there and looked on the face of Sodom. And Abraham was going with them, to send them away.

¹⁷And Jehovah said, Shall I hide from Abraham that which I am doing? ¹⁸And Abraham shall become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? ¹⁹For I have known him, so that whatever he may command his sons and his house after him, even they may keep the way of Jehovah, to do righteousness and justice; to the intent that Jehovah may bring on Abraham that which He has spoken of him. ²⁰And Jehovah said, The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and their sin is exceedingly heavy. ²¹I will go down and see if they have at all done according to the cry coming to Me. And if not, I will know.

²⁶And Jehovah said, If I find fifty righteous within the city, in Sodom, the. I will spare all the place because of them. ²⁷And Abraham answered and said, Behold, I beg You, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord, and I am dust and ash. ²⁸Perhaps there will be lacking from the fifty righteous; will You destroy all the city for the five? And He said, If I find forty-five there, I will not destroy. ²⁹And he continued still to speak to Him and said, Perhaps forty will be found there. And He said, I will not do it because of the forty. ³⁰And he said, Please do not let my Lord be angry, that I may speak; perhaps thirty will be found there. And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there. ³¹And he said, Behold, I beg You, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord; perhaps twenty will be found there. And He said I will not destroy because of the twenty. ³²And he said, I beg You, let not my Lord be angry that I may speak only this time; perhaps ten will be found there. And He said, I will not destroy because of the ten. ³³And when Jehovah had finished speaking to Abraham, then Abraham returned to his place.

¹And the two angels came into Sodom at evening. And Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw, and he rose up to meet them and bowed his face to the earth. ²And he said, Behold, now, my lords, please turn into your servant's house and lodge, and wash your feet; and rise early and go to your way. And they said, No, for we will lodge in the street. ³And he much urged them, and they turned in to him and came into his house. And he made a feast for them. And he baked cakes, and they ate. ⁴Before they had laid down, even the men of the city, the men of Sodom, circled the house; from the young to the aged, all the people from its limits. ⁵And they called to Lot and said to him, Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them. ⁶And Lot went out to them, to the door, and he closed the door behind him. ⁷And he said, My brothers, please do not act evilly. ⁸Behold, now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please let me bring them out to you and do to them as you see fit; only do not do a thing to these men, because on account of this they came into the shade of my roof.

⁹And they said, Stand back! And they said, This one came in to visit, and must he always judge? Now we will do evil to you rather than to them. And they pressed on the man, upon Lot violently, and drew near to break the door. ¹⁰But the men put out their hands and pulled Lot to them, into the house, and shut the door. ¹¹And they struck the men at the door of the house with blindness, from the small to the great; and they struggled to find the door. ¹²And the men said to Lot, Who still is here to you? Bring out of this place your sons and your sons-in-laws and your daughters, and whoever belongs to you in the city. ¹³For we are about to destroy this place, for the cry of them is great before Jehovah, and Jehovah has sent us to destroy it. ¹⁴And Lot went out to speak to his sons-in-laws, those taking his daughters, and he said, Rise up, go out from this place, for Jehovah is about to destroy the city. And he seemed as one joking to his sons-in-laws.

¹⁵And when the dawn rose, then the angels urged Lot, saying, Rise up, take your wife and your two daughters who are found, lest you be cut off in the perversity of the city. ¹⁶And he lingered. And the men lay hold of his hand and the hand of his wife, and on the hand of his two daughters., Jehovah having mercy on him. And they caused him to go out, and they put him down outside the city. ¹⁷And it happened as they led them outside, he said, Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stay in all the plain. Escape to the mountain, lest you be swept away. ¹⁸And Lot said to them, Oh no, Lord! ¹⁹Behold, now, Your servant has found grace in Your sight, and You have magnified Your mercy which You have shown to me in saving my life. And I am not able to escape to the mountain lest some evil overtake me and I die. ²⁰Behold, now, this city is near, to flee there, and it is a little one. Please let me escape there! Is it not a little thing, that my soul may live? ²¹And He said to him, See, I have lifted up your face also as to this thing, without overthrowing the city for which you have spoken. ²²Hurry, escape there, for I am not able to do anything until you have come there. So the name of the city was called Zoar.

²⁴And Jehovah rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from Jehovah out of the heavens. ²⁵And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all those living in the cities, and the produce of the ground. ²⁶And his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

³⁰And Lot went up out of Zoar and lived in the mount. And his two daughters were with him. For he feared to live in Zoar. And he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters. ³¹And the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come in to us as is the way of all the earth. ³²Come, let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him, that we may keep alive seed of our father. ³³And they caused their father to drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father. And he did not know when she lay down nor when she rose up. ³⁴And on the next day it happened, the firstborn said to the younger, Behold, I lay with my father last night. Let us cause him to drink wine tonight also. And you go in and lie with him, so that we may keep alive seed of our father. ³⁵And they caused their father to drink wine that night also. And the younger rose up and lay with him. And he did not know when she lay down, or nor when she rose up. ³⁶And both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. ³⁷And the firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of Moab to this day. ³⁸And the younger also bore a son and called his name Ben-ammi; he is the father of the Ammonites to this day.

¹And Abraham moved from there to the land of the south, and lived between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar. ²And Abraham said with regards to his wife Sarah, She is my sister. And Abimelech the king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. ³But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, Behold, you are about to die because of the woman you have taken, she being married to a husband. ⁴And Abimelech had not come near her. And he said, O Lord, will You slay even a righteous nation? ⁵Did he not say to me, She is my sister? And she, even she herself said, He is my brother. In the honor of my heart and the purity of my hands I have done this. ⁶And God said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the honor of your heart, and I also withheld you from sinning against Me. On account of this I did not allow you to touch her. ⁷And now return the wife of the man, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you shall live. And if you do not return her, know that you shall surely die, you and all that are yours.

⁸And Abimelech started up early in the morning and called for all his servants. And he spoke all these words in their ears. And the men were greatly afraid. ⁹And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, What have you done to us? And in what have I offended you that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done things to me that ought not to be done. ¹⁰And Abimelech said to Abraham, What did you see that you have done this thing? ¹¹And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place, and they will kill me for my wife's sake. ¹²And yet she really is my sister, daughter of my father; only not daughter of my mother. And she became my wife. ¹³And when God made me wander from my father's house I said to her, This is your kindness which you do to me: at every place where we come there, say of me, He is my brother. ¹⁴Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male slaves, and slavegirls, and gave to Abraham. And he returned his wife Sarah to him.

¹⁵Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before you. Live where it pleases you. ¹⁶And he said to Sarah, I, behold, I have given a thousand of silver to your brother. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all who are with you. And with all this you are justified. ¹⁷And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his concubines, and they gave birth. ¹⁸For Jehovah had completely closed up every womb of the house of Abimelech on the matter of Sarah, the wife of Abraham.

¹And Jehovah visited Sarah as He had said. Yea, the Lord did to Sarah as He had spoken. ²And Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the time appointed, that which God had spoken with him. ³And Abraham called the name of the son who was born to him, whom Sarah had borne to him, Isaac. ⁴And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, a son of eight days, as God had commanded him.

⁵And Abraham was a son of a hundred years when his son Isaac was born to him. ⁶And Sarah said, God has made laughter for me; all who hear will laugh with me. ⁷And she said to Abraham, Will Sarah suckle sons? For I have borne a son to his old age.

⁸And the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned. ⁹And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, he whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking. ¹⁰And she said to Abraham, Drive away this slavegirl and her son, for the son of this slavegirl shall not inherit with my son, with Isaac. ¹¹And the thing was very crushing in the eyes of Abraham, on account of his son. ¹²And God said to Abraham, Let it not be crushing in your eyes because of the boy, and on your slavegirl. All that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, for in Isaac your seed shall be called. ¹³And also I will make a nation of the son of the slavegirl, for he is your seed. ¹⁴And Abraham started up early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water. And he gave to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away. And she left

¹⁵And the water from the skin was finished, and she put the boy under one of the shrubs. ¹⁶And she went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away. For she said, Let me not see the death of the boy. And she sat opposite and raised her voice and wept. ¹⁷And God heard the voice of the young boy. And the angel of God called to Hagar out of the heavens. And He said to her, What ails you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the boy, there where he is. ¹⁸Rise up; lift up the boy and make your hand strong on him, for I will make of him a great nation. ¹⁹And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave drink to the young boy.

²⁰And God was with the boy. And he grew up. And he lived in the wilderness and became a great archer. ²¹And he lived in the wilderness of Parah. And his mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt. ²²And at that time Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, God is with you in all that you do. ²³And now swear to me here by God, that you will not lie to me, and to my son, and to my heir, according to the kindness which I have sworn to you. Do to me and to the land in which you have lived. ²⁴And Abraham said, I will swear. ²⁵And Abraham reproved Abimelech on account of a well of water which the slaves of Abimelech had seized. ²⁶And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing; and also you have not told me; even I have not heard, except today. ²⁷And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave to Abimelech, and both of them cut a covenant. ²⁸And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. ²⁹And Abimelech said to Abraham, What are these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves? ³⁰And he said, You shall take the seven ewe lambs from my hand so that it may become for me a witness that I dug this well. ³¹On account of this that place is called The Well of Sheba, because the two of them swore there. ³²And they cut a covenant in Beer-sheba. And Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, rose up; and they returned to the land of the Philistines. ³²And he planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and there he called on the name of Jehovah the everlasting God.

³⁴And Abraham lived in the land of the Philistines many days.

¹And after these things, testing Abraham, God said to him, Abraham! And he said, Behold me. ²And He said, Now take your son, Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go into the land of Moriah. And there offer him for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will say to you. ³And Abraham started up early in the morning and saddled his ass, and he took two of his youths with him, and his son Isaac. And he split wood for a burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place which God had said to him. ⁴And on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance. ⁵And Abraham said to his young men, You stay here with the ass. I and the boy will go on to that place, that we may worship, and may return to you. ⁶And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac; and he took the fire and the knife in his hand. And the two went together. ⁷And Isaac spoke to his father Abraham and said, My father. And he said, Behold me. And he said, See, the fire and the wood! But where is the lamb for a burnt offering? ⁸And Abraham said, My son, God will see to it with a lamb for Himself, for a burnt offering. And the two of them went together. ⁹And they came to the place which God had said to him. And Abraham built there the altar, and arranged the wood. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the alter, on the wood. ¹⁰And Abraham put out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. ¹¹And the Angel of Jehovah called to him from the heavens and said, Abraham! And he said, Behold me. ¹²And He said, Do not lay your hand on the boy, nor do anything to him. For now I know that you are a God-fearer, and you have not withheld your son, your only one, from Me. ¹³And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold! A ram behind him was entangled in a thicket by its horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it for a burnt offering instead of his son. ¹⁴And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah Will See; so that it is said until this day, In the mount of Jehovah it will be seen.

¹⁵And the Angel of Jehovah called to Abraham out of the heavens a second time. ¹⁶And He said, I have sworn by Myself, declares Jehovah, that on account of this thing you have done, and not have withheld your son, your only son, ¹⁷that blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and as the sand which is on the shore of the sea. And your Seed shall possess the gate of His enemies. ¹⁸And in your Seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed as reward in that you have obeyed My voice. ¹⁹And Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

²⁰And after these things it was told to Abraham, saying, Behold! Milcah, she also, has borne sons to your brother Nahor: ²¹Uz, his firstborn, Buz, and Kemuel, the father of Aram, ²²and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel. ²³And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight to Nahor, the brother of Abraham. ²⁴And his concubine called Reuman, she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

withhold his burying-place from you, from burying your dead. ⁷And Abraham rose up and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth. ⁸And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your desire to bury my dead from before the eyes, hear me. Ask for me of Ephron the son of Zohar, ⁹that he may give to me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is in the edge of his field. In full silver let him give it to me among you, for a possession of a burying-place. ¹⁰And Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite replied to Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, to all those entering the gate of his city, saying, ¹¹No, my lord, hear me. I have given the field to you; also the cave that is in it, I have given it to you. Before the eyes of the sons of my people I have given it to you. Bury your dead.

¹²And Abraham bowed before the people of the land, ¹³and spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, Only if you would hear me. I have given the silver for the field; take it from me, that I may bury my dead there. ¹⁴And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, ¹⁵My lord, hear me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between me and you? And bury your dead. ¹⁶And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver of which he had spoken in the ears of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver shekels which passes with the merchant. ¹⁷And was certified the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the cave and the field in it, and all the trees in the field, which were in all its borders around it, ¹⁸to Abraham for a purchase before the sons of Heth, with all entering the gate of his city.

¹⁹And after this Abraham buried his wife Sarah at the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre; it is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. ²⁰And the field was certified, and the cave in it, to Abraham for a burial possession from the sons of Heth.

¹And Abraham was old, going on in days, and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in all things. ²And Abraham said to his slave, oldest in his house, the one who governed in all that was to him, Please put your hand under my thigh. ³And I will cause you to swear by Jehovah, God of the heavens and God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, among whom I dwell. ⁴But you shall go to my country and to my kindred and take a wife for my son, for Isaac. ⁵And the slave said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to go after me to this land; shall I indeed bring back your son into the land from where you came out? ⁶And Abraham said to him, Take heed for yourself that you not take my son back there. ⁷Jehovah, God of Heaven, who took me from the house of my father and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, I will give this land to your Seed; He shall send His Angel before you, and you shall take a wife from there for my son. ⁸And if the woman will not be willing to go after you, then you shall be clear from this my oath; only do not take back there my son. ⁹And the slave put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore to him concerning this thing.

¹⁶And the girl was very good of form, a virgin, a man not knowing her. And she went down to the well and filled her pitcher and came up. ¹⁷And the slave ran to meet her and said, Please let me sip a little water from your pitcher. ¹⁸And she said, Drink, my lord. And she hurried and let down her pitcher on her hand and gave drink to him. ¹⁹And she finished giving drink to him. And she said, I also will draw for your camels until they have finished drinking. ²⁰And she hurried and emptied her pitcher into the trough. And she again ran to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels. ²¹And watching her, the man kept silent in order to know if Jehovah had prospered his way, or not.

²⁸And the girl ran and told these things to the house of her mother. ²⁹And Rebekah had a brother, his name being Laban. And Laban ran out to the man, to the fountain. ³⁰And when he saw the ring, and the bracelets on the hands of his sister, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, So the man spoke to me, then he came to the man and saw him standing by the camels at the fountain. ³¹And he said, Come in, blessed of Jehovah! Why are you standing outside? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels. ³²And the man came into the house. And he unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³And food was set before him to eat, but he said, I will not eat until I have spoken my message. And he said, Speak. ³⁴And he said, I am the slave of Abraham. ³⁵And Jehovah has blessed my master much, and he is great. And He has given to him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male slaves and slavegirls, and camels and asses. ³⁶And my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old, and he has given to him all that is his. ³⁷And my master caused me to swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, in whose land I live. ³⁸But you shall go to the house of my father and to my family, and you shall take a wife for my son. ³⁹And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not go after me. ⁴⁰And he said to me, Jehovah, before whom I walk, will send His Angel with you and prosper you way. And you shall take a wife for my son from my family, from my father's house. ⁴¹Then you shall be released from my oath, when you have come to my family, and if they do not give one to you; then you shall be released from my oath. ⁴²And today I came to the well. And I said, Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, if You will, I pray, prosper the way in which I am about to go. ⁴³Behold, I stand at the well of water, and when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher, ⁴⁴and she says to me, Both you drink and also I will draw for your camels, may she be the woman whom Jehovah has designed for my master's son. ⁴⁵Before I had finished speaking within my heart, even behold, Rebekah was going out, her pitcher on her neck. And she went down to the well and drew. And I said to her, Please let me drink. ⁴⁶And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her and said, Drink, and I also will water your camels. And I drank, and also she watered the camels. ⁴⁷And I asked her and I said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands. ⁴⁸And I bowed and worshiped Jehovah, and I blessed Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the true way, to take for his son the daughter of the brother of my master.

⁵⁰And Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing has come from Jehovah; we are not able to speak to you good or evil. ⁵¹Behold! Rebekah is before you, take her and go. And let her become the wife of the son of your master, as Jehovah has spoken. ⁵²And when the slave of Abraham heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth to Jehovah. ⁵³And the slave brought out vessels of silver and vessels of gold and garments, and he gave to Rebekah. And he gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. ⁵⁴And they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him; and they stayed the night. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master. ⁵⁵And her brother and her mother said, Let the girl stay with us, perhaps ten days. Afterwards she may go. ⁵⁶And he said to them, Do not delay me, for Jehovah has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master. ⁵⁷And they said, we will call the girl and ask of her mouth. ⁵⁸And they called Rebekah and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go. ⁵⁹And they sent away their sister Rebekah, and her nurse, and Abraham's slave and his men. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, Our sister, may you become myriads of thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of their haters. ⁶¹And Rebekah and her young women rose up, and they rode on the camels and went after the man. And the slave took Rebekah and went.

⁶²And Isaac had come from the gate of the Well of the Living One My Beholder—and he was dwelling in the land of the Negeb. ⁶³And Isaac had gone out to meditate in the field as it turned evening. And he raised his eyes and looked. And behold, camels were coming. ⁶⁴And Rebekah lifted her eyes and she saw Isaac. And she quickly dismounted from the camel. ⁶⁵And she said to the slave, Who is this man walking in the field to meet us? And the slave said, It is my master. And she took the veil and covered herself. ⁶⁶And the slave told Isaac all the things that he had done. ⁶⁷And Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah. And he took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after his mother.

¹And Abraham added and took a wife, and her name was Keturah. ²And she bore to him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. ³And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim and Leummim. ⁴And the sons of Midian: Ephah, and Ephraim, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. ⁵And Abraham gave all that was his to Isaac. ⁶And to the sons of the concubines who were to Abraham, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away eastward, from his son Isaac, while still alive, to an eastern land.

¹²And these are the generations of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, the slavegirl of Sarah, bore to Abraham. ¹³And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the first-born of Ishmael was Nebajoth; then Kedlar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, ¹⁴and Mishma, and Duman, and Massa, ¹⁵Haddad, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶These were the sons of Ishmael, and these their names in their settlements and in their camps, twelve chiefs according to their nations. ¹⁷And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred thirty-seven years. And he expired and died, and was gathered to his people. ¹⁸And they lived from Havilah to Shur, which is facing Egypt as you come toward Assyria; he settled facing all his brothers.

²⁴And her days were fulfilled to bear. And behold! Twins were in her womb. ²⁵And the first came out, all of him red like a hairy robe; and they called his name Esau. ²⁶And afterward his brother came out, and his hand was holding to the heel of Esau; and his name was called Jacob. And Isaac was a son of sixty years when she bore them. ²⁷And the boys grew up. And Esau became a man knowing hunting, a man of the field. And Jacob was a simple man, living in tents. ²⁸And Isaac loved Esau, for game was in his mouth. And Rebekah loved Jacob. ²⁹And Jacob boiled soup. And Esau came from the field, and he was faint. ³⁰And Esau said to Jacob, Please let me eat of the red, this red soup, for I am faint —on account of this his name is called Edom. ³¹And Jacob said, Sell me your birthright today. ³²And Esau said, Behold, I am going to die, and what good is this, a birthright to me? ³³And Jacob said, Swear to me today. And he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴And Jacob gave bread and soup of lentils to Esau. And he ate and drank, and rose up and left. And Esau despised the birthright.

¹And a famine was in the land besides the famine which was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. ²And Jehovah appeared to him and said, Do not go down into Egypt; stay in the land which I shall say to you. ³Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your seed I will give all these lands. And I will cause to rise My oath which I swore to your father Abraham. ⁴And I will increase your seed like the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your seed all these lands. And all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves in your seed, ⁵because Abraham heeded to My voice and heeded My charge, My commands, My statutes, and My laws.

⁶And Isaac lived in Gerar. ⁷And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, She is my sister, for he was afraid to say, My wife, lest the men of the place kill me on account of Rebekah, for she was beautiful of form. ⁸And it happened when his days were many to him there, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through the window and saw; and, behold, Isaac was sporting with his wife Rebekah. ⁹And Abimelech called Isaac and said, See, surely she is your wife, and how have you said, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, lest I die on account of her. ¹⁰And Abimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people had in a little lain with your wife, and you would have caused to come on us guilt.

¹¹And Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, Anyone touching this man and his wife shall surely be put to death.

¹²And Isaac sowed in that land. And a hundredfold was found in that year, and Jehovah blessed him. ¹³And the man grew great, and he went on, going on to be great, until he became exceedingly great. ¹⁴And possessions of flocks and possessions of herds, and many slaves were his. And the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵And all the wells which the slaves of his father dug in the days of his father Abraham, the Philistines had stopped them and filled them with dirt. ¹⁶And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go from us, for you are stronger than we.

¹⁸And Isaac returned and dug the wells of water which they dug in the days of his father Abraham; and the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. And he called names to them like the names which his father had called them. ¹⁹And Isaac's slaves dug in the torrent-bed, and they found there a well of living water. ²⁰And the shepherds of Gerar fought with the shepherds of Isaac, saying, The water is ours; and he called the name of the well, Contention, for they had contended with him. ²¹And they dug another well, and they also fought over it; and he called its name, Opposition. ²²And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not fight over it; and he called its name, Broad Places. And he said, For now Jehovah has broadened for us and we shall be fruitful in the land.

²⁴And Jehovah appeared to him in the same night, and said, I am the God of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you; and I will bless you and increase your seed, because of My servant Abraham. ²⁵And he built an altar there and called on the name of Jehovah. And he pitched his tent there. And the slaves of Isaac dug a well there.

²⁶And Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and his aide Ahuzzath, and Phicol the general of his army. ²⁷And Isaac said to them, Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you? ²⁸And they said, Seeing we have seen that Jehovah has been with you, and we have said, let there be an oath now between us, between us and you, and let us cut a covenant with you, ²⁹whether you will do with us evil, as we did not touch you, and as we did only good with you, and we sent you away in peace; you now being blessed of Jehovah. ³⁰And he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

³¹And they started up early at dawn, and each swore to his brother. And Isaac sent them away, and they left him in peace.

³²And it happened on that day Isaac's slaves came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, We found water. ³³And he called it Shibah; so the name of the city is Beer-sheba until this day.

³⁴And Esau was a son of forty years.

And he took a wife, Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite; also Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. And they were a grief of spirit to Isaac and to Rebekah.

¹And it happened when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim for seeing, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, My son! And he said to him, Behold me. ²And he said, See, now, I am old; I do not know the day of my death. ³And now please lift up your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go to the field and hunt game for me. ⁴And make for me delicious things, such as I love, and bring to me, and I will eat; so that my soul may bless you before I die. ⁵And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. And Esau went to the field to hunt game, to bring it in. ⁶And Rebekah spoke to her son Jacob, saying, Behold, I heard your father speaking to your brother Esau saying, 'Bring game to me and make delicious things that I may eat, and may bless you before Jehovah before I die. ⁸And now my son hear my voice, that which I command you. ⁹Go now to the flock and bring me from there two good kids of the goats. And I will make them into delicious things for your father, such as he loves; ¹⁰and you shall bring it to your father and let him eat, so that he may bless you before his death. ¹¹And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, Behold, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I a smooth man. ¹²Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall be like a deceiver in his eyes, and I shall bring a curse on me, and not blessing. ¹³And his mother said to him, Your curse be on me, my son; only listen to my voice and go, take for me. ¹⁴And he went and took and came to his mother. And his mother made delicious things, such as his father loved. ¹⁵And Rebekah took the clothing of her elder son Esau, the costly ones which were with her in the house. And she dressed her younger son Jacob; ¹⁶and she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smoothness of his neck. ¹⁷And she put the delicious things and the bread which she had made in the hand of her son Jacob. ¹⁸And he went in to his father and said, My father. And he said, Behold me. Who are you, my son? ¹⁹And Jacob said to his father, I am your firstborn, Esau. I have done as you said to me. Rise up now, sit and eat of my game, so that your soul may bless me. ²⁰And Isaac said to his son, How then have you quickly found it, my son? And he said, Because Jehovah your God made it come to me.

²¹And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near now and let me feel you, whether then you are my son Esau, or not. ²²And Jacob came near to his father Isaac. And he felt him, and he said, The voice is the voice of Jacob and the hands are Esau's hands. ²³And he did not know him, because his hands were like the hairy hands of his brother Esau. And he blessed him. ²⁴And he said, Are you then my son Esau? And he said, I am. ²⁵And he said, Bring to me and let me eat of my son's game, so that my soul may bless you. And he came near to him; and he took and he ate. And he came to him, and he drank wine. ²⁶And his father Isaac said to him, Now come and kiss me, my son. ²⁷And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothes. And he blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which Jehovah has blessed. ²⁸And my God give you of the dew of the heavens, and of the fatness of the earth, and much grain and wine. ²⁹May the nations serve you and peoples bow to you; be a ruler to your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow to you, and cursed be those who curse you, and blessed be those who bless you.

³⁴When Esau heard the words of his father he cried out a great and very bitter cry. And he said to his father, Bless me, me also, my father. ³⁵And he said, Your brother came with deceit and took your blessing. ³⁶And he said, It is because his name is called Jacob, and this twice he took me by the heel; he took my birthright and, behold, now he has taken my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me? ³⁷And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold, I have set him over you as a ruler, and I have given him all his brothers for servants; I have girded him with grain and wine. And what then can I do for you, my son? ³⁸And Esau said to his father, Is one blessing left to you, my father? Bless me, me also, my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. ³⁹And his father Isaac answered and said to him, Behold, your abode shall be from the fat of the earth and from the dew of the heavens above; ⁴⁰and you shall live by your sword, and you shall serve your brother; and when it shall be that you fight, you shall break his yoke from your neck.

⁴¹And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob. ⁴²And the words of her older son Esau were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called her younger son Jacob. And she said to him, See, your brother Esau is going to ease himself on you, to kill you. ⁴³And now, my son, listen to my voice, and rise, flee for yourself to my brother Laban, to Haran. ⁴⁴And stay with him some days until your brother's fury turns away, until your brother's anger turns back from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. And I will send you and take you from there. Why should I also be bereaved of two of you in one day?

⁴⁵And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life before the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these from the daughters of the land, what is my life to me?

¹And Isaac called Jacob. And he blessed him and commanded him, and said to him, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. ²Rise up, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father. And take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban the brother of your mother. ³And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful, and add to you; and may you become an assembly of nations. ⁴And may He give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, for you to possess the land of your travels, which God gave to Abraham. ⁵And Isaac sent away Jacob. And he went to Padan-aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau. ⁶And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and had sent him away to Padan-aram to take a wife for himself from there. In his blessing he had commanded him saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan; ⁷and that Jacob listened to his father and his mother, and went to Padan-aram. ⁸And when Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the eyes of his father Isaac, then Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, Nebajoth's sister. To his wives he added her for his wife.

⁹And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. ¹⁰And he came on a place and stayed the night there, for the sun had gone. And he took stones of the place and placed them at his head; and he lay down in that place. ¹¹And he dreamed. And, behold, a ladder was placed on the earth, its top reaching to the heavens. And, behold, the angels of God were going up and going down on it! ¹²And, behold, Jehovah stood above it and said, I am Jehovah the God of your father Abraham, and the god of Isaac; the land on which you are lying, I will give it to you and to your seed. ¹³And your seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and you shall spread to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your seed. ¹⁴And, behold, I will be with you and will guard you in every place in which you may go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not forsake you until I have surely done that which I have spoken to you. ¹⁶And Jacob awakened from his sleep, and said, Surely Jehovah is in this place, and I did not know. ¹⁷And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! This is nothing except the house of God, and this is the door to Heaven.

¹⁸And Jacob started up early in the morning and took the stone which he had placed at his head, and he placed it as a pillar; and he poured oil on the top of it. ¹⁹And he called the name of that place, The House of God. And yet the name of the city was at first Luz. ²⁰And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God is with me and keeps me in this way which I am going, and gives to me bread to eat and clothing to wear, ²¹and I return in peace to the house of my father, then Jehovah shall be my God, ²²and this stone which I have placed as a memorial pillar shall become the house of God; and all which You shall give to me, I will tithe the tenth to You.

¹And Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east. ²And he looked, and, behold, a well in the field. And, behold, three flocks of sheep were lying by it; for from that well they watered the flocks, and the stone on the mouth of the well was great. ³And all the flocks were usually gathered there, and they rolled the stone off the mouth of the well and watered the sheep, and replaced the stone on the mouth of the well, to its place.

⁴And Jacob said to them, My brothers, from where are you? And they said, We are from Haran. ⁵And he said to them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him. ⁶And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, Well. And, behold, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep. ⁷And he said, See, the day is still high; it is not time to gather the livestock. Water the sheep and go feed them. ⁸And they said, We are not able until all the flocks are gathered and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep. ⁹He still was speaking with them, and Rachel came with the sheep which were her father's; for she was a shepherdess. ¹⁰And it happened when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, brother to his mother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, Jacob came near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of Laban, the brother of his mother. ¹¹And Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept. ¹²And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was the son of Rebekah. And she ran and told her father.

¹³And when Laban heard the report of Jacob, his sister's son, he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him. And he took him to his house. And he told Laban all these things. ¹⁴And Laban said to him, Truly you are my bone and my flesh. And he lived with him a month of days. ¹⁵And Laban said to Jacob, Are you not my brother? And should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall be your wages? ¹⁶And Laban had two daughters, the name of the older, Leah, and the name of the younger, Rachel. ¹⁷And the eyes of Leah were weak, and Rachel was beautiful of form and beautiful of appearance.

²³And it happened in the evening, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him; and he went in to her. ²⁴And Laban gave to her Zilpah, his slavegirl, to his daughter Leah as a slave.

years. ²⁸And Jacob did so, and he fulfilled the week of this one, and he gave to him his daughter Rachel, to him for a wife. ²⁹And Laban gave his slavegirl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel, to her for a slavegirl. ³⁰And he also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with him yet another seven years.

³¹And Jehovah saw that Leah was hated. And He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. ³²And Leah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Reuben; for she said, Surely Jehovah has looked on my affliction, for now my husband will love me. ³³And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, Surely Jehovah has heard that I am hated and has given this one to me also. And she called his name Simeon. ³⁴And she conceived again and bore a son. And she said, Now, this time, my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne to him three sons. So his name was called Levi. ³⁵And she conceived again and bore a son. And she said, This time I praise Jehovah. So she called his name Judah. And she ceased from bearing.

¹And Rachel saw that she did not bear to Jacob, and Rachel was jealous of her sister. And she said to Jacob, Give me sons; and if there is none, I shall die. ²And Jacob's anger glowed against Rachel, and he said, Am I in God's place, who has kept back from you the fruit of the womb? ³And she said, Behold, my servant Bilhah! Go in to her and let her bear on my knees; yea, let me be built up from her, me also. ⁴And she gave her slavegirl Bilhah to him for a wife. And Jacob went in to her. ⁵And Bilhah conceived and bore a son to Jacob. ⁶And Rachel said, God has judged and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son. So she called his name Dan. ⁷And Bilhah, Rachel's slavegirl, conceived again, and bore a second son to Jacob. ⁸And Rachel said, with struggles of God I have struggled with my sister; yea, I have been able. And she called his name Naphtali.

⁹And Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing. And she took Zilpah, her slavegirl, and gave her to Jacob for a wife. ¹⁰And Leah's slavegirl Zilpah bore a son to Jacob. ¹¹And Leah said, With fortune. And she called his name Gad. ¹²And Zilpah, Leah's slavegirl, bore a second son to Jacob. ¹³And Leah said, In my happiness; for the daughters shall call me happy. And she called his name Asher.

¹⁴And in the days of wheat harvest Reuben went out and found love-apples in the field. And he brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah, Please give to me from the love-apples of your son. ¹⁵And she said to her, Is your taking my husband a little thing? Will you also take my son's love-apples? And Rachel said, So he shall be with you tonight, for your son's love-apples. ¹⁶And Jacob came in from the field at evening. And Leah went out to meet him. And she said, You must come in to me, for surely I have hired you with my son's love-apples. And he lay with her during that night. ¹⁷And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son to Jacob. ¹⁸And Leah said, God has given my hire; I gave my slavegirl to my husband. And she called his name Issachar.

¹⁹And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob. ²⁰And Leah said, God has given me a good present. This time my husband will live with me, because I have borne six sons to him. And she called his name Zebulun. ²¹And afterwards she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah. ²²And God remembered Rachel; and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³And she conceived and bore a son. And she said, God has taken away my reproach. ²⁴And she called his name Joseph, saying, May Jehovah add to me another son.

²⁹And he said to him, You know how I have served you and what has come to be, your livestock being with me. ³⁰For little was yours before my mouth, and it has spread out into a host. And Jehovah has blessed you at my foot. And now when I work for my house, I also? ³¹And he said, What shall I give you? And Jacob said, You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will remain. I will feed your flock and keep it. ³²I will pass among all your flock today, taking from there every speckled and spotted sheep, and every black sheep among the lambs, also the spotted and speckled goats; these shall be my wages. ³³And my righteousness shall testify for me in the day to come. When you come in about my wages, before your face everyone that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the lambs, it is stolen with me. ³⁴And Laban said, Yes, if it be so let it be as you speak. ³⁵And he turned out in that day all the striped and spotted lambs, and all the speckled and spotted goats, every one which had white, and every black one among the lambs. And he gave them into the hands of his sons. ³⁶And he put three days' journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob was feeding the remaining flocks of Laban.

³⁷And Jacob took for himself white rods of a fresh tree, and the almond and plane tree. And he peeled white stripes in them, laying bare the white on the rods. ³⁸And he set the rods which he had peeled by the troughs, by the water troughs where the flocks came to drink, across from the flocks. And they were in heat when they came to drink. ³⁹And the flocks bore striped, speckled and spotted offspring. ⁴⁰And Jacob separated the lambs, and he set the faces of the flock toward the striped, and every black one in the flocks of Laban. And he put his own droves by themselves, and did not put them with the flock of Laban. ⁴¹And it happened that whenever the strong flocks conceived, Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the flocks, before the troughs, that they might conceive by the rods. ⁴²And he did not set them before the weak flocks. And it came to be, the weak for Laban, and the strong for Jacob. ⁴³And the man increased very much, and were many flocks to him, and slavegirls, and male slaves, and camels and asses.

¹And he heard the words of the sons of Laban, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was to our father, and from that which to our father he has gotten all this wealth. ²And Jacob saw the face of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before. ³And Jehovah said to Jacob, Go back to the land of your fathers and to your kindred. And I will be with you. ⁴And Jacob sent and called for Rachel and for Leah, to come to the field, to his flocks. ⁵And he said to them, I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as before. But the God of my father has been with me. ⁶And you know that with all my power I have served your father. ⁷And your father has cheated me and has changed my wages ten times. And God has not let him do evil to me. ⁸If he said this: The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said this: The striped shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore striped. ⁹And God has taken away the livestock of your father and has given to me. ¹⁰And at the time the flock was in heat, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream: And behold! The ram leaping on the flock were striped, speckled, and spotted. ¹¹And the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, Jacob! And I said, Behold me. ¹²And He said, Lift up your eyes and see all the rams leaping on the flock; they are striped, speckled and spotted. For I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. ¹³I am the God of Bethel, there where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Now rise up; go out of this land and go back to the land of your kindred. ¹⁴And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet to us a portion and an inheritance in the house of our father? ¹⁵Are we not counted strangers by him. For he has sold us, and he has also entirely spent our silver. ¹⁶For all the wealth which God has taken from our father, it is for us and for our sons. And now all that which God has said to you, do.

¹⁷And Jacob arose and set his sons and his wives on camels. ¹⁸And he drove all the livestock, and he took all his goods which he had gotten, livestock of his property which he had gotten in Padan-aram, to come to his father Isaac, to the land of Canaan.

¹⁹And Laban went to shear his sheep. And Rachel stole the household idols which were her father's. ²⁰And Jacob deceived the heart of Laban the Syrian, for he did not tell him that he was about to flee. ²¹And he and all that was to him fled. And he rose up and crossed the River and set his face to Mount Gilead. ²²And on the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. ²³And he took his brothers with him and pursued him, seven days journey. And he overtook him in Mount Gilead. ²⁴And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream of the night. And He said to him, Watch out for yourself, that you not speak with Jacob from good to evil.

²⁵And Laban overtook Jacob. And Jacob had pitched his tent at the Mount. And Laban with his brothers had pitched at Mount Gilead. ²⁶And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done? And you have deceived my heart and have taken my daughters like captives of the sword. ²⁷Why did you hide so as to flee, and have deceived me, and have not told me? And I would have sent you away with rejoicing and with music, with tabret and with harp. ²⁸And you have not let me kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have been foolish to do this. ²⁹It is in the power of my hand to do you harm. But the God of your fathers spoke to me last night, saying, Watch out for yourself that you do not speak with Jacob from good to evil. ³⁰And now surely you have gone because you have longed after your father's house. Why have you stolen my gods? ³¹And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid. For I say, Lest by force you take your daughters from me. ³²With whomever you find your gods, he shall not live before our brothers here. See for yourself what is with me, and take it to you. For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

the two slavegirls; and he did not find. And he went out of Leah's tent and came into Rachel's tent. ³⁴And Rachel had taken the household idols and put them into the camel's saddle; and she sat on them. And Laban felt around all the tent, but did not find. ³⁵And she said to her father, Let no anger be in the eyes of my lord, for I am not able to rise before your face, for the way of women is to me. And he sought and did not find the household idols.

³⁶And Jacob was angry, and he argued with Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my transgression; what my sin that you have hotly pursued me? ³⁷For you have felt around all my articles; what have you found from all the articles of your house? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers and let them decide between the two of us. ³⁸Now I was with you twenty years. Your ewes and your she-goats have not failed to bear, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock. ³⁹I did not bring to you the mangled; I replaced it. From my hand you exacted it, that stolen by day and that stolen by night. ⁴⁰I was there; by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night. And my sleep fled from my eyes. ⁴¹Now have been twenty years in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock. And you have changed my wages ten times. ⁴²Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been for me, truly now you would have sent me empty. God has seen my affliction and the toil of my palm, and last night He judged.

⁴³And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters and the sons my sons. And the flocks are my flocks; yea all which you see, it is mine and my daughters'. What can I do to these today, or to their sons whom they have borne? ⁴⁴And now come, let us cut a covenant, you and me; and let it be a witness between you and me. ⁴⁵And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a memorial. ⁴⁶And Jacob said to his brothers, Gather stones. And they took stones and they made a heap. ⁴⁷And Laban called it Heap of the Testimony. And Jacob called it in Hebrew Heap of Testimony. ⁴⁸And Laban said, This heap is a witness between you and me today; so he called its name Heap of Testimony; ⁴⁹also, Watchtower; for he said, May Jehovah watch between you and me, for we are hidden, each from his neighbor. ⁵⁰If you will not afflict my daughters, and if you will not take wives above my daughters, no man is with us. See, God is a witness between you and me.

⁵¹And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I have set between you and me. ⁵²This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness. As for me, I will not pass over this heap to you; and as for you, you will not pass over this heap and this pillar for evil to me. ⁵³The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, the God of their father, let judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴And Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed on the mountain.

⁵⁵And Laban rose up early in the morning and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them. And Laban went away and returned to his own place.

¹And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. ²And when he saw them, Jacob said, This is the camp of God. And he called the name of that place, Refuge.

³And Jacob sent messengers before his face to his brother Esau, to the land of Seir, the field of Edom. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, You shall say to my lord, to Esau: Your servant Jacob says this: I have sojourned with Laban and remained until now. And it is that oxen, and asses, flocks, and slaves and slave-girls are mine. And I have sent to tell my lord, to find favor in your eyes. ⁵And the messengers came back to Jacob, saying, We came to your brother Esau, and also he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him. ⁶And Jacob was afraid, and he was very distressed. And he divided the people with him, and the flocks, and the herds, and the camels, into two camps. ⁷And he said, If Esau comes to the one company and strikes it, then it will be, the company that is left shall escape.

⁸And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Jehovah, who said to me, Go back to your land and to your kindred and I will deal well with you. ⁹I am not worthy of all the mercies and all the truth which You have done for Your servant, for I passed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies. ¹⁰Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, mother to sons. ¹¹And You said, I will surely deal well with you, and I will make your seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

¹²And he remained there that night. And he took a present from what came into his hand, for his brother Esau: ¹³two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred rams, ¹⁴thirty nursing camels with their thirty colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten young asses. ¹⁵And he gave into the hand of his slaves every drove by itself. And he said to his slaves, Pass over before my face and put a space between drove and drove. ¹⁶And he commanded the first ones, saying, When my brother Esau meets you and asks, saying, Whose are you, and where do you go, and whose are these before your face? ¹⁷Then you will say, Your servant Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord, to Esau; and, behold, also he is behind us. ¹⁸And he also commanded the second, also the third, even all the ones going after the droves, saying, Your shall speak this word to Esau when you find him. ¹⁹And you shall also say, Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will cover his face by the present, the one going before my face, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will lift up my face. ²⁰And the present passed before his face, and he remained in the camp that night.

²¹And he rose up that night and took his two wives, and his two slavegirls, and his eleven children. And he passed over the ford Jabbok. ²²And he took them and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which was his.

²⁴And Jacob was left alone. And a Man wrestled with him until the ascending of the dawn. ²⁵And He saw that He had not prevailed against him. And He touch on his hip-socket, and Jacob's hip-socket was unhinged as he wrestled with Him.

²⁶And he said, Send me away, for the dawn has ascended. And he said, I will not let you go unless You bless me. ²⁷And He said to him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob. ²⁸And he said, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, because you have wrestled with God and with men, and have prevailed. ²⁹And Jacob asked and said, Please reveal Your name. And he said, Why this that you ask about My name? And He blessed him there. ³⁰And Jacob called the name of the place Penuel, because I saw God face to face, and and my life is delivered. ³¹And the sun rose on him as he passed over Penuel, and he was limping on his thigh. ³²On account of this the sons of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh that is on the hip-socket until this day, because He touched on Jacob's hip-socket, on the sinew of the thigh.

¹And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. And he divided the children to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two slave-girls. ²And he put the slave-girls and their children first; and Leah and her children behind; and Rachel and Joseph last. ³And he passed over in front of them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came even to his brother.

⁴And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him. And they wept. ⁵And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children. And he said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children with whom God has favored your servant. ⁶And the slave-girls came near, they and their children; and they bowed. ⁷And Leah and her children also came near and bowed. And afterward Rachel and Joseph came near and bowed. ⁸And he said, Whose is all this camp which I met? And he said, To find favor in the eyes of my lord. ⁹And Esau said, I have much, my brother. Let what you have be to yourself. ¹⁰And Jacob said, No, please, if I now have found favor in your eyes, take my present from my hands. For I have seen your face, like seeing the face of God; and you are pleased with me. ¹¹Please take my blessing which has been brought to you, because God has favored me, and because I have all things. And he urged him; and he accepted. ¹²And he said, Let us depart and go, and I will go with you. ¹³And he said to him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and the herds with me are suckling. And if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die. ¹⁴Please let my lord go before the face of his servant, and I will move on by stages at my ease, according to the pace of the livestock which are before me, and according to the pace of the children, until I come in to my lord to Seir. ¹⁵And Esau said, Please let me place with you some of the people who are with me. And he said, Why, then? Let me find favor in the eyes of my lord. ¹⁶And Esau returned on his way toward Seir that day.

¹⁷And Jacob traveled to Succoth. And he built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. For this reason he called the name of the place Succoth.

¹And Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. ²And Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, and took her, and lay with her, and humiliated her. ³And his soul clung to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. And he loved the girl, and spoke to the heart of the girl. ⁴And Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, Take this girl for me for a wife. ⁵And Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah. And his sons were with his livestock in the field. And Jacob kept silent until they had come.

⁶And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. ⁷And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard, and the men were furious, and they were very angry, because he had done foolishness in Israel, to lie with the daughter of Jacob, and it should not be done in this way.

⁸And Hamor spoke with them, saying, My son Shechem's soul is bound to your daughter. Please give her to him for a wife. ⁹And you intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰And live with us, and the land is before you; live and trade in it, and get property in it. ¹¹And Shechem said to her father, and to her brothers, Let me find favor in your eyes, and what you say to me I will give. ¹²Heap on me ever so much bride-price and gift, and I will give as you say to me; but give me the girl for a wife. ¹³And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor, speaking with deceit because he had defiled their sister Dinah. ¹⁴And they said to them, We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised. For it is a reproach to us. ¹⁵Only on this condition will we consent to you; if you will become like us, to have every male of you circumcised. ¹⁶Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will live with you and will become one people. ¹⁷And if you do not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will go.

¹⁸And their words pleased Hamor and the son of Hamor, Shechem. ¹⁹And the young man did not hesitate to do the thing, for he delighted in Jacob's daughter. And he was more honorable than all the house of his father. ²⁰And Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city. And they spoke with the men of their city, saying, ²¹These men are peaceable with us; and, Let them live in the land and trade in it; and, Lo, the land is wide on both hands before them. Let us take their daughters for ourselves for wives, and let us give our daughters to them. ²²Only in this way will the men consent to us to live with us, to become one people: that every male of us be circumcised as they are circumcised. ²³Shall not their livestock, and their property, and all their beasts of burden be ours? Only let us consent to them, and let them live with us. ²⁴And all those going out of the gate of the city listened to Hamor, and to his son Shechem. And every male was circumcised, all those going out of the gate of the city. ²⁵And it happened on the third day, they being pained, that the two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword. And they came on the city in its security, and killed every male. ²⁶And they killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword. And they took Dinah from the house of Shechem, and left. ²⁷The sons of Jacob came on the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.

²⁸They took their flocks and their herds and their asses, and whatever was in the city, and whatever was in the field. ²⁹And they took all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives, and looted all that was in the house. ³⁰And Jacob said to Simeon and to Levi, You have troubled me, to make me stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites, and among the Perizzites. And I being few in number, and they gathering against me, they will strike me, and I and my house shall be wasted. ³¹And they said, Should he treat our sister like a harlot?

¹And God said to Jacob, Rise up, go to Bethel and live there. And make an altar to God there, who appeared to you when you fled before your brother Esau. ²And Jacob said to his house, and to all those with him, Put away the strange gods which are in your midst, and purify yourselves, and change your clothing. ³And let us rise up and go up to Bethel. And I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress. And He was with me in the way in which I went. ⁴And they gave all the strange gods in their hand to Jacob, and the earrings which were in their ears. And Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem.

⁵And they pulled up stakes. And the terror of God was on the cities all around them, and they did not chase after the sons of Jacob. ⁶And Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan; it is Bethel. And he and all the people with him came. ⁷And he built an altar there and called the place El-Bethel; because God revealed Himself to him there when he fled from the face of his brother. ⁸And Deborah died, the nurse of REbekah, and she was buried below Beth-el, under the oak. And he called its name, Oak of Weeping.

⁹And God appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Padan-aram, and He blessed him. ¹⁰And God said to him, Your name is Jacob; your name will not any more be called Jacob, but Israel will be your name. And He called his name Israel.

¹¹And God said to him, I am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations shall be from you. And kings shall go forth from your loins. ¹²And the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, I will give it to you; and after you I will give the land to your seed. ¹³And God went up from him, in the place where He had spoken with him. ¹⁴And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone. And he poured out a drink offering on it; he poured oil on it. ¹⁵And Jacob called the name of the place, there where God had spoken with him, Beth-el.

¹⁶And they pulled up stakes from Beth-el. And there was yet a length of land to come to Ephrath. And Rachel bore; and she had hard labor in her bearing. ¹⁷And it happened, when she had hard labor in her bearing, even the midwife said to her, Do not fear, for this also is a son for you. ¹⁸And it happened, when her soul was going forth — for she died — even she called his name Ben-oni. But his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹And Rachel was buried on the way to Ephrath, it is Bethlehem. ²⁰And Jacob set up a pillar on her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's grave until today. ²¹And Israel pulled up and pitched his tent beyond the Tower of the Flocks. ²²And as Israel lived in that land, it happened; even Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine. And Israel heard.

And the sons of Jacob were twelve. ²³The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's first-born; and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun. ²⁴The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's slave-girl: Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶And the sons of Zipah, Leah's slave-girl: Gad and Asher. These were Jacob's sons who were born in Padan-aram. ²⁷And Jacob came to his father Isaac, to Mamre, to the City of Arba; it is Hebron where Abraham and Isaac turned in. ²⁸And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years. ²⁹And Isaac expired and died and was gathered to his people, old and satisfied of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

¹And these are the generations of Esau; that is, Edom. ²Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite; and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; ³and Basemath, the daughter of Ishmael, sister of Nebajoth. ⁴And Adah bore Eliphaz and Reuel. ⁵And Ololibamah bore Jeush, and Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his livestock; and he went to a land away from his brother Jacob. ⁷For their possessions had become too great for them to dwell together. And the land was not able to bear their travels, because of their livestock. ⁸And Esau dwelt on Mount Seir. Esau is Edom.

¹⁴And these were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, the wife of Esau; even she bore Jeush to Esau, and Jalam, and Korah.

¹⁵These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau: Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zekpho, Chief Kenaz, ¹⁶Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Adah.

¹⁷And these were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nathath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁸And the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, Chief Korah. These were the chiefs of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. ¹⁹These were the sons of Esau, and these their their chiefs — he is Edom.

²⁰These were the sons of Seir the Horite living in the land: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, ²¹and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom. ²²And the sons of Lotan: Hori and Heman; and Lotan's sister, Timna. ²³And these were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. ²⁴And these were the sons of Zibeon, even Aiah and Anah—he is Anah who found the hot springs in the desert as he fed the asses for his father Zibeon. ²⁵And these were the sons of Anah: Dishon; and Olibamah the daughter of Anah. ²⁶And these were the sons of Dishan: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

²⁷These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan. ²⁸These were the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, ²⁹Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, Chief Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

³¹And these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before the reigning of a king over the sons of Israel. ³²And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city, Dinhabah. ³³And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah, from Bozrah, reigned in his place. ³⁴And Jobab died, and Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. ³⁵And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedah, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place; and the name of his city, Avith. ³⁶And Hadad died, and Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place. ³⁷And Samlah died, and Shaul from Rehoboth by the River reigned in his place. ³⁸And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. ³⁹And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name, Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

⁴⁰And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families, according to their places, by their names: Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, ⁴¹Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, ⁴²Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, ⁴³Chief Magdiel, Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwellings, in the land of their possession—he is Esau, the father of Edom.

¹And Jacob lived in the land of his father's travels, in the land of Canaan.

²These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, a son of seventeen years, was feeding the flock with his brothers, with Bilhah's sons and with Zilpah's sons, his father's wives. And he was a youth. And Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father. ³And Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was a son of old age to him. And he made a robe reaching to the feet. ⁴And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him. And they were not able to speak to him for peace.

Now hear this dream which I have dreamed: 'And, behold! We were binding sheaves in the middle of the field. And, behold, my sheaf rose up and also stood up. And, behold, your sheaves came around and bowed themselves to my sheaf. ⁸And his brothers said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us, or shall you really rule over us? And they hated him still more because of his dreams, and because of his words. ⁹And he dreamed still another dream, and told it to his brothers. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed another dream: And, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars were bowing themselves to me. ¹⁰And he told it to his father, and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream which you have dreamed? Shall we indeed come to bow ourselves to the earth to you, I, your mother, and your brothers? ¹¹And his brothers were jealous of him. But his father observed the word.

¹²And his brothers went to feed the flock of their fathers in Shechem. ¹³And Israel said to Joseph, Are not your brothers feeding in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them. And he said to him, Behold me. ¹⁴And he said to him, Now go, see the welfare of your brothers, and the welfare of the flock, and bring word back to me. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron. And he came to Shechem. ¹⁵And a man found him. And, behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, What do you seek? ¹⁶And he said, I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding. ¹⁷And the man said, They have left here, for I heard them say, Let us go towards Dothan. And Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan. ¹⁸And they saw him from a distance. And before he came near to them, they plotted against him, to kill him. ¹⁹And they said, each to his brother, Behold, this master of dreams is coming. ²⁰And, Come now, and let us kill him, and throw him into one of the pits. And let us say, An evil beast has eaten him. And let us see what will become of his dreams. ²¹And Reuben heard, and he delivered him from their hands, and said, Let us not smite his soul. ²²And Reuben said to them, Do not shed blood.

Throw him into this pit here in the desert, but do not lay a hand on him—so that he might deliver him from their hands, to return him to his father. ²³And when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped his long coat from Joseph, the long coat on him, reaching to his feet. ²⁴And they took him and threw him into the pit, the pit being empty, no water in it. ²⁵And they sat down to eat bread. And they lifted up their eyes and looked. And, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead! And their camels were bearing spices, and balsam gum, and myrrh, going down to take them to Egypt. ²⁶And Judah said to his brothers, What gain is it that we kill our brother and conceal his blood? ²⁷Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and do not let our hand be on him. For he is our brother, our flesh. And his brothers listened. ²⁸And men, Midianites, traders, passed. And they drew up and took Joseph out of the pit, and they sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt.

²⁹And Reuben came back to the pit. And, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he tore his clothes. ³⁰And he returned to his brothers and said, The child, he is not. And I, where shall I go? ³¹And they took Joseph's long coat, and killed a ram of the goats, and dipped the long coat in the blood. ³²And they sent the long coat reaching to the feet, and they took it to their father, and said, We have found this. Now look, is it your son's long coat? ³³And he knew it, and said, My son's long coat! An evil beast has eaten him. Surely Joseph is torn in pieces. ³⁴And Jacob tore his clothing and put sackcloth on his loins. And he mourned many days for his son. ³⁵And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him. And he refused to be comforted, and said, I will go down to Sheol mourning for my son. And his father wept for him.

³⁶And the Midianites sold him into Egypt, to Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners.

¹And it happened at that time that Judah went down, away from his brothers, and turned aside to a man of Adullam named

Hirah. ²And Judah saw there a daughter of a Canaanite man named Shuah. And he took her, and went in to her. ³And she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Er. ⁴And she conceived again and bore a son and called his name Onan. ⁵And she continued still and bore a son. And she called his name Shelah. And he was at Chezib when she bore him. ⁶And Judah took a wife for his firstborn, Er, named Tamar. ⁷And Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. And Jehovah killed him. ⁸And Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother. ⁹And Onan knew that the seed would not be his. And it happened when he went into his brother's wife, he wasted his semen to the ground, not giving seed to his brother. ¹⁰And what he did was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and He also killed him. ¹¹And Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, Live as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah is grown. For he said, Lest he also die like his brothers. And Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

¹²And the days were many, and the wife of Judah, the daughter of Shuah, died. And Judah was comforted, and he went up to the shearers of his flocks, he and his friend Hirah of Adullam, to Timnah. ¹³And Tamar was told, saying, Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his flocks. ¹⁴And she took off her widow's robes from her, and veiled herself with a veil, and disguised herself. And she sat at the entrance of Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up, and she had not been given to him for a wife. ¹⁵And Judah saw her. And he thought her to be a harlot, because she had veiled her face. ¹⁶And he turned aside to her by the roadway, and said, Come now, let me come in to you. For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me that you may come in to me? ¹⁷And he said, I will send a kid of the goats from the flock. And she said, Will you give me a pledge until you send it? ¹⁸And he said, What is the pledge which I shall give to you? And she said, Your signet ring, and your bracelet and your staff in your hand.

And he gave to her, and came in to her. And she conceived by him. ¹⁹And she rose up and left, and took off her veil from her face. And she put on her widow's robes.

²⁴And after three months, it happened. It was told to Judah, saying, Your daughter-in-law Tamar has committed adultery, and also, behold, she is pregnant by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her out and let her be burned. ²⁵She was being brought out, and she sent to her father-in-law, saying I am pregnant by a man to whom these belong. And she said, Note now whose are these, the signet ring, the bracelet, and the staff? ²⁶And Judah knew and said, She is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to my son Shelah. And he never knew her again.

²⁷And in the time of her bearing, behold, it happened! Twins were in her womb. ²⁸And in her bearing, it happened that one put forth a hand, and the midwife took it and tied crimson on his hand, saying, This one came out first. ²⁹And it happened as he withdrew his hand, behold, his brother came out. And she said, How have you broken a break for yourself? And one called his name Pharez. ³⁰And then his brother came out, on whose hand was the crimson. And one called his name Zarah.

¹And Joseph was carried down to Egypt. And bought him Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners, an Egyptian man, from the hand of the Ishmaelites who had carried him down there. ²And Jehovah was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. And he was in the house of the Egyptian, his master. ³And his master saw that Jehovah was with him, and Joseph was prospering in his hand everything which he did. ⁴And Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. And he appointed him over his house, and he gave all he owned into his hand. ⁵And it came about that from the time he appointed him over his house and over all he owned, Jehovah blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake. And the blessing of Jehovah was on all that he had, in the house and in the field. ⁶And he left all he owned in Joseph's hand. And he did not know anything that he had, except the bread which he was eating. And Joseph was beautiful in form and beautiful of appearance.

⁷And after these things, it happened that his master's wife lifted up her eyes to Joseph, and said, Lie with me. ⁸And he refused, and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master does not know what is in the house with me, and all that he owns he has given into my hand. ⁹No one in this house is greater than I, and he has not withheld anything from me except you, because you are his wife. And how should I do this great evil and sin against God? ¹⁰And it happened, as she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her, to lie beside her, to be with her. ¹¹And it happened on this day, that he went into the house to do his work. And none of the men of the house were there in the house. ¹²And she caught him by his robe, saying, Lie with me! And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and went outside. ¹³And it happened, when she saw that he had left his robe in her hand, and had fled outside, ¹⁴she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought to us a Hebrew man to mock at us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. ¹⁵And when he heard that I raised my voice and cried, he left his robe by me and fled, and went outside. ¹⁶And she kept his robe beside her until the coming of his master to his house. ¹⁷And she spoke these same words to him, saying, The Hebrew slave whom you brought in to us came in to me, to mock at me. ¹⁸And it happened at my raising my

¹⁹And it happened, when his master heard his wife's words which she spoke to him, saying, According to these words your slave did to me, his anger glowed. ²⁰And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison-house, the place where the king's prisoners were bound. ²¹And Jehovah was with Joseph, and extended kindness to him. And He gave him favor in the eyes of the warden of the prison-house. ²²And the warden of the prison-house gave all the prisoners in the prison-house into Joseph's hand. And all which they did there, he was doing. ²³There was no looking of the warden of the prison-house to anything in his hand, in that Jehovah was with him, and Jehovah was prospering what he was doing.

was before me. ¹⁰And in the vine were three branches. And at its budding, it went up into blossom, its clusters ripened into grapes. ¹¹And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and pressed them into the cup of Pharaoh; and I gave the cup into the hand of Pharaoh. ¹²And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation: the three branches, they are three days. ¹³Yet within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and will return you to your place. And you will give the cup of Pharaoh into his hand according to the former custom when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴But make mention of me along with yourself, when it is well with you; and please do kindness with me and mention me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. ¹⁵For truly I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews; and here also I have not done anything that they should have put me into the dungeon.

¹⁶And the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good. And he said to Joseph, I also in my dream saw three baskets of white bread on my head. ¹⁷And in the top basket some from all the food of Pharaoh, the work of a baker. And the birds were eating them from the basket off my head. ¹⁸And Joseph answered and said, This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days. ¹⁹Yet within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.

²⁰And it happened, on the third day, the day of Pharaoh's birth, he made a feast for all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers, and the head of the chief of the bakers, in the midst of his servants. ²¹And he restored the chief of the cupbearers to his cupbearer office; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's palm. ²²And he hanged the chief of the bakers, as Joseph interpreted to them. ²³And the chief of the cupbearers did not mention Joseph, but forgot him.

¹And it happened at the end of two years of days, Pharaoh was dreaming. And, lo, he was standing by the River. ²And, behold, seven cows were going up from the River, beautiful of appearance and fat of flesh; and they were eating in the reeds. ³And, behold, seven other cows were going up after them from the River, evil of appearance and lean of flesh. And they were standing beside the cows on the lip of the River. ⁴And the evil-appearing and lean-fleshed cows were eating the seven cows of beautiful and fat appearance. And Pharaoh awoke. ⁵And he slept and dreamed a second time. And, behold, seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, fat and good. ⁶And, behold, seven ears of grain, lean and blasted by the east wind, sprouting forth after them. ⁷And the seven lean ears were swallowing the seven fat and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke; and, lo, it was a dream. ⁸And it happened in the morning his spirit was troubled. And he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dream, and there was no interpreter of them to Pharaoh.

⁹And the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh, saying, I mention my sin today. ¹⁰Pharaoh was angry against his servants, and gave me into custody in the house of the chief of the executioners, me and the chief of the bakers. ¹¹And we dreamed a dream in one night, he and I; we each dreamed according to the interpretation of his dream. ¹²And a Hebrew youth was with us, a slave to the chief of the executioners. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us; he interpreted to each according to his dream. ¹³And it came about; as he had interpreted to us, so it was; he returned me to my place, and he hanged him.

¹⁴And Pharaoh sent and called Joseph; and they rushed him from the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his clothing and came in to Pharaoh. ¹⁵And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it; and I have heard about you, saying, you hear a dream to interpret it. ¹⁶And Joseph replied to Pharaoh, saying, Not I! God will answer the welfare of Pharaoh. ¹⁷And Pharaoh said to Joseph, In my dream, lo, I was standing on the lip of the River. ¹⁸And, behold, seven cows were going up from the River, fat of flesh and beautiful of form, and were feeding in the reeds. ¹⁹And, behold, seven other cows were going up after them, poor and very evil of form, and lean of flesh; I have not seen any like them in all the land of Egypt for badness. ²⁰And the cows, the lean and the evil, ate the first seven fat cows. ²¹And they went into their stomachs, and it could not be seen that they had gone into their stomachs; and their appearance was as evil as at the beginning. And I awakened.

²⁵And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The Pharaoh is one. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁶The seven good cows, they are seven years; and the seven good ears, they are seven years; it is one dream. ²⁷And the seven thin and evil-appearing cows going up after them, they are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind will be seven years of famine. ²⁸This is the word that I spoke to Pharaoh: what God is about to do, He has shown Pharaoh. ²⁹Behold! Seven years of great plenty are coming in all the land of Egypt. ³⁰And seven years of famine will arise after them, and all the plenty of the land of Egypt will be forgotten; and the famine will consume the land. ³¹And the plenty in the land will not be remembered because of that famine afterwards; for it will be very severe.

³²And as to the dream being repeated to Pharaoh twice, the thing is settled because it is from God, and God is hastening to do it. ³³And now let Pharaoh look for a man who is intelligent and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. ³⁴Let Pharaoh act, and let him appoint rulers over the land, and take a fifth of the land of Egypt in the seven years of plenty. ³⁵And let them gather all the food of these coming good years. And let them heap up grain under Pharaoh's hand as food in the cities, and let them keep it. ³⁶And let the food be for a store for the land, for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt; and let not the land be cut off by famine.

³⁸And Pharaoh said to his servants, Can we find any man like this, in whom is the Spirit of God? ³⁹And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has taught you all this, there is no one wise and intelligent like you. ⁴⁰You shall be over my house, and at your mouth all my people shall kiss the hand. Only in respect to the throne will I be greater than you. ⁴¹And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt. ⁴²And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on the hand of Joseph; and he clothed him with fine linen robes, and put a golden chain on his neck. ⁴³And he caused him to ride in a chariot which was the second to him. And they cried before him, Bow the knee! And he put him over all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁴And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without a word from you not a man shall lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁵And Pharaoh called Joseph by the name of Zaphenath-paaneah. And He gave him Asenath the daughter of Poti-phaera, priest of On, for a wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

⁵³And the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt were ended. ⁵⁴And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. ⁵⁵And all the land of Egypt hungered, and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all Egypt, Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do. ⁵⁶And the famine was on the face of all the land. And Joseph opened all which was in them, and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine was strong in the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷And all the earth came to Egypt to buy, to Joseph. For the famine was strong in all the earth.

¹And Jacob saw that grain was in Egypt. And Jacob said to his sons, Why do you look at each other? ²And he said, Behold! I have heard grain is in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there, that we may live and not die. ³And Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. ⁴And Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he said, Lest harm happen to him. ⁵And among those coming, the sons of Israel came to buy. For the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Joseph was the ~~pr~~ontate over the land, he selling to all the people of the earth. And Joseph's brothers came in and bowed to him, face down to the earth. ⁷And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them; but he remained a stranger to them and spoke harsh things to them, and said to them, From where have you come? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. ⁸And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. ⁹And Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them. And he said to them, You are spies! You have come in to see the bareness of the land. ¹⁰And they said to him, No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. ¹¹We are all of us sons of one man; we are honest; your servants are not spies. ¹²And he said to them, No, but you have come to see the bareness of the land. ¹³And they said, Your servants are twelve brothers; we are sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, lo, the youngest is with our father today; and one is not. ¹⁴And Joseph said to them, This is that which I have spoken to you, saying, You are spies! ¹⁵By this you shall be tested. As Pharaoh lives, you shall not leave here except your younger brother come in here. ¹⁶Send one of you and let him bring your brother; and you be bound, and let your words be proven, whether truth is with you. And if not, as Pharaoh lives, so you are spies. ¹⁷And he gathered them into custody three days. ¹⁸And on the third day Joseph said to them, Do this and live. I fear God. ¹⁹If you are honest, let one of your brothers be bound in your prison, and you go bring grain for the famine of your houses. ²⁰And you bring your youngest brother to me, and let your words be true, and you shall not die. And so they did.

²¹And they said each to his brother, We are truly guilty because of our brother whom we saw in distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we did not hear. So tis pain has come to us. ²²And Reuben replied to them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not sin against the yough, and you did not listen? And, behold, his blood is also required. ²³And they did not know that Joseph heard, for the interpreter was between them. ²⁴And he turned away from them and wept, and returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes. ²⁵And Joseph commanded, and they filled their vessels with grain and returned their silver, each into his sack, and gave to them food for the way; and he did so to them. ²⁶And they lifted their grain on their asses and walked from there. ²⁷And one opened his sack to give fodder to his ass in the camp, and he saw his silver. And, behold! It was in the mouth of his sack! ²⁸And he said to his brothers, My silver has been put back, and also look in my sack. And their hearts went, and they were each terrified, saying to his brother, What is this God has done to us?

sons of our father; the one is not, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan. ³³And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, By this I shall know that you are honest; leave your one brother with me, and take and go for the famine of your houses. ³⁴And bring your youngest brother to me, and I may know that you are not spies, but you are honest. I will give your brother to you and you may travel in the land.

³⁵And it happened. They were emptying their sacks, and, behold, each one's bundle of silver was in his sack; and they saw the bundles of their silver, and they were afraid. ³⁶And their father Jacob said to them, You have bereaved me. Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and you will take Benjamin? All of these are against me. ³⁷And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, You may kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Give him into my hand, and I will return him to you. ³⁸And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. And if harm should happen to him in the way in which you go, you would bring down my gray hair in sorrow to the grave.

¹And the famine was severe in the land. ²And it happened, when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, Go back; buy a little food for us. ³And Judah spoke to him, saying, The man testified repeatedly, saying to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. ⁴If you are sending our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. ⁵And if you are not sending, we will not go; for the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. ⁶And Israel said, Why did you do evil to me to tell the man you still had a brother? ⁷And they said, The man keenly asked about us and about our kindred, saying, Is your father still alive? Is there a brother to you? And we answered him according to these words. Could we know certainly that he would say, Bring down your brother? ⁸And Judah said to his father Israel, Send the youth with me, and le tus rise up and go, and we may live and not die, both we,

and you, and our little ones. ⁹I will be surety for him; you may require him from my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I shall be a sinner against you all the days. ¹⁰For if we had not delayed truly now we would have returned this twice. ¹¹And their father Israel said to them, If it be so, then do this: take from the produce of the land in your vessels and bring down a present to the man, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts and almonds. ¹²And take double silver in your hand, and the silver they put back in the mouth of your sacks take back in your hand; perhaps it was an oversight. ¹³And take your brother and rise up; return to the man. ¹⁴And may God Almighty give mercy to you before the man; and may he send your other brother to you, and Benjamin. And I, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved. ¹⁵And the men took this present, and they took double silver in their hand, and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

¹⁶And Joseph saw Benjamin with them. And he said to the one over his house, Bring the men into the house, and slaughter and prepare an animal; for the men shall eat with me at noon. ¹⁷And the man did as Joseph said. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house. ¹⁸And the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house. And they said, Because of the silver that was returned in our sacks before, we are being brought in, to throw himself on us and to fall on us, and to take us and our asses for slaves. ¹⁹And they came near to the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the door of the house. ²⁰And they said, O my lord, coming we came down to buy food. ²¹And it happened, when we came to the camp and opened our sacks, behold, the silver of each one was in the mouth of his sack; our silver in its weight. And we bring it back in our hand. ²²And we have brought other money in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks. ²³And he said, Peace to you; do not fear; your God and the God of your father has given a treasure to you in your sacks; your silver came to me. And he brought Simeon out to them.

²⁴And the man brought the men to Joseph's house. And he gave water, and they washed their feet. And he gave fodder for their asses. ²⁵And they prepared the present for the coming of Joseph at noon. For they had heard that they would eat bread there. ²⁶And Joseph came into the house. And they brought the present in their hand to him, into the house. And they bowed to him, to the earth. ²⁷And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is there peace to your father, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive? ²⁸And they said, Peace is to your servant, to our father; he is still alive. And they fell down and bowed. ²⁹And he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his mother. And he said, Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me? And he said, May God bless you, my son. ³⁰And Joseph hurried, for his emotions were deeply moved toward his brother. And he looked for a place to weep; and he came into the inner room and wept there. ³¹And he washed his face and controlled himself, and went out and said, Set out bread. ³²And they set out for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians eating with him by themselves — for the Egyptians cannot eat bread with the Hebrews; for it is an abomination in Egypt. ³³And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the younger according to his youth. And the men were astonished, each to his neighbor. ³⁴And one carried portions from before him to them, and Benjamin's portion was greater than the portions of all of them, five hands. And they drank and were drunken with him.

¹And he commanded the one over his house, saying, Fill the sacks of the men with food, as much as they are able to carry; and put the silver of each one in the mouth of his sack. ²And put my cup, the cup of silver, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and the silver for his grain. And he did according to Joseph's word, that which he spoke. ³At the morning light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. They had gone out from the city, not having gone far, and Joseph said to the one over his house, Rise up, pursue the men and overtake them, and say to them, Why have you repaid evil for good? Is this not that in which my lord is accustomed to drink, and he surely divines by it? You have done evil in what you have done.

⁶And he overtook them and spoke these words to them. ⁷And they said to him, Why should my lord speak according to these words? Far be it from your servants to do according to this word. ⁸See, the silver which we found in the mouth of our sacks, we returned to you from the land of Canaan. And how should we steal silver or gold from the house of your lord? ⁹With whomever it may be found, with him of your servants, he shall die; and we also will become slaves to my lord. ¹⁰And he said, Now also let it be according to your words; with whomever it is found with him, he shall become a slave to me, and you shall be innocent. ¹¹And they hurried, and each one brought down his sack to the earth. And each one opened his sack. ¹²And he searched, with the oldest first, and with the youngest last, and the cup was found in the sack of Benjamin.

¹³And they tore their clothes; and they each one loaded his ass and returned to the city. ¹⁴And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. And they fell before him to the earth. ¹⁵And Joseph said to them, What is this deed which you have done? Did you not know that a man like me would practice divination? ¹⁶And Judah said, What can we say to my lord? What can we speak, and in what can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we are slaves to my lord, both we and he in whose hand the cup was found. ¹⁷And he said, Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall become a slave to me; and you go up in peace to your father.

¹⁸And Judah came near to him and said, O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in the ears of my lord, and let not your anger glow on your servant, for you are like Pharaoh. ¹⁹My lord asked his servants, saying, Is there a brother or a father to you? ²⁰And we said to my lord, An aged father is to us, and a young child of his old age; and his brother is dead; and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him. ²¹And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, and let me see him. ²²And we said to my lord, The youth is not able to leave his father; and if he should leave his father, he will die. ²³And you said to your servants, If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face any more. ²⁴And it happened, when we had gone up to your servant, my father, we told him the words of my lord. ²⁵And our father said, Go back, buy a little food for us. ²⁶And we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, we will go down. For we cannot see the face of the man if our youngest brother is not with us. ²⁷And your servant, my father, said to us, You know that my wife bore two to me. ²⁸And one went out from me. And I said, Indeed, he surely is torn in pieces; and I have not seen him until now. ²⁹And if you take this one also from my face, and harm happen to him, you will bring my gray hair to the grave in sorrow. ³⁰And now when I come to your servant, my father, and the youth is not with us, and his soul being bound to his soul, it will be when he sees that the youth is not, he will die. And your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father to the grave in sorrow. ³¹For your servant was surety for the youth with my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you, I shall be a sinner against my father all the days. ³²And now please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord instead of the youth; and let the youth go up with his brothers. ³³For how can I go to my father, and the youth not be with me? Lest I look on the evil which will find my father.

¹And Joseph was not able to control himself in regard to those standing beside him. And he called out, Cause every man to go out from me. And no man stood before him as Joseph was making himself known to his brothers. ²And he wept aloud; and the Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. ³And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph. Is my father still alive? And his brothers were not able to answer him, for they trembled before him. ⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, Now come near to me. And they came near. And he said, I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵And now do not be grieved, and let no anger be in your eyes because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to save life. ⁶For the famine has been in the midst of the land for two years. And there are still five years in which no plowing and harvest will be. ⁷And God sent me before you to put a remnant in the land for you, and to keep alive for you a great deliverance. ⁸And now you did not send me here, but God. And He has placed me for a father to Pharaoh, and for a lord in all his house, and a ruler in all the land of Egypt. ⁹Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, So says your son Joseph, God has placed me as a lord to all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay. ¹⁰And you shall live in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your sons and sons of your sons, and your flocks, and your herds, and all you have. ¹¹And I will nourish you there, for there are still five years of famine; lest you be made poor, you and your house and all which belongs to you.

¹²And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that my mouth is speaking to you. ¹³And you tell my father of all my honor in Egypt, and all that you have seen. And hurry and bring down my father here. ¹⁴And he fell on the neck of his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. ¹⁵And he kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. And afterwards his brothers spoke with him.

¹⁶And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, The brothers of Joseph have come. And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants. ¹⁷Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to your brothers, Do this; load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸And take your father, and your houses, and come to me. And I will give to you the good of the land of Egypt; and you shall eat the fat of the land. ¹⁹And you are commanded; you do this: Take for yourselves wagons from the land of Egypt, for your little ones, and for your wives. And take your father and come. ²⁰And your eye, let it have no regard for your vessels, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

²¹And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave wagons to them according to the mouth of Pharaoh, and he gave provision to them for the way. ²²He gave to all of them, to each one, changes of clothing. And he gave to Benjamin three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing. ²³And to his father he sent this: ten asses bearing the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses bearing grain, and bread, and food for his father for the way. ²⁴And he sent his brothers away; and they went. And he said to them, Do not quarrel along the way. ²⁵And they went up from Egypt and came into the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob. ²⁶And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler in all the land of Egypt. And his heart froze up, for he did not believe them. ²⁷And they spoke to him all Joseph's words which he had spoken to them. And he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him; and the spirit of their father Jacob revived. ²⁸And Israel said, It is enough! My son Joseph is alive; I will go and see him before I die.

¹And Israel and all belonging to him departed, and he came to Beer-sheba. And he sacrificed sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ²And God said to Israel in visions of the night, and He spoke, Jacob! Jacob! And he answered, Behold me. ³And He said, I am God, the God of your fathers. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there. ⁴I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will also surely return you. And Joseph shall put his hand on your eyes.

⁵And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, and their little ones, and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶And they took their livestock and their property which they had acquired in the land of Canaan. And they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him. ⁷His sons and the sons of his sons were with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his seed he brought with him into Egypt.

of Israel, those coming into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: the firstborn of Jacob was Reuben. ⁹And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. ¹⁰And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess. ¹¹And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹²And the sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zerah. And Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez: Hezron, and Hamul. ¹³And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron. ¹⁴And the sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel. ¹⁵These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-aram, and his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

¹⁶And the sons of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli. ¹⁷And the sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and their sister Serah. And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel. ¹⁸These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and she bore these to Jacob, sixteen souls. ¹⁹The sons of Rachel the wife of Jacob: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰And Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Asenath the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him. ²¹And the sons of Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, and Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard. ²²These were the sons of Rachel which were born to Jacob; all the souls were fourteen.

²⁸And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to give directions before him to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen. ²⁹And Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel to Goshen. And he appeared to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long time. ³⁰And Israel said to Joseph, This time let me die after seeing your face, because you are still alive. ³¹And Joseph said to his brothers, and to the house of his father, I will go up and tell Pharaoh. And I will say to him, My brothers and the house of my father, who were in the land of Canaan, have come in to me. ³²And the men are shepherds of flocks, for they have been men of livestock. And their flocks and their herds, and all which belongs to them they have brought in. ³³And it shall be, when Pharaoh calls to you and says, What is your occupation? ³⁴You shall say, Your servants have been men of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers. This is so that you may live in the land of Goshen. For the abomination of Egypt is every shepherd of flocks.

¹And Joseph came in and made known to Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brothers, and their flocks and their herds, and all which is theirs, have come in from the land of Canaan. ²And, behold, they (are) in the land of Goshen. And he took five men from among his brothers and set them before Pharaoh. ³And Pharaoh said to his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds of flocks, both we and our fathers. ⁴And they said to Pharaoh, We have come in to stay in the land, because there is no pasture for the flocks which belong to your servants, for the famine is heavy in the land of Canaan. And now please let your servants live in the land of Goshen. ⁵And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father and your brothers have come in to you. ⁶The land of Egypt is before you; cause your father and your brothers to live in the best of the land; let them live in the land of Goshen. And if you know men of ability are among them, make them chiefs of livestock over what is mine.

⁷And Joseph brought in his father Jacob and placed him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the days of the years of your life? ⁹And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my camps are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their camps. ¹⁰And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh. ¹¹And Joseph caused his father and his brothers to live, and gave them a place in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh commanded. ¹²And Joseph nourished his father and his brothers, and all his father's house with bread for the mouth of the little ones.

¹³And no bread was in the land, because the famine was exceedingly severe. And the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were exhausted from the famine. ¹⁴And Joseph gathered up all the silver found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan in return for the grain they were buying. And Joseph brought in the silver to the house of Pharaoh. ¹⁵And the silver failed from the land of Egypt, and from the land of Canaan. And all Egypt came in to Joseph, saying, Give us bread; and, Why should we die before you? For the silver has failed. ¹⁶And Joseph said, Give your livestock, and I will give to you for your livestock, if silver has failed. ¹⁷And they brought in their livestock to Joseph. And Joseph gave bread to them for the horses, and for the livestock of the flocks, for the livestock of the herds, and for the asses. And he satisfied them with bread in that year for all their livestock. ¹⁸And that year ended, and they came in to him in the second year and said to him, We cannot hide from my lord that the silver and the livestock of the animals have failed, going to my lord. Nothing is left before my lord except our bodies and our lands. ¹⁹Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread; and let us, we and our land, become slaves to Pharaoh. And give seed so that we may live and not die, and the land not

²⁰And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, because each one in Egypt sold his field, because this famine was severe on them; and the lands became Pharaoh's. ²¹And as for the people, he caused them to pass over into the cities, and from the end of the border of Egypt to its other end. ²²Only he did not buy the land of the priests; for Pharaoh had appointed a portion for the priests, and they usually ate their appointed portion which Pharaoh gave to them. For this reason they did not sell their land. ²³And Joseph said to the people, Behold, I have bought you and your land today. See, here is seed for you; and you sow the land. ²⁴And it shall be, as you gather you shall give a fifth part to Pharaoh; and four parts shall be yours, for the seed of the field and for your food, and for those in your houses, and for food for your little ones. ²⁵And they said, You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we will become slaves to Pharaoh. ²⁶And Joseph made it a law until this day on the land of Egypt, the fifth part is for Pharaoh; only the land of the priests being excepted; it did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷And Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. And they owned in it, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly. ²⁸And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. And the days of Jacob, the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven years. ²⁹And the days of Israel to die drew near. And he called to his son Joseph and said to him, Now if I have found favor in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh; and do kindness and truth with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt; ³⁰but let me lie with my fathers, and carry me from Egypt, and bury me in their burying-place. And he said, I will do according to your words. ³¹And he said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Israel bowed on the head of the bed.

¹And after these things it happened, one said to Joseph, Behold, your father is sick. And he took his two sons with him, Manasseh and Ephraim. ²And one spoke to Jacob and said, Behold, your son

Joseph has come to you. And Israel took strength and sat on the bed. ³And Jacob said to Joseph, God Almighty appeared to me in Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, ⁴and said to me, Behold, I will make you fruitful and will multiply you, and will make you a multitude of peoples. And I will give this land to your seed after you as a continual possession. ⁵And now your two sons, those born to you in the land of Egypt before my coming to you in Egypt, are mine, Ephraim and Manasseh, like Reuben and Simeon, even they shall be mine. ⁶And your offspring which you father after them, they shall be yours. According to the name of their brothers they shall be called in their inheritance. ⁷And I, when I came from Padan, Rachel died on me in the land of Canaan in the way, with only a little way to come to Ephrath. And I buried her there in the way to Ephrath, it being Bethlehem.

⁸And Israel saw the sons of Joseph, and he said, Who are these? ⁹And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given to me here. And he said, Now bring them to me and I will bless them. ¹⁰And the eyes of Israel were heavy from age, he not being able to see. And he brought them near to him. And he kissed them and embraced them. ¹¹And Israel said to Joseph, I did not think to see your face, and, behold, God also causes me to see your seed. ¹²And Joseph brought them out from his knees; and he bowed his face to the earth. ¹³And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim in his right hand, to the left of Israel; and Manasseh in his left hand, to the right of Israel. And he brought them to him. ¹⁴And Israel sent forth his right hand and put it on the head of Ephraim; and he was the younger. And he put his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands; for Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵And he blessed Joseph and said, The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has fed me since I was born until today; ¹⁶the Angel that redeemed me from every evil, may He bless the youths; and may my name be called on them, and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac; and may they like the fishes increase into a multitude in

¹⁷And Joseph saw that his father was putting his right hand on the head of Ephraim; and it was evil in his eyes. And he took hold of his father's hand to turn it from Ephraim's head to the head of Manasseh. ¹⁸And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father! For this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head. ¹⁹And his father refused, and said, I know, my son, I know. He also shall be a people, and he shall become great. But his younger brother shall become greater than he, and his seed shall become the fullness of the nations. ²⁰And he blessed them in that day, saying, In you shall Israel bless, saying, May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh. ²¹And Israel said to Joseph, See, I am dying; and God will be with you, and will return you to the land of your fathers. ²²And I will give to you one spur of land beyond your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

¹And Jacob called his sons and said, Gather yourselves and I will tell you what will happen to you in the days to come. ²Gather yourselves and hear, sons of Jacob; yea, listen to your father Israel:

³Reuben, you are my firstborn, my strength and the firstfruit of my power; excellence of dignity and excellence of might. ⁴Like boiling water you shall not excel, for you went up to the bed of your father; then you defiled it —he went up to my couch.

⁵Simeon and Levi, brothers; their weapons are instruments of violence. ⁶Let not my soul come into their counsel; let not my spirit be joined to their company. For in their anger they killed a man; and in self-will they hamstrung a bull. ⁷Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob, and I will scatter them in Israel.

⁸Judah, may your brothers praise you, your hand be on the neck of your enemies. May the sons of your father bow themselves to you. ⁹Judah is a lion's whelp. My son, you have risen up from the prey; he stoops, he crouches like a lion; and like a lioness, who can rouse him? ¹⁰The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the lawmaker from between his feet, until Shiloh come, and the obedience of the peoples to him. ¹¹Binding his foal to the vine, and his ass's colt to the choice vine, he washes his clothing in wine, and his covering in the bloods of grapes. ¹²*His* eyes shall be dark from wine, and his teeth white from milk.

¹³Zebulun shall live at the seashore, and he shall be a haven of ships, even his border beside Sidon.

¹⁴Issachar is a strong ass, crouching between the sheepfolds. ¹⁵And he saw a resting place, that it was good, and that the land was pleasant; and he bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a tribute-slave.

¹⁶Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁷Let Dan be a serpent on the way, a horned snake on the path that bites the horses' heels, and its rider falls backward. ¹⁸I have waited for your salvation, O Jehovah.

¹⁹Gad, a marauding band shall press upon him, and he shall press on their heel.

²⁰Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall give a king's delicacies.

²²Joseph is a fruitful son, a fruitful son by a spring; his branches run over a wall.

²³And the masters of arrows harass him, and shoot, and lie in ambush for him.

²⁸All these were the tribes of Israel, two and ten. And this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them, each one with what was according to his blessing, he blessed them. ²⁹And he commanded them and said to them, I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me beside my fathers, at the cave which is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰in the cave which is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, the field which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burying place. ³¹They buried Abraham and his wife Sarah there, and they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah; and I buried Leah there: ³²the purchase of the field and the cave in it, from the sons of Heth. ³³And Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he gathered his feet into the bed. And he expired, and was gathered to his people.

¹And Joseph fell on the face of his father and wept on him, and kissed him. ²And Joseph commanded the physicians, his servants, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel. ³And forty days were fulfilled, for so are fulfilled the days of those embalmed. And Egypt wept for him seventy days. ⁴And the days of his weeping passed by, and Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, Now if I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, 'My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I am dying; you shall bury me there in the grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan. And now please let me go up and bury my father, and return. ⁶And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear. ⁷And Joseph went up to bury his father; and all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him, the elders of his house, even all the elders of the land of Egypt, ⁸and all the house of Joseph and his brothers, and the house of his father. Only, they left their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen. ⁹And both horsemen and chariots went up with him; and the company was very great. ¹⁰And they came as far as the threshing-floor of thorns, which is on the other side of the Jordan. And they mourned there with a great and very heavy mourning. And he made a lamentation for his father seven days. ¹¹And the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the lamentation in the threshing-floor of thorns. And they said, This is a very great lamentation to Egypt; for this reason its name was called Abel-mizraim, which is on the other side of Jordan. ¹²And his sons did to him as he had commanded them. ¹³And his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah; which Abraham bought, the field for a burying-place, from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

¹⁴And after he buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all those going up with him to bury his father. ¹⁵And Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead. And they said, What if Joseph should bear a grudge against us and should surely repay us all the evil which we did to him? ¹⁶And they sent a message to Joseph, saying, ¹⁷Your father commanded before his death, saying, So you shall say to Joseph, Please pardon now the revolt of your brothers, and their sin; for they did evil to you. And now please pardon the revolt of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸And his brothers also went and fell down before his face. And they said, Behold, we are your servants. ¹⁹And Joseph said to them, Do not fear. For am I in the place of God? ²⁰And you, you intended evil against me, but God meant it for good, in order to make it as it is this day, to keep a great many people alive. ²¹And now do not fear; I will nourish you and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke to their hearts.

²²And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and the house of his father. And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years. ²³And Joseph saw the sons of Ephraim to the third generation. Also the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh were on Joseph's knees. ²⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, I am dying, and God will surely visit you and bring you up from this land to the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ²⁵And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, God will surely visit you, and you will bring up my bones from here.

²⁶And Joseph died, a son of a hundred and ten years. And they embalmed him, and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

THE BOOK OF EXODUS

¹And these were the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob; they each one came in with his house: ²Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, ³Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, ⁴Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. ⁵And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls, Joseph being in Egypt. ⁶And Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation. ⁷And the sons of Israel were fruitful and increased very much, and multiplied, and became very strong; and the land was filled with them.

¹⁵And the king of Egypt said to the midwives of the Hebrews, of whom the name of one was Shiprah, and the name of the second, Puah; ¹⁶and he said, When you midwife the Hebrew women, and look on the birth-stools, if it is a son, you will kill him; and if it is a daughter, it shall live. ¹⁷And the midwives feared God, and they did not do as the king of Egypt said to them. And they kept the male children alive. ¹⁸And the king of Egypt called to the midwives and said to them, Why do you do this thing and keep alive the male children? ¹⁹And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous. Before the midwives come to them they bear. ²⁰And God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became exceedingly strong. ²¹And because the midwives feared God, He made houses for them.

²²And Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, Every son that is born, you shall cast him into the river. And you shall keep alive every daughter.

¹And a man went from the house of Levi and took a daughter of Levi. ²And the woman conceived and bore a son; and she saw him, that he was beautiful. And she concealed him three months. ³And she was not able to hide him any longer, and she took a basket for him made of papyrus, and she daubed it with bitumen and with pitch. And she put the child in it, and placed it in the reeds by the lip of the Nile. ⁴And his sister took her stand from a distance, to know what would be done to him.

¹⁰And the child grew, and she brought him to the daughter of Pharaoh. And he became a son to her, and she called his name Moses, and said, Because I drew him out of the water.

¹¹And it happened in those days, even

Moses was grown, and he went out to his brothers and looked upon their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian man striking a Hebrew man, of his brothers. ¹²And he turned here and there and saw that no man was there. And he struck the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³And he went out on the second day, and, behold, two men, Hebrews, were fighting. And he said to the guilty one, Why should you strike your neighbor? ¹⁴And he said, Who appointed you as a man, a ruler and a judge over us? Are you saying to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely the thing is known. ¹⁵And Pharaoh heard this word, and he sought to kill Moses. And Moses fled from before Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian. And he sat down by the well.

¹⁶And seven daughters were born to the priest of Midian, and they came and drew and filled the troughs to water their father's flocks. ¹⁷And the shepherds came and drove them away; and Moses rose up and saved them, and watered their flocks. ¹⁸And they came to their father Reuel; and he said, Why have you hurried to come today? ¹⁹And they said, An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the shepherds and he also drew for us and watered the flock. ²⁰And he said to his daughters, And where is he? Why then have you left the man? Call him, and let him eat bread. ²¹And Moses consented to live with the man; and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses. ²²And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, I have become an alien in a foreign land.

²³And it happened during these many days, that the king of Egypt died, and the sons of Israel groaned from the slavery. And they cried, and their cry went up to God from the slavery. ²⁴And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵And God saw the sons of Israel, and God knew them.

¹And Moses was feeding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock behind the wilderness and came to the mountain of God, to Horeb. ²And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a flame of fire from the middle of a thorn bush. And he looked, and behold, the thorn bush was burning with fire, and the thorn bush was not burned up! ³And Moses said, I will turn aside now and see this great sight, why the thorn bush is not burned up. ⁴And Jehovah saw that he turned aside to see, and God called to him from the midst of the thorn bush, and said, Moses! Moses! And he said, I am here. ⁵And He said, Do not come near here, pull off your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. ⁶And He said, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for he feared to look upon God.

¹¹And Moses said to God, Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt? ¹²And He said, I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you that I have sent you, when you bring out the people from Egypt: You shall serve God on this mountain.

¹³And Moses said to God, Behold, I shall come to the sons of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you; and they will say to me, What is His name? What shall I say to them? ¹⁴And God said to Moses, I AM THAT I AM; and He said, You shall say this to the sons of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. ¹⁵And God said to Moses again, You shall say this to the sons of Israel, Jehovah the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial from generation to generation. ¹⁶Go, and gather the elders of Israel, and say to them, Jehovah the God of your fathers has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I have surely visited you and have seen what is done to you in Egypt. ¹⁷And I have said, I will bring you up from the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; to a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁸And they shall listen to your voice; and you shall come in, you and the elders of Israel to the king of Egypt. And you shall say to him, Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has met us; and now, please let us go for a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Jehovah our God. ¹⁹And I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go, not even by a strong hand. ²⁰And I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders, which I will do in its midst, and afterward he will send you away. ²¹And I will give this people favor in the eyes of Egypt; and it will come to pass, when you go, you will not go empty. ²²And each woman shall ask of her neighbor, and from the stranger in her house, articles of silver, and articles of gold, and garments; and you shall put these on your sons and on your daughters. And you shall plunder Egypt.

¹And Moses answered and said, And, behold, they will not believe me and will not listen to my voice. For they will say, Jehovah has not appeared to you. ²And Jehovah said to him, What is this in your hand? And he said, A staff. ³And He said, Throw it to the ground. And he threw it to the ground, and it became a snake. And Moses fled before it. ⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Send out your hand and take it by the tail. And he sent out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand — ⁵so that they may believe that Jehovah the God of their fathers has appeared to you, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ⁶And Jehovah said to him again, Now put your hand into your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom, and he brought it out, and, behold, his hand was leprous like snow. ⁷And He said, Put your hand back into your bosom. And he put his hand back into his bosom, and he brought it out from his bosom; and, behold, it had turned like his flesh! ⁸And it shall be, if they will not believe you and will not listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the latter sign. ⁹And it shall be, if they will not believe these two signs also, and will not listen to your voice, you shall take of the water of the Nile and pour it on the dry land. And the water which you take from the Nile shall become blood on the dry land. ¹⁰And Moses said to Jehovah, O Lord, I am not a man of words, either from yesterday or the third day, nor since You have been speaking to Your bondsman. For I am slow of mouth and slow of tongue. ¹¹And Jehovah said to him, Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the dumb, or the deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Is it not I, Jehovah? ¹²And now go, and I will be with your mouth, and will teach you what you shall speak.

¹³And he said, O Lord, please send by the hand of him whom You will send. ¹⁴And the anger of Jehovah glowed against Moses. And He said, Do I not know your brother, Aaron the Levite, that he can speak well? And, behold, he also is coming out to meet you, and he will see you and be glad in his heart. ¹⁵And you shall speak to him, and you shall put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do. ¹⁶And he shall speak for you to the people. And it shall be, he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be a god for him. ¹⁷And you shall take this staff in your hand by which you do the signs.

¹⁸And Moses went and returned to his father-in-law Jethro, and said to him, Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

Go! Return to Egypt. For all the men are dead, those seeking your life. ²⁰And Moses took his wife and his sons and made them ride on an ass. And he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in his hand.

²¹And Jehovah said to Moses, As you go to return to Egypt, see all the wonders which I have put in your hand, and do them before Pharaoh. And I will harden his heart, and he will not send the people away. ²²And you shall speak to Pharaoh, So says Jehovah, My son, My firstborn is Israel. ²³And I said to you, Send My son away, and let him serve Me; and you refused to send him. Behold, I am about to kill your son, your firstborn!

²⁴And it happened on the way, in the lodging place, Jehovah met him and sought to kill him. ²⁵And Zipporah took a stone and cut off her son's foreskin, and caused it to touch his feet. And she said, You are a bridegroom of bloods to me. ²⁶And He pulled back from him. Then she said, A bridegroom of bloods, for the circumcision.

²⁷And Jehovah said to Aaron, Go to the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mountain of God; and he kissed him. ²⁸And Moses told Aaron all the words of Jehovah with which He had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him. ²⁹And Moses and Aaron went on and gathered all the elders of the sons of Israel. ³⁰And Aaron spoke all the words which Jehovah had spoken to Moses. And he did the signs before the people. ³¹And the people believed. And they heard that Jehovah had visited the sons of Israel, and that He had seen their affliction. And they bowed and worshipped.

¹And afterward Moses and Aaron came in and said to Pharaoh, So says Jehovah the God of Israel, Send away My people, and they shall feast to Me in the wilderness. ²And Pharaoh said, Who is Jehovah that I should listen to His voice to send away Israel? I do not know Jehovah, and I also will not send Israel away. ³And they said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God, that He not strike us with plague or with sword. ⁴And the king of Egypt said to them, Moses and Aaron, why do you loose the people from their work? You go to your burdens.

⁵And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land are many now, and you make them cease from their burdens. ⁶And Pharaoh commanded the slavedrivers of the people, and their overseers, that day, saying, ⁷You shall not go on giving straw to the people to make bricks, as yesterday and the third day. They shall go and pick up straw for themselves. ⁸And the fixed number of bricks which they were making yesterday and the third day you shall put on them. You shall not diminish from it. For they are idle; so they are crying, saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to our God. ⁹Let the bondage be heavy on the men, that they may work in it, and may not trust to the lying words.

¹⁰And the slavedrivers of the people, and their overseers, went out and spoke to the people, saying, Pharaoh has said this, I will not give you straw. ¹¹You go take straw for yourselves from wherever you may find it. For not a thing will be reduced from your work. ¹²And the people scattered in all the land of Egypt to pick up stubble for straw. ¹³And the slavedrivers were demanding, saying, Finish your work, the matter of a day in its day, as when there was straw. ¹⁴And the overseers of the sons of Israel were beaten, those whom the slavedrivers of Pharaoh had put over them, saying, Why have you not finished your appointed task, to make bricks as a day ago and the day before, both yesterday and today?

¹⁵And the overseers of the sons of Israel came in and cried to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you do this way to your slaves? ¹⁶No straw is given to your slaves, and they are saying to us, Make bricks. And, behold, your slaves are beaten, but your people are at fault. ¹⁷And he said, You are lazy and idle. So you are saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to Jehovah. ¹⁸Therefore, go now and work. And straw will not be given to you; and a certain number of bricks you shall deliver.

saw themselves in affliction, saying, You shall not diminish from your bricks, the matter of a day in its day. ²⁰And they met Moses and Aaron standing to meet them when they came from Pharaoh. ²¹And they said to them, May Jehovah look on you and judge; who have made our odor to stink in Pharaoh's eyes and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword in their hands to kill us.

²²And Moses returned to Jehovah and said, Lord, why have You done evil to this people? Why then have You sent me? ²³And since I came in to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people. And You did not certainly deliver your people.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. For he will send them away with a strong hand; yea, he will drive them out from his land with a strong hand.

²And God spoke to Moses and said to him, I am Jehovah. ³And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, and by My name JEHOVAH I never made Myself known to them. ⁴And I also established My covenant with them, to give to them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they traveled. ⁵And I also have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians are enslaving. And I have remembered My covenant. ⁶Therefore, say to the sons of Israel, I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of Egypt, and will deliver you from their slavery. And I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments.

⁷And I will take you for Myself for a people, and I will be a God for you. And you shall know that I am Jehovah your God, the One bringing you out from under the burdens of Egypt. ⁸And I will bring you into the land which I raised My hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you for a possession. I am Jehovah! ⁹And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel. And they did not listen to Moses, from shortness of spirit and from hard bondage.

¹¹Go, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he may send away the sons of Israel from his land. ¹²And Moses spoke before Jehovah, saying, Behold the sons of Israel have not listened to me. And how should Pharaoh hear me, I being of uncircumcised lips? ¹³And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and He commanded them as to the sons of Israel, and as to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt.

¹⁴These were the heads of the houses of their fathers: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, and Pallu, and Hezron, and Carmi; these were the families of Reuben. ¹⁵And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess; these were the families of Simeon. ¹⁶And these were the names of the sons of Levi by their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred and thirty-seven years. ¹⁷The sons of Gershon: Libni, and Shimei, by their families. ¹⁸And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred and thirty-three years. ¹⁹And the sons of Merari: Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of Levi according to their generations.

²⁰And Amram took his aunt Jochebed to him for a wife. And she bore to him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty-seven years. ²¹And the sons of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. ²²And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, and Eleazar, and Zithri. ²³And Aaron took Elisheba the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, to him for a wife. And she bore to him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²⁴And the sons of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the families of the Korahites. ²⁵And Aaron's son Eleazar took of the daughters of Putiel for his wife. And she bore to him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites by their families.

²⁶That is the Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said, Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, according to their armies. ²⁷Those were the ones speaking to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt—it was Moses and Aaron.

²⁸And it happened on the day Jehovah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt:

²⁹Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, I am Jehovah! Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all which I am about to speak to you.

³⁰And Moses said before Jehovah, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips. How could Pharaoh listen to me?

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Come, see, I have made you a god to Pharaoh; and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet. ²You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh. And he will send away the sons of Israel from his land. ³And I will harden the heart of Pharaoh. And I will multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴And Pharaoh will not listen to you. And I will lay My hand on Egypt, and will bring My armies, My people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt with great judgments. ⁵And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah when I send forth My hand on Egypt and bring out the sons of Israel from their midst. ⁶And Moses and Aaron did as Jehovah commanded them, so they did. ⁷And Moses was a son of eighty years, and Aaron was a son of eighty-three years when they spoke to Pharaoh.

¹²And they each one threw down his staff, and they became snakes. But Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs. ¹³And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as Jehovah had said.

¹⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, The heart of Pharaoh is heavy; he refuses to send away the people. ¹⁵Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he is about to go out to the water. And you stand to meet him on the lip of the river. And you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a snake. ¹⁶And you shall say to him, Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, Send away My people, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. And, behold, you have not listened until now. ¹⁷So says Jehovah, By this you shall know that I am Jehovah: Behold, I am about to smite on the water in the river with the staff which is in My hand, and it shall be turned to blood. ¹⁸And the fish in the river will die, and the river will stink, and the Egyptians will become weary of drinking water from the river.

¹⁹And Jehovah said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your staff, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over the rivers, over their canals, and over their pools, and over every body of their waters, so that they may become blood. And blood shall be in all the land of Egypt, both in wooden and in stone vessels. ²⁰And Moses and Aaron did so, as Jehovah had commanded. And he lifted up the staff and struck the water which was in the river before Pharaoh's eyes, and before his servants' eyes. And all the water in the river turned to blood. ²¹And the fish in the river died, and the river stunk. And the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the Nile. And the blood was in all the land of Egypt. ²²And the magicians of Egypt did so by their secret arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as Jehovah had said. ²³And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. And he did not set his heart to this also.

²⁴And all the Egyptians dug around the river to drink water, for they were not able to drink from the water of the river. ²⁵And seven days went by after Jehovah smote the river.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, So says Jehovah, Send away My people that they may serve Me. ²And if you refuse to send them away, behold, I am about to smite all your territory with frogs. ³And the river will swarm with frogs. And they shall go up and enter into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your couch, and into your servants' house, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. ⁴And the frogs will come up on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.

⁸And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray to Jehovah that He may remove the frogs from me and from my people. And I will send away the people that they may sacrifice to Jehovah.

⁹And Moses said to Pharaoh, Glory over me. For when shall I pray for you and for your servants and for your people, to cut off the frogs from you, and from your house, that they may be left only in the river? ¹⁰And he said, For tomorrow. And he said, According to your word, so that you may know that there is none like Jehovah our God. ¹¹And the frogs will depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They will only be in the river.

¹²And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried to Jehovah concerning the frogs which He had set on Pharaoh. ¹³And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died from the houses, from the courts, and from the fields. ¹⁴And they gathered them in heaps and heaps; and the land stunk.

¹⁵And Pharaoh saw that there was relief. And he made his heart heavy, and he did not listen to them, as Jehovah had said.

his staff and smote the dust of the earth. And the lice were on man and on beast. All the dust of the earth became lice in the land of Egypt. ¹⁸And the priests performed with their secret arts to bring forth lice, and they could not. And the lice were on man and on beast. ¹⁹And the priests said to Pharaoh, It is the finger of God. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as Jehovah had said.

²⁰And Jehovah said to Moses, Get up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh. Behold, he is about to go out to the water. And say to him, So says Jehovah, Send away My people that they may serve Me. ²¹And if you do not send away My people, behold, I am about to send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and on your house. And the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are. ²²And in that day I will separate the land of Goshen with My people resting on it, that there be no swarms of flies, so that you may know that I am Jehovah in the midst of the earth. ²³And I will put redemption between My people and your people. This miracle shall be for tomorrow. ²⁴And Jehovah did so. And teeming swarms of flies came into Pharaoh's house, and the house of his servants, and into all the land of Egypt. And the land was destroyed before the swarms of flies.

²⁵And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go! Sacrifice to your God in the land. ²⁶And Moses said, It is not right to do so, for we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to Jehovah our God. Behold, if we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us? ²⁷We will go into the wilderness, a journey of three days, and sacrifice to Jehovah our God, as He may say to us. ²⁸And Pharaoh said, I will send you away, and you may sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness; only do not go very far off. Pray for me. ²⁹And Moses said, Behold, I am about to go out from you, and to pray to Jehovah. And the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh, and from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. But do not let Pharaoh continue to deceive, not to send the people to sacrifice to Jehovah. ³⁰And Moses went out from Pharaoh. And he prayed to Jehovah. ³¹And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses, and the swarms of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; and not one was left. ³²And Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not send away the people.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, So says Jehovah the God of the Hebrews, Send away My people that they may serve Me. ²And if you refuse to send away, and you still hold onto them, ³behold, the hand of Jehovah is going to be on your livestock in the field, on the horses, on the asses, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks, a very heavy pestilence. ⁴And Jehovah will make a distinction between Israel's livestock and Egypt's livestock. Also of all that belongs to the sons of Israel, not a thing will die. ⁵And Jehovah set a time, saying, Tomorrow Jehovah will do this thing in the land. ⁶And Jehovah did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died. And from the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died. ⁷And Pharaoh sent, and behold, not even one was dead from Israel's livestock! And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not send away the people.

⁸And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, Take for yourselves the fullness of your hands of soot from the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heavens before Pharaoh's eyes. ⁹And let it become dust on all the land of Egypt, and let it become an inflammation breaking out into a boil on man and on livestock in all the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And they took soot of the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it toward the heavens, and it became an inflammation breaking out into boils on man and on livestock. ¹¹And the priests were not able to stand before Moses, before the inflammation. For the inflammation was on the priests and on all the Egyptians. ¹²And Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not listen to them, as Jehovah had said to Moses.

¹³And Jehovah said to Moses, Get up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, So says Jehovah the God of the Hebrews, Send away My people that they may serve Me. ¹⁴For at this time I am going to send all My plagues to your heart, and on your servants, and on your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the land. ¹⁵For now I have sent forth My hand and have stricken you and your people with pestilence, and you have been destroyed from the earth. ¹⁶And for this reason I have made you stand, in order to cause you to see My power, and in order to declare My name in all the land. ¹⁷You still are exalting yourself against My people, so as not to send them away. ¹⁸Behold, I will rain very grievous hail about this time tomorrow, such as has never been in Egypt from the day of its foundation until now. ¹⁹And now send out, bring your livestock to safety, and all belonging to you in the field. All men and livestock found in the field, and not brought to the house, the hail will come on them, and they will die.

²⁰Of the servants of Pharaoh, the one who feared the word of Jehovah made his slaves and his livestock flee to the houses. ²¹And the one who did not set his heart on the word of Jehovah left his slaves and his livestock in the field. ²²And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand to the heavens, so that hail may be in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on livestock, and on every plant of the field in the land of Egypt. ²³And Moses stretched out his staff to the heavens. And Jehovah gave thunder and hail. And fire came down to the earth, and Jehovah rained hail on the land of Egypt. ²⁴And there was hail, and fire flashing in the midst of the hail, very heavy, which never had been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵And the hail struck in all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, from men and to livestock. And the hail struck every plant of the field, and it broke in pieces every tree of the field. ²⁶Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel lived, there was no hail.

and Aaron, and said to them, I have sinned this time. Jehovah is the righteous One, and I and my people the wicked ones. ²⁸Pray to Jehovah and let it be enough of the thunders and hail of God. And I will send you away, and you shall not continue any longer. ²⁹And Moses said to him, As I go out of the city I will spread out my palms to Jehovah. The thunder will cease, and the hail will not still be, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Jehovah. ³⁰And as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear before Jehovah God.

³¹And the flax and the barley were stricken. For the barley was in the ear, and the flax in blossom. ³²And the wheat and the spelt were not stricken, for they were late. ³³And Moses went out from Pharaoh, from the city, and he spread out his palms to Jehovah. And the thunder and the hail ceased. And rain was not poured out toward the earth. ³⁴And Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, and he continued to sin. And he hardened his heart, he and his servants. ³⁵And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not send away the sons of Israel, as Jehovah had said by the hand of Moses.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, so that I may set these signs of Mine in their midst; ²and so that you may recount in the ears of your son and the son of your son what I exerted Myself to do against Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, and you may know that I am Jehovah. ³And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him, So says Jehovah the God of the Hebrews, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Send away My people so that they may serve Me. ⁴For if you refuse to send away My people, behold, I am going to bring locusts into your territory tomorrow. ⁵And they will cover the eye of the land, and no one will be able to see the land. And they will eat the rest of that which escaped, that which is left to you from the hail. And they will eat every tree that sprouts to you from the field. ⁶And your houses will be full, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of the Egyptians, which neither your fathers nor the fathers of your fathers have seen; from the day of their being on the earth until this day. And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

⁷And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long shall this one be a snare to us? Send away the men that they may serve Jehovah their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is perishing? ⁸And Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. And he said to them, Go, serve Jehovah your God. Who and who are the ones going? ⁹And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters. We will go with our flocks and with our herds. For it is a feast of Jehovah to us. ¹⁰And he said to them, May Jehovah be so with you, as I send you away, and your little ones. Watch! For evil is before your face! ¹¹Not so! You and the men go now and serve Jehovah. For you were seeking it. And he drove them out from the face of Pharaoh.

¹²And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand for the locusts over the land of Egypt, so that they may go up on the land of Egypt and may eat every plant of the land, all that the hail left. ¹³And Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt. And Jehovah brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. And at morning the east wind lifted up the locusts. ¹⁴And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested on all the territory of Egypt, exceedingly many. Never were there locusts like them before, and afterward none will be like them. ¹⁵And they covered the eye of the earth, and the land became dark. And they ate every plant of the land, and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. And no greenness was left in the trees and in the plants of the field in all the land of Egypt. ¹⁶And Pharaoh hurried to call Moses and Aaron. And he said, I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you. ¹⁷And now pray forgive my sins only this time, and pray to Jehovah your God that He may take away from me this death only. ¹⁸And he went out from Pharaoh, and he prayed to Jehovah.

²¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand to the heavens so that darkness may be on the land of Egypt, and one may feel darkness. ²²And Moses stretched out his hand to the heavens, and darkness of gloom was in all the land of Egypt three days. ²³They did not see each one his brother, and they did not rise up, each one from his place for three days. Yet to all the sons of Israel there was light in their dwellings. ²⁴And Pharaoh called to Moses and said, Go, serve Jehovah. Only leave your flocks and your herds behind. Your little ones may go with you. ²⁵And Moses said, You must also give into our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings so that we may prepare for Jehovah our God. ²⁶And also our livestock shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left. For we shall take from them to serve Jehovah our God. And we do not know with what we shall serve Jehovah until we come there. ²⁷And Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he was not willing to send them away. ²⁸And Pharaoh said to him, Go away from me. Be careful for yourself. Do not see my face again, for in the day you see my face you shall die. ²⁹And Moses said, You have spoken rightly. I will not see your face again.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, I will bring still one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will send you from here. When he sends you away completely, he will surely drive you out from here. ²Now speak in the ears of the people, and let them ask, each man from his neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold. ³And Jehovah gave favor in the eyes of the Egyptians toward the people. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of the servants of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of the people.

⁴And Moses said, So says Jehovah, About the middle of the night I will go out in the midst of Egypt. ⁵And every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, the one sitting on his throne, to the firstborn of the slave-girl who is behind the mill; and every firstborn of animals. ⁶And a great cry shall be in all the land of Egypt, such as never has been, and nothing like it shall be again. ⁷And a dog shall not sharpen his tongue against all the sons of Israel, toward man and toward livestock, so that you may know that Jehovah distinguishes between Egypt and Israel. ⁸And all these servants of yours will come down to me, and bow to me, saying, Go out, you and all the people at your feet. And afterward I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in the heat of anger.

⁹And Jehovah said to Moses, Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My miracles may multiply in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before Pharaoh. And Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not send away the sons of Israel from his land.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ²This month shall be the chief of months for you. It shall be the first of the months of the year for you. ³Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, On the tenth of this month, they shall each take for themselves an animal of the flock for a father's house, a flock animal for a house. ⁴And if the house is too small for a flock animal, he and his neighbor next to his house shall take. By the number of souls, each one according to the mouth of his eating, you shall count concerning the flock animal. ⁵A flock animal, a perfect one, a male, a yearling, shall be to you. You shall take from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶And it shall be for you to keep until the fourteenth day of this month. And all the assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the evenings. ⁷And they shall take from the blood, and put it on the two side doorposts and on the upper doorpost, on the houses in which they eat it. ⁸And they shall eat the flesh in this night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ⁹Do not eat it raw, or at all boiled in water, but roasted with fire; its head with its legs and with its inward parts. ¹⁰And you shall not leave any of it until morning. And you shall burn with fire that left from it until morning. ¹¹And you shall eat it this way: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the Passover to Jehovah. ¹²And I will pass through in the land of Egypt in this night. And I will strike every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from man and to livestock. And I will execute judgments on all the gods of Egypt. I am Jehovah! ¹³And the blood shall be a sign to you, on the houses where you are. And I will see the blood, and I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be on you to destroy, when I strike in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴And the day shall be a memorial for you. And you shall celebrate it as a feast to Jehovah, for your generations, You shall celebrate it as a law forever. ¹⁵You shall eat unleavened bread seven days. Indeed, on the first day you shall cause leaven to cease from your houses. For anyone eating anything leavened, that soul shall be cut off from Israel, from the first day until the seventh day. ¹⁶And on the first day shall be a holy gathering, and in the seventh day a holy gathering shall be to you. Not any work may be done on them. Only what must be eaten by your soul, that alone may be done by you. ¹⁷And you shall observe the unleavened bread, for on this very day I brought out your armies from the land of Egypt. And you shall observe this day for your generations, a statute forever. ¹⁸In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month, at evening. ¹⁹For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses. For anyone eating anything leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, among the aliens, and among the natives of the land. ²⁰You shall not eat anything leavened. You shall eat unleavened bread in all your dwellings.

²¹And Moses called to all the elders of Israel and said to them, Draw out and take of the flock for you and for your families. And kill the passover. ²²And take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood which is in the basin. And touch some of the blood in the basin to the upper doorpost and to the two side doorposts. And you shall not go out, anyone from the door of his house until morning. ²³And Jehovah will pass through to strike Egypt. And He will see the blood on the upper doorpost and on the two side doorposts, and Jehovah will pass over the door. And He will not allow the destroyer to come into your house to strike you.

²⁴And you shall observe this word for an ordinance for you, and for your sons forever. ²⁵And it shall be, when you come into the land which Jehovah shall give to you, as He has spoken, you shall observe this service. ²⁶And it shall be, when your sons say to you, What is this service to you? ²⁷Then you shall say, A sacrifice of a passover of Jehovah, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when He struck Egypt. And He delivered our houses. And the people bowed and worshiped. ²⁸And the sons of Israel went out and did as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron. So they did.

²⁹And it happened at midnight. Jehovah struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, the one sitting on the throne, to the firstborn of the captive who was in the prison-house, and every firstborn of animals. ³⁰And Pharaoh arose by night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not a dead one. ³¹And he called Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Arise, go out from the midst of my people, both you and the sons of Israel. And go serve Jehovah according to your word. ³²Take both your flocks and your herds, as you said, and go. And bless me also.

³³And the Egyptians were strong on the people, to hasten to send them away from the land. For they said, All of us are about to die. ³⁴And the people took up their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothing on their shoulders. ³⁵And the sons of Israel did according to the word of Moses. And they asked from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing.³⁶ And Jehovah gave favor to the people in the eyes of the Egyptians. And they granted their requests. And they plundered Egypt.

³⁷And the sons of Israel traveled from Rameses to Succoth, the men being about six hundred thousand on foot, apart from little ones. ³⁸And also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks, and herds, very many livestock. ³⁹And they baked the dough which they brought out from Egypt into unleavened cakes. For it was not leavened, because they were driven out from Egypt, and they were not able to delay. And also they had not prepared food for a journey for themselves.

⁴⁰And the time of the dwelling of the sons of Israel, which they dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. ⁴¹And it happened, from the end of four hundred and thirty years, it happened on this day, all the armies of Jehovah went out from the land of Egypt. ⁴²*It is* a night of celebration to Jehovah, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This night is a celebration for all the sons of Israel to their generations.

⁴³And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the Passover. No stranger may eat of it. ⁴⁴And every man's slave, a purchase of silver, you shall circumcise him, then he may eat of it. ⁴⁵A foreigner and a hired servant may not eat of it. ⁴⁶It shall be eaten in one house. You shall not carry any of the flesh outside from the house. And you shall not break a bone in it. ⁴⁷All the congregation of Israel shall prepare it. ⁴⁸And when a stranger shall stay with you, and will do the Passover to Jehovah, let every male to him be circumcised, and then he may come near to prepare it. And he shall be like a native of the land. But any uncircumcised one may not eat of it. ⁴⁹One law shall be to the native, and to the visitor, the one staying in your midst.

⁵⁰And all the sons of Israel did as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron. So they did. ⁵¹And it happened on this day, Jehovah brought out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt by their armies.

³And Moses said to the people, Remember this day in which you went out from Egypt, from the house of slaves. For by the might of His hand Jehovah brought you out from here. And no leavened bread shall be eaten. ⁴Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out. ⁵And it shall be when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall do this service in this month. ⁶Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day keep a feast to Jehovah. ⁷Unleavened bread shall be eaten the seven days. And leavened bread for you shall not be seen; yea, no leaven shall be seen among you in all your boundaries. ⁸And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, It is because of what Jehovah did for me when I came out from Egypt. ⁹And it shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and a memorial between your eyes, so that a law of Jehovah may be in your mouth. For with a strong hand Jehovah brought you out from Egypt. ¹⁰And you shall keep this ordinance at its appointed time, from days to days.

¹¹And it shall be when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, ¹²you shall set apart to Jehovah every one opening the womb, and every firstling, the offspring of animals which are yours; the males are Jehovah's. ¹³And every firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a flock animal. And if you do not redeem, you shall break its neck. And every firstborn of men among your sons you shall redeem. ¹⁴And it shall be, when your son asks you on the morrow, saying, What is this? You shall say to him, Jehovah brought us out from Egypt by the might of His hand, from the house of slaves. ¹⁵And it happened when Pharaoh hardened himself against sending us away, Jehovah killed every firstborn one in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of men even to the firstborn of animals. On account of this I sacrifice to Jehovah every one opening the womb, the males, and I redeem every firstborn of my sons. ¹⁶And it shall be for a sign on your hand, and frontlets between your eyes. For Jehovah brought us out from Egypt by the might of His hand.

¹⁷And it happened, in Pharaoh's sending away the people, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, though it was near. For God said, Lest the people repent when they see war, and return to Egypt. ¹⁸But God made the people turn toward the way of the wilderness, to the Sea of Reeds. And the sons of Israel went up armed from the land of Egypt.

¹⁹And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him. For he had made the sons of Israel certainly swear, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall cause my bones to go from here with you.

²⁰And they pulled up from Succoth, and they camped at Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. ²¹And Jehovah was going before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them in the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give light to them, to go by day and by night. ²²The pillar of cloud did not cease by day, and the pillar of fire by night, before the people.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them return and camp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal-Zephon. You shall camp opposite it, by the sea. ³And Pharaoh will say as to the sons of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has shut them in. ⁴And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue you. And I will be honored through Pharaoh, and through all his armies. And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah. And they did so.

⁵And it was told to the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned as to the people. And they said, What is this we have done? For we have sent away Israel from serving us. ⁶And he prepared his chariots. And he took his people with him. ⁷And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and officers over all of them. ⁸And Jehovah hardened Pharaoh king of Egypt's heart. And he pursued after the sons of Israel. And the sons of Israel were going out with a high hand. ⁹And the Egyptians pursued them. And they overtook them camping by the sea, all the horses and the chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, by Pihahiroth, before Baal-Zephon.

¹⁰And Pharaoh came near, and the sons of Israel raised their eyes, and, behold! The Egyptians were marching after them! And they were greatly afraid. And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah. ¹¹And they said to Moses, Were there no graves in Egypt, that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What is this you have done to us, to bring us out from Egypt? ¹²*Is* this not the word which we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, Go away from us, and let us serve the Egyptians. For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians, than to die in the wilderness. ¹³And Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid. Take your stand and see the salvation of Jehovah, which He will prepare for you today. For as you see the Egyptians today, you shall not continue to see them again forever. ¹⁴Jehovah will fight for you, and you be silent.

¹⁵And Jehovah said to Moses, Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them pull up. ¹⁶And you raise your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it so that the sons of Israel may go in the midst of the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷And I, behold, I am about to harden the heart of the Egyptians. And they will go after them. And I will be honored through Pharaoh, and through his armies, through his chariots, and through his horsemen. ¹⁸And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah, in my being honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots, and through his horsemen.

¹⁹And the Angel of God withdrew, the One going before the camp of Israel. And He went behind them. And the pillar of cloud withdrew from before them, and it stood behind them. ²⁰And it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. And it was cloudy and dark. And it gave light to the night; and this one did not come near to that one all night.

²¹And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and Jehovah caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all night. And He made the sea dry land, and the waters divided. ²²And the sons of Israel came into the middle of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them from their right and from their left. ²³And the Egyptians pursued, and all the horses of Pharaoh came after them, his chariots and his horsemen, into the middle of the sea. ²⁴And it happened in the morning watch: Jehovah looked on the camp of the Egyptians in the pillar of fire and cloud. And He confused the camp of the Egyptians. ²⁵And He took off the wheels of their chariots, and made them drive with difficulty. And the Egyptians said, I will flee from the face of Israel, for Jehovah is fighting for them against the Egyptians.

²⁶And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea, and let the waters return on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen. ²⁷And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its usual flow, at the turning of the morning, and the Egyptians were fleeing to meet it. And Jehovah shook off the Egyptians into the middle of the sea. ²⁸And the waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, together with all the army of Pharaoh, those going after them into the sea. And not even one was left among them. ²⁹And the sons of Israel walked on dry ground in the middle of the sea, the waters being a wall for them, from their right and from their left.

³⁰And Jehovah saved Israel in that day from the hand of Egypt. And Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the lip of the sea. ³¹And Israel saw the great hand with which Jehovah worked against Egypt. And the people feared Jehovah, and they believed in Jehovah and in His servant Moses.

¹Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to Jehovah, and spoke, saying, I will sing to Jehovah, for He is highly exalted. He has thrown the horse and his rider into the sea. ²My strength and song is Jah, and He was to me salvation; this is my God and I will glorify Him; the God of my father and I will exalt Him. ³Jehovah is a Man of war; Jehovah is His name. ⁴He has cast Pharaoh's chariots and his army in the sea; and the choice ones of his officers are drowned in the Sea of Reeds, the depths cover them; they have dropped into the depths like a stone. ⁵Your right hand, O Jehovah, is glorious in power; O Jehovah, Your right dashes the enemy to pieces. ⁶And in Your majesty's greatness You pull down those rising up against You; You send forth Your wrath; it consumes them like stubble. ⁷And by the spirit of Your anger waters were heaped up; the running waters stood like a wall; the depths congealed in the heart of the sea. ⁸The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my soul shall be filled with them; I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them. ⁹You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in mighty waters. ¹⁰Who is like You among the gods, O Jehovah? Who is like You, glorified in holiness, fearful in praises, O Worker of wonders? ¹¹You stretched Your right hand; the earth swallowed them. ¹²In Your mercy You led the people whom You redeemed; You guided in Your strength to Your holy dwelling. ¹³Peoples heard; they tremble; trembling seized the dwellers of Philistia. ¹⁴Then the chiefs of Edom were terrified; the leaders of Moab were seized by trembling; all the dwellers of Canaan were melted. ¹⁵Terrors and dread fell on them; by the greatness of Your arm they are silent as a stone, until Your people pass through, O Jehovah, until pass through the people whom You have bought. ¹⁶You shall bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, the place You have made for Your dwelling-place, O Jehovah; the sanctuary which Your hands have prepared, O Lord. ¹⁷Jehovah reigns forever and ever!

¹⁸For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and Jehovah brought back the waters of the sea on them; and the sons of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

prophetess, took the timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. ²¹And Miriam answered to them, Sing to Jehovah, for surely He has triumphed gloriously; He has thrown the horse and its rider into the sea.

²²And Moses made Israel to pull out from the Sea of Reeds. And they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they went into the wilderness three days, and did not find water. ²³And they came to Marah. And they were not able to drink water from Marah, for it was bitter. Therefore, one called its name Marah. ²⁴And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? ²⁵And he cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah showed him a tree. And he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet.

He made a statute and an ordinance for them there, and He tested them there. ²⁶And he said, If you carefully listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, and you do what is right in His eyes, and you give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will not put on you all the diseases which I have put on Egypt; for I am Jehovah your healer.

²⁷And they came to Elim. And there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. And they camped by the waters.

¹And they pulled out from Elim. And all the congregation of the sons of Israel came into the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their going out from the land of Egypt. ²And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness. ³And the sons of Israel said to them, Would that we had died by the hand of Jehovah in the land of Egypt, in our sitting by the flesh-pots, in our eating bread to satisfaction. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill all this assembly with hunger.

⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Behold, I AM! Bread will rain from the heavens for you. And the people shall go out and gather the matter of a day in its day, so that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not. ⁵And it shall be on the sixth day they shall prepare what they bring in. And it shall be double what they gather day by day.

⁶And Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, At evening, you shall know that Jehovah has brought you from the land of Egypt; and in the morning you shall see the glory of Jehovah, in His hearing your murmurings against Jehovah. And we, what are we that you murmur against us? ⁸And Moses said, When Jehovah gives you flesh to eat in the evening, and bread in the morning, to satisfaction; when Jehovah hears your murmurings which you are murmuring against Him, you will see. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Jehovah.

⁹And Moses spoke to Aaron, Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, Come near before Jehovah; for He has heard your murmurings. ¹⁰And it happened, as Aaron was speaking to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, they turned toward the wilderness. And, behold! The glory of Jehovah appeared in the cloud! ¹¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying, Between the evenings you shall eat flesh; and in the morning you shall be satisfied with bread; and you shall know that I am Jehovah your God.

¹⁵And the sons of Israel looked. And they said, each one to his brother, Is that a whatness? For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, That is the bread which Jehovah has given to you for food. ¹⁶This is the thing which Jehovah commanded. Gather from it, each one according to the mouth of his eating; an omer for a head, by the number of your souls you shall take for each man who is in your tent. ¹⁷And so the sons of Israel did. And they gathered—the one gathering much and the one gathering little. ¹⁸And they measured with an omer. And the one gathering much did not have too much. And the one gathering little did not have any need. Each one gathered according to the mouth of his eating. ¹⁹And Moses said to them, Do not let anyone leave from it until morning. ²⁰And they did not listen to Moses. And some left from it until morning; and it became rotten with maggots, and stunk. And Moses was angry against them. ²¹And they gathered it in the morning, each one in the morning according to the mouth of his eating. And it melted in the heat of the sun. ²²And it came about on the sixth day, they gathered double bread, two omers for one. And all the leaders of the congregation came and reported to Moses. ²³And he said to them, That is what Jehovah said, Tomorrow is a rest, a holy sabbath to Jehovah. What you will bake, bake. And boil what you will boil. And lay up for yourselves all that is left over, to keep it until the morning. ²⁴And they laid it up until the morning, as Moses commanded. And it did not stink and no maggot was in it. ²⁵And Moses said, Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to Jehovah. Today you will not find it in the field. ²⁶You shall gather it six days, and on the seventh is a sabbath; in it none shall be found. ²⁷And it happened on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather, and did not find any. ²⁸And Jehovah said to Moses, Until when do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? ²⁹See, because Jehovah has given the sabbath to you, therefore He is giving to you two days of bread on the sixth day. Each one of you remain in his place. Do not let anyone go out from his place on the seventh day. ³⁰And the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹And the house of Israel called its name, Manna. And it was like the seed of coriander, white; and its taste like cakes with honey. ³²And Moses said, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded, Fill an omer from it, to keep for your generations, so that they may see the bread which I caused you to eat in the wilderness, as I brought you out from the land of Egypt. ³³And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pitcher and put manna there, the fullness of an omer, and lay it up before Jehovah, to keep for your generations. ³⁴Even as Jehovah commanded Moses, Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to keep it.

³⁵And the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until their coming into an inhabited land. They ate the manna until their coming to the border of the land of Canaan. ³⁶And the omer, it was the tenth of an ephah.

¹And all the congregation of the sons of Israel traveled from the Wilderness of Sin, according to their journeys, by the mouth of Jehovah. And they camped in Rephidim. And there was no water for the drinking of the people. ²And the people wrangled with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said to them, Why do you wrangle with me? Why do you tempt Jehovah? ³And the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Why, then, have you caused us to go up from Egypt, to kill me and my sons and my livestock with thirst? ⁴And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, What shall I do to this people? Yet a little and they will stone me. ⁵And Jehovah said to Moses, Pass on in front of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. And take in your hand your staff with which you smote the River, and go. ⁶Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. And you shall smite the rock, and water will come out of it; and the people will drink. And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel. ⁷And one called the name of the place, Massah, and, Meribah, because of the wrangling of the sons of Israel, and because of their testing of Jehovah, saying Is Jehovah in our midst, or not?

⁸And Amalek came and fought against Israel in Rephidim. ⁹And Moses said to Joshua, Choose men for us, and go fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill, and the staff of God in my hand. ¹⁰And Joshua did as Moses had said to him, to fight against Amalek. And Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹And so it was that when Moses lifted his hand, Israel prevailed. And when he rested his hand, Amalek conquered. ¹²And the hands of Moses became heavy. And they took a stone and put it under him. And he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one from this and one from that side. And his hands were steady until the going of the sun. ¹³And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people by the mouth of the sword.

¹⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Write this, a memorial in a book, and set it in the ears of Joshua, that I will utterly wipe away the remembrance of Amalek under the heavens. ¹⁵And Moses built an altar. And he called its name, Jehovah My Banner. ¹⁶And He said, A hand is on the throne of Jehovah: war is to Jehovah with Amalek from generation to generation.

¹And Jethro the priest of Midian, the father-in-law of Moses, heard all that which God had done for Moses and for His people Israel, that Jehovah had caused Israel to go out from Egypt. ²And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Ziporah, Moses' wife, after sending her away, ³and her two sons, of whom the name of one was Gershom—for he said, I have become an alien in a foreign land; ⁴and the name of one was Eliezer—for the God of my father was my Help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh. ⁵And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, and his sons and his wife came to Moses, to the wilderness where he camped, ⁶at the mount of God. ⁷And he said to Moses, I, your father-in-law Jethro, have come to you, and your wife, and your two sons with her. ⁸And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed, and kissed him. And they asked, each to his neighbor, as to their welfare. And they came into the tent. ⁹And Moses told his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt on account of Israel, all the trouble which they had found in the way, and Jehovah had delivered them. ¹⁰And Jethro rejoiced regarding all the good which Jehovah had done to Israel, whom He had delivered from the hand of Egypt. ¹¹And Jethro said, Blessed be Jehovah who has delivered you from the hand of Egypt, and from the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of Egypt. ¹²Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all the gods; truly, in the way in which they were proved against them.

¹³And Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, took a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. And Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread before God with Moses' father-in-law.

¹⁴And it happened on the next day that Moses sat to judge the people. And the people stood beside Moses from the morning until the evening. ¹⁵And Moses' father-in-law saw all he was doing to the people. And he said, What is this thing which you are doing to the people? Why are you sitting by yourself, and all the people standing beside you from morning until evening? ¹⁶And Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come to me to seek God. ¹⁷When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor. And I reveal the statutes of God, and His laws. ¹⁸And the father-in-law of Moses said to him, The thing which you do is not good. ¹⁹Surely you will wear out, both you and this people which is with you. For the thing is heavy for you. You are not able to do it by yourself. ²⁰Now listen to my voice. I will counsel you, and may God be with you. You be for this people before God, and you bring the matters to God. ²¹And you warn them as to the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they should walk, and the work which they should do. ²²And you, you shall look out men of ability out of all the people, who fear God, men of truth, haters of unjust gain. And you place these over them as rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²³And let them judge the people at all times. And it shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, and every small matter they shall judge. And you make it easy on yourself, and let them bear with you. ²⁴If you do this thing, and God command you, you will be able to stand; and also this people will go in peace to their place.

²⁵And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and he did all that he had said. ²⁵And Moses chose men of ability from all Israel and made them heads over the people; rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²⁶And they judged the people at all times; the hard matters they brought to Moses, and every small matter they judged themselves. ²⁷And Moses sent his father-in-law away, and he went to his own land.

¹In the third month of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, on this day they came to the wilderness of Sinai. ²And they pulled up stakes from Rephidim and came to the wilderness of Sinai. And they camped in the wilderness. And Israel camped there before the mountain. ³And Moses went up to God. And Jehovah called to him from the mountain, saying, You shall say this to the house of Jacob, and tell it to the sons of Israel. ⁴You have seen what I did to Egypt; and I bore you on wings of eagles and brought you to Me. ⁵And now if you will surely listen to My voice, and will keep My covenant, you shall become a special treasure to Me above all the nations, for all the earth is Mine. ⁶And you shall become a kingdom of priests for Me, a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the sons of Israel.

⁷And Moses came and called the elders of the people. And he put all these words before them which Jehovah commanded him. ⁸And all the people answered together and said, All which Jehovah has spoken we will do. And Moses brought back the words of the people to Jehovah. ⁹And Jehovah said to Moses, Behold, I come to you in a darkness of clouds, so that the people may hear My speaking with you, and in you they may believe forever. And Moses told the words of the people to Jehovah.

¹⁰And Jehovah said to Moses, Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow. And let them wash their clothes. ¹¹And be ready for the third day. For on the third day Jehovah will go down before the eyes of all the people on the mountain of Sinai. ¹²And you shall set limits to the people all around, saying, Be careful for yourselves, not going up into the mountain and touching its border — everyone touching the mountain shall surely be killed. ¹³Not a hand shall touch him, but surely he shall be stoned, or surely he shall be shot through. He shall not live, whether animal or man. At the sounding of the ram's horn, they shall go up into the mountain. ¹⁴And Moses went from the mountain to the people. And he sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman.

¹⁶And on the third day, it being morning, it happened: There were thunders and lightnings, and a heavy cloud on the mountain, and the sound of a ram's horn, very strong! And all the people in the camp trembled. ¹⁷And Moses caused the people to go up from the camp to meet God. And they took their stand at the lower part of the mountain. ¹⁸And the mountain of Sinai was smoking, all of it, because Jehovah came down on it in fire. And its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace; and the mountain quaked exceedingly. ¹⁹And it happened, while the sound of the ram's horn was sounding, and becoming very strong, Moses spoke. And God answered him by a voice. ²⁰And Jehovah came down on the mountain of Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. ²¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Go down, warn the people lest they break through to gaze at Jehovah, and many of them fall. ²²And also the priests, those approaching Jehovah, let them sanctify themselves that Jehovah not burst forth among them. ²³And Moses said to Jehovah, The people are not able to come up to the mountain of Sinai. For You warned us, saying, Set limits to the mountain and sanctify it. ²⁴And Jehovah said to him, Come, go down. And you come up, and Aaron with you. And let not the priests and the people break through to come up to Jehovah, lest He burst forth among them. ²⁵And Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

¹And God spoke all these words, saying:

²*I am* Jehovah your God, who has brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

³You shall not have any other gods beside Me.

⁴You shall not make a graven image for yourself, of any likeness which is in the heavens above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the waters under the earth; you shall not bow to them, and you shall not serve them; for I am Jehovah your God, a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of fathers on children, on the third and on the fourth generation, to those that hate Me; ⁵and doing kindness to thousands, to those loving Me, and to those keeping My commandments.

⁸Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy; ⁹six days you shall labor and do all your work; ¹⁰and the seventh day is a sabbath to Jehovah your God; you shall not do any work, you, and your son, and your daughter, your male slave and your slave-girl, and your livestock, and your stranger who is in your gates. ¹¹For in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all which is in them, and He rested on the seventh day; on account of this Jehovah blessed the sabbath day and sanctified it.

¹²Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long on the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you.

¹³You shall not murder.

¹⁴You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁶You shall not testify a witness of falsehood against your neighbor.

¹⁸And all the people saw the thunders, and the lightnings, and the sound of the ram's horn, and the smoking mountain. And the people looked, and they trembled, and they stood from a distance.

¹⁹And they said to Moses, You speak with us, and we will hear. And let us not speak with God, that we not die. ²⁰And Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid, for God has come in order to test you, and so that His fear may be on your faces, that you may not sin. ²¹And the people stood from a distance, and Moses went near the thick darkness where God was.

²²And Jehovah said to Moses, You shall say this to the sons of Israel: You have seen that I have spoken with you from the heavens. ²³You shall not make gods of silver along with Me, and you shall not make gods of gold for yourselves.

²⁴You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on it, your sheep and your cattle. In every place in which I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and will bless you. ²⁵And If you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build them of cut stones. When you swing your tool on it, you defile it. ²⁶And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness may not be uncovered on it.

¹And these are the judgments which you shall put before them:

²When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years. And in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. ³If he comes in with his body, he shall go out with his body. If he was the husband of a wife, his wife shall go out with him. ⁴If his master gives him a wife, and she bears sons or daughters to him, the wife and her children shall belong to her master; and he shall go out with his body. ⁵And if the slave truly says, I love my master, my wife and my children; I do not desire to go out free, ⁶his master shall bring him to God, and one shall bring him to the door, or to the doorpost; and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

⁷And when a man sells his daughter for a slave-girl, she shall not go out as the male slaves go out. ⁸If she is bad in the eyes of her master who has appointed her for himself, he shall allow her redemption. He shall not have power to sell her to a strange people, in his deceiving her. ⁹And if he chooses her for his son, he shall do to her as is the custom of daughters. ¹⁰If he takes another for himself, her flesh, her clothing, and her conjugal right shall not be diminished. ¹¹And if he does not do these three for her, she shall go out for nothing, without silver.

¹²He that strikes a man so that he dies, surely he shall be put to death. ¹³And he who does not lie in wait, and God lets fall into his hand, I will appoint a place for you where he may flee.

¹⁴And when a man seethes insolently against his neighbor, to kill him by deceit, you shall take him from My altar to die.

¹⁵And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁶And he that steals a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

¹⁷And he who curses his father or his mother, he shall surely be put to death.

²⁸And when an ox gores a man or a woman, so that he dies, the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten, and the owner of the ox is innocent. ²⁹And if he was an ox apt to gore from yesterday and the third day, and its owner is given warning, and he does not watch him, and he kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death.

³⁰If a ransom is put on him, he shall give the redemption of his life, according to all which is put on him. ³¹Whether he gores a son, or he gores a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. ³²If the ox gores a male slave or a slave-girl, he shall give thirty silver shekels to his master, and the ox shall be stoned.

³³And when a man opens a pit, or when a man digs a pit, and does not cover it, and an ox or an ass falls into it, ³⁴the owner of the pit shall pay; he shall give silver to its owner, and the dead shall be his. ³⁵And when a man's ox strikes against the ox of his neighbor, and it dies, they shall sell the living ox, and they shall divide the silver; and they shall also divide the dead. ³⁶Or if it was known that he was an ox apt to gore from yesterday and the third day, and his owner does not watch him, he shall pay ox for ox, and the dead shall be his.

¹When a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it, or sells it, he shall pay five cattle for the ox, and four sheep for the sheep.

²If the thief is found breaking in, and is stricken and dies, no blood shall be shed for him. ³If the sun has risen on him, blood is due for him; surely he shall repay. If he has nothing, then he should be sold for his theft. ⁴If the stolen thing is surely found in his hand alive, from ox to ass to flock animal, he shall pay double.

⁵When a man consumes a field or a vineyard, and he lets his beast loose and it consumes another's field, he shall repay the best of his field and the best of his vineyard.

⁶When fire breaks out and finds thorns, and shocked grain, or standing grain, or the field is burned up, surely the one kindling the fire shall repay.

⁹In every case of trespass, for ox, for ass, for sheep, for clothing, for anything lost of which it is said that it is his, the case of both of them shall come to God. Whom God declares guilty, he shall repay double to his neighbor. ¹⁰When a man gives an ass or an ox to his neighbor; or a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, or is injured, or is captured, no one seeing it, ¹¹an oath of Jehovah shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods. And its owner shall take it, and he shall not repay. ¹²And if it is indeed stolen from him, he shall repay to its owner. ¹³If it is completely torn in pieces, he shall bring it as a witness; he shall not repay that which was torn.

¹⁴And when a man asks from his neighbor, and it is hurt, or dies, its owner not being with it, surely he shall repay. ¹⁵If its owner is with it, he shall not repay. If it is hired, it comes for its hire.

¹⁶And when a man lures a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he shall surely pay her dowry for a wife to himself. ¹⁷If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he shall weigh money according to the dowry of virgins.

¹⁸You shall not allow a sorceress to live.

¹⁹Anyone lying with an animal, he surely shall be put to death.

²¹You shall not be violent toward an alien. You shall not oppress him, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt. ²²You shall not afflict an orphan or a widow. ²³If you afflict him, if he at all cries to Me, I will surely hear his cry, ²⁴and My anger shall glow, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall become widows, and your sons orphans.

²⁵If you lend money to My people, the poor with you, you shall not be as a money-lender to him; you shall not put interest on him. ²⁶If you indeed take the clothing of your neighbor as a pledge, you shall return it to him by the going of the sun, ²⁷for that is his only covering, that is his covering for his skin. In what shall he lie down? And it shall be, when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

²⁸You shall not revile God, and you shall not curse a ruler among your people.

²⁹You shall not delay giving your harvest and your vintage. You shall give to Me the firstborn of your sons. ³⁰So you shall do to your oxen, to your sheep: it shall be seven days with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me. And you shall be holy men to Me. ³¹And you shall not eat flesh torn in pieces in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

¹You shall not utter a false report; You shall not put your hand with the wicked, to become a violent witness. ²You shall not run after many to gain evil things. And you shall not testify as to a lawsuit, to turn aside after many in order to pervert justice. ³And you shall not favor the lowly in his lawsuit.

⁴When you happen on the ox of your enemy, or his wandering ass, you shall surely return it to him. ⁵When you see the ass of one who hates you crouching under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving it to him; you shall surely loose it from him.

⁶You shall not pervert the judgment of your needy one in his lawsuit. ⁷You shall keep far away from a false matter. And do not kill the innocent and the righteous; for I will not justify the wicked. ⁸And you shall not take a bribe, for the bribe blinds the seeing one, and it perverts the words of the righteous.

⁹And you shall not oppress an alien; and you know the life of an alien, since you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

¹⁰And you shall sow your land six years, and you shall gather its produce.

¹²You shall do your work six days, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your ass may rest, and the son of your slave-girl and your alien may be refreshed. ¹³And be watchful in all that I have said to you. And you shall not mention another god by name; it shall not be heard from your mouth.

¹⁴Three times in the year you shall make a feast to Me. ¹⁵You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded you, at the set time of the month of Abib. For in it you came out from Egypt, and they shall not appear before Me empty.

¹⁸You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread. And the fat of My feast shall not pass the night until morning. ¹⁹The first, the firstfruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

²⁰Behold, I am about to send an Angel before you, to guard you in the way, and to bring you to the place which I have prepared. ²¹Be observant before Him, and listen to His voice. Do not be rebellious against Him, for He will not forgive your transgressions; for My name is in Him. ²²For if you fully listen to His voice, and do all which I speak, I will be an enemy to your enemies, and will be a foe to your foes. ²³For My Angel shall go before you and bring you in to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off.

²⁴You shall not bow down to their gods, and you shall not serve them. And you shall not do according to their works. But you shall surely tear them down, and you shall surely smash their pillars. ²⁵And you shall serve Jehovah your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will remove sickness from your midst. ²⁶There shall not be one miscarrying, nor one barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days. ²⁷I will send My terror before you, and I will confound all the people among whom you come. And I will give the neck of your enemies to you. ²⁸And I will send hornets before you which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite before you. ²⁹I will not drive them out from before you in one year, that the land not become a waste, and the beast of the field multiply on you. ³⁰I will drive them out before you little by little, until you are fruitful and possess the land. ³¹And I will set your border from the Sea of Reeds as far as the Sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness as far as the River. For I will give the people of the land into your hand. And you shall drive them out before you. ³²You shall not cut a covenant for them and for their gods. ³³They shall not dwell in your land, lest they cause you to sin towards Me. Surely when you serve their gods, it will be a snare to you.

¹And He said to Moses, Come up to Jehovah, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy from the elders of Israel. And bow yourselves from a distance. ²And let Moses approach by himself to Jehovah, and they shall not approach. And the people shall not go up with him. ³And Moses came and told all the words of Jehovah to the people, and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, We will do all the words which Jehovah has spoken. ⁴And Moses wrote all the words of Jehovah. And he rose early in the morning and built an altar below the mountain, and twelve memorial pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵And he sent young men of the sons of Israel. And they offered up burnt offerings, and offered sacrifices of bullocks, peace offerings to Jehovah. ⁶And Moses took half of the blood, and he put it in basins. And he sprinkled half of the blood on the altar. ⁷And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the ears of the people. And they said, We will do all that Jehovah has spoken, and we will hear. ⁸And Moses took the blood and sprinkled on the people, and said, Behold, the blood of the covenant which Jehovah has cut with you concerning these words.

⁹And Moses and Aaron went up with Nadab and Abihu, and seventy from the elders of Israel. ¹⁰And they saw the God of Israel. And under His feet was as the work of a pavement of sapphire, and the same as the heavens for clearness. ¹¹And He did not stretch out His hand to the nobles of the sons of Israel. And they saw God, and they ate and drank.

¹²And Jehovah said to Moses, Come up to Me to the mountain, and be there. And I will give to you the tablets of stone, and the law, and the commandments which I have written, to teach them. ¹³And Moses rose up, and Joshua his attendant. And Moses went up to the mountain of God. ¹⁴And he said to the elders, Wait here for us, until we return to you. And, behold, Aaron, who is a master of matters, and Hur are with you—let him approach to them.

¹⁵And Moses went up into the mountain. And a cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶And the glory of Jehovah dwelt on the mountain of Sinai. And the cloud covered it six days. And He called to Moses on the seventh day from the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷And the appearance of the glory of Jehovah was like fire burning on the top of the mountain before the eyes of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸And Moses came into the midst of the cloud, and he went up into the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain forty days and forty nights.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them take an offering for Me from every man whose heart impels him—let them take My offering. ³And this is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, and silver, and bronze; ⁴and blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and goats' hair; ⁵and rams' skin dyed red, and dugong skins, and acacia-wood; ⁶oil for the light, spices for the oil of anointing, and for the incense of perfumes; ⁷onyx stones, and stones for setting, for the ephod, and for the breast-pocket. ⁸And let them make a sanctuary for Me, that I may dwell in their midst. ⁹According to all which I am going to reveal to you, the plan of the tabernacle, and the plan of all its vessels, even so you shall do.

²¹And you shall put the mercy-seat on the ark from above. And you shall put the testimony into the ark, which I shall give to you. ²²And I will meet you there, and will speak with you, above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubs which are on the ark of testimony, all which I shall command you concerning the sons of Israel.

²³And you shall make a table of acacia-wood, its length two cubits, and its width a cubit, and its height a cubit and a half. ²⁴And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and you shall make it a wreath of gold all around. ²⁵And you shall make a border of a hand's breadth for it all around. And you shall make a wreath of gold all around on its border. ²⁶And you shall make four rings of gold for it, and you shall put the rings on the four corners which are to its four feet. ²⁷The rings shall be near the border for housings for the poles, to carry the table. ²⁸And you shall make the poles of acacia-wood, and you shall overlay them with gold. And the table shall be carried by them. ²⁹And you shall make its platters, and its bowls, and its pitchers, and its sacrificial cups with which a drink offering is made. You shall make them of pure gold. ³⁰And you shall put the Bread of the Presence on the table before Me continually.

³¹And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand shall be made of beaten work; its base and its shaft, its calices, its knobs, and its blossoms shall be from it. ³²And six branches shall go out from its sides, three branches of the lamp from its one side, and three branches of the lampstand from its second side; ³³three almond-like calyxes on the one branch with knob and blossom; and three almond-like calyxes on the one branch with knob and blossom — so for the six branches, those going out from the lampstand. ³⁴And on the lampstand shall be four almond-like calyxes, each with its knobs and its blossoms; ³⁵and a knob under two branches of it; and a knob under two branches of it; and a knob under two branches of it, to the six branches, those going from the lampstand. ³⁶Their knobs and their branches shall be of it, all of it one beaten work of pure gold. ³⁷And you shall make its seven lamps, and one shall set up its lamps, and they shall give light on its face. ³⁸And its tongs, and its pans shall be of pure gold. ³⁹One shall make it of a talent of pure gold, with all these vessels. ⁴⁰And see that they are made by their patterns which you were caused to see in the mountain.

¹And you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains. You shall make them with cherubs, the work of a skilled workman, of twined linen, and blue and purple and crimson. ²The length of one curtain shall be twenty-eight by the cubit; and the width four by the cubit, for the one curtain; one measure to all the curtains. ³Five curtains shall be joined together, each to her sister. And five curtains joined

each to her sister. ⁴And you shall make loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, from the end at the juncture; and so you shall do at the edge of the last curtain, at the second juncture. ⁵You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain; and you shall make fifty loops in the end of the curtain which is at the second juncture; the corresponding loops each to her sister. ⁶And you shall make fifty hooks of gold. And you shall join the curtains, each to her sister, by the hooks. And it shall become one tabernacle.

board, for its two pins, and two sockets under the one board for its two pins.²⁰ And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty boards;²¹ and their forty silver sockets; two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the one board.²² And you shall make six boards for the sides of the tabernacle westward.²³ And you shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle, in the sides.²⁴ And they shall be double from beneath. And in like manner they shall be complete on the top, to the one ring. So it shall be to both of them; they shall be for the two corners.²⁵ And there shall be eight boards, and their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the one board.²⁶ And you shall make bars of acacia-wood; five to the boards of the one side of the tabernacle;²⁷ and five bars to the boards of the second side of the tabernacle; and five bars to the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the rear, westward.²⁸ And there shall be a middle bar in the midst of the boards, going through from end to end.²⁹ And you shall overlay the boards with gold, and you shall make their rings gold, housings for the bars. And you shall overlay the bars with gold.³⁰ And you shall set up the tabernacle according to the decree which you were shown in the mountain.³¹ And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and crimson, and twined linen. One shall make it by the work of the skilled workman, with cherubs.³² And you shall put it on four pillars of acacia-wood overlaid with gold, their nails gold, on four sockets of silver.³³ And you shall hang the veil under the hooks. And you shall bring the ark of the testimony there inside to the veil. And the veil shall divide for you between the holy place and the Holy of Holies.³⁴ And you shall put the mercy-seat on the ark of the testimony, in the Holy of Holies.³⁵ And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lamp across from the table on the side of the tabernacle southward. And you shall put the table on the north side.

embroiderer.³⁷ And you shall make five pillars of acacia-wood for the screen. And you shall overlay them with gold, their nails gold. And you shall cast for them five sockets of bronze.

¹ And you shall make the altar of acacia timbers; five cubits long and five cubits wide. The altar shall be square, and its height three cubits.² And you shall make its horns on its four corners. Its horns shall be a part of itself. And you shall overlay it with bronze.³ And you shall make its pots to remove its ashes, and its shovels, and its sacrificial bowls, and its flesh-forks, and its pans. You shall make all its vessels to be bronze.⁴ And you shall make a grating for it, a network of bronze. And you shall make four rings of bronze on the four ends of the net.⁵ And you shall put it under the ledge of the altar from beneath. And the net shall be as far as half of the altar.⁶ And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia timbers. And you shall overlay them with bronze.⁷ And its poles shall be brought into the rings. And the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar, for carrying it.⁸ You shall make it hollow with boards: as He showed you in the mountain, so they shall make it.

embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets four. ¹⁷All the pillars of the court round about shall be banded with silver, their nails silver, and their sockets bronze. ¹⁸The length of the court shall be a hundred by the cubit, and the width fifty by fifty, and the height five cubits, twined linen; and their sockets bronze. ¹⁹As to all the vessels of the tabernacle, in all its service, and all its pins, and all the pins of the court, they shall be bronze.

²⁰And you shall command the sons of Israel, and let them bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to set up lamps perpetually. ²¹In the tabernacle of the congregation from outside the veil which is by the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall arrange them from evening until morning before Jehovah; a never-ending statute for their generations, from the sons of Israel.

¹And you shall take to yourself your brother Aaron, and his sons with him, from among the sons of Israel, for him to serve as priest to Me; Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron. ²And you shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty. ³And you shall speak to all the wise-hearted whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom; and they shall make the garments of Aaron to sanctify him for his serving as priest to Me. ⁴And these are the garments which they shall make: a breast-pocket, and an ephod, and a robe, and a tunic of woven stuff, a miter, and a girdle. And they shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron and for his sons, even for him to serve as priest to Me.

⁵And they shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the crimson, and the bleached linen.

shall be on the one stone, and six of the remaining names on the second stone, according to their birth. ¹¹You shall engrave the two stones, the work of an stone-engraver, the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel; you shall make them set in plaited work of gold. ¹²And you shall put the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the face of Jehovah, on his two shoulders for a remembrance. ¹³And you shall make plaited work of gold: ¹⁴and two chains of pure gold, you shall make them woven work, a work of cord; and you shall put chains of the cords on the plaited work.

ephod, from beneath, at its front, near its joining, above the band of the ephod. ²⁸And they shall fasten the breast-pocket from its rings to the rings of the ephod; and the breast-pocket may not move itself from the ephod. ²⁹And Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breast-pocket of judgment on his heart, in his going into the holy place, for a memorial before the face of Jehovah continually. ³⁰And you shall put the Urim and the Thummim into the breast-pocket of judgment; and they shall be on the heart of Aaron in his going before the face of Jehovah. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before the face of Jehovah continually.

³⁹And you shall weave the tunic of bleached linen, and you shall make a miter of bleached linen, and you shall make a girdle, the work of an embroiderer. ⁴⁰And you shall make tunics for the sons of Aaron; and you shall make girdles for them; and you shall make bonnets for them, for glory and for beauty. ⁴¹And you shall clothe your brother Aaron with them, and his sons with him; and you shall anoint them, and you shall consecrate them, and you shall sanctify them. And they shall minister as priests to Me. ⁴²And make linen breeches for them, to cover the flesh of nakedness, from the loins as far as the thighs they shall be. ⁴³And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons in their going into the tabernacle of the congregation, or in their drawing near to the altar to minister in the holy place, and so that they shall not raise up iniquity and die. It is a never-ending statute to him and to his seed after him.

¹And this is the thing which you shall do: to them, to sanctify them to minister as priests to Me: take one bullock, the son of the herd, and two perfect rams, ²and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes: poured over with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil — you shall make them of fine wheat flour. ³And you shall put them into one basket and shall bring them near in the basket, and the bullock and the two rams. ⁴And you shall take Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of congregation. And you shall wash them in water. ⁵And you shall take the garments, and you shall clothe Aaron with the tunic, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-pocket. And you shall bind it to him with the band of the ephod. ⁶And you shall put the miter on his head; and you shall put the holy crown on the miter. ⁷And you shall take the oil of anointing and shall pour on his head, and shall anoint him. ⁸And you shall take his sons and clothe them with tunics. ⁹And you shall gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons; and you shall bind on bonnets for them; and it shall be a never-ending statute for them in the priest's office. And you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons. ¹⁰And you shall bring near the bullock before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bullock. ¹¹And you shall slaughter the bullock before the face of Jehovah, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹²And you shall take of the blood of the bullock and shall put it on the horns of the altar with your finger. And you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar. ¹³And you shall take all the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, and you shall burn on the altar. ¹⁴And you shall burn the flesh of the bullock, and its skin, and its dung, with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

²²And you shall take the fat from the ram, and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, and the right leg; for it is a ram of consecration; ²³also one loaf of bread, and one cake of oil bread, and one wafer, from the basket of unleavened bread which is before the face of Jehovah. ²⁴And you shall put all on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons. And you shall wave them a wave offering before the face of Jehovah. ²⁵And you shall take them from their hand, and you shall burn the burnt offering on the altar for a soothing fragrance before the face of Jehovah; it is a fire offering to Jehovah.

²⁶And you shall take the breast from the ram of consecration which is to Aaron. And you shall wave it a wave offering before the face of Jehovah; it shall be your ration. ²⁷And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the leg of the heave offering, which is waved and which is lifted from the ram of consecration, from what is Aaron's, and from what is to his sons. ²⁸And it shall be for Aaron and for his sons for a never-ending statute from the sons of Israel; it is for a heave offering, and it shall be a heave offering from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their heave offering to Jehovah.

²⁹And the holy garments which are Aaron's shall be his sons' after him, for anointing in them and for filling their hands in them. ³⁰The priest shall put them on seven days, he from his sons taking his place; he who comes into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the sanctuary. ³¹And you shall take the ram of consecration, and you shall boil its flesh in a holy place. ³²And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread which is in the basket at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ³³And they shall eat those things by which atonement is made, to consecrate them, to sanctify them; and a stranger shall not eat, for they are holy. ³⁴And if any is left of the flesh of consecration, and of the bread, until the morning, you shall burn what is left with fire; it shall not be eaten, for it is holy.

³⁵And so you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, according to all which I have commanded you; you shall consecrate them seven days. ³⁶And you shall offer a bull of a sin offering daily for atonement; and you shall purify the altar in your making atonement for it; and you shall anoint it to sanctify it. ³⁷You shall make atonement seven days for the altar, and shall sanctify it; and the altar shall become most holy, all touching the altar becomes holy.

³⁸And this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs daily, sons of a year, continually. ³⁹The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the second lamb you shall offer between the evenings. ⁴⁰And a tenth of fine flour anointed with beaten oil, a fourth of a hin, and a drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine, for the one lamb. ⁴¹And you shall offer the second lamb between the evenings; you shall do to it like the morning food offering and its drink offering, for a soothing fragrance, a fire offering to Jehovah. ⁴²*This shall be* a continual burnt offering to your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the face of Jehovah; there where I meet you to speak to you there. ⁴³And I will meet the sons of Israel there, and it shall be sanctified by My glory. ⁴⁴And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to minister as priests to Me. ⁴⁵And I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel; and I will be God to them. ⁴⁶And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, that I may dwell in their midst. I am Jehovah their God.

¹And you shall make an altar, a place for burning incense; you shall make it of acacia-wood. ²It shall be a cubit in length and a cubit in width; it shall be square. And its height shall be two cubits, its horns from itself. ³And you shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its walls all around, and its horns. And you shall make a wreath of gold for it all around. ⁴And you shall make two rings of gold for it, under its wreath; you shall make its two corners on its two sides; and they shall be housings for poles, to lift them up by it. ⁵And you shall make the poles of acacia-wood; and you shall overlay them with gold. ⁶And you shall put it in front of the veil which is beside the ark of the testimony; in front of the mercy-seat which is over the testimony, there where I meet you. ⁷And Aaron shall burn incense of perfume on it morning by morning, when he dresses the lamps he shall burn it. ⁸And when Aaron sets up the lamps between the evenings he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before the face of Jehovah for your generations. ⁹You shall not offer up strange incense on it, and burnt offering and food offering; and you shall not pour out a drink offering, to go up on it. ¹⁰And Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in a year, from the blood of the sin offering of the atonement once in the year he shall make atonement on it for your generations; it is most holy to Jehovah.

¹¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: ¹²When you lift up the head of the sons of Israel, of those numbered, each one shall give the ransom of his soul to Jehovah when numbering them; and there shall not be a plague among them when numbering them. ¹³They shall give this, everyone passing over to those numbered: half a shekel, by the shekel of the sanctuary, twenty gerahs being a shekel; half a shekel as an offering to Jehovah. ¹⁴Every one passing over to those numbered, from a son of twenty years and upward, shall give the offering of Jehovah. ¹⁵The rich shall give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, to give the offering of Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls. ¹⁶And you shall take the silver of atonement from the sons of Israel, and you shall give it to the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and it shall be for the sons of Israel for remembrance before the face of Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls.

holy anointing it shall be. ²⁶And you shall anoint with it the tabernacle of the congregation and the ark of the testimony, ²⁷and the table and all its vessels, and the altar of incense, ²⁸and the altar of burnt offering, and all its vessels, and the laver and its base. ²⁹And you shall sanctify them, and they shall become most holy; everything touching them shall become holy. ³⁰And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and you shall consecrate them to minister as priests to Me. ³¹And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil for Me for your generations. ³²It shall not be poured on the flesh of man, and you shall not make any like it in its proportion; it is holy. It shall be holy to you. ³³A man prepares any like it, or who gives from it to a stranger, shall be cut off from his people.

³⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Take perfumes for yourself, spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, spices, and pure frankincense, a part shall be for a part. ³⁵And you shall make it incense, an ointment, a work of a perfumer, salted, pure and holy. ³⁶And you shall grind some of it fine, and put some of it in front of the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I meet you. It shall be most holy to you. ³⁷And the incense which you make, in its proportion, you shall not make for yourselves; it shall be holy to you for Jehovah. ³⁸A man who makes any like it, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, to the tribe of Judah. ²And I have filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, and in intelligence, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship, ³to devise designs, to work in gold and in silver and in bronze, ⁴and in cutting of stones for finishings, and in carving of wood, to work in all workmanship. ⁵And behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of every wise-hearted one I have given wisdom; and they shall make all which I have commanded you: ⁶the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat which is going up over it, and all the vessels of the tabernacle, ⁷and the table and its vessels, and the pure lampstand and all its vessels, and the altar of incense; ⁸and the altar of burnt offering and all its vessels, and the laver and its base; ⁹and the woven garments, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests; ¹⁰and the oil of anointing, and the incense of perfumes for the sanctuary; according to all which I have commanded you, they shall do.

¹²And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: ¹³And you speak to the sons of Israel, saying, You shall surely keep My sabbaths; for it is a sign between Me and you for your generations; to know that I am Jehovah your sanctifier. ¹⁴And you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy for you; the profaners of it surely shall be put to death; for everyone doing work in it, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of his people. ¹⁵Work may be done six days, and on the seventh day is a sabbath of rest, holy to Jehovah; everyone doing work on the Sabbath day surely shall be put to death. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel shall observe the Sabbath, to do the Sabbath for their generations; it is a never-ending covenant. ¹⁷It is a sign forever between Me and the sons of Israel; for in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.

¹⁸And when He finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave to Moses the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

¹And the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain. And the people gathered to Aaron. And they said to him, Rise up, make for us gods who may go before our face. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. ²And Aaron said to them, Break off the rings of gold which are in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters; and bring them to me. ³And all the people broke off the rings of gold which were in their ears, and they brought to Aaron. ⁴And he took from their hand and formed it with an engraving tool. And he made it a casted calf. And they said, These are your gods, O Israel, who made you go up from the land of Egypt. ⁵And Aaron saw, and he built an altar before it. And Aaron called and said, A feast to Jehovah tomorrow. ⁶And they rose early on the morrow, and they offered burnt offerings brought near peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to make merry.

⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses, Come, go down, for your people whom you caused to go up from Egypt are corrupted; ⁸they have quickly turned off from the way which I commanded them; they have made for themselves a casted calf and have bowed to it, and have sacrificed to it. And they have said, These are your gods, O Israel, who made you go up from the land of Egypt. ⁹And Jehovah said to Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

¹⁰And now leave Me alone that My anger may glow against them, that I may consume them. And I will make you a great nation. ¹¹And Moses prayed before the face of Jehovah his God, and he said, Why, O Jehovah, does Your anger glow against Your people whom You caused to go up from the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? ¹²Why should the Egyptians say, saying, For evil He has caused them to go up, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them on the face of the earth? Turn from Your fierce anger and change Your purpose as to the evil to Your people. ¹³Remember Isaac, and Israel, Your servants to whom You swore by Yourself, and You spoke to them, I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and all this land which I have said, I will give to your seed. And they shall possess it forever. ¹⁴And Jehovah changed His purpose concerning the evil which He had spoken to do to His people.

¹⁵And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets written on their two sides, on this and on that they were written. ¹⁶And the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God; it was engraved on the tablets. ¹⁷And Joshua heard the voice of the people in their shouting. And he said to Moses, A sound of war in the camp! ¹⁸And he said, It is not a sound of a cry of might, nor a sound of a cry of defeat; I am hearing the sound of singing. ¹⁹And it happened, as he came near to the camp and saw the calf and dances, the anger of Moses glowed. And he threw the tablets from his hands, and he broke them below the mountain. ²⁰And he took the calf which they had made and burned it with fire, and he ground it until it was fine, then he scattered it on the face of the water. And he made the sons of Israel to drink it.

²¹And Moses said to Aaron, What has this people done to you that you have made to come on them a great sin? ²²And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord glow. You know the people, that it is in evil. ²³And they said to me, Make for us gods who may go before us; as for Moses, the man who caused us to go up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. ²⁴And I said to them, Whoever has gold, let them break off. And they gave to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out.

²⁵And Moses saw the people, that it was unloosed, for Aaron had let it loose for a derision among their enemies. ²⁶And Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, Who is for Jehovah? Come to me! And all the sons of Levi assembled to him. ²⁷And he said to them, So says Jehovah, God of Israel, each one put his sword on his thigh; pass over to and fro from gate to gate in the camp, and each one kill his brother, and each one his neighbor, and each one his kindred. ²⁸And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell on that day. ²⁹And Moses said, Fill your hand today for Jehovah, since each one has been against his son and against his brother, and in order to give you a blessing today.

³⁰And it happened on the morrow, Moses said to the people, You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to Jehovah; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin. ³¹And Moses went back to Jehovah and said, Oh, this people has sinned a great sin, and they have made for themselves gods of gold. ³²And now if You will, lift up their sin. And if not, I pray, blot me out from Your book which You have written. ³³And Jehovah said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him from My book. ³⁴And now go, lead the people to that place which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before your face. And in the day of My visitation I will visit their sin on them. ³⁵And Jehovah plagued the people because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, Come, go up from here, you and the people whom you have caused to go up out from the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed. ²And I will send an angel before your face, and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; ³to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I will not go up among you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way. ⁴And the people heard this evil word, and they mourned, and did not put any ornaments on himself. ⁵And Jehovah said to Moses, Say to the sons of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people; in one instant I will go up among you and I will consume you. And now lay off from you your ornaments, that I may know what I shall do to you. ⁶And the sons of Israel pulled off their ornaments, from Mount Horeb.

⁷And Moses took the tent and pitched it outside the camp, far off from the camp. And he called it the tabernacle of the congregation. And it happened that everyone seeking Jehovah went to the tabernacle of the congregation which was outside the camp. ⁸And it happened as Moses went to the tabernacle, the people all rose and stood, each one at the door of his tent. And they looked after Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle. ⁹And it happened as Moses' went into the tabernacle, the pillar of cloud would come down and stand at the door of the tabernacle. And He spoke with Moses. ¹⁰And all the people would see the pillar of the cloud standing at the door of the tabernacle. And all the people rose and bowed themselves, each one at the door of his tent. ¹¹And Jehovah would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp. And his attendant, Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the middle of the tabernacle.

¹²And Moses said to Jehovah, Behold, You are saying to me, Cause this people to go up. And You, You have not told me whom You will send with me. And yet You have said, I know you by name, and also you have found favor in My eyes. ¹³And now, if I have found favor in Your eyes, please make me see Your ways, and let me know You, so that I may find favor in Your eyes; and consider that this nation is Your people. ¹⁴And He said, My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest. ¹⁵And he said to Him, If Your presence does not go, do not cause us to go up from here. ¹⁶And now by what can it be known that I and Your people have found favor in Your eyes? Is it not in Your going with us? And we are distinguished, I and Your people, from all the nations which are on the face of the earth?

¹⁷And Jehovah said to Moses, This thing which you have spoken I will do. For you have found favor in My eyes, and I know you by name. ¹⁸And he said, I pray, let me see Your glory. ¹⁹And He said, I will cause all My goodness to pass before your face. And I will call out the name of Jehovah before your face. And I will favor whom I will favor, and I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy. ²⁰And he said, You are not able to see My face; for no man sees Me and lives. ²¹And Jehovah said, Behold, a place by Me! And you shall stand on a rock. ²²And as My glory is passing it will be that I will put you in a cleft of the rock; and I will cover My palm over you during My passing. ²³And I will remove My palm, and you shall see My back; but My face cannot be seen.

words which were on the former tablet, which you broke. ²And be prepared in the morning, and go up in the morning to Mount Sinai. And place yourself there by Me, on the top of the mountain. ³And a man shall not go up with you. And also let no man be seen on all the mountain. Also do not allow the flocks and the herds to feed before that mountain. ⁴And he cut out two tablets of stone like the former. And Moses rose early in the morning and went up into Mount Sinai, as Jehovah had commanded him. And he took in his hand the two tablets of stone. ⁵And Jehovah came down in the cloud. And he placed himself there with Him, and he called on the name of Jehovah. ⁶And Jehovah passed by before his face and called out: Jehovah! Jehovah, God! Merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and great in goodness and truth, ⁷keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and not leaving entirely unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on sons, and on sons of sons, to the third and to the fourth generation. ⁸And Moses hurried and bowed to the earth and worshipped. ⁹And he said, If now I have found favor in Your eyes, O Lord, please let my Lord go in our midst, for it is a stiff-necked people; and You forgive our iniquity and our sin, and take us as a possession. ¹⁰And He said, Behold, I am cutting a covenant; I will do wonderful things before all your people, which not have been done in all the earth and among all nations. And all the people, in whose midst you are, shall see the work of Jehovah, for that which I am about to do is awesome.

¹¹Take heed for yourself what I am commanding you today. Behold, I am about to drive out from before your face the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ¹²Take heed to yourself, that you not cut a covenant with the people of the land to which you are going in, that it not be a snare in your midst. ¹³But you shall cut down their altars, break their pillars, and you shall cut off their Asherim. ¹⁴For you shall not bow to another god, for Jehovah whose name is Jealous, He is a jealous God; ¹⁵that you not cut a covenant with the people of the land and play the whore after their gods, and they sacrifice to their gods, and one call to you, and you eat from his sacrifice, ¹⁶and lest you take from their daughters for your sons, and their daughters whore after their gods, and they lead your sons after their gods.

¹⁷You shall not make for yourself casted gods.

¹⁸You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, which I commanded you, at the time appointed, the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you went out from Egypt. ¹⁹Every one opening the womb is Mine; and of all your male livestock, a firstling of ox or sheep, ²⁰and a firstling of an ass, you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you do not redeem, you shall break its neck. You shall redeem every firstborn of your sons, and they shall not be seen before My face empty.

²⁴For I will expel nations from before your face, and you will make broad your border; and no one shall covet your land, as you go up to appear before Jehovah your God three times in the year. ²⁵You shall not slaughter on leavened bread, nor shall the sacrifice of the Passover Feast pass the night until morning. ²⁶You shall bring the first of the firstfruits of your ground to the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in the milk of its mother.

²⁷And Jehovah said to Moses, Write these words for yourself, for on the mouth of these words I will cut a covenant with you and with Israel. ²⁸And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread and he did not drink water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

²⁹And it happened as Moses was going down from Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony being in Moses' hand as he went down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face had become luminous through His speaking with him. ³⁰And Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses. And, behold! The skin of his face had become luminous. And they were afraid to draw near to him. ³¹And Moses called to them. And Aaron and all the leaders among the congregation turned back to him. And Moses spoke to them. ³²And afterwards all the sons of Israel drew near. And he commanded them to do all which Jehovah had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. ³³And Moses finished speaking with them, and he put a veil on his face. ³⁴And as Moses came in before Jehovah, to speak with Him, he took off the veil until he went out. And he would go out and speak to the sons of Israel that which he was commanded. ³⁵And the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of the face of Moses had become luminous. And Moses would put back the veil on his face until he went in to speak with Him.

¹And Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel and said to them, These are the words which Jehovah has commanded, to do them: ²Work may be done six days, and on the seventh day it shall be holy to you, a sabbath of rest to Jehovah; everyone doing work in it shall be put to death. ³You shall not kindle a fire in all your dwellings on the day of the Sabbath.

⁴And Moses said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which Jehovah commanded, saying: ⁵Take from among you an offering to Jehovah. Everyone willing of heart shall bring it, the offering of Jehovah: gold and silver and bronze, ⁶and blue, and purple, and crimson, and bleached linen, and goats' hair, ⁷and rams' skins dyed red, and dugong skins, and acacia-wood, ⁸and oil for the light, and spices for the oil of anointing, and for the incense of perfumes; ⁹and onyx stones, and stones of settings, for the ephod and for the breast-pocket. ¹⁰And every wise-hearted one among you, let them come and make all which Jehovah has commanded: ¹¹the tabernacle, its tent, and its cover,, its hooks, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; ¹²the ark, and its poles, the mercy-seat and the veil of the covering, ¹³the table and its poles, and all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presence; ¹⁴and the lampstand of the light, and its vessels, and its lamps, and the oil of the light; ¹⁵and the incense altar and its poles, and the oil of anointing, and the incense of perfumes, and the hanging of the door, at the door of the tabernacle; ¹⁶the altar of burnt offering, and its bronze grating, its poles, and all its vessels, the laver and its base; ¹⁷the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its sockets, and the hanging for the gate of the court; ¹⁸the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords; ¹⁹the woven garments to minister in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments for his sons, to minister as priests.

²⁰And all the congregation of the sons of Israel went out from Moses. ²¹And they came, every one whose heart was lifted up, and everyone whose spirit made him willing. They brought the offering of Jehovah for the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. ²²And the men came in together with the women, every one willing of heart. They brought in bracelets, and nose-rings, and rings, and jewels, every gold article, and every one who waved a wave offering to Jehovah. ²³And everyone with whom blue was found, and purple, and crimson, and bleached linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and dugong skins, they brought. ²⁴Everyone rising up with an offering of silver and bronze, they brought the offering of Jehovah; and everyone with whom was found acacia-wood for any work of the service, they brought. ²⁵And every wise-hearted woman spun with her hands; and they brought spun yarn, blue, and purple, and crimson and bleached linen. ²⁶And all the women whose hearts were lifted up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. ²⁷And the leaders brought the onyx stones, and stones for the setting, for the ephod and for the breast-pocket, ²⁸and the spice, and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the incense of the perfumes. ²⁹And every man and woman whose hearts made them willing to bring for all the work which Jehovah commanded to be done by the hand of Moses; the sons of Israel brought a willing offering to Jehovah.

³⁰And Moses said to the sons of Israel, See, Jehovah has called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³¹And He has filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in intelligence, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship, and to devise designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in cuttings of stones for finishings, and in carving of wood, to work in all workmanship of design. ³⁴And He has put in his heart to teach, he and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. ³⁵He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to do every work of a smith, and an artisan, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in crimson, and in bleached linen, and a weaver; doers of every work and devisers of designs.

¹And Bezaleel and Aholiab shall work with everyone wise of heart to whom Jehovah has given wisdom and intelligence, to know how to do every work of the service of the holy place, concerning all which Jehovah had commanded.

²And Moses called to Bezaleel, and to Aholiab, and to everyone wise of heart, to whom Jehovah had given a heart of wisdom, everyone whose heart had lifted him up to come near the work, to do it. ³And they took every offering before Moses which the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the service in the holy place, to do it. And they brought to him still more willing offerings morning by morning. ⁴And all the wise men came, those doing every kind of work for the holy place, each one from his work they were doing. ⁵And they spoke to Moses, saying, The people are bringing more than enough for the service of the work that Jehovah commanded, to do it. ⁶And Moses commanded, and they caused it to be voiced in the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more offering for the holy place; and the people were held back from bringing. ⁷And their property was sufficient for all the work, to do it, and it was too much.

⁸And every wise-hearted one among the doers of the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains, twined, bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and crimson —he made them with cherubs, the work of an artisan. ⁹The length of one curtain was twenty-eight by the cubit; and the width was four by the cubit; the one curtain was the same measure for all the curtains. ¹⁰And he joined five curtains, one to another; and he joined five curtains, one to another. ¹¹And he made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain, from the end to the juncture; so he did at the edge of the last curtain at the second juncture. ¹²He made fifty loops on one curtain; and he made fifty loops on the end of the curtain which was at the second juncture; the loops corresponded, one with another. ¹³And he made fifty hooks of gold; and he joined the curtains by the hooks, one to another. And the tabernacle became one.

¹⁴And he made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made them eleven curtains. ¹⁵The length of the one curtain was thirty by the cubit, and four cubits the width of the one curtain; one measure to the eleven curtains. ¹⁶And he joined the five curtains separately, and the six curtains separately. ¹⁷And he made fifty loops on the edge of the last curtain at the juncture; and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that joined the second. ¹⁸And he made fifty hooks of bronze to join the tent, to unite it in one. ¹⁹And he made a cover for the tent of rams' skins dyed red; and a cover of dugong skins from above.

²⁰And he made the boards for the tabernacle, standing planks of acacia-wood. ²¹The length of the board was ten cubits, and a cubit and a half was the width of the one board. ²²The one board was connect by two pins, one to another; so he did to all the boards of the tabernacle.

²³And he made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward. ²⁴And he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under the one board for its two pins. ²⁵And for the second side of the tabernacle, to the north side, he made twenty boards, ²⁶and their forty silver sockets; two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the other board. ²⁷And he made six boards for the sides of the tabernacle westward.

²⁸And he made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle, in the sides. ²⁹And they were double from below, and in like manner they were complete to its top, to the first ring. So he did to both of them, for the two corners. ³⁰And there were eight boards, and their silver sockets, sixteen sockets; two sockets and two sockets under the one board.

³¹And he made bars of acacia-wood; five to the boards of the second side of the tabernacle; and five bars to the boards of the sides of the tabernacle westward. ³²And he made the middle bar to go through the middle of the boards, from end to end. ³⁴And he overlaid the boards with gold. And he made the rings gold, housing for the poles; and he overlaid the bars with gold.

³⁷And he made a hanging for the door of the tabernacle, blue, and purple, and crimson, and twined, bleached linen, the work of an embroiderer; ³⁸and its five pillars, and their nails; and he overlaid their tops and their bands with gold; and their five sockets were of bronze.

¹And Bezaleel made the ark of acacia-wood; two cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high. ²And he overlaid it with pure gold, inside and outside. And he made for it a wreath of gold all around. ³And he cast four rings of gold for it, on its four feet; two rings on its one side and two rings on its second side. ⁴And he made poles of acacia-wood; and he overlaid them with gold. ⁵And he put the poles into the rings, on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark. ⁶And he made a mercy-seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide. ⁷And he made two cherubs of gold; he made them of beaten work, from the two ends of the mercy-seat; ⁸one cherub here at one end, and one cherub there at the other end. He made the cherubs from the mercy-seat, from its two ends. ⁹And the cherubs were speaking out their wings above, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, their faces each toward the other; the faces of the cherubs were toward the mercy-seat.

¹⁰And he made the table of planks of acacia; two cubits long, and a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high. ¹¹And he overlaid it with pure gold; and he made for it a wreath of gold all around. ¹²And he made for it a border of a hand's breadth all around. And he made a wreath of gold for its border all around. And he cast for it four rings of gold; and he put the rings on the four corners, which were to its four feet. ¹⁴The rings were near the border, the housings for the poles, to carry the table. ¹⁵And he made the poles of acacia-wood; and he overlaid them with gold, to lift up the table. ¹⁶And he made the vessels which were on the table, its platters and its bowls, and its sacrificial cups, and its pitchers by which a drink offering is made, with pure gold.

¹⁷And he made the lampstand of pure gold; he made the lampstand of beaten work, its side, and its branch, its calixes, its knobs and its blossoms were from it. ¹⁸And six branches went out from its sides; three branches of the lampstand from one side, and three branches of the lampstand from its second side. ¹⁹Three almond-like bowls were on the one branch, with knob and blossom; and three almond-like bowls on the one branch, with knob and blossom; so for the six branches, those going out from the lampstand. ²⁰And on the lampstand were four almond-like bowls, its knobs and its blossoms. ²¹And a knob was under two branches of it, to the six branches, those going out from it. ²²The knobs and the branches of it were one beaten work of pure gold. ²³And he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its pans of pure gold. ²⁴He made it and all its vessels from a talent of pure gold.

²⁵And he made the altar of incense of acacia-wood; its length a cubit, and its width a cubit — square. And its height was two cubits; its horns were of it. ²⁶And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides and its horns all around. And he made for it a wreath of gold all around. ²⁷And he made for it two rings of gold, from beneath its wreath, on its two corners, on its two sides, for housings for poles, to lift it. ²⁸And he made its poles of acacia-wood; and he overlaid them with gold. ²⁹And he made the holy oil of anointing, and the pure incense of fragrant spices, the work of a perfumer.

¹And he made the altar of the burnt offering of acacia-wood; five cubits its length and five cubits its width — square; and its height was three cubits. ²And he made its horns on its four corners; its horns were of it. And he overlaid it with bronze. ³And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots and the shovels and the sacrificial bowls, the fleshhooks and the firepans. He made all its vessels of bronze. ⁴And he made a network of bronze grating for the altar, from below under its ledge, as far as its middle. ⁵And he cast four rings in its four ends, of the bronze as housings for the poles. ⁶And he made the poles of acacia-wood; and he overlaid them with bronze. ⁷And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to lift it with them. He made it hollow with planks. ⁸And he made the laver bronze, and its base bronze, from the mirrors of those assembling, who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

²¹These are the numbered things of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, which were numbered at Moses' command, the service of the Levites in the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. ²²And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Jehovah commanded Moses. ²³And with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a craftsman, and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in crimson and in bleached linen. ²⁴All the gold used was for the work, in all the work of the holy place; and it was the gold of the wave offering, twenty-nine talents and seven and thirty shekels, by the shekel of the holy place. ²⁵And the silver of the numbered ones of the assembly was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, by the shekel of the holy place, ²⁶a bekah for a head, half a shekel, by the shekel of the holy place, for everyone one passing over to those numbered, from a son of twenty years and upward, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty persons. ²⁷And the hundred talents of the silver were for casting the sockets of the holy place, and for the sockets of the veil — a hundred sockets for a hundred talents, a talent for a

²⁹And the bronze of the wave offering was seventy talents and two thousand and four hundred shekels. ³⁰And he made with it the sockets of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the vessels of the altar. ³¹And the sockets of the court all around, and the sockets of the opening of the court, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all of the pins of the court all around were bronze.

¹And from the blue and the purple and the crimson they made woven garments for serving in the holy place. And they made the holy garments which were for Aaron, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹¹The second row: a turquoise, a sapphire and a diamond. ¹²And the third row: a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. ¹³And

the fourth row: a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper; these set in their settings, plaited work of gold. ¹⁴And the stones were according to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve, according to their names, the engravings of a signet, each according to his name, for the twelve tribes. ¹⁵And they made cords of chains on the breast-pocket, a work of pure gold cords. ¹⁶And they made two gold plaitings and two golden rings; and they put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-pocket. ¹⁷And they put the two golden cords on the two rings, on the ends of the breast-pocket. ¹⁸And they put the two ends of the two cords on the two settings. And they put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, on the front of its face. ¹⁹And they made two rings of gold, and they put them on the two ends of the breast-pocket, on its edge, on the inward side of the ephod. ²⁰And they made two rings of gold, and they put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod from beneath, on the front of its face, near its joining; from above to the band of the ephod. ²¹And they fastened the breast-pocket from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue ribbon, to be on the ephod band, that the breast-pocket not move itself from the ephod, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

²²And he made the robe of the ephod, a work of a weaver, all of blue. ²³And the mouth of the robe in its middle was like the mouth of a coat of mail, the edge of its mouth all around, that it might not be torn. ²⁴And they made bells of pure gold, and they put the bells in the midst of the pomegranates, all around on the hem of the robe, for ministering, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ²⁷And they made the tunics of bleached linen, a work of a weaver, for Aaron and for his sons; ²⁸also the miter was of bleached linen, and the headdress of the caps of bleached linen, and the breeches of bleached linen, twined bleached linen. ²⁹And the girdle was of twined bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and crimson, the work of an embroiderer, even as Jehovah commanded Moses. ³⁰And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure the engravings of a signet: HOLINESS TO JEHOVAH. ³¹And they put a blue ribbon on it to fasten it on the miter from above, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

³²And all the work of the tabernacle of the congregation was finished, And the sons of Israel did according to all which Jehovah commanded Moses; so they did.

³³And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its vessels, its hooks, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and the cover of rams', and its sockets, ³⁴and the cover of rams' skins dyed red, and the cover of dugong skins, and the veil of the covering, ³⁵the ark of the testimony, and its poles, and the mercy-seat, ³⁶the table and all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presence; ³⁷the pure lampstand, its lamps, the lamps of arrangement and all its vessels, and the oil of the light, ³⁸and the altar of gold, and the oil of anointing, and the incense of fragrant spices, and the hanging of the door of the tabernacle, ³⁹the bronze altar and bronze grating which was to it, its poles and all its vessels, the laver and its base, ⁴⁰the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the hanging for the opening of the court, its cords and its pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle for the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴¹the woven garments for serving in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons for serving as priests. ⁴²According to all which Jehovah commanded Moses, all the work. ⁴³And Moses saw all the work. And, behold, they had done it; as Jehovah commanded Moses, so they had done. And Moses blessed them.

door of the tent of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁷And you shall put the laver between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And you shall put water there. ⁸And you shall set up the court all around. And you shall place the hanging of the opening of the court. ⁹And you shall take the oil of anointing, and you shall anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it. And you shall sanctify it and all its vessels. And it shall become holy. ¹⁰And you shall anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its vessels. And you shall sanctify it and the altar shall become the holy of holies. ¹¹And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and you shall sanctify it. ¹²And you shall cause to draw near Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall wash them with water. ¹³And you shall clothe Aaron with the holy garments. And you shall anoint him and sanctify him. And he shall serve as priest to Me. ¹⁴And you shall cause to draw near his sons. And you shall clothe them with tunics. ¹⁵And you shall anoint them as you anointed their father. And they shall serve as priests to Me. And their anointing shall be for an everlasting priesthood for their generations. ¹⁶And Moses did so, according to all Jehovah commanded him; so he did.

¹⁷And it happened in the first month, in the second year, on the first of the month, the tabernacle was raised up. ¹⁸And Moses raised up the tabernacle, and he gave its sockets, and he set up its boards, and he gave its bars, and he raised up its pillars. ¹⁹And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle. And he put the cover of the tent over it from above, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ²⁰And he took and gave the testimony into the ark. And he put the poles on the ark. And he gave the mercy-seat on the ark from above. ²¹And he caused the ark to go in into the tabernacle. And he placed the veil of the covering, and he covered over the ark of testimony., as Jehovah commanded Moses. ²²And he gave the table into the tabernacle of the congregation, on the side of the tabernacle, northward outside the veil. ²³And he set the bread in order on it before the face of Jehovah, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

²⁴And he put the lampstand in the tabernacle of the congregation, opposite the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. ²⁵And he set up the altar of gold in the tabernacle of the congregation, before the veil. ²⁷And he burned on it incense of fragrant spices, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ²⁸And he set up the hanging of the door to the tabernacle. ²⁹And he put the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tent of the tabernacle of the congregation. And he offered up on it the burnt offering and the food offering, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ³⁰And he put the laver between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And he gave there water for washing.

³¹And from it Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.

³²As they came into the tabernacle of the congregation, and as they drew near to the altar, they would wash, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ³³And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar. And he gave the hanging of the opening of the court. And Moses finished the work.

³⁴And the cloud covered the tabernacle of the congregation; and the glory of Jehovah filled the tabernacle. ³⁵And Moses was not able to come into the tabernacle of the congregation because the cloud dwelt on it. And the glory of Jehovah filled the tabernacle. ³⁶And the cloud went up from the tabernacle, the sons of Israel pulled up stakes in all their travels. ³⁷And if the cloud did not go up, then they did not pull up until the day it went up.

³⁸For the cloud of Jehovah was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel in all their travels.

THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS

¹And Jehovah called to Moses and spoke to him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying:

²Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, If any one of you brings an offering to Jehovah, from livestock of the herd, or from the flock, you shall bring near your offering. ³If his offering is out of the herd, a male, a perfect one, he shall bring it to the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation, at his pleasure, before the face of Jehovah. ⁴And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it is accepted for him to make atonement for him. ⁵And he shall kill the son of the herd before the face of Jehovah. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall bring near the blood and sprinkle the blood on the altar all around, which is at the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁶And he shall skin the burnt offering, and shall cut it into pieces. ⁷And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. ⁸And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall arrange the pieces, with the head and the fat, on the wood which is on the fire, which is on the altar. ⁹And he shall wash its inward parts, and its legs, with water. And the priest shall burn as incense the whole of it on the altar for a burnt offering, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to Jehovah.

¹⁴And if the burnt offering is a burnt offering out of the fowls to Jehovah, then he shall bring near his offering, of turtle-doves or of the offspring of the dove. ¹⁵And the priest shall bring it near to the altar and shall nip off its head. And he shall burn it as incense on the altar; its blood shall be drained by the side of the altar. ¹⁶And he shall remove its crop with its feathers, and shall throw it near the altar eastward, to the place of the ashes. ¹⁷And he shall cleave it with its wings, not dividing it, and the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire; a burnt offering; it is a fire offering of soothing fragrance to Jehovah.

¹And when a person brings near an offering, an offering, a food offering to Jehovah, his offering shall be of flour. And he shall pour oil on it; and he shall put on it frankincense. ²And he shall bring to the sons of Aaron the priest, And he shall take out of it his handful from its flour, and from its oil, with all its frankincense. And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, a memorial offering, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ³And the rest of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, most holy, of the fire offerings of Jehovah.

⁴And when you bring near an offering, a food offering baked in an oven, fine flour, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened thin cakes anointed with oil.

⁵And if your offering is a food offering on a griddle, your offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil; it shall be unleavened. ⁶You shall divide it into parts, and you shall pour oil on it; it is a food offering.

⁷And if the food offering is in a pan, your offering shall be of fine flour; it shall be made with oil. ⁸And you shall bring the food offering made of these things to Jehovah. And the priest shall bring it near to the altar. ⁹And the priest shall lift up the food offering, its memorial offering, and shall burn it as incense on the altar, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ¹⁰And the rest of the food offering is for Aaron and his sons, most holy,

of the fire offering of Jehovah. ¹¹Any food offering which you shall bring near to Jehovah, you shall not make it leavened; for all leaven and all honey you shall not burn it as incense, a fire offering to Jehovah.

¹³And every offering of your food offering you shall season with salt, and you shall not let the salt of the covenant of your God be lacking from your food offering; you shall offer salt with all your offerings.

¹⁴And if you bring near a food offering of first-fruits to Jehovah, fresh ears roasted with fire, kernels from a garden, you shall bring near your first-fruits for a food offering. ¹⁵And you shall put oil on it, and lay on it frankincense; it is a food offering. ¹⁶And the priest shall burn it as incense, with its memorial offering from its kernels, and from its oil, besides all its frankincense, a fire offering to Jehovah.

¹And if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he is offering it from the herd, whether male or female, a perfect one, he shall bring it near before the face of Jehovah. ²And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood on the altar all around.

⁶And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings is from the flock, male or female, a perfect one, he shall bring it near. ⁷If he is bringing near a sheep for his offering, then he shall bring it near before the face of Jehovah. ⁸And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and shall slaughter it in front of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood on the altar all around.

¹⁷It shall be a never-ending statute for your generations. You shall not eat any fat or any blood.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: ²Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a person sins against any of the commands of Jehovah through ignorance, which is not to be done, and shall do any one of them; ³if the priest who is anointed sins, resulting in guilt to the people, then he shall bring near for his sin which he has sinned a bullock, a son of the herd, a perfect one, to Jehovah for a sin offering. ⁴And he shall bring the bullock in to the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the face of Jehovah. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the bullock and shall slaughter the bullock before the face of Jehovah. ⁵And the priest who is anointed shall take of the blood of the bullock and shall bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁶And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the face of Jehovah, at the front of the veil of the holy place. ⁷And the priest shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense, which is at the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the face of Jehovah. ⁸And he shall lift up from it the fat which covers over the inward parts, and all the fat which is on the inward parts, and the two kidneys and the fat on them, which is beside the loins, and he shall remove the fold on the liver beside the kidneys. ¹⁰As it is raised up from the sacrifice of the peace offerings of the bullock, the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar of burnt offering. ¹¹And the skin of the bullock, and all its flesh with its head, and with its legs, and the inward parts, and its dung, ¹²he shall bring out all the bullock to the outside of the camp, to a clean place, to the place of the pouring of ashes; and he shall burn it on the wood with fire; it shall be at the place of pouring of ashes.

¹³And if the whole company of Israel shall err, and the thing has been hidden from the eyes of the congregation, and they do that which is to be done to any of all the commands of Jehovah, and are guilty; ¹⁴when the sin shall be known, that which they have sinned against it, then the congregation shall bring near a bullock, a son of the herd, for a sin offering. And they shall bring it in front of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁵And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bullock before the face of Jehovah. And they shall slaughter the bullock before the face of Jehovah. ¹⁶And the priest who is anointed shall bring in of the blood of the bullock to the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁷And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and shall sprinkle seven times before the face of Jehovah, at the front of the veil. ¹⁸And he shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the face of Jehovah, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁹And he shall lift up all its fat from it and shall burn it as incense on the altar. ²⁰And he shall do with the bullock as he has done to the bullock of the sin offering, so he shall do to is. And the priest shall atone for them; and it shall be forgiven them. ²¹And he shall bring the bullock to the outside of the camp, and he shall burn it as he burned the first bullock; it is a sin offering of the congregation.

²²When a ruler sins and has acted against one of all the commands of Jehovah his God, which not is to be done, through ignorance, and is guilty; ²³or his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, a buck of the goats, a male, a perfect one; ²⁴and he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and shall slaughter it in the place where he slaughters the burnt offering, before the face of Jehovah; it is a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and with his finger he shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and he shall pour out its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. ²⁶And he shall burn it as incense on the altar, with all its fat, as the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest shall atone for him because of his sin; and it shall be forgiven him.

²⁷And if any person of the people of the land sins through ignorance, by doing that which is not to be done, against one of the commands of Jehovah, and is guilty; ²⁸or his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, a ewe of the goats, a perfect one, a female, for his sin which he has sinned; ²⁹then he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and shall slaughter the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰And the priest shall take of its blood with his finger and shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. And he shall pour out all its blood at the base of the altar; ³¹and he shall turn off all its fat, as has been turned off the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar for a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. And the priest shall atone for him, and it is forgiven him.

³²And if he brings as his offering for a sin offering a female, a perfect one, he shall bring it and he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and he shall slaughter it for a sin offering in the place where he slaughters the burnt offering. ³⁴And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. And he shall pour out its blood at the base of the altar. And he shall turn off all its fat, as is turned off the fat of the lamb from the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, on the fire offerings of Jehovah. And the priest shall atone for him for his sin which he has sinned; and it is forgiven him.

¹And when a person sins, and hears the voice of swearing, and he is witness or has seen, or has known, if he does not reveal it, then he shall bear his iniquity. ²Or if a soul touches any unclean thing, or the unclean dead body of an animal, or the unclean dead body of livestock, or the dead body of unclean swarming things, it being hidden from him that he is unclean and is guilty, ³or if he touches the uncleanness of man, any of his uncleanness by which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he is guilty. ⁴Or if a person swears, speaking rashly with the lips, to do evil, or to do good, anything which the man speaks rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he is guilty of one of these.

⁵And it shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, then he shall confess that in which he has sinned. ⁶And he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah for his sin which he has sinned, a female out of the flock, a lamb, or a ewe of the goats, for a sin offering. And the priest shall atone for him regarding his sin.

⁷And if his hand does not reach to a lamb, then he shall bring his guilt offering, he who has sinned, two turtle-doves, or two offspring of a dove, to Jehovah—one for a sin offering, and one for a burnt offering. ⁸And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall bring near that which is for a sin offering first. And he shall nip off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it. ⁹And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and that which remains of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. ¹⁰And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, as by decree. And the priest shall atone for him, because of his sin which he has sinned; and it shall be forgiven him.

¹¹And if his hand cannot reach to two turtle-doves, or two offspring of a dove, then he who sinned shall bring his offering, a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put on it oil, nor put on it frankincense; for it is a sin offering. ¹²And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take from it his full handful, the memorial offering, and shall burn it as incense on the altar, on the fire offering of Jehovah; it is a sin offering. ¹³And the priest shall atone for him, for his sin which he sinned from one of these; and it shall be forgiven him. And it shall be for the priest as a food offering.

¹⁷And if a person sins, and he has done that which is not to be done from any one of all the commands of Jehovah, and does not know, and he is guilty, and bears his iniquity, ¹⁸then he shall bring a ram, a perfect one from the flock, at your evaluation, for a guilt offering to the priest. And the priest shall atone for him, for his sin of ignorance which he erred, and he did not know; and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁹It is a guilt offering before the face of Jehovah.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²If any person sins and is slyly treacherous against Jehovah, and deals falsely with his neighbor concerning a deposit, or concerning security, or by robbery, or has extorted his neighbor; ³or has found a lost thing and has lied about it, and has sworn to a falsehood—as regards to any one of all these which a man does, sinning in them—⁴then it shall be, when he sins and is guilty, he shall return what he got by robbery, that which he robbed, the extorted thing which he extorted, or the deposit which had been deposited with him, or the lost thing which he had found; ⁵or all that about which he swore falsely; he shall even repay it in its principal, and the fifth part he shall add to it; to whomever it belongs. He shall give it on the day of his guilt offering. ⁶And he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah: a ram, a perfect one out of the flock, at your evaluation for a guilt offering, to the priest. ⁷And the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah, and as regards to one thing of all that he has done, it shall be forgiven him, by being guilty in it.

⁸And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁹Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering; it is the burnt offering because it is burned on the altar all the night until the morning, and the fire of the altar is kept burning on it. ¹⁰The priest shall put on his long robe of fine linen, and he shall put his linen underpants on his flesh. And he shall lift up the ashes which the fire consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and shall put them beside the altar. ¹¹And he shall strip off his garments, and shall put on other garments, and shall bring the ashes out to the outside of the camp, to a clean place. ¹²And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it morning by morning. And he shall lay the burnt offering in order on it. And he shall burn it as incense with the fat of the peace offering. ¹³Fire shall be continually burning on the altar; it shall never go out.

¹⁴And this is the law of the food offering: the sons of Aaron shall bring it near before Jehovah, to the front of the altar. ¹⁵And he shall lift from it his handful of the flour of the food offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the food offering. And he shall burn it as incense on the altar, a soothing fragrance from its memorial to Jehovah. ¹⁶And Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest. It shall be eaten with unleavened things in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. ¹⁷It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion out of My fire offerings. It is most holy, like the sin offering, and like the guilt offering. ¹⁸Every male among the sons of Aaron shall eat it, a never-ending statute throughout your generations from the fire offerings of Jehovah. All that touches them shall be holy.

¹⁹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁰This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they shall bring near to Jehovah on the day he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of flour, a continual food offering; half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening. ²¹It shall be made on a griddle with oil. You shall bring it in mixed. You shall bring baked pieces of the food offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ²²And the priest who is anointed in his place, from among his sons, shall make it. It is a never-ending statute of Jehovah. It shall be completely burned; ²³and every food offering of a priest is a whole burnt offering. It shall not be eaten.

²⁴And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁵Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before Jehovah. It is most holy. ²⁶The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²⁷All that touches its flesh shall be holy. And when any of its blood is sprinkled on the garment, that on which it is sprinkled shall be washed in the holy place. ²⁸And an earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, then it shall be scoured and rinsed with water. ²⁹Every male among the priests shall eat of it. It is most holy. ³⁰And any sin offering of whose blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to make atonement in the sanctuary shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire.

¹And this is the law of the guilt offering; it is most holy. ²In the place where they kill the burnt offering, they shall kill the guilt offering, and its blood shall be sprinkled on the altar all around. ³And all its fat shall be brought near, he shall offer the fat tail of it, and the fat which covers the inward parts, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat which is on them, which is on the flanks, and the fold above the liver, which you shall take away beside the kidneys. ⁵And the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, a fire offering to Jehovah; it is a guilt offering. ⁶Every male among the priests shall eat it; it shall be eaten in the holy place. It is most holy. ⁷As a sin offering is, so a guilt offering. One law is for them. The priest who makes atonement by it, it is his. ⁸And the priest who brings near any man's burnt offering, the skin of the burnt offering which he has brought near, it is the priest's, his own. ⁹And every food offering which was baked in an oven, and every one that is prepared in the stewing-pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest's that offers it; it is his. ¹⁰And every food offering, mixed with oil or dry, it shall be for all the sons of Aaron to a man, as his brother.

¹¹And this is the law of the sacrifice of the peace offerings which shall be brought near to Jehovah: ¹²If he brings it for a thanksgiving, then he shall bring with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and of well-mixed flour, cakes mingled with oil. ¹³He shall bring his offering with the cakes of unleavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, his peace offerings. ¹⁴And he shall bring out of it one of every offering, a heave offering to Jehovah, to the priest who is sprinkling the blood of the peace offering; it is his. ¹⁵As to the flesh of the sacrifice of the thanksgiving peace offerings, it shall be eaten in the day of his offering. He shall not leave of it until morning. ¹⁶And if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or free-will offering, in the day he brings his sacrifice near, it shall be eaten. And on the morrow the rest of it shall also be eaten. ¹⁷And the rest of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire. ¹⁸And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is at all eaten on the third day, it is not pleasing. It shall not be reckoned for him who has brought it. It shall be a hateful thing, and the person who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

²²And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²³Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, You shall not eat any fat of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. ²⁴And the fat of a dead body, and the fat of a thing torn may be used for any work, but you certainly shall not eat it. ²⁵For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which one brings near a fire offering to Jehovah, even the person who eats shall be cut off from his people. ²⁶And you shall not eat any blood in all your dwellings, of fowl, or of animal. ²⁷Any person who eats any blood, even that person shall be cut off from his people.

²⁸And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁹Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, He who brings near the sacrifice of his peace offerings to Jehovah shall bring his offering to Jehovah from the sacrifice of his peace offerings; ³⁰his own hands shall bring in the fire offerings of Jehovah; the fat beside the breast he shall bring in with the breast, to wave it as a wave offering before Jehovah. ³¹And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar as incense; and the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons. ³²And you shall make a heave offering of the right leg to the priest of the sacrifices of your peace offerings; ³³one of the sons of Aaron who is bringing near the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, the right leg is his for a portion. ³⁴For the breast of the wave offering, and the leg of the heave offering, I have taken from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest, and to his sons, by a never-ending statute, from the sons of Israel. ¹⁷This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sons out of the fire offerings of Jehovah, in the day he shall bring them near to act as priests to Jehovah, ¹⁸which Jehovah has commanded to give to them the day of His anointing them, from the sons of Israel, a never-ending statute throughout their generations.

¹⁹This is the law for burnt offering, for the food offering, and for sin offering, and for guilt offering, and for consecrations, and for a sacrifice of the peace offerings, ²⁰which Jehovah had commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the days of His commanding the sons of Israel to bring near their offerings to Jehovah, in the wilderness of Sinai.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Take Aaron, and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bullock of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened things, ³and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded him, and the congregation was gathered to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

⁵And Moses said to the congregation, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded done. ⁶And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and bathed them in water, ⁷and put on him the tunic, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the upper robe, and put the ephod on him, and girded him with the the ephod on him, and girded him with the girdle of the ephod, and bound it to him with it; ⁸and put the breast-pocket on him, and put the Urim and the Thummim into the breast-pocket, ⁹and put the miter on his head, and on the miter, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹⁰And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all in it, and sanctified them; ¹¹and he sprinkled of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar, and all its vessels, and the laver, and its base, to sanctify them. ¹²And he poured of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron, and anointed him, to sanctify him. ¹³And Moses brought the sons of Aaron near, and clothed them with tunics, and girded them with girdles, and bound bonnets on them, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹⁴And he brought the bullock of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bullock of the sin offering; ¹⁵and one killed it; and Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and cleansed the altar; and he poured out the blood at the foundation of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement on it. ¹⁶And he took all the fat on the inward parts, and the fold above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it as incense on the altar. ¹⁷And the bullock, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire, at the outside of the camp, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹⁸And he brought the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram; ¹⁹and one killed it, and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar all around; ²⁰and he cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses burned it as incense with the head, and the pieces, and the fat. ²¹And he washed the inward parts and the legs with water, and Moses burned it as incense with the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering, for a soothing fragrance; it is a fire offering to Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

altar all around. ²⁵and took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat on the inward parts, and the fold above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right leg. ²⁶And out of the basket of unleavened bread which was before Jehovah, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and on the right leg; ²⁷and placed the whole on the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sons, and waved them, a wave offering before Jehovah. ²⁸And Moses took them off their hands and burned them with incense on the altar, on the burnt offering; they are consecrations for soothing fragrance; it is a fire offering to Jehovah. ²⁹And Moses took the breast and waved it, a wave offering before Jehovah, of the ram of the consecrations. It was Moses' portion, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. ³⁰And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood on the altar, and sprinkled on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him. And he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

³¹And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and you shall eat it there, and the bread which is in the basket of the consecrations, as I have commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. ³²And the rest of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire; ³³and you shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation for seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled. For He shall consecrate you seven days; ³⁴as He has done on this day, Jehovah has commanded you to do, to make atonement for you. ³⁵And you shall remain at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night for seven days, and you shall keep the charge of Jehovah and shall not die; for so I have been commanded. ³⁶And Aaron and his sons did all the things which Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹And it happened, on the eighth day, Moses called for Aaron and for his sons, and for the elders of Israel. ²And he said to Aaron, Take a calf to yourself, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, perfect ones, and bring near before Jehovah. ³And speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a calf, and a lamb, sons of a year, perfect ones, for a burnt offering; ⁴and a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before Jehovah; and a food offering mixed with oil; for today Jehovah will appear to you. ⁵And they took that which Moses had commanded to the front of the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the congregation drew near and stood before Jehovah. ⁶And Moses said, This is the thing that Jehovah has commanded; do it, and the glory of Jehovah shall appear to you. ⁷And Moses said to Aaron, Draw near to the altar and make your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people, and make the offering of the people, and atone for them, as Jehovah has commanded. ⁸And Aaron drew near to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which is for himself; ⁹and Aaron's sons brought the blood near to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar. And he poured out the blood at the foundation of the altar; ¹⁰and the fat, and the kidneys, and the fold of the liver, of the sin offering, he burned with incense on the altar, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. ¹¹And he burned the flesh and the skin with fire, at the outside of the camp.

¹²And he killed the burnt offering. And Aaron's sons presented the blood to him and he sprinkled it on the altar all around; ¹³and they presented to him the burnt offering, by its pieces, and the head, and he burned them with incense on the altar. ¹⁴And he washed the inward parts and the legs, and burned them as incense for the burnt offering on the altar.

¹⁵And he brought the offering of the people, and took the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and killed it, and made it a sin offering like the first. ¹⁶And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it, according to the ordinance. ¹⁷And he brought the food offering and filled his palm from it, and burned it as incense on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

¹⁸And he killed the bullock and the ram, a sacrifice of the peace offerings, which are for the people, and Aaron's sons presented the blood to Him, and he sprinkled it on the altar all around; ¹⁹and the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the fat tail, and the covering, and the kidneys, and the fold above the liver. ²⁰And they set the fat on the breasts, and he burned as incense the fat on the altar. ²¹And Aaron waved the breasts, and the right leg as a wave offering before Jehovah, as He had commanded Moses.

²²And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. ²³And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out and blessed the people; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to all the people. ²⁴And fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. And all the people saw, and cried aloud, and fell on their faces.

¹And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in them; and they put incense on it and brought strange fire before Jehovah, which He had not commanded them. ²And fire went out from before Jehovah and consumed them; and they died before Jehovah. ³And Moses said to Aaron, It is that which Jehovah has spoken, saying, I will be sanctified by those drawing near to Me; and I will be honored before all the people. And Aaron was silent.

⁶And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons, You shall not uncover your heads and you shall not tear your garments, that you may not die, and He be angry on all the congregation. As to your brothers, the whole house of Israel, they shall mourn the burning which Jehovah has kindled. ⁷And you shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation lest you die. For the anointing oil of Jehovah is on you. And they did according to the words of Moses.

⁸And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, saying, ⁹You shall not drink wine and strong drink, you nor your sons with you, as you go into the the tabernacle of the congregation, and you shall not die; a never-ending statute throughout your generations; ¹⁰and to make a distinction between the holy and profane, and between the unclean and the clean; ¹¹and to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which Jehovah has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.

¹²And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons who were left, Take the food offering that remains from the fire offerings of Jehovah, and eat it unleavened near the altar, for it is most holy. ¹³And you shall eat it in the holy place, for it is your portion, and the portion of your sons, from the fire offerings of Jehovah; for so I have been commanded. ¹⁴And the breast of the wave offering, and the leg of the heave offering, you shall eat in a clean place, you and your sons, and your daughters with you. For they have been given for your portion and the portion of your sons out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the sons of Israel. ¹⁵The leg of the heave offering, and the breast of the wave offering, besides fire offerings of the fat, they shall bring in to wave a wave offering before Jehovah; and it shall be to you, and to your sons with you, a never-ending statute, as Jehovah has commanded.

¹⁶And Moses sought carefully for the goat of the sin offering; and, behold, it had been burned! And he was angry against Eleazar and against Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, saying, ¹⁷Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, for it is most holy, and He has given it to you to take away the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement of them before Jehovah? ¹⁸Behold, its blood has not been brought in to the holy place inside. You should certainly have eaten it in the holy place, as I have commanded. ¹⁹And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, today they have brought their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah; and such things have happened to me. And if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been accepted in the sight of Jehovah? ²⁰And when Moses heard, then it was good in his eyes.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, These are the living things which you shall eat out of all the animals which are on the earth. ³Any that divides the hoof and is wholly cloven-footed, bringing up the cud, among the living things, you may eat it. ⁴Only, you may not eat these, of those bringing up the cud, and of those dividing the hoof: the camel, though it brings up the cud, yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you; ⁵and the rock badger, though it brings up the cud, yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you; ⁶and the hare, though it brings up the cud, yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you; ⁷and the swine, though it divides the hoof and is cloven-footed, yet it does not bring up the cud; it is unclean to you. ⁸You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall not touch their dead body; they are unclean to you.

⁹Of all that are in the waters, you shall eat these; any one that has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the brooks, you may eat them. ¹⁰But any one that does not have fins and scales in the seas, and in the brooks, of any swarming creature of the waters, and of any creature which lives, which is in the waters; they are to be detested by you. ¹¹Yes, they shall be detested by you; you shall not eat of their flesh and you shall shun their dead bodies. ¹²Any one that does not have fins and scales in the waters, it shall be a hateful thing to you.

¹³And these you shall count unclean among the fowls; they shall not be eaten; they are unclean: the eagle, and the black vulture and the bearded vulture, ¹⁴and the kite, and the falcon, according to its kind;

¹⁵every raven according to its kind; ¹⁶and the ostrich, and the great owl, and the gull, and small hawks, according to its kind; ¹⁷and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the eared owl; ¹⁸and the barn owl, and the pelican and the owl-vulture; ¹⁹and the stork, and the heron according to its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

²¹Only, this you may eat of any swarming thing which flies, which goes on all four, which has legs above its feet, to leap with them on the earth; ²²these are those you may eat: the locusts according to its kind, and the bald locust according to its kind, and the long horned locust according to its kind, and the short horned grasshopper according to its kind. ²³But every swarming thing which flies, which has four feet, it is unclean to you.

²⁹And these shall be unclean to you among the swarming things which swarm on the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the great lizard according to its kind, ³⁰and the gecko, and the monitor, and the lizard, and the sand lizard, and the barn owl. ³¹These are unclean to you among all which swarm; anyone who touches them in their death is unclean until the evening. ³²And anything on which any one of them falls, in their death, is unclean, of any vessel of wood, or garment, or skin, or sack; any vessel in which work is done shall be caused to go into water, and shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be cleaned. ³³And any earthen vessel into the midst of which any one of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it. ³⁴Of all the food which may be eaten, that on which such water falls shall be unclean, and all drink that may be drunk in any such vessel shall be unclean. ³⁵And anything on which any part of their dead body falls shall be unclean; an oven or hearth shall be broken down — they are unclean; yes, they are unclean to you. ³⁶But a fountain or a well, a collection of water, shall be clean; only that touching the dead body is unclean. ³⁷And when any part of their dead body falls on any sowing seed which is sown, it shall be clean; ³⁸but when water is put on the seed, and any of its dead body has fallen on it, it shall be unclean to you.

³⁹And when any of the animals which are food for you dies, he who touches its dead body is unclean until the evening; ⁴⁰and he who eats of its dead body shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until the evening; and he who lifts up its dead body shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until the evening.

⁴¹And every swarming thing which swarms on the earth is unclean; it shall not be eaten; ⁴²anything going on its belly, and any going on all four, and all having many feet, even every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are unclean; ⁴³you shall not pollute yourselves with any swarming thing which swarms, nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, so that you should be defiled by them. ⁴⁴For I am Jehovah your God, and you have sanctified yourselves, and you have become holy, for I am holy. And you shall not defile your persons with any swarming thing which creeps on the earth; ⁴⁵for I am Jehovah who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to become your God; and you shall be holy, for I am holy.

⁴⁶This is the law of the animals, and of the fowl, and of every living creature which moves in the waters, and every creature which swarms on the earth, ⁴⁷to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If a woman has conceived seed, and has borne a male, then she shall be unclean seven days; as on the days of her menstrual impurity she shall be unclean. ³And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. ⁴And she shall remain in the blood of her cleansing thirty-three days; she shall not touch any holy thing, and she shall not go into the sanctuary, until the days of her cleansing are fulfilled. ⁵And if she bears a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall continue in the blood of her cleansing sixty-six days.

⁶And when the days of her cleansing are fulfilled for son or for daughter, she shall bring in a lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt offering, and a young dove or a turtle-dove for a sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to the priest. ⁷And he shall bring it near before Jehovah, and shall make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the fountain of her blood; this is the law of her who bears, whether a male or a female. ⁸And if her hand is not able to find a lamb, then she shall take two turtle-doves, or two young doves — one for a burnt offering, and one for a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed.

up the plague seven days. ⁵And the priest shall look upon him on the seventh day, and, behold, if the plague stays in its appearance, and the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven more days. ⁶And the priest shall look upon him again the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague has become dim, and the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is a scab, and he shall wash his garments and shall be clean. ⁷But if the scab spreads greatly in the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, then he shall be seen a second time by the priest. ⁸And the priest shall look, and, behold, if the scab has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

⁹When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought in to the priest. ¹⁰And the priest shall look, and, behold, if a white rising is in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and a living flesh is in the swelling, ¹¹it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean. ¹²And if the leprosy breaks out greatly on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the plague, from his head even to his feet, to all that appears to the priest's eyes, ¹³then the priest shall look, and, behold, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce the one who has the plague clean; it has all turned white; he is clean. ¹⁴And in the day living flesh is seen in him, he is unclean. ¹⁵And the priest shall look on the living flesh and shall pronounce him unclean; the living flesh is unclean; it is leprosy. ¹⁶Or when the living flesh turns back and shall be turned to white, then he shall come in to the priest; ¹⁷and the priest shall look on him; and, behold, the plague has turned to white; the priest shall pronounce the one who has the plague clean; he is clean.

¹⁸And when the flesh has the skin of a boil in it, and it has been healed, ¹⁹and a white swelling has replaced the boil, or a bright white spot, very red, then it shall be looked upon by the priest. ²⁰And the priest shall look; and, behold, if its appearance is lower than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy; it has broken out in a boil. ²¹But if the priest looks at it, and, behold, there is no white hair in it, and it is not lower than the skin, and has become dim, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. ²²And if it spreads greatly in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague. ²³And if in its place the bright spot is stayed, it has not spread; it is an inflamed boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴Or if there is flesh in which the skin has a hot burning, and the raw flesh of the burning becomes a bright white spot, being very red or white; ²⁵and the priest shall look on it; and, behold, the hair has turned white in the bright spot, and its appearance is deeper than the skin, it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy. ²⁶But if the priest looks on it, and, behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no lower than the other skin, but is somewhat dark, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. ²⁷And the priest shall look at him the seventh day. And if it is spread abroad very much in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. ²⁸And if the bright spot stays in its place, and does not spread in the skin, but is somewhat dark, it is a swelling of the burning; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is a scar of the burning.

one who has the scurf a second seven days. ³⁴And the priest shall look on the scurf on the seventh day. And, behold, if the scurf has not spread in the skin, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his garments, and shall be clean. ³⁵And if the scurf has spread further in the skin after his cleansing, ³⁶and the priest has looked on him; and, behold, the scurf has spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for the shining hair; he is unclean. ³⁷But if in his eyes the scurf has stayed, and black hair has sprung up in it, the scurf has been healed; he is clean. And the priest shall pronounce him clean.

⁴⁷And if there is in any garment a plague of leprosy, in a garment of wool, or in a garment of linen, ⁴⁸or in the warp, or in the woof, or of linen, or of wool, or a leather, or in a work of leather, ⁴⁹and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the leather, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, it is a plague of leprosy; and it shall be shown to the priest. ⁵⁰And the priest shall look on the plague, and shall shut up that which has the plague seven days. ⁵¹And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day. And if the plague has spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the leather, of all that is made of skin for use, the plague is a corroding leprosy; it is unclean. ⁵²And he shall burn the garment, or the warp, or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, in which the plague is; for it is a corroding leprosy; it shall be burned with fire. ⁵³And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, ⁵⁴then the priest shall command, and they shall wash that in which the plague is. And he shall shut it up a second seven days. ⁵⁵And the priest shall look on that which has the plague after it has been washed. And, behold, if the plague has not changed its appearance, and if the plague has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it with fire; it is eaten away in its inside or in its outside. ⁵⁶And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague has become pale after it has been washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the leather, or out of the warp, or out of the woof. ⁵⁷And if it is still seen in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn it with fire, that in which the plague is. ⁵⁸And the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or anything of leather which you shall wash when the plague has been taken off them, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

⁵⁹This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or of linen, or of the warp, or of the woof, or of anything of leather, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing, that he shall be brought to the priest. And the priest shall go out to the outside of the camp. And the priest shall look; and, behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, ³then the priest shall command, and he shall take for him who is to be cleansed two clean living birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. ⁴And the priest shall command, and he shall kill the one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water; ⁵he shall take the living bird, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the slain bird, over the running water. ⁷And he shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean. And he shall send out the living bird into the open field. ⁸And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his garments, and shall shave all his hair, and shall bathe with water, and shall be clean. And afterwards he shall come into the camp, and shall live on the outside of his tent seven days. ⁹And it shall be on the seventh day, he shall shave all his hair, his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows; he shall even shave all his hair. And he shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh with water, and shall be clean.

¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs, perfect ones, and one ewe lamb, daughter of a year, a perfect one, and three-tenth parts of flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, and one log of oil. ¹¹And the priest who is cleansing the man who is to be cleansed shall stand with them before Jehovah, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹²And the priest shall take the one male lamb and shall bring it near for a guilt offering, and the log of oil, and shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah. ¹³And he shall kill the lamb in the place where he killed the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place. For like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy. ¹⁴And the priest shall take of the blood of the guilt offering; and the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ¹⁵And the priest shall take of the log of oil and shall pour on the left palm of the priest. ¹⁶And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is on his left palm and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before Jehovah. ¹⁷And of the rest of the oil which is on his palm, the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the guilt offering; ¹⁸and the rest of the oil which is on the palm of the priest, he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. And the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah. ¹⁹And the priest shall make a sin offering, and shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterwards he shall slaughter the burnt offering; ²⁰and the priest shall offer the burnt offering, and the food offering, on the altar; and the priest shall make atonement for him; and he shall be clean.

²¹And if he is poor, and his hand is not able to reach these things, then he shall take one lamb as a guilt offering, for a wave offering, to make atonement for himself, and one-tenth part of flour mixed with oil for a food offering, and a log of oil, ²²and two turtle-doves, or two young doves, which he is able to afford; and one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. ²³And he shall bring them in to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansin, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before Jehovah. ²⁴And the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah; ²⁵and he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest shall take of the blood of the guilt offering, and he shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁶And the priest shall pour the oil on the left palm of the priest; ²⁷and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger of the oil which is on his palm, seven times before Jehovah. ²⁸And the priest shall put of the oil which is on his palm on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering. ²⁹And the rest of the oil which is on the priest's palm he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him, before Jehovah. ³⁰And he shall offer one of the turtle-doves, or of the young doves, from that which he is able to reach; ³¹that which his hand has reached out to, the one a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering, besides the food offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before Jehovah. ³²This is the law of him in whom is a plague of leprosy whose hand could not reach to his cleansing.

³³And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ³⁴When you come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving to you for a possession, and I have put a plague of leprosy in the house in the land of your possession; ³⁵then if he who owns the house shall come in and declare to the priest, saying, I have seen a plague in the house. ³⁶And the priest shall command, and they shall turn out the house before the priest comes in to see the plague, that all in the house may not be unclean; and afterwards the priest shall come in to see the house. ³⁷And he shall look upon the plague; and, behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with depressions, greenish or reddish, and the appearance of it is lower than the wall; ³⁸then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. ³⁹And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look; and, behold, if the plague has spread in the walls of the house; ⁴⁰then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which the plague is, and throw them into an unclean place outside the city. ⁴¹And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside all around, and they shall pour out the dust which they have scraped off at the outside of the city, at an unclean place. ⁴²And they shall take other stones and bring them in to the place of the stones; and he shall take other clay and shall daub the house.

⁴³And if the plague returns and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it has been daubed, ⁴⁴then the priest shall come in and look; and, behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a corroding leprosy in the house; it is unclean. ⁴⁵And he shall break down the house; its stones, and its wood, and all the clay of the house; and he shall carry out to the outside of the city, to an unclean place. ⁴⁶And he who goes into the house all the days he has shut it up shall be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁷And he who lies in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

⁴⁸And if the priest shall come in and carefully look, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the house has been daubed, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean; for the plague has been healed. ⁴⁹And he shall take two birds for the cleansing of the house, and cedar wood, and scarlet dye, and hyssop; ⁵⁰and he shall kill the one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water; ⁵¹and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and shall dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and shall sprinkle on the house seven times. ⁵²And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet yarn; ⁵³and he shall send away the living bird to the outside of the city, to the open field, and shall atone for the house; and it shall be clean.

⁵⁴This is the law for every plague of the leprosy and for scurf; ⁵⁵and for leprosy of a garment, and of a house, ⁵⁶and for a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot; ⁵⁷to teach when it is unclean and when it is clean; this is the law of leprosy.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²Speak to the the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When there is a discharge from his flesh; he is unclean because of his flow. ³And this is his uncleanness in his discharge, if his flesh has run with his discharge, or his flesh has stopped from his discharge; it is his uncleanness. ⁴Every bed on which he who discharges lies shall be unclean. And everything on which he sits shall be unclean. ⁵And anyone who touches his bed shall wash his garments, and shall bathe with water, and shall be unclean until the evening. ⁶And he who sits on anything on which he that has the issue sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. ⁷And he that touches the flesh of him that has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. ⁸And if he that has the issue spits on him that is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁹And whatever saddle he that has the issue rides on shall be unclean. ¹⁰And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And he that carries those things shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹¹And whomever he that has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹²And the earthen vessel that he who discharges shall be broken; and every wooden vessel shall be rinsed with water.

¹³And when he that discharges is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes. And he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. ¹⁴And on the eighth day he shall take to himself two turtle-doves, or two young doves, and come before Jehovah to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation and give them to the priest. ¹⁵And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah for his discharge.

¹⁶And if any man's semen pass from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening.

²³And if it is on the bed, or on anything on which she sits when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁴And if any man lies with her, and her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

²⁵And if a woman has an issue of her blood many days outside the time of her impurity, or if she has an issue beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the flow of her uncleanness, she shall be as in the days of her impurity; she is unclean.

²⁸And if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

²⁹And on the eighth day she shall take to herself two turtle-doves, or two young doves, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

³⁰And the priests shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before Jehovah for the discharge of her uncleanness.

³¹So you shall separate the sons of Israel from their uncleanness, and they shall not die in their uncleanness, when they defile My tabernacle that is in their midst.

³²This is the law of him that discharges, and of him from whom semen flows out, for uncleanness by it; ³³and of her who is sick in her impurity, and of him from whom the discharge flows; of a male or of a female, and of a man who lies with an unclean woman.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, as they drew near before Jehovah, and they died; ²and Jehovah said to Moses, Speak to your brother Aaron, and he shall not come in at all times to the sanctuary within the veil, to the front of the mercy-seat. ³With this Aaron shall come into the sanctuary: with a bullock, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴He shall put on a holy linen coat, and linen underpants shall be on his flesh, and he shall gird himself with a linen girdle, and he shall wrap himself in a linen miter; they are holy garments. And he shall bathe his flesh with water and shall put them on. ⁵And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. ⁶And Aaron shall bring near the bullock of the sin offering which is his own, and shall make atonement for himself, and for his house. ⁷And he shall take the two goats and shall cause them to stand before Jehovah, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁸And Aaron shall give lots over the two goats, one lot for Jehovah, and one lot for a complete removal. ⁹And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the lot of Jehovah fell and shall make it a sin offering. ¹⁰And the goat on which the lot for a complete removal fell shall be made to stand living before Jehovah to atone by it, to send it away for a complete removal into the wilderness. ¹¹And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering which is his own, and shall atone for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is his own. ¹²And he shall take a censer full of coals of the fire from off the altar before Jehovah, and his hands full of fragrant perfumes beaten small, and bring it within the veil. ¹³And he shall put the incense on the fire before Jehovah, and the cloud of the incense shall cover the mercy-seat which is on the testimony; and he shall not die. ¹⁴And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and shall sprinkle with his finger on the front of the mercy-seat eastward. And he shall sprinkle at the front of the mercy-seat seven times from the blood with his finger.

¹⁵And he shall kill the goat of the sin offering which is the people's, and shall bring in its blood to the inside of the veil, and shall do with its blood as he has done with the blood of the bullock, and shall sprinkle it on the mercy-seat, and at the front of the mercy-seat. ¹⁶And he shall make atonement for the sanctuary because of the pollutions of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions for all their sins. And so he shall do for the tabernacle of the congregation which is dwelling in the midst of their pollutions. ¹⁷And not any man shall be in the tabernacle of the congregation as he goes in to make atonement in the sanctuary, until he comes out. And he shall make atonement for himself, and for his house, and for all the congregation of Israel. ¹⁸And he shall go out to the altar which is before Jehovah, and shall make atonement for it. And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and shall put it on the horns of the altar all around. ¹⁹And he shall sprinkle on it from the blood with his finger seven times, and shall cleanse it, and shall purify it from the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel.

²⁰And when he having finished atoning for the sanctuary, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, and having brought near the living goat; ²¹then Aaron shall lay his two hands on the head of the living goat, and shall confess over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions, and all their sins, and shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send it by the hand of a chosen man into the wilderness. ²²And the goat shall bear on him all their iniquities to a land cut off. And he shall send the goat away into the wilderness.

shall carry out to the outside of the camp; and they shall burn their skins with fire, and their flesh, and their dung. ²⁸And he who shall burn them shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh with water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp.

²⁹And it shall be for a never-ending statute, in the seventh month, in the tenth of the month, you shall humble yourself and do no work, the native, and the alien who is staying in your midst. ³⁰For on this day he shall make atonement for you, to cleanse you from all your sins; you shall be clean before Jehovah. ³¹*It is a sabbath of rest to you, and you shall humble yourself. It is a never-ending statute.* ³²And the priest whom He shall anoint, and whose hand He shall consecrate to act as priest instead of his father, shall make atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments. ³³And he shall make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar he shall make atonement; yes, for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation he shall make atonement. ³⁴And this shall be to you a never-ending statute, to make atonement for the sons of Israel, because of all their sins, once a year.

And he did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel. And you shall say to them, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded, saying, ³Any man of the house of Israel who kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills at the outside of the camp, ⁴and has not brought it in to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation as an offering to Jehovah, before the tabernacle of Jehovah, blood shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood. And that man shall be cut off from the midst of his people; ⁵so that the sons of Israel shall bring in their sacrifices which they are sacrificing in the open field to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to Jehovah.

⁸And you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of aliens who sojourn in your midst, who offers burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹and does not bring it in to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation to offer it to Jehovah, that man shall be cut off from his people. ¹⁰And any man of the house of Israel, or of the alien who is staying in your midst, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person that eats blood and will cut him off from his people. ¹¹For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar, to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood which makes atonement for the soul. ¹²For this reason I have said to the sons of Israel, No person among you shall eat blood; and the alien who is staying in your midst shall not eat blood. ¹³And any man of the sons of Israel, or of the aliens who stay in your midst, who hunts and catches game, beast or fowl, which is eaten, shall even pour out its blood and shall cover it with dust. ¹⁴For it is the life of all flesh; its blood is for its life. And I say to the sons of Israel, You shall not eat blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is in the blood; anyone eating it is cut off.

¹⁵And any person who eats a dead body or torn thing, be he a native, or an alien, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean. ¹⁶And if he does not wash them, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, I am Jehovah your God. ³You shall not do according to the doings of the land of Egypt in which you lived; and you shall not do according to the doings of the land of Canaan to which I am bringing you; nor shall you walk in their statutes. ⁴You shall do My judgments and you shall keep My statutes, to walk in them; I am Jehovah your God, ⁵and you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man do, he shall live by them. I am Jehovah.

⁶None of you shall draw near to any relative of his flesh to uncover their nakedness; I am Jehovah. ⁷You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness. ⁸You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is the nakedness of your father. ⁹You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, born at home, or born away; you shall not uncover their nakedness.

¹⁷You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter; you shall not undertake to uncover her son's daughter, and her daughter's daughter; they are her relatives; it is wickedness. ¹⁸And you shall not take a wife with her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her lifetime.

through to Molech; nor shall you pollute the name of your God; I am Jehovah. ²²And you shall not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is disgusting. ²³And you shall not give your semen with any animal, for uncleanness with it. And a woman shall not stand before an animal to lie down with it; it is a shameful mixing.

²⁴Do not defile yourself with all these, for with all these the nations have been defiled, which I am casting out before you; ²⁵and the land is defiled, and I will visit its iniquity on it; and the land is vomiting out its inhabitants; ²⁶and you, you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not do any of all these disgusting acts; neither the native nor the alien who is staying in your midst. ²⁷For the men of the land who are before you have done all these disgusting things, and the land is defiled; ²⁸lest the land vomit you out for your defiling it, as it has vomited out the nation that was before you. ²⁹For anyone who does any of these disgusting things, even the persons who are doing them, shall be cut off from the midst of their people. ³⁰And you shall keep My charge, so as not to do any of the disgusting customs which were committed before you; and you shall not defile yourselves with them; I am Jehovah your God.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, You are holy, for I am holy, Jehovah your God. ³Each man of you shall fear his mother and his father, and keep My sabbaths; I am Jehovah your God. ⁴Do not turn yourself to the idols; and you shall not make molten gods for yourselves; I am Jehovah your God.

¹⁹You shall keep my statutes; you shall not cause your livestock to breed with different kinds; you shall not sow your field with different kinds; and you shall not allow a garment mingled of linen and wool to come upon you.

²¹And he shall bring in his guilt offering to Jehovah, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, a ram for a guilt offering.

²²And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before Jehovah, for his sin which he has sinned; and it shall be forgiven him because of his sin he has sinned.

²³And when you come into the land and have planted all of the food trees, then you shall expose its foreskin, its fruit, it shall be uncircumcised for you three years; it shall not be eaten. ²⁴And in the fourth year all its fruit is holy; it is for praises for Jehovah. ²⁵And in the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase; I am Jehovah your God.

²⁶You shall not eat with the blood; you shall not divine, nor conjure spirits. ²⁷You shall not round the corner of your head, nor mar the corner of your beard. ²⁸And you shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead; and you shall not put on yourself any writing or mark; I am Jehovah.

²⁹You shall not pollute your daughter, to cause her to go whoring, that the land may not go whoring, and the land become full of wickedness. ³⁰You shall keep My sabbaths; and you shall revere My sanctuary. I am Jehovah.

³²You shall rise up in the face of gray hairs; and you shall honor the face of an old man; and be afraid of your God. I am Jehovah. ³³And when an alien lives with you in your land, you shall not oppress him; ³⁴as the native among you, so shall be the alien who is staying with you; and you shall love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

³⁵You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures and weights, or in quantity. ³⁶You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt; ³⁷and you shall observe all My statutes, and all My judgments and shall do them; I am Jehovah.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

²And you shall say to the sons of Israel, Any man of the sons of Israel, and of the aliens who are living in Israel, who gives of his seed to Molech shall certainly be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones! ³And I, I shall set My face against that man, and shall cut him off from the midst of his people, for he has given of his seed to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary, and to pollute My holy name. ⁴And if the people of the land truly hide their eyes from that man, as he gives his seed to Molech, so as not to put him to death, ⁵then I shall set My face against that man, and against his family, and shall cut him off, and all who go whoring after him, even going whoring after Molech, from the midst of their people.

⁶And the person who turns to those having familiar spirits, and to the spiritists, to go whoring after them, I shall set my face against that person, and cut him off from the midst of his people. ⁷And you shall sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am Jehovah your God; ⁸and you shall keep My statutes and shall do them; I am Jehovah who is sanctifying you. ⁹And any man who curses his father and his mother shall certainly be put to death; he has cursed his father and his mother; his blood shall be on him.

mother, and he has seen her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shame; and they shall be cut off before the eyes of the sons of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸And if a man lies with a menstruous woman, and has uncovered her nakedness, he has made her fountain bare; and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood; even both of them shall be cut off from the midst of their people. ¹⁹And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister, because he has made naked his near kin; they shall bear their iniquity. ²⁰If a man lies with his aunt, he has uncovered the nakedness of his uncle; they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. ²¹And if a man takes his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

²²And you shall keep all My statutes, and all My judgments, and shall do them, and the land where I am bringing you to live in it shall not vomit you out. ²³And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out from before you, for all these they have done, and I am disgusted with them. ²⁴But I have said to you, You shall surely possess their land; and, I, I am giving it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey; I am Jehovah your God, who has set you apart from the nations. ²⁵And you shall make a difference between the clean animals and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean. And you shall not make yourself filthy by beast or by fowl, or by anything which swarms the ground, which I have set apart to you as unclean; ²⁶and you shall be holy to Me, for I, Jehovah, am holy; and I have set you apart from the nations to become Mine.

²⁷And a man or woman, when there is among them a medium, or a fortune-teller, shall certainly be put to death; they shall stone them with stones; their blood is on them.

¹And Jehovah said to Moses, Speak to the priests, Aaron's sons, and you shall say to them, None shall be defiled for the dead among his people. ²But for his relative who is near to him, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, ³and for his sister, the virgin, who is near to him, who has not been with a man, for her he may be defiled. ⁴A leader shall not defile himself among his people, to pollute himself; ⁵they shall not make their heads bald, and they shall not shave the edge of their beard; and they shall not make a cutting in their flesh; ⁶they are holy to their God, and they shall not pollute the name of their God. For they offer the fire offerings of Jehovah, bread of their God, and they are holy. ⁷They shall not take a woman who is a harlot, or polluted; nor shall they take a woman put away from her husband; for he is holy to his God. ⁸And you shall sanctify him, for he brings near the bread of your God; he is holy to you; for I, Jehovah, am holy, who is sanctifying you. ⁹And when a daughter of any priest pollutes herself by going whoring, she is polluting her father; she shall be burned with fire.

¹⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷Speak to Aaron, saying, No man of your seed throughout their generations shall draw near to offer the bread of his God if there is a blemish in him. ¹⁸For no man in whom there is a blemish shall draw near, a blind man, or one lame, or disfigured, or deformed; ¹⁹or a broken-footed man, or a broken-handed man, ²⁰or one hump-backed, or a withered one, or with a spot in his eye, or a scurvy or scabbed person, or one with crushed testicles. ²¹No man of the seed of Aaron the priest in whom there is a blemish shall come near to offer the fire offerings of Jehovah; a blemish is in him; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. ²²He shall eat of the bread of his God, of the most holy things, and of the holy things. ²³But he shall not enter into the veil, and he shall not draw near to the altar; for a blemish is in him; and he shall not pollute My sanctuary; for I am Jehovah who sanctifies them. ²⁴And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, that they set themselves apart from the holy things of the sons of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name in what they devote to Me; I am Jehovah. ³Say to them, Out of all your seed throughout your generations, any man who draws near to the holy things which the sons of Israel set apart to Jehovah, and his uncleanness being upon him, that person shall be cut off from before me; I am Jehovah. ⁴Any man of the seed of Aaron that is leprous, or has an issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he is clean. And he who touches any uncleanness of a person, or a man whose semen has gone out of him; ⁵or a man who touches any swarming thing which is unclean to him, or touches a man who is unclean to him, by any of his uncleanness, ⁶the person who touches it shall even be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, but shall bathe his flesh with water. ⁷And when the sun goes in, he shall be clean, and afterwards he shall eat of the holy things, for it is his food; ⁸he shall not eat a dead body or torn thing, for it is unclean; I am Jehovah. ⁹And they shall keep My charge, and shall bear no sin for it, that they may not die for it when they pollute it; I am Jehovah, who is sanctifying them.

¹⁰And no stranger shall eat of the holy things; a tenant of a priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

¹¹And if a priest buys a person, the purchase of his silver, he shall eat of it; also one born in his house, they shall eat of his bread. ¹²And a priest's daughter, when she belongs to an alien man, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things. ¹³But a priest's daughter, when she is a widow, or put away, and has no seed, and has turned back to her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's bread. But no stranger shall eat of it. ¹⁴And if a man shall eat of a holy thing through ignorance, then he shall add the fifth part of it, and shall give it to the priest along with the holy thing. ¹⁵And they shall not pollute the holy things of the sons of Israel, that which they lift up to Jehovah; ¹⁶and so cause them to bear the iniquity of the guilt offering in their eating their holy things. For I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.

¹⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of the aliens in Israel, who brings near his offering, of all his vows, or of all his free-will offerings which they bring near to Jehovah for a burnt offering; ¹⁹at your own will a male, a perfect one, of the oxen, of the sheep, or of the goats may be offered. ²⁰You shall not offer that which has a blemish; for it shall not be acceptable for you. ²¹And when a man brings near a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah, to complete a vow, or for a free-will offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; no blemish shall be in it; ²²blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a running sore, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not bring these near to Jehovah; and you shall not make of them a fire offering on the altar to Jehovah. ²³As to an ox or a sheep deformed or dwarfed, you shall make it a free-will offering; but it is not acceptable for a vow. ²⁴As to anything bruised, or beaten, or torn, or anything cut, you shall not bring it near to Jehovah; even you shall not do it in your land. ²⁵And you shall not bring near the bread of your God from the hand of a son of a stranger, or any of these, for their corruption is in them, they are blemished; they are not acceptable for you.

²⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷When an ox, or lamb, or goat is born, and when it has been seven days under its dam, then from the eighth day and onward it is acceptable for an offering, a fire offering to Jehovah; ²⁸but an ox or sheep, it and its young one, you shall not slaughter in one day. ²⁹And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Jehovah, you shall sacrifice it of your free will; ³⁰it shall be eaten on that day; you shall not leave of it until morning; I am Jehovah.

³¹And you shall keep My commandments and shall do them; I am Jehovah. ³²And you shall not profane My holy name, and I shall be counted holy among the sons of Israel; I am Jehovah, who is sanctifying you, ³³who is bringing you up out of the land of Egypt, to become your God; I am Jehovah.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, The appointed seasons of Jehovah which you shall proclaim, holy gatherings, shall be these: These are My appointed seasons: ³Work is to be done six days, and in the seventh day shall be a sabbath of rest, a holy gathering; you shall do no work; it is a sabbath to Jehovah in all your dwellings.

⁷On the first day you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service; ⁸and you shall bring near a fire offering to Jehovah seven days; and the seventh day shall be a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service.

⁹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you come in to the land which I am giving to you, and have reaped its harvest, and have brought in the sheaf, the beginning of your harvest, to the priest, ¹¹then he shall wave the sheaf before Jehovah for your acceptance; on the morrow of the sabbath the priest shall wave it. ¹²And you shall prepare a lamb in the day you wave the sheaf, a perfect one, a son of a year, for a burnt offering to Jehovah. ¹³And its food offering shall be two-tenth parts of flour mixed with oil, a fire offering to Jehovah, a sweet fragrance; and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine. ¹⁴And you shall not eat bread and roasted grain and fresh ears until this self-same day, until you have brought the offering of your God; it is a never-ending statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵And you shall number to you from the next day after the sabbath, from the day you bring in the sheaf of the wave offering; they shall be seven perfect sabbaths; ¹⁶to the next day after the seventh sabbath, you shall number fifty days; and you shall bring near a new food offering to Jehovah; ¹⁷you shall bring in bread out of your dwellings for a wave offering, two loaves; they shall be of two-tenth parts of flour; they shall be baked with leaven; firstfruits to Jehovah. ¹⁸And besides the bread, you shall offer seven lambs, perfect ones, sons of a year, and one bullock, a son of the herd, and two rams; they are a burnt offering to Jehovah, with their food offering and their drink offerings, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ¹⁹And you shall offer one he-goat for a sin offering, and two lambs, sons of a year, for a sacrifice of peace offerings. ²⁰And the priest shall wave them, besides the bread of the firstfruits, a wave offering before Jehovah, besides the two lambs; they are holy to Jehovah for the priest. ²¹And you shall make a proclamation on this same day; it is a holy gathering to you. You shall do no work of service. It is a never-ending statute in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

²²And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the corner of your field, nor shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor, and for the alien: I am Jehovah your God.

²³And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall have a sabbath, a memorable acclamation, a holy gathering. ²⁵You shall do no work of service, and you shall bring a fire offering to Jehovah.

²⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷Also, on the tenth of this seventh month shall be a day of atonement; you shall have a holy gathering, and you shall humble yourselves, and shall bring a fire offering to Jehovah. ²⁸And you shall do no work in this same day, for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Jehovah your God. ²⁹For any person who is not humbled in this same day shall be cut off from his people.

³⁰And any person who does any work in this same day, I shall even destroy that person from the midst of his people. ³¹You shall do no work; it is a never-ending statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings. ³²*It is* a sabbath of rest to you, and you shall humble yourselves in the ninth of the month at evening; from evening until evening you shall keep your sabbath.

³³And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ³⁴Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be a Feast of Booths seven days to Jehovah. ³⁵On the first day shall be a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service. ³⁶Seven days you shall bring a fire offering to Jehovah; on the eighth day you shall have a holy gathering; and you shall burn the fire offering to Jehovah; it is a solemn assembly; you shall do no work of service.

³⁷*These are* the set feasts of Jehovah which you shall proclaim holy gatherings, to bring a fire offering to Jehovah, a burnt offering, and a food offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, the thing of a day on its own day; ³⁸besides the sabbaths of Jehovah, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your free-will offerings which you shall give to Jehovah.

⁴⁰And you shall take to yourselves on the first day the fruit of majestic trees, palm branches, and boughs of oak trees, and willows of the brook, and shall rejoice before Jehovah your God seven days.

⁴¹And you shall keep a feast to Jehovah, seven days in a year, a never-ending statute throughout your generations; in the seventh month you shall keep it a feast.

⁴²You shall live in booths seven days; all who are home-born in Israel shall live in booths, ⁴³so that your generations shall know that I caused the sons of Israel to live in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

⁴⁴And Moses announced the appointed season of Jehovah to the sons of Israel.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁰And the son of an Israelite woman, and he a son of an Egyptian man, went out among the sons of Israel. And the son of the woman of Israel and a man of Israel struggled together in the camp. ¹¹And the son of the woman of Israel blasphemed the Name, and cursed. And they brought him in to Moses—and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. ¹²And they put him under guard, that it might be declared to them at the mouth of Jehovah.

¹³And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

¹⁴Bring out the reviler to the outside of the camp. And all those who heard shall lay their hands on his head, and all the congregation shall stone him. ¹⁵And you shall say to the sons of Israel, saying, When any man curses his God, then he shall bear his sin. ¹⁶And he who blasphemes the name of Jehovah shall certainly be put to death. All the congregation shall certainly cast stones at him. As to the alien, so to a native, when he blasphemes the Name, he is put to death.

¹⁸And he who smites an animal to death shall make it good, soul for soul.

¹⁹And when a man causes a blemish in his neighbor, as he has done, so it shall be done to him; ²⁰break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has caused a blemish in a man, so it shall be done to him. ²¹And he who smites an animal to death shall repay it; and he who smites a man to death shall be put to death. ²²One judgment shall be for you, whether an alien or a native; for I am Jehovah your God.

²³And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the reviler to the outside of the camp and stoned him with stones. And the sons of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai, saying.

²Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you come into the land which I am giving to you, then the land shall keep a sabbath to Jehovah. ³You shall sow your field six years, and you shall prune your vineyard six years, and shall gather its produce.

⁴And in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest to the land, a sabbath to Jehovah. You shall not sow your field, and you shall not prune your vineyard. ⁵You shall not reap that which grows of itself of your harvest; and you shall not gather the grapes of your unkept vine; it shall be a year of rest to the land. ⁶And the sabbath of the land shall be to you for food, to you, and to your male slave, and to your female slave, and to your hired one, and to your tenant, those who are living with you; ⁷and to your livestock, and to the beast which is in your land, all the produce of it shall be for food.

⁸And you shall number to yourself seven sabbaths of years, seven years times seven, and all the days of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years. ⁹And you shall cause an alarm, the ram's horn to pass over in the seventh month, in the tenth of the month; in the day of atonement shall pass over a ram's horn throughout all your land; ¹⁰and you shall make holy the fiftieth year. And you shall proclaim liberty in the land to all its inhabitants; it shall be a jubilee to you. And you shall return every man to his possession; yea, you shall turn back each to his family. ¹¹It is a jubilee, the fiftieth year; it is a year to you. You shall not sow, nor reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from its unkept vines; ¹²for it is a jubilee, it is holy to you; you shall eat its increase out of the field. ¹³In the year of jubilee you shall return each one to his possession.

¹⁴And if you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from the hand of your neighbor, you shall not each man oppress his brother. ¹⁵By the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor; by the number of the years of increase he shall sell to you; ¹⁶according to the many years you shall multiply its price; and by the fewness of the years you shall diminish its price; for he is selling to you the number of crops. ¹⁷And you shall not oppress each man his neighbor, and you shall fear your God, for I am Jehovah your God.

¹⁸And you shall do My statutes, and you shall keep my judgments and shall do them; and you shall live on the land securely. ¹⁹And the land shall give its fruit, and you shall eat to satisfaction; and you shall dwell securely on it. ²⁰And when you say, What shall we eat in the seventh year; for, lo, we may not sow nor gather our increase? ²¹Then I have commanded My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall produce the increase for three years; ²²and you shall sow the eighth year, and shall eat of the old crop until the ninth year, until the coming in of its crop;

you shall eat of the old. ²³And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is Mine; for you are aliens and tenants with Me. ²⁴And you shall grant a redemption for the land in all the land of your possession.

²⁵If your brother has become poor and has sold his possessions, then his kinsman-redeemer shall come, and he shall redeem the thing his brother sold. ²⁶But when a man has no redeemer, and his own hand has reached out, and he has enough for its redemption, ²⁷then he shall count the years since its sale, and shall give back the surplus to the man to whom he sold; and he shall return to his possession. ²⁸And if his hand has not found enough to give back to him, then the thing he sold shall be in the hand of him who buys it until the year of jubilee. And it shall go out in the jubilee, and he shall return to his possession.

²⁹And when a man sells a dwelling-house in a walled city, then his right of redemption shall be the end of the year from its selling date; his right of redemption shall be a year of days. ³⁰And if it is not redeemed until a full year is complete, then the house in the walled city shall be established to perpetuity to its buyer, throughout his generations; it shall not go out in the jubilee. ³¹But the houses of the villages which have no walls all around shall be counted as the field of the country; it may be redeemed, and it shall go out in the jubilee. ³²As to the cities of the Levites, houses of the cities of their possession, the Levites shall have never-ending redemption. ³³And that which is redeemed from the Levites, both the sale of a house, and the city of his possession shall go out in the jubilee. For the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession in the midst of the sons of Israel. ³⁴And the field, the open land of their cities, shall not be sold; for it is a never-ending possession to them.

³⁵And when your brother has become poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you shall strengthen him. He shall live with you as an alien and a tenant. ³⁶You shall take no interest from him, or increase; and you shall fear your God; and the life of your brother is with you. ³⁷You shall not give silver to him with interest, and you shall not give your food for increase; ³⁸*I am* Jehovah your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give to you the land of Canaan, to become your God.

³⁹And when your brother becomes poor with you, and he has been sold to you, you shall not lay on him the service of a slave. ⁴⁰He shall be with you as a hireling, as a tenant; he shall serve with you until the year of jubilee; ⁴¹then he shall go out from you, he and his sons with him, and shall return to his family; he shall even return to the possession of his father. ⁴²For they are My servants, whom I have brought out from the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold with the sale of a slave. ⁴³You shall not rule over him with severity, and you shall fear your God. ⁴⁴And your male slave and your female slave whom you have from the nations who are all around you, you shall buy them as male slave or female slave; ⁴⁵and also you may buy of the sons of the tenants who are sojourning with you, and of their families who are with you, which they have fathered in your land. And they shall be a possession to you. ⁴⁶And you shall take them for inheritance to your sons after you, to hold for a possession; you may lay service on them forever. But on your brothers, the sons of Israel, one over another, you shall not rule over him with severity.

⁴⁷And if lifts up a hand of an alien or a tenant with you, and your brother grows poor with him, and he sells himself to an alien, a tenant with with you, or to the offshoot of the family of an alien; ⁴⁸after he has been sold, there is a redemption to him; one of his brothers may redeem him, ⁴⁹or his uncle, or a son of his uncle, may redeem him, or any of his fleshly relations of his family may redeem him. Or, if his own hand has reached out to gain, then he may be redeemed. ⁵⁰And he shall count with his buyer from the year of his being sold to him until the year of jubilee, and the silver of his sale shall be by the number of years. As the days of a hireling, it shall be with him. ⁵¹If there are yet many years, according to them he shall give back his redemption, from the silver of his purchase. ⁵²And if few are left of the years till the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him; according to his years he shall give back his redemption price. ⁵³As a hireling, year by year, he shall be with him, and he shall not rule him with severity before your eyes. ⁵⁴And if he is not redeemed in this way, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him. ⁵⁵For the sons of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

¹You shall not make idols to yourselves; and you shall not set up for yourselves graven images, or a memorial pillar. And you shall not place any stone image in your land, to bow yourselves to it; for I am Jehovah your God.

³If you walk in My statutes, and keep My commandments, and do them, ⁴then I will give you rains in their season, and the land shall yield her produce, and the tree of the field shall give its fruit; ⁵and your threshing shall overtake the vintage, and the vintage shall overtake the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread until you have enough, and live in your land securely. ⁶And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall terrify you. And I shall cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, and the sword shall not pass over into your land. ⁷And you shall pursue your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸And five of you shall pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you shall pursue a myriad; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. ⁹And I shall turn My face toward you and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and shall establish My covenant with you. ¹⁰And you shall eat very old provision, and clear away the old because of the new. ¹¹And I will set My tabernacle in your midst, and My soul shall not loathe you; ¹²and I shall walk always in your midst, and shall be God to you, and you, you shall be people to Me; ¹³*I am* Jehovah your God, who has brought you out of the land of the Egyptians, from being their slaves; and I will break the bars of your yoke, and cause you to stand erect.

¹⁴And if you will not listen to Me, and do not do all these commands; ¹⁵and if you reject My statutes, and if your soul hates My judgments, so as not to do all My commands, to the breaking of My covenant; ¹⁶I will also do this to you, and I shall appoint terror over you, the wasting, and the burning fever, destroying the eyes, and consuming the soul; and you shall sow your seed in vain, and your enemies will eat it. ¹⁷And I shall set My face against you, and you shall be smitten before your enemies; and those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee, and there will be no one pursuing you. ¹⁸And if after these things you will not listen to Me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sin; ¹⁹and I will break the pride of your strength, and will make your heavens as iron, and your earth as bronze; ²⁰and your strength shall be consumed in vain, and your land shall not give her produce, and the tree of the land shall not give its fruit.

²¹And if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to listen to Me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins, ²²and send against you the beast of the field, and it shall bereave you. And I shall cut off your livestock and shall make you few, and shall cause your ways to become desolate. ²³And if you are not chastised by Me by these things, and shall walk contrary to Me, ²⁴then I, I also, shall walk contrary to you, and shall smite you, even I, seven times more for your sins; ²⁵and I will bring a sword on you, executing the vengeance of the covenant, and you shall be gathered to your cities, and I shall send pestilence into your midst; and you shall be given into the hand of an enemy. ²⁶When I break to you the staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and shall give back your bread by weight; and you shall eat, and shall not be satisfied.

²⁷If you will not listen to Me for this, and shall walk contrary to Me, ²⁸then I also will walk contrary to you in fury. I also will chastise you, I also, seven times for your sins. ²⁹And you shall eat of the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat of the flesh of your daughters. ³⁰And I shall destroy your high places and cut down your altars, and shall put your dead bodies on the carcasses of your idols. And My soul shall loathe you. ³¹And I shall make your cities a waste, and shall make your sanctuaries desolate; and I shall not smell your sweet fragrances. ³²And I shall make the land desolate, and your enemies who are living in it shall be astonished at it. ³³And I will scatter you among nations, and shall draw out the sword after you, and your land shall become a waste, and your cities shall be a desolation.

³⁴Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths, all the days of the desolation. And you shall be in the land of your enemies; then the land shall enjoy rest, and shall enjoy its sabbaths. ³⁵It shall rest all the days of the desolation, that which it has not rested in your sabbaths while you lived on it. ³⁶And those who are left of you, I shall also bring a faintness into their heart in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they shall fall when no one pursues. ³⁷And they shall stumble upon one another, as if it were before the sword, when no one pursues. And you shall have no power to stand before your enemies. ³⁸And you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you. ³⁹And of those who are left of you, they shall putrefy in their iniquity, in the lands of your enemies; and also in the iniquities of their fathers, they shall putrefy with them.

⁴⁰And if they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass with which they have trespassed against Me; and, also, that they have walked contrary to Me—⁴¹I also walked contrary to them, and I brought them into the land of their enemies. If their uncircumcised heart is then humbled, and they then have satisfied for their iniquity; ⁴²then I will remember My covenant with Jacob; and also My covenant with Isaac; and I shall also remember My covenant with Abraham, and I shall remember the land. ⁴³For the land shall be forsaken by them, and shall satisfy for its sabbaths, in the desolation without them. And they shall satisfy for their iniquity, because, even because, they have kicked against My judgments, and their soul has loathed My statutes. ⁴⁴And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I hate them, to consume them, to break My covenant with them; for I am Jehovah their God. ⁴⁵Then I shall remember for them the covenant of the first fathers, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God; I am Jehovah.

⁴⁶These are the statutes and the judgments and the laws which Jehovah has given between Him and the sons of Israel, in Mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When a man makes a difficult vow by your evaluation, the persons shall be Jehovah's. ³And your evaluation shall be of the male from a son of twenty years even until a son of sixty years; then your evaluation shall be fifty shekels of silver by the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁴And if it is a female, then your evaluation shall be thirty shekels. ⁵And if from a son of five years to a son of twenty years, then your evaluation shall be twenty shekels for the male and ten shekels for the female. ⁶And if a son of a month even to a son of five years, then your evaluation shall be five shekels of silver for the male and three shekels of silver for the female. ⁷And if from a son of sixty years and above, if a male, then your evaluation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels. ⁸but if he is too poor for your evaluation, then he shall be made to stand before the priest, and the priest shall value him; the priest shall value him according to the reach of him who vowed.

⁹And if it is an animal of which they bring an offering to Jehovah, all that one gives of it to Jehovah is holy. ¹⁰He shall not replace it, or change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. And if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. ¹¹And if any unclean animal, of which they may not bring an offering to Jehovah, then he shall make stand the animal before the priest. ¹²And the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad; as you the priest value it, so it shall be. ¹³But if he really redeems it, then he shall add its fifth to your evaluation.

¹⁴And when a man sanctifies his house as a holy thing to Jehovah, then the priest shall value it, whether good or bad. As the priest values it, so it shall stand. ¹⁵And if he who is sanctifying shall redeem the house, then he shall add a fifth of the silver of its valuation, and it shall become his.

¹⁶And if a man sanctifies a field of his property to Jehovah, then your valuation shall be according to its seed; a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver. ¹⁷If he shall sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, it shall stand according to your valuation. ¹⁸And if he shall sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall count to him the silver according to the years which are left, to the year of the jubilee. And it shall be deducted from your estimation. ¹⁹And if he sanctifying the field really will redeem it, then he shall add a fifth of the silver of your evaluation to it, and it shall rise to become his. ²⁰And if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it is not to be redeemed any more. ²¹And the field shall be holy to Jehovah when it goes out in the jubilee, as a field which is devoted. It shall be a possession to the priest. ²²And if he should devote a field of his purchase, which is not of the fields of his possession, ²³then the priest shall count to him the amount of your valuation to the year of jubilee. And he shall give your valuation in that day, a holy thing to Jehovah. ²⁴In the year of jubilee the field shall return to him from whom he bought it, to him who owns it in the land. ²⁵And all your valuation shall be by the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. ²⁶However, no man shall dedicate a firstling, which is firstborn to Jehovah among animals, whether ox or sheep—it is Jehovah's. ²⁷And if among the unclean animals, then he shall ransom it at your valuation, and he shall add its fifth to it. And if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold at your valuation. ²⁸But any devoted thing which a man devotes to Jehovah from all which belongs to him, of man or of animal, or of the field of his possession, it shall not be sold nor redeemed. Every one devoted to Jehovah is most holy. ²⁹No devoted thing which is dedicated by man shall be ransomed; it shall surely be put to death. ³⁰And all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land, of the fruit of the tree, shall be Jehovah's—it is holy to Jehovah.

³¹And if a man really redeems any of his tithes, he shall add its fifth to it. ³²And all the tithe of the herd and of the flock, all that passes under the rod, a tenth shall be holy to Jehovah; ³³he shall not search whether it is good or bad, nor shall he change it. And if he at all changes it, then it shall be that it and its substitute shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Lift the heads of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, by their heads; ³from a son of twenty years and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel. You shall number them by their armies, even you and Aaron. ⁴And there shall be a man of every tribe with you, every one head of his father's house. ⁵And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: Of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur; ⁶Of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; ⁷of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; ⁸of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar; ⁹of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; ¹⁰of the sons of Joseph, of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; ¹¹of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon; ¹²of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; ¹³of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran; ¹⁴of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel; ¹⁵of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan. ¹⁶These were those called from the congregation, rulers of the tribes of their fathers. They were heads of the thousands of Israel.

²⁰And the sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, by their heads, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ²¹those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand and five hundred.

²⁴Of the sons of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ²⁵those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

²⁶Of the sons of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ²⁷those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand and six hundred.

²⁸Of the sons of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ²⁹those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand and four hundred.

³⁰Of the sons of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ³¹those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand and four hundred.

³²Of the sons of Joseph, of the sons of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ³³those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand and five hundred.

³⁴Of the sons of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ³⁵those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand and two hundred.

³⁶Of the sons of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ³⁷those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand and four hundred.

³⁸Of the sons of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ³⁹those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand and seven hundred.

⁴⁰Of the sons of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war: ⁴¹those that were numbered of them for the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand and five hundred.

⁴⁴These were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the rulers of Israel being twelve men; they were each one of his fathers' house. ⁴⁵And all those that were numbered of the sons of Israel by their fathers' house, from a son of twenty years and upward, all that were able to go out to war in Israel; ⁴⁶even all those that were numbered were six hundred and three thousand, and five hundred and fifty. ⁴⁷But the Levites, according to the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.

⁴⁸And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

⁴⁹However, you shall not number the tribe of Levi, nor shall you count their heads among the sons of Israel. ⁵⁰But you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furniture, and over all that belongs to it. They shall bear the tabernacle, and all its furniture. And they shall serve it, and shall encamp around the tabernacle. ⁵¹And when the tabernacle goes forward, the Levites shall take it down. And when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And the stranger that draws near shall be put to death. ⁵²And the sons of Israel shall pitch their tents, each man with his own camp, and each man with his own standard, according to their armies. ⁵³But the Levites shall pitch around the tabernacle of the testimony, that there be no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel. And the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁵⁴And the sons of Israel did according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses — so they did.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ²The sons of Israel shall pitch by their fathers' house, every man with his own standard, according to the standards. They shall pitch around the tabernacle of the congregation, afar off. ³And those who pitch on the east side, toward the sunrising, are of the standard of Judah's camp, according to their armies, the ruler of the sons of Judah being Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ⁴And his army and those numbered of them were seventy-four thousand and six hundred. ⁵And those pitching next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar; the ruler of the sons of Issachar being Nethaneel the son of Zuar; ⁶and his army, and those that were numbered of them were fifty-four thousand and four hundred.

⁷And the tribe of Zebulun; the ruler of the sons of Zebulun being Eliab the son of Helon. ⁸And his army, and those that were numbered of them were fifty-seven thousand and four hundred. ⁹All that were numbered of the camp of Judah were a hundred and eighty-six thousand and four hundred, by their armies. They shall set forth first.

¹⁰On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies; the ruler of the sons of Reuben being Elizur the son of Shedeur.

¹¹And his army, and those numbered of it were forty-six thousand and five hundred. ¹²And those that pitch next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon; the ruler of the sons of Simeon being Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddi. ¹³And his army, and those numbered of them were fifty-nine thousand and three hundred. ¹⁴And the tribe of Gad: the ruler of the sons of Gad being Eliasaph the son of Reuel. ¹⁵And his army, and those numbered of them were forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty. ¹⁶All that were numbered of the camp of Reuben were a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty, according to their armies. And they shall pull out second.

¹⁷And the camp of the Levites, with the tabernacle of the congregation shall pull out in the middle of the camps. As they encamp, so they shall pull out, each man in his place, by their standards.

¹⁸On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim, according to their armies; the ruler of the sons of Ephraim being Elishama the son of Elishama the son of Ammihud. ¹⁹And his army, and those numbered of them were forty thousand and five hundred. ²⁰And next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh; the ruler of the sons of Manasseh being Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²¹And his army, and those numbered of them were thirty-two thousand and two hundred. ²²And the tribe of Benjamin; the ruler of the sons of Benjamin being Abidan the son of Gideoni. ²³And his army, and those that were numbered of them were thirty-five thousand and four hundred. ²⁴All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were a hundred and eight thousand and one hundred, according to their armies. And they shall pull out third.

²⁵On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan, according to their armies; the ruler of the sons of Dan being Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ²⁶And his army, and those numbered of them were sixty-two thousand and seven hundred. ²⁷And those that pitch next to him shall be the tribe of Asher; the ruler of the sons of Asher being Pagiel the son of Ocran. ²⁸And his army, and those that were numbered of them were forty-one thousand and five hundred. ²⁹And the tribe of Naphtali; the ruler of the sons of Naphtali being Ahira the son of Enan. ³⁰And his army, and those numbered of them were fifty-three thousand and four hundred. ³¹All that were numbered of the camp of Dan were a hundred and fifty-seven thousand and six hundred. They shall pull out last by their standards.

³²These are those numbered of the sons of Israel by their fathers' houses; all that were numbered of the camps according to their armies were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty. ³³But the Levites were not numbered among the sons of Israel, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

³⁴And the sons of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so they pitched by their standards, and so they pulled out, each one according to his family, and according to the house of his father.

¹And these are the generations Aaron and Moses, in the day of the speaking of Jehovah with Moses in Mount Sinai. ²And these are the names of Aaron's sons: Nadab, the firstborn; and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³These are the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests whose hands he consecrated to act as priests. ⁴And Nadab and Abihu died before Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai, for bringing strange fire before Jehovah. And they had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar acted as priests in the presence of their father Aaron.

⁵And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶'Bring the tribe of Levi near, and you shall cause it to stand before Aaron the priest. And they shall serve him, and keep his charge, and the charge of all the congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the work of the tabernacle. ⁸And they shall keep all the vessels of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the sons of Israel, to do the work of the tabernacle. ⁹And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his son. They shall surely be given to him out of the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood. And the foreign one who comes near shall be put to death.

¹¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel in the place of every firstborn opening a womb among the sons of Israel; and the Levites have become Mine. ¹³For every firstborn is Mine, from the day I struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I have set apart to Myself every firstborn in Israel, from men to animal. They are Mine. I am Jehovah.

¹⁴And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, ¹⁵Visit the sons of Levi by their families, by their fathers' house. You shall number every male from a son of a month and upward. ¹⁶And Moses numbered them according to the command of Jehovah, as he had been commanded.

¹⁷And these are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹And the sons of Kohath, by their families were Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁰And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers' houses.

²¹Of Gershon is the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites. These are the families of the Gershonites.

²²Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a son of a month and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred. ²³The families of the Gershonites were to pitch behind the tabernacle westward. ²⁴The ruler of the fathers' house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. ²⁵And the duty of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation is the tabernacle, and the tent, and its coverings, and the veil at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; ²⁶and the hangings of the court, and the veil at the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and its cords, to all its service.

²⁷And of Kohath is the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites. These are the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸In number, all the males, from a son of a month and upward were eight thousand and six hundred, keepers of the charge of the sanctuary. ²⁹The families of the sons of Kohath were to pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward; ³⁰the ruler of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites being Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹And their charge was the ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the veil, and all the service of it. ³²Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was ruler over the rulers of the Levites, and had the oversight of those that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

³³Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. ³⁴And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a son of a month and upward were six thousand and two hundred. ³⁵The ruler of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward. ³⁶The appointed duty of the sons of Merari being the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and all its vessels, and all its service; ³⁷and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

³⁸And those that were to pitch before the tabernacle eastward, before the tabernacle of the congregation, toward the sunrising, were Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the sons of Israel. And the foreigner who goes near shall be put to death. ³⁹All that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the mouth of Jehovah, by their families, all the males from a son of a month and upward were twenty-two thousand.

⁴⁰And Jehovah said to Moses, Count every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a son of a month and upward, and take the number of their names. ⁴¹And you shall take the Levites for Me, I am Jehovah, instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of every firstling among the cattle of the sons of Israel. ⁴²And Moses numbered as Jehovah commanded him, all the firstborn among the sons of Israel. ⁴³And all the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a son of a month and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand, two hundred and seventy-three. ⁴⁴And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am Jehovah. ⁴⁶And from those redeemed of the two hundred and seventy-three who are more than the Levites, of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, ⁴⁷you shall even take five shekels a piece, by the head—you shall take by the shekel of the sanctuary; twenty gerahs to the shekel. ⁴⁸And you shall give the silver to Aaron and to his sons, by which these over and above are redeemed. ⁴⁹And Moses shall take the redemption silver from those that are over and above those that were redeemed by the Levites, ⁵⁰from the firstborn of the sons of Israel he shall take the silver, a thousand, three hundred and sixty-five by the sanctuary shekel. ⁵¹And Moses shall give the silver of those redeemed to Aaron and to his sons, according to Jehovah's command, as Jehovah has commanded Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²Lift the heads of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' houses, ³from a son of thirty years and upward, even until fifty years old, all that enter upon the service, to do work in the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, the Holy of Holies. ⁵Aaron and his sons shall come in, when the camp pulls out, and shall take down the veil of the hanging, and shall cover the ark of the testimony with it. ⁶And he shall put a covering of dugong skins on it, and shall spread a garment entirely of blue on top, and shall put in its staves. ⁷And they shall spread a blue cloth on the table of the showbread, and shall put its dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and the cups of the drink offering, and the continual bread on it. ⁸And they shall spread a cloth of scarlet over them, and shall cover it with a covering of dugong skin, and shall put in its staves. ⁹And he shall take a blue cloth and shall cover the lampstand of the lamp, and its lights, and its tongs, and its firepans, and all its oil vessels with which they minister to it. ¹⁰And they shall put it and all its vessels into a covering of dugong skin, and shall put it on the bar.

¹¹And they shall spread a blue cloth on the golden altar, and shall cover it with a covering of dugong skin, and shall put in its staves. ¹²And they shall take all the vessels of ministry with which they minister in the sanctuary, and shall put them into a blue cloth, and shall cover them with a covering of dugong skin, and shall put them on the bar. ¹³And they shall remove the ashes of the altar, and shall spread over it a purple cloth; ¹⁴and shall put on it all its vessels with which they minister around it, the firepans, the hooks, and the shovels, and the bowls, all the vessels of the altar. And they shall spread a covering of dugong skin on it, and shall put in its staves. ¹⁵And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the sanctuary vessels, as the camp sets forward, then afterwards the sons of Kohath shall come in to carry. And they shall not touch the holy thing, that they may not die. These are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

¹⁶And the oversight of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil of the lamp, and the sweet incense, and the continual food offering, and the anointing oil. He shall have the charge of all the tabernacle, of all that is in it, whether it is the sanctuary, or its furniture.

¹⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ¹⁸Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites. ¹⁹but do this to them, and they shall live and not die as they draw near the Holy of Holies. Aaron and his sons shall go in, and shall appoint them each man to his service, and to his burden. ²⁰And they shall not go in to see when the holy thing is covered, that they may not die.

²¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²²Lift the heads of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers' house, by their families, ²³from a son of thirty years and upward, you shall number them, until a son of fifty years; all that enter to wait on the service, to serve in the tabernacle of the congregation. ²⁴This is the duty of the families of the Gershonites in serving and in bearing burdens. ²⁵They shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, its covering, and the covering of dugong skins that is on its top, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; ²⁶and the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and their cords, and all the vessels of their service, and whatever there may be to do with them; in this they shall serve. ²⁷At the mouth of Aaron, and of his sons, shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, and all their burden, and all their service. And you shall lay a charge on them concerning the duty of all their burden. ²⁸This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tabernacle of the congregation; and their charge is under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

²⁹You shall number the sons of Merari by their families, by their fathers' house, ³⁰from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years you shall number them, everyone who is going into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. ³¹And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation: the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, ³²and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, of all their vessels, and of all their service. And you shall number the vessels of the charge of their burden by name. ³³This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, for all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

³⁴And Moses and Aaron numbered; also the ruler of the congregation, the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by their fathers' house, ³⁵from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of the congregation. ³⁶their numbered ones, by their families, were two thousand, seven hundred and fifty. ³⁷These are those numbered of the families of the Kohathites, everyone who is serving in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the mouth of Jehovah, by the hand of Moses.

³⁸And those numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families, and by their fathers' house, ³⁹from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years, and everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁰even those numbered of them, by their families, by their father's house were two thousand, six hundred and thirty. ⁴¹These were those numbered of the families of Gershon, everyone who is serving in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the mouth of Jehovah.

⁴²And those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' house, ⁴³from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁴even their numbered ones by their families were three thousand and two hundred. ⁴⁵These were those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the mouth of Jehovah, by Moses' hand.

⁴⁶All those numbered, whom Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel numbered, of the Levites, by their families, and by their fathers' house, ⁴⁷from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to do the work of the service, even the service of burden in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁸even their numbered ones were eight thousand, five hundred and eighty; ⁴⁹*one* numbered them by the mouth of Jehovah, by the hand of Moses, each man according to his service, and according to his burden, even they were numbered by him, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel, and they shall send every leper out of the camp, and everyone with an issue, and everyone defiled by a dead body. ³You shall send out from male and female. You shall send them to the outside of the camp. And they shall not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell. ⁴And the sons of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp. As Jehovah spoke to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

¹¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When any man's wife goes astray, and has committed a trespass against him, ¹³and a man lies with her with semen, and it has been hidden from her husband's eyes, and is kept hidden, and she has been defiled, and there is no witness against her, and she has not been caught; ¹⁴and a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has become jealous of his wife, and she has been defiled. Or, a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has become jealous of his wife, and she has not become defiled: ¹⁵then the man shall bring his wife in to the priest, and he shall bring in her offering for her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal. He shall not pour oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a food offering of jealousy, a food offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

²³And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and shall blot them with the bitter waters. ²⁴And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter waters which cause the curse. And the waters which cause the curse shall enter into her for bitter things. ²⁵And the priest shall take the food offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the food offering before Jehovah, and shall bring it near to the altar. ²⁶And the priest shall take a handful of the food offering, its memorial, and shall burn it as incense on the altar. And afterward he shall cause the woman to drink the water. ²⁷And when he shall cause her to drink the water, then it shall be, if she has been defiled and has committed a trespass against her husband, the waters which cause the curse shall go into her for bitter things; and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away, and the woman shall become a curse in the midst of her people. ²⁸And if the woman has not been defiled, and is pure, then she shall be clean and shall conceive seed.

²⁹This is the law of jealousies when a wife turns aside under her husband, and has been defiled; ³⁰or when a spirit of jealousy passes over a man, and he has become jealous of his wife, then he shall cause the woman to stand before Jehovah, and the priest shall do to her all this law; ³¹and the man shall be clean from sin, and the woman shall bear her iniquity.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²'Speak to the sons of Israel and you shall say to them, When a man or woman shall vow the special vow of a Nazarite, to be separated to Jehovah: ³He shall separate from wine and fermented drink; he shall not drink vinegar of wine, or vinegar of fermented drink; he shall not drink any juice of the grapes; and he shall not eat dry or moist grapes. ⁴All the days of his separation he shall not eat from all that is made of the vine, from pressed grapes, even to the grapestone. ⁵All the days of the vow of his separation, a razor shall not pass over his head; he shall be holy until all the days are fulfilled which he has separated to Jehovah. He shall allow the locks of the hair of his head to grow long. ⁶All the days of his separation to Jehovah he shall not go near a dead person. ⁷He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, or for his brother, or for his sister, at their death; because his separation to his God is on his head. ⁸All the days of his separation he shall be holy to Jehovah. ⁹And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he shall shave it. ¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹¹And the priest shall prepare one for a sin offering, and one for a burnt offering, and shall make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead body. And he shall dedicate his head on that day. ¹²And he shall consecrate to Jehovah the days of his Nazariteship, and shall bring a he-lamb of the first year for a guilt offering. But the former days shall be void, for his separation was defiled. ¹³And this is the law of the Nazarite: when the one shall bring him in to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, ¹⁴and he shall offer his offering to Jehovah, one he-lamb of the first year, a perfect one, for a burnt offering; and one she-lamb, a yearling, a perfect one, for a sin-offering; and one ram, a perfect one, for a peace offering; ¹⁵and a basket of unleavened cakes of flour, cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their food offering, and their drink offerings. ¹⁶And the priest shall bring them before Jehovah, and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering. ¹⁷And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offering to Jehovah, with the basket of unleavened cakes. And the priest shall offer its food offering and its drink offering. ¹⁸And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation and shall put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering. ¹⁹And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder from the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the palms of the Nazarite after he has shaved his separation. ²⁰And the priest shall wave them, a wave offering before Jehovah. It is holy to the priest, besides the breast of the wave offering, and besides the leg of the heave offering. And afterward the Nazarite shall drink wine. ²¹This is the law of the Nazarite who vows his offering to Jehovah for his separation, besides that which his hand may get. According to his vow which he vows, so he shall do by the law of his separation.

²²And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²³Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, In this way you shall bless the sons of Israel, saying to them: ²⁴Jehovah bless you and keep you; ²⁵Jehovah cause His face to shine on you, and be gracious to you; ²⁶Jehovah lift up His face to you, and give you peace. ²⁷So they shall put My name on the sons of Israel, and I Myself will bless them.

¹And it happened on the day that Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it, and sanctified it, and all its vessels, and the altar and all its vessels. And he anointed them and sanctified them. ²And the rulers of Israel, the chiefs of their fathers' houses offered. These were the rulers of the tribes; these they that stood over the ones that were numbered. ³And they brought their offering before Jehovah, six covered wagons and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the rulers, for each one an ox. And they presented them before the tabernacle. ⁴And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁵Take it from them, that they may be used to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service. ⁶And Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. ⁷He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service. ⁸And he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service under Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath, because the service of the holy things belonged to them. They bore them on their shoulders. ¹⁰And the rulers brought the dedication offering of the altar in the day it was anointed. And the rulers brought near their offering before the altar. ¹¹And Jehovah said to Moses, They shall present their offering, one to the day, one ruler to the day, for the dedication of the altar.

³³one young bullock, one ram, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ³⁴one male of the goats for a sin offering; ³⁵and for the sacrifice of the peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling he-lambs. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

³⁶On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, ruler of the sons of Simeon: ³⁷this offering was: one silver dish, its weight a hundred and thirty, one silver basin of seventy shekels after the sanctuary shekel, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a food offering; ³⁸one golden pan of ten shekels full of incense; ³⁹one young bullock, one ram, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁴⁰one male of the goats for a sin offering; ⁴¹and for the sacrifice of the peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling he-lambs. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

⁴²On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, ruler of the sons of Gad: ⁴³this offering was one silver dish, its weight a hundred and thirty, one silver basin of seventy shekels after the sanctuary shekel, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a food offering; ⁴⁴one golden pan of ten shekels full of incense; ⁴⁵one young bullock, one ram, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁴⁶one male of the goats for a sin offering; ⁴⁷and for the sacrifice of the peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling he-lambs. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

⁴⁸On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, ruler of the sons of Ephraim: ⁴⁹this offering was: one silver dish, its weight a hundred and thirty, one silver basin of seventy shekels after the sanctuary shekel, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a food offering; ⁵⁰one golden pan of ten shekels full of incense; ⁵¹one young bullock, one ram, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁵²one male of the goats for a sin offering; ⁵³and for the sacrifice of the peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling he-lambs. This was the offering of Elishama, the son of Ammihud.

⁷²On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, ruler of the sons of Asher: ⁷³this offering was one silver dish, its weight a hundred and thirty, one silver basin of seventy shekels after the sanctuary shekel, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for a food offering; ⁷⁴one golden pan of ten shekels full of incense; ⁷⁵one young bullock, one ram, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁷⁶one male of the goats for a sin offering; ⁷⁷and for the sacrifice of the peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling he-lambs. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

⁸⁹And when Moses went into the tent of the congregation to speak with Him, he heard the voice speaking to him from the mercy-seat which is on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubs; and He spoke to him.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to Aaron and say to him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in the front of the lampstand. ³And Aaron did so. He lit its lamps so as to give light in front of the lampstand, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ⁴And this was the work of the lampstand: beaten work of gold to its base, and to its flowers; it was beaten work, according to the pattern which Jehovah caused Moses to see, so he made the lampstand.

⁵And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel and cleanse them. ⁷And thus you will do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle water of sin-offering on them. And they shall make a razor pass over all their flesh and wash their garments and cleanse themselves. ⁸And they shall take a bull, a son of the herd, and its food offering, flour mixed with oil, and a second bull, a son of the herd, take for a sin-offering. ⁹And you shall bring near the Levites before the tent of meeting; and you shall gather all the company of the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And you shall bring the Levites before Jehovah and the sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites. ¹¹And Aaron shall wave the Levites as a wave offering before Jehovah, from the sons of Israel, that they may serve at the service of Jehovah.

¹²And the Levites shall lay their hands on the head of the bullocks. And you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and one a burnt offering to Jehovah, to atone for the Levites. ¹³And you shall cause the Levites to stand before Aaron, and before his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering to Jehovah. ¹⁴And you shall separate the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall become Mine. ¹⁵And afterward the Levites shall come in to serve the tabernacle of the congregation; and you shall cleanse them, and shall wave them, a wave offering. ¹⁶For they are wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel; instead of the one who opens any womb, the firstborn of all, from the sons of Israel. I have taken them to Myself. ¹⁷For every firstborn among the sons of Israel among man and among animal is Mine; I set them apart for Myself in the day I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt. ¹⁸And I take the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel. ¹⁹And I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to do the service of the sons of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make atonement for the sons of Israel through the sons of Israel's drawing near to the sanctuary.

²⁰And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel did to the Levites according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites; so the sons of Israel did to them.

²³And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying ²⁴*This is that which pertains to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward he shall go in to do the service and the works of the tabernacle of the congregation.* ²⁵And from a son of fifty years they shall return from the service of the work, and shall not serve any more. ²⁶But he shall serve with his brothers in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge; only he shall not serve at a service. So you shall do to the Levites concerning their charge.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Also the sons of Israel shall prepare the Passover in its appointed season. ³In the fourteenth day of this month, between the evenings, you shall prepare it according to all its statutes, and according to all its ordinances. ⁴And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel to prepare the Passover. ⁵And they prepared the Passover in the first month on the fourteenth day of the month, between the evenings, in the wilderness of Sinai, according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses — so the sons of Israel did.

⁶And there were men who had been defiled by the body of a man, and they had not been able to prepare the Passover on that day. And they came near before Moses, and before Aaron on that day. ⁷And those men said to him, We are defiled by the body of a man. Why are we restrained so as not to be able to offer the offering of Jehovah in its appointed season, in the midst of the sons of Israel?

⁸And Moses said to them, You wait, so that I may hear what Jehovah will command concerning you. ⁹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰*Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your generations shall be unclean by reason of a body, or be in a distant journey, yet he shall keep the Passover to Jehovah.*

¹⁵And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the tabernacle of the testimony. And at evening there was on the tabernacle the appearance of fire, until morning. ¹⁶So it was always; the cloud covered it, and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, then after that the sons of Israel pulled up stakes; and in the place where the cloud abode, there the sons of Israel encamped.

¹⁸By the mouth of Jehovah the sons of Israel pulled up; and by the mouth of Jehovah they encamped. All the days that the cloud remained over the tabernacle, they remained in camp. ¹⁹And when the cloud tarried on the tabernacle many days, then the sons of Israel kept the charge of Jehovah, and did not pull up. ²⁰And so when the cloud was a number of days over the tabernacle, by the mouth of Jehovah they camped; and by the mouth of Jehovah they pulled up stakes.

²¹And so when the cloud was there from evening until morning, when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they pulled up. Whether by day or by night, when the cloud was taken up, then they pulled up. ²²Whether two days, or a month, or days, when the cloud tarried over the tabernacle, to remain over it, the sons of Israel remained in camp, and did not pull up. And when it was lifted up, they pulled up. ²³By the mouth of Jehovah they encamped, and by the mouth of Jehovah they pulled up stakes. They kept the charge of Jehovah, by the mouth of Jehovah, by the hand of Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Make two trumpets of silver for yourself. You shall make them of beaten work, and they shall be to you for the calling of the congregation, and for causing the camps to pull up. ³And when they shall blow with them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴And if they blow with one, then the rulers, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall assemble to you. ⁵And when you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall then pull up. ⁶And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall pull up; they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. ⁷But when the assembly is gathered, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. ⁸And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets. And they shall be to you for a never-ending statute throughout your generations. ⁹And when you go into battle in your land against the foe distressing you, then you shall blow with the trumpets, and you shall be remembered before Jehovah your God. And you shall be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰And in the day of your gladness, and in your appointed times, and in your new moons, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings. And they shall be to you for a memorial before your God. I am Jehovah your God.

¹¹And it happened in the second year, in the second month, in the twentieth of the month, the cloud went up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹²And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes in their goings from the wilderness of Sinai. And the cloud stayed on it in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³And they pulled up first at the mouth of Jehovah, by the hand of Moses. ¹⁴And in the front, the standard of the camp of the sons of Judah pulled up stakes, by their armies. And over its army was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ¹⁵And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar. ¹⁶And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. ¹⁷And the tabernacle was taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari pulled up, bearing the tabernacle. ¹⁸And the standard of the camp of Reuben pulled up, by their armies. And over its army was Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹⁹And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. ²⁰And over the army of the tribe of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel. ²¹And the Kohathites pulled up, bearing the sanctuary. And others set up the tabernacle while they came. ²²And the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim pulled up, by their armies. And over its army was Elishama the son of Ammihud. ²³And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²⁴And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

which Jehovah has said, I will give it to you. Go with us, and we will do good to you; for Jehovah has spoken good concerning Israel. ³⁰And he said to him, I shall not go, but I shall go to my land and to my kindred. ³¹And he said, Please do not forsake us, because you know as to how we encamp in the wilderness, and you shall be to us for eyes. ³²And it shall come to pass when you go with us; yea, it shall be that what good Jehovah shall do to us, we shall do good to you.

³³And they pulled up from the mount of Jehovah three days' journey. And the ark of the covenant of Jehovah pulled out before them, three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them. ³⁴And the cloud of Jehovah was on them by day as they pulled out from the camp. ³⁵And it happened when the ark pulled out, Moses said, Rise, O Jehovah, and Your enemies shall be scattered, and those hating You shall flee from Your presence. ³⁶And when it rested, he said, Return, O Jehovah, to the myriads, the thousands of Israel.

¹And the people were evil, as those complaining in the ears of Jehovah. And Jehovah heard, and His anger glowed, and the fire of Jehovah burned among them, and devoured in the extreme edge of the camp. ²And the people cried to Moses, and Moses prayed to Jehovah, and the fire was quenched. ³And he called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of Jehovah burned among them.

⁴And the mixed multitude that was among them lusted with a great lust; and the sons of Israel also turned back and wept, and said, Who shall cause us to eat meat? ⁵We remember the fish that we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; ⁶and now our soul withers. There is nothing except this manna before our eyes. ⁷And the manna was like coriander seed, and its look like the look of bdellium resin gum. ⁸And the people went around and gathered it and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in a pan, and made it into cakes. And its taste was like the taste of fresh oil. ⁹And when the dew came down on the camp by night, the manna came down on it.

¹⁰And Moses heard the people weeping by its families, each at the door of his tent; and the anger of Jehovah glowed exceedingly, and in the eyes of Moses it was evil.

¹¹And Moses said to Jehovah, Why have You done evil to Your servant; and why have I not found grace in Your eyes, to put the burden of all this people on me? ¹²I, have I conceived all this people? I, have I begotten it, that You say to me, Carry it in your bosom as the foster father bears the suckling, to the land which You have sworn to its fathers? ¹³Where shall I get flesh to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, Give to us flesh that we may eat. ¹⁴I am not able, I alone, to bear all this people, for it is too heavy for me; ¹⁵and if You deal thus with me, please quickly kill me, if I have found grace in Your eyes, and let me not look on my affliction.

¹⁶And Jehovah said to Moses, Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you have known that they are elders of the people, and its officers. And you shall take them to the tabernacle of the congregation; and they shall station themselves there with you. ¹⁷And I shall come down and speak with you there; and I will take of the spirit which is upon you, and will put it on them; and they will bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone. ¹⁸And you shall say to the people, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh. For you have wept in the ears of Jehovah, saying, Who shall give us flesh, for we had good in Egypt? And Jehovah shall give meat to you, and you shall eat. ¹⁹You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days; ²⁰*but* to a month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils, and it shall become to you a loathsome thing; because you have loathed Jehovah, who is in your midst, and weep before Him, saying, Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?

²¹And Moses said, The people in whose midst I am are six hundred thousand footmen; and You, You have said, I shall give meat to them, and they shall eat a month of days. ²²Shall flock and herd be slaughtered for them, so one may find for them? Are all the fish of the sea to be gathered for them, that one may find for them? ²³And Jehovah said to Moses, Is the hand of Jehovah shortened? Now you shall see whether My word shall come to pass to you or not.

²⁴And Moses went out and spoke to the people the words of Jehovah, and gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and caused them to stand around the tabernacle. ²⁵And Jehovah came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took of the spirit which was on him, and put it on the seventy men of the elders. And it happened, as the spirit rested on them, that they prophesied, but they did not continue.

²⁶And two of the men were left in the camp, the name of the one being Eldad, and the name of the second Medad; and the spirit rested on them, and they were among those written, but did not go out to the tabernacle. And they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp. ²⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, minister to Moses, of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, stop them. ²⁹And Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? Oh that all Jehovah's people were prophets, that Jehovah would put His spirit on them!

³⁰And Moses withdrew into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

³¹And a wind went forth from Jehovah and cut off quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as a day's journey here, and as a day's journey there, all around the camp, and about two cubits deep on the face of the land. ³²And the people rose up all that day, and all that night, and the day after, and gathered the quails; he who had least had gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves around the camp. ³³The meat was yet between their teeth, it was not yet cut off, and the anger of Jehovah glowed among the people. And Jehovah struck among the people with a very great plague. ³⁴And one called the name of that place The Graves of Lust; for there they buried the people who lusted.

³⁵From the Graves of Lust the people pulled up to go to Hazeroth, and they remained in Hazeroth.

¹And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses, because of the Cushite woman whom he had taken. For he had taken a Cushite woman. ²And they said, Has Jehovah spoken only by Moses? Has He not also spoken by us? And Jehovah heard. ³And the man Moses was very meek, more than any man who was on the face of the earth. ⁴And Jehovah said suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, You three come out to the tabernacle of the congregation. And the three of them came out. ⁵And Jehovah came down in the pillar of the cloud and stood at the tabernacle door, and called Aaron and Miriam. And both of them came out. ⁶And He said, Now hear My words, If your prophet is of Jehovah, I shall make Myself known to him in an appearance; I will speak to him in a dream. ⁷*It is not so with My servant Moses! He is faithful in all My house. I speak to him mouth to mouth, and by an appearance, and not in riddles; and he carefully looks upon the form of Jehovah.* So why have you not been afraid to speak against My servant, against Moses? ⁸And the anger of Jehovah glowed against them, and He left. ⁹And the cloud turned away from the tent. And, behold, Miriam was leprous as snow! And Aaron turned toward Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous!

¹¹And Aaron said to Moses, Oh my lord, I beg you, do not lay sin upon us, by which we have done foolishly, and by which we have sinned. ¹²I beg you, do not let her be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half-consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb. ¹³And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, O God, I beg You, give healing to her, I beseech You.

¹⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, If her father had but spat in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? She shall be shut out seven days at the outside of the camp, and afterward she shall be brought in. ¹⁵And Miriam was shut out at the outside of the camp seven days, and the people did not pull up stakes until Miriam was brought in. ¹⁶And afterward the people pulled up from Hazeroth, and they encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 'Send men for you, and they shall spy out the land of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel; you shall send one man for the tribe of his fathers, one man, every one a leader among them. ²And by the command of Jehovah Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran; they were all of them men, heads of the sons of Israel. ³And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur; ⁴of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; ⁵of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; ⁶of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph; ⁷of the tribe of Ephraim, Joshua the son of Nun; ⁸of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; ⁹of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi; ¹⁰of the tribe of Joseph, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi; ¹¹of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli; ¹²of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael; ¹³of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi; ¹⁴of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. ¹⁵These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

²¹And they went up and spied out the land, from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, at the entrance to Hamath. ²²And they went up into the Negeb, and came to Hebron. And Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the sons of Anak, were there. And Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt. ²³And they came in to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch and one cluster of grapes. And they carried it on a staff by two; also of the pomegranates, and of the figs. ²⁴That place was called the Torrent of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut from there.

²⁵And they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. ²⁶And they pulled up and came in to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the tabernacle of the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh. And they brought them and all the congregation word, and showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷And they reported to him and said, We came to the land where you sent us, and it surely does flow with milk and honey; and this is its fruit. ²⁸But the people that live in the land are fierce, and the cities are fortified, very great. And also we have seen the children of Anak there. ²⁹Amalek lives in the land of the Negeb, and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorites live in the hills. And the Canaanite is living by the sea, and beside the Jordan. ³⁰And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, We will certainly go up, and we will seize it, for we are well able to do it. ³¹And the men who had gone up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for it is stronger than we. ³²And they sent out an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the sons of Israel, saying, The land into which we passed, to spy it out, is a land eating up its inhabitants. And all the people we saw in its midst were men of stature. ³³And we saw the giants there, the sons of Anak, of the giants. And we were in our own eyes as grasshoppers, and so we were in their eyes.

¹And all the congregation lifted up their voice and cried; and the people wept during that night. ²And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron. And all the congregation said to them, Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness; of that we had died! ³And why is Jehovah bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our infants shall become a prey. Is it not good for us to return to Egypt? ⁴And they said each to his brother,

Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt.

⁵And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. ⁶And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who spied out the land, tore their garments. ⁷And they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, The land into which we passed, to spy it out, is an exceedingly good land. ⁸If Jehovah has delighted in us, then He will bring us into this land and will give it to us, a land which is flowing with milk and honey. ⁹Only, do not rebel against Jehovah. And you, do not fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their defense has turned away from them; and Jehovah is with us; do not be afraid of them. ¹⁰And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of Jehovah appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, to all the sons of Israel.

¹¹And Jehovah said to Moses, How long will this people despise Me? And How long will they continue not to believe in Me, for all the signs which I have done in its midst? ¹²I shall strike it with pestilence and dispossess it. And I will make you a nation greater and mightier than it. ¹³And Moses said to Jehovah, And the Egyptians will hear. For You have brought up this people out of their midst with Your power. ¹⁴And they will say to the inhabitant of this land, They have heard that You, Jehovah, are in the midst of this people, who is seen eye with eye. You are Jehovah, and Your cloud stands over them; in a pillar of cloud You go before them by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵And will you execute this people as one man? Then the nations who have heard Your fame will speak, saying, ¹⁶Because Jehovah is not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to them, therefore He has slain them in the wilderness. ¹⁷And now, I beseech You, let the power of my Lord be great, as You have spoken, saying, ¹⁸Jehovah is slow to anger, and of great mercy, bearing away iniquity and transgression; and by no means will clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the sons, on the third and on the fourth generation. ¹⁹I beseech You, forgive the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of Your mercy, and as You have borne with this people from Egypt, even until now.

²⁰And Jehovah said, I have forgiven according to your words; ²¹but as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of Jehovah; ²²for all the men who are seeing My glory, and My signs which I have done in Egypt and in the wilderness and have tried Me these ten times, and have not listened to My voice, ²³they shall not see the land which I have sworn to their fathers. Yea, not one of those scorning Me shall see it. ²⁴And My servant Caleb, because there is another spirit in him, and he is fully following Me, I shall bring him into the land into which he has gone, and his seed shall possess it—²⁵and the Amalekite and the Canaanite were living in the valley. Tomorrow turn and pull up stakes for yourselves; going into the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea.

²⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷How long shall I bear with this evil company who are murmuring against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel which they are murmuring against Me. ²⁸Say to them, As I live, says Jehovah, as surely as you have spoken in My ears, so I will do to you. ²⁹Your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, even all your numbered ones, as to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, in that you have murmured against Me. ³⁰You shall certainly not come into the land which I lifted up My hand to cause you to live in it, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹As for your infants, of whom you have said, They shall be a prey, I shall bring them in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected. ³²As for you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness. ³³And your sons shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your fornications until your carcasses are wasted in the wilderness; ³⁴by the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a day for a year, a day for a year; you shall bear your iniquities forty years; you shall know My alienation from you. ³⁵I am Jehovah; I have spoken. I shall do this to all this evil company who are gathered together against Me; they shall be brought to an end in this wilderness, and there they shall die.

³⁶And the men whom Moses had sent to spy out the land, and who, when they returned, made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land, ³⁷even those men bringing up an evil report of the land died by the plague before Jehovah. ³⁸But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men that went to spy out the land. ³⁹And Moses told these words to all the sons of Israel; and the people mourned deeply. ⁴⁰And they rose up early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, Behold, we are here, and we will go up to the place which Jehovah has said, for we have sinned. ⁴¹And Moses said, Why do you now transgress the mouth of Jehovah, since it will not prosper? ⁴²Do not go up, for Jehovah is not in your midst, even that you shall not be defeated by your enemies. ⁴³For the Amalekite and the Canaanite are there before you; and you shall fall by the sword because you have turned back from following Jehovah; and Jehovah is not with you. ⁴⁴And they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain, but the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and Moses did not leave the middle of the camp. ⁴⁵And the Amalekite and the Canaanite who were living in that mountain came down and struck them, and beat them down, to Hormah.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have come to the land of your dwellings, which I am giving to you, then you shall prepare a fire offering to Jehovah, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, in fulfillment of a vow, or as a free-will offering, or in your appointed seasons, to make a soothing fragrance to Jehovah, out of the herd, or out of the flock.

⁴And he who is bringing his offering to Jehovah shall bring near a food offering of flour, a tenth part, mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil; ⁵and wine for a drink offering, a fourth of a hin you shall prepare for the burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, for the one

lamb. ⁶Or you shall prepare a food offering of flour for a ram, two tenth parts mixed with oil, a third of a hin; ⁷and wine for a drink offering, a third part of a hin. You shall bring it near, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ⁸And when you prepare a son of the herd for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, in fulfillment of a vow, or peace offerings to Jehovah, ⁹then he shall bring near for the son of the herd a food offering of flour, three tenth parts, mixed with oil, a half of a hin; ¹⁰and you shall bring wine near for a drink offering, a half of a hin, as a fire offering of soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ¹¹So it shall be done for one ox, or for the one ram, or for a lamb of the sheep, or of the goats. ¹²You shall prepare according to the number. So you shall do for everyone according to their number. ¹³All that are home-born shall do these things in this way, in bringing in an offering made by fire, of a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ¹⁴And if an alien lives with you, or whoever may be among you, throughout your generations, and desires to offer a fire offering of a soothing fragrance to Jehovah; as you do, so he shall do. ¹⁵As for the congregation, there shall be one statute both for you and for the alien that lives with you, a never-ending statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the alien be before Jehovah. ¹⁶There shall be one law and one ordinance both for you and for the alien that lives with you.

¹⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land to which I bring you, ¹⁹then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall lift up a heave-offering to Jehovah. ²⁰You shall lift up a cake of the first of your dough as a heave-offering; as the heave-offering of the threshing-floor, so you shall lift it up. ²¹You shall give of the first of your dough to Jehovah, a heave offering for your generations.

²²And when you shall err and not shall perform all these commands which Jehovah has spoken to Moses, ²³even all that Jehovah has commanded you by the hand of Moses from the day that Jehovah commanded, and onward for your generations, ²⁴then it shall be, if it be done in error by the congregation, by ignorance, even all the congregation shall offer a son of the herd, one bullock, for a burnt offering, for a soothing fragrance to Jehovah, and its food offering, and its drink offering, according to the ordinance; and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

²⁵And the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel; and it shall be forgiven them. For it was in error, and they have brought their offering, a fire offering to Jehovah, and their sin offering before Jehovah for their error.

²⁶And all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and the alien that lives among them, shall be forgiven; for as to all the people, it was in ignorance.

²⁷And if one person sins through error, then he shall bring a she-goat of the first year for a sin offering. ²⁸And the priest shall atone for the soul that errs when he sins through error, before Jehovah, to atone for him. And he shall be forgiven, ²⁹both the native among the sons of Israel, and the alien that lives among them; one law shall be to you for him who acts in error. ³⁰And the soul that does anything with a high hand, whether of a native or of the alien, the same blasphemes Jehovah. And that person shall be cut off from the midst of his people. ³¹For he has despised the word of Jehovah and has broken His command; that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.

³²And while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day. ³³And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. ³⁴And they put him under guard; for it had not been declared what should be done to him. ³⁵And Jehovah said to Moses, The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp. ³⁶And all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stone him with stones. And he died, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

³⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ³⁸Speak to the sons of Israel and you shall say to them that they shall make themselves fringes on the corners of their garments, for their generations. And they shall put with the fringe of each corner a thread of blue. ³⁹And it shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look on it and remember all the commandments of Jehovah, and do them; and that you do not go about after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you go astray; ⁴⁰that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy to your God. ⁴¹*I am* Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am Jehovah your God.

¹And Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, took both Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben; ²and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty rulers of the congregation, elect men of the assembly, men of name. ³And they were assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much! For all the congregation, all of them are holy, and Jehovah is among them. Why then do you lift up yourselves above the assembly of Jehovah?

⁴And Moses heard and fell on his face. ⁵And he spoke to Korah, and to all his company, saying, In the morning Jehovah will show who are His, and him who is holy, and shall cause him to come near Him; even him whom He may choose He will cause to come near to Him. ⁶Do this: take censers for yourselves, Korah, and all his company, ⁷and put fire in them, and put incense on them before Jehovah tomorrow; and it shall be, the men whom Jehovah chooses, he shall be the holy one. You take too much, sons of Levi! ⁸And Moses said to Korah, Hear now, you sons of Levi, ⁹is it but a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of Jehovah, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them?

¹⁰Yea, He has brought you near, and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you. And will you seek the priesthood also? ¹¹Therefore, you and all your company that have gathered together against Jehovah: What is Aaron that you murmur against him?

¹²And Moses sent to call for Dathan and for Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, We will not come up. ¹³Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but must you also certainly seize dominion over us? ¹⁴Yea, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance in fields and vineyards; will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up! ¹⁵And Moses was very angry, and said to Jehovah, Do not respect their offering; I have not taken one ass from them, nor have I done evil to one of them.

²⁰And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²¹Separate yourselves from the midst of this company, and I will consume them in a moment. ²²And they fell on their faces, and said, O God, God of the spirits of all flesh; shall one man sin, and will You be angry with all the congregation?

²³And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴Speak to the congregation, saying, You get away from around the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. ²⁵And Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel went after him. ²⁶And he spoke to the congregation, saying, Please turn away from the tents of these wicked men, and do not touch anything that they have, lest you be consumed in all their sins. ²⁷And they got away from around the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out, standing at the door of their tents, and their wives, their sons, and their infants.

²⁸And Moses said, By this you shall know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these works, and that not from my own heart.

²⁹If these die according to the death of all men, and are visited according to the visitation of all men, then Jehovah has not sent me. ³⁰And if Jehovah makes a new thing, and the ground opens her mouth and swallows them, and all that they have, and they go down alive to Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised Jehovah. ³¹And it happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground which was under them split apart, ³²and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them, and their houses, and all the men who were for Korah, and all their possessions. ³³And they went down, they and all that they had, alive to Sheol, and the earth covered over them; and they perished from the midst of the assembly. ³⁴And all Israel who were around them fled at their cry; for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up.

³⁵And fire came forth from Jehovah and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered the incense.

⁴¹And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured on the next day against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have killed the people of Jehovah. ⁴²And it happened, as the company was called together against Moses and against Aaron, that they turned toward the tabernacle of the congregation. And, behold, the cloud had covered it, and the glory of Jehovah appeared! ⁴³And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴⁴And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵Get away from the midst of this company, and I shall consume them in a moment; and they fell on their faces. ⁴⁶And Moses said to Aaron, Take the firepan, and put fire on it from the altar, and lay on incense, and go, hurry to the congregation, and make atonement for them, for the wrath has gone out from the presence of Jehovah; the plague has begun. ⁴⁷And Aaron did as Moses had spoken, and ran into the midst of the assembly. And, behold, the plague had begun among the people! And he laid on the incense and made atonement for the people, ⁴⁸and stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed. ⁴⁹And those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died for the matter of Korah. ⁵⁰And Aaron turned back to Moses, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and the plague was stayed.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, and take from each of them a rod, for a father's house, from all their rulers, for the house of their fathers, twelve rods. You shall write the name of each on his rod. ³And you shall write Aaron's name on the tribe of Levi; for one rod shall be for the head of their fathers' house. ⁴And you shall place them in the tabernacle of the congregation, before the testimony, where I shall meet with you. ⁵And it shall be that the man's rod which I choose shall blossom. And I shall cause the murmurings of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against you, to cease from Me. ⁶And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their rulers gave to him one rod for each ruler, one rod for a ruler, for their fathers' house, twelve rods, and the rod of Aaron was among the rods.

⁷And Moses placed the rods before

Jehovah, in the the tabernacle of the testimony. ⁸And it happened on the next day, Moses went into the tabernacle of the testimony, and, behold! The rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had budded, and put forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. ⁹And Moses brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the sons of Israel. And they looked, and each one took his rod.

¹⁰And Jehovah said to Moses, Put back the rod of Aaron, before the testimony, to be kept as a token to the sons of rebellion. And you shall end their murmurings off Me; and they shall not die. ¹¹And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded him; so he did.

¹²And the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Behold, we die. we perish, we all perish. ¹³Anyone who draws near to the tabernacle of Jehovah shall die; shall we be consumed to die?

¹And Jehovah said to Aaron, You, and your sons, and your father's house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary. And you, and your sons with you, shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood; ²and also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, you shall bring near with you, that they may be joined to you and may minister to you, you and your sons in your being before the tabernacle of the testimony. ³And they shall keep your charge and the charge of all the tabernacle; only, they shall not go near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar. And they shall not die, either they or you. ⁴And they shall be joined to you, and shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle, and a stranger shall not go near to you. ⁵And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar, and there shall be no more wrath against the sons of Israel. ⁶And I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel; as a gift they are given to you by Jehovah, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁷And you, and your sons with you, shall keep your priesthood, in everything that pertains to the altar, and to that inside the veil. And you shall serve; I have given you the priesthood as a service of gift; and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

⁸And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, saying, And I, behold, I have given to you the charge of My heave offerings, of all the dedicated things of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you for the anointing, and to your sons, by a never-ending statute. ⁹This shall be yours of the most holy things, from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every food offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they may render to Me; it shall be most holy to you, and to your sons. ¹⁰You shall eat it in the holy of holies; every male shall eat it; it shall be holy to you. ¹¹And this is yours, the heave offering of their gift with all the wave offerings sons of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a never-ending statute; every clean one in your house shall eat it. ¹²All the best of the oil, and all the best of the new wine, and wheat, the firstfruits of them which they give to Jehovah, I have given to you. ¹³The firstfruits of all that is in their land, which they bring in to Jehovah shall be yours; every clean one in your house shall eat it; ¹⁴every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours; ¹⁵every one opening a womb of all flesh which they offer to Jehovah, among man and among animal, shall be yours. Only, you shall certainly redeem the firstborn of man, and you shall redeem the firstling of the unclean beasts. ¹⁶And their redeemed ones, from a month old, you shall redeem with your valuation, of silver, five shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary; it is twenty gerahs. ¹⁷But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and you shall burn their fat as incense, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ¹⁸And their flesh shall be yours, as the breast of the wave offering, and as the right leg; it shall be yours. ¹⁹All the heave offerings of the holy things which the sons of Israel shall lift up to Jehovah, I have given to you and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a never-ending statute, a covenant of salt, it shall be forever before Jehovah to you and to your seed with you.

²⁰And Jehovah said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel. ²¹And, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel to the sons of Levi for an inheritance, in return for their service which they are serving, the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

²⁵And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶And you shall say to the Levites; and you shall speak to them, When you take the tithe from the sons of Israel, which I have given to you from them, for your inheritance, then you shall lift from it a heave offering of Jehovah, a tithe of the tithe.

²⁷And your heave offering shall be counted to you as grain from the threshing-floor, and as fullness from the wine-press. ²⁸So you also shall lift up the heave offering of Jehovah from all your tithes which you receive from the sons of Israel. And you shall give from it the heave offering of Jehovah to Aaron the priest. ²⁹You shall lift up the whole heave offering of Jehovah out of all your gifts, out of all its fat, its hallowed part, out of it. ³⁰And you shall say to them, When you lift up its fat out of it, then it shall be counted to the Levites as increase of a threshing-floor, and as increase of a wine-press. ³¹And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households, for it is your reward in return for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. ³²And you shall bear no sin because of it, since you have lifted up from it the best of it. And you shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, so that you may not die.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²This is the statute of the law which Jehovah has commanded, saying, Speak to the sons of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer, a perfect one, in which there is no blemish, on which no yoke ever came. ³And you shall give her to Eleazar the priest, and she shall be brought forth outside the camp; and she shall be slaughtered before his face. ⁴And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and shall sprinkle of her blood toward the front of the tabernacle of the congregation seven times. ⁵And the heifer shall be burned before his eyes; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood with her dung, shall be burned. ⁶And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop and scarlet, and shall cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he may come into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. ⁸And he that burned her shall wash his clothes in water, and shall bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. ⁹And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and shall lay them up outside the camp in a clean place. And it shall be kept for the congregation of the sons of Israel for a water of impurity; it is a purging offering.

¹⁰And he that gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and shall be unclean until the evening; and it shall be to the sons of Israel, and to the stranger that lives among them, for a never-ending statute.

¹¹He that touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. ¹²He shall cleanse himself for it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean. And if he does not cleanse himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean. ¹³Anyone who touches the dead body, the body of a man who dies, and does not cleanse himself, he shall have defiled the tabernacle of Jehovah; and that person shall be cut off from Israel, for the water of impurity shall not be sprinkled upon him. He shall be unclean; his uncleanness shall be still on him.

¹⁴This is the law when a man dies in a tent: Everyone who comes into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁵And every open vessel which has no covering of thread on it shall be unclean. ¹⁶And whoever in the open field touches one that has been pierced with a sword, or one that has died of himself, or the bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁷And for the unclean they shall take the ashes of the burning of the purging offering, and running water in a vessel shall be put on it. ¹⁸And a clean person shall take hyssop, and shall dip it in the water, and shall sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave. ¹⁹And the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself; and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening. ²⁰But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Jehovah; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he shall be unclean. ²¹And it shall be a never-ending statute to them; and he that sprinkles the water of impurity shall wash his clothes; and he touches the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until evening. ²²And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until evening.

¹And the sons of Israel, even the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people remained in Kadesh. And Miriam died there, and was buried there. ²And there was no water for the congregation, and they were gathered against Moses, and against Aaron. ³And the people contended with Moses, and spoke, saying, Oh that we had died when our brothers died before Jehovah! 'And, why have you brought the assembly of Jehovah to this wilderness to die there, we and our animals? 'And, why have you brought us up out of Egypt to bring us to this evil place, not a place of seed, nor fig, nor vine, nor pomegranate; and there is no water to drink? 'And Moses and Aaron went in from the eyes of the assembly, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and fell on their faces. And the glory of Jehovah appeared to them.

⁷And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 'Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron. And speak to the rock before their eyes. And it shall give forth its water; and you shall bring water out of the rock to them; so you shall water the congregation and their animals. 'And Moses took the rod from before Jehovah, as He commanded him.

¹⁰And Moses and Aaron assembled the congregation before the rock. And he said to them, Hear now, you rebels, shall we bring forth water to you out of this rock?

¹⁴And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: So says your brother Israel, You surely have known all the travail which has found us; ¹⁵that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt many days, and the Egyptians did evil to us and to our fathers. ¹⁶And we cried to Jehovah, and He heard our voice, and sent a messenger, and is bringing us out of Egypt; and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border. ¹⁷Please let us pass over, through your land; we shall not pass over through a field, nor through a vineyard, nor shall we drink water of a well; we shall go along the king's highway. We will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed your border. ¹⁸And Edom said to him, You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you. ¹⁹And the sons of Israel said to him, We shall go in the highway; and if we drink of your waters, our cattle and us, then I shall give their price. Only let me pass through on my feet; there shall be no harm. ²⁰And he said, You shall not pass through. And Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. ²¹And Edom refused to allow Israel to pass over through his border. And Israel turned away from him.

²²And the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, pulled up stakes from Kadesh and came in to Mount Hor. ²³And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom, saying, ²⁴Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not go into the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because you rebelled against My mouth at the waters of Meribah. ²⁵Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and cause them to go up to Mount Hor; ²⁶and strip Aaron of his garments, and you shall put them on his son Eleazar. And Aaron shall be gathered and shall die there. ²⁷And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded; and they went up to Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congregation. ²⁸And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and clothed his son Eleazar with them. And Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. ²⁹And all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, and they mourned Aaron thirty days, all the house of Israel.

¹And king Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the south, heard that Israel had come the way of Atharim; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. ²And Israel vowed a vow to Jehovah, and said, If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. ³And Jehovah listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they

⁴And they pulled up from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people became impatient because of the way. ⁵And the people spoke against God, and against Moses, Why have you brought us out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul hates the light bread. ⁶And Jehovah sent fiery serpents among the people; and they bit the people, and many people of Israel died. ⁷And the people came in to Moses and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against Jehovah, and against you. Pray to Jehovah, and He shall turn the serpent away from us. And Moses prayed on behalf of the people. ⁸And Jehovah spoke to Moses, Make yourself a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that when anyone is bitten, when he sees it, he shall live. ⁹And Moses made a serpent of bronze and put it on a pole; and it happened, if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived.

¹⁰And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes and encamped in Oboth. ¹¹And they pulled up from Oboth, and camped in Ije-abarim, in the wilderness that is before Moab, toward the rising of the sun. ¹²From there they pulled up and camped in the valley of Zered. ¹³From there they pulled up and camped beyond Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorite; for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorite; ¹⁴therefore, it is said in the Book of the Wars of Jehovah: Vaheb in Suphah, the torrents of Arnon, ¹⁵and the slope of the torrent-beds that turn down toward the site of Ar, and lean on the border of Moab.

¹⁶And from there they went to Beer; that is the well of which Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, Gather the people and I will give water to them.

¹⁷Then Israel sang this song: Spring up, O well, sing to it; ¹⁸the well which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people dug with their staves, at the word of the Lawgiver.

And they went from the desert to Mattanah. ¹⁹And from Mattanah they went to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bemoth; ²⁰and from Bemoth in the valley which is in the field of Moab to the top of Pisgah, and looking toward the wilderness.

²¹And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, ²²Let me pass through your land; we will not turn into a field or into a vineyard; we will not drink waters of a well; we will go in the king's highway until we have passed over your border. ²³And Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border. And Sihon gathered all his people and went out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and they came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. ²⁴And Israel struck him by the mouth of the sword and seized his land, from Arnon to Jabbok, to the sons of Ammon. For the border of the sons of Ammon was strong. ²⁵And Israel took all these cities. And Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorite, in Heshbon and in all its daughter villages. ²⁶For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites. And he had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken his land out of his hand, to Arnon. ²⁷On account of this the parable-speakers say, Come to Heshbon! Let the city of Sihon be built and established! ²⁸For a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon; it has consumed Ar of Moab, the lords of the high places of Arnon. ²⁹Woe to you, Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites. ³⁰We have cast them down; Heshbon has perished, even to Dibon; and we have ravaged even to Nophah, which is to Medeba.

³¹And Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

³²And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took its villages and drove out the Amorite who was there. ³³And they turned and went the way of Bashan. And Og king of Bashan came out to meet them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. ³⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people and his land. And you shall do to him as you have done to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon. ³⁵And they struck him and his sons and all his people until he did not have a remnant left. And they seized his land.

¹And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes and camped on the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan, by Jericho.

³And Moab greatly feared because of the people, for it was many. And Moab was vexed by the presence of the sons of Israel. ⁴And Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now this assembly is licking up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

⁷And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left with the rewards of the seer in their hand. And they came to Balaam and spoke the words of Balak to him.

⁸And he said to them, Stay here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, even as Jehovah may speak to me. And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam. ⁹And God came to Balaam and said, Who are these men with you? ¹⁰And Balaam said to God, Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab has sent to me, ¹¹*saying*, Behold, a people has come out of Egypt which covers the eye of the earth. Now come, curse them for me; perhaps I will be able to overcome it and drive it out. ¹²And God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people, for it is blessed. ¹³And Balaam rose in the morning and said to the leaders of Balak, Go to your land, for Jehovah has refused to allow me to go with you.

¹⁴And the leaders of Moab rose up and came to Balak. And they said, Balaam refuses to come with us.

¹⁵And Balak sent yet again, more leaders and more honorable than they.

¹⁶And they came to Balaam and said to him, So says Balak the son of Zippor, Please do not be hindered from coming to me, ¹⁷for I will honor you with very much honor; and all that you say to me I will do. And please come, curse this people for me. ¹⁸And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, If Balak would give to me his house full of gold and silver, I could not go beyond the mouth of Jehovah my God, to do anything, small or great. ¹⁹And now please stay here tonight, you also. And I shall know what more Jehovah may speak to me. ²⁰And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them and say only the thing that I speak to you — it you shall do. ²¹And Balaam rose up in the morning and saddled his ass and went with the leaders of Moab.

²²And the anger of God glowed because he went. And the Angel of Jehovah set Himself in the road, as an enemy against him. And he was riding on his ass, and two of his young men with him.

of the ass, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you that you have struck me these three times? ²⁹And Balaam said to the ass, Because you have insulted me. If only there were a sword in my hand now I would kill you. ³⁰And the ass said to Balaam, Am I not your ass on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever known to do so to you? And he said, No. ³¹And Jehovah opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of Jehovah standing in the road with His sword drawn in His hand. And he bowed and fell on his face. ³²And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Why have you struck your ass these three times? Behold, I have come out as an enemy because your way is contrary to Me. ³³And the ass saw Me and turned aside before Me these three times. If she had not turned aside surely now I would have killed you and saved her alive. ³⁴And Balaam said to the Angel of Jehovah, I have sinned, for I did not know that You stood against me in the way. Now if evil is in Your eyes, I will turn back by myself. ³⁵And the Angel of Jehovah said to Balaam, Go with the men. But only the word that I speak to you, it you shall speak. And Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.

³⁶And when Balak heard that Balaam had come, and had gone out to meet him, to a city of Moab which is on the border of Arnon, which is in the outermost border, ³⁷then Balak said to Balaam, Sending did I not send to you, to call for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not truly able to honor you? ³⁸And Balaam said to Balak, Behold, I have come to you. Now am I able to to speak anything at all? The word which God puts in my mouth, that I will speak. ³⁹And Balaam went with Balak. And they came to Kirjath-huzzoth. ⁴⁰And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the leaders who were with him. ⁴¹And it happened in the morning, and Balak took Balaam and caused him to go up to the high places of Baal. And from there he saw the edge of the people.

¹And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me here. ²And Balak did as Balaam had spoken. And Balak and Balaam offered a bullock and a ram on the altar. ³And Balaam said to Balak, Station yourself by your burnt offering, and I will go on; it may be that Jehovah will come to meet me, and I will declare to you the things which He reveals to me. And he went to a high place. ⁴And God came to Balaam, and he said to Him, I have set up seven altars. And I have offered a bullock and a ram on the altar. ⁵And Jehovah put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and you shall say this. ⁶And he returned to him. And, lo, he was standing by his burnt offering, he and all the leaders of Moab. ⁷And he took up his parable and said, He has led me from Aram, Balak king of Moab; from the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse Jacob for me; and, Come, rage at Israel. ⁸How shall I curse him whom God has not cursed? And how shall I rage at him whom Jehovah has not raged at? ⁹For from the top of the rocks I see him, and I behold him from the heights. Lo, it is a people that shall dwell alone and not be reckoned among the nations. ¹⁰Who can count Jacob's dust, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! ¹¹And Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and lo you have surely blessed. ¹²And he replied and said, Must not I take heed to speak what Jehovah has put in my mouth? ¹³And Balak said to him, Now come with me to another place where you will see it; only you will see its edge and shall not see all of it; and curse it for me there. ¹⁴And he took him to the field of Zohim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on the altar. ¹⁵And he said to Balak, Stand here by the burnt offering while I go to meet Him over there. ¹⁶And Jehovah met Balaam and put a word in his mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and say this. ¹⁷And he came to him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt offering, and Moab's chiefs with him. And he said to him, What has Jehovah spoken? ¹⁸And he took up his parable and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; give ear to me, son of Zippor. ¹⁹God is not a man that He should lie; nor a son of man that He should repent. Has He said, and shall He not do it? And has He spoken, and shall He not make it good? ²⁰Behold, I have received word to bless; yes, He has blessed; I cannot reverse it. ²¹He has seen no iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen mischief in Israel. Jehovah his God is with him, and the shout of a king is in him. ²²God who brought them out of Egypt is for him like the lofty horns of the wild ox. ²³For there is not a spell against Jacob, nor any fortune-telling against Israel. Now it is said of Jacob and Israel, See what God has done! ²⁴Behold, the people shall rise like a lioness, and as a lion he shall lift himself up; he shall not lie down until he eats the prey and drinks the blood of the slain. ²⁵And Balak said to Balaam, Do not curse it at all, nor bless it at all. ²⁶And Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not speak to you, saying, All that Jehovah speaks, that I will do? ²⁷And Balak said to Balaam, Come, please, I will take you to another place. It may be that it will be right in the eyes of God to curse it for me from there. ²⁸And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which looks toward the wilderness. ²⁹And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bullocks and seven rams for me here. ³⁰And Balak did as Balaam said; and he offered a bullock and a ram on the altar.

¹And Balaam saw that it pleased Jehovah to bless Israel, and he did not go, as at other times, to seek spells. And he set his face toward the wilderness. ²And Balaam lifted up his eyes and saw Israel camping, by its tribes. And the Spirit of God was on him. ³And he took up his parable and said, The saying of Balaam the son of Beor, and the saying of the man whose eyes have been opened; ⁴the saying of him who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, fallen down, yet with open eyes: ⁵How good are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellings, O Israel! ⁶They are spread out like valleys, like gardens by a river; and Jehovah has planted aloes, as cedars beside the water. ⁷He makes water flow from his buckets, and his seed shall be in mighty waters; and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom exalted. ⁸God who has brought him out of Egypt is for him like the lofty horns of the wild ox; he shall eat up the nations that are his foes, and shall break their bones in pieces, and shall pierce them through with his arrows. ⁹He has crouched; he has lain down like a lion, and like a lioness; who shall rouse him up? Blessed is everyone that blesses you, and cursed is everyone that curses you.

¹⁰And Balak's anger glowed against Balaam, and he struck his palms together. And Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies; and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times. ¹¹And now, flee to your place. I thought to honor you with great honor, but, behold, Jehovah has kept you back from honor. ¹²And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not speak to your messengers that you sent to me, saying, ¹³If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the mouth of Jehovah, to do good or bad of my own heart what Jehovah speaks, that I will speak? ¹⁴And now, behold, I go to my people. Come, and I will counsel you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days. ¹⁵And he took up his parable and said, The saying of Balaam the son of Beor, and the saying of the man whose eyes are opened; ¹⁶the saying of him who hears the words of God, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, yet with open eyes: ¹⁷I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not near. A star shall come forth out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel and shall dash the corners of Moab, and break down all the sons of tumult. ¹⁸And Edom shall be a possession; and Seir shall be a possession, for his foes; but Israel shall do mightily. ¹⁹And one out of Jacob shall rule, and will destroy the survivors from Ar.

²⁰And he looked upon Amalek, and took up his parable and said, Amalek was the first of the nations, but his latter end is to destruction forever. ²¹And he looked upon the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Your dwelling-place may be enduring, and your nest may be set in a rock, ²²but the Kenites shall be consumed, until Assyria shall carry you away.

²³And he took up his parable and said, Alas! Who shall live when God puts out?

²⁵And Balaam rose up and left, and returned to his place; and Balak also went on his way.

¹And Israel lived in Shittim. And the people began to fornicate with the daughters of Moab. ²And they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. And the people ate and bowed themselves to their gods. ³And Israel was joined to Baal-peor, and the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel. ⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Take all the leaders of the people and hang them up to Jehovah before the sun, that the fierce anger of Jehovah may be turned away from Israel. ⁵And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Each one of you kill his men, those who joined to Baal-peor. ⁶And, behold, a man of the sons of Israel came and brought in to his brothers a woman of Midian, before the eyes of Moses and before the eyes of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, who were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁷And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest saw. And he rose from amidst the congregation and took a javelin in his hand, ⁸and went in after the man of Israel, into the tent room. And he pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman, through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the sons of Israel. ⁹And those that died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

¹⁰And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the sons of Israel while he was zealous for My sake among them, so that I did not consume the sons of Israel in My jealousy. ¹²Therefore say, Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace; ¹³and it shall be to him, and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the sons of Israel.

¹⁴And the name of the man of Israel who was smitten, who was smitten with the woman of Midian, was Zimri, the son of Salu, ruler of a father's house of the Simeonites. ¹⁵And the name of the woman who was smitten, the woman of Midian, was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.

¹⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷Vex the Midianites; and you shall strike them; ¹⁸for they are vexers to you, because of the wives with which they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a ruler of Midian, their sister, who was smitten in the day of the plague because of the matter of Peor.

¹And it happened, after the plague. Jehovah spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, ²Lift the heads of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel. ³And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab beside Jordan, at Jericho, saying, ⁴*Count* from a son of twenty years and upward, as Jehovah commanded Moses and the sons of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt.

⁵Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, the sons of Reuben: of Hanoch came the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu the family of the Palluites; ⁶from Hezron the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. These are the families of the Reubenites; and those who were numbered with them were forty-three thousand, seven hundred and thirty. ⁷And the son of Pallu was Eliab. ⁸And the sons of Eliab: Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram who were called ones in the congregation, who fought against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they fought against Jehovah. ⁹And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah, when at the death of that company, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men. And they became a sign; ¹¹but the sons of Korah did not die.

¹²The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; ¹³of Zerach, the family of the Zerachites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. ¹⁴These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand, two hundred.

¹⁹The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

²⁰And the sons of Judah by their families: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Pharez, the family of the Pharazites; of Zerach, the family of the Zarhites. ²¹And the sons of Pharez: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. ²²These are the families of Judah, according to those numbered of them, seventy-six thousand, five hundred.

²³Of the sons of Issachar, according to their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Pua, the family of the Punites; ²⁴of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.

²⁵These are the families of Issachar according to those numbered to them, sixty-four thousand, three hundred.

²⁶Of the sons of Zebulun, according to their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. ²⁷These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those numbered to them, sixty thousand, five hundred.

²⁸And the sons of Joseph according to their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.

²⁹The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir fathered Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites. ³⁰These are the sons of Gilead: of Jeezer, the family of the Jeezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites.

³¹And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites; ³²and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites. ³³And Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. ³⁴These are the families of Manasseh, and those numbered of them, fifty-two thousand, seven hundred.

³⁵These are the sons of Ephraim, according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. ³⁶And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites. ³⁷These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those numbered of them, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

³⁸The sons of Benjamin according to their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; ³⁹of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. ⁴⁰And Bela's sons were Ard and Naaman. Of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman the family of the Naamites. ⁴¹These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families, and their numbered ones, forty-five thousand, six hundred.

⁴²These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families. ⁴³All the families of the Shuhamites according to those numbered of them, sixty-four thousand, four hundred.

⁴⁴Of the sons of Asher according to their families: of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites; of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites. ⁴⁵Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. ⁴⁶And Asher's daughter's name was Sarah. ⁴⁷These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those numbered of them, fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

⁴⁸The sons of Naphtali according to their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites; ⁴⁹of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. ⁵⁰These are the families of Naphtali by their families, and their numbered ones were forty-five thousand, four hundred.

⁵¹These were the numbered ones of the sons of Israel, six hundred and one thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

⁵⁷And these are the numbered ones of the Levites by their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. ⁵⁸These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites; the family of the Hebronites; the family of the Mahlites; the family of the Mushites; the family of the Korathites.

And Kohath fathered Amram; ⁵⁹And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. And she bore Aaron and Moses to Amram, and their sister Miriam. ⁶⁰And Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar were born to Aaron. ⁶¹And Nadab and Abihu died for bringing strange fire before Jehovah. ⁶²And those numbered of them, twenty-three thousand; all males from a month old and upward. For they were not counted among the sons of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the sons of Israel.

⁶³These are those numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab, beside Jordan, near Jericho. ⁶⁴And among these there was not a man of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵For Jehovah had said to them, They shall surely die in the wilderness; and not a man of them should be left except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

¹And came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the family of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. And these are his daughters' names: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ²And they stood before Moses and Eleazar the priest, and before the rulers and all the congregation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, ³Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company who met together against Jehovah in the company of Korah, but he died for his own sins, and had no sons. ⁴Why is our father's name taken away from the midst of his family because there is no son to him? Give us an inheritance among our father's brothers. ⁵And Moses brought their cause before Jehovah. ⁶And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ⁷The daughters of Zelophehad speak rightly. You shall surely give them a possession, an inheritance among their father's brothers. And you shall cause their father's inheritance to pass to them. ⁸And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a man dies, and has no son, then you shall pass on his inheritance to his daughter. ⁹And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. ¹⁰And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. ¹¹And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative, of his family. And he shall own it, and it shall be a statute of judgment to the sons of Israel, as Jehovah has commanded Moses.

¹²And Jehovah said to Moses, Get up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel. ¹³And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people as your brother Aaron was gathered. ¹⁴For you rebelled against My mouth in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify Me at the waters before their eyes — they were the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, in the desert of Zin.

¹⁵And Moses spoke to Jehovah, saying,

¹⁶Let Jehovah, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation ¹⁷who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in, so that the assembly of Jehovah may not be as sheep to whom there is no shepherd.

¹⁸And Jehovah said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him.

¹⁹And cause him to stand before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation, and give him a charge in their sight. ²⁰And you shall put your honor on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel will listen. ²¹And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask for him according to the judgment of the Urim before Jehovah. At his mouth they shall go out, and at his mouth they shall come in, he and all the sons of Israel with him, even all the congregation. ²²And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him. And he took Joshua and made him stand before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation. ²³And he laid his hands on him, and gave him a charge, even as Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying ²Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, My offering, My bread for My fire offerings, My soothing fragrance, you shall take heed to offer to Me in its appointed season. ³And you shall say to them, This is the fire offering which you shall offer to Jehovah, two yearling lambs without blemish, day by day, as a continual burnt offering. ⁴You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb between the two evenings; ⁵and a tenth of an ephah of flour for a food offering, mixed with beaten oil, a fourth of a hin; ⁶a continual burnt offering which was offered in Mount Sinai for a soothing fragrance, a fire offering to Jehovah; ⁷and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin for the one lamb; pour a drink offering of strong drink to Jehovah in the sanctuary. ⁸And you shall offer the other lamb between the evenings, even as its food offering of the morning, and as its drink offering, you shall offer as a sacrifice made by fire, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. ⁹And on the sabbath day, two lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones, and two tenth parts of flour, a food offering mixed with oil, and its drink offering; ¹⁰the burnt offering of the sabbath on its sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

¹⁶And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of Jehovah. ¹⁷And in the fifteenth day of this month a feast: unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. ¹⁸In the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no work of service. ¹⁹And you shall offer a fire offering, a burnt offering to Jehovah — two bullocks, sons of the herd, and one ram, and seven lambs, sons of a year; they shall be perfect ones for you; ²⁰and their food offering, flour mixed with oil. You shall prepare three tenths parts for a bullock, and two tenths parts for a ram. ²¹You shall prepare one tenth part for the one lamb, and for the seven lambs; ²²and one goat, a sin offering to atone for you, ²³besides the burnt offering of the morning, the continual burnt offering, you shall prepare these. ²⁴In this way you shall prepare daily, seven days, bread for a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah. It shall be prepared besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. ²⁵And on the seventh day you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service. ²⁶And in the day of the firstfruits, as you offer a new food offering to Jehovah in your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service; ²⁷and you shall offer a burnt offering for a soothing fragrance to Jehovah: two bullocks, sons of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year ²⁸and their food offering, flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts to the one bullock, two tenth parts to the one ram, ²⁹one tenth part to the one lamb, for the seven lambs; ³⁰one kid of the goats to make atonement for you. ³¹You shall offer them besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering and drink offerings; they shall be perfect ones for you.

¹And in the seventh month, on the first of the month you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service. It shall be a day of blowing the trumpets to you. ²And you shall prepare a burnt offering for a soothing fragrance to Jehovah: one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ³and their food offering, flour mixed with oil, three tenths parts for the bullock, two tenths parts for the ram, ⁴and one tenth part for each of the seven lambs; ⁵and one kid of the goats, a sin offering to make atonement for you; ⁶besides the burnt offering of the month, and its food offering, and the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance for soothing fragrance, a fire offering to Jehovah.

⁷And on the tenth of this seventh month you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service, you shall humble your souls. ⁸And you shall offer a burnt offering to Jehovah, a soothing fragrance: one bullock, a son of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year; they shall be perfect ones for you; ⁹and their food offering, flour mixed with oil, three tenths parts for the bullock, two tenths parts for the one ram; ¹⁰one tenth part for the one lamb, for the seven lambs; ¹¹one kid of the goats, a sin offering, besides the sin offering of the atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and their drink offerings.

¹²And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service; and you shall celebrate a feast to Jehovah seven days. ¹³And you shall offer a burnt offering, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah: thirteen bullocks, sons of the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year; they shall be perfect ones; ¹⁴and their food offerings, flour mixed with oil, three tenths parts to the one bullock, for the thirteen bullocks; two tenths parts to each of the two rams; ¹⁵and one tenth part to each of the fourteen lambs; ¹⁶and one kid of the goats, a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its food offering and its drink offering. ¹⁷And on the second day twelve bullocks, sons of the herd, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ¹⁸and their food offerings, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ¹⁹and one kid of the goats, a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and their drink offerings. ²⁰And in the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ²¹and their food offerings, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ²²and one goat as a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering.

²³And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ²⁴their food offering, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ²⁵and one kid of the goats, a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering. ²⁶And on the fifth day nine bullocks two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ²⁷their food offering, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ²⁸and one goat, a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering. ²⁹And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ³⁰their food offerings, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ³¹and one goat, a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering. ³²And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ³³their food offerings, and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ³⁴and one goat, a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering.

³⁵And you shall have a solemn assembly on the eighth day; you shall do no work of service. ³⁶And you shall offer a burnt offering, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to Jehovah: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year, perfect ones; ³⁷their food offerings, and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, in their number, according to the ordinance; ³⁸and one goat, a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and its food offering, and its drink offering. ³⁹You shall prepare these in your appointed seasons, apart from your vows and your free-will offerings, for your burnt offerings and for your food offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.

⁴⁰And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded:

²When a man vows a vow to Jehovah, or has sworn an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do all that has gone out of his mouth. ³And when a woman vows a vow to Jehovah, and has bound a bond in the house of her father in her youth, ⁴and her father has heard her vow, and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and her father has remained silent as to her, then all her vows shall stand; and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. ⁵But if her father has prohibited her in the day he heard, none of her vows and her bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. And Jehovah will forgive her because her father prohibited her. ⁶And if she belongs to a husband, and her vows are on her, or a rash utterance on her lips with which she has bound her soul, ⁷and her husband has heard, and in the day he heard he has remained silent as to her, then her vows shall stand, and her bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. ⁸And if in the day her husband hears, he prohibits her, then he has broken her vow which is on her, and the rash utterance of her lips with which she has bound her soul. And Jehovah will forgive her.

⁹And as to the vow of a widow, or her that is divorced, all that she has bound on her soul shall be established on her. ¹⁰And if she has vowed in the house of her husband, or bound a bond on her soul with an oath, ¹¹and her husband has heard, and has remained silent as to her, and he has not prohibited her, then all her vows shall be established, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. ¹²And if her husband has certainly broken them in the day he heard, none of the utterance of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall stand; her husband has broken them. And Jehovah will forgive her.

¹³Every vow and every oath, any bond to humble a soul, her husband shall establish it, or her husband shall break it. ¹⁴And if her husband is altogether silent at her from day to day, then he has established all her vows, or all her bonds which are on her; he has established them; for he remained silent as to her in the day he heard. ¹⁵And if he at all breaks them after he hears, then he has borne her iniquity.

¹⁶These are the statutes which Jehovah has commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter in her youth in the house of her father.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Execute the vengeance of the sons of Israel against the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people. ³And Moses spoke to the people, saying, Some men of you be armed for the army, and they shall be against Midian, to give the vengeance of Jehovah on Midian; ⁴you shall send to the army a thousand for a tribe as to all the tribes of Israel. ⁵And a thousand for a tribe were given out of the thousands of Israel, twelve thousand armed ones of the army. ⁶And Moses sent them to the army, a thousand for a tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the army; also the holy vessels, and the trumpets to sound in his hand. ⁷And they warred against Midian, as Jehovah had commanded Moses, and killed every male. ⁸And they killed the kings of Midian, besides the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. ⁹And the sons of Israel took the women of Midian captive, and their infants, and all their livestock, and all their purchased things. And they plundered all their wealth. ¹⁰And they burned all their cities with fire, their homes, and all their towers. ¹¹And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, among man and among animal. ¹²And they brought it to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel; the captives, and the prey, and the spoil—to the camp, to the plains of Moab which are by Jordan, near Jericho.

¹³And Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the rulers of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp. ¹⁴And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds who came from the service of the war. ¹⁵And Moses said to them, Have you saved all the women alive? ¹⁶Behold, these through the counsel of Balaam caused the sons of Israel a deliverance of treachery against Jehovah in the matter of Peor; and the plague was on the company of Jehovah.

¹⁷And now kill every male among the infants; yea, you shall kill every woman having known a man by lying with a male.

¹⁸And you shall keep alive for yourselves all the female children who have not known a man by lying with a male. ¹⁹And pitch outside the camp seven days. Whoever has killed any person, and whoever touched a pierced one, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. ²⁰And as to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify them.

²¹And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to battle, This is the statute of the law which Jehovah has commanded Moses: ²²only the gold, the silver, the copper, the iron, the tin, and the lead, ²³everything that passes through the fire, you shall make it go through the fire; and it shall be clean. Only it shall be purified with the water for impurity. And every thing that cannot go through the fire, you shall make go through the water. ²⁴And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean. And afterwards you shall come into the camp.

³¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Jehovah had commanded Moses. ³²And the prey, the rest of the spoil which the people of the army plundered, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, ³³and seventy-two thousand oxen, ³⁴sixty-one thousand of the asses; ³⁵and of human beings, of the women who had not known a man by lying with a male, the persons were thirty-two thousand. ³⁶And the half, the portion of those who went out to the war, the number of the flock was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred. ³⁷And the tribute to Jehovah of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five, ³⁸and the oxen, thirty-six thousand; and their tribute to Jehovah, seventy-two; ³⁹and the asses thirty thousand, five hundred; and their tribute to Jehovah, sixty-one; ⁴⁰and the human beings sixteen thousand; and their tribute to Jehovah, thirty-two persons. ⁴¹And Moses gave the tribute, the heave offering of Jehovah, to Eleazar the priest, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

⁴²And of the sons of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men who warred: ⁴³even the congregation's half was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred of the flock; ⁴⁴and of the oxen, thirty-six thousand; ⁴⁵and thirty thousand, five hundred asses; ⁴⁶and sixteen thousand human beings. ⁴⁷Moses took from the sons of Israel's half the one portion from the fifty of man and of animal. And he gave them to the Levites keeping the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

⁴⁸And the officers who were over the thousands of the army, heads of the thousands and heads of the hundreds, drew near to Moses. ⁴⁹And they said to Moses, You servants have lifted the heads of the men of war who were with us, and not a man of us is missing. ⁵⁰And we bring near Jehovah's offering, each what he has found, vessels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and jewels, to make atonement for ourselves before Jehovah. ⁵¹And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all crafted things. ⁵²And all the gold of the heave offering which they lifted up to Jehovah was sixteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the heads of thousands and from the heads of hundreds, ⁵³men of the army who had each taken spoil for himself. ⁵⁴And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the heads of the thousands and of the hundreds. And they brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, a memorial for the sons of Israel before Jehovah.

¹And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had many livestock, a very great multitude. And they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead. And, behold, the place was a place for livestock. ²And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came in and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the rulers of the congregation, saying, ³Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, ⁴the land which Jehovah has struck before the congregation of Israel is a land for livestock, and your servants own livestock. ⁵And they said, If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants for a possession. Do not make us pass over the Jordan. ⁶And Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, Do your brothers go into the battle, and you, do you sit here? ⁷And why do you discourage the heart of the sons of Israel from passing over to the land which Jehovah has given to them? ⁸So your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. ⁹And they went up to the valley of Eshcol and saw the land, and discouraged the hearts of the sons of Israel, so as for them not to go into the land which Jehovah had given to them. ¹⁰And the anger of Jehovah glowed in that day, and He sword, saying, ¹¹Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; because they have not wholly followed Me; ¹²except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have fully followed Jehovah. ¹³And Jehovah's anger glowed against Israel. And He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the eyes of Jehovah was destroyed. ¹⁴And, behold, you have risen up in your fathers'

stead, an increase of sinful men, to add still more to the heat of Jehovah toward Israel! ¹⁵For if you turn away from following Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and so you will hurt all this people.

¹⁶And they came near to him and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones.

¹⁷And we ourselves shall go armed, eager before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸We will not return to our houses until each man of the sons of Israel has inherited his inheritance. ¹⁹For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and beyond; for our inheritance has fallen to us eastward on this side of Jordan. ²⁰And Moses said to them, If you will do this thing; if you will arm for battle before Jehovah, ²¹and all of you will go over Jordan armed before Jehovah, until He has driven His enemies out before Him, ²²and the land is subdued before Jehovah, then afterwards you shall return and be guiltless before Jehovah, and before Israel. And this land shall be your possession before Jehovah. ²³But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against Jehovah, and know that your sin will find you out. ²⁴Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep, and do that which has come out of your mouth.

²⁶Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall be there in the cities of Gilead. ²⁷But your servants will go over, every man armed for war, before Jehovah to battle, as my lord says. ²⁸And Moses commanded Eleazar the priest concerning them, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel; ²⁹even Moses said to them, If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben pass over the Jordan with you, each armed for battle before Jehovah, and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give to them the land of Gilead for a possession. ³⁰But if they will not go over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. ³¹And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben replied, saying, As Jehovah has said to your servants, so we will do. ³²We ourselves will go over armed before Jehovah into the land of Canaan, so that the land of our inheritance on that side of Jordan may be ours.

³³And Moses gave to them, even to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, and to the half tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, by its cities, with their borders, even the cities of the land all around.

³⁴And the sons of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, ³⁵and Ataroth-shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah, ³⁶and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

³⁷And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjath-aim, ³⁸and Nebo, and Baal-meon, their names being changed, and Shibmah. And they called by name the names of the cities which they had built. ³⁹And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and captured it, and expelled the Amorite who was in it. ⁴⁰And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it. ⁴¹And Jair the son of Manasseh went out and captured their towns, and called them Towns of Jair. ⁴²And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages; and he called it Nobah after his own name.

¹These are the journeys of the sons of Israel who went out from the land of Egypt according to their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ²And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the mouth of Jehovah. And these are their journeys, according to their goings out:

³And they pulled up stakes from Ramesses in the first month on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the next day after the Passover the sons of Israel went out with a high hand, before the eyes of all the Egyptians. ⁴And the Egyptians were burying those whom Jehovah had smitten among them, every firstborn, and Jehovah had executed judgments on their gods. ⁵And the sons of Israel pulled up from Rameses and camped in Succoth. ⁶And they pulled up from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. ⁷And they pulled up from Etham and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon; and they camped before Migdol. ⁸And they pulled up from Pihahiroth and passed over through the midst of the Sea, into the wilderness, and went a journey of three days in the wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah. ⁹And they pulled up from Marah and came to Elim. And in Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. And they camped there. ¹⁰And they pulled up from Elim and camped by the Red Sea. ¹¹And they pulled up from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin. ¹²And they pulled up from the wilderness of Sin and camped in Dophkah. ¹³And they pulled up from Dophkah and camped in Alush. ¹⁴And they pulled up from Alush and camped in Rephidim; and no water was there for the people to drink. ¹⁵And they pulled up from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai. ¹⁶And they pulled up from the wilderness of Sinai and camped in The Graves of Lust. ¹⁷And they pulled up from The Graves of Lust and camped in Hazeroth. ¹⁸And they pulled up from Hazeroth and camped in Rithmah. ¹⁹And they pulled up from Rithmah and camped in The Pomegranate Breach. ²⁰And they pulled up from The Pomegranate Breach and camped in Libnah. ²¹And they pulled up from Libnah and camped in Rissah. ²²And they pulled up from Rissah and camped in the Meeting Place. ²³And they pulled up from the Meeting Place and camped in Mount Shaphar. ²⁴And they pulled up from Mount Shaphar and camped in Haradah. ²⁵And they pulled up from Haradah and pitched in Makheloth. ²⁶And they pulled up from Makheloth and camped in Tahath. ²⁷And they pulled up from Tahath and camped in Tarah. ²⁸And they pulled up from Tarah and camped in Mithcah. ²⁹And they pulled up from Mithcah and camped in Hashmonah. ³⁰And they pulled up from Hashmonah and camped in Moseroth.

⁵⁰And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, beside Jordan, near Jericho, saying, ⁵¹Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵²then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their engraved images; yea, you shall destroy all their casted images, and demolish all their high places. ⁵³And you shall possess the land, and live in it, for I have given you the land, to possess it. ⁵⁴And you shall inherit the land by lot, by your families. You shall increase the inheritance to the many, and you shall diminish the inheritance to the few; wherever the lot falls out to him, it is his. You shall inherit by the tribes of your fathers. ⁵⁵And if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be, those whom you let remain of them shall be thorns in your eyes, and as goads in your sides. And they will vex you on the land in which you are living. ⁵⁶And it shall be, as I thought to do to them, so I shall do to you.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you have come into the land of Canaan, this is the land which falls to you by inheritance, the land of Canaan, by its borders: ³And your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin, along by the hand of Edom, and it shall be to you a south border from the end of the Salt Sea, eastward. ⁴And the border shall turn around to you from the south to the ascent of Akkrabbim, and shall pass on to Zin, and its end shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea; and it shall go out at Hazar-addar, and it shall pass on to Azmon. ⁵And the border shall turn from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and its border shall be at the sea. ⁶As to the western border, even the Great Sea shall be a border to you; this is your western border. ⁷And this is your northern border: from the Great Sea you shall mark out for yourselves Mount Hor; ⁸from Mount Hor you shall mark out a line to the entrance to Hamath; and the edge of the border shall be at Zedad. ⁹And the border shall go forth to Ziphron, and the edge of it shall be at Hazar-enan; this shall be your northern border. ¹⁰And you shall mark out your line for the eastern border from Hazar-enan to Shepham. ¹¹And the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and shall reach on the shoulder of the Sea of Chinnereth eastward. ¹²And the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the end of it shall be at the Salt Sea.

This shall be your land according to its borders all around.

¹³And Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall receive as inheritance by lot, which Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine tribes and the half tribe: ¹⁴For the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their fathers' houses, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to their fathers' houses have received; and the half tribe of Manasseh shall have received their inheritance. ¹⁵The two tribes and the half tribe shall have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising.

¹⁹And these are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; ²⁰and of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud; ²¹of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon; ²²and of the tribe of the sons of Dan, Bukki the ruler, son of Jogli; ²³of the sons of Joseph, of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, Hanniel the ruler, the son of Ephod; ²⁴and of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, Kemuel the ruler, the son of Shiphtan; ²⁵and of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun, Elizaphan the ruler, the son of Parnach; ²⁶and of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, Paltiel the ruler, the son of Azzan; ²⁷and of the tribe of the sons of Asher, Ahihud the ruler, the son of She-lomi; ²⁸and of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, Pedahel the ruler, the son of Ammihud. ²⁹These are the ones whom Jehovah commanded to divide the land to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, beside Jordan, near Jericho, saying, ²Command the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites cities to live in, from the land of their possessions, and you shall give to the Levites open land for the cities. ³And they shall have the cities to live in, and their open lands shall be for their cattle, and for their substance, and for all their animals. ⁴And the open land around the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits all around. ⁵And you shall measure outside the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits; the city being in the middle. This shall be to them the open land around the cities.

⁶And the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge which you shall give for the manslayer that he may flee there; and besides them you shall give forty-two cities. ⁷All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, them and the open land around them. ⁸And you shall give the cities from the possession of the sons of Israel. From the many you shall increase, and take away from the few. According to its inheritance which it inherits each tribe shall give of its cities to the Levites.

⁹And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹then you shall choose cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that the manslayer may flee there, he that kills a person through error.

¹²And the cities shall be to you for refuge from the kinsman-avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment. ¹³As to the cities which you shall give, six shall be cities of refuge for you. ¹⁴You shall give three of the cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three of the cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge.

¹⁵These six cities shall be for a refuge to the sons of Israel, and to an alien, and to a sojourner in their midst, that may flee there any person who kills anyone unawares. ¹⁶And if he strikes him with an instrument of iron, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which he dies, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall certainly be put to death. ¹⁸And if he strikes him with a wooden instrument in the hand, by which he dies, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall certainly be put to death. ¹⁹The avenger of blood shall himself put to death the murderer; when he meets with him he shall put him to death. ²⁰And if he pushes him down, or has thrown at him by laying in wait, and he dies; ²¹or if he has struck him with his hand in enmity, and he dies, the striker shall certainly be put to death; he is a murderer. When the avenger of blood meets him he shall put to death the murderer. ²²And if in an instant he pushed him without enmity, or has thrown at him anything without lying in wait; ²³or with any stone without seeing, by which he dies, and has caused it to fall on him, and he dies, and he is not an enemy to him, nor seeking his evil; ²⁴then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood, by these judgments. ²⁵And the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the avenger of blood's hand. And the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge to which he had fled, and he shall live in it until the high priest dies, he who was anointed with the holy oil. ²⁶But if the manslayer at all goes out from the border of the city of his refuge, there to which he has fled, ²⁷and the avenger of blood finds him outside the border of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, there shall be no blood guiltiness to him, ²⁸because he should have dwelt in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. And after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession. ²⁹And these things shall be to you for a statute of judgment for your generations, in all your dwellings.

³⁰Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses. And one witness shall not testify against a person, to die. ³¹And you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer; he is punishable for death, for dying he shall die. ³²And you shall take no ransom for him to flee to the city of his refuge, to return to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

³³And you shall not pollute the land which you are in, for blood pollutes the land. And no ransom is to be taken for the land for blood which is shed in it, except for the blood of him who sheds it; ³⁴and you shall not defile the land in which you are living. I dwell in its midst, for I, Jehovah, am dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel.

¹And the heads of the fathers of the families of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near. And they spoke before Moses, and before the rulers, the heads of the fathers' houses of the sons of Israel. ²And they said: Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel. And my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. ³And if they shall be for wives to one of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong. So it shall be taken away from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴And when the Jubilee of the sons of Israel shall come, then their inheritance shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong. So their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

⁵And Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the mouth of Jehovah, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph speak right. ⁶This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be wives to those good in their eyes, only let them be for wives to the family of the tribe of their father, ⁷so no inheritance of the sons of Israel shall turn from tribe to tribe. For the sons of Israel shall each one cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. ⁸And any daughter that possesses an inheritance from any tribe of the sons of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel may each possess the inheritance of his father; ⁹and the inheritance shall not turn from one tribe to another tribe. For the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each one cling to its own inheritance, ¹⁰as Jehovah commanded Moses. So the daughters of Zelophehad did. ¹¹For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, Zelophehad's daughters, were for wives to their father's brothers' sons. ¹²They were for wives to the families of the sons of Manasse the son of Joseph, and their inheritance was with the tribe of the family of their father.

¹³These are the commandments and the judgments which Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses to the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab, beside the Jordan, near Jericho.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

¹These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan; in the wilderness, in the Arabah, opposite to Suph, between Paran and Tophel, and Laban and Hazeroth, and Dizahab; ²eleven days from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea. ³And it happened, in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded him concerning them; ⁴after he had stricken Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth in Edrei, ⁵beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying, ⁶Jehovah our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have had enough of dwelling in this mountain; ⁷turn and pull up stakes and go into the hill-country of the Amorites, and to all its neighboring places, in the Arabah in the hill-country, and in the low country, and in the Negeb, and in the shore of the sea, the land of the Canaanites, and of Lebanon, to the great river, the river Euphrates. ⁸Behold, I have set before you the land; go in and possess the land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them, and to their seed after them.

⁹And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you by myself. ¹⁰Jehovah your God has multiplied you, and, behold, today you are as the stars of heaven for multitude. ¹¹May Jehovah the God of your fathers add to you, a thousand times more than you are, and bless you as He has spoken to you! ¹²How can I by myself bear your pressure and your burden, and your strife? ¹³Give wise and understanding men, and those known to your tribes, and I will appoint them rulers over you. ¹⁴And you answered me and said, The thing which you have spoken is good to do. ¹⁵And I took the chiefs of your tribes, wise and noted men, and I appointed them rulers over you, commanders over thousands, and commanders over hundreds, and commanders over fifties, and commanders over tens, and officers, for your tribes. ¹⁶And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, Hear between your brothers; and judge with righteousness between a man and his brother, and his alien. ¹⁷You shall not respect persons in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid because of the face of a man, for the judgment is God's; and the thing which is too hard for you, you shall bring near to me, and I shall hear it. ¹⁸And at that time I commanded you all the things which you were to do.

¹⁹And we pulled up stakes from Horeb and went through all that great and fearful wilderness which you have seen, the way of the hill-country of the Amorites, as Jehovah our God commanded us. And we came into Kadesh-barnea. ²⁰And I said to you, You have come into the hill-country of the Amorites, which Jehovah our God is giving to us. ²¹See, Jehovah your God has set the land before you; go up, possess it, as Jehovah the God of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be afraid. ²²And you came near to me, every one of you, and said, Let us send men before us, and they shall search out the land for us, and they shall bring us back word as to the way in which we shall go up, and the cities to which we shall come. ²³And the thing was good in my eyes, and I took twelve men of you, one man for each tribe. ²⁴And they turned and went up to the hill-country and came into the valley of Eshcol, and searched it. ²⁵And they took of the fruit of the land with their hands and brought it down to us, and brought us back word, and said, The land which Jehovah our God has given us is good. ²⁶And you were not willing to go up; yea, you rebelled against the mouth of Jehovah your God, ²⁷and murmured in your tents, and said, Because of Jehovah's hatred for us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorite to destroy us. ²⁸Where shall we go up? Our brothers have melted our hearts, saying, We have seen there a people greater and taller than we, cities great and walled up to the heavens, and also the sons of Anak.

²⁹And I said to you, Do not be terrified, nor be afraid of them; ³⁰Jehovah your God who goes before you shall fight for you Himself, according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes; ³¹and in the wilderness, where you have seen how Jehovah your God has borne you as a man bears his son, in all the way which you have gone, until you have come to this place. ³²Yet in this thing you are not believing in Jehovah your God, ³³who went before you in the way to seek out a place for you to pitch your tents, in fire by night, to show you the way in which you should go, and in a cloud by the day.

³⁴And Jehovah heard the sound of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying, ³⁵Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, ³⁶except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, he shall see it, and I shall give the land on which he has walked to him, and to his sons, because he has fully followed Jehovah. ³⁷And Jehovah was angry with me for your sake, saying, Also you shall not go in there. ³⁸Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there; you shall strengthen him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit. ³⁹And your infants, of whom you said, They are a prey, and your sons who today have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and I will give it to them, and they shall possess it. ⁴⁰And you, turn yourselves and pull up stakes toward the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea.

⁴¹And you answered and said to me, We have sinned against Jehovah; we shall go up, and we shall fight, according to all that which Jehovah our God has commanded us. And you each one girded on his weapons of war, and you thought it easy to go up to the hill country. ⁴²And Jehovah said to me, Say to them, You shall not go up, nor fight, for I am not in your midst; lest you be struck before your enemies. ⁴³And I spoke to you, and you did not listen, and rebelled against the mouth of Jehovah, and acted proudly, and went up into the hill-country. ⁴⁴And the Amorites who lived in that hill-country came out to meet you, and they chased you, as the bees do, and struck you in Seir, to Hormah. ⁴⁵And you returned and wept before Jehovah, but Jehovah did not listen to your voice, nor did He give ear to you. ⁴⁶And you lived many days in Kadesh, according to the days that you remained there.

¹And we turned and pulled up into the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea, as Jehovah had spoken to me; and we went around the mountain of Seir many days. ²And Jehovah spoke to me, saying, ³You have gone around this mountain long enough; turn yourselves northward. ⁴And command the people, saying, You shall pass over into the border of your brothers, the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you. And you shall be on guard very much; ⁵you shall not fight against them, for I will not give their land to you, even to a step of a sole of a foot, for I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession. ⁶You shall buy food from them with silver, and you shall eat; and you shall buy water from them with silver, and you shall drink. ⁷For Jehovah your God has blessed you with all the work of your hands; He has known your walking through this great wilderness. Jehovah your God has been with you these forty years; you have lacked nothing. ⁸And we passed on from our brothers, the sons of Esau, those living in Seir, by the way of the Arabah, by Elath, and by Ezion-geber, we turned and passed on by the way of the wilderness of Moab. ⁹And Jehovah said to me, Do not besiege Moab, nor stir yourself up against them in battle, for I will not give their land to you for a possession. For I have given Ar as a possession to the sons of Lot. ¹⁰The Emim lived there in days gone by, a great and plentiful people, and tall as the Anakim; ¹¹they are reckoned to be giants, they too, like the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. ¹²And the Horites lived in Seir before; and the sons of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place, as Israel has done to the land of his possession, which Jehovah has given to them. ¹³Now, rise up and you yourselves pass over the torrent Zered; and we crossed over the torrent Zered. ¹⁴And the days in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we had crossed over the torrent Zered, were thirty-eight years, until the end of all the generation, even the men of war were destroyed from the midst of the camp, as Jehovah swore to them. ¹⁵And the hand of Jehovah was also against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed.

¹⁶And it happened, when all the men of war had finished dying from among people, ¹⁷Jehovah spoke to me, saying, ¹⁸*You are* passing over the border of Moab today, to Ar, ¹⁹and you shall draw near, across from the sons of Ammon. You shall not besiege them nor be stirred up against them, for I have not given of the land of the sons of Ammon to you for a possession. For I have given it for a possession to the sons of Lot. ²⁰It is reckoned a land of giants, even it; giants formerly lived in it, and the Ammonites call them Zamzumim; ²¹a great and plentiful people, and tall as the Anakim. And Jehovah destroyed them before them, and they expelled them, and lived in their place; ²²as He had done for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them, and they expelled them, and lived in their place until today. ²³And the Avvim who lived in villages as far as Azzah, the Caphtorim coming out of Caphtor destroyed them, and lived in their place. ²⁴Rise up; pull up and cross over the river Arnon; behold, I have given Sihon the king of Heshbon, the Amorite, and his land into your hands. Begin to possess, and stir yourselves up against him in battle. ²⁵Today I will begin to put your dread and your fear on the face of the people under all the heavens, who will hear your fame, and will tremble and writhe because of you.

²⁶And I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon the king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, ²⁷Let me pass on the highway through your land; I will go on the highway; I will not turn aside to the right or the left; ²⁸you shall sell me food for silver, and I shall eat; and you shall give me water for silver, and I will drink. Only, let me pass through on my feet, ²⁹as the sons of Esau who live in Seir, and the Moabites who live in Ar, have done to me, until I have crossed over the Jordan, to the land which Jehovah our God is giving to us. ³⁰And Sihon the king of Heshbon was not willing to let us pass by him, for Jehovah your God had hardened his spirit, and had emboldened his heart, so as to give him into your hand, as it is this day.

³¹And Jehovah said to me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before you; begin to possess, in order to possess his land. ³²And Sihon came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. ³³And Jehovah our God delivered him before us, and we struck him and his sons, and all his people. ³⁴And we captured all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every city; men and women and little ones. We did not leave a remnant. ³⁵Only, we plundered the cattle for ourselves, and we took the plunder of the cities. ³⁶From Aroer, which is by the edge of the river Arnon, and the city beside the river, even to Gilead, there was not a city which was too high for us. Jehovah our God delivered all before us. ³⁷Only, you did not come near to the land of the sons of Ammon, any part of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill-country, and all which Jehovah our God had forbidden us.

¹And we turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. ²And Jehovah said to me, Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land. And you shall do to him as you have done to Sihon the king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon. ³And Jehovah your God also gave Og the king of Bashan into our hands, and all his people. And we struck him until not one survivor was left to him. ⁴And we captured all his cities at that time, there not being a city which we did not take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates and double-leaved doors, besides a great many of the unwalled towns. ⁶And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to Sihon the king of Heshbon, destroying every city, the men, the women and the little ones. ⁷And we plundered for ourselves all the livestock, and the plunder of the cities.

⁸And we took the land that was beyond the Jordan from the valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon, out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites. ⁹*The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir—*¹⁰*all the cities of the tableland, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.* ¹¹For only Og the king of Bashan remained of the rest of the giants. Behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, nine cubits long and four cubits broad, by the cubit of a man? ¹²And this is the land we possessed at that time: from Aroer by the valley of Arnon, and half the hill-country of Gilead, and its cities I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites. ¹³And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, to all Bashan that is called the land of the giants. ¹⁴Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Towns of Jair, until today. ¹⁵And I gave Gilead to Machir. ¹⁶And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of Arnon, the middle of the valley and its border; even to the river Jabbok which is the border of the sons of Ammon; ¹⁷and the Arabah, the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

¹⁸And I commanded you at that time, saying, Jehovah your God has given you this land to possess it. And you shall pass over armed before your brothers, the sons of Israel, all the warriors. ¹⁹Only, your wives and your little ones, and your livestock, shall dwell in your cities which I have given to you — I know that you have much livestock — ²⁰until Jehovah shall give rest to your brothers like yourselves, and they, too, have possessed the land which Jehovah your God is giving to them beyond the Jordan. Then you shall each man return to his possession which I have given to you. ²¹And I at that time commanded Joshua, saying, Your eyes have seen all that Jehovah your God has done to these two kings; so Jehovah shall do to all the kingdoms to which you are passing over. ²²Do not fear them; for Jehovah your God, He shall fight for you.

²³And I prayed to Jehovah for favor at that time, saying, ²⁴Lord Jehovah, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand—for who is a God in the heavens or in the earth who can do according to Your works and according to Your might?—²⁵I pray to You, let me pass over and see the good land which is beyond the Jordan, this good hill-country, and Lebanon. ²⁶But Jehovah was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. And Jehovah said to me, Let it be much for you; do not speak any more to Me about this thing. ²⁷Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and see with your eyes; for you shall not cross over this Jordan. ²⁸And command Joshua and make him strong, and make him brave, for he shall cross over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see. ²⁹So we stayed in the valley across from Beth-peor.

¹And now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the judgments which I am teaching you to do, so that you may live and go in, and possess the land which Jehovah the God of your fathers is giving to you. ²You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, to keep the commandments of Jehovah your God which I command you.

³Your eyes have seen that which Jehovah has done in Baal-peor. For Jehovah your God has destroyed them from among you, the men that followed Baal-peor. ⁴And you who held fast to Jehovah your God are alive today, all of you. ⁵Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, as Jehovah my God has commanded me, to do them in the midst of the land where you are going in, to possess it; ⁶and you shall keep and do them, for it shall be your wisdom and your understanding before the eyes of the peoples who hear all these statutes. And they shall say, This great nation is a people wise and understanding. ⁷For who is a great nation whose God is coming near to them, as Jehovah your God is, in all our calling on Him? ⁸And who is a great nation whose statutes and judgments are as righteous as all this law which I set before you today?

⁹Only, take heed to yourself and keep your soul carefully, that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen; and that they not depart from your heart all the days of your life. And you shall make them known to your sons, and to your sons' sons: ¹⁰*The day that you stood before Jehovah your God in Horeb, when Jehovah said to me, Gather the people to Me, and I will make them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they live on the earth; and that they may teach their sons.* ¹¹And you drew near and stood below the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the heavens, darkness, cloud and thick gloom.

¹³And He declared His covenant to you which He has commanded you to do, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, for you to do them in the land which you shall pass over to possess it.

moon, and the stars, all the host of the heavens, and you be drawn away and worship them, and serve them; which Jehovah your God has allotted to all the peoples under all the heavens. ²⁰And Jehovah has taken you, and has brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people to Him, an inheritance, as it is this day. ²¹And Jehovah was angry with me because of your words, and swore I would not pass over the Jordan, and that I might not go into the good land which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance. ²²For I will die in this land; I shall not pass over the Jordan. But you shall pass over, and shall possess this good land. ²³Take heed to yourselves, that you not forget the covenant of Jehovah your God, which He has made with you, and make to yourselves a graven image, a likeness of anything which Jehovah your God has forbidden you. ²⁴For Jehovah your God is a consuming fire; He is a jealous God.

²⁵When you father sons and son's sons, and you have been long in the land, and have dealt corruptly, and have made a graven image, a likeness of anything, and have done that which is evil in the sight of Jehovah your God, to provoke Him to anger; ²⁶I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land to which you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed. ²⁷And Jehovah shall scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations to which Jehovah shall lead you away. ²⁸And there you shall serve other gods, the work of man's hands, wood and stone, which cannot see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. ²⁹And if you shall seek Jehovah your God from there, then you shall find Him, if you seek Him with your whole heart, and with all your soul, ³⁰in your distress, when all these things have found you, in the latter days, then you shall return to Jehovah your God, and shall listen to His voice. ³¹For Jehovah your God is a merciful God. He will not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

³For ask now of the days past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from the one end of the heavens to the other end of the heavens, whether there has been a thing as great as this, or has anything like it been heard. ³Has a people heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and lived? ³⁴Or has God gone forth to take to Himself a nation from the midst of a nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Jehovah your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵To you it was revealed, so that you might know that Jehovah is God, and no one else besides Him. ³⁶He made you hear His voice out of the heavens, that He might discipline you; and He made you to see His great fire on earth; and you heard His word from the midst of the fire. ³⁷And because He loved your fathers, and chose their seed after them, and brought you out with His presence, with His great power, out of Egypt, ³⁸in order to drive out nations greater and mightier than you from before you, to bring you in, to give their land for an inheritance, as it is this day; ³⁹know today, and lay it to your heart, that Jehovah, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath; there is no other. ⁴⁰And you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I am commanding you today, so that it may be well with you, and with your sons after you, and so that you may prolong your days on the earth, which Jehovah our God is giving to you all the days.

⁴¹Then Moses separated three cities beyond the Jordan, toward the sunrising, ⁴²that the manslayer might flee there, he who killed his neighbor unawares, and did not hate him in times before, and he fleeing to one of these cities might live: ⁴³Bezer in the wilderness, in the tableland, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

⁴⁴And this is the law which Moses set before the sons of Israel; ⁴⁵these are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel when they came out of Egypt; ⁴⁶beyond the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel struck when they came out of Egypt. ⁴⁷And they took possession of his land, and the land of Og the king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, toward the sunrising; ⁴⁸from Aroer, which is on the edge of the river of Arnon, even to Mount Sion, which is Hermon; ⁴⁹and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

¹And Moses called to all Israel and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears today. And you shall learn them, and shall take heed to do them. ²Jehovah your God cut a covenant with us in Horeb. ³Jehovah did not cut this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us who are all of us here, alive today. ⁴Jehovah talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire. ⁵I stood between Jehovah and you at that time, to declare to you the word of Jehovah; for you were afraid from the face of the fire, and you did not go up into the mountain, when He spoke, saying:

⁷You shall have no other gods before Me.

¹¹You shall not take the name of Jehovah your God in vain; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.

¹²Observe the sabbath day, to keep it holy, as Jehovah your God has commanded you. ¹³Six days you shall labor, and shall do all your work, ¹⁴and the seventh day shall be a sabbath to Jehovah your God. You shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male slave, nor your female slave, nor your ox, nor your ass, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger that is within your gates; so that your male slave and your female slave may rest like yourself. ¹⁵And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and Jehovah your God brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by a stretched-out arm. On account of this Jehovah your God has commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

¹⁶Honor your father and your mother, as Jehovah your God has commanded you, so that your days may be prolonged, and so that it may be well with you in the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you.

¹⁷You shall not commit murder.

¹⁸You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁹You shall not steal.

²⁰You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

²¹You shall not lust after your neighbor's wife; nor shall you covet your neighbor's house, his field, nor his male slave, nor his female slave, his ox, nor his ass, nor anything which is your neighbor's.

²²Jehovah spoke these words to all your assembly, on the Mount, out of the midst of the fire of the cloud, and out of the thick darkness, with a great voice. And He added no more; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone, and gave them to me.

²³And it happened, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain burned with fire, you came near to me, all the rulers of your tribes, and your elders, ²⁴and you said, Behold, Jehovah your God has revealed His glory and His greatness to us, and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen today that God speaks with man, and he lives. ²⁵Now then why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of Jehovah your God any more, then we shall die. ²⁶For who of all flesh that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and has lived? ²⁷You go near and hear all that Jehovah our God may say, and you shall speak to us all that Jehovah our God may speak to you. And we will hear it and do it. ²⁸And Jehovah heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me. And Jehovah said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they have well said all that they have spoken. ²⁹Oh that this heart of theirs would be like this always, to fear Me, and to keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them, and with their sons forever. ³⁰Go say to them, Return to your tents. ³¹But as for you, you stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments and the statutes and the ordinances which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I am giving to them, to possess it. ³²And you shall be careful to do as Jehovah your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or left. ³³You shall walk in all the ways which Jehovah your God has commanded you, so that you may live, and that good may be to you, and you may prolong your days in the land which you will possess.

¹And this is the commandment, the statute and the judgments which Jehovah your God commanded to teach you, to do them in the land to which you are crossing over, to possess it, ²that you might fear Jehovah your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you; you, and your son, and your sons' son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged. ³Hear, then, O Israel, and take heed to do it, that it may be well with you, that you may increase mightily, as Jehovah the God of your fathers has promised you, in the land flowing with milk and honey.

⁴Hear, O Israel, Jehovah our God is one Jehovah. ⁵And you shall love Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. ⁶And these words which I am commanding you today shall be on your heart. ⁷And you shall point out them to your sons, and shall speak of them as you sit in your house, and as you walk in the way, and as you are lying down, and as you are rising up. ⁸And you shall bind them for a sign on your hand; and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. ⁹And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.

¹⁰And it shall be, when Jehovah your God shall bring you into the land which He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to you great and good cities, which you have not built, ¹¹and houses full of good things which you have not filled, and wells dug which you did not dig, vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant—and you shall eat and be satisfied—¹²you shall be on guard that you not forget Jehovah who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves. ¹³You shall fear Jehovah your God, and you shall serve Him, and you shall swear by His name. ¹⁴You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are around you—¹⁵for Jehovah your God is a jealous God in your midst—lest the anger of Jehovah your God burn against you, and He destroy you from off the face of the earth.

¹⁶You shall not test Jehovah your God as you tested Him in Massah. ¹⁷You shall diligently keep the commands of Jehovah your God, and His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you. ¹⁸And you shall do the right thing and the good thing in the eyes of Jehovah, so that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, ¹⁹to cast out all your enemies from before you, as Jehovah has spoken.

²⁰When your son asks you hereafter, saying, What are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances which Jehovah your God has commanded you?

²¹Then you shall say to your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²²And Jehovah gave signs and great and grievous wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household, before our eyes. ²³And He has brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers. ²⁴And Jehovah commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Jehovah our God for our good forever, to keep us alive, as today. ²⁵And it shall be righteousness for us when we take heed to do all this commandment before Jehovah our God, as He has commanded us.

¹When Jehovah your God shall bring you into the land to which you are going, to possess it, and He casts out many nations from before you, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations larger and mightier than you; ²and when Jehovah your God shall give them up before you, and you strike them, then you shall utterly destroy them; you shall not cut a covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; nor shall you intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter to your son. ³For he will turn your son away from following Me, that they may serve other gods; and the anger of Jehovah will glow against you, and He will destroy you quickly. ⁴But you shall deal with them in this way: you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces the cult-stones; and you shall cut down their pillars; and you will burn their carved images with fire.

⁵For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God. Jehovah your God has chosen you to be His own treasure, out of all the people on the face of the earth. ⁶Jehovah did not set His love on you or choose you because you were more in number than any people, for you were the fewest of all peoples. ⁷But because Jehovah loved you, and because He kept the oath which He swore to your fathers, Jehovah has caused you to go out with a strong hand, and redeemed you from the house of slaves, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁸Because of this, know that Jehovah your God, He is God, the faithful God, keeping the covenant, and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commands, to a thousand generations; ⁹and repaying to his face those that hate Him, to destroy him; He will not delay, He will repay him who hates Him to his face. ¹¹And you shall keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the ordinances which I am commanding you today, to do them.

¹²And it shall be, because you hear judgments, and keep and do them, even Jehovah your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers. ¹³And He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your land, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your oxen and the wealth of your flock, in the land which He has sworn to your fathers, to give it to you. ¹⁴You shall be blessed above all people; there shall not be a barren man or a barren woman among you, nor among your livestock. ¹⁵And Jehovah shall turn aside every sickness from you; and He will not put on you any of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you have known; but He will put them on all who hate you. ¹⁶And you shall destroy all the peoples whom Jehovah your God is giving to you. And your eye shall have no pity on them; and you shall not serve their gods; for it shall be a snare to you.

¹⁷If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more plentiful than I; how can I throw them out?—¹⁸you shall not be afraid of them; you shall surely remember that which Jehovah your God has done to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt, ¹⁹the great trials which your eyes have seen, and the miracles, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm with which Jehovah your God has brought you out. So Jehovah your God shall do to all the peoples of whose face you are afraid. ²⁰And Jehovah your God shall send the storms among them, until the ones who are left perish, even those who hide themselves from your face.

²¹You shall not be afraid of them, for Jehovah your God is among you, a mighty and fearful God. ²²And Jehovah your God will clear out those nations before you by little and little. You may not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you. ²³And Jehovah your God shall deliver them up before you, and destroy them with a great destruction until they are exterminated.

²⁴And He shall give their kings into your hand; and you shall destroy their name from under the heavens. No man shall be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. ²⁵You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire; and you shall not lust after the silver and gold on them, nor shall you take it to yourself, that you not be snared by it; for it is an abomination to Jehovah. ²⁶And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, that you not be a cursed thing like it. You shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly hate it; for it is a cursed thing.

¹You shall take heed to do every commandment which I am commanding you today, so that you may live and may multiply and may go in and possess the land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers. ²And you shall remember all the way which Jehovah your God has caused you to go these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, to try you, to know that which is in your heart, whether you will keep His commandments or not. ³And He has humbled you, and caused you to hunger, and caused you to eat the manna, which you had not known, even your fathers had not known, in order to cause you to know that man shall not live by bread alone, but man shall live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of Jehovah. ⁴Your clothing did not wear out on you, and your foot did not swell, these forty years. ⁵And you have known with your heart that as a man disciplines his son, Jehovah your God disciplines you. ⁶And you shall keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him. ⁷For Jehovah your God brings you into a good land, a land of streams of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills, ⁸a land of wheat and barley and vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, ⁹a land in which you shall eat bread without want; you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron; and you shall dig copper out of its mountains. ¹⁰And you shall eat and be satisfied; and you shall bless Jehovah your God in the good land which He has given to you.

¹¹Take heed to yourself, lest you forget Jehovah your God so as not to keep His commandments, and His ordinances, and His statutes, which I am commanding you today; ¹²that when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built goodly houses, and have lived in them; ¹³and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold have multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; ¹⁴then it rises up into your heart, and you forget Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves; ¹⁵who led you through the great and dreadful wilderness, with burning serpent, and scorpion, and thirst, where there is no water; who brought you water out of the flinty rock; ¹⁶who fed you with manna in the wilderness, which your fathers did not know; that He might humble you and that He might prove you, to do you good at your latter end; ¹⁷that you not say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth. ¹⁸But you shall remember Jehovah your God, for it is He who gives to you power to get wealth; that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as this day.

¹⁹And it shall be, if you shall forget Jehovah your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you today that you shall utterly perish; ²⁰as the nations that Jehovah makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.

¹Hear, O Israel, you shall cross over the Jordan today, to go in to expel nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and walled up to the heavens; ²a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard it said, Who can stand before the sons of Anak? ³And know today that Jehovah your God is He who passes over before you as a consuming fire; He will destroy them, and he will bring them down before you; so you shall drive them out and make them to perish quickly, as Jehovah has spoken to you.

⁴Do not say in your heart, when Jehovah your God has cast them out from before you, saying, Jehovah has brought me in to possess this land for my righteousness. But say, Jehovah drives them out from before you because of the wickedness of those nations. ⁵It is not for your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you go to possess their land. But Jehovah your God is dispossessing them from before you because of the wickedness of these nations; and in order to establish the word which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ⁶And you shall know that Jehovah your God is not giving you this good land, to possess it, for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people.

⁷Remember; do not forget how you made Jehovah your God angry in the wilderness; even from the day that you came out of the land of Egypt until you came into this place, you have been rebellious against Jehovah. ⁸Even in Horeb you made Jehovah angry; and Jehovah breathed angrily against you, to destroy you. ⁹When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of Stone, tablets of the covenant which Jehovah cut with you, and I remained in the mountain forty days and forty nights — I did not eat bread nor did I drink water — ¹⁰and Jehovah gave to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them was written according to all the words which Jehovah spoke with you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly; ¹¹then it happened, at the end of forty days and forty nights Jehovah gave the two tablets of stone to me, tablets of the covenant, ¹²and Jehovah said to me, Rise up, go down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molten image.

¹³And Jehovah spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁴Let Me alone that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under the heavens; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they. ¹⁵And I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands; ¹⁶and I looked; and, behold! You had sinned against Jehovah your God; you had made a molten calf for yourselves; you had quickly turned out of the way which Jehovah had commanded you. ¹⁷And I took hold of the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. ¹⁸And I fell down before Jehovah, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water; because of all your sins which you had sinned, in doing that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to make Him angry. ¹⁹For I was afraid because of the anger and the fury with which Jehovah had been angry against you, to destroy you. And Jehovah listened to me at this time also. ²⁰And Jehovah showed Himself very angry with Aaron, to destroy him, and I also prayed for Aaron at that time. ²¹And I took your sin, the calf which you made, and I burned it with fire, and beat it, grinding it very well until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that came down out of the mountain.

²²And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at The Graves of Lust you provoked Jehovah to anger. ²³And when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given to you, then you rebelled against the mouth of Jehovah your God, and did not believe Him, nor listen to His voice. ²⁴You have been rebels against Jehovah from the day that I knew you.

²⁵And I fell down before Jehovah the forty days and the forty nights that I had thrown myself down, for Jehovah had said to destroy you. ²⁶And I prayed to Jehovah, and said, O Lord Jehovah, do not destroy Your people, and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed in Your greatness; whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin, ²⁸lest the land from which You brought us say, Because Jehovah was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them; and, because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness. ²⁹And they are Your people, and Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power, and by Your stretched-out arm.

¹At that time Jehovah said to me, Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me, into the mountain, and you shall make for yourself an ark of wood; ²and I shall write on the tablets the words which were on the first tablets, which you have broken, and you shall place them in the ark. ³And I made an ark of acacia-wood, and cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and went up into the mountain; and the two tablets were in my hand. ⁴And He wrote on the tablets according to the writing, the Ten Words which Jehovah had spoken to you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly. And Jehovah gave them to me, ⁵and I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made. And they are there, as Jehovah commanded me.

⁶And the sons of Israel traveled from Beeroth of the sons of Jaakan to Mosera; Aaron died there, and he was buried there; and his son Eleazar was acting as priest in his place. ⁷From there they pulled up to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of water brooks. ⁸At that time Jehovah separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant before Jehovah, to stand before Jehovah and to minister to Him, and to bless in His name, until today. ⁹Therefore, Levi has no portion nor inheritance according as Jehovah your God spoke to him.

¹⁰And I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights, as at the first. And Jehovah listened to me that time also; Jehovah would not destroy you. ¹¹And Jehovah said to me, Rise up! Go before the people, causing them to set forward, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers, to give it to them.

¹²And now, Israel, what has Jehovah your God asked of you, except to fear Jehovah your God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul; ¹³to keep the commandments of Jehovah, and His statutes which I am commanding you today, for your good. ¹⁴Behold, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens, the earth and all that is in it, belong to Jehovah your God. ¹⁵Only, Jehovah has delighted in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their seed after them, on you out of all the peoples, as today. ¹⁶And you shall circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and you shall not harden your neck any more. ¹⁷For Jehovah your God, He is the God of gods, and the Lord of lords; the great, the mighty, the fearful God who does not lift up faces, nor take a bribe.

¹⁸He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, to give to him food and clothing. ¹⁹And you shall love the alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt. ²⁰You shall fear Jehovah your God; you shall serve Him; and you shall cleave to Him; and you shall swear by His name. ²¹He shall be your praise, and He your God, who has done for you these great and fearful things which your eyes have seen. ²²Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons; and now Jehovah your God has made you as the stars of the heavens for multitude.

¹And you shall love Jehovah your God, and keep His charge, and His statutes, and His judgments, and His commandments all the days. ²And you know today, for I do not speak with your sons who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of Jehovah your God, His greatness, His mighty hand, and His stretched-out arm, ³and His signs, and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; ⁴and that which he has done to the army of Egypt, to its horses, and to its chariots, when He caused the waters of the Sea of Reeds to flow over them as they chased them. And Jehovah destroyed them to this day; ⁵and that which He has done to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place; ⁶and that which He has done to Dathan, and to Abiram, sons of Eliab, Reuben's son, when the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them and their houses and their tents and the living substance at their feet, in the midst of all Israel. ⁷But your eyes see all the great work of Jehovah which He has done. ⁸And you shall keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today, so that you shall be strong, and shall go in and possess the land to which you are crossing over, to possess it; ⁹and so that you may prolong your days in the land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁰For the land to which you are going, to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from where you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs. ¹¹But the land which you are entering, to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, drinking water from the rain of the heavens; ¹²a land which Jehovah your God cares for; the eyes of Jehovah your God are constantly on it from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

¹³And it shall be, if you carefully listen to My commands which I command you today, to love Jehovah your God, and to serve Him with all your heart, and with all your soul, ¹⁴that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your wine, and your oil. ¹⁵And I will give grass in your fields for your livestock; and you shall eat and be satisfied. ¹⁶Take heed to yourselves, that your heart not be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods, and bow down to them; ¹⁷and the anger of Jehovah glow against you, and He shut up the heavens, and there be no rain, and the ground not give her increase, and you perish quickly from off the good land which Jehovah is giving to you.

¹⁸And you shall lay these words up in your heart, and in your soul, and shall bind them for a sign on your hand. And they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹And you shall teach them to your sons by speaking of them as you sit in your house, and as you go in the way, and as you lie down, and as you rise up. ²⁰And you shall write them on the sideposts of your house, and on your gates, ²⁴that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your sons, in the land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, to give to them, as the days of the heavens over the earth. ²⁵For if you will carefully keep this command which I am commanding you, to do it, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave to Him, ²⁶then Jehovah shall expel all these nations from before you, and you shall possess nations greater and mightier than you. ²⁷Every place where the sole of your foot treads shall be yours, from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the furthest sea shall be your border. ²⁸No man shall stand before you. Jehovah your God shall put your dread and your fear on the face of all the land on which you tread, as He has spoken to you.

²⁹Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse: ³⁰A blessing if you hear the commandments of Jehovah your God which I command you today; ³¹and a curse if you will not hear the commandments of Jehovah your God, but will turn aside out of the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.

³²And it shall be, when Jehovah your God shall bring you into the land to which you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal. ³³Are they not beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites that live in the Arabah, opposite to Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? ³⁴For you are to cross over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you; and you shall possess it and live in it. ³⁵And take heed to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I am setting before you today.

¹These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall take heed to do in the land which Jehovah the God of your fathers has given to you, to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth: ²You shall completely destroy all the places where the nations which you are dispossessing served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every leafy tree. ³And you shall break down their altars, and shatter their standing pillars. And you shall burn their pillars with fire. And you shall cut down the carved images of their gods, and shall destroy their names out of that place. ⁴You shall not do so to Jehovah your God. ⁵But you shall seek to the place which Jehovah your God shall choose out of all your tribes; for you shall seek His dwelling, to put His name there. And you shall go there. ⁶And you shall bring your burnt offerings there, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offering of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will offering, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock. ⁷And you shall eat there before Jehovah your God, and shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, with which Jehovah your God has blessed you. ⁸You shall not do according to all that we are doing here today, each doing all that is right in his own eyes. ⁹For you have not come to the rest and to the inheritance which Jehovah your God is giving to you. ¹⁰And you shall cross over the Jordan, and shall live in the land which Jehovah your God is causing you to inherit. And He shall give you rest from all your enemies all around; and you shall live securely. ¹¹And it shall be, the place which Jehovah your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there, there you shall bring all that I am commanding you, your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice free-will offerings which you vow to Jehovah. ¹²And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, you and your sons, and your daughters, and your male slaves, and your slave-girls, and the Levite who is within your gates because he has no portion or inheritance with you. ¹³Take heed to yourself that you not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; ¹⁴but in the place which Jehovah shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command.

¹⁵Only with all the desire of your soul you shall sacrifice and shall eat flesh within all your gates according to the blessing of Jehovah your God which He has given you, the unclean and the clean one may eat of it, as of the gazelle and as of the hart. ¹⁶Only, you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it as water on the earth. ¹⁷You may not eat the tithe of your grain within your gates, and of your new wine, and your oil, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock, and any of your vows which you vow, and your free-will offering, and the heave offering of your hand. ¹⁸But you shall eat it before Jehovah your God in the place which Jehovah your God shall choose, you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your slave-girl, and the Levite who is within your gates. And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God in all that you put your hand to. ¹⁹Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on the land.

²⁰When Jehovah your God shall enlarge your border, as He has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat meat, because your soul longs to eat meat, you may eat meat according to all the desire of your soul. ²¹If the place which Jehovah your God shall choose to put His name there is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock which Jehovah has given you, as I have commanded you; and you shall eat within your gates according to all the desire of your soul. ²²Only, as the gazelle and the hart are eaten, so you shall eat of it; the unclean and the clean may eat of it alike. ²³Only, be sure not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the meat; you shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth as water. ²⁴You shall not eat it in order that it may be well with you, and with your sons after you, when you do that which is right in the eyes of Jehovah. ²⁵Only, your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take up and shall go to the place which Jehovah shall choose. ²⁶And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of Jehovah your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out by the altar of Jehovah your God; and you shall eat the meat. ²⁸And you take heed to hear all these words which I am commanding you, in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of Jehovah your God.

²⁹When Jehovah your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you are going in to possess them, and you shall possess them, and shall live in their land, ³⁰take heed to yourself that you not be snared to follow them after they have been destroyed before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? And I shall do so, even I. ³¹You shall not do so to Jehovah your God; for everything hateful to Jehovah, which He detests, they have done to their gods. For they have even burned their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

¹If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams rises among you, and gives you a sign or a wonder, ²and the sign or the wonder which he foretold to you occurs, saying, Let us go after other gods which you have not known, and let us serve them, ³you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams. For Jehovah your God is testing you, to know if you love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴You shall walk after Jehovah your God, and you shall fear Him. And you shall keep His commandments, and you shall hear His voice, and you shall serve Him, and you shall cleave to Him. ⁵And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken apostasy against Jehovah your God, who is bringing you out of the land of Egypt, and has redeemed you out of the house of slavery, to drive you out of the way in which Jehovah your God has commanded you to walk. And you shall put away evil from among you.

⁶If your brother, your mother's son, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, shall entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, you and your fathers, ⁷of the gods of the people who are around you, who are near you, or who are far off from you, from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth, ⁹you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him, nor shall your eye have pity on him, nor shall you spare nor hide him. ¹⁰But you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and the hand of all the people last. ¹¹And you shall stone him with stones, and he shall die, for he has sought to drive you away from Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves. ¹²And all Israel shall hear and fear, and shall not again do any such wicked thing as this among you.

¹³If, in one of your cities which Jehovah your God is giving you to live in, you hear one saying, ¹⁴*Certain men, sons of Belial, have gone out from among you and have drawn away those who live in their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known; ¹⁵then you shall inquire and make search, and ask carefully; and, behold if the thing is truly established, that this abominable thing has been done among you, ¹⁶you shall surely strike those who live in that city by the mouth of the sword, destroying it completely, and all that is in it, and its livestock, with the mouth of the sword. ¹⁷And you shall gather all its spoil into the middle of its open place, and shall burn the city with fire, and all its spoil, completely, before Jehovah your God. And it shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built any more. ¹⁸And not any of the cursed thing shall cleave to your hand, so that Jehovah shall turn from the fierceness of His anger, and shall give mercies to you, and shall love you, and shall multiply you, as He has sworn to your fathers, ¹⁹when you listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep all His commandments which I am commanding you today, to do that which is right in the eyes of Jehovah your God.*

¹You are sons to Jehovah your God; you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. ²For you are holy people to Jehovah your God; and Jehovah has chosen you to be a people to Him, a special treasure out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

³You shall not eat any abominable thing. ⁴These are the animals which you shall eat: the ox, the flocked sheep, and the flocked goat, ⁵the hart and gazelle, and roebuck, and wild goat, and antelope, and oryx, and mouflon. ⁶And you may eat every animal that divides the hoof, and divides two hoofs wholly, and chews the cud among the animals. ⁷But you shall not eat of those that only chew the cud, or those only dividing the cloven hoof: the camel, and the hare, and the rock-badger — for they chew the cud, but do not divide the hoof. They shall be unclean to you. ⁸And the swine, because it divides the hoof, but does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you—you shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead body.

⁹These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: you shall eat all that have fins and scales. ¹⁰And whatever does not have fins and scales, you shall not eat. It shall be unclean to you.

²¹You shall not eat of anything that died of itself. You may give it to the alien who is within your gates, that he may eat it. Or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God. You shall not simmer a kid in its mother's milk.

²²You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed that the field yields year by year. ²³And you shall eat before Jehovah your God in the place which He shall choose to cause to dwell His name there, the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear Jehovah your God all your days. ²⁴And if the way is too long for you, so that you cannot carry it, because the place is too far from you which Jehovah your God shall choose to set His name there, when Jehovah your God shall bless you; ²⁵then you shall give it for silver, and bind up the silver in your hand. And you shall go to the place which Jehovah your God shall choose. ²⁶And you shall pay the silver for whatever your soul desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for fermented drink, or for whatever your soul desires. And you shall eat there before Jehovah your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household. ²⁷And you shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

²⁸At the end of three years, even the same year, you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase, and shall lay it up within your gates. ²⁹And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow who are within your gates shall come and shall eat and be satisfied; so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

¹At the end of every seven years you shall make a release. ²And this is the manner of the release: Everyone who has a loan to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbor and his brother, because a release has been proclaimed for Jehovah. ³You may exact it from a foreigner, but your hand shall release whatever is yours with your brother, ⁴except when there shall be no one in need among you. For Jehovah will greatly bless you in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you for an inheritance, to possess it, ⁵only if hearing you listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, to take heed to do all this command which I am commanding you today. ⁶For Jehovah your God will bless you as He promised you. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

of your brothers inside any of your gates in your land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your needy brother. ⁸But you shall surely open your hand to him, and shall surely lend him enough for his need in that which he lacks. ⁹Beware that there is no evil thought in your heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release draws near; and your eye be evil against your needy brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to Jehovah against you, and it be sin to you. ¹⁰You shall surely give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because Jehovah your God will bless you for this thing, in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to. ¹¹For the poor will never cease from the midst of the land. On account of this I command you, saying, You shall surely open your hand to your poor and needy brother in your land.

¹²If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. ¹³And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty. ¹⁴You shall richly bestow on from your flock, and from your threshing-floor, and from your winepress, with that which Jehovah your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. ¹⁵And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and Jehovah your God redeemed you—on account of this I command you this thing today. ¹⁶And it shall be, if he says to you, I will not go out from you, because he loves you and your house, because it was good for him with you; ¹⁷then you shall take an awl, and shall put it through his ear, and through the door, and he shall be your slave forever. And you shall do so to your slave-girl also. ¹⁸It shall not seem hard in your eyes when you send him away free from you. For to the double of the hire of a hireling he has served you six years. And Jehovah your God will bless you in all that you do.

¹⁹All the firstling males that are born of your herd and of your flock, you shall sanctify to Jehovah your God. You shall do no work with the firstling of your ox, nor shear the firstling of your flock. ²⁰You shall eat it before Jehovah your God year by year in the place which Jehovah shall choose, you and your household. ²¹And if there is any blemish in it, lameness, or blindness, or any evil blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to Jehovah your God. ²²You shall eat it inside your gates; the unclean and the clean alike, as the gazelle and as the hart. ²³Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

¹Observe the month Abib, and keep the Passover to Jehovah your God. For in the month of Abib Jehovah your God brought you out of Egypt by night. ²And you shall sacrifice a Passover to Jehovah your God of the flock, and of the herd, in the place which He shall choose to cause His name to dwell there. ³You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction. For you came out of the land of Egypt in haste, so that you may remember the day that you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. ⁴And there shall be no leaven seen with you in your borders seven days; nor shall any of the flesh which you sacrificed the first day at evening remain all night until the morning. ⁵You may not sacrifice the Passover offering inside any of your gates, which Jehovah your God gives you. ⁶But at the place which He shall choose to cause His name to dwell there, you shall sacrifice the Passover offering at evening, at the going of the sun, at the time when you came out of Egypt. ⁷And you shall cook and eat in the place which Jehovah your God shall choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go into your tents. ⁸You shall eat unleavened bread six days, and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to Jehovah your God. You shall do no work.

⁹You shall number to yourself seven weeks. When the sickle begins to reap in the standing grain, you shall begin to number seven weeks. ¹⁰And you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to Jehovah your God according to the measure of the free-will offering of your hand, which you shall give according as Jehovah your God blesses you. ¹¹And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your slave-girl, and the Levite that is inside your gates, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow that are among you, in the place which Jehovah your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there. ¹²And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and you shall take heed to do these statutes.

¹³You shall keep the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, after you have gathered in from your threshing-floor and from your winepress. ¹⁴And you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your slave-girl, and the Levite, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow that are inside your gates. ¹⁵You shall keep a solemn feast seven days to Jehovah your God in the place which Jehovah shall choose; for Jehovah your God shall bless you in all your produce, and in every work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful.

¹⁶Three times in a year shall all your males appear before Jehovah your God in the place which He shall choose: In the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before Jehovah empty, ¹⁷*but* each with his gift of his hand, according to the blessing of Jehovah your God, which He has given you.

²¹You shall not set up for yourself pillars of any trees which you make for yourself near the altar of Jehovah your God. ²²And you shall not raise up for yourself any standing image, which Jehovah your God detests.

¹You shall not sacrifice to Jehovah your God an ox or sheep in which there is a blemish, any evil thing — for it is a hateful thing to Jehovah your God.

²When there is found among you, in one of your gates which Jehovah your God is giving to you, a man or woman who does that which is evil in the sight of Jehovah your God, in transgressing His covenant, ³and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them; or the sun, or the moon, or of the host of the heavens, which I have not commanded; ⁴and it has been revealed to you, and you have heard, and searching have searched; and, behold, it is true; and the thing is confirmed, that this hateful thing has been done in Israel — ⁵then you shall bring out to your gates that man or that woman who has done this evil thing, the man or the woman; and you shall stone them with stones, and they shall die. ⁶At the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses shall he that is to die be put to death. He shall not be put to death at the mouth of one witness. ⁷The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him, to put him to death; and the hand of all the people last. And you shall put away the evil from among you.

⁸If a matter is too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between cause and cause, or between stroke and and stroke, matters of strife within your gates, then you shall rise and go up to the place which Jehovah your God shall choose. ⁹And you shall come in to the priest, of the Levites, and to the judge who is in those days, and shall inquire. And they shall declare the sentence of judgment to you. ¹⁰And you shall do according to the word which they declare to you from that place which Jehovah shall choose. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they direct you. ¹¹You shall do according to the mouth of the law which they direct you, and according to the judgment which they deliver to you. You shall not turn aside from the word which they declare to you, right or left. ¹²And the man who acts with pride so as not to listen to the priest who is standing to serve Jehovah your God there, or to the judge, even that man shall die; and you shall put away evil from Israel. ¹³And all the people shall hear, and fear, and shall not presume any more.

¹⁴When you come into the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, and have possessed it, and settled in it; and you shall say, Let me set a king over me like all the nations around me., ¹⁵then you shall certainly set a king over you. You may not set an alien over you, one who is not your brother. ¹⁶Only, he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to turn back to Egypt so as to multiply horses, since Jehovah has said to you, You shall not again return in this way any more. ¹⁷And he shall not multiply wives to himself, and his heart shall not turn aside. And he shall not greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. ¹⁸And it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from before the priests, the Levites. ¹⁹And it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear Jehovah your God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; ²⁰so that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, to the right or to the left; so that he may prolong his days over his kingdom, he and his sons in the midst of Israel.

¹The Priests, the Levites, all the tribe of Levi shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They shall eat fire offerings of Jehovah, even His inheritance. ²And he shall have no inheritance among his brothers — Jehovah Himself is his inheritance, as He has spoken to him. ³And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those that offer a sacrifice, whether it is an ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the leg, and the two cheeks, and the stomach, ⁴the first of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your flock, you shall give to him. ⁵For Jehovah your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to serve in the name of Jehovah, he and his sons continually.

⁶And if a Levite comes from one of your cities out of all Israel, where he has been living, and comes with all the desire of his soul to the place which Jehovah shall choose, ⁷then he shall serve in the name of Jehovah his God, as all his brothers the Levites who stand before Jehovah do. ⁸They shall eat portion like portion, except of the sales of what belonged to his father.

⁹When you come to the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, you shall not learn to do according to the hateful acts of those nations. ¹⁰There shall not be found in you one who passes his son or his daughter through the fire, one that uses divination, an observer of clouds, or a fortune-teller, or a whisperer of spells, ¹¹or a magic-charmer, or one asking of familiar spirits, or a wizard, or one inquiring of the dead. ¹²For all doing these things are an abomination to Jehovah. And because of these filthy acts Jehovah your God is expelling these nations before you. ¹³You shall be perfect with Jehovah your God. ¹⁴For these nations whom you shall expel listen to observers of clouds, and to diviners. But as to you, Jehovah your God has not allowed you to do so.

¹⁵Jehovah your God shall raise up to you a Prophet from among you, of your brothers. One like me — you shall listen to Him, ¹⁶according to all that you desired of Jehovah your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of Jehovah my God, nor let me see this great fire any more, lest I die. ¹⁷And Jehovah said to me, They have spoken well what they have said. ¹⁸I shall raise up a Prophet to them from among their brothers, like you; and I will put My words in His mouth; and He shall speak to them all that I shall command Him. ¹⁹And it shall be, whoever will not listen to My words which he shall speak in My name, I will require it at his hand. ²⁰But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, that which I have not commanded him to speak, and who speaks in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. ²¹And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which Jehovah has not spoken? ²²When a prophet speaks in the name of Jehovah, if the thing does not happen or come about, that is the thing which Jehovah has not spoken—the prophet has spoken it proudly; you shall not be afraid of him.

¹When Jehovah your God shall cut off the nations whose land Jehovah your God is giving to you, and when you take their place, and live in their cities, and in their houses, ²you shall separate three cities for you in the midst of your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess it. ³You shall prepare the way for yourself, and shall divide into three parts the border of your land which Jehovah your God shall cause you to inherit, so that every manslayer may flee there.

⁴And this is the case of the manslayer who shall flee there, that he may live: whoever strikes his neighbor unawares, and has not hated him yesterday and the day before; ⁵even he who goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand brings a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron head slips from the wood and finds his neighbor so that he dies —he shall flee to one of these cities, and shall live; ⁶that the avenger of blood not pursue the manslayer when his heart is hot, and shall overtake him because the way is long, and shall strike the life from him, and he had no sentence of death, for he did not hate him yesterday or the day before. ⁷On account of this I am commanding you, saying, You shall separate to yourself three cities. ⁸And if Jehovah your God shall enlarge your border, as He has sworn to your fathers, and shall give to you all the land which He has spoken to give to your fathers, ⁹if you will keep these commandments which I am commanding you today, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in His ways forever, then you shall add to yourself another three cities to these three. ¹⁰And innocent blood shall not be shed in the midst of your land, which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance, and there be blood on you.

¹¹And if a man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and strikes his life from him, so that he dies, and flees to one of these cities, ¹²then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and give him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, and it shall be well with you.

¹⁴You may not remove your neighbor's landmark, which those formerly have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, to possess it.

¹⁵One witness shall not rise against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin which he sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, a thing shall be established. ¹⁶If a vicious witness rises up against any man to charge apostasy against him, ¹⁷then both the men who have the dispute shall stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days. ¹⁸And the judges shall carefully investigate. And, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and he has testified falsely against his brother, ¹⁹then you shall do to him as he plotted to do to his brother. And you shall put away the evil from among you. ²⁰And those who remain shall hear and fear, and thereafter not shall add to commit any such evil among you. ²¹And your eye shall not pity; life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

¹When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots, a people more than you, you shall not be afraid of them. For Jehovah your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ²And it shall be, when you draw near to battle, the priest shall come and speak to the people, ³and say to them, Hear, Israel, you are drawing near today to battle against your enemies. Do not let your heart be faint; do not fear nor tremble, nor be terrified at their presence. ⁴For Jehovah your God is He who is going before you, to fight for you with your enemies, to save you. ⁵And the officers shall speak to the people, saying, who is the man that has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in battle and another man dedicate it. ⁶And who is the man that has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. ⁷And who is the man who has betrothed a woman, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in the battle, and another man take her. ⁸And the officers shall speak further to the people, and say, Who is the man who is afraid, and faint of heart? Let him go and return to his house; then the heart of his brothers will not melt like his heart. ⁹And it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, commanders of the armies shall be appointed at the head of the people.

¹⁰When you come near a city to fight against it, then call to it for peace. ¹¹And it shall be, if it answers peace to you, and shall open to you, then it shall be that all the people found in it shall be a laborer for you, and shall serve you. ¹²And if it shall not make peace with you, and shall make war with you, then you shall lay siege against it. ¹³And Jehovah your God shall give it into your hand; and you shall strike every male of it by the mouth of the sword. ¹⁴Only, the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its plunder, you shall seize for yourself. And you shall eat the plunder of your enemies which Jehovah your God has given to you. ¹⁵So you shall do to all the cities which are very far away from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. ¹⁶But of the cities of these peoples which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance, you shall not keep alive any that breathes. ¹⁷But you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as Jehovah your God has commanded you; ¹⁸so that they may not teach you to do according to all their filthy deeds which they have done for their gods; and you would sin against Jehovah your God.

¹⁹When you shall lay siege to a city many days, to fight against it, to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees in order to force an axe against them. For you shall eat of them, and you shall not cut them down—for is the tree of the field a man that it should be used by you to lay siege? ²⁰Only the tree which you know not to be a fruit tree, you may destroy it, and may cut it down, and may build a bulwark against the city which is making war with you, until you have subdued it.

¹If one is found slain in the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, to possess it, lying in the field, and it is not known who has struck him; ²then your elders and your judges shall come out. And they shall measure to the cities which are around the one slain. ³And it shall be, that the city which is nearest to the one slain, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke. ⁴And the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to an ever-flowing stream, which is not plowed nor sown. And they shall break the heifer's neck there by the stream. ⁵And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near — for Jehovah your God has chosen them to minister to Him, and to bless in the name of Jehovah—and by their mouth shall every controversy and every stroke be tried. ⁶And all the elders of that city which is nearest to the one slain shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken by the stream. ⁷And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it. ⁸O Jehovah, be merciful to Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not allow innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel. And the blood shall be forgiven them. ⁹And you shall put away the innocent blood from among you, for you shall do that which is right in the eyes of Jehovah.

¹⁰When you go out to battle against your enemies, and Jehovah your God has given them into your hands, and you have taken them captive; ¹¹and you have seen in the captivity a woman of beautiful face, and you desire her, even to take her to you for a wife, ¹²then you shall bring her into the midst of your household. And she shall shave her head, and prepare her nails, ¹³and shall remove the clothing of her captivity from her, and shall live in your house, and shall bewail her father and her mother a month of days. Then afterwards you shall go in to her, and shall marry her; and she shall be a wife to you. ¹⁴And it shall be, if you do not delight in her, you shall send her away at her desire; and you shall not at all sell her for silver; you shall not treat her as a slave, because you have humbled her.

¹⁵If a man has two wives, the one loved, and the other hated; and they have borne him sons, both the loved one and the hated one; and if the firstborn son was of her who was hated, ¹⁶then it shall be, in the day that he causes his son to inherit that which he has, he may not make the son of the loved one the breaker of the womb before the son of the hated one, he who is truly the firstborn. ¹⁷But he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated one, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the firstfruit of his strength — the right of the firstborn is his.

²²And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, ²³his body shall not remain all night on the tree; but you shall surely bury him the same day. For he that is hanged is a reproach to God. And you shall not defile your land which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance.

¹You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep driven away, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely turn them back to your brother. ²And if your brother is not near you, and you do not know him, then you shall surely bring it home to your house; and it shall be with you until your brother inquires of it; and you shall restore it to him. ³And so you shall do with his ass; and so you shall do with his clothing; and so you shall do with everything lost of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found; you may not hide it. ⁴You shall not see your brother's ass or his ox fallen down in the highway, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely help him lift them up.

⁵There shall not be the thing of a man on a woman, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment. For whoever does these things is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

⁶If a bird's nest happens to be before you in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, with young ones, or eggs; and the mother is sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young. ⁷But in every case you shall let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you, and you may prolong your days.

⁸When you build a new house, then you shall make a guard rail for your roof, so that you do not put blood on your house if someone falls from it.

city. ¹⁸And the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him. ¹⁹And they shall fine him a hundred pieces of silver, and give them to the girl's father, because he has caused an evil name to be spread abroad on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days. ²⁰But if this thing is true, that tokens of virginity have not been found for the girl, ²¹then they shall bring out the girl to the door of her father's house. And the men of her city shall stone her with stones, and she shall die; for she has done folly in Israel, to commit fornication in her father's house. And you shall put away the evil from among you.

²²If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. And you shall put away the evil from Israel. ²³If there is a girl that is a virgin, betrothed to a man, and a man finds her in the city, and lies with her; ²⁴then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city. And you shall stone them with stones so that they die; the girl, because she did not cry out, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife. And you shall put away the evil from among you. ²⁵But if a man finds a betrothed girl in the field, and the man seizes her and lies with her; then only the man that lay with her shall die. ²⁶And you shall do nothing to the girl; the girl has no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor and murders him, even so is this matter. ²⁷For he found her in the field. and the betrothed girl cried out, but no one saved her. ²⁸If a man finds a virgin girl, not being betrothed, and seizes her and lies with her, and they be found; ²⁹then the man lying with her shall give to the girl's father fifty pieces of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her. He may not put her away all his days.

¹He being wounded, crushed, or cut in his male member shall not enter into the assembly of Jehovah. ²An illegitimate child shall not enter into the assembly of Jehovah, even to the tenth generation shall none of his enter into the assembly of Jehovah.

³An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the assembly of Jehovah; even to the tenth generation shall none of them enter into the assembly of Jehovah, perpetually; ⁴because they did not meet you with bread and with water in the way when you came out of Egypt; and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor, from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. ⁵But Jehovah your God would not listen to Balaam, and Jehovah your God turned the curse into a blessing to you, because Jehovah your God loved you. ⁶You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days, perpetually.

⁷You shall not despise an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not despise an Egyptian, for you were an alien in his land; ⁸sons of the third generation that are born to them may enter into the assembly of Jehovah.

⁹When you go forth into camp against your enemies, then keep yourself from every evil thing.

¹⁰If there is among you any man who is not clean because of an accident at night, then he shall go to the outside of the camp; he shall not come in to the middle of the camp. ¹¹And it shall be, as evening is turning, he shall bathe with water, and as the sun is going, he shall come into the middle of the camp.

¹²Also you shall have a place outside the camp, and you shall go out there. ¹³And you shall have an instrument on your staff. And it shall be, as you sit outside, you shall dig with it, and shall turn back, and shall cover that which comes from you. ¹⁴For Jehovah your God walks in the middle of your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, so that He may see no unclean thing in you, and turn away from you.

¹⁵You shall not hand over to his master a slave that has escaped from his master to you. ¹⁶He shall live with you, among you, in the place which he chooses inside one of your gates, wherever it is pleasing to him. You shall not oppress him.

¹⁷There shall be no harlot among the daughters of Israel, nor shall there be a homosexual among the sons of Israel.

¹⁸You shall not bring the hire of a harlot, or the price of a dog, into the house of Jehovah your God for any vow; for even both of these are an abomination to Jehovah your God.

¹⁹You shall not lend at interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything which is loaned at interest. ²⁰You may lend to a stranger at interest, but you shall not lend at interest to your brother, so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go to possess it.

²¹When you shall vow a vow to Jehovah your God, you shall not delay to perform it; for Jehovah your God will certainly require it of you, and it shall be sin to you. ²²But if you shall forebear to vow, it shall be no sin to you. ²³That which has gone out of your lips, you shall keep, and shall do it. According as you have vowed as a free-will offering to Jehovah your God, do even that which you have promised with your mouth.

²⁴When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill, at your pleasure. But you shall not put any in your vessel. ²⁵When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck heads with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle into your neighbor's standing grain.

¹When a man has taken a wife and married her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found a thing of uncleanness in her, and he writes her a bill of divorce, and puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; ²and if she leaves his house and goes and becomes another man's wife, ³and the latter husband hates her, and writes her a bill of divorce, and puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; or if the latter husband who took her to be his wife dies; ⁴her former husband who sent her away is not to take her again to be his wife, after she is defiled. For it is a hateful thing before Jehovah, and you shall not cause the land to sin which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance.

⁵When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, and he shall not be given any duty. He shall be free at his own house for one year, and shall gladden his wife whom he has taken. ⁶No one shall take in pledge the lower and upper millstone, for he is taking a man's life to pledge. ⁷If a man is found stealing a person of his brothers, of the sons of Israel, and has dealt with him as a slave, and sold him, then that thief shall die. And you shall put away the evil from among you.

⁸Be on guard in the plague of leprosy, that you watch closely and do according to all that the Levitical priests shall teach you. As I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do. ⁹Remember that which Jehovah your God did to Miriam in the way, as you came out of Egypt.

¹⁰When you lend your neighbor any kind of loan, you shall not go to his house to get his pledge. ¹¹You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you loan shall bring the security outside to you. ¹²And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge. ¹³You shall certainly give back to him the pledge at sundown; and he shall lie down in his own clothing, and shall bless you. And it shall be righteousness to you before Jehovah your God.

¹⁴You shall not oppress a poor and needy hired servant, of your brothers, or of your aliens who are in your land, within your gates. ¹⁵In the same day you shall give him his hire; do not let the sun go down on it. For he is poor, and has lifted up his heart on it; that he not cry against you to Jehovah, and it be sin against you.

¹⁶The fathers shall not be put to death for sons; and sons are not to be put to death for fathers; they each shall be put to death for his own sin.

¹⁷You shall not pervert judgment of an alien, or of an orphan; and you shall not take a widow's garment as pledge. ¹⁸But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and Jehovah your God redeemed you from there. For that reason I command you to do this thing.

¹⁹When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not turn back to take it. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow; so that Jehovah your God shall bless you in all the work of your hand.

²⁰When you beat your olive tree, you shall not search the branch behind you. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow. ²¹When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow. ²²And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. On account of this I am commanding you to do this thing.

¹If there is a contention between men, and they come to judgment; and they have been judged; and the righteous one is declared righteous, and the wrongdoer declared guilty; ²then it shall be, if the wrongdoer is a son of stripes, the judge shall cause him to fall down. And one shall strike him before his face, enough for his wickedness, by number. ³He may give him forty stripes; he shall not add more, lest, if he should exceed and beat him above with many stripes, then your brother would be dishonored before your eyes.

⁴You shall not muzzle an ox when he is treading out grain. ⁵If brothers live together, and one of them dies, and has no son, the wife of the dead shall not go outside to a strange man; her brother-in-law shall go in to her, and take her to himself for a wife, and shall perform the duty of the levirate; ⁶and it shall be, the firstborn which she bears shall rise up for his dead brother's name, and his name shall not be wiped out of Israel. ⁷And if the man does not desire to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate, to the elders, and say, My husband's brother is refusing to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he has not been willing to perform the duty of my levirate. ⁸And the elders of his city shall call for him and shall speak to him. And he shall stand and say, I have no desire to take her. ⁹Then his brother's wife shall draw near to him before the elders, and shall take his shoe from his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So it shall be done to the man who will not build up the house of his brother. ¹⁰And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him whose shoe was taken off.

¹¹When men fight with one another, and the wife of the one shall come near to deliver her husband from his assailant's hand, and shall put out her hand and lay hold on his genitals, ¹²then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not pity.

¹³You shall not have in your bag a weight and a weight, a great and a small.

¹⁴You shall not have in your house an ephah and an ephah, a great and a small.

¹⁵You shall have a perfect and just weight; you shall have a perfect and just ephah; so that they prolong your days in the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you. ¹⁶For anyone doing these things is hateful to Jehovah your God, everyone acting evilly.

¹⁸how he happened to meet you on the way and attacked your back, all the feeble ones in the rear, when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God. ¹⁹And it shall be, when Jehovah your God gives you rest from all your enemies round about in the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance to possess it, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens; you shall not forget.

¹And when you have come into the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you as an inheritance, and you have possessed it, and live in it; ²then you shall take of the first of all the fruits of the ground which you shall bring in from your land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, and shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which Jehovah your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there. ³And you shall come to the priest who is in those days, and shall say to him, I declare today to Jehovah your God that I have come into the land which Jehovah has sworn to our fathers to give to us. ⁴And the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and place it before the altar of Jehovah your God. ⁵And you shall speak and say before Jehovah your God, My father was a perishing Aramean! And he went down to Egypt with few men, and lived there, and became a nation there, great, mighty and many. ⁶And the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and afflicted us, and put hard bondage on us. ⁷And we cried to Jehovah, the God of our fathers, and Jehovah heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression. ⁸And Jehovah brought us out from Egypt by a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrible-ness, and with signs, and with wonders. ⁹And He has brought us to this place, and has given to us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰And now, behold, I have brought in the first of the fruits of the ground which You have given me, O Jehovah. And you shall place it before Jehovah your God, and bow yourself before Jehovah your God, ¹¹and rejoice in all the good which Jehovah your God has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the alien who is in your midst.

¹²When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year, the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the orphan, and the widow, that they may eat inside your gates, and be filled, ¹³then you shall say before Jehovah your God I have consumed the devoted things from the house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the alien, to the orphan, and to the widow, according to all Your command which You have commanded me. I have not transgressed Your commands, and I have not forgotten. ¹⁴I have not eaten of it in my mourning; nor have I put any of it away for uncleanness; nor have I given of it for the dead. I have listened to the voice of Jehovah my God. I have done according to all that You have commanded me. ¹⁵Look down from Your holy habitation, from Heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the land which You have given to us, as You swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁶Today Jehovah your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances. You shall take heed to do them with all your heart, and with all your soul. ¹⁷You have today declared Jehovah to be your God, and to walk in His ways, and to keep His statutes and His commands, and His judgments, and to pay attention to His voice. ¹⁸And Jehovah has declared you today to be His people, a special treasure, as He has spoken to you, and to keep all His commands. ¹⁹And He will make you high above all nations that He has made, in praise, and in name, and in glory; and that you may be a holy people to Jehovah your God, as He has spoken.

¹And Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commands which I am commanding you today, ²and it shall be in the day you cross over the Jordan to the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, that you shall raise up for yourself great stones, and plaster them with plaster. ³And you shall write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over, so that you may go into the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Jehovah the God of your fathers has promised you. ⁴And it shall be when you have crossed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones as to which I am commanding you today, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. ⁵And you shall build an altar there to Jehovah your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield any iron tool on them; ⁶you shall build the altar of Jehovah your God of uncut stones. And you shall offer burnt offerings on it to Jehovah your God. ⁷And you shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there. And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God. ⁸And you shall write on the stones all the words of the law very plainly.

⁹And Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, Keep silence, and hear, O Israel: Today you have become the people of Jehovah your God. ¹⁰Therefore you shall obey the voice of Jehovah your God and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.

¹¹And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, ¹²These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³And these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben,

Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. ¹⁴And the Levites shall answer, and shall say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice:

¹⁷*Cursed is* he who removes his neighbor's landmark! And all the people shall say, Amen!

²⁰*Cursed is* he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers his father's skirt! And all the people shall say, Amen!

²²*Cursed is* he who lies with his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter! And all the people shall say, Amen!

²⁴*Cursed is* he who strikes his neighbor secretly! And all the people shall say, Amen!

²⁶*Cursed is* he who does not rise to all the words of this law, to do them! And all the people shall say, Amen!

¹And if you shall heed the voice of Jehovah your God, taking heed to do all His commandments which I command you this day, Jehovah your God shall set you on high above all nations of the earth. ²And all these blessings shall come on you and overtake you, if you will listen to the voice of Jehovah your God. ³You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. ⁴The fruit of your body shall be blessed, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, the offspring of your oxen, and the young ones of your flock. ⁵Your basket and your kneading-trough shall be blessed. ⁶You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out.

⁷Jehovah shall cause your enemies that rise up against you to be stricken before your face. They shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways. ⁸Jehovah shall command the blessing on you in your store-houses and all that you set your hand to. And He shall bless you in the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you. ⁹Jehovah shall establish you a holy people to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you shall keep the commands of Jehovah your God and welcome His ways. ¹⁰And all the people shall see that you are called by the name of Jehovah, and they shall be afraid of you. ¹¹And Jehovah shall prosper you in goods, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground in the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers to give you. ¹²Jehovah shall open to you His good treasure, the heavens to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. ¹³And Jehovah shall make you the head, and not the tail. And you shall be only above, and you shall not be beneath; if you heed the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I am commanding you today, to be careful to do them. ¹⁴And you shall not turn away from all the words which I am commanding you today, right or left, to go after other gods, to serve them.

¹⁵And it shall be, if you will not heed the voice of your God, to take heed to do all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, that all these curses shall come on you and overtake you:

¹⁶You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field.

¹⁷Your basket and your kneading-trough shall be cursed.

²²Jehovah shall strike you with lung disease and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting and mildew. And they shall pursue you until you perish. ²³And your heavens which are over your head shall become bronze, and the earth under you iron. ²⁴Jehovah shall make the rain of your land be dust and ashes; it shall come down on you from the heavens until you are destroyed.

²⁶And your body shall be food to all the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth; and there shall be none to cause them to tremble. ²⁷Jehovah shall strike you with the ulcer of Egypt, and with hemorrhoids, and with the scab, and with itch, of which you cannot be healed.

²⁸Jehovah shall strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart. ²⁹And you shall grope at noonday as the blind grope in darkness. And you shall not prosper in your ways. And you shall be always oppressed and plundered all the days; and there will be no one to save. ³⁰You shall betroth a wife, and another shall lie with her. You shall build a house, and you shall not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use its fruit. ³¹Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it. Your ass shall be violently taken away from before you, and it shall not be given back to you. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and there shall be no one to save you. ³²Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look and fail for them all the day. And no power shall be in your hand.

³³The fruit of your ground, and all your labor, shall be eaten up by a nation which you do not know. And you shall always be oppressed and crushed. ³⁴And you shall be maddened because of that which you shall see with the sight of your eyes.

³⁵Jehovah shall strike you with an evil ulcer on the knees, and on the legs, of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot even to your crown.

³⁶Jehovah shall cause you and your king whom you shall raise up over you, to go to a nation which you have not known, you and your fathers. And you shall serve other gods there, wood and stone. ³⁷And you shall be an astonishment, a proverb and a byword among all the peoples where Jehovah shall lead you. ³⁸You shall carry much seed out to the field, and you shall gather in little; for the locusts will devour it. ³⁹You shall plant vineyards, and shall labor, and you shall not gather, nor drink wine; for the worm will devour it. ⁴⁰You shall have olive trees in all your border, and you shall not anoint with oil; for your olive shall fall off. ⁴¹You shall father sons and daughters, and they shall not be with you; for they shall go into captivity. ⁴²The locust shall possess all your trees and fruits of your ground. ⁴³The alien in your midst shall go above you, higher and higher; and you shall come down, lower and lower. ⁴⁴He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him. He shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. ⁴⁵And all these curses shall come on you and shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed; for you did not heed the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. ⁴⁶And they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on you for seed forever.

⁴⁷Because you did not serve Jehovah your God with joyfulness and with gladness of heart for the abundance of all things, ⁴⁸you shall serve your enemies whom Jehovah shall send on you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in lack of all things. And He shall put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you. ⁴⁹Jehovah shall raise a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose tongue you will not understand; ⁵⁰a nation fierce of face, who will not regard the person of the aged, nor show favor to the young. ⁵¹And he shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed. He shall not leave to you grain, new wine, and oil, offspring of your oxen, or young ones of your flock, until he has destroyed you.

⁵²And he shall lay siege to you in all your gates, until your high and fenced walls in which you are trusting come down, in all your land; yea, he shall lay siege to you in all your gates, in all your land which Jehovah your God has given to you.

⁵³And you shall eat the fruit of your body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom Jehovah your God has given to you, in the siege, and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you.

⁵⁴The man who is tender among you, and who is very delicate, his eye shall be evil against his brother, and against the wife of his bosom, and against the remnant of his sons which he has left; ⁵⁵so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his sons that he shall eat, because he has nothing left to him in the siege, and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you in all your gates. ⁵⁶The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not have ventured to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil against the husband of her bosom, and against her son, and against her daughter; ⁵⁷and against her fetus which comes out from between her feet, even against her sons whom she shall bear. For she shall eat them in secret, for the lack of everything in the siege and in the distress with which the enemy shall distress you within your gates.

⁵⁸If you will not take heed to do all the words of this law which are written in this book, to fear this glorious and fearful Name, Jehovah your God, ⁵⁹then

Jehovah will make your plagues remarkable, and the plagues of your children shall be great and persistent plagues, with evil and long-lasting sicknesses. ⁶⁰He shall also bring on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid; and they shall cling to you. ⁶¹Also every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, Jehovah shall cause them to come on you until you are destroyed. ⁶²And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the heavens for multitude, because you would not obey the voice of Jehovah your God. ⁶³And it shall be, as Jehovah rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so Jehovah shall rejoice over you to destroy you, and to lay you waste. And you shall be plucked from the land you are going to possess.

⁶⁴And Jehovah shall scatter you among all people, from one end of the earth even to the other, and you shall serve other gods there — wood and stone — which you have not known, nor your fathers. ⁶⁵And among these nations you shall find no ease, nor shall the sole of your foot have rest. But Jehovah shall give you there a trembling heart and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind. ⁶⁶And your life shall hang in doubt before you, and you shall fear day and night, and shall have no assurance of your life. ⁶⁷In the morning you shall say, O that it were evening! And in the evening you shall say, O that it were morning! For the fear of your heart with which you fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. ⁶⁸And Jehovah shall bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall never see it again. And you shall be sold to your enemies there, for male slaves and slave-girls; and there shall be no buyer.

¹These are the words of the covenant which Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

²And Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants, and to all his land. ³Your eyes have seen the great trials, the signs, and those great miracles. ⁴Yet Jehovah has not given to you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until this day. ⁵And I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your garments have not worn out from off you, and your sandal has not worn away off your foot. ⁶You have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine or strong drink, so that you might know that I am Jehovah your God. ⁷And you came into this place, and Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out to meet us, to battle. And we struck them, ⁸and took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and for the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁹Then pay attention to the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may act wisely in all that you do.

¹⁰You are standing today, all of you, before Jehovah your God; your rulers, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, every man of Israel; ¹¹your little ones, your wives, and your alien who is in the midst of your camps, from the wood-chopper to the one drawing your water; ¹²so that you should enter into the covenant of Jehovah your God, and into His oath, which Jehovah your God is making with you today; ¹³so that He may establish you today for a people to Himself, and He Himself be your God, as He has spoken to you, and as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ¹⁴And I am not making this covenant and this oath with you alone, ¹⁵but with him who stands here with us today before Jehovah your God; and also with him that is not here with us today. ¹⁶For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations through which you passed. ¹⁷And you have seen their detestable things, and their idols of wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them; ¹⁸that there not be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away today from Jehovah our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you today a root that bears gall and wormwood; ¹⁹and it happens when he hears the words of this curse, that he should bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, even though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to snatch away the sated with the thirsty. ²⁰Jehovah will not be willing to forgive him, for then Jehovah's anger shall smoke, and His zeal shall be against that man, and all the curses written in this book shall lie upon him. And Jehovah shall blot out his name from under the heavens. ²¹And Jehovah shall set him apart to evil, out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law; ²²so that the generation to come, your sons who rise after you, and the foreigner who comes in from a distant land, shall say when they see the plagues of that land, and its sicknesses which Jehovah shall send into it—²³the whole land shall be burned with brimstone and salt; it shall not be sown, nor shall it sprout; nor shall there be any herb in it. It shall be like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which Jehovah overthrew in His anger and in His fury—²⁴yes, all the nations shall say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land? For what is the heat of this great anger? ²⁵Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. ²⁶For they went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods which they did not know, and who had not given to them any portion. ²⁷And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curses that are written in this book. ²⁸And Jehovah rooted them out of their land in anger and wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is today.

²⁹The secret things belong to Jehovah our God; and the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

¹And it shall be when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you; and among all the nations where Jehovah your God shall drive you, you shall bring back to your heart these things; ²and shall turn back to Jehovah your God and listen to His voice, according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your sons with all your heart, and with all your soul; ³then Jehovah your God will turn your captivity, and He will have pity on you, and will return and gather you from all the nations where Jehovah your God has scattered you. ⁴If you are cast out to the end of the heavens, Jehovah your God shall gather you from there, and He shall take you from there. ⁵And Jehovah your God shall bring you into the land which your fathers have possessed, and you shall inherit it; and He shall do you good and multiply you above your fathers. ⁶And Jehovah your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. ⁷And Jehovah your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those that hate you, who have persecuted you. ⁸And you shall return and obey the voice of Jehovah, and do all His commandments which I am commanding you today. ⁹And Jehovah your God will make you abundant in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good. For Jehovah will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers. ¹⁰For you shall listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in the book of this law. For you shall turn back toward Jehovah your God, with all your heart and with all your soul.

¹¹For this command which I am commanding you today is not too wonderful for you, nor is it too far off. ¹²It is not in the heavens that you should say, Who shall go up into the heavens for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it? ¹³And it is not beyond the sea that you should say, Who shall cross over for us to the region beyond the sea and take it for us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it? ¹⁴For the word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

¹'Behold, I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil, ¹⁶in that I am commanding you today to love Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commands and His statutes, and His judgments, and you shall live and multiply, and Jehovah your God shall bless you in the land where you are going in, to possess it. ¹⁷But if you turn away your heart, and you do not listen, and are drawn on, even you will bow down to other gods, and serve them; ¹⁸I have declared to you today that you shall certainly perish. You shall not prolong your days in the land to which you are crossing the Jordan, to go in there to possess it. ¹⁹I call Heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, choose life, that you may live, you and your seed, ²⁰to love Jehovah your God, to listen to His voice, and to cleave to Him—for He is your life, and the length of your days—to live in the land which Jehovah has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give it to them.

¹And Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel. ²And he said to them, I am a hundred and twenty years old today. I am not able any more to go out and to come in. And Jehovah has said to me, You shall not cross over this Jordan. ³Jehovah your God will cross over before you; He shall destroy these nations from before you, and you shall possess them. Joshua is the one who shall cross over before you, as Jehovah has spoken. ⁴And Jehovah shall do to them as He has done to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which He destroyed before them. ⁵And Jehovah shall give them up before your face, and you shall do to them according to all the command which I have commanded you. ⁶Be strong and brave. Do not fear them, or be afraid of them. For Jehovah your God is He who is going with you; He shall not fail you nor forsake you.

⁷And Moses called for Joshua, and said to him before the eyes of all Israel, Be strong and brave, for you shall go in with this people to the land which Jehovah has sworn to their fathers, to give it to them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. ⁸And Jehovah is He who is going before you; He Himself shall be with you; He shall not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear nor be afraid.

⁹And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, those bearing the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of seven years, in the appointed time, the year of release, in the Feast of Tabernacles, ¹¹when all Israel comes in to see the face of Jehovah in the place which He chooses, you shall proclaim this law before all Israel, in their ears. ¹²Assemble the people, men and women, and the little ones, and your alien who is within your gates, so that they may hear, and so that they may learn, and may fear Jehovah your God, and take heed to do all the words of this law; ¹³and their sons, who have not known, shall hear, and shall learn to fear Jehovah your God all the days which you live on the land where you are crossing over the Jordan to possess it.

¹⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, Behold, your days are coming near, to die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tabernacle of the congregation, and I shall charge him. And Moses and Joshua went, and they presented themselves at the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁵And Jehovah appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood at the door of the tabernacle. ¹⁶And Jehovah said to Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers, and this people shall rise up and go lusting after the gods of the strangers of the land into which they are going, and shall forsake Me, and shall break My covenant which I made with it. ¹⁷And My anger shall burn against this people in that day, and I shall forsake them and hide My face from them. And it shall be consumed, and many evils and distresses shall find this people. And it shall say in that day, Is it not because my God is not in my midst, that these evils have found me? ¹⁸And I will completely hide My face in that day, because of all the evil which this people has done, for it shall turn to other gods. ¹⁹Now, then, write this song for you, and teach it to the sons of Israel. Put it in their mouths, so that this song shall be for a witness to Me against the sons of Israel. ²⁰And I shall bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I have sworn to their fathers. And you shall eat and be satisfied, and become fat, and shall turn to other gods; and they shall serve them, and despise Me, and break My covenant. ²¹And it shall be, when many evils and distresses have found them, this song shall testify against them as a witness. For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed. For I know their imagination which they are making today, before I bring them into the land which I have sworn.

²²And Moses wrote this song on that day, and taught it to the sons of Israel. ²³And He commanded Joshua the son of Nun, and said, Be strong and brave. For you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I have sworn to them, and I shall be with you. ²⁴And it happened, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book, until their conclusion, ²⁵that Moses commanded the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, saying, ²⁶Take this book of the law, and you shall put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, so that it may be there for a witness against you. ²⁷For I have known your rebellion and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against Jehovah. And how much more after my death! ²⁸Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, and I shall speak in their ears these words, and cause the heavens and the earth to testify against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death you shall utterly corrupt yourselves, and will turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil shall happen to you in the latter end of the days, because you shall do evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to make Him angry with the work of your hands.

³⁰And Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until their conclusion:

¹Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak. And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. ²My doctrine shall drop as the rain; my speech shall drop down as the dew, as the small rain on the tender plant, and as the showers on the grass; ³because I will proclaim the name of Jehovah and ascribe greatness to our God. ⁴*He is the Rock; His work is perfect. For all His ways are just, a God of faithfulness, and without evil; just and upright is He.* ⁵They have corrupted themselves; they are not His sons; it is their blemish; they are a crooked and perverse generation.

⁶Do you thus give back to Jehovah, O foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father who bought you? Has not He made you and established you? ⁷Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations; ask your father, and he shall tell you; your elders, and they shall tell you; ⁸when the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance; when He separated the sons of Adam, He set up the bounds of the peoples, according to the number of the sons of Israel. ⁹For Jehovah's portion is His people; Jacob is the lot of His inheritance.

¹⁵But Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked; you grew fat, thick and stubborn. And he abandoned God who made him, and fell away from the Rock of his salvation. ¹⁶With strange gods they moved Him to jealousy; and with idols they provoked Him to anger. ¹⁷They sacrificed to demons who were not God, to gods whom they did not know, new ones who came lately; your fathers had not dreaded them. ¹⁸You forgot the Rock that brought you into being; and neglected God who formed you. ¹⁹And Jehovah looked and despised, because of the provocation of His sons and of His daughters. ²⁰And He said, I will hide My face from them; I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, sons in whom is no faithfulness. ²¹They made Me jealous with a no-god; they made Me angry by their vanities; and I shall make them jealous by a no-people; by a foolish nation I shall make them angry. ²²For a fire has been kindled in My anger, and it burns to the lowest Sheol, and consumes the earth and its produce; and sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

²³I will heap evils on them; I will use up My arrows on them. ²⁴I will send on them exhaustion by famine, and depletion by burning heat, and bitter destruction, and the teeth of beasts, with the venom of crawling things of the dust. ²⁵The sword shall bereave from without, and terror from within, both the young man and the virgin, the suckling with the man of gray hairs.

²⁶I said, I will dash them to pieces; I will make their memory cease from among men; ²⁷were it not the provocation of an enemy I feared, that their foes should judge amiss, that they might not say, Our hand is high, and Jehovah has not done all this. ²⁸For they are a nation void of counsel, and there is no understanding in them. ²⁹If they were wise, they would understand this; they would consider their latter end. ³⁰How could one chase a thousand, and two put a myriad to flight, if it were not their Rock that sold them, and Jehovah had shut them up? ³¹For their rock is not our Rock, even our enemies being judges. ³²For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and their grapes of the fields of Gomorrah, grapes of gall; they have bitter clusters.

³³Their wine is the venom of serpents, and the cruel venom of asps. ³⁴Is it not stored up with Me, sealed in My treasures? ³⁵Vengeance and retribution belong to Me; in due time their foot will slip; for the day of their calamity is near; and the things prepared are hurrying for them. ³⁶For Jehovah will bring His people justice; and He shall have compassion on His servants, for He sees that their power is gone, and only the imprisoned and abandoned remain. ³⁷And He will say, Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge? ³⁸Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up and help you; let it be a hiding place for you.

³⁹See now that I, I am He, and there is no other God with Me. I kill, and I keep alive. I wound and I heal, and there is no deliverer from My hand.

⁴¹If I have sharpened My glittering sword, and My hand lays hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to My foes, and I will repay those who hate Me. ⁴²I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh, with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the hairy head of the enemy.

⁴³Rejoice, O nations, of His people; for He shall avenge the blood of His servants, and shall render vengeance to His foes, and shall have mercy on His land and His people.

⁴⁴And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. ⁴⁵And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, ⁴⁶and said to them, Set your heart on all the words which I have testified against you today, that you command your sons to take heed to do all the words of this law. ⁴⁷For it is not a useless word for you; for it is your life; and by this you shall prolong your days in the land where you are crossing over the Jordan, there to possess it.

⁴⁸And Jehovah spoke to Moses in that same day, saying, ⁴⁹Go up into this Mount Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, which is opposite Jericho; and see the land of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession; ⁵⁰and die in the mountain where you are going, and be gathered to your people, even as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people; ⁵*in* that you acted covertly toward Me among the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not sanctify Me in the midst of the sons of Israel. ⁶Yet you shall see the land across from you, but you shall not go in there to the land which I am giving to the sons of Israel.

¹And this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. ²And he said: Jehovah came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir for them; He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came from the myriads of holy ones. At his right hand a law of fire went forth to them. ³Yes, He loves the peoples; all His holy ones are in Your hand; and they sit down at Your feet—He lifts up each at Your words. ⁴Moses has commanded a law to us, an inheritance for the congregation of Jacob. ⁵And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people assembled, the tribes of Israel. ⁶Let Reuben live, and not die, and let his men be numbered. ⁷And this for Judah: And he said, Hear the voice of Judah, O Jehovah, and bring him in to his people; his hands were much for him, and You shall be a help against his foes.

⁸And of Levi he said, Your Thummim and your Urim are for your devout man whom You tested at Massah; You contended with him at the waters of Meribah; ⁹who said of his father and his mother, I have not seen him. And he has not acknowledged his brothers, and did not know his own son, for they have kept Your word, and observed Your covenant. ¹⁰They shall teach Your ordinances to Jacob, and Your law to Israel. They shall put incense at Your nostrils, and whole burnt offering on Your altar. ¹¹O Jehovah, bless his strength, and accept the work of his hands. Dash the loins of those rising against him, those who hate him, that they may not rise!

¹²Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of Jehovah shall dwell securely beside Him, covering him all the day long; yea, he shall dwell between His shoulders.

¹⁸And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, O Zebulun, in your going out, and O Issachar, in your tents; ¹⁹*to* the mountains they call the peoples; there they shall offer righteous sacrifices; for they shall suck the bounty of the seas, and treasures hidden in the sand.

²⁰And of Gad he said, Blessed is he who enlarges Gad; he shall live like a lioness, and shall tear the arm, also the crown.

²¹And he eyes the first part for himself, for there was the portion of the lawgiver hidden; and he came with the rulers of the people; he executed the justice of Jehovah, and His judgments with Israel.

²²And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp; he shall leap from Bashan.

²³And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with good will and full of the blessing of Jehovah; possess the west and the south.

²⁴And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with sons; let him be accepted by his brothers, and dip his foot in oil. ²⁵*May* your shoelatches be iron and bronze, and your days as your strength.

²⁶There is none like the God of Jeshurun, riding the heavens for your help, and the clouds in His majesty. ²⁷The God of old is a refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And He shall cast the enemy out from before you, and shall say, Destroy! ²⁸And Israel shall live alone in safety; the fountain of Jacob in a land of grain and wine; and his heavens shall drop down dew. ²⁹Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you? A people saved by Jehovah, the Shield of your help, and He who is the Sword of your excellency! And your enemies shall be found liars before you, and you shall tread on their high places.

¹And Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And Jehovah caused him to see all the land; Gilead to Dan; ²and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah to the sea beyond; ³and the Negeb, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, to Zoar. ⁴And Jehovah said to him, This is the land which I have sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed. I have caused you to see with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.

⁵And Moses the servant of Jehovah died there in the land of Moab, according to the command of Jehovah. ⁶And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor; and no man knows his burying-place to this day. ⁷And Moses was a son of a hundred and twenty years at his death; his eye had not become dim, nor had his natural force abated. ⁸And the sons of Israel mourned Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. And the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended. ⁹And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. And the sons of Israel listened to him and did as Jehovah commanded Moses. ¹⁰And never since has a prophet like Moses arisen in Israel, whom Jehovah knew face to face, ¹¹in regard to all the signs and wonders which Jehovah sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants and to all his land; ¹²and in regard to all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

¹And after the death of Moses the servant of Jehovah, Jehovah spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, ²'My servant Moses is dead. And now rise up, cross over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel. ³'Every place on which the sole of your foot shall tread, I have given it to you, as I spoke to Moses. ⁴'From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun, shall be your border. ⁵'There shall not be any man able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor will I forsake you. ⁶'Be strong and brave. For you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers, to give to them. ⁷'Only be strong and very brave, so that you may take heed to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may act wisely wherever you go. ⁸'This book of the Law shall not depart out of your mouth, and you shall meditate on it by day and by night, so that you shall be on guard to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall prosper your way, and then you shall act wisely. ⁹'Have I not commanded you? Be strong and brave. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for Jehovah your God is with you in all places where you go.

¹⁰Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, ¹¹'Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, Prepare food for you. For within three days you are crossing this Jordan to go in to possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving to you, to possess it.

¹²And Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, saying, ¹³'Remember the word which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, saying, Jehovah your God has given you rest, and He has given to you this land; ¹⁴'your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses has given to you beyond the Jordan. But you shall cross over armed before your brothers, all the mighty warriors, and shall help them, ¹⁵until Jehovah has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you, and they, even they have possessed the land which Jehovah your God is giving to them. Then you may return to the land of your possession, and may possess it, which Moses the servant of Jehovah has given to you beyond the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun. ¹⁶And they answered Joshua, saying, We will do all that you command us; and we will go everywhere you shall send us. ¹⁷According to all we heard from Moses, so we will listen to you. Surely Jehovah your God is with you, as He has been with Moses. ¹⁸Whoever rebels against your mouth, and will not listen to your commands in all that you say to him, he shall be put to death. Only, be strong and brave.

¹And Joshua the son of Nun sent two men out of Shittim to spy secretly, saying, Go look over the land, and Jericho. And they went and came into the house of a woman, a harlot; and her name was Rahab. And they lay down there. ²And it was reported to the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, men have come here tonight from the sons of Israel, to search the land. ³And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring out the men who have come in to you, who have come into your house. They have come in to search out all the land. ⁴And the woman took the two men and hid them, and said, This way the men came in to me, but I did not know from where they were. ⁵And it happened as the gate was to be shut at dark, even the men went out. I do not know where they have gone. You go after them, and hurry, for you may overtake them. ⁶But she made them go up on the roof, and hid them with stalks of flax, which she arranged on the roof. ⁷And the men went after them the way of the Jordan, by the fords. And they shut the gate afterwards, when the pursuers had gone after them.

⁸And before they had laid down, she came up to them on the roof. ⁹And she said to the men, I know that Jehovah has given the land to you, and that your terror has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted before you.

¹⁰For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the water of the Sea of Reeds before you, as you were going out of Egypt; also that which you have done to two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan; to Sihon, and to Og, whom you destroyed.

¹¹And we have heard, and our heart has melted, and there not still rises spirit in any man, because of you. For Jehovah your God, He is God in the heavens above, and in the earth below. ¹²And now, please swear by me by Jehovah, since I have dealt with you in kindness, that you will also deal with my father's house in kindness, and shall give to me a true token; ¹³and shall keep alive my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they own, and shall deliver our souls from death. ¹⁴And the men said to her, Our life is yours. If you do not tell this business of ours, then it shall be, when Jehovah gives this land to us, that we shall deal with you in kindness and truth.

¹⁵Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was in the side of the wall, and she lived in the wall. ¹⁶And she said to them, Go to the mountain lest the pursuers come upon you. And you shall hide there three days until the pursuers return; and afterward you shall go on your way. ¹⁷And the men said to her, We will be guiltless from this oath of yours which you made us swear. ¹⁸Behold, we are coming into the land; you shall bind this scarlet thread of line in the window by which you have let us down. And you shall gather your father, and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father's house to you, to the house. ¹⁹And it shall be, anyone who goes outside from the doors of your house, his blood shall be on his head, and we shall be innocent. And anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him. ²⁰But if you reveal this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless from you oath which you make us swear. ²¹And she said, Let it be according to your words. And she sent them away. And they went. And she bound the line of scarlet thread in the window.

²²And they departed and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. And the pursuers searched in all the way, but did not find them. ²³And the two men returned and came down from the mountain, and crossed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and reported to him all that had happened to them. ²⁴And they said to Joshua, Surely Jehovah has given all the land into our hands. And also, all the inhabitants of the land have melted before us.

¹And Joshua rose up early in the morning. And they moved from Shittim and came to the Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel. And they stayed there before they crossed over. ²And it happened, at the end of three days, the officers passed into the midst of the camp. ³And they commanded the people, saying, When you see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests, and the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place and shall go after it. ⁴Only, keep a distance between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. You shall not come near it, so that you may know the way in which you are to go. For you have not crossed over this way yesterday and the day before. ⁵And Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow Jehovah will do wonders among you. ⁶And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant and go before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

⁷And Jehovah said to Joshua, This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel, so that they shall know that as I was with Moses, I am with you. ⁸And you shall command the priests bearing the ark of the covenant, saying, When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan. ⁹And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, Come near here and hear the words of Jehovah your God. ¹⁰And Joshua said, By this you shall know that the living God is among you. And He shall certainly expel from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites. ¹¹Behold, the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of all the earth shall pass over before you into the Jordan.

¹²And now, take for yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. ¹³And it shall be, when the soles of the feet of the priests bearing the ark of Jehovah, Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters which come down from above. And they shall stand in one heap.

¹⁴And it happened, as the people moved from their tents to cross over the Jordan, and as the priests bore the ark of the covenant before the people, ¹⁵and as those bearing the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the waters — and the Jordan was full, over all its banks all the days of harvest — ¹⁶that the waters stood still, those coming down from above rose up into a heap, very far above the city Adam, which is beside Zaretan; and those going down by the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people passed over opposite to Jericho. ¹⁷And the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of Jehovah stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan. And all Israel crossed over on dry ground until all the nation had completely passed over the Jordan.

¹And it happened, when all the nation had completely crossed over the Jordan, Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying, ²Take twelve men for you out of the people, one man of each tribe. ³And charge them, saying, Take twelve stones from this place, from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the feet of the priests were fixed. And you shall carry them over with you and lay them down in the lodging place which you stay the night. ⁴And

Joshua called to the twelve men whom he had made ready out of the sons of Israel, one man out of each tribe. ⁵And Joshua said to them, Cross over before the ark of Jehovah your God to the middle of the Jordan, and each man of you lift up one stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, ⁶so that this shall be a sign among you, when you children ask hereafter, saying, What are these stones to you? ⁷You shall say to them, Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, as it crossed over into the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones are for a memorial to the sons of Israel all the days.

⁸And the sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as Jehovah had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and crossed over with them to the lodging place, and laid them down there; ⁹even the twelve stones that Joshua lifted up in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant stood firm. And they are there until this day. ¹⁰And the priests bearing the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua. And the people hastened and crossed over.

¹¹And it happened, when the people had finished crossing over, the ark of Jehovah and the priests crossed over before the people. ¹²And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the sons of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them; ¹³about forty thousand armed men of the army crossed over before Jehovah for battle, to the plains of Jericho. ¹⁴On that day Jehovah made Joshua great in the sight of all Israel. And they feared him all the days of his life, even as they feared Moses.

¹⁵And Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying, ¹⁶Command the priests who carry the ark of the testimony, and they shall come up out of the Jordan. ¹⁷And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, Come up out of the Jordan. ¹⁸And when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah had come up out of the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the feet of the priests had been lifted to the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and flowed over all its banks, as before. ¹⁹And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and camped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. ²⁰And the twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan were raised up in Gilgal by Joshua. ²¹And he spoke to the sons of Israel, saying, when your sons ask their fathers hereafter, saying, What do these stones mean? ²²Then you shall make your sons know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land, ²³because Jehovah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you, until you crossed over, as Jehovah your God did to the Sea of Reeds, which He dried up before you until we crossed over; ²⁴so that all the people of the land shall know that the hand of Jehovah is strong, so that you may fear Jehovah your God all the days.

¹And it happened, when all the kings of the Amorites which were beyond the Jordan, toward the sea, and all the kings of the Canaanites which were by the sea, heard how Jehovah dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel, until they crossed over, their heart was melted. And there was not any more spirit in them before the sons of Israel.

²At that time Jehovah said to Joshua, Make for yourself flint knives, and again circumcise the sons of Israel, the second time. ³And Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. ⁴And this is the reason Joshua circumcised: All the people who had come out of Egypt, who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness, in the way, as they came out of Egypt. ⁵For all the people who had come out were circumcised. And all the people who were born in the wilderness, in the way, as they came out from Egypt, had not been circumcised. ⁶For the sons of Israel had walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the men of war who had come out of Egypt, who did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, to whom Jehovah had sworn to them, not to show them the land which Jehovah swore to their fathers, to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey — these were consumed. ⁷And He raised their sons up in their place. Joshua circumcised them, for they had been uncircumcised; for they had not been circumcised in the way.

⁹And Jehovah said to Joshua, Today I have rolled the reproach of Egypt off of you. And he called the name of that place Gilgal to this day.

¹³And it happened, when Joshua was beside Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold! A Man stood opposite him, and His drawn sword was in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, Are You for us, or for our foes? ¹⁴And He said, No, for I now come as the Commander of the army of Jehovah. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and worshiped. And he said to Him, What does my Lord speak to His bondslave? ¹⁵And the Commander of the army of Jehovah said to Joshua, Take your shoe off your foot, for the place on which you are standing is holy. And Joshua did so.

¹And Jericho was shut in, even it was shut in from the face of the sons of Israel; no one going out, and no one coming in. ²And Jehovah said to Joshua, See I have given Jericho and its king, mighty warriors, into your hand. ³And you shall go around the city, all the men of battle, going around the city once; so you shall do six days. ⁴And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of ram's horns before the ark. And on the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. ⁵And it shall be, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the horn, all the people shall shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city shall fall down flat; and the people shall go up, each man in front of him. ⁶And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of ram's horns before the ark of Jehovah. ⁷And he said to the people, Pass on, go around the city, and he who is armed shall go on before the ark of Jehovah.

⁸And it happened, when Joshua spoke to the people, the seven priests bearing seven trumpets of the ram's horns before Jehovah passed on and blew with the trumpets. And the ark of the covenant of Jehovah went after them. ⁹And he who was armed went before the priests blowing the trumpets. And he who gathered up went after the ark, going on and blowing with the trumpets. ¹⁰And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor cause your voice to be heard, nor shall there go from your mouth a word until the day I say to you, Shout! Then you shall shout. ¹¹And the ark of Jehovah went around the city, going around one time. And they came into the camp, and remained in the camp.

¹³And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of the ram's horns were walking before the ark of Jehovah, going on, and were blowing with the trumpets. And he who was armed went before them. And the rear guard went behind the ark of Jehovah, going on and blowing with the trumpets.

¹⁴And they circled the city on the second day one time, and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

¹⁵And it happened on the seventh day, they rose early, at the dawning of the day, and went around the city seven times.

¹⁶And it happened at the seventh time, the priests blew with the trumpets, and Joshua said to the people, Shout! For Jehovah has given you the city. ¹⁷And the city shall be devoted to Jehovah, it and all that are in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. ¹⁸And you shall certainly keep clear of the cursed things, that you not become accursed by taking from the cursed things, and shall make the camp of Israel become accursed, and trouble it. ¹⁹And all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, they are holy to Jehovah; they shall come into the treasury of Jehovah. ²⁰And the people shouted, and blew with the trumpets, and it happened, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted a great shout. And the wall fell under it; and the people went up into the city, each man in front of him; and they captured the city.

²¹And they destroyed all that was in the city, from man even to woman, from young even to aged, and to ox, and sheep, and ass, by the mouth of the sword.

²²And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, Go into the house of the woman, the harlot, and bring the woman out from there, and all whom she has, as you have sworn to her. ²³And the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all whom she had; yea, they brought all her family, and set them outside the camp of Israel.

²⁴And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they gave the silver and the gold, and the vessels of bronze, and of iron, to the treasury of the house of Jehovah. ²⁵And Joshua kept alive Rahab the harlot, and the house of her father, and all whom she had. And she lives in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

²⁶And at that time Joshua adjured, saying, Cursed be the man who rises up before the face of Jehovah and builds this city of Jericho. He shall lay its foundation in his firstborn, and he shall set up its doors in his youngest son.

²⁷And Jehovah was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

¹And the sons of Israel committed a sin in the cursed thing. And Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah took the cursed thing. And the anger of Jehovah glowed against the sons of Israel.

²And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, on the east of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the land. And the men went up and spied out Ai. ³And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, Do not let all the people go up. Let about two thousand men, or about three thousand men, go up, and they shall strike Ai. Do not cause all the people to labor there, for they are few. ⁴And about three thousand men of the people went up there. And they fled before the men of Ai. ⁵And the men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, and pursued them before the gate to Shebarim. And they struck them in the descent. And the heart of the people was melted, and became as water.

⁶And Joshua tore his clothing, and fell on his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the elders of Israel. And they threw dust on their heads. ⁷And Joshua said, O Lord Jehovah, why have You at all caused this people to cross over the Jordan to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? And, O that we have been willing, and that we had dwelt beyond the Jordan! ⁸O Lord, what shall I say, after Israel has turned its back before its enemies? ⁹And the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear, and shall come around against us, and shall cut off our name out of the earth. And what shall You do for Your great name?

¹¹Israel has sinned, and they also have transgressed My covenant which I commanded them, and have also taken of the cursed things, and have also stolen, and also deceived, and also put it among their stuff. ¹²And the sons of Israel have not been able to stand before their enemies; they have turned the back before their enemies because they have become cursed. I will not be with you again if you do not destroy the cursed things from among you. ¹³Rise up, sanctify the people, and you shall say, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow. For so says Jehovah, the God of Israel, A cursed thing is in your midst, O Israel; you are not able to stand before your enemies until you take away the cursed thing from among you. ¹⁴And you shall be brought near in the morning, by your tribes. And it shall be, the tribe which Jehovah takes shall draw near by families. And the family which Jehovah takes shall draw near by households. And the household which Jehovah takes shall draw near by men. ¹⁵And it shall be, he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of Jehovah, and because he has committed folly in Israel.

¹⁶And Joshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near by its tribes. And the tribe of Judah was taken. ¹⁷And he brought the family of Judah near; and he took the family of the Zarchites. And he brought near the family of the Zarhites by men, and Zabdi was taken. ¹⁸And he brought near his household by men, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. ¹⁹And Joshua said to Achan, My son, I beg you, give glory to Jehovah, the God of Israel, and give thanks to Him, and please tell me what you have done. Do not hide it from me. ²⁰And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Truly I have sinned against Jehovah, the God of Israel, and this I have done: ²¹When I saw among the spoil a goodly robe of Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold, one of fifty shekels in weight, then I lusted after them, and took them. And behold, they are hidden in the earth, in the middle of my tent, and the silver under it.

²²And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it. ²³And they took them out of the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the sons of Israel, and laid them out before Jehovah. ²⁴And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the robe, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his ass, and his flock, and his tent, and all that he had. And they made them go up to the valley of Achor. ²⁵And Joshua said, How you have troubled us! Jehovah shall trouble you today! And all Israel threw stones at him, and they burned them with fire, and they stoned them with stones. ²⁶And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this day. And Jehovah turned back from the heat of His anger. On this account the name of that place is The Valley of Grief until this day.

¹And Jehovah said to Joshua, Do not fear, nor be afraid. Take all the people of war with you, and rise up, go up to Ai. Behold, I have given the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land into your hand. ²And you shall do to Ai and to its king as you have done to Jericho and its king. Only, its spoil and its cattle you shall take for yourselves. Set yourself an ambush for the city behind it. ³And Joshua rose up, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty warriors, and sent them away by night. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, See, you will be an ambush against the city, at the rear of the city. You shall not go very far off from the city, and all of you shall be ready. ⁵And I and all the people with me shall draw near to the city. And it shall be, when they come out to meet us as at the first, and we have fled before them, ⁶and they have come out after us until we have drawn them out of the city—for they will say, They are fleeing before us, as at the first—and we are fleeing from them; ⁷then you shall rise from the ambush and shall occupy the city. And Jehovah your God shall give it into your hand. ⁸And it shall be, when you capture the city, you shall burn the city with fire. You shall do according to the word of Jehovah. See, I have commanded you. ⁹And Joshua sent them away, and they went to the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west of Ai. And Joshua remained that night in the midst of the people.

¹⁰And Joshua rose early in the morning, and inspected the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, in the sight of the people of Ai. ¹¹And all the people of war with him went up and drew near, and came before the city. And they camped on the north of Ai, and the valley was between him and Ai. ¹²And he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west of the city. ¹³And they set the people, all the camp on the north of the city; and its rear on the west of the city. And Joshua went into the middle of the valley on that night. ¹⁴And it happened, when the king of Ai saw, the men of the city rose early and hurried to go out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed time before the plain. He did not know that an ambush was against him behind the city. ¹⁵And Joshua and all Israel were touched before them, and they fled the way of the wilderness. ¹⁶And all the people in the city were called to chase them. And they pursued Joshua, and were drawn away out of the city. ¹⁷And there was not a man left in Ai and Bethel who had not gone out after Israel. And they left the city open, and chased Israel.

¹⁸And Jehovah said to Joshua, Stretch out the javelin in your hand toward Ai. For I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the javelin in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹And the ambush rose up quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered the city, and took it. And they hastened and burned the city with fire. ²⁰And the men of Ai looked behind them, and saw; and, behold! The smoke of the city had gone up into the sky. And there was no power in them to flee here or there. And the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers. ²¹And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city had gone up. And they turned back and struck the men of Ai. ²²And the others came out from the city to meet them. and they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that. And they struck them until he did not leave them a survivor, not one that escaped. ²³And they caught the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

made an end to slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, even in the wilderness where they pursued them—and they all of them fell by the mouth of the sword until they were consumed — all Israel turned back to Ai, and struck it with the mouth of the sword. ²⁵And all who fell during that day, of men and of women, were twelve thousand, all the men of Ai. ²⁶And Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷Only, Israel seized for themselves the livestock, and the plunder of the city, according to the word of Jehovah which He commanded Joshua. ²⁸And Joshua burned Ai, and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day. ²⁹And he hanged the king of Ai on the tree until evening time. And at sundown Joshua commanded, and they took his dead body down from the tree, and threw it into the opening of the gate of the city; and raised over it a great heap of stones until this day.

³⁰Then Joshua built an altar to Jehovah, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal, ³¹as Moses, the servant of Jehovah, commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses; an altar of whole stones, on which had been wielded no iron. And they offered up on it burnt offerings to Jehovah, and offered peace offerings. ³²And he wrote there on the stones the copy of the law of Moses, which he had written in the presence of the sons of Israel. ³³And all Israel, and its elders, and authorities, and its judges, were standing on this side and on that of the ark, before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah—the alien as well as the home-born—half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. ³⁴And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that was written in the book of the law. ³⁵There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the aliens that walked among them.

¹And it happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hills and in the Lowland, and in all the coast of the Great Sea in front of Lebanon, heard of it, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, ²they with one mouth gathered themselves to fight with Joshua and with Israel.

³And the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai. ⁴And they acted slyly, and they went and acted like envoys, and took old sacks for their asses, and old wineskins, even torn and bound up; ⁵and old and patched sandals on their feet; and old garments on them. And all their provision of bread was dry; it was crumbs. ⁶And they went to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal. And they said to him and to the men of Israel, We have come from a distant land. And now cut a covenant with us. ⁷And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, Perhaps you are living in our midst, and how shall we cut a covenant with you? ⁸And they said to Joshua, We are your servants. And Joshua said to them, Who are you? And from where do you come? ⁹And they said to him, Your servants have come from a very distant land, because of the name of Jehovah your God, for we have heard of His fame, and all that He has done in Egypt. ¹⁰Also what He has done to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon, and to Og the king of Bashan who was in Ashtarothe. ¹¹And our elders and all the people of our land spoke to us, saying, Take provisions in your hand for the way, and go to meet them. And you shall say to them, We are your servants; and now, cut a covenant with us. ¹²We provided ourselves with this hot bread out of our houses on the day we came out to go to you. And now, behold, it is dry and it is crumbs. ¹³And these are the wineskins which we filled new; and, behold, they have torn. And these garments of ours, and our sandals, have become old because of the exceeding greatness of the way. ¹⁴And the men took of their provision, and did not ask at the mouth of Jehovah. ¹⁵And Joshua made peace with them, and cut a covenant with them, to keep them alive. And the leaders of the congregation swore to them.

¹⁶And at the end of three days they had cut a covenant with them, and it happened that they heard that they were their neighbors, and they were living in their midst.

¹⁷And the sons of Israel pulled up and came to their cities on the third day. And their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim. ¹⁸And the sons of Israel did not strike them, for the leaders of the congregation swore to them by Jehovah the God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the leaders. ¹⁹And all the leaders said to all the congregation, We have sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel; and now we cannot touch them. ²⁰We shall do this to them, and shall keep them alive and wrath shall not be on us because of the oath which we have sworn to them. ²¹And the leaders said to them, They shall live and be woodcutters, and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders spoke to them.

²²And Joshua called for them; and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you, yet you are living in our midst? ²³And now, you are cursed, and none of you shall fail to be slaves, and woodcutters, and drawers of water for the house of my God. ²⁴And they answered Joshua and said, Because it was certainly told to your servants what Jehovah your God commanded His servant Moses, to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; and we were greatly afraid for ourselves, because of you. And we did this thing. ²⁵And now, behold, we are in your hand. Do whatever is good, and as is right in your eyes to do. ²⁶And he did so to them, and delivered them from the hand of the sons of Israel. And they did not kill them. ²⁷And on that day Joshua made them woodcutters, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of Jehovah at the place which He should choose, to this day.

¹And it happened, when Adonizedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had destroyed it—as he had done to Jericho and to its king, so he had done to Ai and to her king—and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were in their midst, ²they were greatly afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. ³And Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, ⁴Come up to me and help me. And we shall strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua, and with the sons of Israel. ⁵And the five kings of the Amorites assembled, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, they and all their camps. And they camped against Gibeon, and fought against it.

⁶And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua, and to the camp at Gilgal, saying, Do not withdraw your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites living in the hills have gathered against us. ⁷And Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, even all the mighty warriors. ⁸And Jehovah said to Joshua, Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hands. Not a man of them shall stand before you. ⁹And Joshua came to them suddenly—he had traveled all night from Gilgal — ¹⁰and Jehovah troubled them before Israel, and struck them with a great blow at Gibeon. and He pursued by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them to Azekah, and to Makkedah. ¹¹And it happened, as they fled from the face of Israel, they were in the descent of Beth-horon, even Jehovah cast great stones on them out of the heavens, to Azekah; and they died. The many who died by the hailstones were more than the sons of Israel had killed by the sword.

¹²Then Joshua spoke to Jehovah in the day when Jehovah gave the Amorites up before the sons of Israel; and he said, Sun, stand still before the eyes of Israel in Gibeon! And, Moon stand still in the valley of Aijalon! ¹³And the sun stood still, and the moon stood still, until the nation was avenged on its foes. Is it not written in the Book of the Upright? Yea, the sun stood still in the middle of the heavens, and did not hasten to go down for a full day. ¹⁴And there has not been a day such as that, before it or after it; for Jehovah listened to the voice of a man. For Jehovah fought for Israel.

²²And Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out to me these five kings from the cave. ²³And they did so, and brought out to him these five kings from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon. ²⁴And it happened, when they brought out these kings to Joshua, Joshua called to every man of Israel and said to the commanders of the men of war who had gone with him, Draw near, set your feet on the necks of these kings. And they drew near and set their feet on their necks. ²⁵And Joshua said to them, Do not fear nor be afraid. Be strong and brave, for so Jehovah shall do to all your enemies with whom you are fighting. ²⁶And afterward Joshua struck them, and put them to death, and hung them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until the evening. ²⁷And it happened at the time of the going of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and threw them into the cave where they had been hidden, and put great stones on the mouth of the cave until this very day.

²⁸And that day Joshua captured Makkeh-dah. And he struck it by the mouth of the sword, and he destroyed its king, them, and every person in it. He did not leave a survivor. And he did to the king of Makkeh-dah as he did to the king of Jericho.

²⁹And Joshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Makkedah to Libnah. And he fought with Libnah. ³⁰And Jehovah also gave it into the hand of Israel, and its king. And they struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every person in it; he did not leave a survivor in it. And he did to its king as he did to the king of Jericho.

³¹And Joshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Libnah to Lachish. And they camped against it, and fought against it. ³²And Jehovah gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he captured it on the second day, and struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every person in it, according to all that he did to Libnah.

³⁸And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. ³⁹And they captured it and its king, and all its cities. And they struck them by the mouth of the sword, and destroyed every person in it; he did not leave a survivor. As he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; even as he did to Libnah, and to its king.

⁴⁰And Joshua struck all the land: the heights and the Negeb, and the Lowland, and the slopes, and all their kings; he did not leave a survivor, but he destroyed all that breathed, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹And Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea, even to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen, even to Gibeon.

⁴²And Joshua captured all these kings in their land at one time, for Jehovah the God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

¹And it happened, when Jabin the king of Hazor heard, he sent to Jobab the king of Medon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, ²and to the kings that were on the north of the heights, and in the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the low country, and in the hills of Dor on the west; ³to the Canaanite on the east, and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the heights, and the Hivite below Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh. ⁴And they went out, they and all their camps with them, a people plentiful as the sand on the seashore in number, and very many horses and chariots. ⁵And all these kings met together. And they came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

¹⁰And Joshua returned and captured Hazor at that time. And he struck its king by the sword; for Hazor was formerly head of all these kingdoms. ¹¹And they struck every person in it by the mouth of the sword. He destroyed them, he did not leave anyone breathing; and he burned Hazor with fire. ¹²And Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings. And he struck them by the mouth of the sword. He destroyed them, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded. ¹³But as for all the cities which stood by their mounds, Israel did not burn them; but Joshua only burned Hazor. ¹⁴And the sons of Israel seized for themselves all the plunder of these cities, and the livestock. But they struck every human being by the mouth of the sword, until they had destroyed them; they did not leave anyone breathing. ¹⁵As Jehovah commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He did not turn aside from anything of all that Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹⁶And Joshua took all this land: the heights, and all the Negeb, and all the land of Goshen, and the Lowlands, and the Arabah, and the mountains of Israel, and its lowlands, ¹⁷from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon, below Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and and struck them, and killed them. ¹⁸And Joshua made war many days with all those kings. ¹⁹There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites, inhabitants of Gibeon. They took all in battle. ²⁰For it was of Jehovah to harden their hearts, so that they should come against Israel in battle, so that they might be destroyed, so that they might have no favor, but that He might destroy them, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

²¹At that time Joshua came and cut off the Anakim from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them with their cities. ²²There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel; only some remained in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod. ²³And Joshua took the whole of the land, according to all that Jehovah had spoken to Moses. And Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.

¹And these are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel struck, and they seized their land beyond the Jordan, at the sunrising, from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward: ²Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, and from its valley floor, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon; ³and from the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and on the south under the slopes of Pisgah; ⁴and the border of Og the king of Bashan, of the rest of the giants, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, ⁵and reigned in Mount Hermon and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon the king of Heshbon. ⁶Moses the servant of Jehovah and the sons of Israel struck them. And Moses the servant of Jehovah gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

⁷And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak that goes up to Seir, which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; ⁸in the mountains, and in the Lowlands, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negeb—the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: ⁹the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; ¹⁰the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; ¹¹the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; ¹²the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; ¹³the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; ¹⁴the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; ¹⁵the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; ¹⁶the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; ¹⁷the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one; ¹⁸the king of Aphek, one; the king of Sharon, one; ¹⁹the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; ²⁰the king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; ²¹the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; ²²the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one; ²³the king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one; ²⁴the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were thirty-one.

¹And Joshua was old, going on aged. And Jehovah said to him, You have become aged, you are far along in days; yet very much land remains to be possessed. ²This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all Geshuri, ³from Shihor which fronts on Egypt, and to the border of Ekron northward; it is counted to the Canaanites — five lords of the Philistines, of Gaza, of Ashdod, of Eshkalon, of Gath, and of Ekron; also the Avim. ⁴From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah which belongs to the Sidonians; to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; ⁵and the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to the entering to Hamath; ⁶all the inhabitants of the hills, from Lebanon to the burning waters; all the Sidonians—I will expel them before the sons of Israel. Only, cause it to fall to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

Now, then, divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁸With him the Reubenites, and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave to them beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of Jehovah has given to them; ⁹from Aroer on the lip of the river Arnon, and the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba, to Dibon; ¹⁰and all the cities of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the sons of Ammon; ¹¹and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurite, and of the Maachathite, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salcah; ¹²all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei; he remained of the remnant of the giants; and Moses struck them and expelled them. ¹³But the sons of Israel did not expel the Geshurite and the Maachathite, but Geshur and Maachath live in the midst of Israel until today.

¹⁴Only, he has not given an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The fire offerings of Jehovah the God of Israel are its inheritance, as He has spoken to it.

²²And the sons of Israel killed Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword, among their slain. ²³And the border of the sons of Reuben was from the Jordan, and its border. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben for their families, the cities and their villages.

³²These are they whom Moses caused to inherit in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan, opposite Jericho, eastward. ³³But Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. Jehovah the God of Israel Himself is their inheritance, as He has spoken to them.

¹And these are they of the sons of Israel who inherited in the land of Canaan, whom Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel caused to inherit. ²Their inheritance was by lot, as Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and the half tribe—³for Moses had given the inheritance of two of the tribes, and the half tribe, beyond the Jordan; and he did not give any inheritance to the Levites among them—⁴For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with the open land around them for their livestock and for their substance, ⁵as Jehovah commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did, and they allotted the land.

⁶And the sons of Judah came near to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said to him, You know the word that Jehovah spoke to Moses the man of God as to me and as to you in Kadesh-barnea. I was a son of forty years when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land. And I brought him back word as it was in my heart. ⁷But my brothers who went up with me caused the heart of the people to melt, yet I fully followed after Jehovah my God.

⁹And Moses swore in that day, saying, Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and for your sons forever, because you have fully followed after Jehovah my God.

¹⁰And now, behold, Jehovah has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years since Jehovah spoke this word to Moses, when Israel went in the wilderness. And now, behold, today I am a son of eighty-five years; ¹¹yet I am as strong today as in the day Moses sent me. As my strength was then, so is my strength now for war, both to go out and to come in. ¹²And now, give to me this mountain, of which Jehovah spoke in that day, for you heard in that day how the son of Anak were there, and great walled cities. If Jehovah shall be with me, then I shall expel them, as Jehovah has spoken. ¹³And Joshua blessed him, and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. ¹⁴Therefore, Hebron has belonged to Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenezite, for an inheritance to this day, because he fully followed after Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁵And the name of Hebron before was City of Arba — that one was a great man among the Anakim.

And the land had rest from war.

¹And the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah for their families was to the border of Edom, the wilderness of Zin southward, in the extreme south. ²And their south border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looked southward. ³And it went out southward to the ascent of Acrabbim, and passed on to Zin, and went up on the south of Kadesh-barnea, and passed to Hezron, and went up toward Adar, and turned toward Karkaa, ⁴and passed on to Azmon, and went out by the torrent of Egypt; and the boundary line was at the sea. This shall be your south border. ⁵And the east border was the Salt Sea to the end of the Jordan; and the border on the north side was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. ⁶And the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and passed on the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben; ⁷and the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and northward looking toward Gilgal, which is opposite to the ascent of Adummim, which is the south side of the torrent; and the border passed to the waters of Enshemesh, and its boundary line was at Enrogel. ⁸And the border went up to the valley of the son of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite on the south—it is Jerusalem—and the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the far end of the Valley of the Giants northward. ⁹And the border was drawn from the top of the mount to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah; and it went up to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah—it is Kirjath-jearim—¹⁰and the border turned around from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed toward the side of Mount Jearim on the north—it is Chesalon—and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed along by Timnah; ¹¹and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border was drawn to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel. And the boundary line was at the sea. ¹²And the west border was to the Great Sea, and its coast. This is the border of the sons of Judah all around, for their families.

¹³And he gave a portion to Caleb the son of Jephunneh among the sons of Judah, according to the command of Jehovah to Joshua: the City of Arba, the father of Anak; it is Hebron. ¹⁴And Caleb dispossessed the three sons of Anak from there, Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi, the sons of Anak. ¹⁵And he went up there to the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir formerly was the city of Sepher. ¹⁶And Caleb said, He who strikes the city of Sepher, and captures it, I shall give my daughter Achsah to him for a wife. ¹⁷And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it. And He gave his daughter Achsah to him for a wife. ¹⁸And it happened, as she came, that she persuaded him to ask from her father a field. And she alighted from the ass, and Caleb said to her, What do you desire? ¹⁹And she said, Give a blessing to me. When you have given me the land of the south, then you shall give to me springs of water. And he gave to her the upper springs and the lower springs.

²⁰This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah, for their families: ²¹And the cities at the furthest border of the tribe of the sons of Judah were to the border of Edom in the south: Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, ²²and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, ²³and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, ²⁴Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, ²⁵and Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor, ²⁶Amam, and Shema, and Moladah, ²⁷and Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet, ²⁸and Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Bizjothjah, ²⁹Baalah, and Iim, and Azem, ³⁰and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah, ³¹and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah, ³²and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon. All the cities are twenty-nine and their villages.

³³In the Lowlands were: Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, ³⁴and Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam, ³⁵Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, ³⁶and Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothain — fourteen cities and their villages — ³⁷Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad, ³⁸and Dilan, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel, ³⁹Lachish and Bozkath, and Eglon, ⁴⁰and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, ⁴¹and Gederoth, Beth-dgo, and Naamah, and Makkedah—sixteen cities and their villages — ⁴²Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, ⁴³and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, ⁴⁴and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah — nine cities and their villages — ⁴⁵Ekron with its daughter-towns and its villages; ⁴⁶from Ekron even to the sea, all that were at hand by Ashdod, and their villages; ⁴⁷Ashdod with its daughter-towns and its villages; Gaza with its daughter-towns and its villages, to the river of Egypt, and the Great Sea, and its coast.

⁴⁸And in the hills: Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, ⁴⁹and Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which is Debir, ⁵⁰and Anab, and Estemoh, and Anim, ⁵¹and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh — eleven cities and their villages — ⁵²Arab and Dumah, and Eshean, ⁵³and Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, ⁵⁴and Humtah, and the city of Arba, which is Hebron, and Zior — nine cities and their villages — ⁵⁵Maon, Carmel and Ziph, and Juttah, ⁵⁶and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, ⁵⁷Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah — ten cities and their villages — ⁵⁸Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, ⁵⁹and Maarah, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon — six cities and their villages — ⁶⁰Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, and Rabbah — two cities and their villages. ⁶¹In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, ⁶²and Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and En-gedi — six cities and their villages.

⁶³As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not drive them out. But the Jebusites dwell with the sons of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

⁹And the separate cities of the sons of Ephraim were in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages. ¹⁰And they did not expel the Canaanite who lived in Gezer. And the Canaanite lives in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and is serving under tribute.

¹And the lot came for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph, to Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, father of Gilead, for he had been a man of battle, and he had Gilead and Bashan. ²And there was a lot remaining for the sons of Manasseh, for their families — for the sons of Abiezer, and for the sons of Helek, and for the sons of Asriel, and for the sons of Shechem, and for the sons of Hephher, and for the sons of Shemida; these being the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, by their families. ³But Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. And these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ⁴And they drew near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, Jehovah commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance among our brothers; and at the mouth of Jehovah he gave to them an inheritance among their father's brothers. ⁵And ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides that from the land of Gilead and Bashan beyond the Jordan; ⁶because the daughters of Manasseh had inherited an inheritance among his sons; and the land of Gilead belonged to the sons of Manasseh who remained.

⁷And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, which fronts on Shechem. And the border went up to the right to the inhabitants of En-tappuah — ⁸the land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim — ⁹and the border went down to the river Kanah, south of the river; these cities of Ephraim were in the midst of the cities of Manasseh, and the border of Manasseh was on the north of the river, and its boundary line was at the sea. ¹⁰Southward, it was Ephraim's. And northward, it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. And they met in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. ¹¹And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns — three regions.

¹²But the sons of Manasseh had not been able to occupy these cities, for the Canaanite determined to live in this land. ¹³And it happened, when the sons of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not completely expel him.

¹⁴And the sons of Joseph spoke with Joshua, saying, Why have you given to me one lot and one portion as an inheritance, since I am a numerous people? For Jehovah has blessed me until now. ¹⁵And Joshua said to them, If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest for yourself, and you shall cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzite, and of the giants, if Mount Ephraim is too narrow for you. ¹⁶And the sons of Joseph said, The hills will not come forth to us. And every Canaanite who lives in the land of the valley has a chariot of iron, those that are of Beth-shean and its towns, and of him who is in the valley of Jezreel. ¹⁷And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot, ¹⁸because the hill is yours; because it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its outer limits shall be yours; for you shall expel the Canaanite, even though it has chariots of iron; even though it is strong.

¹And all the company of the sons of Israel were gathered at Shiloh. And they established the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land had been subdued before them. ²And seven tribes were left among the sons of Israel who had not shared their inheritance. ³And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, How long will you fail to go in to possess the land which He, Jehovah the God of your fathers, has given to you? ⁴Give from among you three men of a tribe, and I shall send them. And they shall go up and down through the land, and map it according to their inheritance; and then come to me. ⁵And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall stay within their border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay within their border on the north. ⁶And you shall map the land in seven parts, and shall bring it to me here. And I shall cast a lot for you here before Jehovah our God. ⁷For there shall be no portion to the Levites among you, for the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance. And Gad, and Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave to them.

⁸And the men rose up and went. And Joshua commanded those who were going to map out the land, saying, Go, and walk up and down through the land, and map it, and return to me. And I will cast a lot for you here before Jehovah at Shiloh. ⁹And the men passed through the land, and mapped it by cities, in seven parts, in a book. And they came to Joshua, to the camp at Shiloh. ¹⁰And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Jehovah. And Joshua apportioned the land to the sons of Israel there, according to their divisions.

¹¹And the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up, according to their families, and the border of their lot went out between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph. ¹²And their border was at the north side from the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hills westward; and its boundary line was at the wilderness of Beth-aven; ¹³and the border went up from there to Luz, to the side of Luz—it is Bethel—southward, and the border went down to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that is on the south of the lower Beth-horon; ¹⁴and the border was drawn and went around to the sea coast southward, from the hill which fronts on Beth-horon southward; and its boundary line was at the city of Baal—it is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the sons of Judah—this is the west side. ¹⁵And the south side was from the end of Kirjath-jearim; and the border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah; ¹⁶and the border went down to the end of the mountain that is before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Giants northward, and went down the valley of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite on the south, and went down to En-rogel. ¹⁷And it was drawn from the north and went out to En-shemesh, and went out toward Geliloth, which is across from the ascent of Adummim, and went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, ¹⁸and passed on to the side opposite to Arabah northward, and went down to Arabah. ¹⁹And the border passed on to the side of Beth-hoglah northward, and the boundary line was at the north tongue of the Salt Sea, to the extreme south of the Jordan; this was the southern border. ²⁰And the Jordan borders it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to its borders all around, according to their families.

²¹And the cities for the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, by their families, were Jericho, Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, ²²and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, ²³and Avvim, and Parah, and Ophrah, ²⁴and Chepharhaam-monai, and Ophni, and Gaba—twelve cities and their villages—²⁵Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, ²⁶and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah, ²⁷and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, ²⁸and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath, and Kirjath—fourteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, by their families.

¹And the second lot came forth to Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the sons of Judah. ²And they had for their inheritance, Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, ³and Hazorshual, and Balah, and Azem, ⁴and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, ⁵and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, ⁶and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhin—thirteen cities and their villages—⁷Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan—four cities and their villages—⁸and all the villages that were all around these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramah of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families. ⁹The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was out of the portion of the sons of Judah. For the part of the sons of Judah was too much for them. Therefore, the sons of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

¹⁰And the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families And the border of their inheritance was to Sarid. ¹¹And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dab-basheth, and reached to the torrent which is in front of Jokneam, ¹²and turned east from Sarid toward the rising of the sun, to the border of The Flames of Tabor, and goes out to Daberath, and goes up the Japhia. ¹³And from there it passes on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goes out to Rimmon-methoar to Neah. ¹⁴And the border goes around it on the north side to Hannathon, and its outer limits are in the valley of Jiphtahel, ¹⁵and Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem — twelve cities and their villages. ¹⁶This is the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities and their villages.

¹⁷The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the sons of Issachar according to their families. ¹⁸And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, ¹⁹and Hapharaim, and Shihon, and Anaharath, ²⁰and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez, ²¹and Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez. ²²And the border reaches to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemesh. And the outer limits of their border were at Jordan — sixteen cities and their villages. ²³This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages. ²⁴And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher, according to their families. ²⁵And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, ²⁶and Allammelech, and Amad, and Misheal, and reaches to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath. ²⁷And it turns toward the rising of the sun to Beth-dagon, and it reaches to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphtahel toward the north side of Bethemek, and Neiel, and goes out to Cabul on the left hand, ²⁸and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah to great Sidon. ²⁹And the border turns to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre. And the border turns to Hosah, and the outer limits of it are at the sea from the line to Achzib, ³⁰and Ummah, and Aphek, and Rehob — twenty-two cities and their villages. ³¹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities and their villages.

³²The sixth lot came out to the sons of Naphtali, for the sons of Naphtali by their families. ³³And their border was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakum. And its boundaries were at Jordan. ³⁴And the border turns west toward Aznoth-tabor, and goes out from there to Hukkok, and reached to Zebulun on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah on Jordan toward the rising of the sun — ³⁵and the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, ³⁶and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, ³⁷and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, ³⁸and Iron, and Migdalel, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh — nineteen cities and their villages. ³⁹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali by their families, the cities and their villages.

⁴⁰The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families. ⁴¹And the border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, ⁴²and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, ⁴³and Elon, and Timnathah, and Ekron, ⁴⁴and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, ⁴⁵and Jehud, and Beneberak, and Gath-rimmon, ⁴⁶and Mejar-kon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. ⁴⁷And the border of the sons of Dan came out too little for them. And the sons of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and struck it with the mouth of the sword, and possessed it, and lived in it. And they called Leshem Dan, after the name of their father Dan. ⁴⁸This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families, these cities and their villages.

⁴⁹When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them. ⁵⁰According to the mouth of Jehovah, they gave him the city which he asked, Timnath-serah in Mount Ephraim. And he built the city and lived in it.

⁵¹These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Jehovah, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they finished dividing the country.

¹And Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying, ²Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Appoint cities of refuge for you, as I have spoken to you by the hand of Moses, ³that the manslayer who in innocence strikes anyone mortally, without knowing, may flee there. And they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. ⁴And he shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and shall declare his matter in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall take him into the city to themselves, and shall give him a place, and he shall live with them. ⁵And if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for he has struck his neighbor without knowing, and did not hate him yesterday and the day before. ⁶And he shall live in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest who is in those days. Then the manslayer shall return and come to his city, and to his house, to the city from where he fled.

⁷And they set apart Kadesh in Galilee, in the hills of Naphtali; and Shechem in the hills of Ephraim; and Kirjath-arba — it is Hebron — in the hills of Judah. ⁸And beyond the Jordan, at Jericho eastward, they gave Bezer in the wilderness, on the tableland out of the tribe of Reuben; and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel, and for the alien who was living in their midst, that he who had struck anyone mortally without knowing might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

¹And the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel. ²And they spoke to them in Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, saying, Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses to give cities to us to live in, and their open land for our livestock. ³And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance these cities and their open land, at the mouth of Jehovah:

⁴And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the sons of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

⁵And the rest of the sons of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

⁶And the sons of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

⁷The sons of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

⁸And the sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their open land, as Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses.

⁹And they gave out of the tribe of the sons of Judah, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, these cities which are called by name, ¹⁰which the sons of Aaron had, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the sons of Levi. For theirs was the first lot. ¹¹And they gave them the city of Arba, the father of Anak—which is Hebron—in the hills of Judah, with its open lands around it. ¹⁷But the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his own.

¹⁸So they gave Hebron and its open lands to the sons of Aaron the priest as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Libnah and its open lands, ¹⁹and Jattir and its open lands, and Eshtemoa and its open lands, ²⁰and Holon and its open lands, and Debir and its open lands, ²¹and Ain and its open lands, and Juttah and its open lands, and Beth-shemesh and its open lands—nine cities out of those two tribes.

²²And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and its open lands, Geba and its open lands, ²³Anathoth and its open lands, and Almon and its open lands—four cities.

²⁴And all the cities of the sons of Aaron the priest were thirteen cities and their open land.

²⁸And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and its open lands, Gibbethon and its open lands, ²⁹Aijalon and its open lands, Gath-rimmon and its open lands—four cities.

³⁰And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach and its open lands, and Gath-rimmon and its open lands—two cities.

³¹All the cities were ten, and their open land, for the families of the sons of Kohath that were left.

³²And to the sons of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan and its open lands as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Beesh-terah and its open lands—two cities. ³³And from the tribe of Issachar they gave Kishon and its open lands, and Dabareh and its open lands, ³⁴Jarmuth and its open lands, En-gannim and its open lands—four cities. ³⁵And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its open lands, Abdon and its open lands, ³⁶Helkath and its open lands, Rehob and its open lands—four cities. ³⁷And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee and its open lands as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Hammoth-dor and its open lands, and Kartan and its open lands—three cities.

³⁸All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities and their open land.

³⁹And to the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, they gave Jokneam and its open lands, and Kartah and its open lands, ⁴⁰Dimnah and its open lands, Nahalal and its open lands—four cities.

⁴¹And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and its open lands, and Jahazah and its open lands, ⁴²Kedemoth and its open lands, and Mephaath and its open lands—four cities.

⁴⁶All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities and their open land. ⁴⁷These cities were every one with their open land around them. So it was to all these cities.

⁴⁸And Jehovah gave to Israel all the land which He swore to give to their fathers. And they possessed it, and lived in it.

⁴⁹And Jehovah gave them rest round about, according to all that He swore to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood before them. Jehovah delivered all their enemies into their hand.

⁵⁰Not any good thing which Jehovah had spoken to the house of Israel failed. All came to pass.

¹Then Joshua called for the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, ²and said to them, You have done all that which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you. And you have listened to my voice, to all that I have commanded you. ³You have not left your brothers these many days until today, and have kept the observance of the command of Jehovah your God. ⁴And now Jehovah your God has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them. And now you turn and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Jehovah has given to you beyond the Jordan. ⁵Only, be very much on guard to do the commands and the law which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁶And Joshua blessed them and sent them away. And they went to their tents.

⁷And to the half tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Bashan. And to its other half Joshua had given possession with their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. And also when Joshua had sent them away to their tents, then he blessed them. ⁸And he spoke to them, saying, You are returning to your tents with great treasures, and with very much livestock, with silver, and with gold, and with bronze, and with iron, and with much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers. ⁹And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh turned and left the sons of Israel from Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession in which they have possession, according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

¹⁰And when they came to the regions of the Jordan in the land of Canaan, then the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, an altar of grand appearance. ¹¹And the sons of Israel heard it said, Behold, the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar across from the land of Canaan, in the regions of the Jordan, at the border of the sons of Israel. ¹²And the sons of Israel heard, and all the company of the sons of Israel were assembled at Shiloh, to go up against them to war.

¹³And the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, ¹⁴and ten rulers with him, one ruler each for the house of a father, for all the tribes of Israel, and each of them a head of the house of their fathers, for the thousands of Israel. ¹⁵And they came to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and spoke with them, saying, ¹⁶So says all the company of Jehovah, What is this treachery with which the God of Israel was betrayed, to turn back today from after Jehovah, in that you built for yourself an altar so that you might rebel today against Jehovah?

¹⁷Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not been cleansed until this day? Yea, a plague came on the company of Jehovah; ¹⁸that you turn away today from following after Jehovah? And it shall be that today you rebel against Jehovah, and tomorrow He shall be angry with all the company of Israel. ¹⁹And surely, if the land of your possession is unclean, you may cross over to the land of the possession of Jehovah, there where the tabernacle of Jehovah dwells, and have possession among us. But do not rebel against Jehovah, and do not rebel against us, by building for yourselves an altar besides the altar of Jehovah our God. ²⁰Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a sin in the cursed thing, and was there not wrath on all the company of Israel? And he was not the only one to die in his iniquity.

²¹And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke with the heads of the thousands of Israel, ²²Jehovah is the God of gods; Jehovah is the God of gods! He knows, and Israel shall know if it is in rebellion, and if it is in treachery against Jehovah, you shall not save us alive today.

²³*If* we built an altar for ourselves to turn away from following after Jehovah, or to sacrifice on it burnt offering and food offering, or to offer on it sacrifices of peace, may Jehovah Himself require it.

²⁴But surely from anxiety, for a reason, we have done this, saying, In the future your sons shall speak to our sons, saying, What is to you and to Jehovah the God of Israel? ²⁵For Jehovah has put a border between you and us, O sons of Reuben, and sons of Gad: the Jordan. You have no portion in Jehovah! And your sons will cause our sons to fail, not fearing Jehovah.

²⁶And we said, Let us now prepare for ourselves, to build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice, ²⁷but it shall be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, to do the service of Jehovah before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your sons may not say to our sons in the future, You have no portion in Jehovah. ²⁸And we said, And it shall be, when they say to us, and to our generations hereafter, that we shall say, See the pattern of the altar of Jehovah, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice, but it is a witness between us and you. ²⁹Far be it from us to rebel against Jehovah, and to turn away today from following after Jehovah, to build an altar for burnt offering, for food offering, and for sacrifice, apart from the altar of Jehovah your God, which is before His tabernacle!

³⁰And Phinehas the priest, and the rulers of the congregation, and the heads of the thousands of Israel with him heard the words which the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the sons of Manasseh had spoken. And it was good in their eyes.

³¹And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Manasseh, Today we have known that Jehovah is among us, because you have not betrayed this treachery against Jehovah. Now you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of Jehovah.

³²And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the sons of Reuben, and from the sons of Gad out of the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought word back to them. ³³And the thing was good in the eyes of the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God and no more said to go up against them to war, to destroy the land which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living in.

³⁴And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad proclaimed regarding the altar, that it was a witness between us that Jehovah is God.

¹And it happened many days after Jehovah had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old, going on in days. ²And Joshua called for all Israel, for its elders, and for its heads, and for its judges, and for its officers, and said to them, I have become old, I have advanced in days; ³and you have seen all that Jehovah your God has done to all these nations because of you, for Jehovah your God was He who was fighting for you. ⁴Behold, I have caused to fall to you these nations that are left to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea, toward the setting of the sun. ⁵And Jehovah your God will thrust them out from before you, and will expel them from before you, and you shall possess their land, as Jehovah your God has spoken to you.

⁶And you shall be very strong to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so as not to turn aside from it to the right or to the left; ⁷so as not to go in among these nations, these who are left with you; and that you do not make mention of the name of their gods, nor shall you swear, nor shall you serve them, nor shall you bow yourselves to them. ⁸But you shall cling to Jehovah your God, as you have done until today. ⁹And Jehovah has expelled from before you great and mighty nations. And for you no one has stood before you until today.

¹⁰One man of you shall pursue a thousand; for Jehovah your God is He who is fighting for you, as He has spoken to you. ¹¹And you shall be very watchful for yourselves to love Jehovah your God. ¹²But if you at all turn away and cleave to the remnant of the nations, of those who are left to you, and intermarry with them, and go in to them, and they to you, ¹³know certainly that Jehovah your God shall not continue to expel these nations from before you, and they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which Jehovah your God has given you.

¹⁴And, behold, today I am going in the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and with all your soul that there has not failed one thing of all the good things which Jehovah your God has spoken concerning you; all of it has come to you; there has not one thing failed of it. ¹⁵And it shall be, as every good thing which Jehovah your God has spoken to you comes to you, so shall Jehovah bring on you every evil thing, until He destroys you from off this good land which Jehovah your God has given to you. ¹⁶When you transgress the covenant of Jehovah your God which He commanded you, and when you have gone and served other gods, and have bowed yourselves to them, then the anger of Jehovah shall burn against you; and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given to you.

¹And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for its heads, and for its judges, and for its officers. And they placed themselves before God. ²And Joshua said to all the people, So says Jehovah the God of Israel, Your fathers have in the past lived Beyond the River — Terah the father of Abraham and father of Nahor — and they served other gods. ³And I took your father Abraham from Beyond the River, and caused him to go through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave Isaac to him. ⁴And I gave Jacob and Esau to Isaac. And I gave Mount Seir to Esau, to possess it. And Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. ⁵And I sent Moses and Aaron and plagued Egypt, as I did in its midst. And afterward I brought you out. ⁶And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you went into the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and with horsemen, into the Sea of Reeds. ⁷And they cried to Jehovah, and He set thick darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them. And your eyes saw that which I have done in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness many days. ⁸And I brought you into the land of the Amorite who lived beyond the Jordan. And they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land. And I destroyed them before you. ⁹And Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, rose up and fought against Israel, and sent and called for Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. ¹⁰And I was not willing to listen to Balaam, and he greatly blessed you. And I delivered you out of his hand. ¹¹And you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the masters of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite and the Perizzite, and the Caananite, and the Hittite, and the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I gave them into your hand. ¹²And I sent the hornet before you, and it cast them out before you, two kings of the Amorite, not by the sword nor by your bow. ¹³And I have given you a land for which you have not labored, and cities which you have not built, and you live in them. You are eating of vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant.

¹⁴Now, then, fear Jehovah, and serve Him in sincerity and truth, and turn away from the gods which your fathers served Beyond the River, and in Egypt; and you serve Jehovah. ¹⁵And if it seems evil in your eyes to serve Jehovah, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve — whether the gods whom your fathers served Beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living — but as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.

¹⁶And the people replied and said, Far be it from us to forsake Jehovah, to serve other gods. ¹⁷For Jehovah our God is He who has brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, and who has done these great signs before our eyes, and has preserved us in all the way in which we have gone, and among all the people through whom we have passed. ¹⁸And Jehovah has cast out all the peoples, even the Amorite inhabiting the land before us. We also will serve Jehovah, for He is our God.

¹⁹And Joshua said to the people, You cannot serve Jehovah, for He is a holy God; He is a jealous God. He will not lift up from you your transgressions or your sins. ²⁰When you forsake Jehovah, and shall serve strange gods, then He will turn away and do evil to you, and consume you, after He has done good to you. ²¹And the people said to Joshua, No, but we will serve Jehovah. ²²And Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen Jehovah for yourselves, to serve Him — for they said, We are witnesses —and now turn away from the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart to Jehovah the God of Israel. ²⁴And the people said to Joshua, We will serve Jehovah our God, and we will listen to His voice. ²⁵And Joshua made a covenant with the people on that day, and laid on them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. ²⁶And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone and raised it up there under the oak by the sanctuary of Jehovah. ²⁷And Joshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us, for it has heard all the sayings of Jehovah which He has spoken with us. And it shall be against you for a witness, that you not lie against your God. ²⁸And Joshua sent the people away, each to his inheritance.

²⁹And it happened after these things, the servant of Jehovah, Joshua the son of Nun died, being a son of a hundred and ten.

³⁰And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the hills of Ephraim, on the north of the Hill of Gaash.

³¹And Israel served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders whose days were prolonged after Joshua, and who knew all the work of Jehovah which he did to Israel.

³³And Eleazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the hills of Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

¹And it happened after the death of Joshua, the sons of Israel inquired of Jehovah, saying, Who shall first go up for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them? ²And Jehovah said, Judah shall go up. Behold, I have given the land into his hand. ³And Judah said to his brother Simeon, Go up with me into my lot, and we shall fight against the Canaanites. And I also will go with you into your lot. And Simeon went with him. ⁴And Judah went up, and Jehovah delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. And they struck them in Bezek, ten thousand men. ⁵And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek, and fought against him, and struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. ⁶And Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. ⁷And Adoni-bezek said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to be gathering scraps under my table. As I have done, so God has repaid me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

⁸And the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and captured it, and struck it with the mouth of the sword, and set the city on fire. ⁹And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who inhabited the mountains, and the Negeb, and the Lowlands. ¹⁰And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron—and the name of Hebron was formerly Kirjath-arba—and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi. ¹¹And from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir—and the name of Debir formerly was Kirjath-sepher. ¹²And Caleb said, He who strikes Kirjath-sepher and captures it, I shall give my daughter Achsah to him for a wife. ¹³And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, the younger one, captured it. And he gave his daughter Achsah to him for a wife. ¹⁴And it happened as she came, she persuaded him to ask a field from her father. And she alighted from the ass. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire?

¹⁵And she said to him, Give a blessing to me. Since you have given me the land of the Negeb, also you shall give springs of water to me. And Caleb gave the upper springs and the lower springs to her.

¹⁶And the sons of the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses, had gone up out of the city of palms with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad. And they went and lived with the people.

¹⁷And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they struck the Canaanites inhabiting Zephath, and destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.

¹⁸And Judah captured Gaza and its border, and Askalon and its border, and Ekron and its border. ¹⁹And Jehovah was with Judah, and he occupied the hills, but did not expel the inhabitants of the valley; for they had chariots of iron.

²⁰And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. And He expelled the three sons of Anak from there.

²¹And the sons of Benjamin did not expel the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. And the Jebusites live with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem until this day.

²²And the house of Joseph went up; they also against Bethel. And Jehovah was with them. ²³And the house of Joseph sent to spy around Bethel—and the name of the city formerly was Luz. ²⁴And the guards saw a man coming out from the city, and said to him, Please show us the entrance of the city, and we will deal with you with mercy. ²⁵And he showed them the entrance of the city. And they struck the city with the mouth of the sword; and they sent away the man and all his family. ²⁶And the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called its name Luz; it is its name to this day.

²⁷And Manasseh had not occupied Bethshean and its daughter villages; or Taanach and its daughter villages; nor struck the inhabitants of Dor and its daughter villages; or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its daughter villages; or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its daughter villages. For the Canaanites desired to live in that land.

²⁸But when Israel became strong, it happened that they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not completely expel it.

²⁹And Ephraim did not expel the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, and the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.

³⁰Zebulun did not expel the inhabitants of Kitron, and the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and they became burden-bearers.

³¹And Asher did not expel the inhabitants of Accho, and the inhabitants of Sidon, and Ahlab, and Achzib, and Helbah, and Aphik, and Rehob. ³²And the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, for they did not expel them.

³³Naphtali did not expel the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, and the inhabitants of Beth-anath, and they lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. But the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became burden-bearers to them.

³⁴And the Amorites pressed the sons of Dan into the hills; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley. ³⁵But the Amorites were determined to live in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became burden-bearers. ³⁶And the border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock and upward.

¹And the Angel of Jehovah came up from Gilgal to The Place of Weeping, and said, I made you come up out of Egypt and brought you into the land which I had sworn to your fathers, and said, I will not break My covenant with you forever. ²And you, you shall cut no covenant with the inhabitants of this land. You shall break down their altars. Yet you have not listened to My voice. What is this you have done?

³And I also have said, I shall not drive them out before you, and they shall become adversaries to you; and their gods shall become a snare to you. ⁴And it happened when the Angel of Jehovah spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people lifted up their voice and wept. ⁵And they called the name of that place

The Place of Weeping, and sacrificed to Jehovah there.

⁶And Joshua sent the people away, and the sons of Israel each went to his inheritance, to possess the land. ⁷And the people served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who prolonged their days after Joshua, who saw all the great work of Jehovah which He had done for Israel. ⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, being a son of a hundred and ten years. ⁹And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres, in the hills of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash. ¹⁰And also all that generation was gathered to their fathers, and another generation arose after them who had not known Jehovah, nor yet the works which He had done for Israel.

¹⁴And the anger of Jehovah glowed against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of plunderers; and they plundered them. And He sold them into the hand of their enemies all around, and they were not able to stand before their enemies any longer. ¹⁵Wherever they went, the hand of Jehovah was against them for evil, as Jehovah had spoken, and as Jehovah had sworn to them. And it distressed them very much. ¹⁶And Jehovah raised up judges, and they saved them from the hand of their plunderers. ¹⁷But they also did not listen to their judges, but went whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves to them. They quickly turned aside out of the way in which their fathers walked to obey the commands of Jehovah. They did not do so. ¹⁸And when Jehovah raised up judges to them, then Jehovah was with the judge, and rescued them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For Jehovah took pity because of their groaning before their oppressors, and those that crushed them. ¹⁹And at the death of the judge, it happened that they would turn and act more corruptly than their fathers, to go after other gods, to serve them, and to bow themselves to them. And they did not fall away from their own doings, and from their stubborn way. ²⁰And the anger of Jehovah glowed against Israel. And He said, Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice, ²¹I also from now on will not drive out any from before them, of the nations that Joshua left when he died; ²²so that by them I may test Israel, whether they are keeping the way of Jehovah, to go in it, as their fathers kept it, or not. ²³And Jehovah left those nations, without driving them out quickly. And He did not deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

¹And these are the nations which Jehovah left in order to test Israel by them, all who did not know all the wars of Canaan; ²only that the generations of the sons of Israel might know, to teach them war, only those who did not before know them: ³five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that lived in Mount Lebanon from Mount Baal-hermon to the entering of Hamath. ⁴And they existed to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commands of Jehovah, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵And the sons of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ⁶And they took their daughters to them for wives, and gave their daughters to their sons; and they served their gods. ⁷And the sons of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and forgot Jehovah their God, and served the Baals and the Asherahs. ⁸And the anger of Jehovah glowed against Israel. And He gave them over into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim, and the sons of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years. ⁹And when the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, Jehovah raised up a deliverer to the sons of Israel, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them. ¹⁰And the Spirit of Jehovah was put on him, and he judged Israel. And he went out to war, and Jehovah gave Chushan-rishathaim the king of Mesopotamia into his hand. And his hand had power against Chushan-rishathaim. ¹¹And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

¹²And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of Jehovah. And Jehovah made Eglon the king of Moab strong against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of Jehovah. ¹³And he gathered to him the sons of Ammon and Amalek, and went and struck Israel. And they possessed the city of palm trees. ¹⁴And the sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

¹⁵And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up a deliverer to them, Ehud the son of Gera, a son of the Benjamite, a man with his right hand impeded. And the sons of Israel sent a present by his hand to Eglon the king of Moab. ¹⁶And Ehud made a sword for himself, and it had two edges, a cubit in length. And he girded it under his long robe, on his right thigh. ¹⁷And he brought the present to Eglon the king of Moab; and Eglon was a very fat man. ¹⁸And it happened, when he had finished offering the present, he sent away the people, the bearers of the present. ¹⁹And he himself turned back from the carved images at Gilgal, and said, I have a secret word for you, O king. And he said, Be silent! And all those standing beside him went out from him. ²⁰And Ehud came to him. And he was sitting by himself in the cool roof room which he had. And Ehud said, I have a message from God to you. And he rose out of his seat. ²¹And Ehud put out his left hand and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into Eglon's belly. ²²And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the blade; for he did not draw the sword out of his belly. And it came out behind. ²³Then Ehud went out to the porch, and shut the doors of the roof room on him, and locked them. ²⁴And when he had gone out, his servants came. And they looked, and, behold, the doors of the roof room were locked. And they said, Surely he is covering his feet in the cool roof room. ²⁵And they waited until they were ashamed. And, behold, he did not open the doors of the room. So they took the key and opened them. And, behold, their master had fallen down to the earth dead.

²⁶And Ehud escaped while they waited. And he had passed by the images, and had slipped away to Seirath. ²⁷And it happened, when he had come, he blew a horn in the hills of Ephraim. And the sons of Israel came down with him from the hills, and he before them. ²⁸And he said to them, Follow me, for Jehovah has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites. And they did not allow a man to pass over. ²⁹And they struck about ten thousand men of Moab at that time, every lusty man, all mighty men. And not a man escaped. ³⁰So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.

³¹And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad. And he also delivered Israel.

¹And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of Jehovah when Ehud was dead. ²And Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin the king of Canaan, who ruled in Hazor. And his army commander was Sisera; and he lived in Harosheth of the nations. ³And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron. And he mightily oppressed the sons of Israel twenty years. ⁴And Deborah the wife of Lapidoth, a woman prophetess, was judging Israel at that time. ⁵And she lived under the palm tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel, in the hills of Ephraim. And the sons of Israel went up to her for judgment. ⁶And she sent and called for Barak, the son of Abinoam, out of Kadesh in Naphtali, and said to him, Has not Jehovah the God of Israel commanded? Go and draw toward Mount Tabor, and take ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali, and of the sons of Zebulun with you. ⁷And I will draw to you at the Kishon River Sisera the army commander of Jabin, and his chariots, and his multitude, and shall give him into your hands. ⁸And Barak said to her, If you go with me, then I will go. And if you will not go with me, I will not go. ⁹And she said, I will certainly go with you; only, your glory shall surely not be on the way which you are going, for Jehovah shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah rose up and went with Barak to Kadesh.

¹⁴And Deborah said to Barak, Rise up, for this is the day in which Jehovah has given Sisera into your hand. Has not Jehovah gone out before you? And Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. ¹⁵And Jehovah routed Sisera, and all the chariots, and all the army, by the mouth of the sword, before Barak. And Sisera came down from the chariot and fled on his feet. ¹⁶And Barak pursued the chariots and went after the army, to Harosheth of the nations. And all the army of Sisera fell by the mouth of the sword—there was not even one left. ¹⁷And Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. For there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, Turn in, my lord; turn in to me; do not fear. And he turned in to her into the tent; and she covered him with a rug. ¹⁹And he said to her, Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a skin of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. ²⁰And he said to her, Stand at the door of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes in and asks you, and says, Is there a man here? Then you shall say, There is not. ²¹And Jael the wife of Heber took a tent-peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went to him quietly. And she drove the peg into his temple, and she beat it into the ground. And he had been fast asleep, and faint; and he died. ²²And, behold, as Barak followed Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking. And he came in to her, and, behold, Sisera had fallen dead with the peg in his temple. ²³And on that day God humbled Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel. ²⁴And the hand of the sons of Israel went on, going on and pressing hard on Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had cut off Jabin the king of Canaan.

¹And Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

For the loosing of locks of hair in Israel; for the willing offering of the people, bless Jehovah! ²Listen, O kings; give ear, O princes. I, even I, will sing to Jehovah; I will sing praise to Jehovah the God of Israel. ³O Jehovah, when You went forth out of Seir, when You marched out of the fields of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped. Yea, the clouds dropped water. ⁴The mountains quaked before the face of Jehovah, this Sinai quaked from before Jehovah the God of Israel. ⁵In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways ceased, and those going in the paths traveled in by-ways. ⁶The leaders ceased in Israel; they ceased until I, Deborah, arose; I arose as a mother in Israel. ⁷They chose new gods; then war was at the gates! Neither a shield nor a spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel. ⁸My heart was toward the lawgivers of Israel, who freely offered themselves among the people; bless Jehovah! ⁹You that ride on white asses, you that sit on rich carpets, and you travelers on the way, sing out! ¹⁰*Louder* than the voice of the dividers between the watering places, there they shall tell of the righteous acts of Jehovah, the righteous acts of His leaders in Israel. Then the people of Jehovah went down to the gates.

awake, utter a song! Rise, Barak, and lead your captives captive, son of Abinoam. ¹³Then He caused me to tread on the remnant of the noble ones of the people; Jehovah trod for me among the warriors. ¹⁴Out of Ephraim they came, those whose root was against Amalek. After you, Benjamin, among your peoples; and out of Machir came down commanders; and out of Zebulun the ones that hold the staff of the scribe. ¹⁵And my commanders in Issachar were with Deborah; as was Issachar, so was Barak. They were sent into the valley at his feet. Among the divisions of Reuben resolves of heart were great! ¹⁶Why did you sit between the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of flocks? At the divisions of Reuben searchings of heart were great! ¹⁷Gilead remained beyond the Jordan; and why did Dan stay in ships? Asher sat at the shore by the water, and remained by his havens. ¹⁸Zebulun, a people who despised his life, even to death; also Naphtali on the high places of the field. ¹⁹Kings came; they fought; then the kings of Canaan fought in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of silver. ²⁰The stars fought from the heavens; from their courses they fought with Sisera. ²¹The Kishon River swept them away, the ancient river, the Kishon river. My soul, You trampled in strength. ²²Then did the hooves of horses beat, from the galloping, galloping of his mighty stallions. ²³Curse Meroz, said the Angel of Jehovah; curse its inhabitants bitterly, because they did not come to the help of Jehovah, to the help of Jehovah against the warriors.

²⁴Most blessed among women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; she is blessed among women in the tent. ²⁵He asked for water; she gave him milk; in a lordly bowl she brought curd. ²⁶She put her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and she hammered Sisera; she smashed his head; she struck through and pierced his temple. ²⁷Between her feet he bowed; he fell; he lay down. Between her feet he bowed; he fell! Where he bowed, there he fell down ruined. ²⁸Through the window she looked out; yea, she cried out, the mother of Sisera, through the lattice; Why does his chariot delay to come? Why have the steps of his chariot tarried? ²⁹The wise ones of her princesses answered her; yea, she returned her words to herself: ³⁰Do they not find and divide the plunder? A womb, two wombs to each man's head; a plunder of dyed garments to Sisera, a plunder of embroidered dyed garments; two embroidered dyed garments for the necks of the plunder? ³¹So all Your enemies shall perish, O Jehovah, and those who love Him shall be as the sun when it goes forth in its might.

And the land had rest forty years.

¹And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of Jehovah, and Jehovah gave them into the hand of Midian seven years. ²And the hand of Midian was strong against Israel. And the sons of Israel made dens for themselves before the faces of Midian, in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds. ³And it happened after Israel had sown crops, Midian, and Amalek, and the sons of the east came; and they came against them, ⁴and camped against them, and destroyed the produce of the land until you enter Gaza. And they left no food in Israel, either sheep, or ox, or ass. ⁵For they came up with their livestock, and with their tents. They came in like locusts for number, and there was no number to them, to their camels. And they came into the land to destroy it. ⁶And Israel was brought very low before Midian. And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah.

¹¹And the Angel of Jehovah came and sat under the oak which is in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. And his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the eyes of Midian. ¹²And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him, and said to him, Jehovah is with you, mighty warrior. ¹³And Gideon said to him, O my Lord, if Jehovah is with us, then why has all this happened to us? And where are all His wonders which our fathers recounted to us, saying, Did not Jehovah bring us up out of Egypt? And now Jehovah has left us, and has given us into the hands of Midian. ¹⁴And Jehovah turned to him and said, Go in this strength of yours, and you shall deliver Israel out of the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you? ¹⁵And he said to Him, O my Lord, with what shall I deliver Israel? Behold, my family is the weakest in Manasseh, and I the least in my father's house. ¹⁶And Jehovah said to him, Because I am with you, you shall strike Midian as one man.

¹⁷And he said to Him, Please, if I have found grace in Your eyes, then You shall give me a sign that You are speaking with me. ¹⁸Please do not move from here until I come to You and bring my food offering and lay it before You. And He said, I will stay until you come back. ¹⁹And Gideon went in and prepared a kid of the goats, and unleavened bread of an ephah of flour. He put the flesh in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot. And he brought it out to Him, under the oak, and offered it. ²⁰And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened bread and place them on this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. ²¹And the Angel of Jehovah put forth the end of the staff in His hand and touched the flesh and the unleavened bread. And the fire rose up out of the rock and burned up the flesh and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of Jehovah departed out of his sight. ²²And Gideon saw that He was the Angel of Jehovah. And Gideon said, Alas, Lord Jehovah! Because I have seen the Angel of Jehovah face to face! ²³And Jehovah said to him, Peace to you, fear not. You shall not die. ²⁴And Gideon built an altar to Jehovah there, and called it Peace of Jehovah. It is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites until today.

²⁵And it happened on that night, Jehovah said to him, Take your father's bullock, and the second bullock of seven years; and you shall throw down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and you shall cut down the pillar beside it. ²⁶And you shall build an altar to Jehovah your God on the top of this stronghold, in an orderly way, and shall take the second bullock and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the pillar which you have cut down. ²⁷And Gideon took ten men from his servants and did as Jehovah had spoken to him. And it happened, since he feared his father's house and the men of the city, to do it by day, that he did it by night. ²⁸And the men of the city rose early in the morning. And, behold, the altar of Baal had been smashed, and the pillar beside it had been cut down. And the second bullock had been offered on the altar which was built. ²⁹And they each said to his neighbor, Who has done this thing? And they asked and sought. And they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing. ³⁰And the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son, and he shall die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the pillar beside it. ³¹And Joash said to all that stood against him, You, will you contend for Baal? Or you, will you save him? He who contends for him shall be killed by the morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because one has smashed his altar. ³²And on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against him, because he has smashed his altar.

³³And all Midian and Amalek, and the sons of the east, were gathered together, and crossed over, and camped in the valley of Jezreel. ³⁴And the Spirit of Jehovah clothed Gideon with Himself, and he blew with a trumpet. And the Abiezrites were called after him. ³⁵And he sent messengers to all Manasseh, and it also was called after him. And he sent messengers to Asher and Zebulun, and to Naphtali. And they came up to meet them.

³⁶And Gideon said to God, If You are to deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken, ³⁷behold, I am placing the fleece of wool on the grain-floor; if the dew is on the fleece only, and dryness on all the ground, then I will know that You will deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken. ³⁸And it was so. And he rose early on the next day and wrung the fleece, and drained dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. ³⁹And Gideon said to God, Let not Your anger glow against me, and I shall speak only this time. Please let me try only this time with the fleece; please let there be dryness on the fleece alone; and let there be dew on all the ground. ⁴⁰And God did so on that night, and there was dryness only on the fleece, and there was dew on all the ground.

¹And Jerubbaal — he is Gideon — rose early, and all the people with him. And they camped by the spring of Harod, and the army of Midian was north of him on Mount Moreh, in the valley. ²And Jehovah said to Gideon, The people with you are too many for Me to give Midian into their hands, that Israel not glorify itself against Me, saying, My hand has delivered me. ³And now then cry in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and leave Mount Gilead. And twenty-two thousand of the people returned. And ten thousand were left. ⁴And Jehovah said to Gideon, The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will refine them for you there. And it shall be, he of whom I say to you, this one shall go with you, he shall go with you. And any of whom I shall say to you, This one shall not go with you, he shall not go. ⁵And he brought the people down to the water. And Jehovah said to Gideon, Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set him apart. And everyone who bows on his knees to drink, set apart. ⁶And the number of those lapping with their hand to their mouth were three hundred men. And all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water. ⁷And Jehovah said to Gideon, I will deliver you by the three hundred men who lapped, and shall give Midian into your hand. And all the people shall go, each to his place.

⁸And the people took the food in their hand, and their trumpets, and he sent away every man of Israel, each to his tent. But he kept hold on the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹And it happened on that night, Jehovah said to him, Rise up, go down to the camp, for I have given it into your hand. ¹⁰And if you are afraid to go down, you and your young man Purah go down to the camp. ¹¹And you shall hear what they say. And afterward your hand shall be made stronger, and you shall go down against the army. And he went down, he and his young man Purah, to the edge of the battle alignment in the camp. ¹²And Midian and Amalek, and all the sons of the east, were lying in the valley, as the locusts for multitude. And there was no number of their camels, being as the sand on the bank of the sea for multitude.

¹³And Gideon came; and, behold, a man was telling a dream to his companion. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream. And, behold, a cake of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian. And it came to the tent and struck it, and it fell, and turned it upside down; and the tent fell down. ¹⁴And his companion answered and said, This is nothing but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. God has given Midian and all the army into his hand.

¹⁵And it happened when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, he worshiped. And he returned to the army of Israel and said, Rise up, for Jehovah has given the army of Midian into your hand. ¹⁶And he divided the three hundred men into three companies. And he put a ram's horn in the hand of all of them, and empty jars, and torches inside the jars. ¹⁷And he said to them, Look at me, and do this; even behold, I am coming to the edge of the camp. And it shall be, as I do, so you shall do. ¹⁸And I shall blow with a ram's horn, I and all who are with me. And you shall blow with the ram's horns, you also all around the camp, and shall shout, For Jehovah and for Gideon!

¹⁹And Gideon came, and the hundred men with him, to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch—and they had but newly set the watch. And they blew with the ram's horns, and shattered the jars in their hand. ²⁰And the three companies blew with their ram's horns, and broke the jars, and held the torches in their left hand; and in their right hand the ram's horns, and they cried out, A sword for Jehovah and for Gideon! ²¹And they each one stood in his place, all around the army. And all the army ran, and they shouted, and they fled. ²²And the three hundred blew the ram's horns, and Jehovah set a man's sword against his companion even in all the army. And the army fled to Beth-shittah, at Zererath, to the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.

²³And the men of Israel were called from Naphtali, and from Asher, and from all Manasseh, and chased Midian.

²⁴And Gideon had sent messengers to all the hills of Ephraim, saying, Come down to meet Midian, and capture the waters before them as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. And every man of Ephraim was called up, and they captured the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. ²⁵And they captured the two rulers of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And Oreb was slain at the rock of Oreb; and they killed Zeeb at the winevat of Zeeb. And they pursued to Midian. And they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

¹And the men of Ephraim said to him, What is this thing you have done to us, not to call us when you went out to fight against Midian? And they contended with him sharply. ²And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison to you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? ³God has given the rulers of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hand. And what was I able to do like you? Then their spirit was abated toward him, when he said this word.

⁴And Gideon came to the Jordan, he crossing over, and three hundred who were with him, being weary, yet pursuing. ⁵And he said to the men of Succoth, Please give loaves of bread to the people at my feet, for they are weary; and I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian. ⁶And the rulers of Succoth said, Is the palm of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army? ⁷And Gideon said, Because of this, when Jehovah has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I shall thresh your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and with briers. ⁸And he went up from there to Penuel, and spoke to them in this same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. ⁹And he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, When I come back in peace, I will break down this tower.

¹³And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle, at the ascent of Mount Heres. ¹⁴And he captured a young man of the men of Succoth, and questioned him; and he wrote out to him the rulers of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. ¹⁵And he came in to the men of Succoth, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, Is the palm of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand that we should give bread to your weary men? ¹⁶And he took the elders of the city, and the thorns of the wilderness, and the briers, and taught the men of Succoth with them. ¹⁷And he broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

¹⁸And he said to Zebah and to Zalmunna, How were the men whom you killed in Tabor? And they said, As you are, so they; each one as a king's son in appearance. ¹⁹And he said, They were my brothers, sons of my mother. As Jehovah lives, if you had kept them alive, I would not have killed you. ²⁰And he said to his firstborn, Jether, Rise up, kill them. But the young man did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, for he was still a youth. ²¹And Zebah and Zalmunna said, You rise up and fall on us, for as the man, so is his might. And Gideon rose up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the moon crescents which were on the necks of their camels.

²²And the men of Israel said to Gideon, rule over us, both you and your son, and your son's son, for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian. ²³And Gideon said to them, I shall not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; Jehovah shall rule over you.

²⁴And Gideon said to them, Let me ask of you a request, that each man give to me a ring from his plunder; for they had gold rings, because they were Ishmaelites.

²⁵And they said, We will certainly give. And they spread out a garment and each threw a ring from their plunder there.

²⁶And the weight of the rings of gold which he asked was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, apart from the ornaments, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian; also apart from the necklaces that were on the necks of their camels. ²⁷And Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah. And all Israel went whoring after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his house. ²⁸And Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads any more.

And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

²⁹And Jerubbaal the son of Joash departed and lived in his own house. ³⁰And seventy sons were born to Gideon, coming out of his loins; for he had many wives. ³¹And his concubine in Shechem bore a son to him, she also; and he called his name Abimelech. ³²And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the burial place of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

³³And it happened, when Gideon was dead, the sons of Israel rebelled and went whoring after the Baals, and appointed Baal-berith for a god for themselves.

³⁴And the sons of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies all around; ¹⁵nor did they act with kindness on the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, according to all the good which he did with Israel.

¹And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, ²Please speak in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, Which is best for you, seventy men ruling over you, all the sons of Jerubbaal, or one man ruling over you? And you should remember that I am your bone and your flesh. ³And his mother's brothers spoke all these words about him in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, and their heart inclined after Abimelech. For they said, He is our brother. ⁴And they gave to him seventy silverlings out of the house of Baal-berith. And Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men with them; and they went after him. ⁵And he went into his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men on one stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, was left; for he had hidden.

⁶And all the leaders of Shechem were gathered together, and all the house of Millo. And they came and caused Abimelech to reign as king at the oak of the outpost which is in Shechem. ⁷And they told Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. And he lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them, Listen to me, O leaders of Shechem, and God shall listen to you. ⁸The trees went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive, Reign over us. ⁹And the olive said to them, Should I cease from my fatness, by which they honor God and man, and go to hold sway over the trees? ¹⁰And the trees said to the fig, You come, reign over us. ¹¹And the fig said to them, Should I cease from my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to hold sway over the trees? ¹²And the trees said to the vine, You come, reign over us. ¹³And the vine said to them, Should I cease from my new wine, which rejoices god and men, and go to hold sway over the trees?

¹⁴And all the trees said to the bramble-bush, You come, reign over us. ¹⁵And the bramblebush said to the trees, If you truly anoint me king over you, come seek refuge in my shade. And if not, let fire come out of the bramblebush and burn up the cedars of Lebanon. ¹⁶And now if you have acted in truth and integrity when you made Abimelech king; and if you have done well with Jerubbaal and his house; and you have done to him as his hands did, ¹⁷*in* which my father fought for you, and cast aside his life, and delivered you from the hand of Midian; ¹⁸and you have today risen against my father's house and have killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech the son of his slavegirl king over the leaders of Shechem, because he is your brother — ¹⁹yea, if in truth and in integrity you have acted toward Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech; and he shall rejoice, he and you. ²⁰If not, fire shall come out from Abimelech and consume the leaders of Shechem and the house of Millo. And fire shall come out from the leaders of Shechem and from the house of Millo and consume Abimelech.

²¹And Jotham hurried and fled, and went to Beer and lived there, away from the face of his brother Abimelech.

²²And Abimelech ruled over Israel three years. ²³And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech; ²⁴that the violence against Jerubbaal's seventy sons, even their blood, might be put on their brother Abimelech who killed them, and on the leaders of Shechem, who made his hands strong to kill his brothers. ²⁵And the leaders of Shechem set men in ambush at the tops of the mountains; and they robbed all who passed by them on the highway. And it was told to Abimelech. ²⁶And Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers came. And they passed on into Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem trusted in him. ²⁷And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards, and trod out, and made a festival, and went into the house of their god and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. ²⁸And

Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his commander? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem! And why should we serve him?

²⁹And who will give this people in my hand? Then I would remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Multiply your army and come out.

³⁰And Zebul, the leader of the city, heard the words of Gaal, the son of Ebed; and his anger glowed. ³¹And craftily he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, Behold, Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers have come to Shechem. And, behold, they are fortifying the city against you. ³²And now rise up by night, you and the people with you, and lie in wait in the field. ³³And it shall be, in the morning, about the sun rise, you shall rise early and charge against the city. And, behold, he and the people with him will come out to you; and you shall do to him as you find your hand able to do.

³⁴And Abimelech rose up by night, and all the people with him; and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

³⁵And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and stood at the opening of the gate of the city. And Abimelech and the people with him rose up from the ambush. ³⁶And Gaal saw the people, and he said to Zebul, Behold, people are coming down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains like men. ³⁷And Gaal spoke again and said, Behold, people are coming down from the high part of the land, and one company is coming by the way of the Sorcerers' Oak. ³⁸And Zebul said to him, Now where is your mouth with which you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is this not the people you despised? Now go out now and fight against it. ³⁹And Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought against Abimelech. ⁴⁰And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. And many fell down wounded, to the opening of the gate.

⁴¹And Abimelech remained in Arumah. And Zebul threw Gaal and his brothers out from living in Shechem. ⁴²And it happened on the next day, the people went out to the field; and they told Abimelech. ⁴³And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in a field and watched. And, behold, the people were coming out from the city. And he rose up against them and struck them. ⁴⁴And Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward and stood in the opening of the gate of the city. And the two companies charged against all who were in the field, and struck them. ⁴⁵And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and captured the city. And he killed the people in it; and he broke down the city and sowed it with salt.

⁴⁶And all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard, and went into the high place of the house of the god Berith. ⁴⁷And it was told to Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem had gathered. ⁴⁸And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him. And Abimelech took the axes in his hand and cut off a bough of the trees, and lifted it up, and set it on his shoulder. And he said to the people with him, You have seen what I have done; you hasten and do the same. ⁴⁹And all the people also, each man, cut down his bough, and went after Abimelech, and set them at the stronghold, and kindled the stronghold with fire. And all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰And Abimelech went to Thebez and camped against Thebez, and captured it. ⁵¹And a strong tower was in the middle of the city. And all the leaders of the city, and all the men and women fled there. And they shut it behind them, and went up on the roof of the tower. ⁵²And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it. And he drew near to the door of the tower in order to burn it with fire.

⁵³And a certain woman threw a piece of a riding millstone on Abimelech's head, and crushed his skull. ⁵⁴And he quickly called to the young man bearing his weapons, and said to him, Draw your sword and put me to death, that they not say of me, A woman killed him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

⁵⁵And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, then each one went to his place. ⁵⁶And God returned the evil of Abimelech which he did to his father, to kill his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷And all the evil of the men of Shechem God turned back on their head. And the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came on them.

¹And after Abimelech, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, rose up to save Israel. And he lived in Shamir, in the hills of Ephraim. ²And he judged Israel twenty-three years. And he died and was buried in Shamir.

³And after him Jair, a Gileadite, rose up. And he judged Israel twenty-two years. ⁴And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts. And they had thirty cities, which are called the Towns of Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. ⁵And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

⁶And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah again, and served the Baals, and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. And they forsook Jehovah and did not serve Him. ⁷And the anger of Jehovah glowed against Israel. And He sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hand of the sons of Ammon. ⁸And they crushed and oppressed the sons of Israel in that year, for eighteen years, all the sons of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. ⁹And the sons of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim. And Israel was greatly distressed.

¹⁰And the sons of Israel cried to Jehovah, saying, We have sinned against You, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals. ¹¹And Jehovah said to the sons of Israel, Did I not save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines? ¹²And the Sidonians, and Amalek, and Maon have oppressed you, and you cried to Me, and I saved you out of their hand. ¹³Yet you have forsaken Me, and served other gods; therefore, I did not save you again. ¹⁴Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress. ¹⁵And the sons of Israel said to Jehovah, We have sinned. Do to us whatever may be good in Your eyes; only please deliver us this day. ¹⁶And they removed the gods of the alien from among them, and served Jehovah. And His soul was grieved with the misery of Israel. ¹⁷And the sons of Ammon were called together, and camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel were gathered, and camped in Mizpeh. ¹⁸And the people said, The chief men of Gilead, each man to his neighbor, Who will be the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall be head over all the people of Gilead.

¹And Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior. And he was the son of a harlot woman; and Gilead fathered Jephthah. ²And the wife of Gilead bore sons to him. And the sons of the wife grew up, and they threw Jephthah out, and said to him, You shall not inherit in the house of your father, for you are the son of another woman. ³And Jephthah fled from the face of his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob. And worthless men were gathered to Jephthah, and went out with him.

⁴And it happened after some time, the sons of Ammon fought with Israel. ⁵And it happened when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob. ⁶And they said to Jephthah, Come, and you shall be our commander, that we may fight against the sons of Ammon. ⁷And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Have you not hated me? Yea, you threw me out from my father's house. Why have you come to me when you are in distress? ⁸And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, For this reason we have come back to you now; and you shall go with us and fight against the sons of Ammon. And you shall be our head, to all the people of Gilead. ⁹And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you take me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and Jehovah gives them up before me, shall I be your head? ¹⁰And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Jehovah shall be witness between us; surely we will do according to your word. ¹¹And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people appointed him head over them, and as commander. And Jephthah spoke all his words before Jehovah in Mizpeh.

¹²And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you have come in to me to fight in my land? ¹³And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took my land when he came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. And now, restore them in peace. ¹⁴And Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, ¹⁵and said to him, So says Jephthah, Israel did not take the land of Moab, and the land of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁶For when they came up out of Egypt, Israel went in the wilderness to the Sea of Reeds, and came in at Kadesh. ¹⁷And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Please let me pass on through your land, and the king of Edom did not listen. And Israel sent also to the king of Moab, and he was not willing. And Israel remained in Kadesh. ¹⁸And he went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came in at the rising of the sun to the land of Moab. And they camped beyond Arnon, and did not come into the border of Moab, for Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹And Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, Please let us pass on through your land, to my place. ²⁰And Sihon did not trust Israel to pass on through his border. And Sihon gathered all his people and they camped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel. ²¹And Jehovah the God of Israel gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. And Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that land. ²²And they took possession of all the border of the Amorites from Arnon, and to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness, and to the Jordan. ²³And now, Jehovah the God of Israel has expelled the Amorite from before His people Israel. And would you possess it? ²⁴Whatever Chemosh your god causes you to possess, do you not possess it? And all that which Jehovah our God has expelled from before us, we will possess! ²⁵And now, are you at all any better than Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he indeed ever strive with Israel? Did he ever fight against them? ²⁶When Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and in its towns, in all the cities which were by the sides of Arnon three hundred years, then why have you not delivered them in that time? ²⁷So I have not sinned against you, and you are doing me wrong to fight against me. Jehovah the Judge shall judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.

²⁸And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him. ²⁹And the Spirit of Jehovah was on Jephthah. And he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed on to the sons of Ammon. ³⁰And Jephthah vowed a vow to Jehovah, and said, If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, ³¹then it shall be that anything which comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall belong to Jehovah; and I will offer it instead of a burnt offering.

³²And Jephthah passed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them. And Jehovah delivered them into his hand. ³³And he struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to the meadow of the vineyards, a very great destruction. And the sons of Ammon were humbled before the sons of Israel.

³⁴And Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house. And, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels, and with choruses. And she only, she alone; there was no other son or daughter to him. ³⁵And it happened when he saw her, he tore his garments, and said, Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those making me low.

And surely I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I am not able to take it back. ³⁶And she said to him, My father, you have opened your mouth to Jehovah. Do to me whatever has gone out of your mouth, since Jehovah has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, on the sons of Ammon. ³⁷And she said to her father, Let this thing be done to me. Leave me alone two months, and let me go and go down on the mountains. And I will weep for my virginity, my friends and I. ³⁸And he said, Go. And he sent her away two months. And she went, she and her friends. And she wept for her virginity on the mountains. ³⁹And it happened at the end of two months, she returned to her father. And he did to her his vow which he had vowed. And she never knew a man. And it is a fixed custom in Israel, ⁴⁰from days to days, the daughters of Israel go to tell again of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

¹And the men of Ephraim were called together, and went northward, and said to Jephthah, Why have you passed over to fight against the sons of Ammon, and you have not called on us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire. ²And Jephthah said to them, I have been a man of war, my people and I, having great strife with the sons of Ammon. And I called you, and you did not save me out of their hands. ³And seeing that you did not save us, I put my life in my hand and passed over against the Ammonites, and Jehovah delivered them into my hand. And why have you come up to me today to fight with me? ⁴And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You Gileadites are fugitives from Ephraim, in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh. ⁵And Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan before Ephraim. And it happened when the fugitives from Ephraim said, Let me pass over, then the men of Gilead said to him, You are an Ephraimite. And he said, No. ⁶And they said to him, Please say Shibboleth. And he said, Sibboleth, and not could frame to speak so. And they would seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. And at that time forty-two thousand of Ephraim fell.

⁷And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead.

⁸And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. ⁹And he had thirty sons. And he sent thirty daughters abroad, and he brought thirty daughters in from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. ¹⁰And Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

¹³And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged Israel. ¹⁴And he had forty sons, and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy colts; and he judged Israel eight years. ¹⁵And Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, died, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the hills of the Amalekites.

¹And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of Jehovah, and Jehovah gave them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

²And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, and his name was Manoah. And his wife was barren, and had not borne. ³And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to the woman, and said to her, Behold now, you are barren and have not borne. But you shall conceive and bear a son. ⁴And now take heed, and please do not drink wine or fermented drink; and do not eat any unclean thing. ⁵For, behold, you are pregnant and bearing a son. And a razor shall not go on his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb. And he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

⁶And the woman came and spoke to her husband, saying, A Man of God has come to me, and His appearance was like the appearance of the Angel of God, very terrifying. And I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name. ⁷And He said to me, Behold, you are pregnant and will bear a son. And now do not drink wine or fermented drink, and do not eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb, until the day of his death.

⁸Then Manoah prayed to Jehovah, and said, O my Lord, the Man of God whom You sent, please let Him come again to us and direct us what we shall do to the boy being born. ⁹And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came again to the woman. And she was sitting in a field; and her husband Manoah was not with her. ¹⁰And the woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, Behold, He has appeared to me, the Man who came to me that day.

¹¹And Manoah rose up and went after his wife, and came to the Man. And he said to Him, Are You the Man who spoke to the woman? And He said, I am. ¹²And Manoah said, Then let Your words come about. What shall be the way of the youth, and his undertaking? ¹³And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, Let her take heed of all that I said to the woman; ¹⁴she shall not eat of anything that came forth from the grapevine; and she shall not drink wine or fermented drink; and she shall not eat any unclean thing. She shall be careful of all that I commanded her.

¹⁵And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, Please let us keep You, and prepare before You a kid of the goats. ¹⁶And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, If you keep Me, I will not eat of your bread. And if you prepare a burnt offering, you shall offer it to Jehovah. For Manoah did not know that He was the Angel of Jehovah. ¹⁷And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, What is Your name? When Your words come about, then we shall honor You. ¹⁸And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Why do you ask this about My name? Yea, it is Wonderful.

¹⁹And Manoah took the kid of the goats, and the food offering, and offered on the rock to Jehovah. And He did wonderfully, and Manoah and his wife were looking on. ²⁰And it happened as the flame from off the altar was going up to the heavens, that the Angel of Jehovah went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife were watching. And they fell on their faces to the ground.

²¹And the Angel of Jehovah did not appear any more to Manoah, or to his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of Jehovah. ²²And Manoah said to his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God. ²³And his wife said to him, If Jehovah desired to put us to death, He would not have received a burnt offering and a food offering from our hands, nor declared to us all these things; nor would He at this time have caused us to hear such things as these.

²⁴And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson. And the youth grew, and Jehovah blessed him. ²⁵And the Spirit of Jehovah began to move him in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

¹And Samson went down to Timnath and saw a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines. ²And he came up and told his father and mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines. And now get her for me for a wife. ³And his father and his mother said to him, Is there not a woman among the daughters of your brothers, and among all my people, that you must go to take a woman from the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for she pleases me very much. ⁴And his father and his mother did not know that it was from Jehovah, that He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

⁵And Samson and his father and his mother went down to Timnath. And they came to the vineyards of Timnath. And, behold, a young lion roaring to meet him. ⁶And the Spirit of Jehovah came mightily on him. And he tore it as the cleaving of a kid. And there was nothing in his hand; and he did not tell his father and his mother what he had done. ⁷And he went down and talked with the woman. And she was pleasing in the eyes of Samson. ⁸And some days later he returned to take her, and turned aside to see the remains of the lion. And, behold, a bee-swarm in the carcase of the lion, and honey. ⁹And he took it out on his hands, and went on, eating and walking. And he went to his father and to his mother, and gave some to hem. And they ate, but he did not tell hem that he took the honey out of the body of the lion.

¹⁰And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, or so the young men usually did. ¹¹And it happened when they saw him, they took thirty companions, and they were with him. ¹²And Samson said to them, Please let me riddle a riddle to you. If you certainly declare it to me in the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I shall give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. ¹³And if you are not able to tell me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. And they said to him, Riddle your riddle, and we shall hear it. ¹⁴And he said to them, Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they were not able to declare the riddle in three days. ¹⁵And it happened on the seventh day, they said to Samson's wife, Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called for us to make us poor? Is it not so? ¹⁶And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You only hate me, and do not love me. You have riddled the riddle to the sons of my people, and you have not declared it to me. And he said to her, Behold, I have not declared it to my father and to my mother, and shall I declare it to you? ¹⁷And she wept before him the seven days on which they feasted. And it was on the seventh day, he told her, for she distressed him. And she told the riddle to the sons of her people. ¹⁸And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day, before the sun went in, What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, Unless you had plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle.

¹⁹And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him. And he went down to Ashkelon and struck thirty men of them, and took their plunder. And he gave the changes to those who told the riddle; and his anger glowed.

And he went up to his father's house. ²⁰And Samson's wife became his companion's, who had been his feeder.

¹And it happened afterward, in the days of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats. And he said, I will go in to my wife, to the inner room. And her father would not allow him to go in. ²And her father said, I certainly said that you would surely hate her, and I gave her to your companion. Is not her sister, the young one, better than she? Please let her belong to you, instead of her. ³And Samson said to them, This time I will be blameless regarding the Philistines, though I am doing evil with them. ⁴And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch between the two tails, in the middle. ⁵And he kindled fire on the torches, and sent them out into the grain-stalks of the Philistines, and burned from the stacks and the grainstalks, and to the vineyard and the oliveyard.

⁶And the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they said, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took away his wife and gave her to his companion. And the Philistines went and burned her and her father with fire. ⁷And Samson said to them, Though you do this, yet I shall be avenged on you; and afterwards I will stop. ⁸And he struck them hip on thigh, a great slaughter, and went down and lived in the cleft of the rock Etam.

⁹And the Philistines went up and pitched in Judah, and were spread out in Lehi. ¹⁰And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they said, We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us. ¹¹And three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? And what is this that you have done to us? And he said to them, As they did to me, so I did to them. ¹²And they said to him, We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hands of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves. ¹³And they spoke to him, saying, No, but we will certainly bind you, and will give you into their hand. But we certainly will not kill you. And they bound him with two thick cords, new ones, and brought him up from the rock. ¹⁴He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted to meet him, And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and the thick cords which were on his arms were as flax which they burn with fire. And his bonds melted from his hands. ¹⁵And he found a fresh jawbone of an ass, and put out his hand and took it. And he struck a thousand men with it. ¹⁶And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, a heap, two heaps, with the jawbone of an ass I have killed a thousand men. ¹⁷And it happened when he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone out of his hand. And he called that place the Hill of the Jawbone. ¹⁸And he was exceedingly thirsty, and called to Jehovah and said, Surely You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant. And now I am dying with thirst, and will fall into the hand of the uncircumcised. ¹⁹And God broke open the hollow place which is in Lehi, and water came out of it. And he drank, and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore its name is called the Fountain of the Praying One, which is in Lehi to this day.

²⁰And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

¹And Samson went to Gaza, and saw a harlot, a woman, there, and went in to her. ²The Gazites were told, saying, Samson has come here. And they encircled and set a trap for him all the night at the gate of the city, and kept quiet all night, saying, Until the light of the morning, then we will kill him. ³And Samson lay down until the middle of the night, and rose up in the middle of the night. And he took hold on the leaves of the gate of the city, and on the two sideposts, and plucked them up with the bar, and put them on his shoulders. And he took them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.

⁴And it happened afterward that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, and her name was Delilah. ⁵And the Philistine rulers came to her and said to her, Entice him, and see in what lies his great strength, and by what we may prevail against him, so that we may bind him, to afflict him. And we will surely each give to you eleven hundred of silver. ⁶And Delilah said to Samson, Now tell me in what your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound in order to afflict you. ⁷And Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven green bow-strings which have not been dried, then I shall be weak, and shall be as any man. ⁸And Philistine rulers brought to her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. ⁹And the ambush was sitting for her in an inner room. And she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he broke the bowstrings like a thread of tow when it smells fire. And his strength was not known.

¹⁰And Delilah said to Samson, Behold, you have trifled with me, and have told me lies. Now, please tell me with what you may be bound. ¹¹And he said to her, If they really bind me with new ropes, by which no work has been done, then I shall be weak and shall be as any human being. ¹²And Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And the ambush was sitting in the inner room. And he tore them off his arms like thread.

¹³And Delilah said to Samson, Until now you have trifled with me, and have told me lies. Tell me with what you may be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with a web. ¹⁴And she fastened it with a pin, and said to him, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And he awoke out of his sleep, and pulled out the pin, the handloom, and the web.

¹⁵And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, and your heart is not with me. These three times you have trifled with me, and have not told me where your great strength lies. ¹⁶And it happened, because she distressed him with her words all the days, and urged him; and his soul was grieved to death, ¹⁷that he told her all his heart, and said to her, No razor has come on my head, for I am a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I were shaved, my strength would go away from me, and I would be weak, and be like any one of men. ¹⁸And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart. And she sent and called for the Philistine rulers, saying, Come, for this time he has told me all his heart. And the Philistine rulers came up to her, and brought the silver in their hand. ¹⁹And she made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man, and had him shave seven braids of his head, and began to afflict him. And his strength departed from him. ²⁰And she said, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And He awakened from his sleep, and said, I will go out and shake myself free, as time after time. But he did not know that Jehovah had departed from him. ²¹And the Philistines seized him, and bored out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. And they bound him with bands of bronze. And he was grinding in the house of prisoners. ²²But the hair of his head began to grow, for he had been shaved.

²³Then the Philistine rulers gathered to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to exult. And they said, Our god has given our enemy Samson into our hand. ²⁴And the people saw him, and praised their god. For they said, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand, even the devastator of our land, who multiplied our wounded. ²⁵And it happened when their heart felt good, they said, Call for Samson, and he shall entertain us. And they called for Samson from the prison-house. And he entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars. ²⁶And Samson said to the young man grasping his hand, Let me alone, and let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean on them. ²⁷And the house was full of men and women, and all the Philistine rulers were there. And about three thousand men and women were on the roof watching Samson entertaining. ²⁸And Samson called to Jehovah, and said, O Lord Jehovah, remember me, I pray, and please make me strong only this time, O God. And I shall be avenged with one vengeance on the Philistines, because of my two eyes. ²⁹And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and on which it was supported; one with his right hand, and one with his left. ³⁰And Samson said, Let my soul die with the Philistines! And he bowed mightily, and the house fell on the rulers, and on all the people who were in it. And the dead that he killed in his death were more than those he killed in his life.

³¹And his brothers came down, and all his father's house, and lifted him up, and brought him up. And they buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of his father Manoah.

And he judged Israel twenty years.

¹And there was a man of the hills of Ephraim, and his name was Micah. ²And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred pieces of silver which were taken from you, and you uttered a curse, even also speaking in my ear; behold, the silver is with me. I have taken it. And his mother said, Blessed be my son by Jehovah. ³And he gave back the eleven hundred silver pieces to his mother. And his mother said, I have wholly consecrated the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, to make a graven image, and a molten image. And now, I am giving it back to you. ⁴And he gave the silver back to his mother. And his mother took two hundred silver pieces and gave them to a refiner. And he made it a graven image, and a molten image. And it was in Micah's house. ⁵And the man Micah had a house of gods. And he made an ephod, and household idols, and consecrated one of his sons. And he was a priest for him.

⁶And in those days there was no king in Israel; each man did the right in his own eyes.

⁷And there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; and he was a Levite. And he resided there. ⁸And the man went out of the city, out of Bethlehem-judah, to live where he might find a place. And he came to the hills of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to work his way. ⁹And Micah said to him, From where do you come? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-judah, and I am going to live where I may find a place. ¹⁰And Micah said to him, Live with me, and be a father and a priest to me. I will give you ten silver pieces for the days, and an order of garments, and your upkeep. And the Levite went in. ¹¹And the Levite was willing to live with the man, and the young man was to him as one of his sons. ¹²And Micah consecrated the hand of the Levite, and the young man was a priest to him; and he was in Micah's house. ¹³And Micah said, Now I know that Jehovah will do me good, for the Levite is a priest to me.

¹In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to inhabit. For to that day it had not fallen to them by inheritance among the tribes of Israel. ²And the sons of Dan sent out of their family five men from their whole number, men, sons of valor, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it. And they said to them, Go, search the land. And they came to the hills of Ephraim, to Micah's house, and lodged there. ³They were near the household of Micah, and they recognized the young man's voice, the Levite. And they turned in there, and said to him, Who has brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what have you here? ⁴And he said to them, This and this Micah has done to me. And he hired me, and I am a priest to him. ⁵And they said to him, Please ask of God and we will know whether our way in which we are going will be prosperous. ⁶And the priest said to them, Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before Jehovah.

⁷And the five men departed, and came to Laish. And they saw the people living securely in its midst, according to the custom of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. And there were none to put to shame in a thing, nor possessing authority. And they were far away from the Sidonians, and they had no word with any men.

⁸And they came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brothers said to them, What did you do? ⁹And they said, Rise up, and we shall go against them, for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good. And would you be silent? Do not hesitate to go to enter in to possess the land. ¹⁰When you go, you shall come to a secure people, and the land is large on both hands; for God has given it into your hand, a place in which there is no lack of anything which is in the land.

¹¹And six hundred men of the family of the Danites from Zorah and from Eshtaol girded themselves with weapons of war, traveling from there. ¹²And they went up and camped in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah. Therefore they called that place a camp of Dan until this day—behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim. ¹³And they passed on from there to the hills of Ephraim, and came into the house of Micah. ¹⁴And the five men who had gone to spy out the land of Laish answered and said to their brothers, Do you not know that there are in these houses an ephod, and household idols, and a graven image, and a molten image? And now, you know what you are to do. ¹⁵And they turned in there, and came into the house of the young man, the Levite in Micah's house. And they asked him for the peace. ¹⁶And the six hundred men of the sons of Dan girded with their weapons of war were standing at the opening of the gate. ¹⁷And the five men, those who went to spy out the land, They came in there, and they took the graven image, and the ephod, and the household idols, and the molten image. And the priest was standing at the opening of the gate, and the six hundred men who were girded with weapons of war. ¹⁸And these went into the house of Micah and took the graven image, the ephod, and the household idols, and the molten image, and the priest said to them, What are you doing? ¹⁹And they said to him, Be quiet! Lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for one man's house, or for you to be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel? ²⁰And the heart of the priest was glad. And he took the ephod, and the household idols, and the graven image, and went among the people.

²¹And they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the livestock, and the valuables before them. ²²They had gone far away from Micah's house, and the men who were in the houses near Micah's house had been called together, and had overtaken the sons of Dan. ²³And they called to the sons of Dan, and they turned their faces and said to Micah, What ails you, that you have been called together?

²⁴And he said, You have taken my gods which I made, and the priest, and you are leaving, and what more do I have? What is this you say to me, What ails you? ²⁵And the sons of Dan said to him, Do not let your voice be heard among us, that men bitter in soul not fall on you, and you lose your life, and the lives of your household.

²⁶And the sons of Dan went on their way. And Micah saw that they were stronger than he, and turned and went back to his house. ²⁷And they took that which Micah had made, and the priest he had, and came against Laish, against a people quiet and secure. And they struck them with the mouth of the sword, and burned the city with fire. ²⁸And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no business with any men. And it was in the valley which is beside Beth-rehob. And they built the city, and lived in it. ²⁹And they called the name of the city, Dan, by the name of their father Dan, who was born to Israel. And yet Laish was the name of the city at first. ³⁰And the sons of Dan raised up for themselves the graven image. And Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. ³¹And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, which he had made, all the days that the house of God was in Shiloh.

¹And it happened in those days when there was no king in Israel, there was a man, a Levite, living on the further side of the hills of Ephraim. And he took a wife to himself, a concubine out of Bethlehem-judah. ²And his concubine committed adultery against him. And she went away from him to her father's house, to Bethlehem of Judah, and was there many days—four months. ³And her husband rose up and went after her, to speak to her heart, to bring her back. And his young man was with him, and a team of asses. And she brought him into her father's house. And the young woman's father saw him, and rejoiced to meet him. ⁴And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him. And he stayed with him three days. And they ate and drank, and stayed there. ⁵And it happened on the fourth day, they rose up early in the morning, and he rose up to go. And the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, Sustain your heart with a bit of food, and afterward you shall go on. ⁶And they sat and ate, both of them together, and drank. And the young woman's father said to the man, Please be content and stay all night, and let your heart be good. ⁷And the man rose up to go; and his father-in-law pressed him, and he turned back and stayed there. ⁸And he rose up early in the morning to go on the fifth day. And the young woman's father said, Please refresh your heart. And they stayed until the turning of the day. And they ate, both of them. ⁹And the man rose to go, he and his concubine, and his young man. And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, Please notice that the day has faded toward evening. Please stay the night. Behold, the day is declining. Stay here and let your heart be good, and you shall rise early tomorrow for your journey. And you shall go to your tent. ¹⁰But the man was not willing to stay the night. And he rose up and departed, and went until he was opposite Jebus—it is Jerusalem—and with him a team of saddle asses. And his concubine was with him.

¹¹They were near Jebus, and the day was spent. And the young man said to his master, Please come and we shall turn to this city of the Jebusites, and stay in it. ¹²And his master said to him, Let us not turn to the city of an alien that is not of the sons of Israel, but we shall pass over to Gibeah. ¹³And he said to his young man, Come and we shall draw near to one of these places, and shall stay in Gibeah, or in Ramah. ¹⁴And they passed on and traveled on. And the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. ¹⁵And they turned aside there, to go in to stay the night in Gibeah. And he went in and sat in a broad place of the city. Yet there was no man that took them into his house to spend the night.

¹⁶And, behold, a man, an aged one, came from his work from the field in the evening. And the man was from the hills of Ephraim; and he was a sojourner in Gibeah. But the men of the place were sons of Benjamin. ¹⁷And he lifted up his eyes and saw the man, the traveler, in a broad place of the city. And the aged man said, Where are you going, and where do you come from? ¹⁸And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem-judah to the other side of the hills of Ephraim. I am from there, and I am going to Bethlehem-judah. And I am going to the house of Jehovah. Yet there is no man to take me into the house. ¹⁹But there is straw and food for our asses, and also there is bread and wine for me, and for your slave-girl, and for the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything. ²⁰And the old man said, Peace to you. Only, all that you lack shall be on me. Only, do not spend the night in the open. ²¹And he brought him to his house, and mixed fodder for the asses. And they washed their feet and ate and drank.

²²They were making their hearts merry. And, behold, men of the city, sons of worthless men, went around the house, beating on the door. And they spoke to the old man, the housemaster, saying, Bring out the man who has come into your house, and we shall know him. ²³And the man, the housemaster, went out to them and said to them, No, my brothers, please do not do evil, since this man has come into my house; do not do this grave sin. ²⁴Behold, my daughter, a virgin, and his concubine. Please let me bring them out, and you humble them. And do to them that which is good in your eyes, but do not do this wicked thing to this man. ²⁵And the men were not willing to listen to him, and the man took hold on his concubine and brought her out to them outside. And they knew her, and rolled themselves on her all night, until the morning. And they sent her away at the dawning of the day. ²⁶And the woman came in at the dawning of the morning, and fell at the door of the man's house, where her master was, till it was light. ²⁷And her master rose up in the morning, and opened the door of the house, and went out to go his way.

And, behold, the woman, his concubine, had fallen at the door of the house, and her hands were on the threshold. ²⁸And he said to her, Rise up, and we will go. But there was no answer. And he took her on the ass, and the man rose up and went to his place. ²⁹And he came to his house, and took the knife and lay hold on his concubine. And he cut her in pieces to her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the borders of Israel. ³⁰And it was so: all who saw it said, There has never been, and never was seen, a thing like this from the day the sons of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day. Set yourselves on it, take counsel. Then speak.

¹And all the sons of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and the land of Gilead, to Jehovah at Mizpeh. ²And the leaders of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of all the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen drawing swords. ³And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpeh. And the sons of Israel said, Speak up. How did this evil happen? ⁴And the man, the Levite, husband of the woman who had been murdered, answered and said, I came into Gibeah which is to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night. ⁵And the men of Gibeah rose up against me. And they went around the house against me at night; they had in mind to kill me, and they raped my concubine, and she died. ⁶And I took hold on my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her into all the land of the inheritance of Israel. For they have done evil and folly in Israel. ⁷Behold, you are the sons of Israel. Give here your advice and counsel.

⁸And all the people rose up as one man, saying, Not one of us shall go to his tent, and not one of us shall return to his house. ⁹And now, this is the thing which we shall do to Gibeah, going against it by lot. ¹⁰And we shall take ten men of a hundred of all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to take food for the people, that they may act when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly which it has done in Israel. ¹¹And every man of Israel was gathered to the city, knit together as one man.

¹⁸And they rose up and went up to Bethel and asked of God. And the sons of Israel said, Who shall go up for us at the beginning of the battle with the sons of Benjamin? And Jehovah said, Judah, at the beginning. ¹⁹And the sons of Israel rose up in the morning and camped against Gibeah. ²⁰And the men of Israel went to battle with Benjamin; and the men of Israel set themselves in order against them, to battle against Gibeah. ²¹And the sons of Benjamin came out from Gibeah. And on that day they destroyed twenty-two thousand to the earth in Israel. ²²And the people, the men of Israel, made themselves strong, and again set the battle in order in the place where they set themselves on the first day. ²³And the sons of Israel went up and wept before Jehovah until the evening, and asked of Jehovah, saying, Shall I again draw near to battle with the sons of my brother Benjamin? And Jehovah said, Go up against him.

²⁴And the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day. ²⁵And Benjamin came out to meet them from Gibeah on the second day, and again destroyed to the earth eighteen thousand men of the sons of Israel; all these were swordsmen. ²⁶And all the sons of Israel went up, even all the people, and came to Bethel, and wept. And they sat there before Jehovah, and fasted on that day until the evening, and caused burnt offerings and peace offerings to ascend before Jehovah. ²⁷And the sons of Israel asked of Jehovah—and the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron was standing before it in those days—saying, Shall I again go out to battle with the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease? And Jehovah said, Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand.

²⁹And Israel set ambushers against Gibeah all around. ³⁰And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in order against Gibeah, as at other times. ³¹And the sons of Benjamin came out to meet the people. They were drawn away out of the city, and began to strike the people down wounded as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and one to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. ³²And the sons of Benjamin said, They are destroyed before us, as at the beginning. But the sons of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them away out of the city, into the highways. ³³And all the men of Israel rose from their place and set themselves in order at Baaltamar. And Israel's ambush came out of its place, out of the meadow of Gibeah. ³⁴And they came in across from Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel. And the battle was heavy. And they did not know that evil was striking against them. ³⁵And Jehovah struck Benjamin before Israel. And the sons of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand, one hundred men on that day in Benjamin; all these were swordsmen. ³⁶And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were stricken. And the men of Israel had given place to Benjamin, for they trusted to the ambush which they had set against Gibeah. ³⁷And the ambush hurried and came against Gibeah, and the ambush drew itself out and struck all of the city by the mouth of the sword. ³⁸And there was a sign set to the men of Israel with the ambush, their causing a rising of smoke to go up from the city. ³⁹And the men of Israel turned in battle, and Benjamin had begun to strike, causing some to be slain of the men of Israel, about thirty men. For they said, Surely they are stricken down before us, as at the first battle. ⁴⁰And the rising of smoke began to go up from the city, a pillar. And Benjamin turned around, and, behold, the whole city had gone up toward the heavens. ⁴¹And the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were troubled. For they had seen that evil had struck them. ⁴²And they turned before the men of Israel, toward the way of the wilderness. And the battle followed them. And those who were from the city were destroying them in their midst. ⁴³They surrounded Benjamin, and they pursued them without rest. And they trod them down until they were opposite Gibeah, at the rising of the sun. ⁴⁴And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell, all of these mighty men. ⁴⁵And they turned and fled toward the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned five thousand men of them in the highways, and caught them, to Gidom. And they struck two thousand men of them. ⁴⁶And all the ones of Benjamin who fell were twenty-five thousand men drawing the sword on that day; all of these mighty men. ⁴⁷And six hundred men turned and fled into the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon. And they lived in the rock of Rimmon four months. ⁴⁸And the men of Israel turned back to the sons of Benjamin, and struck them by the mouth of the sword, from the entire city to livestock, to all that was found. Also they set fire to all the cities which were found.

¹And the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, Not one of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife. ²And the people came to Bethel, and sat there before God until the evening. And they lifted up their voices and wept a great weeping. ³And they said, O Jehovah, God of Israel, Why has this happened in Israel, to be lacking one tribe today from Israel?

⁴And it happened on the next day, the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵And the sons of Israel said, Who is he that did not come up in the assembly out of all the tribes of Israel to Jehovah? For a great oath had been undertaken concerning him that did not come up to Jehovah to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

⁶And the sons of Israel repented concerning their brother Benjamin. And they said, One tribe from Israel has been cut off today. ⁷What shall we do for them, for those who are left, for wives? For we surely have sworn by Jehovah not to give them of our daughters for wives. ⁸And they said, What one out of the tribes of Israel did not come up to Jehovah to Mizpeh? And, behold, no one had come into the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly. ⁹And the people numbered themselves. And, behold, there was not a man of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead. ¹⁰And the assembly sent twelve thousand men there of the mighty sons, and commanded them, saying, Go, and you shall strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the mouth of the sword, even the women and the little ones. ¹¹And this is the thing which you shall do. Every male, and every woman who has been known by lying with a male, you shall destroy. ¹²And out of all the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead they found four hundred young women, virgins, who had not known a man by lying with a male. And they brought them into the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. ¹³And all the assembly sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and called out peace to them. ¹⁴And Benjamin came again at that time. And they gave the women whom they had kept alive, of the women of Jabesh-gilead. But they did not find enough for them.

¹⁵And the people repented as to Benjamin, for Jehovah had made a breach among the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶And the elders of the assembly said, What shall we do to the remnant for wives, for the women have been destroyed out of Benjamin? ¹⁷And they said, The one who escaped shall be a legacy of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be blotted out from Israel. ¹⁸And we surely are not able to give wives to them from our daughters, for the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin. ¹⁹And they said, Behold, there is a feast of Jehovah from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north side of Bethel, toward the rising of the sun, by the highway which goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. ²⁰And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go, and you shall lie in wait in the vineyards. ²¹And you shall watch. And, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then you shall go out from the vineyards and each of you catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. ²²And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to strive with us, we shall say to them, Favor us with them, for we did not take for each man of them a wife in battle, for if you did not give to them as at this time, you would be guilty. ²³And the sons of Benjamin did so, and took women according to their number from the dancers whom they had seized. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the cities, and lived in them.

²⁴And the sons of Israel went up and down from there at that time, each to his tribe, and to his family. And they departed from there, every man to his inheritance.

²⁵In those days there was no king in Israel. Each man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

¹And it happened in the days that the judges judged, there was a famine in the land. And a man from Bethlehem-judah went to live in the fields of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sons. ²And the name of the man was Elimelech; and the name of his wife Naomi. And the name of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites from Bethlehem-judah. And they came into the fields of Moab, and remained there.

³And Naomi's husband Elimelech died; And she was left, and her two sons. ⁴And they took wives to themselves, women of Moab. The name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the second, Ruth. And they lived there about ten years. ⁵And they also died, both of them, Mahlon and Chilion. And the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband.

⁶And she rose up, she and her daughters-in-law, and turned back from the fields of Moab. For she had heard in the fields of Moab that Jehovah had visited His people, to give food to them. ⁷And she went out from the place where she had been, and her two daughters-in-law with her. And they went in the way to return to the land of Judah. ⁸And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, each return to the house of her mother. May Jehovah deal kindly with you, as you have done with the dead, and with me. ⁹May Jehovah grant to you that you find rest, each in the house of her husband. And she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice and wept. ¹⁰And they said to her, Surely we will go back with you to your people.

¹¹And Naomi said, Turn back, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Are there yet sons to me in my belly that they should be husbands for you? ¹²Turn back, my daughters, go. For I am too old to belong to a husband. Though I should say, There is hope for me, and I should be tonight with a husband, and also I should bear sons; ¹³will you wait for them, that they might grow up? Will you shut yourselves up for them, not to belong to a husband? No, my daughters, for it is much more bitter for me than for you, for the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me. ¹⁴And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵And she said, See, your sister-in-law has turned back to her people, and to her gods. You turn back after your sister-in-law. ¹⁶And Ruth said, Do not beg me to leave you, to turn back from following you. For where you go, I will go. And where you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. ¹⁷Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Jehovah do to me, and more so, if anything but death part you and me.

¹⁸And she saw that she had made herself strong to go with her; and she ceased to speak to her. ¹⁹And they went, both of them, until they came into Bethlehem. And it happened as they came into Bethlehem, all the city was moved at them. And they said, Is this Naomi? ²⁰And she said to them, Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me. ²¹I went out full, and Jehovah has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since Jehovah has set His eye against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me?

²²And Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the fields of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

¹And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband, a mighty man of the family of Elimelech. And his name was Boaz. ²And Ruth of Moab said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor. And she said to her, Go, my daughter. ³And she went. And she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And her chance happened to be on the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of Elimelech's family. ⁴And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, Jehovah be with you. And they answered him, Jehovah bless you. ⁵And Boaz said to his young man who had been set over the reapers, Whose is this young woman? ⁶And the young man who had been set over the reapers replied and said, She is a young woman of Moab who came with Naomi from the fields of Moab. ⁷And she said, Please let me glean, and I shall gather among the sheaves after the reapers. And she came and has remained since morning, even until now. She sat in the house a little while. ⁸And Boaz said to Ruth, Do you not hear, my daughter? Do not go to glean another field, and also do not pass through this. And you shall stay close to my young women. ⁹Your eyes shall be on the field which they shall reap, and you shall go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, then you shall go to the vessels and shall drink from that which the young men draw. ¹⁰And she fell on her face and bowed to the earth, and said to him, Why have I found grace in your eyes, that you should notice me, and I a foreigner? ¹¹And Boaz answered and said to her, It has been fully revealed to me all that you have done with your mother-in-law after the death of your husband. And you left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and came to a people which you had not known before. ¹²Jehovah shall repay your work, and your reward shall be complete from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge. ¹³And she said, Let me find grace in your eyes, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken to the heart of your handmaid. And I surely am not as one of your handmaids. ¹⁴And Boaz said to her, At mealtime come here, and you shall eat of the bread and dip your morsel in the vinegar. And she sat at the side of the reapers, and he reached out roasted grain to her. And she ate and was satisfied, and had some left over. ¹⁵And she rose up to glean. And Boaz commanded his young men, saying, She shall glean even between the sheaves, and you shall not cause her to be ashamed. ¹⁶And you also shall surely pull out for her of the bundles, and shall leave; and she shall glean, and you shall not restrain her.

¹⁷And she gleaned in the field until the evening, and beat out that which she had gleaned. And it was about an ephah of barley. ¹⁸And she took it up and went to the city. And her mother-in-law saw that which she had gleaned. And she brought out and gave to her that which she had reserved after she was satisfied. ¹⁹And her mother-in-law said to her, Where have you gleaned today? And where have you worked? May he who noticed you be blessed. And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, The name of the man with whom I have worked today is Boaz. ²⁰And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed is he of Jehovah who has not forsaken his kindness with the living and with the dead. And Naomi said to her, The man is near of kin to us; he is of our redeemers. ²¹And Ruth of Moab said, And he surely said to me, You shall stay close, near to the young men whom I have, until they have completed the whole harvest which I have. ²²And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, Good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that men may not attack you in another field. ²³And she stayed close to the young women of Boaz to glean, until the end of the barley harvest, and of the wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

¹And her mother-in-law Naomi said to her, My daughter, do I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? ²And now, is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose young women you have been? Behold, he is winnowing the threshing floor of barley tonight. ³And you shall bathe, and anoint yourself, and put your garments on you, and go down to the threshing floor. Do not let yourself be known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴And it shall be, when he lies down, you shall note the place where he lies down, and shall go in and uncover his feet, and lie down. And he will tell you that which you are to do. ⁵And she said to her, All that you say, I will do. ⁶And she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law commanded her.

⁷And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart felt good. And he went to lie down at the end of the heap. And she came secretly and uncovered his feet, and lay down. ⁸And it happened in the middle of the night, that the man trembled and turned himself. And, behold, a woman was lying at his feet! ⁹And he said, Who are you? And she said, I am your handmaid Ruth, and you shall spread your skirt over your handmaid, for you are a kinsman-redeemer. ¹⁰And he said, Blessed be you of Jehovah, my daughter. You have dealt more kindly at the latter end than at the beginning, not to go after the young men, either poor or rich. ¹¹And now, my daughter, do not fear. All that you say I will do to you, for all the gate of my people know that you are an able woman. ¹²And now, surely it is true that I am a kinsman-redeemer. But there also is a redeemer nearer than I. ¹³Stay tonight, and it shall be in the morning, if he will redeem you, well; he will redeem. And if he does not delight to redeem you, as Jehovah lives, then I will redeem you. Lie down until the morning.

¹⁴And she lay at his feet until the morning, and rose up before one could discern another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman has come to the grain floor. ¹⁵And he said, Give me the covering which is on you, and hold on to it. And she kept hold on it, and he measured six measures of barley, and lay it on her. And she went in to the city. ¹⁶And she came in to her mother-in-law. And she said, Who are you, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. ¹⁷And she said, He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said, You shall not go empty to your mother-in-law. ¹⁸And she said, Sit, my daughter, until you shall know how the matter falls, for the man shall not rest until he has finished the matter today.

¹And Boaz went up to the gate and sat there. And, behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken was passing by. And he said, Such a one, turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside and sat down. ²And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit down here. And they sat down. ³And he said to the near kinsman, Naomi, who has returned from the fields of Moab, will sell a portion of the field which belonged to our brother, to Elimelech. ⁴And I said I would uncover your ear, saying, Buy it before those sitting, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem, redeem. But if you will not redeem, tell me so that I may know. For there is no one besides you to redeem, and I after you. And he said, I will redeem it. ⁵And Boaz said, In the day you buy the field from Naomi's hand, even you have bought from Ruth of Moab, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance. ⁶And the near kinsman said, I am not able to redeem for myself, that I not mar my own inheritance. You redeem for yourself my right of redemption, for I am not able to redeem.

⁷And this formerly was done in Israel for redemption, and for changing, to confirm every thing: A man would draw off his sandal and give to his neighbor. And this was the attestation in Israel. ⁸And the near kinsman said to Boaz, Buy for yourself, and drew off his sandal. ⁹And Boaz said to the elders, and all the people, You are witnesses today that I have bought all that belonged to Elimelech, and all that was to Chilion and Mahlon, from the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰And also Ruth of Moab, the wife of Mahlon, I have bought for myself for a wife, to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance. And the name of the dead shall not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today. ¹¹And all the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. May Jehovah make the woman who is coming into your house as Rachel and as Leah, both of whom built the house of Israel. And may you do worthily in Ephrathah, and proclaim the name in Bethlehem. ¹²And let your house be as the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which Jehovah shall give to you of this young woman.

¹³And Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And he went in to her, and Jehovah gave her conception, and she bore a son. ¹⁴And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be Jehovah, who has not left you this day without a redeemer; and may his name be called in Israel. ¹⁵And may he be to you a restorer of life, and a nourisher of your old age, for your daughter-in-law who loves you has borne him, who is better to you than seven sons. ¹⁶And Naomi took the child, and laid him in her bosom, and became nurse to him. ¹⁷And the neighboring women gave him a name, saying, This is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸And these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez fathered Hezron; ¹⁹and Hezron fathered Ram; and Ram fathered Amminadab; ²⁰and Amminadab fathered Nahshon; and Nahshon fathered Salmon; ²¹and Salmon fathered Boaz; and Boaz fathered Obed; ²²and Obed fathered Jesse; and Jesse fathered David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

¹And there was one man of Ramathaim-zophim from the hills of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite. ²And he had two wives, the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the second, Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. ³And that man went up from his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice before Jehovah of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to Jehovah there. ⁴And came the day, and Elkanah sacrificed. And he would give to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and her daughters portions. ⁵And to Hannah he gave one double portion, for he loved Hannah. And Jehovah had shut up her womb. ⁶And even to vexation her rival tormented her, so as to make her tremble, because Jehovah had shut up her womb. ⁷And so he did year by year, as often as she went up to the house of Jehovah, so she provoked her. And she wept, and did not eat. ⁸And her husband Elkanah said to her, Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart afflicted? Am I not better to you than ten sons?

⁹And Hannah rose up after eating in Shiloh, and after drinking. And Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the sidepost of the temple of Jehovah. ¹⁰And she was bitter of soul, and prayed to Jehovah, and she wept copiously. ¹¹And she vowed a vow, and said, O Jehovah of hosts, if You will certainly look upon the affliction of Your maid servant, and shall remember me, and not forget Your maid-servant, and shall give to Your maid-servant a man-child, then I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life; and a razor shall not go up on his head. ¹²And it happened, when she prayed long before Jehovah, Eli was watching her mouth. ¹³And Hannah was speaking in her heart; only, her lips moved; but her voice could not be heard. So Eli thought that she was drunk. ¹⁴And Eli said to her, How long will you be drunken? Put away your wine from you. ¹⁵And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord; I am a woman pained in spirit. And I have not drunk wine or fermented drink, but I am pouring out my soul before Jehovah. ¹⁶Do not put your maidservant down for a daughter of wickedness; for from the abundance of my complaint and vexation until now I have been speaking. ¹⁷And Eli answered and said, Go in peace, and may the God of Israel give you your petition which you have asked of Him. ¹⁸And she said, Let your maidservant find grace in your eyes. And the woman went her way, and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

¹⁹And they rose up early in the morning and worshiped before Jehovah. And they went back and came to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and Jehovah remembered her. ²⁰And it happened when the time had come around, Hannah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of Jehovah. ²¹And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to sacrifice to Jehovah a sacrifice of the days, and to vow his vow. ²²And Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, Until the child is weaned, then I will bring him, that he may appear before Jehovah and remain there forever. ²³And her husband Elkanah said to her, Do that which is good in your eyes. Remain until you wean him. Only, may Jehovah confirm His word. And the woman remained, and suckled her son until she had weaned him. ²⁴And when she had weaned him, she brought him up with her, along with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. And she brought him to the house of Jehovah at Shiloh. And the child was a young one. ²⁵And they slaughtered the bullock, and brought the boy to Eli. ²⁶And she said, O my lord, may your soul live! My lord, I am the woman who stood with you here, to pray to Jehovah. ²⁷I prayed for this boy, and Jehovah has given my petition which I asked of Him to me. ²⁸And I also have loaned him to Jehovah; all the days which he shall be, he is loaned to Jehovah. And he worshiped there before Jehovah.

¹And Hannah prayed and said: My heart has exulted in Jehovah; my horn has been high in Jehovah. My mouth has been large over my enemies; for I have rejoiced in Your salvation. ²There is none holy like Jehovah, for there is none except You; yea, there is no rock like our God.

³Do not multiply your haughty words; let not arrogance go out from your mouths; for Jehovah is a God of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed. ⁴Bows of the mighty are broken; and they that stumble gird on strength. ⁵They that were full have hired themselves out for bread; and the hungry have ceased, while the barren has borne seven; yea, she who had many sons has languished.

⁶Jehovah kills, and keeps alive; He brings down and causes to go to Sheol. ⁷Jehovah brings down, and He gives riches; He brings low; yea, He lifts up high. ⁸He raised the poor from the dust; He lifts up the needy from the dunghill, to cause them to sit with nobles; yea, He caused them to inherit a throne of honor; for to Jehovah are the pillars of the earth; and He sets the habitable world on them. ⁹He keeps the feet of His saints, and the wicked are silenced in darkness; for man does not become mighty by power. ¹⁰They who strive with Jehovah will be smashed; He thunders in the heavens against him; Jehovah judges the ends of the earth, and gives strength to His king, and exalts the horn of His anointed.

¹¹And Elkanah went to Ramah, to his house. And the child served Jehovah before Eli the priest.

¹²And the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness; they did not know Jehovah.

¹³And the custom of the priests with the people was: any man offering a sacrifice then the priest's servant came when the flesh was boiling, with the three-toothed hook in his hand. ¹⁴And he stuck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the hook brought up, the priest took for himself. So they did to all Israel who came in there to Shiloh. ¹⁵Yea, before they made the fat to smoke, then the priest's servant came in. And he said to the man who was sacrificing, Give meat to roast for the priest; and he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw. ¹⁶And if the man said to him, Let the fat be made to smoke as the day, and then take as much as your soul desires; then he would say, No, but you shall give it to me now. And if not, I will take it by force. ¹⁷And the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah, for the men had despised the offering of Jehovah.

¹⁸And Samuel was serving before Jehovah, a boy girded with an ephod of linen. ¹⁹And his mother made a small coat for him, and she brought it up to him from year to year, as she came up with her husband to offer the sacrifice of the days. ²⁰And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, Jehovah shall give you seed of this woman, because of the prayer she prayed to Jehovah. And they went away to their place. ²¹So Jehovah visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up with Jehovah.

²²And Eli was very old, and had heard all that his sons did to Israel, and how they lay with the women who assembled by troops at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²³And he said to them, Why do you do things like these? For I am hearing of your evil doings from all these people. ²⁴No, my sons, for the report which I am hearing is not good, causing the people of Jehovah to transgress. ²⁵If a man sins against a man, then God shall judge him. But if a man sins against Jehovah, who shall pray for him? But they did not listen to the voice of their father, because Jehovah desired to execute them.

²⁶And the boy Samuel went on in both stature and in good, both with Jehovah and also with men.

²⁷And a man of God came to Eli, and said to him, So says Jehovah: Did I reveal Myself plainly to the house of your father when they were in Egypt, at the house of Pharaoh, ²⁸even to choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be priest to Me, to go up on My altar, to cause incense to smoke, to bear an ephod before Me? And did I give to your father's house all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel? ²⁹Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering which I commanded in My habitation? And why do you honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of My people?

³⁰So says Jehovah the God of Israel, I said indeed that your house and your father's house should walk before Me until forever. But now Jehovah says, Be it far from Me! For those who honor Me, I will honor; and those despising Me will be despicable. ³¹Behold, days come when I shall cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that no old man shall be in your house. ³²And you shall see an adversary in My habitation, in all that he does good with Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house all the days. ³³And the man of yours that I shall not cut off from My altar shall be to cause your eyes to fail, and to grieve your soul. And all the increase of your house shall die young men. ³⁴And this shall be the sign to you, that which shall come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day the both of them shall die. ³⁵And I shall raise up for Myself a faithful priest. He shall do all that is in My heart and in My soul. And I shall build for him a sure house; and he shall walk before My anointed all the days. ³⁶And it shall be, everyone who is left in your house shall come in to bow to him for a wage of silver and a loaf of bread. And they shall say, please admit me into one of the priest's offices, to eat a bit of bread.

²And it happened at that time, Eli was lying down in his place, and his eyes had begun to be dim — he was not able to see. ³And the lamp of God had not yet gone out. And Samuel was lying down in the temple of Jehovah, where the ark of God rested. ⁴And Jehovah called to Samuel. And he said, Behold me. ⁵And he ran to Eli and said, Behold me. For you have called to me. And he said, I did not call. Go back and lie down. And he went and lay down. ⁶and Jehovah again called Samuel. And Samuel rose up and went to Eli and said, Behold me, for you have called me. And he said, I have not called, my son. Go back and lie down. ⁷And Samuel did not yet know Jehovah, and the word of Jehovah had not yet been revealed to him. ⁸And Jehovah again called Samuel, the third time. And he rose up and went to Eli and said, Behold me, for you have called me. And Eli understood that Jehovah was calling the boy. ⁹And Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if One calls you, even you shall say, Speak, O Jehovah, for Your servant hears you. And Samuel lay down in his place.

¹⁰And Jehovah came and stood, and called as the other times, Samuel, Samuel! And Samuel said, Speak, for Your servant hears you. ¹¹And Jehovah said to Samuel, Behold! I am doing a thing in Israel at which the two ears of every one hearing it shall tingle. ¹²In that day I will confirm to Eli all that I have spoken to his house, beginning and making an end. ¹³And I declare to him that I am judging his house forever, for the iniquity which he has known; for his sons have been making themselves vile, and he has not restrained them. ¹⁴And so I have sworn to the house of Eli, the iniquity of the house of Eli shall not be atoned for, by sacrifice or by offering, until forever.

¹⁵And Samuel lay until the morning. And he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah. And Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. ¹⁶And Eli called Samuel and said, Samuel, my son. And he said, Behold, I am here. ¹⁷And he said, What is the word which He has spoken to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do so to you, and more also, if you keep back anything from me of all the words that He spoke to you. ¹⁸And Samuel told him all the words, and did not hide from him. And he said, It is Jehovah; He does that which is good in His eyes.

¹⁹And Samuel grew up, and Jehovah was with him, and did not let any of his words fall to the earth. ²⁰And all Israel knew, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, that Samuel was confirmed to be a prophet to Jehovah. ²¹And Jehovah again appeared in Shiloh. For Jehovah revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh, by the word of Jehovah.

¹And the word of Samuel was revealed to all Israel. And Israel went out to meet the Philistines for battle. And they pitched beside Ebenezer, and the Philistines pitched in Aphek. ²And the Philistines set themselves in order to meet Israel, and the battle was spread. And Israel was stricken before the Philistines. And they struck about four thousand men from the battle-line in the field. ³And the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, Why has Jehovah stricken us today before the Philistines? Let us take the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to us, and let it come into our midst; and it will save us from the hand of our enemies. ⁴And the people sent to Shiloh, and they took from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of hosts, that dwelling between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli were there with the ark of the covenant of God, Hophni and Phinehas.

⁵And it happened, when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all Israel shouted a great shout, and the earth shook. ⁶And the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, and said, What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they saw that the ark of Jehovah had come into the camp. ⁷And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God has come to the camp. And they said, Woe to us! For never has it been like this before. ⁸Woe to us! Who will deliver us out of the hand of these great gods? These are the gods who struck Egypt with every plague in the wilderness. ⁹Make yourselves strong and become men, O Philistines, lest you become slaves to the Hebrews, and they were slaves to you. Then you must be men and fight. ¹⁰And the Philistines fought, and Israel was beaten. And they each one fled to his tent. And the blow was very great, and thirty thousand footmen of Israel fell. ¹¹And the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli died, Hophni and Phinehas.

¹²And a man of Benjamin ran out of the battle-line and came to Shiloh on that day. And his clothes were torn, and earth on his head. ¹³And he came in. And, behold, Eli was sitting on the seat by the side of the highway, watching. For his heart trembled for the ark of God. And the man came in to report in the city. And all the city cried out. ¹⁴And Eli heard the noise of the cry, and said, What is the noise of this tumult? And the man hurried and came and reported to Eli. ¹⁵And Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were set, and he was not able to see. ¹⁶And the man said to Eli, I am he who has come from the ranks, and I fled today out of the battle-line. And he said, How did the matter go, my son? ¹⁷And he bearing the news answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines; and also there has been a great slaughter among the people. And also your two sons have died, Hophni and Phinehas. And the ark of God has been taken. ¹⁸And it happened when he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell off the seat backward, by the side of the gate. And his neck was broken, and he died—for the man was old and heavy. And he judged Israel forty years.

¹⁹And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child, about to bear. And she heard the report of the taking of the ark of God, and that her father-in-law and her husband had died. And she bowed and bore, for her pains had turned in on her.

²⁰And at the time of her death, when the women who stood by her said, Fear not, for you have borne a son; she did not even answer, nor set her heart. ²¹And she called the child Ichabod, saying, The glory has departed from Israel — because of the taking of the ark of God, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. ²²And she said, The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been taken.

¹And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. ²And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the house of Dagon, and set it near Dagon. ³And the men of Ashdod rose early on the next day. And, behold! Dagon had fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah! And they took Dagon and put it back in its place. ⁴And they rose early in the morning on the next day; and, behold! Dagon had fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah, and the head of Dagon, and the two palms of its hands, were cut off at the threshold. Only the flat part had been left to him. ⁵On account of this the priests of Dagon, and all those coming into the house of Dagon, do not step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod until this day. ⁶And the hand of Jehovah was heavy on the men of Ashdod. And He wasted them, and struck them with hemorrhoids, Ashdod and its borders. ⁷And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and said, The ark of God of Israel shall not remain with us, for His hand has been hard on us, and on our god Dagon. ⁸And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines to them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they said, Let the ark of the God of Israel go around to Gath. And they brought around the ark of the God of Israel. ⁹And it happened after they had brought it around, the hand of Jehovah was against the city with a very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, from the least to the greatest; and hemorrhoids broke forth in them. ¹⁰And they sent the ark of God around to Ekron. And it happened as the ark of God came into Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought around the ark of the God of Israel to me to put me to death, even my people. ¹¹And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its place. And it shall not put me to death, even my people. For there had been a great destruction throughout all the city. The hand of God had been very heavy there. ¹²And the men who had not died were stricken with hemorrhoids. And the cry of the city went up to the heavens.

¹And the ark of Jehovah was in the field of the Philistines seven months. ²And the Philistines called for priests and for diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of Jehovah? Let us know with what we shall send it to its place. ³And they said, If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, you shall not send it away empty. For you shall certainly send a guilt offering back to Him. Then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand has not turned away from you. ⁴And they said, What shall be the guilt offering which we shall send back to Him? And they said, The number of the rulers of the Philistines, five golden hemorrhoids, and five golden mice. For one plague has been on all of you, and on your rulers. ⁵And you shall make images of your hemorrhoids, and images of your mice that are corrupting the land, and shall give honor to the God of Israel. It may be that He will lighten His hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. ⁶And why do you harden your heart as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heart? When He gleaned with them, did they not send them away? And they went. ⁷And now, take and make one new cart, and two suckling cows, on which a yoke has never gone up. And you shall tie the cows to the cart, and cause their young ones to return home from them. ⁸And you shall take the ark of Jehovah and put it on the cart, and the vessels of gold which you shall return to Him for a guilt offering. You shall put them in a coffer in its side and send it away; and let it go. ⁹And watch; if it goes up by way of its own border, to Beth-shemesh, He has done this great evil to us. And if not, then we shall know that it was not His hand that touched us; it was an accident to us.

¹⁰And the men did so. And they took two suckling cows and tied them to the cart. And they shut their young ones in the house. ¹¹And they placed the ark of Jehovah on the cart, and the coffer with the golden mice and the images of their hemorrhoids. ¹²And the cows went straight in the way, on the way to Beth-shemesh. They went on one highway, going and lowing. And they did not turn to the right or to the left. And the rulers of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth-shemesh. ¹³And those of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. ¹⁴And the cart had come to the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite, and stood there. And there was a great stone. And they cut the wood of the cart, and they offered the cows as a burnt offering to Jehovah. ¹⁵And the Levites took the ark of Jehovah down, and the coffer which was with it, in which were the vessels of gold. And they placed them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices in that day to Jehovah. ¹⁶And the five rulers of the Philistines saw it, and turned back to Ekron on that day.

¹⁷And these were the golden hemorroids which the Philistines sent back as a guilt offering to Jehovah: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Askelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron; ¹⁸and the golden mice, the number of all the cities of the Philistines, for the five rulers, from the fortified city even to the hamlet of the villagers, even to the great meadow on which they placed the ark of Jehovah remain until this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

¹⁹And he struck among the men of Beth-shemesh, because they looked into the ark of Jehovah. Yea, He struck seventy among the people, including fifty chief men. And the people mourned because Jehovah destroyed among the people with a great destruction. ²⁰And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before Jehovah, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us? ²¹And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have sent back the ark of Jehovah. Come down; take it up to you.

¹And the men of Kirjath-jearim came and brought up the ark of Jehovah, and brought it to the house of Abinadab, in the hill. And they sanctified his son Eleazar to keep the ark of Jehovah. ²And it happened from the day the ark began to dwell in Kirjath-jearim, the days became many; yea, they were twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after Jehovah. ³And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, saying, If you are returning to Jehovah with all your heart, put aside the alien gods from among you, and the Ashtaroath. And prepare your heart to Jehovah, and serve Him only, and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. ⁴And the sons of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroath, and served Jehovah only.

⁵And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Jehovah for you. ⁶And they were gathered to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured out before Jehovah. And they fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against Jehovah. And Samuel judged the sons of Israel in Mizpah. ⁷And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered to Mizpah. And the rulers of the Philistines went up against Israel, and the sons of Israel heard, and were afraid before the Philistines. ⁸And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, Do not cease to cry to Jehovah our God for us, that He save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

⁹And Samuel took a milk lamb and offered a whole burnt offering to Jehovah. And Samuel cried to Jehovah for Israel. And Jehovah answered him. ¹⁰And it happened as Samuel offered up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. And Jehovah thundered with a great noise on that day, on the Philistines, and troubled them. And they were stricken before Israel. ¹¹And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them as far as below Beth-car.

¹²And Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, Jehovah has helped us until now. ¹³And the Philistines were subdued and did not yet again come into the border of Israel. And the hand of Jehovah was on the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath. And Israel delivered their border out of the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. ¹⁶And He went from year to year, traveling a circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all these places. ¹⁷And he returned to Ramah, for his house was there. And there he judged Israel; and he built an altar to Jehovah there.

⁷And Jehovah said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people, to all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them. ⁸According to all the works that they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day, when they forsook Me and served other gods, so they are also doing to you. ⁹And now listen to their voice. Only, you shall surely protest to them, and shall declare to them the privilege of the king who shall reign over them.

¹⁰And Samuel spoke all Jehovah's words to the people who were asking a king from him. ¹¹And he said, This is the privilege of the king who shall reign over you. He shall take your sons and shall appoint them for himself among his chariots, and among his horsemen. And they shall run before his chariots. ¹²And he will appoint for himself heads of thousands, and heads of fifties; and to plow his plowing, and to reap his reaping; and to make weapons for war for him, and weapons for his charioteer. ¹³And he will take your daughters for perfumers, and for cooks, and for bakers. ¹⁴And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, the best; and give them to his servants. ¹⁵And he will tithe your seed and your vineyards, and will give to his eunuchs and to his servants. ¹⁶And he will take your male slaves and your slave-girls, and the best of your young men, and your asses, and will use them for his own work. ¹⁷He will tithe your flock, and you will be servants to him. ¹⁸And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves. And Jehovah will not answer you in that day.

¹⁹And the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and said, No, but a king shall be over us. ²⁰And we shall be, even we, like all the nations. And our king shall judge us and shall go out before us and fight our battles. ²¹And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and spoke them in the ears of Jehovah. ²²And Jehovah said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and you shall cause a king to reign over them. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Each of you go to his city.

¹And there was a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite man, a mighty warrior. ²And he had a young and handsome son, and his name was Saul. And there was not a man among the sons of Israel more handsome than he, being taller than any of the people from his shoulder and upward.

³And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, Please take with you one of the young men, and rise up, go seek the asses. ⁴And he passed through the hills of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha. And they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shalim, and they were not there. And he passed through the land of Benjamin, and they did not find them. ⁵And they came to the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his young man with him, Come and we shall turn back, let my father give up the asses and become anxious for us. ⁶And he said to him, Behold now, a man of God is in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he speaks certainly comes to pass. Now let us go there. It may be he will declare our way to us on which we should go. ⁷And Saul said to his young man, Yea, behold, we will go. But what will we bring in to the man? For the bread from our vessels is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What is with us? ⁸And the young man answered Saul again and said, Behold, I have found a fourth of a shekel of silver; and I shall give it to the man of God, and he shall declare our way to us—⁹In former times in Israel, a man who was going to seek God said this, Come and we shall go to the seer; for the prophet of today was formerly called the seer —¹⁰and Saul said to his young man, Your word is good; come and we shall go. And they went into the city where the man of God was.

¹¹They were going up the ascent to the city, and found young women going out to draw water, and said to them, Is the seer in this place? ¹²And they replied to them and said, He is. See, he is before you. Hurry now, for today he will come into the city, for the people have a sacrifice in the high place. ¹³As you go into the city, so you shall find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, for he shall bless the sacrifice. Afterward they who are called will eat. And now, go up, for at this time you will find him. ¹⁴And they went up to the city. They were coming into the middle of the city, and, behold, Samuel was coming out to meet them, to go up to the high place. ¹⁵And Jehovah revealed in Samuel's ear one day before Saul came, saying, ¹⁶At this time tomorrow I will send to you a man out of the land of Benjamin. And you shall anoint him for the leader over My people Israel. And he shall save My people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen My people, for its cry has come to Me. ¹⁷When Samuel saw Saul, then Jehovah answered him, Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall exercise restraint over My people.

¹⁸And Saul drew near to Samuel amidst the gate, and said, Please tell me where is the seer's house? ¹⁹And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer. Go up before me into the high place, and you shall eat with me today. And I will send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart, I will declare to you. ²⁰And as to the asses which were lost to you three days ago, do not set your heart on them, for they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not to you and to all the house of your father? ²¹And Saul answered and said, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. And why have you spoken to me according to this word? ²²And Samuel took Saul and his young man and brought them into the room, and gave to them a place at the head of the invited ones. And they were about thirty men. ²³And Samuel said to the cook, Give the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, Set it beside you. ²⁴And the cook lifted up the leg, and that on it, and set it before Saul. And he said, Behold that which is left. Set it before you, eat. For it has been kept for you for this appointed time, saying, I have invited the people. And Saul ate with Samuel on that day. ²⁵And they came down from the high place to the city. And he spoke with Saul on the roof.

²⁶And they rose up early, and at the dawning of the day it happened: Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, Rise up, and I will send you away. And Saul rose up, and they went out, both of them, he and Samuel, to the outside. ²⁷They were going down to the edge of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, Say to the young man that he should pass on before us and cross over. And you stand still at this time, and I will cause you to hear the word of God.

¹And Samuel took the flask of oil and poured on his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because Jehovah has anointed you for a leader over his inheritance? ²As you go from me today even you will find two men by Rachel's tomb, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. And they will say to you, The she-asses that you went to seek have been found. And, behold, your father has left off the matters of the she-asses and is worried for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? ³And you will go on from there even further, and you will come to the great tree of Tabor. And you will find three men going up to

God at Bethel, one carrying three kids, and one carrying three loaves of bread, and one carrying a skin of wine. ⁴And they will ask you of your welfare and give to you two loaves of bread, and you will take them from their hand. ⁵Afterward you will come to the hill of God where there is a fort of the Philistines. And it will happen as you come there to the city, even you will meet a band of prophets going down from the high place; and before them will be a harp, and a tambourine, and a flute, and a lyre. And they will be prophesying. ⁶And the Spirit of Jehovah will be powerful on you, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be turned into another man. ⁷And it will be, when these signs come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds, for God is with you. ⁸And you will go before me to Gilgal. And, behold! I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings, to sacrifice peace offerings. You will wait seven days until I come to you and make known to you what you shall do. ⁹And it happened when he turned his back to go from Samuel, God changed him with another heart. And all these signs came on that day. ¹⁰And they came there to the hill. And, behold! A band of prophets were there to meet him. And the Spirit of God pushed on him, and he prophesied in their midst. ¹¹And it happened, all who knew him from yesterday and the third day, and saw him, even behold, he prophesied with prophets. And the people said, each one to his neighbor, What is this happening to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? ¹²And a man from there answered and said, And who is their father? On account of this it is for a proverb: Is Saul also among the prophets? ¹³And he finished from prophesying, and he came to the high place.

¹⁴And the uncle of Saul said to him and to his servant, Where did you go? And he said, To seek the she-asses. And we saw that they were not, and we went to Samuel. ¹⁵And the uncle of Saul said, Please tell me what Samuel said to you. ¹⁶And Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the she-asses were found. But he did not tell what Samuel said about the matter of the kingdom.

¹⁷And Samuel called the people to Jehovah, to Mizpah. ¹⁸And he said to the sons of Israel, So says Jehovah the God of Israel, I caused Israel to go up from Egypt and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all the kingdoms who oppressed you. ¹⁹But to-day you have rejected your God who Himself is your deliverer from all your evils and your distresses; yet you say to Him, But set a king over us! And now present yourselves before the face of Jehovah, by your tribes and by your families. ²⁰And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹And he brought near the tribe of Benjamin by its families, and the family of Matri was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken. And they sought him, but not did find him. ²²And they inquired again of Jehovah, Has the man yet come here? And Jehovah said, Behold he is hiding himself by the baggage. ²³And they ran and took him from there. And he stood in the midst of the people, and he was taller than all the people, from his shoulders and upward. ²⁴And Samuel said to all the people, Do you see him whom Jehovah has chosen, for none is like him in all the people? And all the people shouted and said, May the king live!

²⁵And Samuel spoke to the people the duties of the kingdom, and wrote in the book, and placed it before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, each to his house. ²⁶And Saul also went to his house, to Gibeah, and with him went the force whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷But the sons of worthlessness said, How can this one deliver us? And they despised him and did not bring a gift to him. But he was as one keeping silent.

¹And Nahash the Ammonite went up and camped against Jabesh-gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Cut a covenant for us, and we will serve you. ²And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, With this I will cut a covenant for you; when all the right eye is dug out for you; and I will make it a reproach on all Israel.

³And the elders of Jabesh said to him, Slack off from us seven days, and we will send messengers in all the boundary of Israel. And if there is no deliverer for us, then we will come out to you. ⁴And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul. And they spoke the words in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice and wept.

⁵And, behold, Saul came behind the oxen from the field. And Saul said, What is it to the people, that they weep? And they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh. ⁶And the Spirit of God came powerfully on Saul when he heard these words, and his anger glowed greatly. ⁷And he took the team of oxen and cut them in pieces, and he sent them into all the boundary of Israel, by the hand of the messengers, saying, Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so it shall be done to his oxen. And the fear of Jehovah fell on the people. And they came out as one man. ⁸And he mustered them in Bezek, and the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah, thirty thousand.

⁹And they said to the messengers who came, So you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow there shall be deliverance for you, in the heat of the sun. And the messengers came and related this to the men of Jabesh; and they rejoiced. ¹⁰And the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you do to us according to all the good in your eyes. ¹¹And it was, on the next day Saul put the people in three heads, and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch and they struck Ammon until the heat of the day. And it was, the ones left were scattered; in them were not two left together.

¹²And the people said to Samuel, Who is he saying, Shall Saul reign over us? Give the men and we will put them to death. ¹³And Saul said, Not a man shall be put to death on this day, for today Jehovah worked deliverance in Israel. ¹⁴And Samuel said to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there. ¹⁵And all the people went to Gilgal and made Saul to reign there in Gilgal, before the face of Jehovah. And they offered sacrifices of peace offerings there before Jehovah. And Saul and all the men of Israel greatly rejoiced there.

¹And Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have heard your voice, to all that you said to me, and I made a king to reign over you. ²And now, behold, the king is walking before you, but I am old and gray. And, behold, my sons, they are with you. And I have walked before your face from my youth until this day. ³Behold me! Testify against me before Jehovah and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, and whose ass have I taken, and whom have I offended? Whom have I abused, and from whose hand have I taken a bribe that I might hide my eyes with it; and I will give back to you. ⁴And they said, You have not oppressed us, and you have not abused us, and you have not taken from the hand of any man. ⁵And he said to them, Jehovah is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they said, He is witness.

⁶And Samuel said to the people, It is Jehovah who made Moses and Aaron, and who caused your fathers to go up from the land of Egypt. ⁷And now stand, and I will contend with you before the face of Jehovah regarding all the righteous acts of Jehovah which He did with you and with your fathers. ⁸When Jacob came into Egypt, and your fathers cried to Jehovah, then Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron; and they brought your fathers out from Egypt and made them dwell in this place. ⁹And they forgot Jehovah their God. And He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. ¹⁰And they cried to Jehovah and said, We have sinned, for we forsook Jehovah and served the Baals and the Ashtaroth, but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies and we will serve You. ¹¹And Jehovah sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you from the hand of your enemies from all around; and you lived securely. ¹²And you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, and you said to Me, No, for a king shall reign over us—even though Jehovah your God was king over you. ¹³And now, behold the king whom you chose, whom you requested. And behold, Jehovah gave a king over you. ¹⁴If you will fear Jehovah and serve Him, and listen to His voice, and do not rebel against the mouth of Jehovah, then you, both you and also the king who reigns over you, shall follow Jehovah your God. ¹⁵But if you will not listen to the voice of Jehovah, and you rebel against the mouth of Jehovah, then the hand of Jehovah shall be against you and against your fathers. ¹⁶Also, now present yourselves and see this great thing that Jehovah will do before your eyes. ¹⁷*Is it* not wheat harvest today? I will call to Jehovah and He will give sounds and rain. And know and see that your evil is great, that which you have done in the eyes of Jehovah, to ask a king for yourselves.

¹⁸And Samuel called to Jehovah. And Jehovah gave sounds and rain in that day. And all the people greatly feared Jehovah and Samuel. ¹⁹And all the people said to Samuel, Pray to Jehovah your God for your servants, and not we will die, for we have added this evil to all our sins, to ask a king for ourselves. ²⁰And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear. You have done all this evil, only do not turn aside from following Jehovah, and serve Jehovah with all your heart. ²¹And do not turn aside to go after worthless things which do not profit and do not deliver, for they are worthless. ²²For Jehovah will not abandon His people, for the sake of His great name. For Jehovah undertakes to make you a people for Himself. ²³Also I, far be it from me from sinning against Jehovah, from ceasing to pray for you. But I will instruct you in the good and the right way. ²⁴Only fear Jehovah and serve Him in truth with all your heart, for see that He has done great things for you. ²⁵But if evilly break in pieces His word, both you and your king will be swept away.

It was one year since Saul became king, then he reigned two more years over Israel. ²And Saul chose for himself three thousand out of Israel. And two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in the hills of Bethel. And a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And he sent the rest of the people each to his tent. ³And Jonathan struck the fort of the Philistines that was in Geba. And the Philistines heard. And Saul blew the ram's horn throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. ⁴And all Israel heard, saying, Saul has struck a fort of the Philistines; and also Israel has made himself stink to the Philistines. And all the people were called after Saul, to Gilgal. ⁵And the Philistines gathered to fight with Israel, with thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the lip of the sea for multitude. And they came up and pitched in Michmash, east of Beth-aven. ⁶And the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, for the people were distressed. And the people hid themselves in caves, and in crevices, and in crags, and in tombs, and in cisterns. ⁷And the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was still in Gilgal. And all the people followed him, trembling.

⁸And he waited seven days, according to the set time with Samuel. But Samuel had not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. ⁹And Saul said, Bring near to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings. And he offered up the burnt offering. ¹⁰And it happened, as soon as he finished the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him, and to bless him. ¹¹And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and you did not come in the days set out, and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, ¹²then I said, Now the Philistines will come down to me to Gilgal, and I have not sweetened the face of Jehovah; and I forced myself, and offered a burnt offering. ¹³And Samuel said to Saul, You have acted foolishly that you have not kept the command of Jehovah your God which He commanded you. For now Jehovah would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

¹⁴But now your kingdom shall not stand. Jehovah has sought out for Himself a man according to His own heart, and Jehovah has appointed him as leader over His people. For you have not kept that which Jehovah commanded you.

¹⁵And Samuel rose up and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were found with him, about six hundred men. ¹⁶And Saul and his son Jonathan, and the people who were found with them, were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin; and the Philistines pitched in Michmash. ¹⁷And the spoilers came out of the Philistine camp in three companies; one company turned to the way to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; ¹⁸And another company turned the way to Beth-horon; and another company turned to the way of the border looking down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. ¹⁹And there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears. ²⁰And all Israel went down to the Philistines, each man to sharpen his plowshare, and his mattock, and his axe, and his plowshare. ²¹And the sharpening charge was a pim for the plowshares, and for the mattocks, and for the three-pronged forks, and for the axes, and for setting the plowshares. ²²And it happened in the day of battle that there was neither sword nor spear in the hand of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan. But one was found with Saul and with his son Jonathan. ²³And the fort of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

¹And the day came that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armor, Come, and we will go over to the fort of the Philistines on the other side. But he did not tell his father. ²And Saul was waiting at the edge of Gibeah, under the pomegranate in Migron; also the people with him, about six hundred men. ³And Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, the son of Ichabod, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli the priest of Jehovah in Shiloh, was wearing the ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had left. ⁴And between the passes by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistine fort, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other, Seneh. ⁵The one crag was on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Gibeah. ⁶And Jonathan said to the young man bearing his weapons, Come, we shall cross over to the fort of these uncircumcised ones. It may be Jehovah will work for us, for there is no hindrance to Jehovah, to save by many or by few. ⁷And his armor-bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart; turn yourself. Behold, I am with you according to your heart. ⁸And Jonathan said, Behold, we will cross over to the men and show ourselves to them. ⁹If they say this to us, Stand still until we reach you, then we will stand in our place and not go up to them. ¹⁰But if they say this, Come up to us, then we will go up, for Jehovah has given them into our hand; and this will be the sign for us.

¹¹And both of them were revealed to the fort of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, See, Hebrews coming out from the holes there where they hid themselves! ¹²And the men of the fort answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will teach you a thing. And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, Come up after me, for Jehovah has given them into the hand of Israel. ¹³And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, and the armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and the armor-bearer killed after him. ¹⁴And this was the first blow, when Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck about twenty men in about half of a furrow of an acre of a field.

¹⁵And there was trembling in the camp in the field, and among all the people; the fort and the spoilers trembled, even them. And the ground quaked, and it was for a trembling of God. ¹⁶And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude had melted away; and they went, even here and there. ¹⁷And Saul said to the people who were with him, Make a count now and see who has gone from us. And they counted, and, behold, Jonathan and the armor-bearer were not there. ¹⁸And Saul said to Ahijah, Bring the ark of God here, for the ark of God was with the sons of Israel on that day. ¹⁹And

Philistines went on, going on and increasing. And Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand. ²⁰And Saul and all the people with him gathered together and went to the battle. And, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, a very great panic! ²¹Then the Hebrews who were for the Philistines before, who had gone with them to the camp, turned around, even they, to be with Israel that was with Saul and Jonathan. ²²And all the men of Israel who had been hiding themselves in the hills of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled. And they also pursued them in battle. ²³And Jehovah saved Israel that day. And the battle passed over to Bethaven.

²⁴And the men of Israel were distressed on that day, for Saul took an oath of the people, saying, Cursed shall be the man who eats food until the evening, when I have been avenged on my foes. And none of the people tasted food. ²⁵And all those of the land came into a forest, and there was honey on the ground. ²⁶And the people came into the forest; and, behold, a flow of honey! But no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. ²⁷And Jonathan did not hear when his father made the people swear. And he put out the tip of the staff in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. And he put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. ²⁸And one of the people answered and said, Your father certainly took an oath of the people, saying, Cursed shall be the man who eats food today. And the people were weak. ²⁹And Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land. See, now, that my eyes became bright, for I tasted this little honey. ³⁰How much more if the people had eaten well today of this spoil of its enemies which it has found. For now the blow among the Philistines has not been great. ³¹And they struck the Philistines on that day from Michmash to Ajalon, and the people were very weak. ³²And the people fell on the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and sons of the herd, and slaughtered them to the ground. And the people ate with the blood.

³³And they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people are sinning against Jehovah, to eat with the blood. And he said, You have acted treacherously. Now roll me a great stone today. ³⁴And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, Each one bring his ox near to me, and each his sheep. And you shall kill them in this place, and eat; and you shall not sin against Jehovah, to eat with the blood. And all the people each brought near his ox in his hand that night, and they slaughtered there. ³⁵And Saul built an altar to Jehovah. With it he began to build an altar to Jehovah. ³⁶And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and we shall plunder them until the morning light, and not a man remains among them. And they said, Do all that is good in your eyes. And the priest said, Let us draw near here to God. ³⁷And Saul asked of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel? But He did not answer him on that day. ³⁸And Saul said, All leaders of the people draw near here, and know and see how this sin has happened today. ³⁹For as Jehovah lives, who delivers Israel, surely if it is my son Jonathan, he shall certainly die. And no one answered him from all the people. ⁴⁰And he said to all Israel, You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on another side. And the people said to Saul, Do that which is good in your eyes. ⁴¹And Saul said to Jehovah, the God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, and the people went out. ⁴²And Saul said, Cast between me and my son Jonathan. And Jonathan was taken. ⁴³And Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me, what did you do? And Jonathan told him, and said, I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand. Behold, I am here; I will die. ⁴⁴And Saul said, God do so and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan. ⁴⁵And the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, he who did this great deliverance in Israel? Far be it! As Jehovah lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day. And the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die. ⁴⁶And Saul went up from following the Philistines. And the Philistines went to their own place.

⁴⁷And Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies round about, with Moab, and with the sons of Ammon, and with Edom, and with the kings of Zobah, and with the Philistines, and wherever he turned, he put them to the worse. ⁴⁸And he acted with force and struck Amalek, and delivered Israel from the hand of their plunderers. ⁴⁹And the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and his two daughters' names: the firstborn's name was Merab; and the name of the younger, Michal. ⁵⁰And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of his army commander was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. ⁵¹And Kish was Saul's father, and Ner Abner's father was the son of Abiel.

⁵²And the war was strong against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any mighty man, or any brave man, then he gathered him to himself.

¹And Samuel said to Saul, Jehovah sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. And now listen to the voice of the words of Jehovah. ²So says Jehovah of hosts, I will visit Amalek with what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. ³Now go, and you shall strike Amalek and destroy all that he has. And you shall have no pity on him, and you shall put to death all from man to woman, from little one to suckling, from ox to sheep, from camel to ass. ⁴And Saul heard and mustered the people in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand were men of Judah.

⁵And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in a torrent-bed. ⁶And Saul said to the Kenite, Go! Depart! Go out from the midst of Amalek, lest I take away you with him. For you acted with kindness toward all the sons of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. And the Kenite departed from the midst of Amalek. ⁷And Saul struck Amalek from Havilah, as you go to Shur, which is before Egypt. ⁸And he captured Agag the king of Amalek alive. But he exterminated all the people with the mouth of the sword. ⁹And Saul and the people had pity on Agag, and on the best of the flock, and of the herd, and the seconds, and the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to exterminate them. But everything that was of no account and feeble, they exterminated.

¹⁰And the word of Jehovah was to Samuel, saying, ¹¹I repent that I made Saul reign as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and he has not risen to do my words. And Samuel was angry, and he cried to Jehovah all night. ¹²And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning. And it was told to Samuel, saying, Saul has come to Carmel. And behold, he has set up a monument to himself, and has gone around, and has passed over and gone down to Gilgal. ¹³And Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, Blessed are you of Jehovah. I have risen to do the word of Jehovah. ¹⁴And Samuel said, What then is this bleating of the flock in my ears, and the sound of the herd that I hear. ¹⁵And Saul said, They have brought them from Amalek, because the people had pity on the best of the flock, and of the herd, in order to sacrifice to Jehovah your God. And the rest we have exterminated. ¹⁶And Samuel said to Saul, Stop, and I will declare to you that which Jehovah spoke to me tonight. And he said to him, Speak.

¹⁷And Samuel said, Were you not, even you, little in your own eyes before becoming leader of the tribes of Israel? And Jehovah anointed you as king over Israel. ¹⁸And Jehovah sent you on the way, and said, Go, and exterminate the sinners, Amalek; and fight against them until they finish them. ¹⁹Then why did you not listen to the voice of Jehovah? Yea, you flew on the spoil, and did evil in the eyes of Jehovah. ²⁰And Saul said to Samuel, I did obey the voice of Jehovah, and I went in the way which Jehovah sent me, and brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I exterminated Amalek. ²¹And the people took from the spoil of the flock, and the first of the herd, that devoted, to sacrifice to Jehovah your God in Gilgal. ²²And Samuel said, Does Jehovah delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice! To give attention is better than the fat of rams. ²³For the sin of divination is rebellion; insolence is both iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of Jehovah, so He has rejected you from being king.

²⁴And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, for I have transgressed the mouth of Jehovah and your word, because I feared the people, and I listened to their voice. ²⁵And now please lift up my sin, and return with me that I may worship Jehovah. ²⁶And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah has rejected you from being king over Israel. ²⁷And Samuel turned around to go. And he took hold on the skirt of his robe, and it tore. ²⁸And Samuel said to him, Jehovah has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you. ²⁹And also the Glory of Israel will not lie nor repent, for He is not a man that He should repent.

³⁰And he said, I have sinned. Honor me now, I beg you, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and return with me. And I shall worship Jehovah your God. ³¹And Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped Jehovah.

³²And Samuel said, Bring near to me Agag the king of Amalek. And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death has passed. ³³And Samuel said, As your sword has bereaved women of children, so shall your mother be bereft among women. And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.

³⁴And Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went to his house, to Gibeah of Saul.

³⁵And Samuel never again saw Saul until the day of his death, for Samuel mourned for Saul. And Jehovah repented that He had caused Saul to reign over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

¹And Jehovah said to Samuel, Until when will you mourn for Saul, for I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have seen a king for Me among his sons. ²And Samuel said, How can I go? When Saul hears, then he will kill me. And Jehovah said, You shall take a heifer from the herd in your hand, and shall say, I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah. ³And you invite Jesse to the sacrifice. And I will make you know what you shall do. And you shall anoint for Me whomever I say to you. ⁴And Samuel did what Jehovah said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled to meet him, and said, Do you come in peace? ⁵And he said, Peace! I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah. Sanctify yourselves, and you shall come to me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

¹⁰And Jesse passed seven of his sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, Jehovah has not chosen among these.

¹¹And Samuel said to Jesse, Are these all the young men? And he said, There yet remains the youngest; and behold, he is tending the flock. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and bring him, for we will not sit until he comes here. ¹²And he sent and brought him in. And he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and good form. And Jehovah said, Rise up, anoint him, for this is he. ¹³And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon David from that day and onward. And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

¹⁴And the Spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Jehovah terrified him. ¹⁵And Saul's servants said to him, Behold, now an evil spirit from God is terrifying you. ¹⁶Please let our lord say to your servants before you, let them seek out a man who knows how to play on the harp. And it shall be, when the evil spirit from God is upon you, then he shall play with his hand, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁷And Saul said to his servants, Now look for a man who is good at playing for me, and bring him to me. ¹⁸One of the servants answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, and a mighty warrior, and a man of battle, and skillful in speech, and a man of form. And Jehovah is with him. ¹⁹And Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send your son David to me, who is with the flock. ²⁰And Jesse took an ass, with bread, and a skin of wine, and one kid of the goats; and he sent by the hand of his son David to Saul. ²¹And David came to Saul, and stood before him. And he loved him greatly; and he became his armor-bearer. ²²And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Please let David stand before me, for he has found grace in my eyes. ²³And it happened, when the evil spirit from God was on Saul, then David would take the harp and play with his hand. And there was relief for Saul, and it was well with him. And the evil spirit would depart from him.

⁴And a champion came out from the armies of the Philistines, Goliath was his name, from Gath; his height was six cubits and a span. ⁵And a bronze helmet was on his head, and he was clothed with scaled body-armor; and the weight of the body-armor was five thousand shekels of bronze. ⁶And a covering of bronze was on his legs, and a javelin of bronze between his shoulders. ⁷And the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and the blade of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron. And the shield-bearer went before him. ⁸And he stood and called to the ranks of Israel, and said to them, Why do you come out to set in order the battle? Am I not the Philistine, and you

Saul's servants? Choose one for yourselves, and let him come to me. ⁹If he is able to fight with me and strike me, then we shall become slaves to you. But if I am able to win over him, and to strike him, then you shall become slaves to us and shall serve us. ¹⁰And the Philistine said, I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man, and we will fight together. ¹¹And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine. And they were broken down, and greatly afraid.

¹²And David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem from Judah; and his name was Jesse. And to him were eight sons. And the man was old among men in the days of Saul. ¹³And the three eldest sons of Jesse went out; they went after Saul to the battle. And the name of his three sons who went into the battle: Eliab, the first-born; and his second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah. ¹⁴And David was the youngest. And the three eldest had gone after Saul. ¹⁵And David went and returned from Saul, to feed his father's flock at Bethlehem.

¹⁶And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

¹⁷And Jesse said to his son David, Please take to your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp, to your brothers. ¹⁸And you shall take these ten cuttings of cheese to the commander of the thousand, and you shall visit your brothers, as to how they fare. And you shall bring their token. ¹⁹And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. ²⁰And David rose up early in the morning and left the sheep with a keeper, and got up and went, as Jesse commanded him. And he came to the barricade, and to the army which was going out to the battle-array. And they were shouting for battle. ²¹And Israel and the Philistines set up in battle-array for rank to meet rank. ²²And David left the goods on him into the hands of the store-keeper, and ran to the army. And he came and asked his brothers of their welfare. ²³And he was speaking to them. And, behold, the champion man, his name being Goliath, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines. And he spoke according to these words. And David heard.

²⁴And when they saw the man, all the men of Israel ran from him, and were very much afraid. ²⁵And the men of Israel said, Have you seen the man who comes up? For he has come to defy Israel. And it shall be, the man who strikes him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and he will give his daughter to him. And he will make his father's house free in Israel. ²⁶And David spoke to the men who were standing with him, saying, What shall be done to the man who strikes this Philistine, and turns aside reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should reproach the armies of the living God? ²⁷And the people spoke to him according to this word, saying, So shall it be done to the man who strikes him.

²⁸And his eldest brother Eliab heard when he spoke to the men. And Eliab's anger burned against David. And he said, Why is it you have come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride, and the evil of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle. ²⁹And David said, What have I done now? Was it not but a word? ³⁰And he turned around from him to another and said the same word. And the people answered him a word like the first word.

³¹And the words which David had spoken were heard. And they were told before Saul, and he received him. ³²And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and will fight with this Philistine. ³³And Saul said to David, You are not able to go to this Philistine, to fight with him, for you are a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth. ³⁴And David said to Saul, Your servant has been a shepherd among sheep for his father. And the lion came, and the bear, and took away a sheep out of the flock. ³⁵And I went out after him and struck him, and delivered out of his mouth. And he rose against me, and I took hold of his beard and struck him, and killed him. ³⁶Your servant has struck both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, for he has reproached the armies of the living God. ³⁷And David said, Jehovah, who has delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, He shall deliver me from the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and Jehovah be with you. ³⁸And Saul clothed David with his apparel, and put a bronze helmet on his head, and clothed him with body-armor. ³⁹And David girded his sword on his apparel, and started to go. But he had not tested these. And David said to Saul, I am not able to go with these, for I have not tested. And David took them off him. ⁴⁰And he took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook. And he put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his pouch. And his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

⁴¹And the Philistine came on, coming and drawing near to David; and the shield-bearer was before him. ⁴²And the Philistine looked, and he saw David, and disdained him, for he was a youth, even ruddy, with a handsome form. ⁴³And the Philistine said to David, Am I a dog that you have come to me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the field. ⁴⁵And David said to the Philistine, You are coming to me with sword, and with spear, and with javelin. But I am coming to you in the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, which you have reproached. ⁴⁶Today Jehovah shall shut you up into my hand, and I shall strike you, and take off your head from you, and give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth today. And all the earth shall know that there is a God for Israel. ⁴⁷And all this company shall know that Jehovah does not save by sword and by spear, but that the battle belongs to Jehovah, and He has given you into our hand.

⁴⁸And it happened, when the Philistine arose and went, and drew near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the ranks to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹And David put his hand into the vessel and took a stone from there. And he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.

⁵⁰And David was stronger than the Philistine with the sling and with the stone. And he struck the Philistine and killed him. And there was no sword in David's hand. ⁵¹And David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword; and he drew it out of its sheath and killed him. And he cut off his head with it. And the Philistines saw that their warrior was dead, and they fled. ⁵²And the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted, and pursued the Philistines until you enter the valley, even to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell in the way of Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron. ⁵³And the sons of Israel returned from hotly pursuing the Philistines; and they pillaged their camps. ⁵⁴And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; and he put his weapons in his own tent.

⁵⁵And when Saul saw David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, the army commander, Whose son is this youth, Abner? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I do not know. ⁵⁶And the king said, You ask whose son this young man is. ⁵⁷And when David returned from striking the Philistine, then Abner took him and brought him before Saul; and the head of the Philistine was in his hand. ⁵⁸And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, boy? And David said, The son of your servant Jesse, the Bethlehemite.

¹And it happened, when he finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knitted with the soul of David; and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. ²And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house. ³And Jonathan and David cut a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. ⁴And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David; also his apparel, even to his sword and to his bow and his belt. ⁵And David went out wherever Saul sent him. And he acted wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war. And it was good in the eyes of all the people, and also in the eyes of Saul's servants.

⁶And it happened as they came in, as David returned from striking the Philistine, the women came out from all the cities of Israel to sing with the dancers, to meet Saul the king with tabrets and with joy and three-stringed instruments. ⁷And the women who were playing answered and said, Saul has slain his thousands, but David his myriads. ⁸And it very much burned Saul, and this thing was evil in his eyes. And he said, They have given myriads to David, and to me they have given thousands. And is there more to him, except the kingdom? ⁹And from that day forward Saul was watching David.

¹⁰And on the next day it happened that the evil spirit from God came on Saul. And he prophesied in the midst of the house; and David was playing with his hand, as he did day by day. And Saul's spear was in his hand. ¹¹And Saul threw the spear, and said, I will strike David, even to the wall. And David twice drew back from his face.

¹²And Saul feared David, because Jehovah was with him, and had departed from Saul. ¹³And Saul separated him from himself. And he went out and came in before the people. ¹⁴And David acted wisely in all his ways, and Jehovah was with him. ¹⁵And Saul saw that he was acting wisely, and was afraid of him. ¹⁶And all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.

¹⁷And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab! I will give her to you for a wife; only, you be a brave son for me and fight the battles of Jehovah. And Saul said, Let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him. ¹⁸And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what my life, and the family of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? ¹⁹And it happened at the time Saul was to give his daughter Merab to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholahite for a wife.

²⁰And Saul's daughter Michal loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing was right in his eyes. ²¹And Saul said, I will give her to him, and she shall be a snare to him. And the hand of the Philistines shall be on him. And Saul said to David a second time, You shall be my son-in-law today. ²²And Saul commanded his servants, Speak to David secretly, saying, Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. And now, be son-in-law to the king. ²³And Saul's servants spoke these words in David's ears. And David said, Is it a light thing in your eyes to be son-in-law to the king? And I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed. ²⁴And Saul's servants spoke to him, saying, David has spoken according to these words. ²⁵And Saul said, So you shall say to David, There is no delight to the king in dowry, but in a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged on the king's enemies. And Saul thought to cause David to fall by the hand of the Philistines. ²⁶And his servants told David these words. And the thing was right in David's eyes, to be son-in-law to the king. And the days had not been fulfilled. ²⁷And David rose up and went out, he and his men. And they struck two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and he gave them in full to the king, in order to be son-in-law to the king. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife. ²⁸And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David, and that Michal, the daughter of Saul, loved him. ²⁹And Saul was still more afraid of David. And Saul was an enemy to David continually.

³⁰And the rulers of the Philistines came out. And it happened from the time they came out, David acted more wisely than all the servants of Saul. And His name was greatly esteemed.

¹And Saul spoke to his son Jonathan, and to all his servants, to kill David. ²And Saul's son Jonathan delighted exceedingly in David. And Jonathan told David, saying, My father Saul is seeking to kill you. And, now, please be on guard in the morning, and you shall stay in the secret place, and shall hide. ³And I, I will go out and will stand by my father's side in the field where you are. And I will speak of you to my father, and shall see what it is, and will tell you. ⁴And Jonathan spoke good things of David to his father Saul, and said to him, Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you; also because his works for you are very good. ⁵Yea, he has put his life in his hand and killed the Philistine. And Jehovah worked a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. And why do you sin against innocent blood, to put David to death for no reason?

⁸And there was war again. And David went out and fought against the Philistines, and struck among them with a great slaughter. And they fled from his face. ⁹And the evil spirit from Jehovah was on Saul. And he was sitting in his house, and his spear in his hand. And David was playing with the hand. ¹⁰And Saul tried to strike with the spear through David and through the wall. But he burst forth from Saul's presence. And he struck the spear through the wall. And David fled, and escaped during that night.

¹¹And Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. And his wife Michal told David, saying, If you do not escape with your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed. ¹²And Michal made David go down through the window. And he went, and fled, and escaped. ¹³And Michal took an image and laid it on the bed; and she put the quilt of goat's hair at his head-place, and covered with a spread. ¹⁴And Saul sent messengers to take David. And she said, He is sick. ¹⁵And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, to kill him. ¹⁶And the messengers came in. And, behold, the image was on the bed, and the quilt of goat's hair at his head-place. ¹⁷And Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me this way, that you have sent away my enemy, and he has escaped? And Michal said to Saul, He said to me, Send me away; why should I kill you?

¹⁸And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he went, he and Samuel, and they lived in Naioth. ¹⁹And it was told to Saul, saying, Behold, David is in Naioth in Ramah. ²⁰And Saul sent messengers to take David. And they saw the assembly of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them. And the Spirit of God came on Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied. ²¹And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers. And they also prophesied. And again Saul sent messengers, a third time. And they also prophesied. ²²And he went, he also, to Ramah, and came to the great well in Sechu. And Saul asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, in Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God came on him, him also. And going on, he went and prophesied until he came into Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴And he stripped off his garments, he also, and he prophesied before Samuel, even he. And he fell down disrobed all that day and all that night. Because of this they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

¹And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life? ²And he said to him, Far be it! You shall not die. Behold, my father shall not do anything great or small, and not reveal it to my ear. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so. ³And David again swore and said, Your father has certainly known that I have found favor in your eyes; and he said, Do not let Jonathan know this, that he not be grieved. And yet, as Jehovah lives, and your soul lives, there is only a step between me and death. ⁴And Jonathan said to David, What your soul may say, I also will do for you. ⁵And David said to Jonathan, Behold, the new moon is tomorrow. And I should certainly sit with the king to eat. And you shall send me away, and I shall be hidden in the field until the third evening. ⁶If your father at all looks for me, then you shall say, David asked earnestly of me to run to his city Bethlehem; for the yearly sacrifice is there for all the family. ⁷If he shall say this, Good! Peace shall be for your servant. But if it burns him greatly, know that evil has been determined by him. ⁸And you shall do kindness to your servant, for you have brought your servant with you into a covenant of Jehovah. And if there is iniquity in me, you kill me. For why is this, that you bring me to your father? ⁹And Jonathan said, Far be it from you! For if I knew with certainty that evil was determined by my father, to come on you, would I not tell it to you? ¹⁰Then David said to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? Or what if your father answers harshly? ¹¹And Jonathan said to David, Come, and we shall go out to the field; and both of them went out to the field. ¹²And Jonathan said to David, Jehovah the God of Israel be witness when I probe my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, and behold, there is good toward David, and I do not send to you, and do not speak in your ear. ¹³So may Jehovah do to Jonathan, and do much more than this, if it should please my father to do evil to you, then I shall speak in your ear and send you away. And you shall go in peace; and may Jehovah be with you, as He was with my father. ¹⁴And not only while I live, even you shall not show me the kindness of Jehovah, that I not die, ¹⁵but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, not even when Jehovah cuts off the enemies of David, each one from off the face of the earth. ¹⁶And Jonathan covenanted with the house of David, that Jehovah should seek it from the hand of David's enemies. ¹⁷And Jonathan again made David swear, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul. ¹⁸And Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon, and you shall be expected; for your seat will be empty. ¹⁹And on the third day you shall quickly come down and shall come there to the place where you were hidden in the day of the deed. And you shall remain near the stone Ezel. ²⁰And I will shoot three arrows to the side, shooting at a mark for myself. ²¹And, behold, I shall send a boy, saying, Go, find the arrows! If I expressly say to the boy, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, take them; then you come, for peace shall be to you, and there is nothing — as Jehovah lives. ²²But if I say to the young man, behold, the arrows are away from you and onwards; go, for Jehovah has sent you away. ²³As to the thing which we have spoken, you and I; behold, Jehovah is between you and me forever.

²⁴And David was hidden in the field. And it was the new moon. And the king sat down by the food to eat. ²⁵And the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on the seat by the wall. And Jonathan rose up; and Abner sat at Saul's side; and David's place was empty. ²⁶But Saul did not say anything on that day, for he said, It is an accident; he is not clean; he is surely not clean. ²⁷And it happened on the day after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today? ²⁸And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked of me to go to Bethlehem. ²⁹And he said, Please send me away, for we have a family sacrifice in the city, and my brother commanded me. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me be released, and to see my brothers. So he has not come to the table of the king.

³⁰And the anger of Saul glowed against Jonathan. And he said to him, Son of a perverse rebelliousness! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your shame, and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother? ³¹For as long as the son of Jesse lives on earth you shall not be established, you and your kingdom. And now send and bring him to me, for he is a son of death. ³²And Jonathan answered his father Saul, and said to him, Why should he be put to death? What has he done? ³³And Saul threw the spear at him, to strike him. And Jonathan knew that it had been determined by his father to kill David. ³⁴And Jonathan rose up from the table in the heat of anger. And he did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David. For his father had put him to shame.

³⁵And it happened in the morning that Jonathan went out in the field for the meeting with David. And a little boy was with him. ³⁶And he said to the boy, Now run and find the arrow which I am shooting. The boy ran, and he shot the arrow, causing it to pass over him. ³⁷And the boy came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot. And Jonathan called after the boy and said, Is the arrow not away from you and onwards? ³⁸And Jonathan called after the boy, Hurry, make haste, do not stand! And Jonathan's boy gathered the arrow and came to his master. ³⁹And the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. ⁴⁰And Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy with him, and said to him, Go, carry to the city. ⁴¹The boy left, and David rose up from the south side. And he fell on his face to the ground. And he bowed three times. And they each one kissed his friend. And they each wept on his friend, until David exceeded. ⁴²And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, because we have sworn, the two of us, in the name of Jehovah, saying, Jehovah shall be between you and me, and between my seed and your seed forever. And he rose up and went. And Jonathan went into the city.

¹And David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech trembled at meeting David, and said to him, Why are you by yourself, and no man with you? ²And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has commanded me a matter; and he said to me, Do not let a man know anything of the matter about which I am sending you, and which I told you. And I have directed the young men to such and such a place. ³And now, what is there under your hand? Give five loaves into my hand, or whatever is found. ⁴And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but only holy bread, if the young men have only been kept from a woman. ⁵And David answered the priest and said to him, Surely, a woman has been kept from us as yesterday and the third day, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy. And in a way the holy bread is common; also surely today it is sanctified in the vessels. ⁶And the priest gave the holy bread to him, for there was no bread there except the Bread of the Presence which is taken from the presence of Jehovah in order to put hot bread in on the day it is taken away.

⁸And David said to Ahimelech, Is there not here under your hand spear or sword? For I have taken neither my sword or my vessels, for the king's matter was urgent. ⁹And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck in the valley of Elah; behold, it is wrapped in the cloak behind the ephod. If you desire, take it for yourself; for there is no other here except it. And David said, There is none like it. Give it to me.

¹⁰And David rose up and fled from the face of Saul on that day, and he came to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹And the servants of Achish said to him, Is this not David the king of the land? Is it not of this one they sang in dances, saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his myriads? ¹²And David put these words in his heart, and was very much afraid of the face of Achish the king of Gath. ¹³And he changed his behavior before their eyes, and pretended himself to be insane in their hand, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall onto his beard. ¹⁴And Achish said to his servants, Behold, you see the man is showing madness. Why do you bring him to me? ¹⁵Do I have need of madmen, that you have brought this one in to show madness beside me? Shall this one come into my house?

¹And David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And his brothers heard, and all his father's house, and went down to him there. ²And every man in distress, and every man who had a creditor, and every man bitter of soul, gathered themselves to them. And he became commander over them. And about four hundred men were with him.

³And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, Please let my father and my mother come and be with you, until I know what God will do for me. ⁴And he settled them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the days David was in the stronghold. ⁵And Gad the prophet said to David, You shall not remain in the stronghold. Go, and you come into the land of Judah. And David left and came into the forest of Hareth.

⁶And Saul heard that David had been discovered, and the men who were with him. And Saul was staying in Gibeah under the tamarisk-tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand. And all his servants were standing by him. ⁷And Saul said to his servants who were standing by him, Now hear, Benjamites. Will the son of Jesse also give to any of you fields and vineyards? Will he make each of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, ⁸that all of you have conspired against me, and no one was revealing in my ear when my son cut a covenant with the son of Jesse? And not one of you is sorry for me, even to reveal in my ear that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day. ⁹And Doeg the Edomite, even he was set over Saul's servants, answered and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. ¹⁰And he asked for him of Jehovah, and gave provisions to him, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. ¹¹And the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests in Nob. And they came, all of them, to the king. ¹²And Saul said, Now hear, son of Ahitub. And he said, I am here, my lord. ¹³And Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by your giving bread and a sword to him, and to ask of God for him, to rise up against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? ¹⁴And Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who among all your servants is as David the faithful, and son-in-law of the king; who does your bidding, and is honorable in all your house? ¹⁵Have I today begun to ask of God for him? Far be it from me! Do not let the king lay anything against his servant, against any of my father's house, for your servant has known nothing of this, more or less.

¹⁶And the king said, You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father's house.

¹⁷And the king said to the runners that stood by him, Turn and kill the priests of Jehovah, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing, and did not reveal it in my ear. But the king's servants were not willing to put forth their hand to fall on the priests of Jehovah. ¹⁸And the king said to Doeg, You turn and fall on the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned and fell on the priests and killed eighty-five men bearing a linen ephod in that day. ¹⁹And he struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the mouth of the sword, from man even to woman, from child even to suckling, and ox, and ass, and sheep, with the mouth of the sword.

²⁰And one son escaped of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. And his name was Abiathar, and he fled after David. ²¹And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of Jehovah. ²²And David said to Abiathar, I knew on that day when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he certainly would tell Saul. I am accountable for all the lives of your father's house. ²³Stay with me. Do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life. For with me you will be under protection.

¹And they spoke to David, saying, Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are plundering the threshing floors. ²And David asked of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go? And shall I strike against these Philistines? And Jehovah said to David, Go, and you shall strike the Philistines and save Keilah. ³And David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; and how shall we go to Keilah to the armies of the Philistines? ⁴And David once again inquired of Jehovah. And Jehovah answered him and said, Rise up, go down to Keilah, for I have given the Philistines into your hand. ⁵And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and led away their livestock, and killed among them with a great blow. And David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

⁶And it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David, near Keilah, an ephod came in his hand. ⁷And it was told to Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, God has estranged him into my hand. For he is shut in, to enter into a city of gates and a bar. ⁸And Saul heard and called all the people to battle, to go down to Keilah, to lay siege to David and to his men. ⁹But David knew that Saul was devising evil against him. And he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod near. ¹⁰And David said, O Jehovah the God of Israel, Your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city because of me. ¹¹Will the masters of Keilah shut me up into his hand? Will Saul come down as Your servant has heard? I pray You, Jehovah the God of Israel, tell your servant. And Jehovah said, He will come down. ¹²And David said, Will the masters of Keilah shut me and my men up into Saul's hand? And Jehovah said, They will shut you up.

¹⁵And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph, in the forest. ¹⁶And Jonathan the son of Saul rose up and went out to David, to the forest. And he made his hand strong in God, ¹⁷and said to him, Do not fear, for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you; and you shall reign over Israel; and I shall be second to you. And my father Saul knows it is so. ¹⁸And they cut a covenant, both of them, before Jehovah. And David stayed in the forest, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹And the men of Ziph went to Saul, to Gibeah, saying, Is not David hiding himself with us in strongholds, in the forest, in the hill of Hachilah, which is south of the desert? ²⁰And now, come down according to all the desires of your soul, O king.

Come down, and our duty is to deliver him up into the king's hand. ²¹And Saul said, You are blessed by Jehovah, for you have had pity on me. ²²Please go, make yet more sure, and know, and see his place where his foot is; who has seen him there, for one has said to me, He is very subtle. ²³And see and know of all the hiding places where he hides himself. And you shall return to me ready, and I shall go with you, and it shall be, if he is in the land, that I shall search him out through all the thousands of Judah. ²⁴And they rose up and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert. ²⁵And Saul and his men went to seek; and they told David. And he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard, and pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.

²⁶And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David was hurrying to go away from the face of Saul. And Saul and his men were encircling David and his men, to catch them. ²⁷And a messenger came to Saul, saying, Hurry, and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land. ²⁸And Saul turned back from pursuing David, and went to meet the Philistines. On account of this they have called that place, The Rock of the Division. ²⁹And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds at Engedi.

of Saul's robe. ⁵And it happened afterward, the heart of David struck him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. ⁶And he said to his men, Far be it from me, by Jehovah. I shall not do this thing to my lord, to the anointed of Jehovah, to put out my hand against him. For he is the anointed of Jehovah. ⁷And David held back his men by words, and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul rose up from the cave, and went in the way.

⁸And it happened David rose up afterward, and went out from the cave, and called after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And Saul looked behind him. And David was bowing, face to the earth, and prostrated himself. ⁹And David said to Saul, Why do you listen to the words of man, saying, Behold, David seeks to do you evil? ¹⁰See, this day your eyes have seen how Jehovah has delivered you today into my hand in the cave. And one said to kill you, but I had pity on you. And I said, I shall not put out my hand against my lord, for he is the anointed of Jehovah.

¹¹And see, my father; yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you are hunting my soul, to take it. ¹²Jehovah shall judge between you and me, and Jehovah shall avenge me of you. But my hand shall not be on you. ¹³As the proverb of the ancients says, wickedness proceeds from the wicked. But my hand shall not be on you. ¹⁴After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog? After a flea? ¹⁵Yea, Jehovah shall be judge, and shall judge between you and me. Yea, He shall see and contend for my cause, and shall deliver me out of your hand.

¹⁶And it happened, when David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. ¹⁷And he said to David, You are more righteous than I. For you have done good to me, and I have rewarded you with evil. ¹⁸And you have today shown that you have dealt well with me, in that Jehovah shut me up into your hand, and you did not kill me. ¹⁹For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go on his way well? And Jehovah will repay you good for that which you have done to me today. ²⁰And now, behold, I know that you shall certainly reign, and the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. ²¹And now, swear to me by Jehovah that you shall not cut off my seed after me, nor shall you destroy my name from the house of my father. ²²And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up into the stronghold.

¹And Samuel died, and all Israel was gathered, and mourned for him. And they buried him in his house, in Ramah. And David rose up and went down to the wilderness of Paran. ²And a certain man was in Maon, and his work was in Carmel. And the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his flock in Carmel. ³And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name, Abigail. And the woman was of good understanding, and beautiful of form. And the man was cruel and evil in his dealings. And He was of Caleb. ⁴And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his flock. ⁵And David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel, and you shall come to Nabal and ask him of his welfare in my name. ⁶And say this, Long life and peace to you! And peace to your house, and peace to all that you have. ⁷And now, I have heard that you have shearers. And your shepherds have been with us; we have not shamed them, nor was anything missing to them all the days they were in Carmel. ⁸Ask your young men, and they will tell you. And may the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come at a good day. Please give that which your hand finds to your servants, and to your son, to David.

⁹And the young men of David came and spoke to Nabal according to all these words, in the name of David, and rested. ¹⁰And Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David, and who the son of Jesse? The servants who have broken away from their masters have multiplied today. ¹¹And shall I take my bread, and my water, and my meat which I have killed for my shearers, and give to men whom I have not known, from where they are? ¹²And the young men of David turned to their way, and returned and came and told him according to all these words. ¹³And David said to his men, Each man gird on his sword. And David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred stayed by the baggage.

¹⁴And one young man of the youths told Abigail the wife of Nabal, saying, Behold, David has sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our lord, and he screamed at them. ¹⁵And the men were good to us, and have not shamed us, and we have not missed anything all the days we have gone up and down with them when we were in the field. ¹⁶They have been a wall to us both by day and by night, all the days we have been with them, feeding the flock. ¹⁷And now, know and consider what you should do; for evil has been determined against our lord, and on all his house. And he is a son of worthlessness, no one can speak to him.

¹⁸And Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five prepared sheep, and five measures of roasted grain, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and two hundred bunches of figs. And she set them on the asses. ¹⁹And she said to her young men, Pass on before me. Behold, I am coming after you. But she did not tell her husband Nabal. ²⁰And it happened, she was riding on the ass and coming down by the cover of the mountain. And, behold, David and his men were coming down to meet her; and she met them. ²¹And David had said, Surely, in vain I have guarded all that belongs to this fellow in the wilderness, so that not anything was missed of all that was his. And he has returned to me evil for good. ²²So may God do to the enemies of David, and may He do more so, if I leave any of all that is to him to the light of the morning, of one who urinates against a wall.

²³And Abigail saw David, and she hurried, and she alighted from the ass and fell on her face before David, and bowed herself to the earth. ²⁴And she fell at his feet and said, On me, even me, my lord, be the iniquity. And I beg you, let your handmaid speak in your ears; and hear the words of your handmaid. ²⁵I beg you, do not let my lord set his heart toward this man of worthlessness, on Nabal. For as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and foolishness is with him. And I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent. ²⁶And now, my lord, as Jehovah lives, and as your soul lives, in that Jehovah has withheld you from coming in with blood, and delivering your hand for you; even now let your enemies be as Nabal, even those seeking evil to my lord. ²⁷And now this blessing which your handmaid has brought to my lord, even let it be given to the young men who go after my lord. ²⁸I beg you, bear with the transgression of your handmaid, for Jehovah shall certainly make a sure house for my lord. For my lord has fought the battles of Jehovah, and evil has not been found in you all your days. ²⁹And if a man rises up to pursue you, and to seek your soul—and the soul of my lord has been bound up in the bundle of life with Jehovah your God—and the souls of your enemies, He shall sling them from the hollow of the sling. ³⁰And it shall be, when Jehovah does to my lord according to all the good which He has spoken concerning you, and has commanded you to be ruler over Israel, ³¹that this shall not be for a cause of staggering, or of stumbling of heart to my lord, either to shed blood for nothing, or that my lord saved himself. And may Jehovah do good to my lord, and you remember your handmaid. ³²And David said to Abigail, Blessed is Jehovah the God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me today. ³³And blessed is your discernment. And blessed are you in that you have kept me from coming in with blood this day, and from delivering myself with my own hand. ³⁴And, indeed, as Jehovah the God of Israel lives,, who has kept me back from doing evil to you—for unless you had hurried and had come to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal one who urinates against the wall till the light of morning.

³⁵And David received from her hand what she had brought to him. And he said to her, Go in peace to your house. See, I have heard your voice, and have accepted your face.

³⁶And Abigail came to Nabal. And, behold, he was at a feast in his house, like the feast of the king. And Nabal's heart felt good within him, and he was drunk to excess. And she did not tell him a word, more or less, until the light of the morning.

³⁷And it happened in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things. And his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

³⁸And it happened about ten days later, Jehovah struck Nabal, and he died. ³⁹And David heard that Nabal had died, and said, Blessed be Jehovah who has contended for the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal; and His servant has been kept back from evil. And Jehovah has caused the evildoing of Nabal to return on his head. And David sent and spoke with Abigail, to take her to himself for a wife. ⁴⁰And David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, and spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to you to take you to him for a wife. ⁴¹And she rose up and bowed her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let your handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. ⁴²And Abigail hurried and arose, and rode on an ass, and five of her young women following her. And she went after David's messengers. And she became a wife to him.

⁴³And David had taken Ahinoam from Jezreel. And they became, even both of them, wives to him. ⁴⁴And Saul gave his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

Hachilah, which is on the face of the desert, by the highway. And David was staying in the wilderness. And he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. ⁴And David sent spies, and he knew that Saul had come to Nachon. ⁵And David rose up and came to the place where Saul camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay down; and his army commander Abner the son of Ner and Saul were lying within the barricade. And the people were camping all around him.

⁶And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, saying, Who shall go down with me to Saul, to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with you. ⁷And David and Abishai came to the people by night. And, behold, Saul was lying down, sleeping within the barricade. And his spear was stuck into the earth at his head-place. And Abner and all the people were lying all around him. ⁸And Abishai said to David, God has shut up your enemy into your hand today. And now, I beg you, let me strike him with a spear, even to the earth one time, and I will not repeat it to him. ⁹And David said to Abishai, Do not destroy him. For who shall put forth his hand against the anointed of Jehovah and be guiltless? ¹⁰And David said, As Jehovah lives, except Jehovah strike him, or his day shall come and he does, or he goes down and is devoured in battle, ¹¹far be it from me, by Jehovah, from putting forth my hand against the anointed of Jehovah. And now, please take the spear at his head-place, and the jar of water, and we will go. ¹²And David took the spear the jar of water at the head-place of Saul, and they went away. And no one was seeing; and no one knew; and no one was awake; for all of them were sleeping because a deep sleep from Jehovah had fallen on them.

¹³And David crossed over to the other side and stood on the top of the hill far away, the distance between them being great. ¹⁴And David called to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Do you not answer, Abner? And Abner replied and said, Who are you, the one calling to the king? ¹⁵And David said to Abner, Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? But why have you not watched over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king. ¹⁶This thing which you have done is not good. As Jehovah lives, you also are sons of death, in that you have not watched over your lord, over the anointed of Jehovah. And now, see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water which was at his head-place?

¹⁷And Saul recognized the voice of David, and said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, My voice, my lord, O king! ¹⁸And he said, Why is this, that my lord is pursuing his servant? For what have I done, and what in my hand is evil? ¹⁹And now, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If Jehovah has moved you against me, let Him accept an offering. And if the sons of men, they are cursed before Jehovah; for they have driven me out today from joining myself with the inheritance of Jehovah, saying, Go, serve other gods. ²⁰And now, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of Jehovah, for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as one hunts the partridge in the mountains.

²¹And Saul said, I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I shall not do evil to you any more, because my life has been precious in your eyes today. Behold, I have acted foolishly, and I have erred exceedingly much.

²²And David answered and said, Behold, the king's spear! And let one of the young men cross over and receive it. ²³And Jehovah will return to each his righteousness and his faithfulness, in that Jehovah has delivered you into my hand, and I have not been willing to put forth my hand against the anointed of Jehovah. ²⁴And behold, as your life has been highly esteemed in my eyes today, so let my soul be highly esteemed in the eyes of Jehovah. And may He deliver me out of all distress. ²⁵And Saul said to David, Blessed be you, my son David. Both you shall surely do, and also you shall surely be able. And David went on his way. And Saul returned to his place.

¹And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. Nothing is better for me than that I speedily escape to the land of the Philistines. And Saul will despair of me, to still seek me in all the border of Israel. And I shall escape out of his hand. ²And David rose up and crossed over, he and six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, the king of Gath. ³And David lived with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each one and his household: David and his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. ⁴And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, and he did not seek for him any more.

⁵And David said to Achish, Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, they shall give to me a place in one of the cities of the field, and I shall live there. Yea, why should your servant live in the royal city with you? ⁶And Achish gave Ziklag to him in that day. Therefore, Ziklag has been counted to the kings of Judah until this day. ⁷And the number of days which David lived in the field of the Philistines was a year and four months.

⁸And David and his men went up and attacked the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites. For they were the inhabitants of the land in the past, as you come into Shur and into the land of Egypt. ⁹And David struck the land, and did not keep alive man, or woman, and took sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and clothing, and turned back and came to Achish. ¹⁰And Achish said, Did you not make raids today? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and to the south of the Kenites. ¹¹David did not keep alive man or woman to bring news to Gath, saying, Lest they speak against us, saying, So David has done; And so has been his custom all the days that he has lived in the fields of the Philistines. ¹²And Achish trusted David, saying, Surely he has made himself to be hated among his people in Israel, and has become my servant forever.

¹And in those days it happened that the Philistines gathered their armies for warfare, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, You shall surely go out with me in the army, you and your men. ²And David said to Achish, By this you shall know that which your servant will do. And Achish said to David, Then I appoint you keeper of my head all the days.

³And Samuel was dead. And all Israel had mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his city. And Saul had taken away the necromancers and the wizards out of the land. ⁴And the Philistines had gathered and had come in and camped in Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel, and they camped in Gilboa. ⁵And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, and his heart trembled and he greatly feared. ⁶And Saul asked of Jehovah, but Jehovah did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets. ⁷And Saul said to his serevnts, Seek out for me a woman with ability to call up the dead, and I will go to her and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, a woman with ability to call up the dead is in Endor.

⁸And Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing. And he and two of the men with him went; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, I beg you, divine for me by calling up the dead, and cause whomever I will say to you to come up to me. ⁹And the woman said to him, Behold, you know that which Saul has done, that he has cut off those able to call up the dead, and the wizards, out of the land. And why do you lay a snare for my life, to put me to death? ¹⁰And Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying, As Jehovah lives, no evil shall happen to you because of this thing. ¹¹And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring up Samuel to me.

afraid. For what have you seen? And the woman said to Saul, I have seen a god coming up out of the earth. ¹⁴And he said to her, What is his appearance? And she said, An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a robe. And Saul knew that he was Samuel. And he bowed his face to the earth, and prostrated himself. ¹⁵And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up. And Saul said, I am grievously distressed. And the Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned from me and has not answered me any more, either by the hand of the prophets, or by dreams. And I called for you to make known to me what I should do. ¹⁶And Samuel said, And why do you ask me, since Jehovah has departed from you and is your foe? ¹⁷And Jehovah is doing for Himself as He spoke by my hand. And Jehovah is tearing the kingdom out of your hand, and is giving it to your neighbor, to David. ¹⁸Because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, or execute His burning anger on Amalek, on this account Jehovah is doing this thing to you today. ¹⁹Yea, Jehovah is also giving Israel into the hand of the Philistines along with you. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. And Jehovah will give the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. ²⁰And Saul hurried and fell the full length of his stature to the earth, and greatly feared from the words of Samuel. And there was no power in him, for he had not eaten food all that day, and all the night.

²¹And the woman came to Saul. And she saw that he was greatly distressed, and said to him, Behold, your servant has listened to your voice, and I put my life in my hand, and I obeyed your words which you spoke to me. ²²And now I beg you, you also listen to the voice of your servant, and I will set before you a bit of bread; and eat, and there will be strength in you when you go on your way. ²³And he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants forced him, and the woman also. And he listened to their voices and rose from the earth and sat on the bed. ²⁴And the woman had a fat calf in the house. And she hurried and slaughtered it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes of it. ²⁵And she brought it near before Saul, and before his servants. And they ate, and rose up, and went on during that night.

¹And the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek. And Israel was camped at a fountain in Jezreel. ²And the Philistine rulers were passing on by hundreds and by thousands. And David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish. ³And the Philistine rulers said, What are these Hebrews? And Achish said to the Philistine rulers, Is this not David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days and these years? And I have not found anything evil in him from the day he fell away until today. ⁴And the Philistine rulers were angry against him. And the Philistine rulers said to him, Send the man back, and he shall return to his place where you have appointed him. And he shall not go down with us into battle, and shall not become a foe to us in battle. And with what should this one give pleasure to his master, if not with the heads of these men? ⁵Is this not David, of whom they answer in dances, saying, Saul has killed his thousands, and David his myriads?

⁶And Achish called David and said to him, As Jehovah lives, Surely you are upright and good in my eyes in your going out and in your coming in with me in the camp. For I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming in to me until today. But you are not good in the eyes of the rulers. ⁷And now return, and go in peace, that you not do evil in the eyes of the rulers of the Philistines. ⁸And David said to Achish, But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day that I have been in your presence until today, that I may not go in and fight against the enemies of my lord the king? ⁹And Achish replied and said to David, I know that you are good in my eyes, like an angel of God. But the rulers of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us into battle. ¹⁰And now, you and the servants of your lord who have come with you rise early in the morning. When you arise early in the morning, when you have light, then go. ¹¹And David rose up early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

¹And it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had raided to the Negeb, even to Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire. ²And they captured the women in it, from the small even to the great; they did not kill anyone, but they led them away, and went on their way. ³And David and his men came into the city. And, behold! It was burned with fire! And their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive. ⁴And David and the people with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no power in them to weep. ⁵And the two wives of David had been taken, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. ⁶And David was greatly distressed, for the people said to stone him. For the soul of the people was bitter, each for his sons and for his daughters. And David made himself strong in Jehovah his God.

⁷And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, Please bring the ephod near to me. And Abiathar brought the ephod to David. ⁸And David asked of Jehovah, saying, Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake it? And He said to him, Pursue, for you shall certainly overtake, and shall certainly recover. ⁹So David went on, he and six hundred men who were with him. And they came to the torrent Besor. And those that were left stood. ¹⁰And David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred men stood, who were too exhausted to pass over the torrent Besor.

¹¹And they found a man, an Egyptian, in the field, and took him to David, and gave him food, and he ate. And they made him drink water. ¹²And they gave to him a piece of a bunch of dried figs, and two bunches of raisins. And he ate, and his spirit returned to him, for he had not eaten food nor drunk water three days and three nights. ¹³And David said to him, Whose are you? And from where do you come? And he said, I am an Egyptian youth, slave to an Amalekite man. And my lord abandoned me, for I had been sick three days. ¹⁴We raided the south of the Cherethites, and went against that belonging to Judah, and against the south of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag with fire. ¹⁵And David said to him, Are you able to bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear to me by God that you will neither put me to death, nor deliver me up into my master's hand, and I will bring you down to this troop.

¹⁶And he brought him down. And, behold, they were spread out over the face of all the earth, eating and drinking and feasting, with all the great plunder which they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. ¹⁷And David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. And not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. ¹⁸And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David recovered his two wives. ¹⁹And nothing was missing to them, from the small even to the great, and to sons and daughters, and from the plunder, even to all that they had taken for themselves; David brought back the whole of it. ²⁰And David took all the flock, and the herd. They drove on before those cattle. And they said, This is David's prize.

²¹And David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to go after David, and whom they caused to remain at the torrent Besor. And they went out to meet David, and to meet the people with him. And David came up to the people, and asked them of their peace. ²²And every evil and worthless one of the men who had gone with David answered, and they said, Because they did not go with me, we will not give to them from the plunder which we have delivered, except to each man his wife and his sons. And let them take them, and go. ²³And David said, You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which Jehovah has given to us. And He has protected us, and has given the troop which came against us into our hand. ²⁴And who will listen to you in this thing? For as the portion of him who goes down to battle, so shall be his share who remains by the baggage. They shall share together. ²⁵And it was so, from that day and forward he commanded it for a statute and for an ordinance for Israel to this day.

²⁶And David came to Ziklag. And he sent of the plunder to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold, a blessing for you of the plunder of the enemies of Jehovah; ²⁷to those in Bethel, and to those in Ramoth of the Negeb, and to those in Jattir, ²⁸and to those in Aroer, and to those in Siphmoth, and to those in Eshtemoa, ²⁹and to those in Rachal, and to those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those in the cities of the Kenites, ³⁰and to those in Hormah, and to those in Chorashan, and to those in Athach, ³¹and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where David had gone up and down, he and his men.

¹And the Philistines were fighting against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from the face of the Philistines, and they fell down wounded in Mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistines followed Saul and his sons. And the Philistines struck Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons. ³And the battle went hard against Saul. And the bowmen, archers found him and he was sorely wounded by the archers. ⁴And Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and thrust it through me, lest these uncircumcised ones come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵And his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, and he also fell on his sword and died with him. ⁶And Saul and three of his sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men died together on that day. ⁷And the men of Israel who were beyond the valley, and who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they abandoned the cities and fled. And the Philistines came in and lived in them.

⁸And it happened on the next day, the Philistines came to strip the wounded. And they found Saul and his three sons fallen down on Mount Gilboa. ⁹And they cut off his head, and stripped off his weapons, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around to proclaim the news in the house of their idols, and among the people. ¹⁰And they put his weapons in the house of Ashtaroath, and they fastened his body on the wall of Beth-shan. ¹¹And when they heard about it, the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, that which the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²then all the mighty men rose up, and they went all the night; and they took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-shan. And they came to Jabesh, and burned them there. ¹³And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh. And they fasted seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

¹And it happened, after the death of Saul, David returned from striking the Amalekites. And David remained in Ziklag two days. ²And it happened on the third day, behold, a man came in out of the camp from Saul. And his garments were torn, and earth on his head. And it happened as he came to David, he fell to the earth and prostrated himself. ³And David said to him, From where do you come? And he said to him, I have escaped out of the camp of Israel. ⁴And David said to him, How did the matter go? Please tell me. And he answered, The people fled from the battle, and also a multitude of the people have fallen, and they died, and also Saul and his son Jonathan have died. ⁵And David said to the youth who was telling him, How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead? ⁶And the youth who was telling him said, By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa. And, behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And, behold, the chariots and the masters of horses closely followed him! ⁷And he turned behind him and he saw me and called to me. And I said, Behold me. ⁸And he said to me, Who are you? And I said, I am an Amalekite. ⁹And he said to me, Please stand over me and kill me, for agony has seized me; for all my life is still in me. ¹⁰And I stood over him and killed him, for I knew that he could not live after his falling. And I took the crown on his head, and the bracelet on his arm, and I brought them to my lord here. ¹¹And David took hold on his garments and tore them; and also all the men with him did so. ¹²And they mourned and wept and fasted until the evening, for Saul, and for his son Jonathan, and for the people of Jehovah, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

¹³And David said to the youth who told him, From where are you? And he said, I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite. ¹⁴And David said to him, Why were you not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the anointed of Jehovah? ¹⁵And

David called to one of the young men, and said, Draw near and fall on him. And he struck him, and he died. ¹⁶And David said to him, Your blood be on your own head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I put to death the anointed of Jehovah.

¹⁷And David sang this death-dirge over Saul, and over his son Jonathan; ¹⁸and he said to teach the sons of Judah The Song of the Bow. Behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar:

¹⁹The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places. How are the mighty fallen! ²⁰Tell it not in Gath; do not make it known in the streets of Ashkelon, that the daughters of the Philistines not rejoice; that the daughters of the uncircumcised not exult. ²¹Mountains of Gilboa, let not dew or rain be on you, nor fields of offerings; for there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, not being anointed with oil. ²²From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not draw back; and the sword of Saul did not return empty. ²³Saul and Jonathan! They were beloved and delightful in their lives; and in their death they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions. ²⁴O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with scarlet delights, who put ornaments of gold on your clothing. ²⁵How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places! ²⁶I am distressed over you, my brother Jonathan. You were very delightful to me; your love was wonderful to me, more than the love of women. ²⁷How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

¹And it happened after this, David asked of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah? And Jehovah said to him, Go up. And David said, Where shall I go up? And He said, To Hebron. ²And David went up there, and also his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. ³And David brought up his men who were with him, each man and his household. And they lived in the cities of Hebron. ⁴And the men of Judah came and anointed David king over the house of Judah there. And they told David, saying, It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul. ⁵And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, Blessed are you of Jehovah, in that you have done this kindness with your lord, with Saul, that you have buried him. ⁶And now, may Jehovah do with you in kindness and truth. And I also will do good to you because you have done this thing. ⁷And now, let your hands be made strong, and be valiant; for your lord Saul is dead. And also, the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them.

⁸And Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army which Saul had, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and caused him to cross over to Mahanaim. ⁹And he caused him to reign over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. ¹⁰Ishbosheth the son of Saul was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed after David.

¹¹And it came to pass the number of the days that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months. ¹²And Abner the son of Ner and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. ¹³And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and David's servants went out. And they met by the pool of Gibeon, and sat down, these by the pool on this side, and those by the pool on that side. ¹⁴And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men rise up now and play before us. And Joab said, Let them rise. ¹⁵And they rose up and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul; and twelve of the servants of David. ¹⁶And each one lay hold on the head of his companion, and thrust his sword into the side of his companion. And they fell together. And one called that place The Field of Rocks, which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷And the battle was very hard on that day, and the men of Israel and Abner were stricken before

David's servants. ¹⁸And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was swift with his feet, like one of the gazelles in the field. ¹⁹And Asahel ran after Abner, and did not turn to go to the right or to the left from following Abner. ²⁰And Abner looked behind him, and said, Are you Asahel? And he said, I am. ²¹And Abner said to him, Turn aside to your right, or to your left, and seize one of the young men for yourself, and take his spoil for yourself. And Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him. ²²And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the earth? And how shall I lift up my face to your brother Joab? ²³And he refused to turn aside. And Abner struck him in the belly with the butt of the spear. And the spear came out from behind him; and he fell there, and died in his place. And it happened that all who came to the place, there where Asahel fell, and died, they stood still. ²⁴And Joab and Abishai ran after Abner, and the sun was setting. And they came to the hill of Ammah which is before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. ²⁵And the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a certain hill. ²⁶And Abner called to Joab, and said, Does the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? and when will you say to the people to turn back from after their brothers? ²⁷And Joab said, As God lives, for if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone up, each one from following his brother. ²⁸And Joab blew the ram's horn. And all the people stood still, and did not pursue Israel any more; nor did they fight any more.

²⁹And Abner and his men went through the Arabah all that night, and crossed the Jordan, and went all the forenoon, and came to Mahanaim. ³⁰And Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And he gathered all the people. And there were lacking nineteen men of David's servants, and Asahel. ³¹And David's servants had struck three hundred and sixty men of Benjamin, even among the men of Abner these died. ³²And they lifted up Asahel and buried him in the burying-place of his father, which is in Bethlehem. And they went all night, Joab and his men; and it was light to them coming into Hebron.

¹And there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. And David was going on and was strong, but the house of Saul was going on and was weak. ²And sons were born to David in Hebron. And his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel. ³And his second was Chileab, of Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. And the third was Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai the king of Geshur. ⁴And the fourth was Adonijah the son of Haggith. And the fifth was Shephatiah the son of Abital. ⁵And the sixth was Ithream, of Eglah the wife of David. These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶And it happened while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong for the house of Saul. ⁷And Saul had a concubine, and her name was Rizpah the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Why have you gone in to my father's concubine? ⁸And Abner was exceedingly angry over the words of Ishbosheth. And he said, Am I a dog's head, that I do kindness with the house of your father Saul in regards to Judah today, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not caused you to be found in the hand of David, and you charge a sin against me with this woman today? ⁹So may God do to Abner, and more so, if I do not do to David as Jehovah has sworn, ¹⁰to cause to pass over the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah from Dan even to Beer-sheba. ¹¹And he was not able to return a word to Abner any more, because he feared him.

¹²And Abner sent messengers to David for himself, saying, Whose is the land? He said, Cut your covenant with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring all Israel around to you. ¹³And he said, Good, I will cut a covenant with you, but one thing I ask of you, saying, You shall not see my face except you first bring Michal the daughter of Saul when you come to see my face. ¹⁴And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, saying, Give up my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself with a hundred foreskins of the Philistines. ¹⁵And Ishbosheth sent and took her from the man, from Phaltiel the son of Laish. ¹⁶And her husband went with her, going on and weeping behind her to Bahurim. And Abner said to him, Go, return. And he returned.

¹⁷And the word of Abner was with the elders of Israel, saying, Before now you have been seeking David for king over you. ¹⁸And now do it. For Jehovah has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of My servant David He will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. ¹⁹And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron, all that was good in the eyes of Israel, and in the eyes of all the house of Benjamin. ²⁰And Abner came to David, to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made a feast for Abner and for the men with him. ²¹And Abner said to David, Let me rise up and go, and gather to my lord the king all Israel. And they shall cut a covenant with you. And you shall reign over all that your soul desires. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

²²And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop. And they brought much plunder with them. And Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away; and he had gone in peace. ²³And Joab and all the army with him had come. And they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner has come to the king. And he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace. ²⁴And Joab came to the king, and said, What have you done? Behold, Abner has come to you; why is this, that you have sent him away, and he is already gone? ²⁵You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing. ²⁶And Joab left David, and sent messengers after Abner. And they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it. ²⁷And

Abner returned to Hebron. And Joab turned him aside into the middle of the gate, to speak with him privately. And he struck him in the belly there, and he died, because of the blood of his brother Asahel.

²⁸And afterward David heard, and said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before Jehovah forever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹May it whirl about the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that has an issue, or that is a leper, or that leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or that lacks bread! ³⁰And Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in Gibeon, in battle.

³¹And David said to Joab, and to all the people with him, Tear your garments and gird on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David was following after the bier. ³²And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. ³³And the king lamented for Abner, and said, Should Abner die as it were like a fool? ³⁴Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters. As one falls before sons of evil, you have fallen! And all the people wept again over him.

³⁵And all the people came to cause David to eat food while it was yet day. But David swore, saying, So may God do to me, and still more, if I taste bread or anything before the sun goes in. ³⁶And all the people took notice, and it was good in their eyes. As to all the king did, it was good in the eyes of all the people. ³⁷And all the people, even all Israel, knew in that day that it was not from the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. ³⁸And the king said to his servants, Do you not know that a leader and a great one has fallen this day in Israel? ³⁹And I am weak today, though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me. May Jehovah reward the doer of evil according to his evil!

¹And the son of Saul heard that Abner was dead in Hebron. And his hands were feeble; and all those in Israel were terrified. ²And Saul's son had two men, troop commanders, the name of the one being Baanah, and the name of the second Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin—for Beer-oth also is counted to Benjamin; ³and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and are aliens there to this day.

⁴And Jonathan the son of Saul had a lame son—he was a son of five years when the news of Saul and Jonathan came out of Jezreel; and his nurse lifted him up and fled; and it happened as she hurried to flee, that he fell and became lame; and his name was Mephibosheth—⁵And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came at the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth. And he was lying on his bed at noon. ⁶And they came to the middle of the house, bringing wheat. And they struck him in the fifth rib. And Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. ⁷Yes, they came into the house, and he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; and they struck him and killed him, and took off his head. And they took his head and went the way of the Arabah all the night. ⁸And they brought Ishbosheth's head to David in Hebron, and said to the king, Behold, the head of Ishbosheth the son of your enemy Saul, who sought your life. And may Jehovah give to my lord the king vengeance this day, on Saul and on his seed.

⁹And David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my life out of all distress, ¹⁰when one spoke to me, saying, Behold Saul is dead, and he was as a bearer of good news in his own eyes; even I seized and killed him in Ziklag. I gave that to him as a reward. ¹¹And when wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house on his bed, should I not even now seek his blood from your hand, and glean you from the earth? ¹²And David commanded his young men. And they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hung them by the pool in Hebron. And they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the burying-place of Abner in Hebron.

¹And all the tribes of Israel came to David, to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and we are your flesh. ²Both yesterday and the day before, when Saul was king over us, you were he who led out and brought in Israel. And Jehovah said to you, You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be for a leader over Israel. ³And all the elders of Israel came to the king, to Hebron. And king David cut a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah. And they anointed David as king over Israel.

⁴And David was a son of thirty years when he became king; he reigned forty years. ⁵In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

¹¹And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built a house for David. ¹²And David knew that Jehovah had established him for king over Israel, and that He had lifted up his kingdom because of His people Israel.

¹³And David again took concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron. And again sons and daughters were born to David. ¹⁴These are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, ¹⁵and Ibhah, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ¹⁶and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

¹⁷And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David for king over Israel. And all the Philistines came up to seek David. And David heard and went down to the stronghold. ¹⁸And the Philistines came and were spread out in the Valley of the Giants. ¹⁹And David asked of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand? And Jehovah said to David, Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand. ²⁰And David came to Baal-perazim. And David struck them there, and said, Jehovah has broken forth on my enemies before me, as the breaking forth of waters. On account of this he called the name of that place The Breaking of Baal. ²¹And they abandoned their idols there; and David and his men took them away.

²²And the Philistines again came up and were spread out in the Valley of the Giants. ²³And David asked of Jehovah, and He said, You shall not go up. Turn around to their rear, and come to them in front of the weeping trees. ²⁴And it shall be, when you hear the sound of the marching in the tops of the weeping trees, then you shall strike. For then Jehovah shall go out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. ²⁵And David did so, as Jehovah commanded him. And he struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

¹And David again gathered every chosen one in Israel, thirty thousand. ²And David rose up and went, and all the people with him, from Baale-judah, to bring up the ark of God from there—which is called by the Name, the Name of Jehovah of hosts, who dwells above the cherubs. ³And they caused the ark of God to ride on a new cart, and took it from the house of Abinadab, which is in the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab were leading the new cart. ⁴And they took it from the house of Abinadab, which is in the hill, with the ark of God. And Ahio was going before the ark. ⁵And David and all the house of Israel were dancing before Jehovah with all instruments of fir wood, with lyres and with harps, and with tambourines, and with sistrums, and with cymbals.

⁶And when they came to the threshing floor of Nachon, and Uzzah reached out to the ark of God, and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset it, ⁷then the anger of Jehovah glowed against Uzzah. And God struck him there for the fault. And he died there by the ark of God. ⁸And it angered David because Jehovah broke out a break against Uzzah. And one calls that place The Break of Uzzah to this day. ⁹And David feared Jehovah on that day, and said, How shall the ark of Jehovah come to me? ¹⁰And David was not willing to bring the ark of Jehovah to himself, to the city of David. And David turned it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹¹And the ark of Jehovah remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months. And Jehovah blessed Obed-edom and all his house.

¹²And it was told to king David, saying, Jehovah has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he has, because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with joy. ¹³And it happened, when those bearing the ark of Jehovah had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. ¹⁴And David was dancing with all his might before Jehovah. And David was girded with a linen ephod. ¹⁵And David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of Jehovah with shouting, and with the sound of a ram's horn.

¹⁶And it happened, when the ark of Jehovah had come to the city of David, and Michal the daughter of Saul looked through the window and saw king David leaping and dancing before Jehovah, she despised him in her heart. ¹⁷And they brought the ark of Jehovah in, and set it up in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David caused burnt offerings to be offered before Jehovah, and peace offerings. ¹⁸And David finished offering the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings, and blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of hosts.

¹⁹And he shared out to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, from man even to woman, to each one cake of bread and one date-cake and one raisin-cake. And all the people left, each one to his house.

²⁰And David returned to bless his house. And Michal the daughter of Saul went out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who was uncovered today before the eyes of the slavegirls of his servants, as one of the vain ones shamelessly uncovers himself. ²¹And David said to Michal, Before Jehovah, who chose me over your father and over all your father's house, to command me to be leader over the people of Jehovah, and over Israel, so I danced before Jehovah. ²²And I will be yet lighter than this, and shall be lowly in my own eyes. But with the slavegirls of whom you spoke, with them I will be honored. ²³And there was no child to Michal the daughter of Saul until the day of her death.

¹And it happened, when the king lived in his house, and Jehovah had given him rest from all his enemies all around, ²the king said to Nathan the prophet, See, now, I am living in a house of cedar, and the ark of God dwells within tent curtains. ³And Nathan said to the king, All that is in your heart, go, do. For Jehovah shall be you. ⁴And it happened in that night, the word of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying, ⁵Go, and you shall say to My servant, to David, So says Jehovah, Will you build a house for Me, for My dwelling? ⁶For I have not dwelt in a house even from the day of My bringing the sons of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, even in a tabernacle. ⁷In all places in which I have gone with all Israel's sons, have I spoken a word with one of the tribes of Israel, those I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, Why have you not built for me a house of cedars? ⁸And now, so you shall say to My servant, to David, So says Jehovah of hosts, I have taken you from the resting place, from following the flock, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. ⁹And I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth. ¹⁰And I will designate a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place and not be made to tremble any more. Nor shall the sons of evil afflict them again, as at the first, ¹¹even from the day I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. And Jehovah declares to you that Jehovah will make you a house. ¹²When your days are fulfilled, and you lie with your fathers, then I shall raise up your seed after you, which shall come out from your bowels, and I shall establish his kingdom. ¹³He shall build a house for My Name, and I shall establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ¹⁴I shall be a father to him, and he shall be a son to Me. When he sins, then I will chasten him with a rod of men, and with strokes of the sons of men. ¹⁵But My mercy shall not be taken from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. ¹⁶And your house shall be established, and your kingdom before you forever. Your throne shall be established forever. ¹⁷According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁸And king David came in and sat before Jehovah, and said: Who am I, O Lord Jehovah, and what is my house, that you have brought me here? ¹⁹And this was yet but little in Your eyes, O Lord Jehovah. But You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a time afar off. And is this the law of men, O Lord Jehovah? ²⁰And what more can David say to You. And You know Your servant, O Lord Jehovah. ²¹Because of Your word, and according to Your heart, You have done all this greatness, to make Your servant know. ²²For this reason, O Jehovah God, You are great; for there is none like You; and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²³And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation in the earth that God went out to redeem to be a people for Himself, and to make Himself a name, and to do for them great and fearful things for Your land, before Your people which You redeemed to Yourself from Egypt from nations and their gods? ²⁴Yea, You have established Your people Israel to Yourself, to You for a people forever. And You, O Jehovah have become their God. ²⁵And now, O Jehovah God, establish the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, forever. And do as You have spoken.

²⁶And Your name shall be great forever, saying, Jehovah of hosts is God over Israel, and the house of Your servant David is established before You. ²⁷For You, O Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, You have uncovered the ear of Your servant, saying, I will build a house for you. On account of this Your servant has found his heart to pray to You this prayer. ²⁸And now, O Lord Jehovah, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You speak this goodness to Your servant. ²⁹And now, be pleased to bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You. For You, O Lord Jehovah, have spoken, and with Your blessing shall the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

¹And it happened afterward, David struck the Philistines, and humbled them. And David took the Bridle of the Metropolis out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And he struck Moab, and measured them with a line; making them to lie down on the ground. And he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites were slaves to David, bearers of a gift. ³And David struck Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the River. ⁴And David captured from him seventeen hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. And David hamstringed all of the chariot horses; he only left a hundred chariots of them.

⁵And the Syrians of Damascus came to give help to Hadadezer the king of Zobah. And David struck twenty-two thousand men of Syria. ⁶And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus. And the Syrians became servants to David, bearers of tribute. And Jehovah helped David in all places in which he went. ⁷And David took the shields of gold which were on Hadadezer's servants, and bore them to Jerusalem. ⁸And king David took very much bronze from Bethah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer.

⁹And Toi the king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer. ¹⁰And Toi sent his son Joram to king David to ask of his peace, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and struck him. For Hadadezer had been a man of wars against Toi. And in his hand were silver articles, and golden articles, and bronze articles. ¹¹King David also dedicated them to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold which he dedicated of all the nations which he subdued: ¹²of Syria, and of Moab, and of the sons of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the plunder of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah.

¹³And David made a name for himself when he returned, after he had struck the Syrians in the Valley of Salt—eighteen thousand men. ¹⁴And he put garrisons in all Edom; in all Edom he put garrisons and all and all Edom became servants to David. And Jehovah helped David in all places in which he went.

¹⁵And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed justice and righteousness to all his people.

¹⁶And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the historian; ¹⁷and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; and Seriah was scribe; ¹⁸and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were priests.

to him? And Ziba said to the king, There is yet a son to Jonathan, lame in both feet. ⁴And the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lodebar.

⁵And king David sent and took him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, of Lodebar. ⁶And Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face, and prostrated himself. And David said, Mephibosheth! And he said, Behold, your servant. ⁷And David said to him, Do not be afraid, for I will certainly show kindness to you because of your father Jonathan. And I will give back to you all the land of your father Saul. And you shall eat bread at my table continually. ⁸And he bowed and said, What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am? ⁹And the king called to Ziba the servant of Saul, and said to him, All that belonged to Saul and to all his house, I have given to the son of your lord. ¹⁰And you shall till the land for him, you and your sons and your servants. And you shall bring in the fruits, so that your master's son may have bread to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread continually at my table. And Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants. ¹¹And Ziba said to the king, According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do. And Mephibosheth was eating at my table like one of the king's sons. ¹²And Mephibosheth had a young son, and his name was Micah. And everyone living in Ziba's house were servants to Mephibosheth. ¹³And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the table of the king. And he was lame in both his feet.

¹And David said, Is there yet any left to the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness because of Jonathan? ²And the house of Saul had a servant, and his name was Ziba. And they called him to David. And the king said to him, Are you Ziba? And he said, Your servant! ³And the king said, Is there not yet a man to the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God

¹And it happened afterward, the king of the Ammonites died. And his son Hanun reigned in his place. ²And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of his servants. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon. ³And the leaders of the sons of Ammon said to their lord Hanun, Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? ⁴And Hanun took David's servants and shaved off half of their beards, and cut off their long robes in the center, to their buttocks; and he sent them away. ⁵And they told David, and he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Remain in Jericho until your beard grows; then you shall return.

⁶And the sons of Ammon saw that they were odious to David. And the sons of Ammon sent and hired Syrians from Beth-rehob, and Syrians from Zobah, twenty thousand footmen; and the king of Maacah with a thousand men; and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men. ⁷And David heard, then he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men. ⁸And the sons of Ammon came out and set the battle in order at the opening of the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and Rehob, and the men of Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field. ⁹And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind. And he chose from all the chosen in Israel, and set them in order to meet the Syrians. ¹⁰And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai, and he set in order to meet the sons of Ammon. ¹¹And he said, If the Syrians are stronger than I, then you shall be for me; and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I will come to help you. ¹²Be strong, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God. And may Jehovah do that which seems good in His eyes. ¹³And Joab and the people with him drew near to battle against the Syrians. And they fled before him. ¹⁴And the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, and they fled before Abishai, and went into the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

¹⁵And Syria saw that it was stricken before Israel. And they assembled. ¹⁶And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians which were beyond the River. And they came to Helam, and Shobach was the commander of the army of Hadarezer before them. ¹⁷And it was told to David. And he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in order to meet David. And they fought with him. ¹⁸And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed from Syria seven hundred in chariots, and forty thousand horsemen. And he struck Shobach the commander of the army, and he died there. ¹⁹And all the kings, the servants of Hadarezer, saw that they had been stricken before Israel. And they made peace with Israel, and served them. And Syria feared to help the sons of Ammon any more.

¹And it happened at the turn of the year, at the time when kings go out, David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel. And they destroyed the sons of Ammon, and lay siege to Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

²And it happened at evening time, David rose up from his bed and walked up and down on the roof of the king's house. And he saw from the roof a woman bathing. And the woman was very good of form. ³And David sent and asked about the woman. And one said, Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? ⁴And David sent messengers and took her. And she came to him, and he lay with her. And she purified herself from uncleanness, and she returned to her house. ⁵And the woman conceived, and sent, and told David. And she said, I am with child.

⁶And David sent to Joab, Send Uriah the Hittite to me. And Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷And Uriah came to him. And David asked the peace of Joab, and the peace of the people, and of the success of the war. ⁸And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house and wash your feet. And Uriah went out of the king's house, and a gift from the king went out after him. ⁹But Uriah lay down at the entrance of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord. And he did not go down to his house. ¹⁰And they told David, saying, Uriah did not go down to his house. And David said to Uriah, Have you not come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house? ¹¹And Uriah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah dwell in booths. And my lord Joab, and my lord's servants are camping on the face of the field. And I, shall I go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing. ¹²And David said to Uriah, Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you away. And Uriah remained in Jerusalem on that day, and on the next day. ¹³And David called for him, and he ate and drank before him. And he made him drunk, and he went out in the evening to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord. And he did not go down to his house.

¹⁴And in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵And he wrote in the letter, saying, Place Uriah in the front of the strongest fighting, and withdraw from him, that he may be struck, and die. ¹⁶And it happened, as Joab watched the city, that he sent Uriah to the place where he knew would be mighty men. ¹⁷And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab, and some of the people fell of David's servants. And Uriah the Hittite also died. ¹⁸And Joab sent and told David all the matters of the war. ¹⁹And he commanded the messenger, saying, As you finish all the matters of the war, speaking to the king, ²⁰then it shall be, if the king's fury rises, and he says to you, Why did you draw near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from off the wall? ²¹Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw a piece of a riding millstone on him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? Why did you draw near to the wall? Then you shall say, Also your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.

²²And the messenger went and came and told David all that which Joab had sent him to tell, ²³and the messenger said to David, Surely the men have been mighty against us, and came out to us into the field. And we were on them to the entrance of the gate. ²⁴And those shooting shot at your servants from off the wall, and some of the servants of the king are dead. And also your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead. ²⁵And David said to the messenger, You shall say to Joab, Do not let this thing be evil in your eyes. For the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it. And make him strong. ²⁶And Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead. And she mourned for her husband. And the mourning time passed by. And David sent and gathered her to his house; and she became his wife, and bore a son to him. And the thing which David had done was evil in the eyes of Jehovah.

¹And Jehovah sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said to him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor. ²The rich one had flocks and very many herds. ³But the poor one had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished. And it grew up with him, and with his sons together, and it ate of his morsel, and it drank from his cup, and it lay in his bosom. And it was like a daughter to him. ⁴And a traveler came to the rich one, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to prepare for the traveler who had come to him. And he took the ewe lamb of the poor man, and prepared it for the man who had come to him. ⁵And David's anger glowed greatly against the man. And he said to Nathan, As Jehovah lives, surely the man who did this is a son of death. ⁶And he shall repay fourfold for the ewe lamb, because he has done this thing, and because he had no pity.

⁷And Nathan said to David, You are the man! So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, I anointed you as king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. ⁸And I gave you the house of your master, and your master's wives into your bosom. And I gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if that were too little, then I would have added to you these and those things. ⁹Why have you despised the word of Jehovah, to do the evil in His eyes. You have stricken Uriah the Hittite by the sword, and you have taken his wife to yourself for a wife. And you have killed him by the sword of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁰And now the sword shall not turn aside from your house continually, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be a wife to you. ¹¹So says Jehovah, Behold, I shall raise up evil against you out of your house, and shall take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor. And he shall lie with your wives in the sight of the sun. ¹²For you acted in secret, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.

¹³And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against Jehovah. And Nathan said to David, Jehovah also has put away your sin; you shall not die. ¹⁴Only, because you have made the enemies of Jehovah to scorn derisively by this thing, also the son who shall be born to you shall surely die.

¹⁵And Nathan went to his house, and Jehovah struck the boy whom the former wife of Uriah had borne to David. And it became sick. ¹⁶And David sought God for the child. And David fasted a fast, and went in and stayed the night, and lay on the earth. ¹⁷And the elders of his house rose up toward him, to raise him up from the earth. But he was not willing; and he ate no bread with them. ¹⁸And it happened on the seventh day, the boy died. And David's servants feared to tell him that the boy was dead, for they said, Behold, while the boy was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not listen to our voice. And how shall we say to him, The boy is dead? Then he may do harm. ¹⁹And David saw that his servants were whispering among themselves. And David understood that the boy was dead. And David said to his servants, Is the boy dead? And they said, He is dead. ²⁰And David rose up from the earth, and bathed, and anointed. And he changed his clothing, and came into the house of Jehovah, and worshiped. And he came to his house, and commanded, and they brought bread for him; and he ate. ²¹And his servants said to him, what is this thing you have done? You fasted and wept because of the living boy, yet when the boy is dead, you have risen up and have eaten food? ²²And he said, While the boy was alive, I fasted and wept. For I said, Who knows? Jehovah may be gracious to me and the boy may stay alive. ²³And now he has died. Why this, that I should fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

²⁴And David comforted his wife Bathsheba. And he went in to her, and lay with her. And she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And Jehovah loved him, ²⁵and sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and called his name Jedidiah, because of Jehovah.

²⁶And Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and captured the royal city. ²⁷And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and I have captured the city of waters. ²⁸And now gather the rest of the people, and encamp against the city, and take it; that I not take the city, and my name be called over it. ²⁹And David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. ³⁰And he took the crown of their king from off his head. And its weight was a talent of gold, and a precious stone in it. And it was set on David's head. And he brought out the plunder of the city in great abundance. ³¹And he brought out the people in it, and put them to the saw, and to sharp tools of iron, and to axes of iron. And he caused them to go over into the brick-kiln. And so he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

¹And afterward it happened that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, and her name was Tamar. And Amnon the son of David loved her. ²And Amnon was distressed, even to becoming sick, because of his sister Tamar. For she was a virgin, and it was hard in the eyes of Amnon to do anything to her. ³And Amnon had a friend, and his name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. And Jonadab was a very shrewd man. ⁴And he said to him, Why are you, the king's son, so puny morning by morning? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. ⁵And Jonadab said to him, Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And your father will come in to see you, and you shall say to him, Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me food to eat. And she shall make the food before my eyes, so that I may see and may eat from her hand. ⁶And Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. And the king came to see him. And Amnon said to the king, Please let my sister Tamar come, and she shall make two cakes before my eyes, and I shall eat from her hand. ⁷And David sent home to Tamar, saying, Please go to the house of your brother Amnon, and make food for him. ⁸And Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. And he was lying down. And she took the dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes before his eyes, and baked the cakes. ⁹And she took the baking pan and poured out before him. But he refused to eat, and Amnon said, Cause every man to go out from me. And every one of them went out from him. ¹⁰And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the inner room, and I shall eat from your hand. And Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them in to her brother Amnon, into the inner room. ¹¹And she brought near to him to eat. And he lay hold on her, and said to her, Come lie with me, my sister. ¹²And she said to him, No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done so in Israel. Do not do this foolishness. ¹³And I, where should I cause my disgrace to go? And you, you shall be as one of the fools in Israel. But now please speak to the king; for he shall not withhold me from you. ¹⁴But he was not willing to listen to her voice. And he was stronger than she, and humbled her, and lay with her.

¹⁵And Amnon hated her with a very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Get up and go! ¹⁶And she said to him, No, for this evil is greater than the other that you have done to me, to send me away. But he was not willing to listen to her. ¹⁷And he called his young man who attended him, and said, Now put this one out from me, and bolt the door after her. ¹⁸And a long tunic was on her, for so the virgin daughters of the king usually dressed. And his attendant brought her robes outside, and bolted the door after her. ¹⁹And Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore the long tunic on her, and put her hand on her head, and left; going on and crying out. ²⁰And her brother Absalom said to her, Has your brother Amnon been with you? But now, my sister, keep silent. He is your brother. Do not set your heart on this thing. And Tamar lived in the house of her brother Absalom, but she was desolate.

²¹And king David heard all these things, and it angered him very much. ²²But Absalom did not speak either good or evil with Amnon, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had humbled his sister Tamar.

²³And after two years it happened that Absalom had shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim. And Absalom called to all the sons of the king. ²⁴And Absalom came to the king and said, Behold, your servant now has shearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant. ²⁵And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go now, and we shall not be too heavy on you. But he urged him, and he was not willing to go, but he blessed him. ²⁶And Absalom said, If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with you? ²⁷And Absalom urged him, and he sent Amnon with him, and all the king's sons.

²⁸And Absalom commanded his young men, saying, Now watch when Amnon's heart is glad with wine, and when I say to you, Strike Amnon, you shall kill him. Do not fear. Did not I command you? Be strong, and be valiant. ²⁹And the young men of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom commanded. And all the king's sons rose up, and they each rode on his mule, and fled.

Absalom's command from the day of his humbling of his sister Tamar. ³³And now, do not let my lord the king lay the word to heart, saying, All the king's sons have died; for only Amnon is dead. ³⁴And Absalom fled. And the young man who was watching lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, many people were coming by the highway behind him, by the side of the hill. ³⁵And Jonadab said to the king, See, the sons of the king have come, as the word of your servant, so it has been. ³⁶And it happened as he finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came. And they lifted up their voice and wept. And also the king and all his servants wept with a very great weeping.

³⁷And Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son all the time. ³⁸And Absalom had fled, and had gone to Geshur, and was there three years. ³⁹And king David determined to go out to Absalom, for he had been comforted for Amnon, for he was dead.

¹And Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart was on Absalom. ²And Joab sent to Tekoah and took a wise woman from there, and said to her, Pretend yourself to be a mourner now, and please put on garments of mourning. And do not anoint yourself with oil, and you shall be a woman mourning for the dead these many days. ³And you shall go to the king and speak with him according to this word. And Joab put the words into her mouth.

⁴And the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, and fell on her face to the earth, and bowed and said, Save, O king! ⁵And the king said to her, What shall be to you? And she said, Truly I am a widow woman, and my husband died. ⁶And your servant had two sons. And the two of them fought in the field, and there was no deliverer between them. And the one struck the other, and killed him. ⁷And, behold, the whole family has risen against your servant, and said, Give up him who struck his brother, and we shall kill him for the life of his brother whom he has slain. And we shall also destroy the heir. And they shall quench my coal which is left, so as not to set to my husband a name and remnant on the face of the earth. ⁸And the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give command concerning you. ⁹And the woman of Tekoah said to the king, My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne shall be guiltless. ¹⁰And the king said, Whoever speaks to you, you also shall bring him to me, then he shall not touch you any more. ¹¹And she said, Please let the king remember Jehovah your God, that the redeemer of blood not destroy any more, and that they may not destroy my son. And he said, As Jehovah lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the earth. ¹²And the woman said, Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king. And he said, Speak. ¹³And the woman said, And why have you thought in this way about the people of God? Yea, the king is speaking this thing as a guilty one, in that the king has not brought back his outcast. ¹⁴For we do surely die, and are as water which is spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up. And God does not take a life, but has devised plans so that the outcast is not cast out from Him. ¹⁵And now that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, because the people made me afraid; and your servant said, Please let me speak to the king; it may be the king shall do the word of his servant. ¹⁶For the king has listened, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man seeking to destroy me and my son together, out of the inheritance of God. ¹⁷And your servant said, Please let the word of my lord the king be comforting. For as a messenger of God, so is my lord the king, to understand the good and the evil. And Jehovah your God shall be with you.

¹⁸And the king answered and said to the woman, Please do not hide from me the thing that I am asking you. And the woman said, Then let my lord the king speak. ¹⁹And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my lord, O king, none shall turn to the right or to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in your servant's mouth. ²⁰Your servant Joab has done this thing to turn about the face of the matter, and my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all that is in the land.

²¹And the king said to Joab, Behold, now, I have done this thing. Then go, bring back the young man Absalom. ²²And Joab fell on his face to the earth, and bowed, and blessed the king. And Joab said, Today your servant has known that I have found grace in your eyes, my lord, O king, in that the king has done the word of his servant. ²³And Joab rose up and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴And the king said, Let him turn to his house, and he shall not see my face. And Absalom turned to his house, and he did not see the king's face. ²⁵And no man was handsome like Absalom in all Israel, to be so greatly praised. From the sole of his foot to his crown, there was not a blemish in him. ²⁶And when he sheared his head — for it was at the end of days of days that he sheared it, because the hair was heavy on him, and he sheared it—he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels by the king's weight. ²⁷And three sons were born to Absalom, and one daughter. And her name was Tamar; she was a woman of a beautiful form.

²⁸And Absalom lived in Jerusalem two years, and had not seen the king's face. ²⁹And Absalom sent to Joab, to send him to the king. But he was not willing to come to him. And he sent again a second time, and he was not willing to come. ³⁰And he said to his servants, Behold, Joab's allotment is beside mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the allotment on fire. ³¹And Joab rose up and came to Absalom, to the house, and said to him, Why have your servants set my allotment on fire? ³²And Absalom said to Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here, and I will send you to the king to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It was good for me to be there still. And now, let me see the king's face, and if there is guilt in me, then let him execute me. ³³And Joab came to the king and told him. And he called to Absalom; and he came to the king, and bowed to him on his face to the earth before the king. And the king gave a kiss to Absalom.

¹And it happened afterward that Absalom prepared a chariot for himself, and horses, and fifty men running before him. ²And Absalom rose up and stood by the side of the way of the gate. And it happened that every man who had a cause to come to the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, Of what city are you? And he said, Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel. ³And Absalom said to him, Behold, your matters are good and right. And there is no listener to you from the king. ⁴And Absalom said, Who shall make me a judge in the land, that every man who has a dispute, even with justice I will then declare him right? ⁵And it happened, when a man drew near to bow himself to him, he put out his hand and laid hold on him, and gave him a kiss. ⁶And Absalom acted this way to all Israel who came in for judgment, to the king. And Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.

⁷And at the end of forty years, it happened, Absalom said to the king, Please let me go and I shall pay my vow that I have vowed to Jehovah, in Hebron. ⁸For your servant has vowed a vow when I lived in Geshur, in Syria, saying, If Jehovah shall surely bring me back to Jerusalem, then I shall serve Jehovah. ⁹And the king said to him, Go in peace. And he rose up and went to Hebron. ¹⁰And Absalom sent spies among all the tribes of Israel, saying, When you hear the sound of the ram's horn, then you shall say, Absalom is king in Hebron. ¹¹And two hundred men went out of Jerusalem with Absalom, chosen ones. And they went out in their simplicity and did not know anything. ¹²And Absalom sent Ahithophel the Gilonite, a counselor of David, out of his city, out of Giloh, as he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong. And the people were going on and increasing with Absalom.

¹³And a messenger came to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Absalom. ¹⁴And David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, Rise up, and we will flee; for we have no escape from the face of Absalom. Hurry to leave, that he not overtake us and bring evil down on us, and strike the city with the mouth of the sword. ¹⁵And the king's servants said to the king, According to all that my lord the king desires, behold, your servants will do. ¹⁶And the king went out, and all his household at his feet. And the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house. ¹⁷And the king went out, and all the people at his feet. And they stood still at the house farthest away. ¹⁸And all his servants were passing on at his side, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came at his feet from Gath. These were passing on before the king. ¹⁹And the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why do you go, even you with us? Turn back and remain with the king, for you are an alien, and also you are an exile. Go to your place. ²⁰You came in yesterday, and today should I make you go with us, to go while I go, where I go? Turn back and take your brothers with you in kindness and truth. ²¹And Ittai replied to the king and said, As Jehovah lives, and my lord the king lives, surely in the place where my lord the king is, there your servant shall be, whether for death or for life. ²²And David said to Ittai, Go on and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones with him. ²³And all the land was weeping with a loud voice. And all the people were passing over. And the king was passing over through the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

²⁴And, behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set the ark of God down. And Abiathar went up until all the people finished passing on out of the city. ²⁵And the king said to Zadok, Take the ark of God back to the city. If I find grace in the eyes of Jehovah, then He will bring me back and show it and His dwelling place to me. ²⁶And if He says this, I have not delighted in you, behold, I am here. He shall do to me as seems good in His eyes. ²⁷And the king said to Zadok the priest, Are you a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. ²⁸Behold, I will wait in the plain of the wilderness until word comes from you to report to me. ²⁹And Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

³⁰And David was going up in the ascent of the olives, going up and weeping. And his head was covered, and he was going barefooted. And all the people who were with him each had covered his head, and had gone up, going up and weeping. ³¹And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O Jehovah, I pray You, make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish. ³²And it happened as David had come to the top, there where he bowed to God. And, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him, his tunic torn, and earth on his head. ³³And David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you shall be a burden to me. ³⁴but if you return to the city, and shall say to Absalom, I also will be your servant, O king; I also was servant of your father before now; and now I am also your servant. Then you can break down the counsel of Ahithophel for me. ³⁵And do you not have there with you Zadok and Abiathar, the priests? And it shall be, you shall declare everything that you hear from the house of the king; you shall report to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests. ³⁶Behold, there are with them their two sons, Ahimaaz to Zadok, and Jonathan to Abiathar. And you shall send to me by their hand anything that you hear. ³⁷And David's friend Hushai came into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

of Israel shall give back to me the kingdom of my father. ⁴And the king said to Ziba, Behold, all that Mephibosheth has is yours. And Ziba said, I bow myself; may I find favor in your eyes, my lord, O king.

⁵And king David came to Bahurim. And, behold, a man was coming out from there, of the family of the house of Saul; and his name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and he came cursing. ⁶And he stoned David with stones, and all the servants of king David, and all the people, and all the mighty men on his right and on his left. ⁷And Shimei said this in his cursing, Go out! Go out, O man of blood, O worthless man! ⁸Jehovah has turned back on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. And Jehovah shall give the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. And, behold, you are taken in your mischief, for you are a man of blood.

⁹And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, Why does this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me pass over, I beg you, and I will take off his head. ¹⁰And the king said, What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? For let him curse, even because Jehovah has said to him, Curse David. And who shall say, Why have you done so? ¹¹And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son who came out of my loins is seeking my life, and surely now also the Benjamite. Leave him alone, and let him curse, for Jehovah has spoken to him. ¹²It may be Jehovah will look on my affliction, and Jehovah will return good to me for his cursing this day.

¹³And David went with his men in the highway, and Shimei was going along at the side of the hill across from him. As he went, he cursed, and stoned with stones across from him, and dusted with dust. ¹⁴And the king came in wearied, and all the people with him; and he was refreshed there.

¹⁵And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, had come into Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. ¹⁶And it happened, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, Let the king live! Let the king live! ¹⁷And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness with your friend? Why have you not gone with your friend? ¹⁸And Hushai said to Absalom, No, for he whom Jehovah and this people have chosen, even all the men of Israel, his I shall be, and I shall remain with him.

¹⁹And a second time, Whom should I serve? Should I not serve before the face of his son. As I served before the face of your father, so shall I be before your face.

²⁰And Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your counsel, what we shall do.

²¹And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines, those he left to keep the house. And all Israel shall hear that you have become odious with your father. And the hands of all who are with you will be strong. ²²And they spread out a tent for Absalom on the roof. And Absalom went in to his father's concubines before the eyes of all Israel. ²³And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those days was as one who had inquired at the word of God. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both to David and to Absalom.

¹And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Please let me choose twelve thousand men, and I shall rise up and pursue David tonight. ²And I shall come on him, and he shall be weary and feeble-handed. And I will make him tremble, and the people with him shall flee. And I shall strike the king by himself. ³And I shall bring all the people back to you, when all return, except the man whom you are seeking. All the people shall be in peace. ⁴And the thing was pleasing in Absalom's eyes, and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel. ⁵And Absalom said, Please call for Hushai the Archite also. And we shall hear what is in his mouth, also he. ⁶And Hushai came in to Absalom. And Absalom spoke to him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken according to this word. Shall we do this word? If not, you speak. ⁷And Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel Ahithophel counseled is not good at this time. ⁸And Hushai said, You have known your father and his men, that they are mighty men. And they are bitter of soul, like a bear bereaved of cubs in the field. And your father is a man of war, and shall not stay the night with the people. ⁹Behold, now he is hidden in one of the pits, or in one of the places. And it shall be, at the falling among them at the beginning, that whoever hears even shall say, There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom. ¹⁰And also he, the son of valor, whose heart is as the heart of the lion, shall utterly melt. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those with him sons of valor.

¹¹So I counsel this: Let all Israel be diligently gathered to you, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude. And you yourself shall go into battle. ¹²And we shall come in to him in one of the places, there where he shall be found. And we shall fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of all the men who are with him, not even one shall be left. ¹³And if he is taken into a city, then all Israel shall bear ropes to that city. And we shall draw it into the torrent bed, until there shall not be found even a pebble.

¹⁴And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. And Jehovah had ordained to break down the good counsel of Ahithophel, for the sake of bringing the evil of Jehovah to Absalom.

¹⁵And Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests, Ahithophel has counseled this and this to Absalom and the elders of Israel. And I have counseled this and this. ¹⁶And now send quickly and tell David, saying, Do not stay in the fords of the wilderness tonight. And, also, be sure to pass over, that there not be a swallowing up of the king and of all the people with him. ¹⁷And Jonathan and Ahimaaz were standing at En-rogel, for they were not able to be seen going into the city. And a slave-girl went and told them. And they went and told it to king David. ¹⁸And a youth saw them, and told Absalom. And they went on, both of them in haste, and came into the house of a man in Bahurim. And he had a well in his court, and they went down there. ¹⁹And the woman took and spread the covering over the well, and spread ground grain on it. And the thing was not known. ²⁰And the servants of Absalom came in to the woman, to the house, and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They passed over the river of water. And they looked and did not find them. And they returned to Jerusalem. ²¹And it happened after they left, they came up out of the well and went and told king David. And they said to David, Rise up and quickly pass over the waters, for Ahithophel has counseled this against you. ²²And David and all the people with him rose up, and they passed over the Jordan until the light of the morning, until there was not one lacking who had not crossed the Jordan.

²³And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not done. And he saddled the ass and rose up and went to his house, to his city. And he gave command to his household, then hanged himself, and died. And he was buried in the burying-place of his father.

²⁴And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵And Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. And Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail, the daughter of Nahash, the sister of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab. ²⁶And Israel camped with Absalom in the land of Gilead. ²⁷And it happened as David came into Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash, from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite, from Rogelim, ²⁸brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched grain, and beans, and lentils, and parched grain, ²⁹and honey, and curds, and sheep, and cheese from the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him to eat. For they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

¹And David mustered the people who were with him, and he set over them commanders of hundreds. ²And David sent one third of the people by the hand of Joab, and one third by the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third by Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, Going out I will go with you, I also. ³And the people said, You shall not go out, for if we flee they will not set their heart on us; for now you are like ten thousand to us. And now it is better that you be a helper for us from the city. ⁴And the king said to them, I will do that which is good in your eyes. And the king stood at the side of the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, For my sake deal gently with the young man, with Absalom. And all the people heard as the king commanded the commanders concerning Absalom.

⁶And the people went into the field to meet Israel. And the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷And the people of Israel were stricken before David's servants. And there was a great destruction on that day of twenty thousand. ⁸And the battle was scattered over the face of all the land, and the forests devoured among the people more than had the sword had devoured in that day.

⁹And Absalom came before David's servants. And Absalom was riding on a mule, and the mule came in under the thick branches of a great oak. And his head caught hold in the oak, and he was lifted up between the heaven and the earth. And the mule that was under him passed on. ¹⁰And a man saw and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in the oak; ¹¹and Joab said to the man who told him, And, behold, you have seen. And why did you not strike him to the earth there and call on me to give you ten silverlings and a girdle? ¹²And the man said to Joab, Yes, though I weighed a thousand silverlings in my hand, I would not put forth my hand to the king's son. For in our ears the king commanded you, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Take heed, you going against the youth, against Absalom. ¹³Or I would have dealt falsely against my soul. For no matter is hidden from the king, and you, you yourself would have set against me. ¹⁴And Joab said, I will not wait this way before you. And he took three darts in his hand and struck them into Absalom's heart while he was alive, in the midst of the oak. ¹⁵And they went around, ten young men bearing Joab's weapons, and struck Absalom, and killed him.

¹⁶And Joab blew the ram's horn, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab had held the people back. ¹⁷And they took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and set up a very great heap of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each one to his tent.

¹⁸And during his lifetime Absalom had taken and set up for himself a standing-pillar, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, I have no son to cause my name to be remembered. And he called the standing-pillar by his name; and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

¹⁹And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Please let me run, and I will bear news to the king. For Jehovah has vindicated him from the hand of his enemies. ²⁰And Joab said to him, You are not a man of tidings today. But you shall bear tidings another day. And today you shall not bear tidings, because the king's son is dead. ²¹And Joab said to Cushi, Go, tell the king that which you have seen. And Cushi bowed to Joab, and ran. ²²And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, Yet whatever may be, please let me run after the Cushite, I also. And Joab said, Why is this that you are running, my son? Also for you there are no tidings found. ²³And he said, Yet whatever it may be, let me run. And he said to him, Run. And Ahimaaz ran the way of the circuit and passed by the Cushite. ²⁴And David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went to the roof of the gate and lifted up his eyes, and looked. And, behold, a man running by himself! ²⁵And the watchman called and told the king. And the king said, If he is by himself, tidings are in his mouth. And he came, coming on, and drawing near. ²⁶And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, Behold, a man running by himself! And the king said, Also this one is bearing tidings. ²⁷And the watchman said, I see the running of the first as the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, This is a good man and he comes with good news. ²⁸And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, Peace! And he bowed on his face to the earth to the king and said, Blessed be Jehovah your God who has shut up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king. ²⁹And the king said, Peace to the young, to Absalom? And Ahimaaz said, I saw the great tumult, at the sending away of the servant of the king, even your servant sent by Joab, but I do not know what. ³⁰And the king said, Turn aside, stand here. And he turned aside and stood. ³¹And, behold, the Cushite had come. And the Cushite said, News is borne, my lord, O king! For Jehovah has vindicated you today out of the hand of those rising up against you. ³²And the king said to the Cushite, peace to the young man, to Absalom? And the Cushite said, Let them be as the young man, the enemies of my lord the king, and all who have risen up against you for evil. ³³And the king trembled. And he went up to the upper room of the gate and wept. And he said this as he went, My son! My son Absalom! My son Absalom! O that I had died instead of you, my son Absalom, my son!

¹And it was announced to Joab, Behold, the king is weeping and mourning over Absalom. ²And the deliverance on that day became mourning to all the people, for the people had heard on that day, saying, The king is grieving for his son. ³And the people stole away on that day to go into the city, as the people steal away who are ashamed as they flee in battle. ⁴And the king had covered his face. Yea, the king cried with a loud voice, My son Absalom! Absalom my son, my son! ⁵And Joab came in to the king to the house, and said, You have put to shame today the faces of all your servants, those delivering your life today, and the life of your sons, and of your daughters, and the life of your wives, and the life of your concubines, ⁶by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you, for you have declared today that there is not to you leaders nor servants. For I know today that if Absalom were alive and all of us dead today, that it would be right in your eyes. ⁷And now rise up; go out and speak to the heart of your servants. For I have sworn by Jehovah that if you do not go out, not a man shall remain with you tonight. And this would be worse for you than all the evil that has come on you from your youth until now.

⁸And the king rose up and sat in the gate. And they announced it to all the people, saying, Behold, the king is sitting in the gate. And all the people came in before the king. And Israel had fled, each one to his tents.

⁹And it happened, all the people were contending through all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies. Yea, he himself delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines. And now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom. ¹⁰And Absalom whom we anointed over us is dead in battle. And now why are you silent as to bringing back the king?

¹¹And king David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring back the king to his house? For the word of all Israel had come to the king, to his house. ¹²You are my brother; you are my bone and my flesh. And why are you the last to bring back the king?

¹³And say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? So shall God do to me, and more so He shall do, if you are not commander of the army before me all the days, instead of Joab. ¹⁴And he inclined the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, and they sent to the king, Return, you and all your servants. ¹⁵And the king returned and came in to the Jordan. And Judah had come to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.

¹⁶And Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah, to meet king David. ¹⁷And a thousand men were with him from Benjamin; also Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, and his thirteen sons and his twenty servants with him. And they had rushed over the Jordan before the king. ¹⁸And they had crossed over the ford to carry over the king's household, and to do the good in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera had fallen before the face of the king as he crossed over the Jordan. ¹⁹And he said to the king,

Do not let my lord charge iniquity to me, nor shall you remember that which your servant perversely did in the day that my lord the king went out from Jerusalem, for the king to take it to his heart. ²⁰For your servant knows that I have sinned; and behold, I have come today, the first of the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king. ²¹And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of Jehovah? ²²And David said, What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you are as my foe today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel? ²³And the king said to Shimei, You shall not die. And the king swore to him.

²⁴And Mephibosheth the son of Saul had come down to meet the king. And he had not dressed his feet, nor had shaved his upper lip. Yea, he had not washed his garment, even from the day that he went away till the day that he came in peace. ²⁵And it happened when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth? ²⁶And he said, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle the ass for myself and ride on it and go with the king, for your servant is lame. ²⁷And he spoke slander against your servant to my lord the king. And my lord the king is as a messenger of God; yet you do that which is good in your eyes. ²⁸For all the house of my father would be nothing except men of death before my lord the king, and you have set your servant among those eating at your table. And what right do I have of any more, even to cry any more to the king? ²⁹And the king said to him, Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, You and Ziba share the land. ³⁰And Mephibosheth said to the king, yes, let him take all, since my lord the king has come in peace to his house.

³¹And Barzillai the Gileadite had gone down from Rogelim and had crossed over the Jordan with the king, to send him away over the Jordan. ³²And Barzillai was very old, a son of eighty years, and he had sustained the king as he abode in Mahanaim, for he was a very great man. ³³And the king said to Barzillai, You pass over with me and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem. ³⁴And Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵I am a son of eighty years today. Can I distinguish between good and evil? Can your servant taste that which I am eating, and that which I drink? Can I any more listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? And why should your servant be any more as a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶As a little thing your servant shall cross over the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with this reward? ³⁷Please let your servant return, and I shall die in my own city, near the burying-place of my father and my mother. And, behold your servant Chimham! Let him cross over with my lord the king, and you do to him the good in your eyes. ³⁸And the king said, Chimham shall go over with me, and I shall do to him that which is good in your eyes. Yea, all that you shall choose of me I will do for you. ³⁹And all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king crossed over. And the king gave a kiss to Barzillai and blessed him. And he returned to his place. ⁴⁰And the king crossed over to Gilgal. And Chimham crossed over with him, and all the people of Judah. And they brought the king over, and also half of the people of Israel.

⁴¹And, behold, all the men of Israel were coming to the king. And they said to the king, Why have they, our brothers the men of Judah, stolen you away? For they brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all the men of David with him. ⁴²And, behold, all the men of Judah answered against the men of Israel, Because the king is near to us. And why is this that you are angry about this matter? Have we at all eaten from the king, or has he given a gift to us? ⁴³And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, We have ten hands in the king, and we also have more in David than you. Why then did you despise us, that our word was not first to bring back our king? And the word of the men of Judah was more fierce than the word of the men of Israel.

¹And a man of worthlessness happened to be there, and his name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a man of Benjamin. And he blew the ram's horn and said, We have no part in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each man to his tents, O Israel. ²And every man of Israel went up from following David, going after Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clung to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem. ³And David came into his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left to guard the house, and fed them. But he did not go in to them, and they were shut up to the day of their death in widowhood.

⁴And the king said to Amasa, Call for me the men of Judah within three days; and you stand here. ⁵And Amasa went to call Judah, but delayed beyond the set time which he had set for him. ⁶And David said to Abishai, Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do more evil to us than Absalom. You take the servants of your lord and pursue him, that he not find fortified cities for himself, and deliver himself from our eye. ⁷And the men of Joab went out after him, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men. And they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸They were near the great stone in Gibeon, and Amasa had gone before them. And Joab was girded with his war coat as his clothing; and over it was a belt with a sword fastened on his loins in its sheath. And as he went out, it fell out. ⁹And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my brother? And Joab's right hand took hold of Amasa's beard to give a kiss to him. ¹⁰And Amasa was not on guard against the sword in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it to the belly, and poured out his bowels to the ground, and did not strike him again. And he died. And Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹¹And a man stood beside him, of the young men of Joab; and he said, Whoever delights in Joab, and whoever is for David follow after Joab! ¹²And Amasa was wallowing in blood in the middle of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stood still. And he turned away Amasa from the highway to the field, and threw a garment over him when he saw that all who came beside him stood still. ¹³When he was taken from the highway, every man passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

¹⁴And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and to all the Berites. And they were gathered, and went after him also. ¹⁵And they went in and lay siege against him in Abel-Beth-maachah, and mounded up a siege-mound against the city. And it stood against the outermost wall, and all the people with Joab were undermining, to cause the wall to fall.

¹⁶Then a wise woman called out of the city, Hear! Hear! Please say to Joab, Come near here and I will speak to you. ¹⁷And he came near to her. And the woman said, Are you Joab? And he said, I am. And she said to him, Hear the words of your handmaid. And he said, I am listening. ¹⁸And she spoke, saying, They spoke often in days gone by, saying, Surely they will ask at Abel, and so they ended all dispute. ¹⁹I am of the peaceful, faithful ones of Israel. You are seeking to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of Jehovah? ²⁰And Joab answered and said, Far be it! Far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹The case is not such. For a man of the hills of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri is his name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. If you will give him up by himself, then I shall go away from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head will be thrown over the wall to you. ²²And the woman came to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it to Joab. And he blew the ram's horn, and they were dispersed from the city, each man to his tents. And Joab went back to Jerusalem to the king.

²³And Joab was over all the army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites. ²⁴And Adoram was over the forced labor, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder. ²⁵And Sheva was the scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ²⁶And also, Ira the Jairite was a priest to David.

¹And there was a famine in the days of David, three years, year after year. And David sought the face of Jehovah. And Jehovah said, It is for Saul and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gibeonites. ²And the king called for the Gibeonites and said to them — as to the Gibeonites, they were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the sons of Israel had sworn to them; and Saul sought to strike them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah — ³and David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, and you bless the inheritance of Jehovah? ⁴And the Gibeonites said to him, We will have neither silver nor gold by Saul and by his house. Also, we will have no man in Israel put to death. And he said, What you say, I will do for you. ⁵And they said to the king, The man who destroyed us and schemed against us that we be wasted from standing in all the border of Israel. ⁶Let be given to us seven men of his sons to us. And we will expose them to Jehovah in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Jehovah. And the king said, I will deliver them. ⁷But the king spared Jonathan's son Mephibosheth, the son of Saul, because of the oath of Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jonathan, the son of Saul. ⁸And the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth. And he took the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite. ⁹And he gave them into the hand of the Gibeonites. And they exposed them in the mountain before Jehovah. And the seven fell together. And they were executed in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and stretched it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water poured on them out of the heavens. And she did not allow a bird of the heavens to rest on them by day, nor the beast of the field by night. ¹¹And that which Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Saul's concubine, had done was told to David.

¹⁵And again the Philistines warred with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him. And they fought with the Philistines. And David was weary. ¹⁶And Ishbi-benob, who was of the sons of Rapha the giant, the weight of his spear being three hundred bronze shekels in weight, and was girded with a new sword, even he said to strike David. ¹⁷And Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, You shall not again go out with us to battle, that you not put out the lamp of Israel. ¹⁸And it happened after this that the battle was again in Gob of the Philistines. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite struck Saph, who was among the sons of Rapha. ¹⁹And again the battle was in Gob with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite struck Goliath the Gittite, and the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰And again the battle was in Gath, and there was a man of stature, and the fingers of his hands were six, and the fingers of his feet six, twenty-four in number. And he also had been born to Rapha. ²¹And he cursed Israel; and Jonathan, the son of David's brother Shimeah, struck him. ²²These four were born to Rapha the giant in Gath. And they fell by the hand of David, by the hand of his servants.

¹And David spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day Jehovah delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. ²And he said: Jehovah is my rock and my fortress, and my deliverer. ³My God is my rock; I shall take refuge in Him; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge! My Savior, You shall save me from violence. ⁴I call on Jehovah, the One to be praised; and I shall be saved from my enemies. ⁵When the waves of death surround me, the floods of the ungodly terrify me, ⁶the cords of Sheol are round about me, the snares of death confronted me; ⁷in my distress I called on Jehovah, and I called to my God. And He heard my voice from His temple, and my cry was in His ears. ⁸And the earth shook and trembled, the foundations of the heavens were troubled, and were shaken; for He was angry. ⁹Smoke rose up in His nostrils, and fire devoured out of His mouth; coals were kindled by it. ¹⁰And He bowed the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet. ¹¹And He rode on a cherub, and did fly, and was seen on the wings of the wind. ¹²And He made darkness pavilions round about Him, the gathering of waters, thick clouds of the skies. ¹³From the brightness before Him were brands of fire kindled! ¹⁴Jehovah thundered from the heavens, and the Most High gave forth His voice. ¹⁵And He sent forth arrows and scattered them; lightning, and troubled them; ¹⁶and the channels of the sea appeared; the world's foundations were revealed by the rebuke of Jehovah, from the blast of the breath of His nostrils. ¹⁷He sent from above; He took me; He drew me out of many waters. ¹⁸He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were stronger than I. ¹⁹They confronted me in the day of my calamity, and Jehovah was my support; ²⁰and He brought me out to a large place; He delivered me, for He delighted in me. ²¹Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands, He has repaid me. ²²For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, and have not acted wickedly against my God. ²³For all His judgments were before me; as to His statutes, I did not turn away from them. ²⁴And I was blameless before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity. ²⁵And Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes. ²⁶With the kind You shall show Yourself kind; with the upright man, You will show Yourself upright. ²⁷With the pure, You will show Yourself pure, and with the perverse You will show Yourself contorted. ²⁸And You shall save the afflicted people, and Your eyes are on the haughty, whom You bring low. ²⁹For You are my lamp, O Jehovah; and Jehovah shall light up my darkness. ³⁰For by You I have run through a troop; by my God, I have leaped over a wall. ³¹*As for* God, His way is perfect; the word of Jehovah is tested; He is a shield to all those who trust in Him. ³²For who is God except Jehovah? And who is a rock except our God? ³³God is my strong fortress; and He sets the blameless free in his way, ³⁴making my feet like hinds' feet, and causing me to stand on my high places; ³⁵teaching my hands for battle, so that my arms may bend a bow of bronze. ³⁶And You give to me the shield of Your salvation; and Your condescension has made me great. ³⁷You have enlarged my steps under me, and my feet have not slipped. ³⁸I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them; and I did not turn until they were consumed. ³⁹And I consumed them, and struck them, and they did not rise; but fell under my feet.

⁴⁰Yea, You girded me with might for battle; You caused those rising against me to bow under me. ⁴¹And You gave to me the necks of my enemies, those hating me; I silenced them. ⁴²They looked, and there was none to save; to Jehovah, and He did not answer them. ⁴³And I beat them as the dust of the earth; I crushed them small as the mire of the streets; I spread them out. ⁴⁴And You delivered me from the strivings of my people; You kept me as the head of the nations; a people I have not known served me. ⁴⁵The sons of strangers submit to me; at the hearing of the ear they listen to me. ⁴⁶The sons of strangers fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places. ⁴⁷Jehovah lives! And blessed is my rock, and exalted is my God, the rock of my salvation.

⁴⁸*He is God who is giving vengeance for me, and brings down peoples under me, and brings me forth from my enemies; yea, You raise me up above those rising up against me; You deliver me from the violent man.* ⁴⁹*On account of this I will confess You, Jehovah, among nations, and I will sing praise to Your name.* ⁵¹*A tower of salvation is He to His king; even doing mercy to His anointed, to David and to his seed, until forever!*

²*The Spirit of Jehovah has spoken by me, and His word is on my tongue.* ³*The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me: One ruling over man righteously, who rules in the fear of God, is as the light of the morning, as the sun shines; a morning without clouds — through shining after rain the tender grass sprouts from the earth.* ⁴*For is not my house so with God? For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered in all things, and sure; for all my salvation, and all my desire, will He not make it grow?* ⁵*As to the ungodly, all of them shall be as a thorn driven away; for they cannot be taken by the hand; but the man who shall touch them must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear; they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.*

⁹*And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi. He was of the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Philistines when they were gathered there to battle; and the men of Israel went up; he rose up and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clung to the sword. And* Jehovah worked a great salvation on that day, and the people returned after him only to plunder. ¹¹*And next was Sham-mah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines had gathered into a company, and there was a piece of ground full of lentils, and the people had fled before the Philistines.* ¹²*And he set himself in the midst of the plot, and delivered it, and struck the Philistines. And Jehovah worked out a great salvation.*

¹³*And three of the thirty commanders went down and came to the harvest, to David, to the cave of Adullam. And the company of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of the Giants.* ¹⁴*And David was then in a stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.* ¹⁵*And David longed, and said, Who shall give me drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem beside the gate?* ¹⁶*And the three mighty ones cut through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem beside the gate, and took it up, and brought it to David. But he was not willing to drink it, and poured it out to Jehovah;* ¹⁷*and said, Far be it from me, O Jehovah, to do this; is it not the blood of the men who went with their lives? And he was not willing to drink it. The three mighty ones did these things.*

¹⁸*And Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was the commander of three. And he raised up his spear against three hundred, and killed them. And he had the name among the three.* ¹⁹*Surely he was honored more than the three? And he was the commander to them, but he did not come to the first three.* ²⁰*And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel, a son of a mighty man, great in deeds; he killed two lion-like men of Moab. And he went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in a day of snow.* ²¹*And he killed an Egyptian, a man of form; and a spear was in the Egyptian's hand; and he went down to him with a staff and tore away the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.* ²²*Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among three mighty ones.* ²³*He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not come to the first three. And David set him over his guard.*

¹And again the anger of Jehovah glowed against Israel, and moved David against them, to say, Go, number Israel and Judah. ²And the king said to Joab, the commander of the army that was with him, Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people. ³And Joab said to the king, Yea, may Jehovah your God add to the people, however many they may be, a hundredfold. And may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing? ⁴But the word of the king prevailed against Joab, and against the army commanders. And Joab and the army commanders went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel. ⁵And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right of the city that is in the middle of the Valley of Gad, and to Jazer. ⁶And they came into Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi. And they came to Dan-jaan, and around to Sidon. ⁷And they came into the fortress of Tyre, and all the cities of the Hivite, and of the Canaanite. And they went out to the south of Judah, to Beer-sheba. ⁸And they went to and fro through all the land, and came in to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹And Joab gave the count from the numbering of the people to the king. And Israel was eight hundred thousand mighty men drawing sword; and the men of Judah five hundred thousand men.

¹⁰And after he had numbered the people, the heart of David struck him. And David said to Jehovah, I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. And now, O Jehovah, I pray, take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly. ¹¹And David rose up in the morning; and the word of Jehovah came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying, ¹²Go, and you shall speak to David, So says Jehovah, I am setting up three things for you; you choose one of them, and I will do it for you. ¹³And Gad came in to David and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee before your foes three months, and they pursue you? Or shall three days' plague come into your land? Now consider, and see what I shall take back to Him who sent word to me. ¹⁴And David said, Because of this I am in great distress. Let us fall now into the hand of Jehovah, for many are His mercies; and do not let me fall into the hand of man.

¹⁵And Jehovah sent a plague on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed. And from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand of the people died. ¹⁶And the angel put forth his hand to Jerusalem, to destroy it. And Jehovah repented as to the evil, and said to the angel who was destroying among the people, Enough! Now drop your hand. And the angel of Jehovah was near the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁷And when he saw the angel who was striking among the people, David spoke to Jehovah and said, Behold, I have sinned. Yea, I have acted perversely. And these, the flock, what have they done? Now let your hand be on me, and on my father's house.

¹⁸And Gad came in to David on that day and said to him, Go up, raise up an altar to Jehovah in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁹And David went up according to Gad's word, as Jehovah commanded. ²⁰And Araunah looked and saw the king and his servants crossing over to him. And Araunah went out and bowed himself to the king, his face to the earth.

²¹And Araunah said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor from you, in order to build an altar to Jehovah; and the plague will be stayed from the people.

²²And Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up that which is good in his eyes. Behold, the oxen for a burnt offering, and the threshing instruments, and the yokes of the oxen for wood. ²³O king, all these Araunah gives to the king. And Araunah said to the king, May Jehovah your God accept you. ²⁴And the king said to Araunah, No, for I will surely buy from you for a price, and I will not offer to Jehovah my God burnt offerings for nothing. And David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵And David built an altar there to Jehovah, and offered burnt offering and peace offerings. And Jehovah was entreated for the land; and the plague was stayed from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF KINGS

¹And king David was old, going into days. And they covered him with garments, for he had no heat. ²And his servants said to him, Let them seek out a young woman for my lord the king, a virgin, and she shall stand before the king, and be a nurse to him, and lie in your bosom, and my lord the king shall have heat. ³And they sought out a beautiful young woman in all the border of Israel. And they found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her in to the king. ⁴And the young woman was exceedingly beautiful, and she was a nurse to the king, and served him. But the king did not know her.

⁵And Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will reign. And he prepared a chariot for himself, and horsemen, and fifty men running before his face. ⁶And his father had not troubled him all his days, saying, Why have you done so? And he also was very good of form, and one had borne him after Absalom. ⁷And his words were with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest. And they helped, going after Adonijah. ⁸But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who were to David, were not with Adonijah. ⁹And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings near the Stone of Serpents which is near En-rogel. And he called all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the men of Judah, the servants of the king. ¹⁰But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and his brother Solomon.

¹¹And Nathan spoke to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon, saying, Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and our lord David does not know? ¹²And now, come, please let me counsel you with counsel, and save your life, and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³Go up and go in to king David. And you shall say to him, My lord, O king, have you not sworn to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? And why does Adonijah reign? ¹⁴Behold, while you are speaking with the king, then I will come in after you and will confirm your words.

¹⁵And Bathsheba came in to the king, to the inner room. And the king was old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king. ¹⁶And Bathsheba bowed and fell down before the king. And the king said, What shall I do for you? ¹⁷And she said to him, My lord, you have sworn by Jehovah your God to your handmaid, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne. ¹⁸And now, behold, Adonijah reigns. And now, my lord O king, you have not known. ¹⁹And he sacrifices oxen, and fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army. But he has not called to your servant Solomon. ²⁰And you, my lord O king, the eyes of Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹And it will be, when my lord the king lies with his fathers, that I, my son Solomon and I, shall be offenders.

²²And, behold, she was speaking with the king, and Nathan the prophet came in. ²³And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet! And he came in before the king and bowed to the king on his face to the earth. ²⁴And Nathan said, My lord O king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? ²⁵For he has gone down today and sacrificed oxen, and fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the army commanders, and Abiathar the priest. And, behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and they are saying, Let king Adonijah live! ²⁶But as for me, I, your servant, and for Zadok the priest, and for Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and for your servant Solomon, he has not called. ²⁷If it is to come about from my lord the king, then you have not caused your servant to know who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

²⁸And king David replied and said, Call Bathsheba for me. And she came in before the king, and stood before the king. ²⁹And the king swore and said, As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress, ³⁰surely as I swore to you by Jehovah, the God of Israel, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place; surely so I will do this day. ³¹And Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live forever.

³²And king David said, Call Zadok the priest for me, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came in before the king. ³³And the king said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and you shall cause my son Solomon to ride on my mule, and cause him to go down to Gihon. ³⁴And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet shall anoint him there as king over Israel. And you shall blow with the ram's horn and shout, Let king Solomon live! ³⁵And you shall come up after him, and he shall sit on my throne, and he shall reign in my place. For I have appointed him ruler over Israel, and over Judah. ³⁶And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, Amen! So says Jehovah the God of my lord the king. ³⁷As Jehovah has been with my lord the king, so shall He be with Solomon, and shall make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

⁴¹And Adonijah heard, and all those invited, who were with him. And they stopped eating. And Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn, and said, What is this noise roaring from the city? ⁴²And he was still speaking, and, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came in. And Adonijah said, Come in, for you are a mighty man and bear good news. ⁴³And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Truly our lord, king David, has caused Solomon to reign. ⁴⁴And the king sent Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet with him, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites. And they caused him to ride on the king's mule. ⁴⁵And they anointed him, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, as king in Gihon. And they have come up from there rejoicing. And the city is moved. It is the noise that you heard. ⁴⁶And also Solomon has sat on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷And also the king's servants have come in to bless our lord, king David, saying, Your God shall make the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself on the bed. ⁴⁸And also the king has said, Blessed is Jehovah the God of Israel who has today given one sitting on my throne, and my eyes seeing it. ⁴⁹And they trembled and rose up, all those who were invited by Adonijah, and left, each to his way.

⁵⁰And Adonijah was afraid because of Solomon, and he rose up and went and lay hold on the horns of the altar. ⁵¹And it was told to Solomon, saying, Adonijah is afraid of king Solomon. And, behold, he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me as of today that he will not put his servant to death by the sword. ⁵²And Solomon said, If he becomes a son of virtue, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth. But if evil is found in him, then he shall die. ⁵³And king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came in and bowed to king Solomon. And Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

¹And the days of David drew near, for him to die. And he commanded his son Solomon, saying, ²I am going in the way of all the earth. And you be strong, and be a man, ³and keep the charge of Jehovah your God, to walk in His ways, to keep

His statutes, His commands and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may do wisely all that you do, and there wherever you may turn, 'so that Jehovah may establish His word which He spoke to me, saying, If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth, with all their heart, with all their soul, saying, There shall not be a man of yours cut off from the throne of Israel. ⁵And also, you know that which Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, that which he did to the two army commanders of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, that he murdered them, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his girdle, on his loins and in his sandals on his feet; ⁶and you shall do according to your wisdom, and shall not let his gray hair go down to Sheol in peace. ⁷You shall be merciful to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and they shall be among those eating at your table, for so they drew near to me when I fled from the face of your brother Absalom. ⁸And, behold, with you is Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim. And he cursed me with a grievous cursing in the day I went to Mahanaim. And he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Jehovah, saying, I shall not put you to death by the sword. ⁹And now, do not acquit him, for you are a wise man, and you know that which you shall do to him, and shall bring his old age down with blood to Sheol.

¹⁰And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ¹²And Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

¹³And Adonijah the son of Haggith came in to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come in peace? And he said, Peace. ¹⁴And he said, A word to you and to me? And she said, Speak. ¹⁵And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their faces toward me to reign. Yet the kingdom has been turned around, and is my brother's, because it was his from Jehovah. ¹⁶And now I am asking one petition of you. Do not turn away your face. And she said to him, Speak. ¹⁷And he said, Please speak to king Solomon, for he will not turn away your face, that he shall give to me Abishag the Shunammite for a wife. ¹⁸And Bathsheba said, Well! I will speak to the king for you.

¹⁹And Bathsheba came in to king Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed to her, and sat on his throne, and placed a throne for the king's mother. And she sat at his right hand. ²⁰And she said, I ask one small petition of you. Do not turn away my face. And the king said to her, Ask, my mother, for I will not turn away your face. ²¹And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah for a wife. ²²And king Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Also ask the kingdom for him, for he is my older brother; yea, for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. ²³And king Solomon swore by Jehovah, saying, So shall God do to me, and more He shall do if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his life. ²⁴And now, as Jehovah lives, who has established me and caused me to sit on the throne of my father David, and who has made a house for me, as He spoke, surely today Adonijah shall be put to death. ²⁵And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he fell on him, and he died.

²⁶And the king said to Abiathar the priest, Go to Anathoth, to your fields. For you are deserving of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you have borne the ark of the Lord Jehovah before my father David, and because you were afflicted in all the things with which my father was afflicted. ²⁷And Solomon drove Abiathar from being priest to Jehovah, to fulfill the word of Jehovah which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

²⁸And the report came to Joab, for Joab had turned aside after Adonijah, though he did not turn aside after Absalom. And Joab fled to the tabernacle of Jehovah, and lay hold on the horns of the altar. ²⁹And it was announced to king Solomon that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of Jehovah, and, behold, he was by the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall on him. ³⁰And Benaiah came into the tabernacle of Jehovah and said to him, So says the king, Come out. And he said, No, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, So says Joab. Yea, so he answered me. ³¹And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him. And you shall bury him, and turn aside the innocent blood which Joab shed, off of me and off of my father's house. ³²And Jehovah shall turn back his blood on his own head, who has fallen on two men more righteous and better than he, and murdered them with the sword; and my father David not knowing it: Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah. ³³Yea, He shall turn back their blood on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever. And as for David and for his seed, and for his house, and for his throne, there shall be peace forever from Jehovah. ³⁴And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him, and executed him. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. ³⁵And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army. And the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

³⁶And the king sent and called Shimei and said to him, Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem. And you shall live there, and shall not go out from there anywhere. ³⁷And it shall be, in the day you go out and cross the brook Kidron, you shall certainly know that dying you shall die; your blood shall be on your head. ³⁸And Shimei said to the king, The word is good. As my lord the king has spoken, so your servant shall do. And Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

³⁹And it happened at the end of three years, two of Shimei's servants fled to Achish the son of Maachah, the king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath. ⁴⁰And Shimei rose up and saddled his ass and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹And it was told to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned. ⁴²And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Did I not cause you to swear by Jehovah, and testify to you, saying, In the day you go out, and you have gone anywhere, you certainly shall know that you shall surely die. And you said to me, The word I have heard is good. ⁴³And why have you not kept the oath of Jehovah, and the charge that I commanded you? ⁴⁴And the king said to Shimei, You shall know all the evil that your heart has known, that which you did to my father David. Now Jehovah has turned back your evil on your head. ⁴⁵And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before Jehovah forever. ⁴⁶And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell on him, and he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

¹And Solomon made an alliance by marriage with Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David, until he finished building his own house, and the house of Jehovah, and the wall of Jerusalem all around. ²Only, the people were sacrificing in high places, for a house for the name of Jehovah had not been built until those days. ³And Solomon loved Jehovah, to walk in the statutes of his father David. Only, he was sacrificing in high places and burning incense. ⁴And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for it was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

⁵Jehovah appeared to Solomon in Gibeon in a dream of the night. And God said, Ask. What shall I give to you? ⁶And Solomon said, You have shown great kindness to Your servant, my father David, as he walked before You in truth and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You. And You have kept for him this great kindness, and have given to him a son sitting on his throne, as today. ⁷And now, O

Jehovah my God, You have caused Your servant to reign instead of my father David. And I am a little man-child; I do not know to go out and to come in. ⁸And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a numerous people that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. ⁹Also give to Your servant an understanding heart, to judge Your people, to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this, Your great people? ¹⁰And the word was good in the eyes of the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. ¹¹And God said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself many days, nor asked riches for yourself, nor asked the life of your enemies, and have asked for discernment for yourself, to understand judgment, ¹²behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given to you a wise and understanding heart, so that there was none like you before you, and after you none shall rise up like you. ¹³And also, I have given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, that there shall not be a man like you among the kings all your days. ¹⁴And if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commands, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days.

¹⁵And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream! And he came into Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings. And he made a banquet for all his servants.

¹⁶Then two women, harlots, came in to the king and stood before him. ¹⁷And the one woman said, O my lord, this woman and I were living in one house. And I gave birth, with her in the house. ¹⁸And it happened on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. And we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, only we two in the house. ¹⁹And the son of this woman died at night, because she laid on it. ²⁰And she rose up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me and laid it in her bosom; and your handmaid was asleep. And she laid her dead son in my bosom.

²¹And I rose up in the morning to suckle

my son; and, behold, it was dead. And I looked at it in the morning; and, behold, it was not my son whom I had borne. ²²And the other woman said, No, but my son is the living, and your son the dead. And this one said, No, but your son is dead, and my son the living. And they spoke before the king. ²³And the king said, This one says, This is my son, the living one, and your son the dead. And that one says, No, but your son is the dead, and my son the living. ²⁴And the king said, Bring a sword to me. And they brought the sword before the king. ²⁵And the king said, Divide the living child into two, and give the half to the one, and the half to the other. ²⁶And the woman whose son was the living one said to the king—for her womb yearned over her son—yea, she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and do not at all put it to death. And this one said, Let it be neither yours or mine, divide it. ²⁷And the king answered and said, Give to her the living child, and do not put it to death at all; she is its mother. ²⁸And all Israel heard of the judgment that the king had judged, and feared from the face of the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

¹And king Solomon was king over all Israel. ²And these were the rulers he had: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest. ³Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, were the scribes. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the recorder. ⁴And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army. And Zadok and Abiathar were priests. ⁵And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers. And Zabud the son of Nathan was the minister and friend of the king. ⁶And Ahishar was over the household. And Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

⁷And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel. And they sustained the king and his household. Each man had one month in the year to provide. ⁸And these are their names: Ben-Hur in the hills of Ephraim; ⁹the son of Dekar in Makaz and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan; ¹⁰the son of Hessed, in Aruboth—to him was Sochoh and all the land of Hepher; ¹¹the son of Abinadab in all the height of Dor, Taphath the daughter of Solomon was a wife to him; ¹²Baana the son of Ahilud to whom was Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, to the place that is beyond Jokneam; ¹³the son of Geber in Ramoth-gilead — to him were the towns of Jair, Manasseh's son, which are in Gilead; and to him was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars; ¹⁴Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim; ¹⁵Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon for a wife; ¹⁶Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth; ¹⁷Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah was in Issachar; ¹⁸Shimei the son of Elah was in Benjamin; ¹⁹Geber the son of Uri was in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer who was in the land; ²⁰Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude; eating and drinking and making merry.

²¹And Solomon reigned over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life.

²²And Solomon's food for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal, ²³ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl. ²⁴For he had the rule over all on this side of the River, from Tiphshah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side of the River. And he had peace on all sides from around him. ²⁵And Judah and Israel lived securely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; from Dan even to Beer-sheba all the days of Solomon.

²⁶And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. ²⁷And those officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, a man in his month. they did not lack anything. ²⁸They also brought barley and straw for the horses and mules, to the place where the officers were, each man according to his charge. ²⁹And God gave Solomon exceeding great wisdom and understanding, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the lip of the sea. ³⁰And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the sons of the east, and than all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹For he was wiser than all men—than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalco, and Darda, the sons of Mahol—and his name was in all nations round about. ³²And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five. ³³And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. He spoke also of beasts and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish. ³⁴And there came some from all the people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

¹And Hiram the king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he heard that they had anointed him king instead of his father. For Hiram was a lover of David all his days. ²And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³You knew my father David, that he was not able to build a house to the name of Jehovah his God because of the wars that were all around him, until Jehovah had put them under the soles of his feet. ⁴And now Jehovah my God has given me rest all around; there is no adversary nor evil happening. ⁵And, behold, I am commanding a house to be built to the name of Jehovah my God, as Jehovah spoke to my father David, saying, You son whom I will appoint in your place on your throne, he shall build the house for My name. ⁶And now, command and they shall cut down for me cedars out of Lebanon. And my servants shall be with your servants. And I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you say. For you know that there is not a man among us knowing to cut timber like the Sidonians.

⁷And it happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced exceedingly, and said, Blessed be Jehovah today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people. ⁸And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard that for which you have sent to me. I will do all your will as to cedar wood and juniper wood. ⁹My servants will bring it down from Lebanon to the sea. And I will make floats for them in the sea, to go to the place that you tell me. And I will spread them out there; and you shall take them up. And you shall what I desire, to give food for my house. ¹⁰And Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and juniper trees, all his desire. ¹¹And Solomon gave to Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat, food for his house; and twenty measures of beaten oil. This Solomon gave to Hiram year by year. ¹²And Jehovah gave wisdom to Solomon, as He had spoken to him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they cut a covenant, the two of them.

¹³And king Solomon caused a labor force to go out of all Israel; and the labor force was thirty thousand men. ¹⁴And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses. They were a month in Lebanon, two months in their own house. And Adoniram was over the labor force. ¹⁵And king Solomon had seventy thousand bearing burdens, and eighty thousand hewing in the mountain; ¹⁶besides the rulers of Solomon's officers, who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, those ruling over the people who were working in the work. ¹⁷And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, quarried stones, to lay the foundation of the house. ¹⁸And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders, and the Giblites, cut and prepared the wood and the stones to build the house.

¹And it happened in the four hundred and eightieth year from the exodus of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fourth year, in the month of Zif, it is the second month, in the reigning of Solomon over Israel, he built the house for Jehovah. ²As to the house that king Solomon built for Jehovah, its length was sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty, and its height thirty cubits. ³As to the porch on the front of the temple of the house, its length was twenty cubits according to the breadth of the house; its breadth on the front of the house was ten cubits. ⁴And he made windows of narrowing frames for the house.

⁵And he built a side-structure on the wall of the house all around, against the walls of the house all around; to the temple and to the sanctuary. And he made side sections all around. ⁶The lowest side-structure was five cubits wide; and the middle was six cubits wide; and the third story side-structure was seven cubits wide. For outside of the house he made narrowed ledges for the house all around, so as not to lay hold of the walls of the house. ⁷And the house, when it was being built, was built of finished stone made ready beforehand. And there was not heard in the house a hammer or an axe, or any iron tool, while it was being built.

¹¹And the word of Jehovah came to Solomon, saying, ¹²*As to* this house that you are building, if you shall walk in My statutes, and shall do My judgments; yea, shall do all My commandments, to walk in them, then I shall establish your word with you which I spoke to your father David. ¹³And I shall dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel, and shall not forsake My people Israel. ¹⁴And Solomon built the house, and finished it. ¹⁵And he built the walls of the house inside with beams of cedar, from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling. He overlaid the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with boards of juniper. ¹⁶And he built the twenty cubits on the back part of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor to the walls. And he built for it inside, for the sanctuary, for the Holy of Holies. ¹⁷And the house was forty cubits, that is, the temple before it. ¹⁸And the cedar for the house inside was with carvings of gourds and flowers spread out; the whole was cedar; not a stone was seen. ¹⁹And he prepared the holy of holies in the midst of the house, to place there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. ²⁰And the face of the holy of holies was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in height. And he overlaid it with refined gold, and overlaid the altar with cedar. ²¹And Solomon overlaid the house inside with refined gold, and caused it to pass over in chains of gold to the face of the holy of holies, and overlaid it with gold. ²²And he overlaid all of the house with gold, until all of the house was completed. And he overlaid with gold all of the altar that belonged to the holy of holies. ²³And inside the holy of holies he made two cherubs, of the olive tree; their height ten cubits. ²⁴And one wing of the cherub was five cubits; and the second wing of the cherub five cubits; ten cubits from the ends of its wings even to the ends of its wings. ²⁵And the second cherub was ten cubits; one measure and one form to the two cherubs. ²⁶The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the second cherub. ²⁷And he set the cherubs in the middle of the inner house. And they spread out the wings of the cherubs. And the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the second touched the second wall; and their wings were to the middle of the house, coming wing against wing. ²⁸And he overlaid the cherubs with gold. ²⁹And all the walls of the house round about he carved with figures of cherubs and palm trees, and spread out flowers, inside and out. ³⁰And he overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inside and out.

³¹As to the entrance of the holy of holies, he made doors of the olive tree; the lintel, the side posts, being a fifth part. ³²And the two doors were of the olive tree. And he carved on them carvings of cherubs, and palm trees, and spread out flowers; and he overlaid with gold. And he caused the gold to go down on the cherubs and on the palm trees. ³³So also he made side posts for the entrance of the temple from the olive tree, a fourth part. ³⁴And the two doors were of juniper wood; the two sides of the one door were folding; and the two leaves of the other door were folding. ³⁵And he carved cherubs, and palm trees, and spread out flowers, and overlaid with gold fitted on the carved work. ³⁶And he built the inner court, three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams. ³⁷The house of Jehovah was founded in the fourth year, in the month of Zif. ³⁸And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, the eighth month, the house was finished as to all the parts of it, and according to all the fashion of it. So he built it for seven years.

¹And Solomon built his own house for thirteen years. And he finished all his house. ²And he built the house of the forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars. ³And it was covered with cedar above, on the sides that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. ⁴And windows were in three rows, and light was against light in three rows. ⁵And all the doors and the side posts were square along with the windows; and the front of a window was against a window in three rows. ⁶And he made the porch of the pillars, its length fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. And the porch was before them; and the pillars and the roof were over them. ⁷And he made the porch of the throne where he judged, the porch of judgment. And it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. ⁸As to his house where he lived, the other court was within the porch, as this work was. Solomon also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken, like this porch.

¹³And king Solomon sent and brought Hiram out of Tyre. ¹⁴He was the son of a widow woman of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father a man of Tyre, an engraver in bronze. And he was filled with the wisdom and understanding and knowledge to do all work in bronze. And he came to king Solomon and did all his work. ¹⁵And he formed the two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits was the height of the one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits went around the second pillar. ¹⁶And he made two capitals to put on the tops of the pillars, cast in bronze; five cubits was the height of the one capital, and five cubits the height of the second capital. ¹⁷He made gratings, grating-work with twisted threads of chain-work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. ¹⁸And he made the pillars. And two rows were round about on the one grating, to cover the capitals that were on the top with the pomegranates. And so he did for the other capital. ¹⁹And the capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were lily-work, four cubits. ²⁰And the capitals were on the two pillars, also above, over against the belly which was by the grating; and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about on the other capital. ²¹And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple. And he set up the right pillar and called the name of it Jachin. And he set up the left pillar, and called the name of it Boaz. ²²And on the top of the pillars was lily-work. So the work of the pillars was finished.

²³And he made a casted sea of ten cubits from brim to brim; it was round all about. And its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits went around it all about. ²⁴And gourds were below its brim all around, going around it, ten by the cubit, circling the sea round about; the gourds were cast in two rows when it was cast. ²⁵It stood on twelve oxen: three facing the north, and three facing the west, and three facing the south, and three facing the east. And the sea was above on them; and all their hinder parts were inward. ²⁶And its thickness, one hand wide; and its brim was fashioned like the brim of a cup, with a bud of a lily. It contained two thousand baths.

²⁷And he made ten bases of bronze; four cubits the length of the one base, and four cubits the breadth, and three cubits the height. ²⁸And this was the work of the base: they had borders; and there were borders between the stays. ²⁹And on the borders that were between the stays were lions, oxen, and cherubs. And a pedestal was on the stays above. And below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging-work. ³⁰And the one base had four wheels of bronze, and axles of bronze. And its four feet were supports to them; under the basin were casted supports with wreaths at each side. ³¹And its mouth within and above the capital was a cubit; and its mouth was round like the work of a pedestal, a cubit and half of the cubit. And also on its mouth were carvings; and their borders were square, not round. ³²And the four wheels were under the borders. And the axletrees of the wheels were in the base; and the height of the one wheel was a cubit and a half. ³³And the work of the wheels was as the work of a chariot wheel, their axletrees, and their rims, and their spokes, and their hubs were all casted. ³⁴And there were four supports to the four corners of one base; the supports were of the base itself. ³⁵And in the top of the base was a round compass of half a cubit high. And on the top of the base its sides and its borders were from it. ³⁶And he engraved cherubs, lions, and palm trees on the plates of its sides, and on its borders, as the place of each, with wreaths round about. ³⁷So he made the ten bases, one casting, one measure, one form was to them all.

⁴⁰And Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the bowls. And Hiram finished all the work that he made for king Solomon for the house of Jehovah. ⁴¹two pillars, and two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two gratings to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; ⁴²and the four hundred pomegranates for the two gratings; two rows of pomegranates for each grating, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; ⁴³and ten bases, and ten basins on the bases; ⁴⁴and one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea; ⁴⁵and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And all these vessels which Hiram made for king Solomon for the house of Jehovah were of burnished bronze. ⁴⁶The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the thick soil of the ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

⁴⁷And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because they were very, very many; the weight of the bronze was not searched out. ⁴⁸And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Jehovah: the altar of gold; and the table of gold on which was the bread of the presence; ⁴⁹and the lampstands, five on the right and five on the left before the sanctuary, of refined gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs were of gold; ⁵⁰and the basins, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the firepans were of refined gold; and the hinges for the doors of the inner house, for the Holy of Holies, for the doors of the house of the temple were of gold.

⁵¹And it was complete, all the work that king Solomon had made for the house of Jehovah. And Solomon brought in the sanctified things of his father David: the silver, and the gold, and the vessels he had put into the treasures of the house of Jehovah.

holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those the priests and the Levites brought. ⁵And king Solomon and all the company of Israel who had assembled to him were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. ⁶And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, to the holy place of the house, into the Holy of Holies, to the place of the wings of the cherubs; ⁷for the cherubs were spreading forth their wings to the place of the ark, and the cherubs covered over the ark, and over its staves from above. ⁸And they lengthened the staves, and the heads of the staves were seen from the holy place on the front of the sanctuary, and were not seen outside; and they are there to this day. ⁹Nothing was in the ark, only the two tables of stone which Moses put there in Horeb, when Jehovah covenanted with the sons of Israel as they went out of the lands of Egypt. ¹⁰And it happened as the priests went out from the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of Jehovah, ¹¹and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah.

¹²And Solomon said, Jehovah has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. ¹³I have surely built a house of loftiness for You, a settled place for You to abide in forever. ¹⁴And the king turned around his face and blessed the whole assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel was standing. ¹⁵And he said, Blessed be Jehovah, God of Israel, who spoke by His mouth with my father David, and by his hand has fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶From the day that I brought out My people, even Israel, from Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name to be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel. ¹⁷And it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of Jehovah, God of Israel; ¹⁸and Jehovah said to my father David, Because it has been in your heart to build a house for My name, you have done well that it has been in your heart; ¹⁹only, you shall not build the house, but your son who shall come out from your loins, he shall build the house for My name. ²⁰And Jehovah has established His word that He spoke; for I have risen up instead of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah spoke, and have built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel; ²¹and set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah which He made with our fathers when He brought them out from the land of Egypt.

²²And Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah, across from the assembly of Israel, and spread his palms toward the heavens; ²³and said, Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens above or on the earth beneath; who keeps covenant and mercy with Your servants, that walk before You with all their heart; ²⁴who have kept for Your servant David, my father, that which You spoke to him; yea, You spoke with Your mouth, and with Your hand have fulfilled it as it is this day. ²⁵And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, keep for Your servant David, my father, that which You spoke to him, saying, There shall not be cut off from you a man from before Me, sitting on the throne of Israel; only, if your sons watch their way, to walk before Me as you have walked before Me. ²⁶And now, O God of Israel, let it be established, I beseech You, Your word which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David. ²⁷But will God in truth dwell on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built! ²⁸Yet You have turned toward the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today; ²⁹for Your eyes are open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, My name shall be there; to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place. ³⁰And You shall listen to the supplication of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place; yea, You shall listen in Your dwelling-place, in Heaven; and You shall hear and shall forgive.

³¹If any man sins against his neighbor, and an oath be exacted of him to cause him to swear, and the oath has come before Your altar in this house, ³²then You shall hear in Heaven, and shall act, and shall judge Your servants, to declare the wicked wicked, to put his way on his head, and to declare the righteous righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

³³When Your people Israel are stricken before the enemy, when they sin against You, if they turn again to You, and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this house; ³⁴then You shall hear in Heaven, and shall forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and shall bring them back to the land that You gave to their fathers.

³⁵When the heavens are restrained, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You, and they have prayed toward this place, and confess Your name, and have turned from their sin because You have afflicted them, ³⁶then You shall hear in Heaven, and shall forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, for You shall teach them the good way in which they shall go, and shall give rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

³⁷When there is famine in the land; when there is pestilence, blasting, mildew, locusts; when there is the stripping locust; when its enemy has distressed it in the land in its gates; any plague, any sickness, ³⁸any prayer, any supplication that shall come from any man of all of Your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and shall spread his palms toward this house, ³⁹then You shall hear in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and shall forgive, and shall act, and shall give to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know—for You have known, You alone, the heart of all the sons of Adam—⁴⁰so that they shall fear You all the days that they are living on the face of the land that You have given to our fathers. ⁴¹And also, to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, and has come from a land afar off for Your name's sake—⁴²for they shall hear of Your great name, and of Your strong hand, and of Your stretched-out arm—and he shall have come in and prayed toward this house, ⁴³You shall hear in Heaven, Your dwelling-place, and shall do according to all that the stranger calls to You for, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You like Your people Israel, and to know that Your name has been called on this house which I have built.

⁴⁴If Your people shall go out to battle against its enemy, in the way that You have sent them, and they have prayed to Jehovah the way of the city which You have chosen, and of the house which I have built for Your name, ⁴⁵then hear their prayer and their supplication in Heaven, and maintain their cause.

⁴⁶When they sin against You — for there is not a man who does not sin — and You have been angry with them, and have given them up before an enemy, and they have been led away into captivity to the land of the enemy, far off or near; ⁴⁷and they have turned their heart back in the land where they have been taken captive, and have repented, and made supplication to You in the land of their captors, saying, We have sinned and done perversely; we have done wickedly; ⁴⁸and, they have turned back to You with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and have prayed to You the way of their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name, ⁴⁹then You shall hear their prayer and their supplication in Heaven Your dwelling-place, and shall maintain their cause, ⁵⁰and shall forgive Your people who have sinned against You, even all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You, and shall give them mercy before their captors, and they shall have mercy on them. ⁵¹For they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the midst of the furnace of iron — ⁵²for Your eyes shall be open to the supplication of Your servant, and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them in all that they call to You for; ⁵³for You have separated them to Yourself for an inheritance out of all the peoples of the earth, as You spoke by the hand of Your servant Moses when You brought out our fathers from Egypt, O Lord Jehovah.

⁵⁴And it happened, as Solomon finished praying to Jehovah all this prayer and supplication, he arose from before the altar of Jehovah, from bending on his knees, and his palms spread out to Heaven; ⁵⁵and he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶Blessed be Jehovah who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He has spoken; not one word of all His good word has fallen, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Moses. ⁵⁷Jehovah our God is with us as He has been with our fathers; He shall not forsake us or leave us; ⁵⁸to incline our heart to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commands, and His statutes, and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers; ⁵⁹and these words of mine which I have prayed before Jehovah be near to Jehovah our God by day and by night, to maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel, the matter of each day in its day; ⁶⁰for all the peoples of the earth know that Jehovah, He is God; there is no other; ⁶¹let your heart therefore be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as at this day.

⁶²And the king and all Israel with him were offering a sacrifice before Jehovah; ⁶³and Solomon offered the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he had offered to Jehovah: twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep; and the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of Jehovah. ⁶⁴On that day the king sanctified the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah, for he had made the burnt offering there, and the food offering, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the bronze altar that was before Jehovah was too small to contain the burnt offering, and the food offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. ⁶⁵And at that time Solomon made a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days and seven days, fourteen days. ⁶⁶On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king, and went to their tents, rejoicing and glad of heart for all the good that Jehovah had done to His servant David, and to His people Israel.

¹And it happened, as Solomon finished building the house of Jehovah, and the house of the king, and all the desire of Solomon that he delighted to do, ²that Jehovah appeared to Solomon a second time, as He appeared to him in Gibeon. ³And Jehovah said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication with which you have made supplication before Me; I have hallowed this house that you have built to put My name there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there forever. ⁴And you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, in singleness of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you — you shall keep My statutes and My judgments — ⁵then I shall establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I spoke to your father David, saying, There shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel. ⁶If you at all turn back, you and your sons, from following me, and do not keep My commands, My statutes which I have set before you, and you shall go and serve other gods and bow yourselves to them, ⁷then I shall cut off Israel from the face of the land that I have given to them, and the house that I have hallowed for My name I shall send away from My face, and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. ⁸As to this house, which is high, everyone passing by it shall be astonished and shall hiss, and they shall say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land and to this house? ⁹And they shall say, Because they have forsaken Jehovah their God, who brought their fathers out from the land of Egypt, and they laid hold on other gods and bowed themselves to them and served them. On account of this Jehovah has brought in upon them all this evil.

¹⁰And it happened, at the end of twenty years Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the house of the king. ¹¹Hiram the king of Tyre had lifted Solomon with cedar trees and with fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire; then king Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹²And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given to him, and they were not right in his eyes. ¹³And he said, What are these cities that you have given to me, my brother? And one called them the land of Cabul to this day. ¹⁴And Hiram sent to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.

¹⁵And this is the reason of the labor force that king Solomon raised, to build the house of Jehovah, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer — ¹⁶Pharaoh the king of Egypt had gone up and had captured Gezer, and had burned it with fire, and he killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and gave it as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon — ¹⁷and Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the lower, ¹⁸and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land; ¹⁹and all the store-cities which Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and the desire of Solomon that he desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. ²⁰All the people that were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel, ²¹their sons who were left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not been able to exterminate, Solomon even caused to go on them a burden of forced labor to this day. ²²But Solomon did not choose a slave out of the sons of Israel, for they were the men of war, and his servants, and his rulers, and his commanders, and the commanders of his chariots, and his horsemen. ²³These were the commanders of the officers who were over the work of Solomon: five hundred and fifty, those ruling among the people who were laboring in the work.

²⁵And three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar that he built to Jehovah, and he burned incense on the altar that was before Jehovah, and finished the house.

²⁶And king Solomon built a navy in

Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the lip of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. ²⁷And Hiram sent his servants in the navy, shipmen who knew the sea, with the servants of Solomon; ²⁸and they came to Ophir and took gold from there, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it in to king Solomon.

¹And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon as to the name of Jehovah, and she came to test him with hard questions. ²And she came to Jerusalem with a very great company, camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. And she came to Solomon and spoke with him all that had been in her heart. ³And Solomon told her all her matters; there was not one thing hidden from the king that he did not declare to her. ⁴And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he built, ⁵and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the standing of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers, and his burnt offering that he offered in the house of Jehovah; and there was no more breath in her. ⁶And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my land was true as to your matters and your wisdom. ⁷And I did not believe the words until I had come, and my eyes had seen; and behold, the half was not told to me; you have wisdom and prosperity exceeding the fame which I heard. ⁸O the happiness of your men! O the happiness of your servants, these who stand before you continually, who hear your wisdom! ⁹Blessed be Jehovah your God who delighted in you, to put you on the throne of Israel, because Jehovah loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do judgment and righteousness. ¹⁰And she gave to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very many spices, and precious stones; no spice like that came any more for abundance, that the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. ¹¹And also, the navy of Hiram that bore gold from Ophir brought in from Ophir almug trees, a great many, and precious stones; ¹²and the king made the almug trees a support for the house of Jehovah, and for the king's house, and harps and lyres for singers; no such almug trees have come, nor have there been seen such to this day. ¹³And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire that she asked, apart from that which he gave to her as a memorial of king Solomon. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.

¹⁴And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, ¹⁵apart from the merchant men, and from the traffic of the spice merchants, and from all the dusky kings, and from the governors of the lands.

¹⁶And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred of gold went to one target; ¹⁷and three hundred shields of beaten gold: three minas of gold went to one shield; and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

²¹And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of refined gold; there was none of silver — it was not counted for anything in the days of Solomon; ²²for the king had a navy of Tarshish at sea with a navy of Hiram; once in three years the navy of Tarshish would come bearing gold, and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks. ²³And king Solomon was greater than any of the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom; ²⁴and all the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put into his heart; ²⁵and they were each one bringing his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

²⁶And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had a thousand, four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the cities of the chariots, and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁷And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as the sycamores that are in the low country, for abundance. ²⁸And the horses that king Solomon had were brought from Egypt, and from Kue; the king's merchants received them from Kue at a price; ²⁹and a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria they brought them out by their means.

¹And king Solomon loved many foreign women, even the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, Hittites; ²of the nations which Jehovah said to the sons of Israel, You shall not go in to them, and they shall not go in to you; surely they shall turn aside your heart after their gods; Solomon clung to these in love. ³And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. ⁴And it happened, at the time Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods, and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, like the heart of his father David. ⁵And Solomon went after Ashtoreth, goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites; ⁶and Solomon did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and did not go fully after Jehovah like his father David. ⁷Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the sons of Ammon; ⁸and so he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods.

⁹And Jehovah was angry with Solomon, for his heart had bent away from Jehovah, God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, ¹⁰and had given a charge to him concerning this thing, not to go after other gods; and he did not keep that which Jehovah commanded. ¹¹And Jehovah said to Solomon, Because this has been done by you, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes that I charged upon you, I shall surely tear the kingdom from you and shall give it to your servant. ¹²Only, I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I shall tear it out of the hand of your son. ¹³Only I will not tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem that I have chosen.

¹⁴And Jehovah raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the seed of the king in Edom. ¹⁵And it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom — ¹⁶Joab remained there six months, and all Israel, until every male in Edom was cut off — ¹⁷and Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of the servants of his father with him, to go into Egypt; and Hadad was a little child. ¹⁸And they rose up out of Midian and came to Paran, and took men with them out of Paran and came into Egypt, to Pharaoh the king of Egypt; and he gave him a house and commanded bread for him, and gave land to him. ¹⁹And Hadad found much favor in the eyes of Pharaoh, and he gave him a wife, the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. ²⁰And the sister of Tahpenes bore him his son Genubath, and Tahpenes weaned him in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's house, among Pharaoh's sons. ²¹And Hadad had heard in Egypt that David had slept with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead. And Hadad said to Pharaoh, Send me away and I will go to my land. ²²And Pharaoh said to him, But what are you lacking with me, that, lo, you are seeking to go to your land? And he said, Nothing. However, you shall certainly send me away.

²³And God raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who fled from his lord Hadadezer the king of Zobah. ²⁴And he gathered men to himself, and was head of a troop when David killed them. And they went to Damascus and lived in it, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon — besides the evil that Hadad did — and he despised Israel, and reigned over Syria.

²⁶And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, a servant of Solomon — and his mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman—he also lifted up a hand against the king. ²⁷And this was the thing for which he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, repairing the breaks of the city of his father David. ²⁸And the man Jeroboam was a mighty warrior. And Solomon saw the young man, that he was doing work. And he appointed him to all the burden of the house of Joseph. ²⁹And at that time it happened that Jeroboam had gone out from Jerusalem, and Ahijah the Shilonite, the prophet, found him in the way. And he covered himself with a new garment, and both of them were by themselves in a field. ³⁰And Ahijah laid hold on the new garment on him, and tore it into twelve pieces. ³¹And he said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces for yourself. For so says Jehovah, God of Israel, Behold, I am tearing the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and giving to you the ten tribes. ³²And he shall have the one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. ³³Because they have forsaken Me, and bow themselves to Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians; to Chemosh the god of Moab; to Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and have not walked in My ways, to do the right in My eyes, and My statutes and My judgments, as his father David did. ³⁴But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for My servant David's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My commands and My statutes. ³⁵But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes. ³⁶And I will give one tribe to his son, that there may be a lamp to My servant David before Me all the days in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen to Myself, to put My name there. ³⁷And I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. ³⁸And it shall be, if you shall hear all that I command you, and shall walk in My ways, and do that which is right in My eyes, to keep My statutes and My commands, as My servant David did, then I shall be with you and shall build a sure house for you, as I built for David, and shall give Israel to you. ³⁹And for this I will humble the seed of David; but not forever. ⁴⁰And Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death, and Jeroboam rose up and fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king of Egypt; and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

⁴¹And the rest of the matters of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon? ⁴²And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years; ⁴³and Solomon lay with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ²And it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard —and he was still in Egypt where he had fled from the face of Solomon the king, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt— ³that they sent and called for him; and they came, Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, "Your father made our yoke hard; and now you should lighten some of the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve you. ⁴And he said to them, Go; yet in three days come back to me. And the people went.

⁵And king Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had been standing before the face of his father Solomon while he was alive, saying, How do you advise in order to answer this people? ⁶And they spoke to him, saying, If you are servant to this people today, and will serve them, and answer them and speak to them good words, then they will be servants to you forever. ⁷But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they advised him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who were standing before him. ⁸And he said to them, What do you advise, and we shall answer the people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten some of the yoke that your father put upon us? ¹⁰And they spoke to him, the young men who had grown up with him, saying, So you shall say to this people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and you make it light on us; so you shall speak to them, My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father, ¹¹now my father laid a heavy yoke on you, and I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, and I will surely chastise you with scorpions. ¹²And they came, Jeroboam and all the people, to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had spoken, saying, Come back to me on the third day. ¹³And the king replied to the people harshly, and forsook the counsel of the elders which they advised him, ¹⁴and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I shall add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, and I will surely chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵And the king did not listen to the people, for the revolution was from Jehovah, in order to establish His word that Jehovah spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, and the people sent the king back word, saying, What portion do we have in David? Yea, there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse; to your tents, O Israel; now see to your house, O David! And Israel went to its tents. ¹⁷As to the sons of Israel, those living in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸And king Rehoboam sent Adoram who was over the tribute, and all Israel threw stones at him, and he died. And king Rehoboam made haste to go up into a chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day. ²⁰And it happened when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the company, and caused him to reign over all Israel; none followed after the house of David except the tribe of Judah only.

²¹And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and gathered all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen makers of war to fight with the house of Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, ²²then the word of God came to Shemaiah a man of God, saying, ²³Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah, and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying, ²⁴So says Jehovah, You shall not go up nor fight with your brothers the sons of Israel. Each turn back to his house, for this thing has been from Me. And they heard the word of Jehovah, and turned to go back, according to the word of Jehovah.

²⁵And Jeroboam built Shechem in the hills of Ephraim and lived in it, and went out from there and built Peniel. ²⁶And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom shall turn back to the house of David; ²⁷if this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people shall turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam the king of Judah, and they will kill me and go again to Rehoboam the king of Judah. ²⁸And the king took counsel and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt! ²⁹And he set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. ³⁰And this thing became a sin, for the people went before the one, to Dan. ³¹And he made a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of people, who were not of the sons of Levi. ³²And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month, in the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah; and he offered on the altar, so he did in Bethel, to sacrifice to the calves which he made; and he made stand in Bethel the priests of the high places that he made. ³³And he offered up on the altar that he made in Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month that he devised out of his own heart; and he made a feast for the sons of Israel, and offered on the altar, to burn incense.

¹And, behold, a man of God had come from Judah to Bethel, by the word of Jehovah, and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. ²And he cried against the altar, by the word of Jehovah, and said, Altar! Altar! So says Jehovah: Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, his name Josiah, and he shall sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who are burning incense on you, and they shall burn the bones of man on you. ³And on that day he gave a sign, saying, This is the sign that Jehovah has spoken, Behold, the altar is torn, and the ashes that are on it poured out. ⁴And it happened, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put out his hand from the altar, saying, Seize him. And his hand which he put out against him withered, and he was not able to bring it back to him. ⁵And the altar was torn, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of Jehovah. ⁶And the king answered and said to the man of God, Please entreat the face of Jehovah your God, and pray for me, and my hand shall come back to me. And the man of God entreated the face of Jehovah, and the hand of the king came back to him, and it was as at the beginning. ⁷And the king spoke to the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a gift. ⁸And the man of God said to the king, If you would give me the half of your house, I would not go in with you, nor will I eat bread, nor will I drink water in this place. ⁹For so He commanded me by the word of Jehovah, saying, You shall not eat bread nor drink water, nor turn back in the way that you have come. ¹⁰And he went on another way, and did not turn back in the way in which he came into Bethel.

¹¹And a certain aged prophet was living in Bethel, and his son came and told him all the deeds that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, the words that he had spoken to the king; yea, they told them to their father. ¹²And their father said to them, Where is this man, what way did he go? And his sons saw the way that the man of God from Judah had gone. ¹³And he said to his sons, Saddle the ass for me. And they saddled the ass for him, and he rode on it, ¹⁴and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak tree. And he said to him, Are you the man of God who has come from Judah? And he said, I am. ¹⁵Then he said to him, Come home with me and eat bread. ¹⁶And he said, I am not able to go back with you, and to go in with you, nor may I eat bread or drink water with you in this place; ¹⁷for a word came to me by the word of Jehovah, You shall not eat bread nor drink water there; you shall not turn back to go in the way in which you came. ¹⁸And he said to him, I also am a prophet like yourself, and an angel spoke to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, and he shall eat bread and water—he lied to him. ¹⁹And he turned back with him and ate bread in his house and drank water.

²⁰And it happened as they were sitting at the table, and a word of Jehovah came to the prophet who brought him back; ²¹and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, So says Jehovah, Because you have resisted the mouth of Jehovah, and have not kept the command that Jehovah your God charged you, ²²and turned back and ate bread and drank water in the place of which He said to you, You shall not eat bread nor drink water; your carcase shall not come to the burying-place of your fathers.

²³And after he ate bread and after he drank, it happened that he saddled the ass for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴And he left, and a lion found him in the way and killed him; and his carcase was thrown down in the way, and the ass was standing near it, and the lion was standing near the carcase. ²⁵And behold; men were passing by and saw the carcase thrown in the way, and the lion standing near the carcase; and they came and reported it in the city in which the old prophet lived. ²⁶And the prophet who brought him back out of the way heard and said, It is the man of God who provoked the mouth of Jehovah, and Jehovah gave him to the lion, and it tore him apart and killed him, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke to him. ²⁷And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the ass for me. And they saddled. ²⁸And he went and found the carcase thrown down in the way, and the ass and the lion were standing near the carcase; the lion had not eaten

the carcase nor had he torn apart the ass. ²⁹And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God and placed it on the ass, and brought it back; and the old prophet came into the city to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰And he placed his carcase in his own grave, and they mourned for him, O, my brother! ³¹And it happened, after he buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, At my death, you shall bury me in the burying-place in which the man of God is buried; place my bones beside his bones; ³²for the word that he cried by the word of Jehovah concerning the altar which is in Bethel, and concerning all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely occur.

³³After this thing Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but turned again and made from the lowest of the people priests of high places; he who desired, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. ³⁴And in this thing is the sin of the house of Jeroboam, even to blot it from off the face of the earth.

¹At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam was sick. ²And Jeroboam said to his wife, Please rise up and disguise yourself, that you may not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam. And you shall go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there. He spoke to me of being king over this people. ³And you shall take ten loaves in your hand, and biscuits, and a flask of honey, and shall go in to him. He will tell you what shall become of the boy. ⁴And Jeroboam's wife did so, and rose up and went to Shiloh and entered the house of Ahijah. And Ahijah was not able to see, for his eyes were set because of his age.

⁵And Jehovah said to Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to ask a thing of you for her son. For he is sick. You shall say this and this to her, and it shall be, when she comes in, she will act as a foreigner. ⁶And it happened, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the door, he said, Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why are you acting as a foreigner? And I am sent to you with a hard thing. ⁷Go, say to Jeroboam, So says Jehovah, God of Israel, Because I have exalted you from among the people, and have appointed you leader over My people Israel; ⁸and have torn the kingdom from the house of David, and have given it to you — and you have not been as My servant David who kept My commandments, and who walked after Me with all his heart, to do only that which is right in My eyes; ⁹and you did evil above all who have been before you, and went and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger; and you have cast Me behind your back—¹⁰therefore, behold, I am bringing evil to the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him who urinates against the wall, bound and free in Israel; and will sweep away the rest of the house of Jeroboam as a man sweeps away the dung, until it is all gone. ¹¹The dogs shall eat those of Jeroboam who die in the city. And the birds of the heavens shall eat those who die in a field; for Jehovah has spoken. ¹²And you, rise up, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the boy shall die. ¹³And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him, for only this one of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because there has been found in him a good thing toward Jehovah, God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴And Jehovah shall raise up a king over Israel for Himself, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam this day. And what? Even now! ¹⁵And Jehovah shall strike Israel as the reed waves in the water, and shall pluck up Israel from off this good land that He gave to their fathers. And He shall scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking Jehovah to anger. ¹⁶And He shall give up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin.

¹⁷And Jeroboam's wife rose up and left, and came to Tirzah. She came in to the threshold of the house, and the boy died. ¹⁸And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet. ¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel. ²⁰And the days that Jeroboam reigned were twenty-two years. And he lay with his fathers, and his son Nadab reigned in his place.

²¹And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign. And he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Jehovah chose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ²²And Judah did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they provoked Him to jealousy above all their fathers did by their sins that they had sinned. ²³And they built, they also, high places for themselves, and standing pillars, and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree. ²⁴And also the sodomite was in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations that Jehovah expelled before the sons of Israel.

²⁵And it happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem. ²⁶And he took the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; yea, he took all. And he took all the golden shields that Solomon had made. ²⁷And king Rehoboam made in their place bronze shields. And he gave them into the hand of the commander of the runners, who kept the door of the king's house. ²⁸And it happened, when the king went to the house of Jehovah, the runners bore them, and brought them back to the room of the runners. ²⁹And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ³⁰And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. ³¹And Rehoboam lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And his son Abijam reigned in his place.

¹And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam reigned over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom. ³And he walked in all the sins of his father, those that he did before him, and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as was the heart of his father David. ⁴But for David's sake Jehovah his God gave to him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem. ⁵*For* David did that which is right in the eyes of Jehovah, and did not turn aside from all that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. ⁶And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. ⁷And the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. ⁸And Abijam lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Asa reigned in his place.

⁹And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa reigned over Judah. ¹⁰And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, like his father David. ¹²And he removed the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers made. ¹³And he also removed his mother Maachah from being queen, in that she made a horrid thing for Asherah. And Asa cut down her horrid thing and burned it by the brook Kidron. ¹⁴But they did not remove the high places. Only the heart of Asa was perfect with Jehovah all the days. ¹⁵And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated and his holy things, into the house of Jehovah, silver and gold and vessels. ¹⁶And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ¹⁷And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to keep anyone from going out and coming in to Asa the king of Judah. ¹⁸And Asa took all the silver and gold that remained in the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into his servants' hand; and king Asa sent them to Benhadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, the king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹A treaty between you and me, between my father and your father! Behold, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha the king of Israel, that he go up from me. ²⁰And Ben-hadad listened to king Asa, and sent his army commanders against the cities of Israel. And he struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. ²¹And it happened, when Baasha heard, he ceased building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. ²²And king Asa proclaimed to all Judah—none was exempt — and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber with which Baasha had built. And king Asa built with it Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. ²³And the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities he built, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? Only, at the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. ²⁴And Asa lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. And his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place.

²⁵And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa the king of Judah. And he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. ²⁷And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which was the Philistines'. For Nadab and all Israel had laid siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸And in the third year of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. ²⁹And it happened when he reigned, he struck all the house of Jeroboam; he did not leave Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of Jehovah which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the man of Shiloh; ³⁰because of the sins of Jeroboam which he had sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin by his provocation with which he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger. ³¹And the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ³²And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days. ³³In the third year of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah reigned over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty-four years. ³⁴And he did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin.

¹And the word of Jehovah came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, ²Since I have raised you up out of the dust, and made you ruler over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and caused My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins; ³behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴Him who dies of Baasha in the city, the dogs shall eat; and him who dies of his in the field, the birds of the heavens shall eat. ⁵And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and that which he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ⁶And Baasha lay with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah. And his son Elah reigned in his place.

⁷And also by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet, the word of Jehovah came against Baasha, and against his house, and against all the evil that he did in the eyes of Jehovah to provoke Him to anger with the work of his hands, to be like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed him.

⁸In the twenty-sixth year of Asa the king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. ⁹And his servant Zimri, the captain of half of the chariots, conspired against him. And he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the house of Tirzah. ¹⁰And Zimri came in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

struck all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him a one who urinated against the wall, nor of his kinsmen, nor of his friends. ¹²And Zimri destroyed the whole house of Baasha, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke as to Baasha, by the hand of Jehu the prophet; ¹³concerning all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah, that they sinned, and that they caused Israel to sin, to provoke to anger Jehovah the God of Israel with their vanities. ¹⁴And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel?

¹⁵In the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. And the people were camped against Gibbethon, which was the Philistines'. ¹⁶And the people who were encamped heard, saying, Zimri has conspired and has struck the king. And all Israel made Omri the commander of the army to rule over Israel on that day in the camp. ¹⁷And Omri went up, and all Israel with him, from Gibbethon, and they laid siege to Tirzah. ¹⁸And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city would be captured, that he came into a high place of the king and burned the house of the king with fire over him, and died, ¹⁹for his sins that he sinned, to do that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to walk in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he did, to cause Israel to sin. ²⁰And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel?

²¹Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to cause him to reign, and the other half after Omri. ²²And the people that followed Omri were stronger than the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath; and Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

²³In the thirty-first year of Asa the king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah; ²⁴then he bought the hill Samaria from Shemer, with two talents of silver, and built the hill, and called the name of the city that he built by the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill—Samaria.

²⁵And Omri did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and did evil above all who were before him, ²⁶and walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin, to provoke to anger Jehovah the God of Israel with their vanities. ²⁷And the rest of the acts of Omri that he did, and his might that he attained, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ²⁸And Omri laid down with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria. And his son Ahab reigned in his place.

²⁹And in the thirty-eighth year of Asa the king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years; ³⁰and Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the eyes of Jehovah above all who were before him. ³¹And it happened, as if it were a light thing that he walked in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took a wife, Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, the king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and bowed himself to it. ³²And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. ³³And Ahab made a shrine, and Ahab did still more to provoke to anger Jehovah the God of Israel than all the kings of Israel that were before him. ³⁴In his days Hiel the man of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation in his firstborn Abiram, and he set up its doors in Segub his youngest, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of Joshua the son of Nun.

¹And Elijah the Tishbite, of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Jehovah the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be no dew nor rain these years, except according to my word. ²And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, ³*Go away from here; and you shall turn eastward and shall hide by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.* ⁴*And it shall be, you shall drink of the brook; and I shall command the ravens to feed you there.* ⁵And he went and did according to the word of Jehovah; for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. ⁶And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. ⁷And it happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

⁸And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, ⁹Rise up, go to Zarephath that belongs to Sidon; and you shall live there. Behold, I have commanded a widow-woman there to sustain you. ¹⁰And he rose up and went to Zarephath, and came in to the entrance of the city; and, behold, a widow-woman was gathering sticks. And he called to her, and said, Please bring to me a little water in a vessel, and I shall drink. ¹¹And she went to bring it. And he called to her and said, Please bring me a bit of bread in your hand. ¹²And she said, As Jehovah your God lives, I do not have a cake, only a handful of meal in a pitcher, and a little oil in a jar; and behold, I am gathering two sticks and will go in and prepare for myself and for my son; and we shall eat it, and die. ¹³And Elijah said to her, Do not fear, go, do according to your word, only first make me a little cake of it, and bring to me; and afterward prepare for you and for your son. ¹⁴For so says Jehovah the God of Israel, The pitcher of meal shall not be consumed, and the jar of oil shall not fail, until the day that Jehovah sends rain on the land. ¹⁵And she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she ate, she and he and her household, many days; ¹⁶the pitcher of meal was not consumed, and the jar of oil did not fail, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of Elijah.

¹⁷And it happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his illness was very severe until he had no breath left to him. ¹⁸And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to cause my iniquity to be remembered, and to put my son to death? ¹⁹And he said to her, Give me your son; and he took him out of her bosom, and caused him to go up into the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰And he cried to Jehovah and said, Jehovah my God, have You also brought evil on the widow with whom I am staying, by slaying her son? ²¹And he stretched himself on the child three times, and called to Jehovah and said, O Jehovah my God, I beg You, let the soul of this boy return to him. ²²And Jehovah listened to the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the boy returned to him, and he lived. ²³And Elijah took the boy and brought him down from the upper room of the house, and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, See your son lives! ²⁴And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know this, that you are a man of God, and the word of Jehovah in your mouth is truth.

¹And it happened after many days the word of Jehovah came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will give rain on the face of the earth. ²And Elijah went to be seen by Ahab. And the famine in Samaria was severe. ³And Ahab called to Obadiah, who was over the house — and Obadiah greatly feared Jehovah — ⁴and it happened, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Jehovah, that Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and had hidden them, fifty men in a cave, and had fed them with bread and water — and Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land to all the fountains of water, and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass and keep alive horse and mule, and will not cut off any of the livestock. ⁶And they divided the land to themselves, to pass over into it; Ahab went in one way by himself, and Obadiah went in another way by himself.

⁷And Obadiah was in the highway; and behold, Elijah came to meet him. And he recognized him, and he fell on his face, and said, Are you this one, my lord Elijah? ⁸And he said to him, I am; Go, say to your lord, Behold, Elijah. ⁹And he said, What have I sinned, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? ¹⁰*As* Jehovah your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you; and when they said, He is not here, then he caused the kingdom and the nation to swear that it did not find you. ¹¹And now, you are saying, Go, say to your lord, Behold, Elijah. ¹²And it shall be, I will go away from you, and the Spirit of Jehovah will lift you up, where I do not know, and I will come to tell Ahab, and he will not find you, and he will kill me. And your servant has feared Jehovah from my youth. ¹³Was it not told to my lord that which I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of Jehovah, but I hid a hundred men of the prophets, fifty by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴And now you are saying, Go, say to your lord, Behold, Elijah —and he will kill me! ¹⁵And Elijah said, As Jehovah of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely today I will be seen by him.

¹⁷And it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Are you he, the disturber of Israel? ¹⁸And he answered, I have not disturbed Israel, but you and the house of your father, in that you have forsaken the commands of Jehovah, and you have gone after the Baals. ¹⁹And now send, gather all Israel to me, to Mount Carmel, and four hundred and fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of Asherah, who eat at the table of Jezebel. ²⁰And Ahab sent among all the sons of Israel and gathered the prophets of Mount Carmel.

²¹And Elijah came near all the people and said, Until when are you limping over two opinions? If Jehovah is God, follow Him; and if Baal, follow him. But the people did not answer him a word. ²²Then Elijah said to the people, I, I alone, remain a prophet of Jehovah; but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men. ²³Then let them give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and place it on the wood, and place no fire. And I, I will prepare the other bullock and will put it on the wood, and I will not place fire. ²⁴And you shall call on the name of your god; and I, I will call on the name of Jehovah; and it shall be, the god who answers by fire, he is the God. And all the people answered and said, The word is good.

²⁵And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose the one bullock for yourself, and prepare first, for you are many; and you call on the name of your god, but place no fire. ²⁶And they took the bullock that was given to them, and prepared, and called on the name of Baal from the morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, answer us! And there was no sound, and there was no one answering; and they leaped about the altar that one had made. ²⁷And it happened, at noon, that Elijah taunted them and said, Call with a loud voice, for he is a god; for he is meditating, or pursuing, or on a journey; it may be he is asleep and must be awakened. ²⁸And they called with a loud voice, and cut themselves, according to their way, with swords and with spears, until blood gushed out on them. ²⁹And it happened, as noon passed by, that they prophesied madly until the offering up of the offering; and there was no sound, and there was no one answering, and there was no one paying attention.

³⁰And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near to him; and he healed the altar of Jehovah that had been broken down.

³¹And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Jehovah came, saying, Israel shall be your name. ³²And he built an altar with the stones, in the name of Jehovah, and made a trench around the altar large as two seahs of seed in space. ³³And he arranged the wood, and cut the bullock in pieces, and placed it on the wood, and said, Fill four water-jars of water and pour on the burnt offering and on the wood. ³⁴And he said, Do it a second time; and they did it a second time; and he said, Do it a third time; and they did it a third time. ³⁵And the water went around the altar, and also he filled the trench with water.

³⁶And it happened, at the offering of the sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, O Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel, and I Your servant, that by Your word I have done all things. ³⁷Answer me, O Jehovah, answer me; and this people shall know that You are Jehovah God; and You shall turn their hearts back again. ³⁸And fire fell from Jehovah and burned up the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and the water that was in the trench was licked up by it. ³⁹And all the people saw, and fell on their faces and said, Jehovah, He is the God; Jehovah, He is the God! ⁴⁰And Elijah said to them, Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let a man of them escape. And they caught them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon and killed them there.

⁴¹And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink, because of the sound of abundance of rain. ⁴²And Ahab went up to eat, and to drink; and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he stretched himself out on the earth, and he placed his face between his knees; ⁴³and said to his young man, Now go up, look closely to the way of the sea. And he went up and looked closely, and said, There is nothing; and he said, Go back seven times. ⁴⁴And it happened, at the seventh, that he said, Behold, a little cloud like the palm of a man is coming up out of the sea. And he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Bind up and go down, that the rain may not stop you. ⁴⁵And until this and this, it happened that the heavens became black with thick clouds and wind, and the rain was heavy; and Ahab rode and went to Jezreel; ⁴⁶and the hand of Jehovah was on Elijah, and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab until you enter Jezreel.

¹And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah did, and all how he killed all the prophets by the sword. ²And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do, and more so; if not at this time tomorrow I will cause your life to be as the life of one of them. ³And he was afraid, and rose up and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba of Judah, and left his young man there; ⁴and he himself went into the wilderness a day's journey, and came and sat under a certain broom tree. And he begged for his life, that he might die, and said, Enough, now, O Jehovah; take my life, for I am no better than my fathers. ⁵And he lay down and slept under a certain broom tree; and behold, an angel touched him and said to him, Get up, eat! ⁶And he looked, and behold, at his head was a cake on burning stones, and a jar of water; and he ate and drank, and turned and lay down. ⁷And the angel of Jehovah returned a second time, and touched him, and said, Get up, eat, for the way is too great for you. ⁸And he rose up and ate and drank, and went in the power of that food forty days and forty nights, to the mount of God, Horeb.

⁹And he came there to the cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of Jehovah came to him, and said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁰And he said, I have been very zealous for Jehovah the God of Hosts, for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant; they have thrown down Your altars, and they have killed Your prophets with the sword, and I am left, I alone, and they seek to take my life. ¹¹And he said, Go out and stand on the mountain before Jehovah. And, behold, Jehovah passed by, and a great and strong wind tearing the mountains and breaking the rocks in bits before Jehovah! Jehovah was not in the wind. And after the wind was an earthquake, but Jehovah was not in the earthquake. ¹²And after the earthquake was a fire, but Jehovah was not in the fire; and after the fire came a still, small voice. ¹³And it happened, when Elijah heard, that he wrapped his face in his robe and went out and stood at the cave opening; and, behold, a voice came to him, and it said, What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁴And he said, I have been very zealous for Jehovah, God of Hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant; they have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your prophets by the sword; and I, I alone, am left; and they seek to take my life. ¹⁵And Jehovah said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and you shall go in and anoint Hazael as king over Syria; ¹⁶and you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat, of Abelmeholah, as prophet in your place. ¹⁷And it shall be, he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. ¹⁸And I have left in Israel seven thousand, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.

son of Shaphat; and he was plowing; twelve pairs were before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him, and threw his mantle upon him. ²⁰And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back; for what have I done to you? ²¹And he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen, and sacrificed them, and boiled their flesh with the yoke of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah and ministered to him.

¹And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. ²And he sent messengers to Ahab the king of Israel, to the city, and said to him, So says Ben-hadad, ³Your silver and your gold are mine, and your wives and your sons, the best, are mine. ⁴And the king of Israel answered and said, According to your word, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have. ⁵And the messengers came again and said, So says Ben-hadad, saying, Surely I sent to you, saying, Your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you shall give to me; ⁶yet I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and your servants' houses; and it shall be that whatever is pleasing in your eyes, they will put it in their hand and take it away. ⁷And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Please note, and see the evil this one is seeking, for he sent to me for my wives, and for my sons, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I did not withhold from him. ⁸And all the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen nor consent. ⁹And he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Say to my lord the king, All that you sent for to your servant at the first, I will do; but this thing I am not able to do; and the messengers went and took word back to him. ¹⁰And Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, So shall the gods do to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall be enough for handfuls for all the people that follow me. ¹¹And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Do not let him that girds on boast himself like one who loosens his armor. ¹²And it happened when this word was heard, and he was drinking, he and the kings, in the booths, that he said to his servants, Set in order; and they set in order against the city.

¹³And behold, a certain prophet came near to Ahab the king of Israel, and said, So says Jehovah, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I am going to give it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am Jehovah. ¹⁴And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, So says Jehovah, by the young men of the rulers of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? And he answered, You. ¹⁵Then he numbered the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he numbered all the people, even all the sons of Israel, being seven thousand. ¹⁶And they went out at noon, and Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings helping him. ¹⁷And the young men of the rulers of the provinces went out at first; and Ben-hadad sent, and they told him, saying, Men have come out of Samaria. ¹⁸And he said, If they have come out for peace, seize them alive; and if they have come to battle, seize them alive. ¹⁹And these went out of the city, the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and the army which followed them. ²⁰And each struck his man, and Syria fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse, and the horsemen. ²¹And the king of Israel went out and struck the horses, and the chariots, and struck the Syrians with a great blow.

²²And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, Go, make yourself strong, and look and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.

²³And the king of Syria's servants said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; on account of this they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely, we shall be stronger than they. ²⁴And do this thing: take away the kings, each out of his place, and set commanders in their place. ²⁵And number to yourself an army like the army that was lost from you, even horse for horse and chariot for chariot; and we shall fight with them in the plain. Are we not stronger than they? And he listened to their voice and did so. ²⁶And it happened, at the turn of the year, that Ben-hadad called up the Syrians, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

²⁷And the sons of Israel were called up, and were fed. And they went to meet them. And the sons of Israel camped before them, like two flocks of goats. And the Syrians filled the land. ²⁸And a man of God came near to the king of Israel and said, So says Jehovah, Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is God of the hills, and not God of the valleys, therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Jehovah. ²⁹And they pitched, these against those, seven days. And it happened in the seventh day, the battle came up. And the sons of Israel struck Syria, a hundred thousand footmen in one day. ³⁰And those remaining fled to Aphek, to the city. And the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of those left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room. ³¹And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and we shall go to the king of Israel. It may be he will keep alive your life. ³²And they girded sackcloth on their loins, and ropes on their heads. And they came in to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-hadad has said, Please let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? He is my brother. ³³And the men keenly observed, and quickly caught it from him, and said, Your brother Ben-hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. And Ben-hadad came out to him. And he took him up on the chariot. ³⁴And he said to him, The cities that my father took from your father, I give back. And you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then I will let you go with a covenant. And he cut a covenant with him and sent him away.

³⁵And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor, By the word of Jehovah, please strike me. And the man refused to strike him. ³⁶And he said to him, Because you have not listened to the voice of Jehovah, behold, you shall go from me, and a lion shall kill you. And he left him, and a lion found him and killed him. ³⁷And he found another man and said, Please strike me. And the man struck him, striking and wounding. ³⁸And the prophet went and stood for the king on the highway, and disguised himself with ashes on his eyes. ³⁹And as the king passed by, it happened that he cried to the king, and said, Your servant went out into the middle of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man. If he is at all missing, then your life shall be for his life; or you shall weigh out a talent of silver. ⁴⁰And it happened, your servant was working here and there, and he was not there. And the king of Israel said to him, Your judgment is right. You have decided it. ⁴¹And he hurried and took the ashes from his eyes. And the king of Israel saw him, that he was of the prophets. ⁴²And he said to him, So says Jehovah, Because you have sent away the man I had devoted from your hand, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people. ⁴³And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

¹And it happened after these things, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab the king of Samaria. ²And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, and it shall be a garden of green herbs for me; for it is near my house. And I will give to you in its place a better vineyard than it. If it is good in your eyes, I will give silver to you, the price of this one. ³And Naboth said to Ahab, Far be it from me, by Jehovah, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you. ⁴And Ahab came into his house sullen and angry over the word which Naboth the Jezreelite spoke to him. For he had said, I will not give the inheritance of my fathers to you. And he lay on his bed and turned away his face, and would not eat food. ⁵And his wife Jezebel came in to him, and said to him, Why is your spirit sullen, that you are not eating food? ⁶And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, Give me your vineyard for silver, or if you desire, I will give you a vineyard in its place. And he said, I will not give you my vineyard. ⁷And his wife Jezebel said to him, Do you now rule over Israel? Rise up, eat food and let your heart be good. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. ⁸And she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, and sealed with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles in his city, dwelling with Naboth. ⁹And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth at the head of the people. ¹⁰And set two men, sons of worthlessness, across from him; and they shall testify of him, saying, You have cursed God and the king. And they shall bring him out and stone him; and he shall die. ¹¹And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as was written in the letters that she sent to them. ¹²They proclaimed a fast, and made Naboth to sit at the head of the people. ¹³And two men, sons of worthlessness, came in and sat across from him. And the men of worthlessness testified of him before the people, even Naboth, saying, Naboth has cursed God and the king. And they took him out to the outside of the city, and stoned him with stones. And he died. ¹⁴And they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth has been stoned, and is dead.

¹⁵And it happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned, and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Rise up, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, that he refused to give to you for silver. For Naboth is not alive, but dead.

¹⁶And it happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. ¹⁷And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸Rise up, Go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to possess it. ¹⁹And you shall speak to him, saying, So says Jehovah, Have you murdered, and also taken possession? And you shall speak to him, saying, So says Jehovah, In the place where the dogs lick the blood of Naboth, so the dogs shall lick your blood, even yours. ²⁰And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he said, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the eyes of Jehovah. ²¹Behold, I shall bring evil on you, and shall take away your posterity, and cut off to Ahab him who urinates against a wall, both bond and free in Israel. ²²And I shall give up your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked to anger, and have caused Israel to sin. ²³And also Jehovah has spoken of Jezebel, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. ²⁴He who dies of Ahab in the city, the dogs shall eat. And the birds of the heaven shall eat him who dies in a field. ²⁵Surely, none has been like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, whom his wife Jezebel incited. ²⁶And he did abominably, to go after idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Jehovah expelled from before the sons of Israel. ²⁷And it happened, when Ahab heard these words, he tore his garments, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. ²⁸And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹Have you seen that Ahab has been humbled before Me? Because he was humbled before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days. I will bring the evil on his house in the days of his son.

¹And they continued three years; there was no war between Syria and Israel.

²And it happened in the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. ³And the king of Israel said to his servants, Have you known that Ramoth-gilead is ours? And we remain still from taking it from the king of Syria's hand. ⁴And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go to battle with me, to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you, my people as your people; my horses as your horses. ⁵And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire at the word of Jehovah today. ⁶And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up, that the Lord may give it into the hand of the king. ⁷And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that we might inquire of him? ⁸And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Yet one man, to seek Jehovah by him. But I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil — Micaiah the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. ⁹And the king of Israel called to a certain eunuch and said, Cause Micaiah the son of Imlah to hurry.

¹⁵And he came in to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to battle to Ramoth-gilead, or shall we forbear? And he said to him, Go up, and prosper, and Jehovah shall give it into the king's hand. ¹⁶And the king said to him,

How many times have I adjured you that you shall speak nothing to me but truth in the name of Jehovah? ¹⁷And he said, I have seen all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no ruler; they shall each return to his house in peace. ¹⁸And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say to you, He will not prophesy good of me, but evil? ¹⁹And he said, Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting on His throne, and all the host of Heaven were standing by Him, on His right and on His left. ²⁰And Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab, and he shall go up and fall in Ramoth-gilead? And this one said this, and this one said that. ²¹And a spirit came forth and stood before Jehovah, and said, I surely will entice him. ²²And Jehovah said to him, By what means? And he said, I will go out and shall be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall entice him, and also you are able. Go out and do so. ²³And now, behold, Jehovah has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these prophets of yours; and Jehovah has spoken evil as to you! ²⁴And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Where did the Spirit of Jehovah pass over from me to speak with you? ²⁵And Micaiah said, Behold, You shall see on that day when you go into the innermost room to be hidden. ²⁶And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the ruler of the city, and to Joash the king's son. ²⁷And you shall say, So says the king, Put this one in the house of restraint, and cause him to eat the bread of oppression, and the water of oppression, until I come in peace. ²⁸And Micaiah said, If you at all return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, O people, all of them.

²⁹And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. ³⁰And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle. But you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. ³¹And the king of Syria commanded the thirty-two commanders of the chariots, saying,

You shall not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel. ³²And it happened, when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely he is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight with him. And Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³And it happened, when the commanders of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from following him. ³⁴And a man drew a bow in his simplicity, and he struck the king of Israel between the joints and the breast-plate. And he said to his charioteer, Turn your hand and take me out from the battle, for I have been wounded. ³⁵And on that day the battle went on, and the king was caused to stand up in the chariot against Syria. And he died in the evening, and the blood of the wound poured out into the middle of the chariot. ³⁶And the cry passed through the camp when the sun went down, saying, Each to his city, and each to his land.

³⁷And the king died, and came to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria. ³⁸And they rinsed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood when they had washed the armor, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke.

⁴¹And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab the king of Israel. ⁴²Jehoshaphat was a son of thirty-five years when he began to reign. And he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from it, doing right in the eyes of Jehovah. But the high places were not taken away; the people offered and burned incense yet in the high places. ⁴⁴And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. ⁴⁵And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ⁴⁶And he took out of the land the rest of the sodomites which remained in the days of his father Asa. ⁴⁷No king was in Edom; a deputy was king. ⁴⁸Jehoshaphat had ten ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold. But they did not go, for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber. ⁴⁹Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat was not willing. ⁵⁰And Jehoshaphat lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. And his son Jehoram reigned in his place.

⁵¹Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel. ⁵²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ⁵³For he served Baal, and bowed to it, and provoked to anger Jehovah the God of Israel, according to all his father had done.

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

¹And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ²And Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper room in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers and said to them, Go, ask of Baalzebub the god of Ekron if I will recover from this sickness. ³And an angel of Jehovah spoke to Elijah the Tishbite, Rise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is not a God in Israel that you are going to ask of Baalzebub the god of Ekron? ⁴And so Jehovah says this: You shall not come down from that bed on which you have gone up, but you shall surely die. And Elijah departed.

⁵And the messengers returned to him. And he said to them, What is this, that you have turned back? ⁶And they said to him, A man came up to meet us, and said to us, Go, return to the king who sent you. And you shall say to him, So says Jehovah, Is it because there is not a God in Israel that you are sending to ask of Baalzebub the god of Ekron? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, for you shall certainly die. ⁷And he said to them, What was the fashion of the man who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you? ⁸And they said to him, A hairy man, and a girdle of leather was girded about his loins. And he said, He is Elijah the Tishbite. ⁹And the king sent to him the commander of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him. And behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he spoke to him, O man of God, the king has said, Come down. ¹⁰And Elijah answered and said to the commander of fifty, And if I am a man of God, fire will come down from the heavens and consume you and your fifty. And fire came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty. ¹¹And he turned and sent another commander of fifty and his fifty to him. And he answered and said to him, O man of God, so says the king, Hurry, come down. ¹²And Elijah answered and said to them, If I am a man of God, fire will come down from the heavens and will consume you and your fifty. And fire from God came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty.

¹³And he turned and sent a third commander of fifty and his fifty. And the third commander of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, O man of God, please let my life and the life of your servants, these fifty, be precious in your eyes. ¹⁴Behold, fire has come down from the heavens and has consumed the two commanders of the former fifties, and their fifties. And now let my life be precious in your eyes. ¹⁵And the Angel of Jehovah spoke to Elijah, Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him. And he rose up and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶And he said to him, So says Jehovah, Because you have sent messengers to ask of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is not a God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, for you shall certainly die.

¹⁷And he died, according to the word of Jehovah that Elijah spoke. And Jehoram reigned in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, for he had no sons. ¹⁸And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel?

¹And it happened, when Jehovah was to take up Elijah to Heaven in a tempest, Elijah and Elisha went from Gilgal. ²And Elijah said to Elisha, Please stay here, for Jehovah has sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As Jehovah lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they went down to Bethel. ³And the sons of the prophets in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that today Jehovah will take your lord from your head? And he said, Yes, I know. Keep silent. ⁴And Elijah said to him, Elisha, please stay here, for Jehovah has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As Jehovah lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they came into Jericho. ⁵And the sons of the prophets in Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that today Jehovah will take away your lord from your head? And he said, Yes, I know. Keep silent. ⁶And Elijah said to him, Please stay here, for Jehovah has sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As Jehovah lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they went on, both of them. ⁷And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went on and stood afar off, across from them. And they both stood by the Jordan. ⁸And Elijah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the waters. And they were divided here and there, so that they both went over on dry ground.

⁹And it happened, when they were crossing, Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, Then let there now be a double mouth of your spirit on me. ¹⁰And he said, You have asked a hard thing. If you shall see me taken from you, it shall be so to you. And if not, it shall not be. ¹¹And it happened, as they were going on and speaking, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire came. And they separated between them both, and Elijah went up in a tempest to Heaven. ¹²And Elisha was watching, and he was crying, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen! And he did not see him again. And he took hold on his garments and tore them into two pieces.

¹³And he lifted up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and turned back and stood on the lip of the Jordan. ¹⁴And he took Elijah's mantle that had fallen from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Jehovah, the God of Elijah, even He? And he struck the waters; and they were split in two here and there, and Elisha crossed over. ¹⁵And when they saw him, the sons of the prophets across in Jericho, then they said, The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed to the earth to him. ¹⁶And they said to him, Behold, now, there are with your servants fifty men, mighty sons. Please let them go, and they shall seek your lord, lest the Spirit of Jehovah has taken him up and has cast him on one of the mountains, or into one of the valleys. And he said, You shall not send. ¹⁷And they pressed on him until he was ashamed. And he said, Send. And they sent fifty men, and they sought three days and did not find him. ¹⁸And they returned to him, and he was staying in Jericho. And he said to them, did I not say to you, Do not go?

¹⁹And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, now, the site of the city is good, as my lord sees, but the waters are bad; and the ground causes barrenness. ²⁰And he said, Bring a new dish to me, and put salt there. And they took it to him. ²¹And he went out to the source of the waters and threw salt there, and said, So says Jehovah, I have given healing to these waters; there shall not be death and sterility there any more. ²²And the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha that he spoke.

²³And he went up from there to Bethel. And he was going up in the highway. And little boys came out from the city and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, bald head! Go up, bald head! ²⁴And he turned behind him and saw them, and declared them vile in the name of Jehovah. And two bears came out of the forest and tore forty-two boys of them. ²⁵And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

¹And Jehoram the son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah; and he reigned twelve years. ²And he did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; only not like his father and his mother. For he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. ³But he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. He did not turn aside from it.

⁴And Mesha the king of Moab was a sheepmaster. And he paid a hundred thousand lambs to the king of Israel, and a hundred thousand rams with wool. ⁵And it happened, when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶And king Jehoram went out in that day from Samaria, and called up all Israel.

7And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up. I am as you; my people as your people; my horses as your horses. 8And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. 9And the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom. And they made a circuit of seven days' journey. And there was no water for the army, and for the livestock that were at their feet. 10And the king of Israel said, Alas, that Jehovah has called these three kings to deliver them into the hand of Moab! 11And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah, that we may inquire of Jehovah by him? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. 12And Jehoshaphat said, The word of Jehovah is with him. And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him. 13And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No, for Jehovah has called these three kings in order to give them into the hand of Moab. 14And Elisha said, As Jehovah of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, if I did not regard the face of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah I would not look toward you, nor see you. 15And now, bring a minstrel to me. And it happened, when the minstrel played, the hand of Jehovah was on him. 16And he said, So says Jehovah, Make this valley full of ditches. 17For so says Jehovah, You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain. Yet that stream-bed shall be filled with water, so that you may drink, both you and your livestock, and your animals. 18But this is a light thing in the eyes of Jehovah; He also has given Moab into your hand. 19And you shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city. And you shall fell every good tree, and you shall stop all the fountains of water. And you shall mar every good lot with stones. 20And it happened in the morning, when the food offering was caused to go up, behold, water came by the way of Edom; and the country was filled with water.

21And all Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And they were called together, every one able to gird on a girdle, and upward. And they stood by the border. 22And they rose up early in the morning. And the sun was shining on the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the opposite side as red as blood. 23And they said, This is blood. The kings surely have fought one another, and they each man struck his neighbor. And now to the plunder, Moab! 24And they came to the camp of Israel. And the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites. And they fled from before them. And striking they struck Moab. 25And they broke down the cities; and they each man cast his stone on every good piece of land, and filled it. And they stopped every fountain of water. And they felled every good tree, until there was left only Kirharaseth with its stones. But the slingers surrounded it and struck it.

26And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him, then he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords to break through to the king of Edom. And they were not able. 27And he took his son, the firstborn who would reign in his place, and caused him to go up for a burnt offering on the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel. And they left him and returned to the land.

1And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets had cried to Elisha, saying, My husband, your servant, is dead. And you know that your servant has seen Jehovah. And the lender has come to take my two children to himself for slaves. 2And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me. What do you have in the house? And she said, Your handmaid has nothing in the house except a pot of oil. 3And he said, Go, beg vessels for yourself from outside, from your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not let them be few. ⁴And you shall go in and shut the door on you, and on your sons, and shall pour out into all these vessels. And you shall set aside the full ones. ⁵And she left him, and shut the door on her and on her sons. They carried to her, and she poured out. ⁶And it happened, when the vessels were full, she said to her son, Bring another vessel to me. And he said to her, There is no other vessel; and the oil stopped. ⁷And she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and repay your loan. And you and your sons shall live from the rest.

⁸And the day came that Elisha crossed over to Shunem. And a great woman was there. And she lay hold on him to eat bread. And it happened, as often as he passed by, he turned aside there to eat bread. ⁹And she said to her husband, Behold now, I know that he is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. ¹⁰Now let us make a little walled roof room, and let us set a bed for him there, and a table, and a chair, and a lampstand. And it shall be, when he comes to us, he shall turn in there. ¹¹And the day came when he came in there, and turned into the roof room, and lay there. ¹²And he said to his young man Gehazi, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she stood before him. ¹³And he said to him, Now say to her, Behold, you have trembled with all this care for us. What shall I do for you? Shall I speak to the king for you, or to the army commander? And she said, I live among my people. ¹⁴And he said, What then shall I do for her? And Gehazi said, Truly there is no son to her. And her husband is old. ¹⁵And he said, Call for her. And he called for her. And she stood at the door. ¹⁶And he said, At this season, according to the time of life, you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your handmaid. ¹⁷And the woman conceived and bore a son, at this season, according to the time of life that Elisha spoke of to her.

¹⁸And the boy grew, and the day came that he went out to his father, to the reapers. ¹⁹And he said to his father, My head! My head! And he said to the young man, Carry him to his mother. ²⁰And he carried him, and brought him to his mother. And he sat on her knees until noon, and died. ²¹And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door on him, and went out. ²²And she called to her husband, and said, Please send to me one of the young men, and one of the asses, and I shall run to the man of God, and return. ²³And he said, Why are you going to him today; it is neither new moon nor sabbath? And she said, Peace. ²⁴And she saddled the ass and said to her young man, Lead on, and go. Do not hold back riding for me, except I speak to you. ²⁵And she went, and came to the man of God, to Mount Carmel. ²⁶And it happened, when the man of God saw her from afar, he said to his young man Gehazi, Behold, The Shunammite! ²⁷Now, please run to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the boy? And she said, Well. ²⁸And she came to the mountain to the man of God, and lay hold on his feet. And Gehazi came near to thrust her away. But the man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is bitter in her, and Jehovah has hidden it from me, and has not told me. ²⁹And she said, Did I ask a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?

³⁰And he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go. When you meet a man, you shall not greet him. And when a man shall greet you, you shall not answer him. And you shall lay my staff on the face of the boy. ³¹And the mother of the boy said, As Jehovah lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he rose up and went after her. ³²And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the boy. But there was no voice, and there was no hearing. And he turned back to meet him, and told him, saying, The boy has not awakened. ³³And Elisha came into the house. And, behold, the boy was dead, laid out on his bed. ³⁴And he went in and shut the door on both of them, and prayed to Jehovah. ³⁵And he went up and lay down on the boy, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and stretched himself on him. And the flesh of the boy became warm.³⁵ And he returned, and walked in the house, once here and once there. And he went up and stretched himself on him. And the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes.³⁶ And he called Gehazi and said, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she came in to him. And he said, Take up your son.³⁷ And she went in and fell at his feet, and bowed to the earth, and took up her son, and went out.

³⁸And Elisha returned to Gilgal. And the famine was in the land. And the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his young man, Set on the big pot and boil soup for the sons of the prophets.³⁹ And one went out to the field to gather herbs, and found a vine of the field, and gathered gourds from it in the field. And with the lap of his garment full, he came in and shredded them into the pot of soup; for they did not know.⁴⁰ And they poured out for the men to eat. And it happened, when they were eating the soup, they cried out and said, Death is in the pot, O man of God! And they were not able to eat.⁴¹ And he said, Then bring meal. And he threw into the pot, and said, Pour out for the people, and they shall eat. And there was no evil thing in the pot.

⁴²And a man came from Baal-shalisha and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and ripe ears of grain in its husk. And he said, Give to the people, and they ate.⁴³ And his servant said, What? Should I set this before a hundred men? And he said, Give to the people, and they shall eat. For so says Jehovah, Eat and have some left.⁴⁴ And he set before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the word of Jehovah.

wife.³ And she said to her mistress, O that my lord were before the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would recover him from his leprosy.⁴ And one went in and told his lord, saying, This and this she said, the girl who is from the land of Israel.⁵ And the king of Syria said, Go, go in, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went and took in his hand ten talents of silver, and six thousand of gold, and ten changes of garments.⁶ And he came to the king of Israel with the letter, saying, And now when this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent to you my servant Naaman. And you shall recover him from his leprosy.⁷ And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his garments and said, Am I God, to kill and to keep alive, that this one is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy? For consider now, and see, for he is coiling himself toward me.

⁸And it happened, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his garments, he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your garments? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.⁹ And Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.¹⁰ And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go, and you shall wash seven times in the Jordan. And your flesh shall return to you, and you shall be clean.¹¹ And Naaman was angry, and went on, and said, Behold, I said, He will certainly come out to me and will stand and call on the name of Jehovah his God, and will wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper.¹² Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Shall I not wash in them and be clean? And he turned and went on in fury.¹³ And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had spoken a great thing to you, would you not do it? How much rather then when he says to you, Wash, and be clean? ¹⁴And he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God. And his flesh returned like the flesh of a little boy, and he was clean.

¹⁵And he went back to the man of God, he and all his company, and came in and stood before him, and said, Behold, now I know that there is not a God in all the earth except in Israel. And now, please take a blessing from your servant. ¹⁶And he said, As Jehovah lives, before whom I stand, I shall not take. And he pressed on him to take, but he refused. ¹⁷And Naaman said, If not, please let a couple of mules' burden of earth be given to your servant. For your servant shall not make any more burnt offering and sacrifice to other gods, only to Jehovah. ¹⁸May Jehovah pardon your servant for this thing, when my lord goes to the house of Rimmon to bow there, and he is supported by my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon; when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may Jehovah pardon your servant in this thing. ¹⁹And he said to him, Go in peace. And he went away a little way from him.

²⁰And Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my lord has spared this Syrian, Naaman, not to receive from his hand that which he has brought. As Jehovah lives, surely I will run after him, then I shall take something from him. ²¹And Gehazi ran after Naaman. And Naaman saw one running after him, and got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Peace? ²²And he said, Peace. My lord has sent me, saying, Behold this now, two young men from the hills of Ephraim have come to me, of the sons of the prophets. Please give to them a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. ²³And Naaman said, Be pleased, take two talents. And he urged on him, and bound two talents of silver and two purses, and two changes of garments, and gave to two of his young men, and they carried before him. ²⁴And he came into the hill, and took out of their hand, and put away in the house, and sent away the men. And they went. ²⁵And he went in and stood by his lord. And Elisha said to him, Where from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant did not go here or there. ²⁶And he said to him, Did not my heart go out when the man turned from his chariot to meet you. Is it a time to take silver, and to take garments, and olives, and vineyards, and flock, and herd, and male slaves, and slavegirls?

²⁷Yea, the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you, and to your seed forever. And he went out from him as leprosy as snow.

¹And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, See, now, the place where we are living with you is too narrow for us. ²Please let us go to the Jordan, and we shall take each one a beam from there. And we shall make for ourselves a place there, to live there. And he said, Go. ³And the one said, Please be willing, and go with your servants. And he said, I will surely go. ⁴And he went with them. And they came to the Jordan, and cut down trees. ⁵And it happened that one was felling the log, and the iron fell into the water. And he cried out and said, Alas, my lord! For it was asked. ⁶And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut a stick and threw it in there, and caused the iron to float. ⁷And he said, Take it up to you. And he put out his hand and took it.

⁸And the king of Syria was fighting against Israel, and rose up with his servants, saying, At such and such a place shall be my camp. ⁹And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Be on guard in passing by this place, for the Syrians are coming down there. ¹⁰And the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of God spoke to him and warned him. And he protected himself there not once nor twice. ¹¹And the heart of the king of Syria was enraged over this thing. And he called his servants and said to them, Will you not tell me who of us is for the king of Israel? ¹²And one of his servants said, No, my lord O king, For Elisha the prophet who is in Israel tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your sleeping room. ¹³And he said, Go and see where he is, and I will send and seize him. And it was told him, Behold, he is in Dothan. ¹⁴And he sent horses and chariots there, and a heavy army. And they came in by night and surrounded the city. ¹⁵And the servant of the man of God rose up early and went out. And, behold, an army was surrounding the city, and horses and chariots. And his young man said to him, Alas, my lord! What shall we do? ¹⁶And he said, Do not fear, for those with us are more than those with them. ¹⁷And Elisha prayed and said, I beg You, O Jehovah, open his eyes so that he may see. And Jehovah opened the eyes of the young man. And he looked, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. ¹⁸And they came down to it, and Elisha prayed to Jehovah and said, I beg You, strike this nation with blindness. And he struck them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

¹⁹And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you seek. And he led them to Samaria. ²⁰And it happened, when they came to Samaria, Elisha said, Open the eyes of these, O Jehovah, and they will see. And Jehovah opened their eyes, and they looked; and, behold, they were in the middle of Samaria! ²¹And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, Shall I strike? Shall I strike, my father? ²²And he said, You shall not strike. Would you strike those whom you have captured with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them that they may eat and drink and go to their master. ²³And he prepared a great banquet for them, and they ate and drank. And he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the companies of Syria did not come into the land of Israel any more.

will eat him. But she hid her son. ³⁰And it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his garments. And he was passing by on the wall, and the people looked. And, behold, the sackcloth was inside on his flesh. ³¹And he said, So may God do to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall remain on him today.

³²And Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man from before him. Before the messenger came to him, even he himself said to the elders, Do you see that this son of the murderer has sent to take away my head? Behold, when the messenger comes in, shut the door, and you shall hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of the feet of his lord behind him? ³³While he was speaking with them, then, behold, the messenger came down to him. And he said, Behold, this is the evil from Jehovah. Why should I wait for Jehovah any more?

¹And Elisha said, Hear the word of Jehovah: So says Jehovah, About this time tomorrow a measure of fine flour will be at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. ²And the third officer on whose hand the king leaned replied to the man of God, and said, Behold, if Jehovah would make windows in the heavens, this thing might be. And he said, Behold, you shall see with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.

³And four men, lepers, were at the gate entrance. And they said to one another, Why should we sit here until we die? ⁴If we say, We shall go into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit here, then we shall die. Therefore now, come and we will fall into the camp of Syria. If they keep us alive, we shall live. And if they kill us, then we die. ⁵And they rose up in the twilight to go to the Syrian camp. And they came to the edge of the Syrian camp. And, behold, there was not a man there! ⁶For the Lord had caused the Syrian army to hear a sound of chariots, and a sound of horses, and a sound of a great army. And they said to one another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites against us, and the kings of Egypt, to come against us. ⁷And they rose up and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, the camp as it was. And they fled for their life.

⁸And these lepers came to the edge of the camp, and came into one tent, and ate and drank, and took up from there silver and gold and garments, and went and hid them. And they returned and went into another tent, and took from there, and went and hid them. ⁹And they said to one another, We are not doing right this day. It is a day of good news, and we are keeping silent. And if we wait until the morning light, then punishment will find us. And now come and we will go and tell the house of the king. ¹⁰And they came in and called to the gatekeeper of the city, and spoke for themselves, saying, We have come to the camp of Syria. And, behold, there is not a man there, nor voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were. ¹¹And he called the gatekeepers, and they told the house of the king inside.

¹²And the king rose up by night, and said to his servants, Let me show you now that which the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are famished, and they have gone out from the camp to hide in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, then we will catch them alive, and we shall come into the city. ¹³And one of his servants answered and said, Let them take now five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who have been left in it. Behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who have perished. And we will send and see. ¹⁴And they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the Syrian army, saying, Go and see. ¹⁵And they went after them to the Jordan. And, behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels that the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king. ¹⁶And the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp. And it happened, a measure of fine flour sold at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, according to the word of Jehovah.

¹⁷And the king appointed the third officer over the gate, he on whose hand he leaned. And the people trod him down in the gate, and he died, as the man of God spoke, which he spoke when the king came down to him. ¹⁸And it happened according to the saying of the man of God to the king, saying, Two measures of barley at a shekel, and a measure of fine flour at a shekel; this shall be at this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria. ¹⁹And the third officer had answered the man of God, and said, And behold, if Jehovah should make windows in the heavens, it shall be according to this word. And he said, Behold, you shall see with your eyes, but you shall not eat from there. ²⁰And it happened to him in this way; yea, the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

¹And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had revived, saying, Rise up and go, you and your household. And stay where you can stay, for Jehovah has called for a famine. And also, it shall come on the land seven years. ²And the woman rose up and did according to the word of the man of God. And she and her household went and stayed in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³And it happened at the end of seven years that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and went to cry to the king for her house, and for her field. ⁴And the king was speaking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Please tell me all of the great things that Elisha has done. ⁵And it happened as he was telling the king how he had revived the dead, then, behold, the woman whose son he had revived was crying to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha revived. ⁶And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king appointed to her a certain eunuch, saying, Give back all that she has, and all the increase of the field from the day she left the land even until now.

⁷And Elisha came to Damascus. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick. And he was told, saying, The man of God has come here. ⁸And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand and go to meet the man of God. And you shall seek Jehovah by him, saying, Shall I revive from this sickness? ⁹And Hazael went to meet him, and took a present in his hand, even of every good thing from Damascus, a burden of forty camels. And he came in and stood before him, and said, Your son Ben-hadad, the king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I revive from this sickness? ¹⁰And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, You shall surely revive. But Jehovah has shown me that he will surely die. ¹¹And he fixed his face; yea, he settled it until he was ashamed. And the man of God wept. ¹²And Hazael said, Why is my lord weeping? And he said, Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel. You will send their fortified places into fire, and you will slay their young men with the sword. And you will dash their sucklings to pieces; and you will rip up their pregnant women. ¹³And Hazael said, But what! Is your servant a dog that he should do this great thing? And Elisha said, Jehovah has shown me that you will be king over Syria. ¹⁴And he left Elisha and came to his lord, and he said to him, What did Elisha say to you. And he said, He said to me, You shall surely recover. ¹⁵And it happened on the next day, he took a plaited cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died. And Hazael reigned in his place.

¹⁶And in the fifth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, reigned. ¹⁷And he was a son of thirty-two years when he began his reign. And he reigned eight years in Jerusalem ¹⁸And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for a daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. ¹⁹And Jehovah was not willing to destroy Judah, for His servant David's sake, as He had said to give him a lamp to his sons forever.

²⁰In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they caused a king to reign over them. ²¹And Jehoram passed over to Zair, and all the chariots with him. And it happened, he rose up by night and struck Edom, who had encircled him and the commanders of the chariots. And the people fled to their tents. ²²Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. ²³And the rest of the acts of Jehoram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ²⁴And Jehoram lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Ahaziah began to reign in his place.

²⁵In the twelfth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, began to reign. ²⁶Ahaziah was a son of twenty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri, the king of Israel. ²⁷And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸And he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab to battle with Hazael the king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead. And the Syrians struck Jehoram. ²⁹And Jehoram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds with which the Syrians had struck him in Ramah, as he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah had gone down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was sick.

¹And Elisha the prophet called to one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, Gird up your loins and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. ²And you shall go there, and you shall see there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. And you shall go in and cause him to rise up out from among his brothers. And you shall bring him to an inner room. ³And take the vial of oil and pour on his head, and say, So says Jehovah, I have anointed you as king to Israel. And you shall open the door and flee, and shall not wait.

⁴And the young man went, the servant of the prophet, to Ramoth-gilead. ⁵And he came in; and, behold, the army commanders were sitting. And he said, I have a word to you, O commander. And Jehu said, To which of all of us? And he said, To you, O commander. ⁶And he rose up and came into the house, and poured the oil on his head, and said to him, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, I have anointed you as king to the people of Jehovah, to Israel. ⁷And you shall strike the house of your lord Ahab, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah from the hand of Jezebel. ⁸And all the house of Ahab shall perish. Yea, I have cut off to Ahab those who urinate against the wall, both bound and free in Israel. ⁹And I have given up the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. ¹⁰And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel. And there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

¹¹And Jehu went out to the servants of his lord. And one said to him, Is there peace? Why did this madman come to you? And he said to them, You know the man, and his message. ¹²And they said, A lie! Tell us now. And he said, This and this he said to me, saying, So says Jehovah, I have anointed you king over Israel. ¹³And they hurried, and each man took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps, and blew with the ram's horn, and said, Jehu reigns! ¹⁴And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Jehoram — and Jehoram was keeping watch at Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel before Hazael the king of Syria; ¹⁵and king Jehoram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds with which the Syrians had smitten him as he fought with Hazael the king of Syria — and Jehu said, If it is in your mind, do not let one leave the city to go to tell it in Jezreel. ¹⁶And Jehu rode and went to Jezreel, for Jehoram lay there. And Ahaziah the king of Judah had gone down to see Jehoram.

¹⁷And the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel. And he saw the troop of Jehu as he came. And he said, I see a troop. And Jehoram said, Take a rider, and send to meet them, and let him say, Peace? ¹⁸And the rider on the horse went to meet him, and said, So says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. And the watchman spoke, saying, The messenger came to them, and he has not returned. ¹⁹And he sent a second rider on a horse. And he came to them, and said, So says the king, Peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. ²⁰And the watchman spoke, saying, He came to them, and he has not returned. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives madly. ²¹And Jehoram said, Harness up! And his chariot was harnessed. And Jehoram the king of Israel went out, and Ahaziah the king of Judah, each in his chariot. And they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²²And it happened, when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Peace, Jehu? And he said, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many? ²³And Jehoram turned his hands and fled, and said to Ahaziah, Treachery, O Ahaziah! ²⁴And Jehu filled his hand with a bow and struck Jehoram between his arms. And the arrow went out from his heart. And he sank down in his chariot. ²⁵And Jehu said to his third officer Bidkar, Take up, throw him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. For, remember, you and I were riding together after his father Ahab, and Jehovah laid this burden on him: ²⁶Surely yesterday I have seen the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says Jehovah. And I will repay you in this portion, says Jehovah. Now, then, take him up, throw him into the portion, according to the word of Jehovah. ²⁷And Ahaziah the king of Judah saw, and fled the way of the garden-house. And Jehu pursued him, and said, Strike him, him also, in the chariot, in the ascent to Gur, that is, Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his burying-place, with his fathers in the city of David. ²⁹And in the eleventh year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah reigned over Judah.

³⁰And Jehu came to Jezreel. And Jezebel had heard, and had painted her eyes and adorned her head, and looked down through the window. ³¹And Jehu came to the gate. And she said, Was it peace to Zimri the slayer of his lord? ³²And he lifted his face to the window, and said, Who is with me? Who? And two or three eunuchs looked down to him. ³³And he said, Throw her down! And they threw her down. And some of her blood was splashed on the wall, and on the horses. And he trampled her. ³⁴And he came in and ate and drank, and said, Now look after this cursed woman, and bury her, for she is a king's daughter. ³⁵And they went to bury her, but did not find any of her except the skull, and the feet, and the palms of the hands. ³⁶And they came back and told him. And he said, It is the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel, the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel. ³⁷And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

¹And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the supporters of Ahab, saying, ²And now when this letter comes to you, and you have with you the sons of your lord, and chariots and horses are with you, and a fortified city, and armor; ³and you shall look out the best and the most upright of the sons of your lord, and you shall set him on the throne of his father. And you shall fight for the house of your lord. ⁴And they were greatly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings have not stood before him, and how shall we stand? ⁵And he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, and the elders, and the supporters, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and all that you say to us we will do. We will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your eyes. ⁶And he wrote a letter to them a second time, saying, If you are for me, and are listening to my voice, take the heads of the men, the sons of your lord, and come to me about this time tomorrow, to Jezreel. And the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who reared them. ⁷And it happened, when the letter came to them, they took the sons of the king and killed them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent to him in Jezreel.

⁸And the messenger came and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Make them two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning. ⁹And it happened in the morning, he went out and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I have conspired against my lord, and have killed him. But who struck all these?

¹⁰Then know that nothing of the word of Jehovah shall fall to the earth, that which Jehovah spoke against the house of Ahab. For Jehovah has done that which He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah. ¹¹And Jehu killed all those left to the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and his great men, and his friends, and his priests, until he did not leave a survivor to him.

¹²And he rose up and came in, and went to Samaria, He was at the shepherds' shearing-house in the way. ¹³And Jehu met the brothers of Ahaziah the king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they said, We are brothers of Ahaziah, and we are going down to ask the welfare of the sons of the king, and the sons of the queen. ¹⁴And he said, Capture them alive! And they captured them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing-house, forty-two men. And he did not leave a man of them.

¹⁵And he left there and found Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him, and blessed him. And he said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab said, It is. If it is, give your hand. And he gave his hand, and he made him come up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶And he said, come with me and see my zeal for Jehovah. And they made him ride in his chariot. ¹⁷And he came to Samaria, and killed all those left of Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke to Elijah.

¹⁸And Jehu gathered all the people, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu shall serve him much. ¹⁹And now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Do not let a man be lacking, for I shall have a great sacrifice to Baal. Anyone who is lacking, he shall not live. And Jehu was acting with cunning, in order to destroy the servants of Baal. ²⁰And Jehu said, Consecrate an assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. ²¹And Jehu sent to all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came in. And there was not a man left who did not come in. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from mouth to mouth. ²²And he said to him who was over the wardrobe, Bring out garments to all the servants of Baal. And he brought out the garments to them.

²³And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went in to the house of Baal, and said to the servants of Baal, Search and see that there are none of the servants of Jehovah here with you; but only the servants of Baal. ²⁴And they came in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. And Jehu had set for himself eighty men on the outside. And he said, The man who lets any of the men escape whom I am bringing into your hands, his life for the life of him. ²⁵And it happened, when he finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the runners and the third officers, Go in, strike them. Do not let any man come out. And they struck them by the edge of the sword. And the runners and the third officers threw them out. And they went into the city to the house of Baal, ²⁶and brought out the pillars of the house of Baal, and burned them. ²⁷And they broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it an outhouse to this day. ²⁸And Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

²⁹Only, from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, Jehu did not turn from following them, the calves of gold that were at Bethel, and in Dan. ³⁰And Jehovah said to Jehu, because you have done well, to do that which is right in my eyes, and you have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, the sons of the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel. ³¹And Jehu did not take heed to walk in the law of Jehovah, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin.

³²In those days Jehovah began to cut off in Israel, and Hazael struck them in all the border of Israel, ³³from the Jordan eastward, the whole land of Gilead, of the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer by the Arnon river, even Gilead and Bashan. ³⁴And the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ³⁵And Jehu lay with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Jehoahaz reigned in his place. ³⁶And the days that Jehu reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years, in Samaria.

¹And Athaliah was the mother of Ahaziah. And when she saw that her son was dead, then she rose up and destroyed all the seed of the kingdom. ²But Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were put to death, him and his nurse, in the room of sleeping. And they hid him from the face of Athaliah, and he was not killed. ³And he was with her in the house of Jehovah, hiding himself six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

⁴And in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent and called the rulers of the hundreds, with the Carites and the runners. And he brought them to him into the house of Jehovah, and cut a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Jehovah. And he revealed the king's son to them. ⁵And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do. A third of you shall go in on the sabbath for keepers of the watch of the king's house.

⁶And a third shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third at the gate behind the runners. And you shall keep the watch of the house, alternately. ⁷And two parts of you, all who go out on the sabbath, they shall keep the watch of the house of Jehovah about the king. ⁸And you shall fully surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand. And he that comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And they shall be with the king as he goes in and comes out. ⁹And the rulers of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men, going in on the sabbath, with those going out on the sabbath, and came in to Jehoiada the priest. ¹⁰And the priest gave to the rulers of the hundreds the spears and the shield that were to king David, that were in the house of Jehovah. ¹¹And the runners stood, each with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, beside the altar and beside the house, by the king all around. ¹²And he brought out the son of the king, and put the crown on him, and the testimony. And they made him king, and anointed him, and clapped their hands, and said, Let the king live!

¹³And Athaliah heard the sound of the runners of the people. And she came to the people, to the house of Jehovah. ¹⁴And she looked, and, behold, the king was standing by the pillar, according to the custom. And the rulers and the trumpeters were beside the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing, and blowing with trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! Treason! ¹⁵And Jehoiada the priest commanded the commanders of the hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Bring her out to the outside of the ranks; and he who comes after her put to death by the sword. For the priest had said, Do not let her be killed in the house of Jehovah. ¹⁶And they laid hands on her, and she entered the way of the horse-gate to the house of the king, and was executed there.

¹⁷And Jehoiada cut a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people, to be for a people to Jehovah, and between the king and the people. ¹⁸And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal and broke it down. They completely smashed its altars and its images. And they killed Matran the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest set guards over the house of Jehovah. ¹⁹And he took the commanders over the hundreds, and the Carites, and the runners, and all the people of the land. And they brought the king down from the house of Jehovah, and came by the way of the Runners' Gate to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. ²⁰And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they had slain Athaliah by the sword in the king's house. ²¹Joash was a son of seven years when he began to reign.

¹Joash reigned in the seventh year of Jehu, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ²And Joash did that which was good in the eyes of Jehovah all his days in which Jehoiada the priest guided him; ³only, the high places were not destroyed; the people still sacrificed and offered incense in high places.

⁴And Joash said to the priests, All the silver of the sanctified things that is brought into the house of Jehovah, the silver coming over, each man the silver of his valuation, all the silver that comes upon any man's heart to bring into the house of Jehovah, ⁵and the priests shall take to themselves, each from his friend; and they shall repair the breach of the house, in all places where a breach may be found. ⁶And it happened, in the twenty-third year of King Joash, that the priests had not repaired the breach of the house. ⁷And king Joash called to Jehoiada the priest, and the priests, and said to them, Why have you not repaired the breach of the house? And now, do not receive any silver from your friends, but give it for the breach of the house. ⁸And the priests consented not to receive silver from the people, nor to strengthen the breach of the house. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest took a chest and cut a hole in its lid, and put it near the altar, on the right side, as one comes into the house of Jehovah; and the priests who kept the door put in it all the silver that was brought into the house of Jehovah. ¹⁰And it happened, when they saw that the silver in the chest was plentiful, that a scribe of the king, and the high priest went up, and they bound it up, and counted the silver that was found in the house of Jehovah. ¹¹And they weighed silver into the hands of those doing the work, those overseeing the house of Jehovah; and they brought it out to the craftsmen in wood, and to the builders who were working on the house of Jehovah, ¹²and to the masons, and the stone cutters, and to buy wood and cut stone to strengthen the breach of the house of Jehovah; and for all that went out on the house, to make it strong. ¹³However, there were not made for the house of Jehovah basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, of the silver that was brought into the house of Jehovah; ¹⁴for they gave it to those doing the work, and they made strong the house of Jehovah with it. ¹⁵And they did not reckon with the men into whose hand they gave the silver, to give to those doing the work, for they were dealing with faithfulness. ¹⁶And the guilt-offering silver and the sin-offering silver was not brought into the house of Jehovah, for it was the priests'.

¹⁷Then Hazael the king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and captured it; and Hazael set his face to up against Jerusalem. ¹⁸And Joash the king of Judah took all the dedicated things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own dedicated things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and of the house of the king, and sent to Hazael the king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem.

¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And his servants rose up and made a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla. ²¹For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, killed him; and he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Amaziah reigned in his place.

¹In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu reigned over Israel, in Samaria, seventeen years. ²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and went after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not turn aside from it. ³And the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of Hazael the king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all the days. ⁴And Jehoahaz sought the face of Jehovah, and Jehovah listened to him, for He saw the oppression of Israel; for the king of Syria had oppressed them. ⁵And Jehovah gave a deliverer to Israel, and they went out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as before. ⁶Only, they did not turn aside from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin; he walked in it, and also the Asherah remained in Samaria. ⁷For he did not leave to Jehoahaz any of the people except fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like dust by threshing.

⁸And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ⁹And Jehoahaz lay with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Joash reigned in his place.

¹⁰In the thirty-seventh year of Joash the king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz reigned over Israel, in Samaria, sixteen years. ¹¹And he did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he walked in it. ¹²And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ¹³And Joash lay with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴And Elisha had become sick with his illness in which he died; and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept on his face, and said, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and its horsemen!

¹⁵And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. And he took bow and arrows to himself. ¹⁶And he said to the king of Israel, Cause your hand to ride on the bow. And he caused his hand to ride. And Elisha placed his hand on the hands of the king, ¹⁷and said, Open the window eastward. And he opened. And Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of deliverance of Jehovah, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until it is finished. ¹⁸And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them up. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike the earth. And he struck three times, and stopped. ¹⁹And the man of God was angry with him, and said, By striking five or six times, then you would have stricken Syria until it was finished; but now, you shall strike Syria three times.

²⁰And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of Moab came into the land, at the beginning of the year; ²¹and it happened, they were burying a man; and, behold, they saw the band, and threw the man into the grave of Elisha. And the man fell and touched the bones of Elisha, and came alive, and rose on his feet.

²³And Jehovah was gracious to them, and pitied them, and turned toward them, for the sake of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and was not willing to destroy them, nor to cast them out from His presence as yet. ²⁴And Hazael the king of Syria died, and his son Ben-hadad reigned in his place. ²⁵And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned and took the cities out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael that he had taken out of the hand of his father Jehoahaz in battle. Jehoash struck him three times, and he brought back the cities of Israel.

²He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ³And he did right in the eyes of Jehovah, but not like his father David; he did according to all that his father Joash did; ⁴however, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and offered in the high places.

⁵And it happened, when the kingdom was strong in his hand, that he put to death his servants, those who had put to death his father the king. ⁶But he did not put to death the sons of those who struck, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses that Jehovah commanded, saying, The fathers are not to be put to death for the sons, and the sons are not to be put to death for the fathers; but each shall be put to death for his own sin. ⁷He struck Edom, in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand, and captured the Rock by war, and called its name Joktheel to this day. ⁸Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, Come, we shall look one another in the face. ⁹And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thorn that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife; and a beast of the field that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn. ¹⁰You have certainly stricken Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in it and stay in your house; and why should you stir yourself up to evil so that you may fall, you and Judah with you? ¹¹But Amaziah would not listen, and Jehoash the king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah the king of Judah, in Beth-shemesh of Judah. ¹²And Judah was stricken before Israel, and they each fled to his tent. ¹³And Amaziah the king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Ahaziah, Jehoash the king of Israel caught in Beth-shemesh. And they came in to Jerusalem, and he broke through the wall of Jerusalem, at the gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. ¹⁴And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶And Jehoash lay with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And his son Jeroboam reigned in his place.

¹In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah the king of Judah began to reign. ²He was a son of sixteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ³And he did that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah did; however, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

⁵And Jehovah touched the king, and he was a leper to the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, and Jotham the son of the king was over the house, judging the people of the land. ⁶And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ⁷And Azariah lay with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Jotham reigned in his place.

⁸In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel, in Samaria, six months. ⁹And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, as his fathers did; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ¹⁰And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place.

¹¹And the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel.

¹²This was the word of Jehovah that He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your son of the fourth generation shall sit to you on the throne of Israel; and it was so.

¹³Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uziah the king of Judah, and he reigned a full month in Samaria. ¹⁴And Menahem the son of Gadi from Tirzah went up and came into Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place. ¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy that he conspired, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶Then Menahem struck Tiphseh, and all who were in it, and its borders from Tirzah, for it did not open; and he struck it; he ripped up all its pregnant women. ¹⁷In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, all his days. ¹⁹Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave a thousand talents of silver to Pul, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. ²⁰And Menahem brought out the silver from Israel, on all the mighty men of wealth, to give to the king of Assyria, fifty shekels of silver for each one; and the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land. ²¹And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel? ²²And Menahem lay with his fathers. And his son Pekahiah reigned in his place.

²³In the fiftieth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem reigned over Israel, two years in Samaria. ²⁴And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ²⁵And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his general, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the high place of the house of the king, with Argob and Arieah, and fifty men of the sons of the Gileadites with him; and he killed him and reigned in his place. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel.

²⁷In the fifty-second year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel, twenty years in Samaria. ²⁸And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ²⁹In the days of Pekah the king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria came and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and removed them to Assyria. ³⁰And Hoshea the son of Elah conspired a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. ³¹And the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Israel.

³²In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, the king of Judah, began to reign. ³³He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴And he did good in the eyes of Jehovah; according to all that his father Uzziah did, he did. ³⁵Only, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in high places; he built the Upper Gate of the house of Jehovah.

³⁶And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ³⁷In those days Jehovah began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah. ³⁸And Jotham lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. And his son Ahaz reigned in his place.

¹In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham the king of Judah began to reign. ²Ahaz was a son of twenty years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do good in the eyes of Jehovah his God, like his father David. ³But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and also he caused his son to pass through the fire, according to the idolatries of the nations, whom Jehovah had cast out from before the sons of Israel. ⁴And he sacrificed and offered incense in the high places, and on the heights, and under every green tree.

⁵Then Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to do battle; and they lay siege to Ahaz, but they were not able to fight.

⁶At that time Rezin the king of Syria brought Elath back to Syria, and threw the Jews out of Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath and lived there to this day. ⁷And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son; come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against me. ⁸And Ahaz took the silver and the gold which was found in the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent to the king of Assyria a bribe. ⁹And the king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up to Damascus and captured it, and removed it to Kir, and he killed Rezin.

¹⁰And king Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria at Damascus, and saw the altar that was in Damascus. And king Ahaz sent the form of the altar to Urijah the priest, and its pattern, according to all its work. ¹¹And Urijah the priest built the altar according to all the king Ahaz had sent from Damascus; so Urijah the priest did until king Ahaz came in from Damascus. ¹²And the king came in from Damascus, and the king saw the altar; and the king drew near to the altar and offered on it; ¹³and offered his burnt offering, and his food offering, and poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. ¹⁴But as to the bronze altar that was before Jehovah, he brought near from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of Jehovah, and put it on the north side of his altar. ¹⁵And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar offer the burnt offering of the morning, and the evening food offering, and the king's burnt offering and his food offering with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their food offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by. ¹⁶And Urijah the priest did according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

¹⁷And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from them; and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones. ¹⁸And the covered way that they had built in the house for the Sabbath, and the king's entry outside, he turned from the house of Jehovah, because of the king of Assyria. ¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And Ahaz lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

¹In the twelfth year of Ahaz the king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah reigned in Samaria, nine years over Israel. ²And he did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah, only not as the kings of Israel who were before him. ³Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came against him, and Hoshea was a servant to him, and paid him tribute. ⁴And the king of Assyria found a conspiracy in Hoshea, in that he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt, and had not offered tribute up to the king of Assyria, as year by year; and the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in a prison.

⁵And the king of Assyria went up in to all the land, and he went up to Samaria and lay siege against it three years. ⁶In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria, and removed Israel to Assyria, and made them live in Halah, and in Habor, by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. ⁷And it was so because the sons of Israel had sinned against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and feared other gods, ⁸and walked in the statutes of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from the face of the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel that they made. ⁹And the sons of Israel secretly did that which was not right against Jehovah their God, and built high places for themselves in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city, ¹⁰and set up for themselves pillars and Asherim on every high height, and under every green tree; ¹¹and burned incense there in all high places, like the nations that Jehovah had removed from their face; and did evil things to provoke Jehovah, ¹²and served the idols, of which Jehovah had said to them, You shall not do this thing. ¹³And Jehovah testified against Israel, and against Judah, by the hand of all His prophets, and every seer, saying, Turn back from your evil ways, and keep My commands, My statutes, according to all the law that I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by the hand of My servants the prophets. ¹⁴And they did not listen, and hardened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not remain faithful to Jehovah their God; ¹⁵and rejected His statutes and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies that He testified against them, and went after the vain thing, and became vain, and after the nations that were around them, of whom Jehovah had commanded them not to act like them.

to provoke Him; ¹⁸so that Jehovah was very angry against Israel, and turned them away from His face — not one was left, only the tribe of Judah by itself. ¹⁹Also Judah did not keep the commands of Jehovah their God, and they walked in the statutes of Israel that they had made. ²⁰And Jehovah rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of the plunderers, until He had cast them out from His presence. ²¹For He tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam lured Israel from following Jehovah, and caused them to sin a great sin. ²²And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam that he did; they did not turn aside from them; ²³until Jehovah turned away Israel from His face, as He spoke by the hand of all His servants the prophets; and Israel was exiled from off its land to Assyria to this day.

²⁴And the king of Assyria brought men in from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and made them live in the cities of Samaria instead of the sons of Israel; and they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities. ²⁵And it happened, at the beginning of their habitation there, that they did not fear Jehovah, and Jehovah sent lions among them, and they were striking among them. ²⁶And they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations that you have exiled and have made to live in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the God of the land, and He has sent the lions into their midst; and, behold, they are killing them, since they do not know the custom of the God of the land. ²⁷And the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Cause one of the priests whom you removed from there to go there, and they shall go and live there; and he shall teach them the custom of the God of the land. ²⁸And one of the priests whom they exiled from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and he taught them how they should fear Jehovah. ²⁹And nation to nation was making gods of their own, and putting them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, nation to nation in their cities where they lived.

³⁵And Jehovah made a covenant with them, and commanded them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; ³⁶but Jehovah who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a stretched out arm, you shall fear Him, and you shall bow yourselves to Him, and you shall sacrifice to Him; ³⁷and the statutes, and the judgments, and the law, and the commandments that He wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever, and you shall not fear other gods; ³⁸and the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, and you shall not fear other gods; ³⁹but you shall fear Jehovah you God, and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. ⁴⁰But they did not listen, but did according to their former custom; ⁴¹and it happened, these nations feared Jehovah, and they served their graven images, both their sons and their sons' sons; as their fathers did, they are doing to this day.

¹And it happened, in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah the king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz the king of Judah began to reign. ²He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years; and the name of his mother was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. ³And he did right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father David did; ⁴he took away the high places, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherah, and beat to bits the bronze serpent that Moses made — for in those days it was that the sons of Israel burned sacrifices to it and called it Nehushtan. ⁵He trusted in Jehovah the God of Israel, and after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him; ⁶and he clung to Jehovah; he did not turn aside from following Him, and kept His commands that Jehovah commanded Moses. ⁷And Jehovah was with him; He acted prudently every place he went, and he rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him. ⁸He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the watchtower to the fortified city.

⁹And it happened, in the fourth year of king Hezekiah — it was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah the king of Israel — Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up against Samaria and lay siege to it. ¹⁰And they captured it at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hezekiah — it was the ninth year of Hoshea the the king of Israel — Samaria was conquered; ¹¹and the king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹²because they did not listen to the voice of Jehovah their God, and transgressed His covenant, all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded; yea, they did not listen nor obey.

¹³And in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib the king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them. ¹⁴And Hezekiah the king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria, to Lachish, saying, I have offended, turn back from me; that which you put on me I will bear. And the king of Assyria laid on Hezekiah the king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold; ¹⁵and Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the house of the king—¹⁶at that time Hezekiah cut off the doors of the temple of Jehovah, and the pillars that Hezekiah the king of Judah had overlaid, and gave them to the king of Assyria.

¹⁷And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and the chief of the eunuchs, and the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish, to king Hezekiah, with a heavy force, to Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem, and they went up and came in and stood by the conduit of the upper pool that was in the highway of the Fuller's Field. ¹⁸And they called to the king, and Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house of Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder went out to them. ¹⁹And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Now say to Hezekiah, So says the great king, the king of Assyria, What is this hope in which you have trusted? ²⁰Do you say that a mere word of the lips is counsel and strength for battle; now, on whom have you trusted that you have rebelled against me? ²¹Now, behold, you have trusted for yourself on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; which if a man lean on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it! So is Pharaoh the king of Egypt to all those who trust in him. ²²And when you say to me, We have trusted to Jehovah our God, is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Before this altar you shall bow yourselves in Jerusalem? ²³And, now, exchange pledges for yourself, I ask you, to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will give to you two thousand horses, if you are able to give for yourself riders on them. ²⁴And how will you turn back the face of one prefect of the least of the servants of my lord, that you trust for yourself upon Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ²⁵Now, have I come up against this place to destroy it without Jehovah? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land, and you shall destroy it. ²⁶And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief of the cupbearers, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand; and do not speak with us in Jewish, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. ²⁷And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master, and to you? Has he not sent me to the men that sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink the water of their own feet with you? ²⁸And the chief of the cupbearers stood and called with a great voice in Jewish, and spoke and said, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria; ²⁹So says the king, Do not let Hezekiah delude you, for he is not able to deliver you out of his hand; ³⁰and do not let Hezekiah make you trust to Jehovah, saying, Jehovah shall surely deliver us; and, This city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ³¹Do not listen to Hezekiah, for so says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and you each shall eat of his vine, and each of his fig tree, and you each shall drink of the waters of his own well, ³²until I come; and I will take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil, and honey; and live, and do not die; and do not listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, Jehovah shall deliver us. ³³Have the gods of the nations at all delivered each his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah, that they have delivered Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? ³⁶But the people kept silent and did not answer him a word, for the command of the king was, saying, Do not answer him. ³⁷And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, came in, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, having torn their garments; and they told him the words of the chief of the cupbearers.

¹And it happened, when king Hezekiah heard, that he tore his garments and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Jehovah; ²and he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and

Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. ³And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, it is a day of distress, and of rebuke, and of contempt today; for the sons have come to the birth, and there is no power to bring forth. ⁴It may be that Jehovah your God will hear all the words of the chief cupbearer, with which his master the king of Assyria has sent him to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which Jehovah your God has heard; and you shall lift up prayer for the remnant that is found. ⁵And the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶And Isaiah said to them, You shall say this to your lord: Thus says Jehovah, Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled Me. ⁷Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a rumor, and shall turn back to his land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his land.

⁸And the chief cupbearer returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had traveled from Lachish. ⁹And when he heard it said of Tirhakah the king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is coming out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰So you shall speak to Hezekiah the king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you trust delude you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

¹⁴And Hezekiah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers, and read them, and went up to the house of Jehovah; and Hezekiah spread it before the face of Jehovah. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah, and said, O

Jehovah, the God of Israel, who sits above the cherubs, You are God Himself, You alone, to all the kingdoms of the earth; You have made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶O Jehovah, incline Your ear and hear; O Jehovah, open Your eyes and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib with which he has sent him to reproach the living God. ¹⁷Truly, O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations, and their lands; ¹⁸and have put their gods into the fire, for they were no gods, but the work of the hands of man, wood and stone, and have destroyed them. ¹⁹And now, O Jehovah our God, we pray to You, save us out of his hand, and all the kingdoms of the earth shall know that You are Jehovah God, You alone.

²⁰And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, I have heard that which you have prayed to Me as to Sennacherib the king of Assyria; ²¹this is the word that Jehovah spoke concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head behind you. ²²Whom have you reproached and reviled? Against whom have you lifted up a voice? Yea, you have lifted up your eyes on high, even against the Holy One of Israel! ²³By the hand of your messengers, you have reproached the Lord, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and I will cut down the height of its cedars, the best of its firs, and I will enter into the furthest dwelling, its densest forest ²⁴I have dug and drunk strange waters, and I dried up with the sole of my feet all the rivers of Egypt. ²⁵Have you not heard from afar, I made it; from days of old I formed it? Now I have caused it to come; that you should make fortified cities desolate ruin-heaps. ²⁶And their inhabitants were short in hand; they were terrified and were ashamed; they were as the grass of the field, and the green herb, as the grass on the housetops and blasted grain before it was grown! ²⁷But I have known your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me.

²⁸Because of your raging against Me, and because your arrogance has come up into My ears, even I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way which you came.

²⁹And this shall be the sign for you: you shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year you shall sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³⁰And those that have escaped of the house of Judah that is left shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³¹For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion they that shall escape; the zeal of Jehovah of Hosts shall do this. ³²So Jehovah says this concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor shall he pour out a bank against it. ³³By the way that he came in, in it he shall return; and he shall not come into this city, says Jehovah. ³⁴For I will defend this city, to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake.

³⁵And it happened in that night, that the Angel of Jehovah went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of Assyria; and they rose up early in the morning, and behold, all of them were dead bodies. ³⁶And Sennacherib the king of Assyria moved, and went and returned, and lived in Nineveh. ³⁷And it happened, as he was bowing himself in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon reigned in his place.

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick to death, and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, So says Jehovah, Order your house, for you are dying, and shall not live. ²And he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Jehovah, saying, ³I pray to You, O Jehovah, please remember how I have walked always before your face in truth, and with a perfect heart, and I have done that which is good in Your eyes. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. ⁴And it happened — Isaiah had not gone out to the middle court — that the word of Jehovah was to him, saying, ⁵Return, and you shall say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, So says Jehovah, the God of your father David, I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you; you shall go up to the house of Jehovah the third day. ⁶And I have added fifteen years to your days; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and shall defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake. ⁷And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs; and they took and laid it on the boil; and he recovered.

⁸And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What will be the sign that Jehovah will heal me, that I will go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah? ⁹And Isaiah said, This will be the sign to you from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do the thing that He has spoken: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it turn back ten steps? ¹⁰And Hezekiah said, It would be a light thing for the shadow to go down ten steps; no, but let the shadow go back ten steps. ¹¹And Isaiah the prophet cried to Jehovah; and He brought back the shadow by the steps it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz, ten steps backward.

¹²At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan the king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been ill. ¹³And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his treasury, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his weapons, and all that was found in his treasure-house, there was not a thing that Hezekiah did not show them in his house and in all his dominion.

¹⁴And Isaiah the prophet came in to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these men say? And where did they come from to you? and Hezekiah said, They have come from a land afar off, from Babylon. ¹⁵And he said, What did they see in your house? And Hezekiah said, They saw all that is in my house; there was not a thing that I did not show them among my treasures. ¹⁶And Isaiah said to Hezekiah,

Hear the word of Jehovah: ¹⁷Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and all that your fathers have treasured up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; there shall not a thing be left, says Jehovah; ¹⁸and of your sons that shall issue from you, whom you shall father, they shall take away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ¹⁹And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good. And he said, Is it not good if peace and truth are in my days?

²⁰And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought in the waters to the city, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ²¹And Hezekiah lay with his fathers. And his son Manasseh reigned in his place.

¹Manasseh was a son of twelve years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Hephzibah. ²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to the idolatries of the nations that Jehovah expelled from before the sons of Israel. ³And he built again the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed, and raised up altars for Baal, and made a shrine, as did Ahab the king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of the heavens, and served them. ⁴And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, of which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem I will put My name. ⁵And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of Jehovah's house. ⁶And he made his son to pass through the fire, used magic, and used divination, and dealt with mediums and soothsayers; he expanded to work the evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to provoke Him to anger. ⁷And he set a graven image of the Asherah that he made in the house of which Jehovah had said to David and to his son Solomon, In this house, and in Jerusalem, that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. ⁸And I will not again make the feet of Israel wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they observe to do according to all that I commanded them, and to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them. ⁹But they did not listen, and Manasseh caused them to do evil above the nations that Jehovah had destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰And Jehovah spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹Because Manasseh the king of Judah has done these abominations, doing more wickedly than all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols — ¹²therefore so says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing evil on Jerusalem and Judah, so that whoever hears of it, his two ears shall tingle. ¹³And I will stretch out over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and shall wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish — he wipes and turns it on its face. ¹⁴And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance, and give them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall be for a prey and for a spoil to all their enemies, ¹⁵because they have done evil in My eyes, and have provoked Me to anger from the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day. ¹⁶And also Manasseh has shed very much innocent blood, till he has filled Jerusalem from mouth to mouth; apart from his sin that he caused Judah to sin, to do evil in the eyes of Jehovah.

¹⁷And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ¹⁸And Manasseh lay with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house, in the Garden of Uzza. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

¹⁹Amon was a son of twenty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, as his father Manasseh did, ²¹and walked in all the way that his father walked, and served the idols that his father served, and bowed himself to them, ²²and forsook Jehovah, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of Jehovah. ²³And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house. ²⁴And the people of the land killed all those who conspired against king Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place. ²⁵And the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ²⁶And they buried him in his burying-place in the garden of Uzza. And his son Josiah reigned in his place.

¹Josiah was a son of eight years when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jedidah the daughter of Adiah of Boscath. ²And he did good in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in all the way of his father David, and did not turn aside to the right or the left.

⁸And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of Jehovah; and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king, and said, Your servants have poured out the silver that has been found in the house, and have given it into the hand of the doers of the work, those who oversee in the house of Jehovah. ¹⁰And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has given a book to me; and Shaphan read it before the king. ¹¹And it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his garments. ¹²And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah the servant of the king, saying, ¹³Go, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, as to the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that has been kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us. ¹⁴And Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shalum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, the keeper of the wardrobe — and she lived in Jerusalem, in the second quarter — and they spoke with her. ¹⁵And she said to them, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, ¹⁶So says Jehovah, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read; ¹⁷because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. ¹⁸And to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, you shall say this to him, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, the words that you have heard — ¹⁹because your heart was tender, and you have bowed before Jehovah when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the its inhabitants, to become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and have wept before Me; even also I have heard, says Jehovah. ²⁰Behold, even so I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered into your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring on this place. And they brought back this word to the king.

¹And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ²And the king went up to the house of Jehovah, and every man of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, from small to great; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Jehovah.

³And the king stood by the pillar, and made the covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep His commandments, and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to lift up the words of this covenant that were written in this Book. And all the people stood to the covenant. ⁴And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring out from the temple of Jehovah all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for Asherah, and for all the host of the heavens. And he burned them at the outside of Jerusalem, in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. ⁵And he caused to cease the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem, and those burning incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to constellations, and to all the host of the heavens. ⁶And he brought out the Asherah from the house of Jehovah to the outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ground it to powder, and threw the powder of it on the graves of the sons of the people. ⁷And he broke down the houses of the male prostitutes that were in the house of Jehovah, where the women were weaving houses for Asherah. ⁸And he made come in all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ⁹However the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. ¹⁰And he defiled Topheth, that was in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no man could cause his son and his daughter to pass through the fire of Molech. ¹¹And he caused to cease the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Jehovah, by the room of Nathan-melech the eunuch, that was in the suburbs; and he burned with fire the chariots of the sun. ¹²And the altars that were on the top of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Jehovah, the king broke down, and ran from there, and threw the dust of them into the brook Kidron. ¹³And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the idol of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the idol of the Moabites, and for Milcom the idol of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled. ¹⁴And he broke the images in pieces, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their place with the bones of men.

¹⁵And also the altar that was in Bethel, the high place that Jeroboam the son of Nebat had made, by which he made Israel to sin, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burned the high place; he ground it into powder, and burned the Asherah. ¹⁶And Josiah turned and saw the graves that were there in the mount, and sent and took the bones out of the graves, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Jehovah that the man of God had proclaimed, who had proclaimed these things. ¹⁷And he said, What is this monument that I see? And the men of the city said to him, The grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done concerning the altar of Bethel. ¹⁸And he said, Let him alone, let no one touch his bones. And they let his bones escape with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria. ¹⁹And also all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, that the kings of Israel had made to provoke to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. ²⁰And he slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there by the altars, and burned the bones of man upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴And also, the mediums and the soothsayers, and the family gods, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah put away in order to fulfill the words of the law that were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of Jehovah. ²⁵And there was no king before him like him, who turned to Jehovah with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; and after him none rose up like him.

²⁶However, Jehovah did not turn away from the fury of His great anger with which His anger glowed against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. ²⁷And Jehovah said, I will also turn away Judah from My face, as I turned away Israel, and I will reject this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I have said, My name shall be there. ²⁸And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah?

²⁹In his days Pharaoh-necho the king of Egypt came up against the king of Assyria, by the river Euphrates; and king Josiah went out to meet him, and he killed him in Megiddo, when he saw him. ³⁰And his servants made him ride dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own grave. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

³¹Jehoahaz was a son of twenty-three years when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers did. ³³And Pharaoh-necho bound him in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, from reigning in Jerusalem, and he put a fine on the land, a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ³⁴And Pharaoh-necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah to reign instead of Josiah his father, and turned his name into Jehoiakim; and he took away Jehoahaz, and he came to Egypt and died there. ³⁵And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the silver by the mouth of Pharaoh; from each, according to his valuation, he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, to give to Pharaoh-necho.

³⁶Jehoiakim was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years; and the name of his mother was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah; ³⁷and he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers did.

¹In his days Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim was a servant to him three years; and he turned and rebelled against him. ²And Jehovah sent against him the troops of the Chaldeans, and the troops of Syria, and the troops of Moab, and the troops of the Ammonites; and He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Jehovah that He spoke by the hand of His servants the prophets. ³Only, at the mouth of Jehovah, this came upon Judah, to remove them from His presence, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all he did, ⁴and also the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah was not willing to forgive.

⁵And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Judah? ⁶And Jehoiakim lay with his fathers. And his son Jehoiachin reigned in his place. ⁷And the king of Egypt did not come again out of his land; for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt to the river Euphrates all that was to the king of Egypt. ⁸Jehoiachin was a son of eighteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months; and the name of his mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹And he did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers did.

¹⁰At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. ¹¹And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants lay siege to it. ¹²And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his servants, and his leaders, and his eunuchs; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the house of the king, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold that Solomon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah, as Jehovah had spoken. ¹⁴And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the leaders, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained except the poorest sort of the people of the land. ¹⁵And he exiled Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his eunuchs, and the mighty ones of the land; he caused a captivity to go from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶And all the men of valor were seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths a thousand; all were mighty men, warriors; and the king of Babylon brought them in a captivity to Babylon.

¹⁷And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, the brother of his father, to reign in his place, and turned his name into Zedekiah. ¹⁸Zedekiah was a son of twenty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years; and the name of his mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah according to all that Jehoiakim did; ²⁰for through the anger of Jehovah it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He had cast them out from His face, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

¹And it happened, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it, and built a siege-mound all around it. ²And the city entered into siege until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah, ³on the ninth of the month, when the famine was severe in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁴Then the city was broken up, and by night all the men of war went by way of the gate, between the two walls that were by the king's garden; and the Chaldeans were against the city all around; and the king went the way toward the Arabah. ⁵And the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁶And they seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon, to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him. ⁷And they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and blinded Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters and caused him to go to Babylon.

¹³And the bronze pillars that were in the house of Jehovah, and the bases, and the bronze sea that was in the house of Jehovah, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and lifted up their bronze to Babylon.

¹⁴And they took the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. ¹⁵And the chief of the executioners took the fire-pans, and the bowls that were all of gold and silver. ¹⁶There was no weighing of the bronze of all these vessels, the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases that Solomon had made for the house of Jehovah; ¹⁷eighteen cubits was the height of the one pillar, and the capital on it was of bronze, and the height of the capital was three cubits, and the grating and the pomegranates were on the capital all around — all was of bronze; and the second pillar was like these with the grating.

¹⁸And the chief of the executioners took Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the gate; ¹⁹and he took out of the city a certain eunuch who was appointed over the men of war, and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city, and the chief scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. ²⁰And Nebuzaradan chief of the executioners took them and made them go to the king of Babylon, to Riblah. ²¹And the king of Babylon struck them, and killed them in Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he exiled Judah from its land.

²²And the people that were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had left, he appointed over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. ²³And all the commanders of the army heard, they and the men, that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah. And they came to Gedaliah, to Mizpeh, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. ²⁴And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said to them, Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ²⁵And it happened, in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the seed of the kingdom, and ten men with him came, and they struck Gedaliah, and he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him in Mizpah. ²⁶And all the people rose up, from the small even to the great, and commanders of the army, and came into Egypt, for they were afraid of the face of the Chaldeans.

²⁷And it happened, in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-seventh of the month, Evil-merodach the king of Babylon, in the year he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah out of the prison, ²⁸and spoke good things with him, and put his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

²⁹And he changed his prison garments, and he ate bread continually before him all the days of his life. ³⁰And his allowance, a continual allowance, was given to him from the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

¹Adam, Seth, Enosh, ²Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, ³Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, ⁴Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ⁵The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. ⁶And the sons of Gomer were Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁷And the sons of Javan: Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. ⁸The sons of Ham: Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan, ⁹and the sons of Cush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtechah. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. ¹⁰And Cush fathered Nimrod: he began to be mighty on the earth. ¹¹And Mizraim fathered Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim. ¹²And Pathrusim, and Casluhim — from whom came the Philistines and the Caphthorim. ¹³And Canaan fathered Zidon his first-born, and Heth, ¹⁴the Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite, ¹⁵and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, ¹⁶and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.

¹⁷The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech. ¹⁸And Arphaxad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber. ¹⁹And to Eber were born two sons. The name of the one was Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. ²⁰And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, ²¹and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²²and Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²³and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. ²⁴Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, ²⁵Eber, Peleg, Reu, ²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah, ²⁷Abram — he was Abraham — ²⁸the sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.

³²And the sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan. ³³And the sons of Midian were Ephah and Ephraim, and Hephzai, and Shimi, and Jether, and Gether, and On, and Chabash, and Shubai. All these are the sons of Keturah. ³⁴And Abraham fathered Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.

³⁵The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah. ³⁶The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Getam; Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. ³⁷The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizah.

³⁸And the sons of Seir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. ³⁹And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam. And Timna was Lotan's sister. ⁴⁰The sons of Shobal were Alian and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah. ⁴¹The son of Anah was Dishon. And the sons of Dishon were Hamran, and Eshban and Ithran, and Cheran. ⁴²The sons of Ezer were Bilhan and Zaavan and Jakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

⁵¹And Hadad died; and the chiefs of Edom were: chief Timnah; chief Aliah; chief Jetheth; ⁵²chief Aholibamah; chief Elah; chief Pinon, ⁵³chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, ⁵⁴chief Magdiel and chief Iram. These are the princes of Edom.

¹These are the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, ²Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

³The sons of Judah were Er, and Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him from the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in Jehovah's sight, and He killed him. ⁴And Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Pharez and Zerah. All Judah's sons were five. ⁵The sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. ⁶And the sons of Zerah were Zimri and Ethan and Heman, and Calcol and Dara—all of them were five. ⁷And the sons of Carmi were Achan, the troubler of Israel, who sinned in the cursed thing. ⁸And the son of Ethan was Azariah, ⁹and the sons of Hezron, who were born to him, were Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. ¹⁰And Ram fathered Amminadab; and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, chief of the sons of Judah. ¹¹And Nahshon fathered Salma, and Salma fathered Boaz, ¹²and Boaz fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jesse. ¹³And Jesse fathered his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimea the third, ¹⁴Nethaneel the fourth, and Raddai the fifth, ¹⁵Ozem the sixth, David the seventh. ¹⁶Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, and Joab and Asahel, three. ¹⁷And Abigail bore Amasa: And the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

And she bore him Segub. ²²And Segub fathered Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. ²³And he took Geshur and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath and its towns, sixty cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. ²⁴And after the death of Hezron in Calebephraiah then Abiah, Hezron's wife, bore to him Ashur the father of Tekoa.

²⁵And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron: Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah. ²⁶Jerahmeel also had another wife, and her name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. ²⁷And the sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel: Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. ²⁸And the sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. And the sons of Shammai: Nadab and Abishur. ²⁹And the name of Abishur's wife was Abihail; and she bore to him Ahban and Molid. ³⁰And Nadab's sons were Seled and Appaim. But Seled died without sons. ³¹And the son of Appaim was Ishi. And the son of Ishi was Sheshan. And the son of Sheshan: Ahlai. ³²And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai were Jether and Jonathan; and Jether died without sons. ³³And the sons of Jonathan: Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

⁴²And the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were his firstborn Mesha, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. ⁴³And the sons of Hebron: Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. ⁴⁴And Shema fathered Raham, the father of Jorkoam. And Rekem fathered Shammai. ⁴⁵And the son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon was the father of Beth-zur. ⁴⁶And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez. And Haran fathered Gazez. ⁴⁷And the sons of Jahdai: Regem, and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph. ⁴⁸Caleb's concubine Maachah bore Sheber and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibeaz. And Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

⁵⁰These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur: the firstborn of Ephratah was Shobal, the father of Kirjath-jearim; ⁵¹Salma the father of Bethlehem; Hareph the father of Beth-gader. ⁵²And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons: Haroeh, and half of the Manahethites. ⁵³And the families of Kirjath-jearim were the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From them came the Zareathites, and the Esh-aulites. ⁵⁴The sons of Salma: Bethlehem, and the Netophathites; Ataroth; the house of Joab; and half the Manahethites; the Zorites. ⁵⁵And the families of the scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites; the Shimeathites; the Suchathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.

¹And these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn, Amnon, born to Ahinoam the Jezreelitess. The second, Daniel, to Abigail of Carmel. ²The third, Absalom, the son of Maachah, the daughter of Talmi, king of Geshur. The fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith. ³The fifth, Shephatiah, to Abital. The sixth was Ithream, to his wife Eglah. ⁴These six were born to him in Hebron. And he reigned there seven years and six months. And he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three years. ⁵And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four to Bathsheba the daughter of Ammiel; ⁶also Ibhar, and Elishama, and Eliphelet — ⁷also Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, ⁸and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. ⁹These were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

¹⁷And the sons of Jeconiah were Assir, and Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸and Malchiram, and Pedaiiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedeabiah. ¹⁹And the sons of Pedaiiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei. And the sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam and Hananiah, and their sister Shelomith; ²⁰and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-hesed, five. ²¹And the sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jesaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah. ²²And the sons of Shechaniah: Shemaiah. And the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. ²³And the sons of Neariah: Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three. ²⁴And the sons of Elioenai: Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelatiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Dalaiah, and Anani, seven.

¹The sons of Judah were Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. ²And Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath. And Jahath fathered Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. ³And these were of the father of Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash; and their sister's name was Hazeleponi; ⁴and Penuel the father of Gedor; and Ezer the father of Hushah—these are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah, the father of Bethlehem. ⁵And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶And Naarah bore to him Ahuzam, and Hopher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. ⁷And the sons of Helah were Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan. ⁸And Coz fathered Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

⁹And Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. And his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bore with sorrow. ¹⁰And Jabez called to the God of Israel, saying, If indeed You would bless me, and make my border larger, and Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, so that it may not grieve me! And God gave him what he asked.

¹¹And Chelub the brother of Shuah fathered Maher; he was the father of Eshton. ¹²And Eshton fathered Bethrapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Imhash. These are the men of Rechah. ¹³And the sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. And the son of Othniel was Hathath. ¹⁴And Meonothai fathered Ophrah. And Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of the Valley of the Craftsmen; for they were craftsmen. ¹⁵And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naan. And Elah's son was Kenaz. ¹⁶And the sons of Jehaleleel were Ziph and Ziphah; Tiria and Asareel. ¹⁷And the sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon. And she conceived Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah, Eshtemoa's father. ¹⁸And his wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. ¹⁹And the sons of his wife were Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. ²⁰And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, and Rinnah, Benhanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

²¹The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er, the father of Lecah; and Laadah the father of Mareshah; and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, from the house of Ashbea; ²²and Jokim; and the men of Chozeba; and Joash, and Saraph; who ruled over Moab; and Jeshubi-lehem. And these are ancient things. ²³These the potters, and those who lived among plants and hedges. They lived there with the king for his work.

Hamuel, his son; Zacchur, his son; Shimei, his son. ²⁷And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, nor did all their family multiply like the sons of Judah. ²⁸And they lived at Beer-sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-shual, ²⁹and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, ³⁰and at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, ³¹and at Bethmarcaboth, and at Hazar-susim, and at Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David. ³²And their villages were Etam, and Ain, Rimon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities. ³³And all their villages were all around these cities, to Baal. This is their family line and their dwellings. ³⁴And Meshobab; and Jamlech; and Joshah, the son of Amaziah; ³⁵and Joel; and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel; ³⁶and Elioenai; and Jaakobah; and Jeshohaiah; and Asaiah; and Adiel; and Jesimiel; and Benaiah; ³⁷and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah — ³⁸these going by name were rulers in their families. And the house of their fathers increased to a multitude.

³⁹And they went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to look for pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰And they found pasture, fertile and good, for the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for the Hamites who lived there were of old. ⁴¹And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents, and the homes that were found there, and completely destroyed them until this day. And they lived in their places, because there was pasture there for their flocks. ⁴²And some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon went to Mount Seir. And they had as their commanders, Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the son of Ishi. ⁴³And they struck the rest which escaped to Amalek, and lived there until this day.

¹And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel — for he was the firstborn; but since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be counted according to the birthright — ²for

Judah prevailed among his brothers, and from him was the chief ruler, but the birth-right was Joseph's—the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ⁴The sons of Joel: Shemaiah, his son; Gog, his son; Shimei, his son; ⁵Micah, his son; Reaiah, his son; Baal, his son; ⁶Beerah, his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria exiled. He was ruler of the men of Reuben. ⁷And his brothers by their families, in the genealogy of their generations: Jeiel the chief; also Zechariah; ⁸and Bela, the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon. ⁹And he lived as far to the east as to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, and they fell by their hand. And they lived in their tents, to all the face of the east of Gilead.

¹¹And the sons of Gad lived across from them, in the land of Bashan, to Salchah: ¹²Joel the chief; and Shapham, the next; and Jaanai; and Shaphat in Bashan. ¹³And their brothers from the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. ¹⁴These are the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; ¹⁵Ahi, the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. ¹⁶And they lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the open lands of Sharon, on their borders. ¹⁷All these were enrolled by genealogy in the days of king Jotham of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸The sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, even sons of valor, men lifting up shield and sword, and shooting with bow, and able in war were forty-four thousand, seven hundred and sixty, going out to war. ¹⁹And they made war with the Hagarites, and Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab. ²⁰And they were helped against them. And the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them. For they cried to God in the battle, and He was entreated for them, because they trusted in Him.

²³And the sons of the half tribe of Manasseh lived in the land. They increased from Bashan to Baal-hermon, and Senir, and Mount Hermon. ²⁴And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of war, famous men, heads of their fathers' house.

²⁵And they sinned against the God of their fathers, and went lusting after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. ²⁶And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-Pilneser, king of Assyria, and he exiled them; even the Reubenites; and the Gadites; and the half-tribe of Manasseh. And he brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, to this day.

¹The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

²And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. ³And Amram's sons: Aaron and Moses; also Miriam. And the sons of Aaron: Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

⁴Eleazar fathered Phinehas; Phinehas fathered Abishua; ⁵and Abishua fathered Bukki; and Bukki fathered Uzzi; ⁶and Uzzi fathered Zerachiah; and Zerachiah fathered Meraioth; ⁷Meraioth fathered Amariah; and Amariah fathered Ahitub; ⁸and Ahitub fathered Zadok; and Zadok fathered Ahimaaz; ⁹and Ahimaaz fathered Azariah; and Azariah fathered Johanan; ¹⁰and Johanan fathered Azariah—he who acted in the priest's office in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem. ¹¹And Azariah fathered Amariah; and Amariah fathered Ahitub; ¹²and Ahitub fathered Zadok; and Zadok fathered Shallum; ¹³and Shallum fathered Hilkiah; and Hilkiah fathered Azariah; ¹⁴and Azariah fathered Seraiah; and Seraiah fathered Jehozadak; ¹⁵and Jehozadak went away when Jehovah exiled Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁷And these are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁸And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. ¹⁹The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers: ²⁰to Gershon: his son Libni; Jahath, his son; Zimmah, his son; ²¹Joah, his son; Iddo, his son; Zerah, his son; Jeaterai, his son. ²²The sons of Kohath: his son Amminadab; Korah, his son; Assir, his son; ²³Elkanah, his son; Ebiasaph, his son; and Assir, his son; ²⁴Tahath, his son; Uriel, his son; Uzziab, his son; Shaul, his son. ²⁵And the sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth. ²⁶Elkanah; the sons of Elkanah: Zophi, his son; and Nahath, his son; ²⁷Eliab, his son; Jeroham, his son; Elkanah, his son; ²⁸and the sons of Samuel: Joel, the firstborn; and the second, even Abijah.

²⁹The sons of Merari were Mahli; Libni, his son; Shimei, his son; Uzza, his son; ³⁰Shimea, his son; Haggiah, his son; Asaiah, his son. ³¹And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of Jehovah, after the ark had rested. ³²And they ministered with singing before the resting-place of the tabernacle of the congregation, until Solomon had built the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem. And they waited on their office according to their ordinance. ³³And these are those who stood, and their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites, Heman, a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, ³⁴the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, ³⁵the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ³⁶the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, ³⁷the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ³⁸the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. ³⁹And his brother Asaph who stood on his right hand: Asaph, the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, ⁴⁰the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah, ⁴¹the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, ⁴²the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ⁴³the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi. ⁴⁴And their brothers, the sons of Merari stood on the left: Ethan, the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, ⁴⁵the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, ⁴⁶the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, ⁴⁷the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. ⁴⁸Also their brothers, the Levites, were appointed for every service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

⁴⁹But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. ⁵⁰And these were the sons of Aaron: Eleazar, his son; Phinehas, his son; Abishua, his son; ⁵¹Bukki, his son; Uzzi, his son; Zerahiah, his son; ⁵²Meraioth, his son; Amariah, his son; Ahitub, his son; ⁵³Zadok, his son; Ahimaaz, his son.

⁶¹And to the sons of Kohath, left of the family of that tribe, ten cities out of the half tribe, the half of Manasseh by lot. ⁶²And to the sons of Gershom for their families: Out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. ⁶³To the sons of Merari by the lot, for their families: out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. ⁶⁴And the sons of Israel gave the cities to the Levites and their open lands. ⁶⁵And they gave by the lot these cities which they call by their names: out of the tribe of the sons of Judah, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin.

⁶⁶And some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim. ⁶⁷And they gave to them for cities of refuge: Shechem in Mount Ephraim and its open lands; and Gezer and its open lands; ⁶⁸and Jokneam and its open lands; and Beth-horon and its open lands; ⁶⁹and Ajalon and its open lands; and Gath-rimmon and its open lands. ⁷⁰And out of the half tribe of Manasseh: Aner and its open lands; and Bileam and its open lands; for the family of the rest of the sons of Kohath.

⁷¹To the sons of Gershon: out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan and its open lands; and Ashtaroth and its open lands. ⁷²And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh and its open lands; Daberath and its open lands; ⁷³and Ramoth and its open lands; and Anem and its open lands. ⁷⁴And out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal and its open lands; and Abdon and its open lands; ⁷⁵and Hukok and its open lands; and Rehob and its open lands. ⁷⁶And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee and its open lands; and Hammon and its open lands; and Kirjathaim and its open lands. ⁷⁷To the rest of the sons of Merari: out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon and its open lands; Tabor and its open lands. ⁷⁸And beyond Jordan, by Jericho, on the east of the Jordan: out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness, and its open lands; and Jahzah and its open lands; ⁷⁹Kedemoth also and its open lands; and Mephaath and its open lands. ⁸⁰And out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead and its open lands; and Mahanaim and its open lands; ⁸¹and Heshbon and its open lands; and Jazer and its open lands.

¹And to the sons of Issachar were Tola, and Puah, and Jashub, and Shimron, four. ²And the sons of Tola: Uzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their fathers' house — these to Tola, great men of might to their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand, six hundred. ³And the sons of Uzzi: Izrahiah. And the sons of Izrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah; all five of them chiefs. ⁴And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' house, were bands of soldiers for war, thirty-six thousand; for they multiplied wives and sons. ⁵And their brothers among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of war, being in all, by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand.

⁶*Of* Benjamin: Bela and Becher, and Jediel, three. ⁷And the sons of Bela: Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of their fathers' house, mighty warriors; and their genealogy, twenty-two thousand, and thirty-four. ⁸And the sons of Becher: Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and Alarneth. All these are the sons of Becher. ⁹And their genealogy, by their generations, heads of their fathers' house, mighty warriors, twenty thousand and two hundred. ¹⁰And the sons of Jediel: Bilhan. And the sons of Bilhan: Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar; ¹¹all these are sons of Jediel, even heads of their fathers, mighty warriors, seventeen thousand and two hundred going out to war for battle. ¹²And Shuppim and Huppim, the sons of Ir; Hushim the son of Aher. ¹³The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

¹⁴The sons of Manasseh: Ashriel, whom Jaladah his Syrian concubine bore with Machir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵And Machir took a wife for Huppim and for Shuppim; and the name of his sister was Maachah; and the name of the second was Zelophehad. And Zelophehad had daughters. ¹⁶And Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. And the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. ¹⁷And the sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸And his sister Hammoleketh bore Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. ¹⁹And the sons of Shemida: Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰And the sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, and Bered, his son; and Tahath, his son; and Eladah, his son; and Tahath, his son; ²¹and Zabad, his son; and Shuthelah, his son; and Ezer, and Elead, and the men of Gath, natives in the land, killed them, because they came down to take away their cattle. ²²And their father Ephraim mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. ²³And he went in to his wife. And she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Beriah, because his house was in evil. ²⁴And his daughter was Sherah; and she built Beth-horon the lower and the upper, and Uzzen-sherah. ²⁵And Rephah was his son; also Resheph, and Telah, his son; and Tahan, his son; ²⁶Laadan, his son; Ammihud, his son; Elishama, his son; ²⁷Non, his son; Jehoshua, his son. ²⁸And their possessions and dwelling-places: Bethel and its towns; and eastward to Naaran; and westward to Gezer and its towns; and Shechem and its towns; to Gaza and its towns. ²⁹And by the borders of the sons of Manasseh: Beth-shean and its towns; Tanaanah and its towns; Megiddo and its towns; Dor and its towns. In these lived the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel.

¹And Benjamin fathered his firstborn Bela; Ashbel, the second; and Aharah, the third; ²Nohah, the fourth; and Rapha, the fifth. ³And sons were born to Bela: Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, ⁴and Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, ⁵and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Hiram. ⁶And these are the sons of Ehud; these are they, the heads of the fathers to the dwellers of Geba; and they exiled them to Manahath. ⁷And Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera, he exiled them. And Ehud fathered Uzza and Ahihud. ⁸And Shaharaim fathered sons in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away. Hushim and Baara were his wives. ⁹And by his wife Hodesh were Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham, ¹⁰and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. These were his sons, heads of the fathers. ¹¹And by Hushim, he had Abitub, and Elpaal. ¹²The sons of Elpaal: Eber, and Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono and Lod, with their towns. ¹³And Beriah and Shema were heads of the fathers to the dwellers of Aijalon, who drove away the dwellers of Gath; ¹⁴and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth, ¹⁵and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader, ¹⁶and Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah, ¹⁷and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, shallam, and Hezeki, and Heber, ¹⁸and Ismerai, and Jezliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal; ¹⁹and Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, ²⁰and Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel, ²¹and Adaijah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons of Shimhi, ²²and Ishpan, and Eber, and Eliel, ²³and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, ²⁴and Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah, ²⁵and Iphdeiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak; ²⁶and Shamsherai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, ²⁷and Jaresiah, and Elijah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham. ²⁸These were heads of the fathers, by their generations, chiefs. These lived in Jerusalem.

³²And Mikloth fathered Shimeah. And these also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, across from them.

³³And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul. And Saul fathered Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. ³⁴And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal. And Merib-baal fathered Micah. ³⁵And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. ³⁶And Ahaz fathered Jehoadah. And Jehoadah fathered Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri. And Zimri fathered Moza. ³⁷And Moza fathered Binea; Rapha was his son; Eleaseh, his son; Azel, his son. ³⁸And to Azel were born six sons; and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. ³⁹And the sons of Eshek his brother: his firstborn Ulam; Jeush, the second; and Eliphelet, the third. ⁴⁰And the sons of Ulam were mighty men, treaders of the bow, and had many sons, and grandsons, a hundred and fifty. All these were the sons of Benjamin.

¹So all Israel enrolled themselves. And, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel. And Judah was exiled to Babylon for their transgressions.

¹⁰And of the priests, Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, ¹¹and Azariah to son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; ¹²and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; ¹³and their brothers, heads to their fathers' house, seventeen hundred and sixty, very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

¹⁴And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; ¹⁵and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Matthaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; ¹⁶and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites. ¹⁷And the gatekeepers were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brothers; Shallum being the head. ¹⁸And until they were at the king's gate eastward; they were gatekeepers in the companies of the sons of Levi. ¹⁹And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle. And their fathers were over the camp of Jehovah, keepers of the entry. ²⁰And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past; Jehovah was with him. ²¹Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²²All these who were chosen for gatekeepers in the gates were two hundred and twelve. They were in their villages, by their genealogy; they whom David and Samuel the seer had appointed in their faithfulness. ²³And they and their sons were over the gates of the house of Jehovah, even of the house of the tabernacle, by watches. ²⁴The gatekeepers were to the four winds: east, west, north, and south. ²⁵And their brothers in their villages were to come in for seven days from time to time with them. ²⁶For they were in faithfulness, the four chiefs of the gatekeepers; they were Levites, and were over the rooms, and over the treasures of the house of God.

²⁷And they lived around the house of God, for the watch duty was on them; and they were to open it morning by morning.

²⁸And certain of them were over the vessels of service, for they brought them by number; and they took them out by number. ²⁹And certain of them were appointed over the vessels, even over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰And certain of the sons of the priests mixed the mixture for spices. ³¹And Mattithiah of the Levites — he is the firstborn to Shalum the Korahite — was faithful over the work of the pans. ³²And others of the sons of the Kohathites, from among their brothers, were over the Bread of Arrangement, to prepare sabbath by sabbath.

³⁵And in Gibeon lived the father of Gibeon, Jeiel. And his wife's name was Maachah; ³⁶and his firstborn son was Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, ³⁷and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸And Mikloth fathered Shimeam; and they also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, across from their brothers. ³⁹And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul, and Saul fathered Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. ⁴⁰And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal fathered Micah. ⁴¹And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, ⁴²and Ahaz — he fathered Jarah, and Jarah fathered Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri fathered Moza; ⁴³and Moza fathered Binea; and Rephaiah was his son; Eleasah, his son; Azel, his son. ⁴⁴And to Azel were six sons, and these their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

¹And the Philistines fought with Israel. And the men of Israel fled from the face of the Philistines, and fell wounded in Mount Gilboa. ²And the Philistines pursued Saul and his sons; and the Philistines struck Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. ³And the battle was heavy on Saul, and the archers found him with the bow; and he was wounded by the archers. ⁴And Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and pierce me with it, that these uncircumcised ones not come and abuse me. And the armor-bearer was not willing, for he exceedingly feared. And Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵And the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, and he also fell on the sword and died. ⁶And Saul and his three sons died, and all his house; they died together. ⁷And the men of Israel in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they forsook their cities and ran away. And the Philistines came and lived in them.

⁸And it happened on the next day, the Philistines came to strip those pierced. And they found Saul and his sons fallen in Mount Gilboa. ⁹And they stripped him, and carried his head and his weapons, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around to proclaim the news to their idols and the people. ¹⁰And they put his weapons in the house of their gods; and they fastened his skull in the house of Dagon.

¹¹And all Jabesh-gilead heard of all that the Philistines had done to Saul. ¹²And all the valiant men arose and carried away Saul's body, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh. And they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh; and fasted seven days.

¹³And Saul died because of his trespass that he trespassed against Jehovah, against the word of Jehovah that he did not keep, and also for asking of a medium, to inquire; ¹⁴and did not inquire of Jehovah. Then He killed him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

¹And all Israel gathered to David, to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. ²And also in time past, even when Saul was king, you were he that led out and brought in Israel. And Jehovah your God said to you, You shall feed my people Israel, and you shall be ruler over My people Israel. ³And all the elders of Israel came in to the king at Hebron. And David cut a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah. And they anointed David as king over Israel, according to the word of Jehovah, by the hand of Samuel. ⁴And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem — it is Jebus — and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. ⁵And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You shall not come in here. But David captured the fortress of Zion; it is the city of David. ⁶And David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall become head and commander. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first and became head. ⁷And David lived in the fortress; on this account they called it the City of David. ⁸And he built the city all around, from Millo even round about. And Joab revived the rest of the city. ⁹And David was going on and increasing, for Jehovah of Hosts was with him.

¹⁰And these were the heads of the mighty men who were to David, making themselves strong with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to cause him to reign over Israel, according to the word of Jehovah. ¹¹And this is the number of the mighty men who were to David: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, the head of the thirty — he lifted up his spear against three hundred, killing them at one time. ¹²And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite; he was among the three mighty ones — ¹³he was with David in Pas-dammim, and the Philistines had gathered there to battle; and a portion of the field was full of barley, and the people had fled from before the Philistines; ¹⁴and they set themselves in the midst of that portion, and delivered it, and struck the Philistines, and Jehovah saved by a great deliverance.

¹⁵And three of the thirty heads went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam. And the army of the Philistines was pitched in the Valley of the Giants. ¹⁶And David was then in the stronghold, and the command post of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁷And David longed, and said, Who shall give me drink, water from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate? ¹⁸And the three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was at the gate, and took it and brought to David. But David was not willing to drink it, and poured it out to Jehovah, ¹⁹and said, Far be it from me by my God, to do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men with their lives? For they have brought it with their lives. And he was not willing to drink it. The three mighty ones did these things.

²⁰And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was the chief of the three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and killed; and had a name among the three. ²¹Of the three, he was honored by the two, and became their head. But he did not come to the first three. ²²Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of great deeds, from Kabzeel, he killed the two lion-like Moabites. And he went down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in the snowy day. ²³And he killed an Egyptian man, a man of five cubits stature; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like the weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff and wrenched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand; and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and had a name among the three mighty ones. ²⁵Behold, he was honored by the thirty, but to the first three he did not come. And David set him over his court.

Zeruiah, ⁴⁰Tra the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, ⁴¹Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the son of Ahlai, ⁴²Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, the head of the Reubenites, and thirty with him; ⁴³Hanan the son of Machah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shamma and Jehiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam, and Ithma the Moabite, ⁴⁷Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mezobaite.

¹These were those coming to David to Ziklag, while banned from the face of Saul the son of Kish. And they were among the mighty ones, helping the battle; ²right and left-handed, armed with bows, with stones, and with arrows, with the bow from the brothers of Saul, of Benjamin. ³The head was Ahiezer, and Joash, the sons of She-maah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Beracha, and Jehu the Anathothite; ⁴Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty one among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite; ⁵Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; ⁶Elkanah, and Jessiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam the Korhites; ⁷and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. ⁸And of the Gadites, there were separated to David, to the stronghold in the wilderness, valiant warriors, men of the army for battle, setting shield and spear in order, and their faces the face of a lion, and as gazelles on the heights for swiftmess: ⁹Ezer the chief, Obadiah, the second; Eliab, the third; ¹⁰Mishmannah, the fourth; Jeremiah, the fifth; ¹¹Attai, the sixth; Eliel, the seventh; ¹²Johanan, the eighth; Elzabad, the ninth; ¹³Jeremiah, the tenth; Machbanni, the eleventh. ¹⁴These were of the sons of Gad, heads of the army. The least was equal to a hundred, and the greatest as a thousand. ¹⁵These were they who crossed over the Jordan in the first month; and it was full, over all its banks; and put to flight all those of the valleys, to the east and to the west. ¹⁶And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold of David. ¹⁷And David went out before them, and answered and said to them, If you have come to me for peace, to help me, I have a heart to unite with yours. But if to betray me to my foe, there is no violence in my hand; the God of our fathers shall see and reprove. ¹⁸And the Spirit unwrapped Amasai, the head of the thirty: To you, O David, and with you, O son of Jesse, peace! Peace to you, and peace to your helpers, for your God has helped you. And David received them, and put them among the heads of the band.

¹⁹And some from Manasseh fell to David as he came with the Philistines to battle against Saul. And they did not help them, for by counsel the rulers of the Philistines sent them away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul with our heads. ²⁰As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him from Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, heads of the thousands that were of Manasseh. ²¹And they helped David against the raiding band, for they all were valiant warriors; and they were commanders in the army; ²²for at that time they came daily to David, to help him, until it was a great army, like an army of God.

²³And these were the numbers of the heads of those that were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the mouth of Jehovah. ²⁴The sons of Judah, bearing shield and spear, were six thousand, eight hundred, armed for war. ²⁵Of the sons of Simeon, mighty ones of valor for the war, seven thousand, one hundred. ²⁶Of the sons of Levi were four thousand, six hundred. ²⁷And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand, seven hundred; ²⁸and Zadok, a young man mighty in valor; and of the house of his father were twenty-two leaders. ²⁹And of the sons of Benjamin, Saul's brothers, were three thousand. For before, the most of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. ³⁰And of the sons of Ephraim were twenty thousand, eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men to the house of their fathers. ³¹And of the half tribe of Manasseh were eighteen thousand who were designated by names, to come to make David king. ³²And of the sons of Issachar, having understanding of the times, to know what Israel should do. Their heads were two hundred, and all their brothers were at their mouth.

³³Of Zebulun, going forth to the army, that could set the battle in array with all kinds of weapons of war, fifty thousand; and keeping rank without a double heart. ³⁴And of Naphtali, a thousand chiefs; and with them with shield and spear were thirty-seven thousand. ³⁵And of the Danites arraying the battle were twenty-eight thousand, six hundred. ³⁶And of Asher, going out to the army to set in order the battle were forty thousand. ³⁷And from beyond the Jordan: of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all of the weapons of war for battle were a hundred and twenty thousand. ³⁸All these were men of war, keeping rank; they came to Hebron with a perfect heart, to make David king over all Israel. And also all the rest of Israel was of one heart, to make David king. ³⁹And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking. For their brothers had prepared for them. ⁴⁰And also those near to them, to Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought in bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; food of fine flour, fig cakes, and raisin cakes, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep, to great plenty. For joy was in Israel.

¹And David consulted the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, to every leader. ²And David said to all the assembly of Israel, If it is good to you, and it has broken forth from Jehovah our God, we shall send to our brothers, those remaining in all the lands of Israel, and with them the priests and the Levites in the cities of their open lands; and they shall be gathered to us. ³And we shall bring around to us the ark of our God, for we did not seek Him in the days of Saul. ⁴And all the congregation said to do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵And David gathered all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt even to the entering in of Hamath, to bring in the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. ⁶And David all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath-jearim of Judah, to bring up from there the ark of Jehovah God, who dwells among the cherubs, where the Name was called on. ⁷And they made the ark of God to ride on a new cart from the house of Abinadab. And Uzza and Ahio were leading the cart. ⁸And David and all Israel were playing before God with all strength, and with songs, and with lyres, and with harps, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. ⁹And when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, then Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰And the anger of Jehovah burned against Uzza, and He struck him, because he had put out his hand on the ark; and he died there before God. ¹¹And it burned to David, for Jehovah had broken a breach against Uzza; and he called that place, The Breach of Uzza to this day.

¹²And David feared God on that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God to me? ¹³And David did not bring the ark to himself, to the City of David, but carried it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴And the ark of God remained with the household of Obed-edom in his house three months. And Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he had.

¹And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build a house for him. ²And David saw that Jehovah had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was exalted to a height, for the sake of His people Israel.

⁸And the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel. And all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard, and went out before them. ⁹And the Philistines came and made a raid in the Valley of the Giants. ¹⁰And David asked of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines; and, Have You given them into my hand? And Jehovah said to him, Go up, and I will give them into your hand. ¹¹And they went up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there. And David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breaking of the waters; so they called the name of that place Baal-perazim. ¹²And they left their gods there. And David commanded, and they were burned with fire.

¹³And yet again the Philistines raided in the valley. ¹⁴And David again inquired of God. And God spoke to him, You shall not go up after them; turn away from them and come to them across from the weeping trees. ¹⁵And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the weeping trees, then you shall go out in the battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. ¹⁶And David did as God commanded him. And they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer.

¹⁷And the name of David went out into all the lands; and Jehovah put the dread of him on all the nations.

¹And he built houses for himself in the City of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and stretched out a tent for it. ²Then David said, None should bear the ark of God except the Levites, for Jehovah had chosen them to bear the ark of God, and to serve Him forever. ³And David gathered all Israel to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Jehovah to its place that he had prepared for it. ⁴And David gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites. ⁵Of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers, a hundred and twenty. ⁶Of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers, two hundred and twenty. ⁷Of the sons of Gershon: Joel the chief, and his brothers, a hundred and thirty. ⁸Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers, two hundred. ⁹Of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers, eighty. ¹⁰Of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers, a hundred and twelve.

¹¹And David called to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, and to the Levites, to Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹²and said to them, You are the heads of the fathers of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and you shall bring up the ark of Jehovah, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it. ¹³Because you did not do so at the first, Jehovah our God broke in against us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.

¹⁴And the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁵And the sons of the Levites carried the ark of God, as Moses commanded, according to the word of Jehovah, by staves above on the shoulders. ¹⁶And David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to make stand their brothers the singers with instruments of song, psalteries, and harps, and sounding cymbals, to lift up the voice with joy.

¹⁷And the Levites made stand Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari, their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah. ¹⁸And with them were their brothers of the second rank, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers. ¹⁹And the singers were Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, to sound with cymbals of bronze; ²⁰and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with harps set to Allamoth; ²¹and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah with lyres on the octave, to oversee. ²²And Chenaniah the chief of the Levites led in the song, instructing in the song, because he was skillful. ²³And Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark. ²⁴And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests were blowing with the trumpets before the ark of God. And Obed-edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the ark.

²⁷And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that carried the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah, the master of the song with the singers. David also had an ephod of linen on him.

²⁸And all Israel was bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with shouting, and with the sound of a horn, and with trumpets, and cymbals, sounding aloud with lyres and harps. ²⁹And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came to the City of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out through the window and saw king David dancing and making merry. And she despised him in her heart.

¹And they brought in the ark of God, and set it down in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ²And when David finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offering, and he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah; ³even he passed out to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to each a loaf of bread, a portion, and a raisin cake. ⁴And he set before the ark of Jehovah ministers from the Levites, even to celebrate and to thank and to give praise to Jehovah the God of Israel: ⁵Asaph the head, and Zechariah his second; Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with instruments of harps, and with lyres; and Asaph was sounding with the cymbals. ⁶And Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were continually with trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God. ⁷Then on that day David first gave by the hand of Asaph and his brothers to give thanks to Jehovah.

⁸O give thanks to Jehovah; call on His name; make known His deeds among the peoples. ⁹Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him; tell of all His marvelous works. ¹⁰Glory in His holy name; let the heart of those seeking Jehovah rejoice. ¹¹Seek Jehovah and His strength, seek His face continually. ¹²Remember His wonders that He has done, His signs, and the judgments of His mouth, ¹³O seed of Israel, His servant; O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones. ¹⁴He is Jehovah our God, His judgments are in all the earth. ¹⁵Remember

His covenant forever, the word He gave to a thousand generations, ¹⁶which He has made with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac; ¹⁷and He established it to Jacob for a statute, to Israel as a covenant forever, ¹⁸saying, I will give you the land of Canaan, the allotment of your inheritance; ¹⁹when you were few in number, even very few, and sojourners in it, ²⁰and they went up and down, from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people. ²¹He has not allowed any to oppress them; yea, for their sake he has reprov'd kings: ²²Touch not My anointed ones, and do My prophets no evil. ²³Sing to Jehovah, all the earth, proclaim His salvation from day to day. ²⁴Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all the peoples. ²⁵For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised; and He is to be feared above all gods. ²⁶For all gods of the peoples are nothing; yea, Jehovah has made the heavens. ²⁷Honor and majesty are before Him; strength and gladness are in His place. ²⁸Give to Jehovah, O kindred of the people, give to Jehovah glory and strength. ²⁹Give to Jehovah the glory of His name; bring an offering and come before Him; worship Jehovah in the adornment of holiness. ³⁰Tremble before Him, all the earth; yea, the earth is established, it shall not be moved! ³¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; and let them say among nations, Jehovah reigns. ³²Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it; let the fields rejoice, and all that is in them. ³³Then the trees of the forest will sing out before Jehovah, for He has come to judge the earth. ³⁴O give thanks to Jehovah; for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. ³⁵And say, O save us, God of our salvation; and gather us, and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy name, that we may glory in Your praise. ³⁶Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting. And all the people said, Amen, and gave praise to Jehovah.

³⁷And he left there before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, for Asaph and for his brothers, to minister before the ark continually to the matter of a day in its day; ³⁸also, Obed-edom and their brothers, sixty-eight; and Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, as gatekeepers; ³⁹and Zadok the priest, and his brothers the priests, before the tabernacle of Jehovah, in the high place that was in Gibeon; ⁴⁰to offer the burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of the burnt offering continually, to the morning, and to evening, even to all that was written in the law of Jehovah, which He commanded Israel; ⁴¹and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to Jehovah, because His mercy endures forever; ⁴²and with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those making a sound, and instruments of the song of God; and the sons of Jeduthun were at the gate.

⁴³And all the people departed, each to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

¹And it happened, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Behold, I am living in a house of cedars, and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah is under curtains. ²And Nathan said to David, Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.

³And it happened on that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴Go; and you shall say to My servant David, So says Jehovah, You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in; ⁵for I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day, but I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. ⁶Wherever I have walked up and down among all Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying, Why have you not built a house of cedars for Me? ⁷And now you shall say this to My servant, to David, So says Jehovah of hosts, I have taken you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel; ⁸and I have been with you wherever you have walked; and I have cut off all your enemies from before you; and have made for you a name like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. ⁹And I will prepare a place for My people Israel, and he will plant, and he will dwell in his place, and shall not be made to tremble any more; nor shall the sons of wickedness waste him any more, as at the first; ¹⁰yea, even from the day that I appointed judges over My people Israel. And I will humble all your enemies; and I declare to you that Jehovah shall build a house for you; ¹¹and it shall come to pass, when your days have been fulfilled to go away with your fathers, that I shall raise up your seed after you, who shall be of your sons, and I shall establish his kingdom. ¹²He shall build a house for Me, and I shall establish his throne forever; ¹³I shall be a Father to him, and he shall be a son to Me; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it away from him who was before you; ¹⁴and I will make him stand in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be made to stand forever. ¹⁵According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶And David the king came in and sat before Jehovah, and said, Who am I, O Jehovah, and what is my house, that You have brought me thus far? ¹⁷And this was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken to Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have looked upon me as a type of the Man who is on high, O Jehovah God! ¹⁸What can David add still more to You concerning the honor being put on Your servant? For You know Your servant. ¹⁹O Jehovah, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things. ²⁰O Jehovah, there is none like You; and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²¹And what one nation in the earth is as Your people Israel, whom God has brought out to ransom to Himself for a people, to make for Yourself a great and fearful name, to cast out the nations from before Your people, whom You have ransomed out of Egypt. ²²Yea, You have chosen Your people Israel for Yourself, for a people forever, and You, O Jehovah, have been God to them. ²³And now, O Jehovah, the word that You have spoken as to Your servant, and as to his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have spoken; ²⁴let it even be established, and Your name be great forever, saying, Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, is God to Israel; and the house of Your servant David shall be made to stand before You; ²⁵for You, O my God, You have uncovered the ear of Your servant, to build a house for him; on this account Your servant has found to pray before You. ²⁶And now, O Jehovah, You are God Himself, and You speak this goodness concerning Your servant; ²⁷and now, You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You; for You, O Jehovah, have blessed; yea, it shall be blessed forever!

¹And it happened, after this, that David struck the Philistines, and humbled them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And he struck Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, bringing a tribute.

⁹And Tou the king of Hamath heard that David had struck the whole army of Hadarezer the king of Zobah, ¹⁰and he sent his son Hadoram to king David, to ask peace of him, and to bless him—because he had fought against Hadarezer, and had struck him; for Hadarezer had been a man of war with Tou — and all vessels of gold and silver and bronze; ¹¹also these king David sanctified to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold that he had taken from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the Ammonites, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. ¹²And Abishai the son of Zeruiah had killed eighteen thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt; ¹³and he put command posts in Edom, and all the Edomites were servants to David. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

¹⁴And David reigned over all Israel, and he executed judgment and justice among all his people. ¹⁵And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁶and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe; ¹⁷and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were first ones at the hand of the king.

¹And it happened after this, that king Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son reigned in his place. ²And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, for his father acted with kindness toward me; and David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came to the land of the Ammonites, to Hanun, to comfort him. ³And the chiefs of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, Is David honoring your father, in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come in to you in order to search out and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? ⁴And Hanun took the David's servants, and shaved them, and cut their long robes in half, to the buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵And some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated — and the king said, Remain in Jericho until your beard has grown, then you shall return.

⁶And the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves odious to David; and Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver in order to hire to themselves chariots and horsemen from Syria of Naharaim and Syria of Maachah and from Zobah. ⁷And they hired thirty-two thousand chariots to themselves, and the king of Maachah and his people. And they came in and pitched before Medeba; and the Ammonites had gathered out of their cities and had come to the battle. ⁶And David heard, and sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. ⁹And the Ammonites came out and set the battle in order at the entrance to the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰And Joab saw that the face of the battle was against him before and behind; and he chose out all the choice ones in Israel, and set in order to meet Syria; ¹¹and the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai; and they set in order to meet the sons of Ammon. ¹²And he said, If Syria is stronger than I, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³Be strong, and we shall strengthen ourselves, for our people and for the cities of our God; and Jehovah will do that which is good in His eyes. ¹⁴And Joab and the people with him drew near before Syria to do battle; and they fled before him. ¹⁵And the Ammonites saw that Syria had fled, and they ran away, they also, from before his brother Abishai, and went into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem.

¹⁶And Syria saw that they had been stricken before Israel, and sent messengers and brought out Syria that was beyond the river; and Shophach, Hadarezer's army commander, was before them. ¹⁷And it was told to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan, and came to them and set in order against them; yea, David set the battle in order to meet Syria, and they fought with him; ¹⁸and Syria fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand charioteers of Syria, and forty thousand footmen, and he killed Shophach, the army commander. ¹⁹And the servants of Hadarezer saw that they had been stricken before Israel, and they made peace with David and served him; and Syria was not willing to help the Ammonites any more.

And it happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that Joab led out the power of the army and wasted the country of the Ammonites, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it. ²And David took the crown of their king from his head, and found it a talent of gold in weight, and a precious stone in it; and it was set on David's head. And he also brought out the plunder of the city, a very great amount. ³And he brought out the people in it; and they sawed with saws, and with sharp tools of iron, and with the axes. And so David did to all the cities of the Ammonites. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴And it happened after this, that there stood a battle again with the Philistines in Gezer; then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai of the children of the giant, and they were humbled. ⁵And there was a battle again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the wood of whose spear was like the weavers' beam. ⁶And there was a battle again in Gath; and a man of stature was there, and his fingers and toes were six and six, twenty-four; and also he had been born to the giant. ⁷And he cursed Israel. And Jonathan the son of Shimea, the brother of David, killed him. ⁸These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

¹And Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel. ²And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring to me, and I will know their number. ³And Joab said, May Jehovah add to His people as if they were a hundred times; my lord, O king, are they not all of them servants to my lord? Why does my lord desire this? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel? ⁴But the word of the king was heavy against Joab; and Joab went out and went up and down all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

⁵And Joab gave the tally of the census of the people to David; and all Israel was a million and one hundred thousand men that drew the sword; and Judah was four hundred and seventy thousand, each drawing sword. ⁶And Levi and Benjamin he did not number among them, for the word of the king was loathsome to Joab. ⁷And it was evil in the eyes of God as to this thing, and He struck Israel. ⁸And David said to God, I have sinned exceedingly in that I have done this thing; and now, I pray You to cause the iniquity of Your servant to pass away, for I have acted very foolishly.

⁹And Jehovah spoke to Gad, the seer of David, saying, ¹⁰Go; and you shall speak to David, saying, So says Jehovah, I am extending to you three things; choose one of these for yourself, and I will do for you. ¹¹And Gad came to David and said to him, So says Jehovah, Choose for yourself: ¹²either for three years of famine, or three months to be wasted before your adversaries, even to be overtaken by the sword of your enemies; or the sword of Jehovah three days, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Jehovah destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. And now, consider what answer I shall return to Him that sent me. ¹³And David said to Gad, I am in a great distress; now let me fall into the hand of Jehovah, for His mercies are very many; but do not let me fall into the hand of man.

¹⁴And Jehovah sent a pestilence into Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; and as he was destroying, Jehovah saw, and repented as to the evil, and said to the destroying angel, Enough! Now stay your hand. And the angel of Jehovah stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of Jehovah standing between the earth and the heavens, and his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem; and David and the elders fell on their faces, covered with sackcloth. ¹⁷And David said to God, Was it not I, I who said to number the people? Yea, it was I who sinned, and truly have done evil; and these, the flock, what have they done? O Jehovah, my God, I pray You, let Your hand be on me and on my father's house, and not on Your people, to be plagued.

¹⁸And the angel of Jehovah spoke to Gad, saying to David, Surely David shall go up to raise an altar to Jehovah in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹And David went up by the word of Gad, that which he spoke in the name of Jehovah. ²⁰And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons that were with him hid themselves; and Ornan was threshing wheat. ²¹And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor and bowed down to David, with his face to the ground. ²²And David said to Ornan, Give me the site of the threshing-floor, and I will build an altar to Jehovah in it; for full silver give it to me, and the plague will be restrained from the people. ²³And Ornan said to David, Take it for yourself, and my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes; see, I have given the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the food offering; I give it all. ²⁴And king David said to Ornan, No, for I will surely buy it for full silver, for I will not lift up what is yours to Jehovah, so as to offer a burnt offering without cost. ²⁵And David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold in weight for the place. ²⁶And David built an altar there to Jehovah, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called to Jehovah; and He answered him with fire from the heavens on the altar of the burnt offering. ²⁷And Jehovah commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

²⁸At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹And the tabernacle of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that time in the high place in Gibeon; ³⁰and David was not able to go before it to seek God, for he was terrified from the face of the angel of Jehovah.

¹And David said, This is the house of Jehovah God, and this altar for burnt offering for Israel. ²And David commanded the aliens who were in the land of Israel to be gathered, and appointed masons to cut stones to build the house of God. ³And David prepared iron in abundance for nails, for leaves of the gates, and for couplings; and very much bronze; there was no weighing it. ⁴And also cedar trees without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought in cedar trees in abundance to David. ⁵And David said, My son Solomon is a youth and tender, and the house to be built to Jehovah is to be made great, to a height, for a name and for beauty to all the land; I pray You, let me prepare for it. And David prepared in abundance before his death.

⁶And he called for his son Solomon, and commanded him to build a house to Jehovah, the God of Israel. ⁷And David said to his son Solomon, As for me, it has been in my heart to build a house to the name of Jehovah my God; ⁸but the word of Jehovah was against me, saying, You have shed blood in abundance, and you have made great wars; you shall not build a house to My name, for you have shed much blood to the earth before Me. ⁹Behold, a son shall be born to you; he shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around, for Solomon shall be his name; and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days; ¹⁰he shall build a house to My name, and he shall be a son to Me, and I a Father to him; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever. ¹¹Now, my son, may Jehovah be with you, and may you prosper and build the house of Jehovah your God, as he spoke concerning you. ¹²Only, may Jehovah give wisdom and understanding to you, and command you as to Israel, even to keep the law of Jehovah your God; ¹³then you shall prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the judgments that Jehovah commanded Moses as to Israel; be strong and courageous; do not fear, nor be cast down. ¹⁴And, behold, in my affliction I have prepared a hundred thousand gold talents for the house of Jehovah, and a million talents of silver; and there is no weighing of the bronze and iron, for it is in abundance; and I have prepared wood and stones, and you shall add to them. ¹⁵And there are many workmen with you, masons and carvers in stone, and of wood, and every skillful man for every work. ¹⁶No number is to the gold, and to the silver, and to the bronze, and to the iron; rise up and act, for Jehovah is with you. ¹⁷And David commanded all the rulers of Israel to give help to his son Solomon: ¹⁸Is not Jehovah your God with you? Yea, He has given you rest all around, for He has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and has subdued the land before Jehovah and before His people. ¹⁹Now give your heart and your soul to seek to Jehovah your God and rise up and build the sanctuary of Jehovah God, to bring in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and the holy vessels of God, to the house that is to be built in the name of Jehovah.

¹And David was old, and satisfied with days, and caused his son Solomon to reign over Israel. ²And gathered all Israel's rulers, and the priests, and the Levites. ³And the Levites were counted from a son of thirty years and upward; and their number by their heads, as to men, thirty-eight thousand. ⁴Of these, twenty-four thousand to be overseers over the work of the house of Jehovah; and six thousand were officers and judges; ⁵and four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand giving praise to Jehovah with instruments which I made for praising. ⁶And David divided them into divisions; of the sons of Levi, of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ⁷Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. ⁸The sons of Ladan were Jehiel the head, and Zetham, and Joel, three. ⁹The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers of Ladan. ¹⁰And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush and Beriah; these four the sons of Shimei. ¹¹And Jahath was the head and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons. And they were in one roster, a father's house. ¹²The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. ¹³The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was separated so that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons perpetually to burn incense before Jehovah, to minister to Him and to bless in His name perpetually. ¹⁴Now as to Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer. ¹⁶Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the head. ¹⁷And the sons of Eliezer were Rehabiah the head. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. ¹⁸Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the head. ¹⁹Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth. ²⁰Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesiah the second. ²¹Mushi and Mahli were the sons of Merari — the sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. ²²And Eleazar died. And he had no sons, but he had daughters. And their brothers, the sons of Kish, took them. ²³The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. ²⁴*These were* the sons of Levi to the house of their fathers, the heads of the fathers, to their rosters, by number of names, by their heads, who did the work for the service of Jehovah's house, from the son of twenty years and over. ²⁵For David said, Jehovah God of Israel has given rest to His people so that they may dwell in Jerusalem perpetually, ²⁶and also to the Levites, there was no need to carry the tabernacle, nor all its vessels for its service. ²⁷For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from a son of twenty years and above, ²⁸because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Jehovah, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of God's house, ²⁹both for the Bread of Arrangement, and for the fine flour for food offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the pan, and for what is soaked in oil, and for every measure and size, ³⁰and to stand every morning to thank and praise Jehovah, and likewise at evening. ³¹And they were to offer all burnt sacrifices to Jehovah in the sabbath, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded to them, continually before the face of Jehovah — ³²and that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of Aaron sons, their brothers, in the service of the house of Jehovah.

¹And these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar were priests.

⁷And the first lot came out for Jehoiairib, the second to Jedaiah, ⁸the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, ¹⁰the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, ¹¹the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, ¹²the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshshebeab, ¹⁴the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Apses, ¹⁶the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, ¹⁷the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, ¹⁸the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

¹⁹*These were* the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of Jehovah, according to their ordinance, to Aaron their father, as Jehovah God of Israel had commanded him. ²⁰And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. ²¹For Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. ²²Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. ²³And the sons of Hebron were Jeriah. Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. ²⁴Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah. ²⁵Of the sons of Michah, Shamir. ²⁶The brother of Michah was Isshiah. ²⁷Of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah. ²⁸The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno. ²⁷The sons of Merari by Jaaziah: Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸Of Mahli, Eleazar, and no sons were to him. ²⁹Of Kish, Jerahmeel the son of Kish. ³⁰The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their father's house. ³¹And they also made fall lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did before the face of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers, for the priests and Levites, even the head of the fathers, as well as his younger brother.

¹And David and the commanders of the army separated some the service of the sons of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, who were prophets with harps, with lyres and with cymbals. And their number, of the workmen according to their service, was: ²of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Ashareliah, the sons of Asaph at the hands of Asaph, who prophesied at the hands of the king. ³Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun who prophesied with the lyre to give thanks and to praise Jehovah. ⁴Of Heman were the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. ⁵All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

⁶All these were at the hands of their father for song in the house of Jehovah, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God, at the hands of the king: Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman. ⁷So was their number, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to Jehovah, all that were skillful: two hundred and eighty-eight. ⁸And they made fall lots for duty, as in the rule, as the small, so the great, the teacher with the pupil. ⁹And the first lot came out for Asaph, to Joseph: Gedeliah, he was the second; and his brothers and sons, twelve men. ¹⁰The third was Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹¹The fourth was to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹²The fifth was to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹³The sixth was to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹⁴The seventh was to Jeshareliah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹⁵The eighth was to Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹⁶The ninth was to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹⁷The tenth was to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ¹⁸Eleventh was Azareel, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

¹⁹The twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²⁰The thirteenth to Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²¹The fourteenth to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²²The fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²³The sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²⁴The seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²⁵The eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

²⁶The nineteenth to Malothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²⁷The twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ²⁸The twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his brothers. ²⁹The twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ³⁰The twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve. ³¹The twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

¹For the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asah. ²And to Meshelemiah were sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jethniel the fourth, ³Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. ⁴And to Obed-edom were sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth — for God blessed him. ⁶Also sons were born to Shemaiah, who ruled for the house of their father; for they were mighty warriors. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers, mighty sons, were Elihu and Semachiah. ⁸All these were the sons of Obed-edom. They and their sons and their brothers were mighty men with strength for service. Sixty-two were of Obed-edom. ⁹And to Meshelemiah were sons and brothers, mighty sons: eighteen. ¹⁰Also to Hosah, of the sons of Merari, were sons: Simri the head, though not the firstborn, yet his father made him the head; ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah: thirteen. ¹²To these were the divisions of the gatekeepers for the heads of the men, having charges like their brothers, to minister in the house of Jehovah.

¹³And he made fall lots; as the small, as the great, for the house of their fathers, for gate and gate. ¹⁴And the lot eastward fell to Shelamiah. And for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, they made fall lots; and his lot came out northward; ¹⁵and to Obed-edom, southward; and to his sons the house of the stores; ¹⁶to Shuppim and Hosah westward, with the gate of Shellecheth, going up by the highway, guard corresponding to guard. ¹⁷Eastward were six Levites, northward, four a day; southward, four a day, and toward the storehouse, two by two. ¹⁸At the Parbar, westward, four at the highway; two at the Parbar. ¹⁹These are the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Kore and among the sons of Merari. ²⁰And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and to the treasures of the dedicated things. ²¹The sons of Ladan, sons of the Gershonites; heads of the fathers of Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli; ²²the sons of Jehieli: Zetham, and his brother Joel, who were over the treasures of the house of Jehovah, ²³for the Amramites, for the Izharites, for the Hebronites, for the Uzzielites. ²⁴And Shebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses was ruler over the treasures. ²⁵And his brothers by Eliezer were his son Rehabiah, and his son Jeshaiiah, and his son Joram, and his son Zichri, and his son Shelomith. ²⁶Shelomith, he and his brothers over all the treasures of the holy things that David the king, and the heads of the fathers, the commanders over thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army had dedicated. ²⁷They dedicated from the battles and the plunder, to maintain the house of Jehovah, ²⁸and all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, all who dedicated, was at the hand of Shelomith and his brothers.

²⁹Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and for judges. ³⁰Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his brothers, sons of might; a thousand and seven hundred over the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the work of Jehovah, and for the king's service. ³¹Of Hebron: Jerijah the head of the Hebronites, for his generations to his fathers. In the fortieth year of David's reign, they were sought, and were found among them mighty warriors at Jazer of Gilead. ³²And his brothers, mighty sons, were two thousand, seven hundred heads of the fathers. And king David made them overseers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. For every matter of God and matter of the king.

¹And the sons of Israel, according to their number, the heads of the fathers, and commanders of thousands and hundreds, and their scribes who served the king in every matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month for all the months of the year—the one division had twenty-four thousand.

²Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel. And over his division, twenty-four thousand.

³The head of all the commanders of the army for the first month was of the sons of Perez. ⁴And over the division of the second month was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his division, Mikloth was also the ruler; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁵The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a head priest; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁶He was that Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and above the thirty; and in his division was his son Ammizabad. The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

⁹The fifth for the fifth month was chief Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ⁹The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁰The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹¹The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarchites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹²The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

¹⁴The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁵The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai of Netopha, of Othniel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

¹⁶And over the tribes of Israel, the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri. Shephatiah the son of Maachah was over the Simeonites. ¹⁷Hashabiah the son of Kemuel was over the Levites; Zadok over the Aaronites. ¹⁸Elihu, of the brothers of David, was over Judah. Omri the son of Michael was over Issachar. ¹⁹Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah was over Zebulun. Jerimoth the son of Azriel was over Naphtali. ²⁰Hoshea the son of Azaziah was over the sons of Ephraim. Joel the son of Pedaiah was over the half tribe of Manasseh. ²¹Iddo the son of Zechariah was over the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead. Jaasiel the son of Abner was over Benjamin. ²²Azareel the son of Jeroham was over Dan. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³But David did not take the number of them from the son of twenty years and under, because Jehovah had said He would increase Israel like the stars of the heavens. ²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he did not finish. And wrath was on Israel for this. And the number did not go up in the account of the Matters of the Days of king David.

²⁵And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel. And Jehonathan the son of Uziah was over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the strongholds. ²⁶Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for working the ground. ²⁷Shimei of Ramah was over the vineyards. Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars. ²⁸And Baal-hanan of Geder was over the olive trees and sycamore trees in the lowlands. And Joash was over the oil cellars. ²⁹And Shitrai of Sharon was over the herds that fed in Sharon. And Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds in the valleys. ³⁰And Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels. And Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the asses. ³¹And Jaziz the Hagerite was over the flocks. All these were the rulers of the possessions which king David had.

³²And Jonathan, David's uncle, was an adviser, a wise man and a scribe. And Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. ³³And Ahithophel was the king's counselor. And Hushai the Archite was the king's companion. ³⁴And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

¹And David assembled all the chiefs of Israel; the chiefs of the tribes, and chiefs of the divisions who were serving the king, and commanders of the thousands, and commanders of the hundreds, and heads of all property and possessions of the king, and of his sons, with the eunuchs and the mighty ones, even to every mighty one of valor, to Jerusalem. ²And David the king rose up on his feet and said, Hear me, my brothers and my people. With my heart I desired to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and for the footstool of our God. And I made preparations to build. ³But God said to me, You shall not build a house to My name, for you are a man of battles, and you have shed blood. ⁴But Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all my father's house to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as the ruler, and my father's house in the house of Judah; and among the sons of my father He was pleased to make me king over all Israel. ⁵And of all my sons, for Jehovah has given me many sons, He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Jehovah, over Israel. ⁶And He said to me, Your son Solomon shall build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him as a son to Me, and I surely will be a Father to him. ⁷And I have make stand his kingdom forever, if he will be strong to do My commandments and My ordinances, as at this day. ⁸And now in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of Jehovah, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of Jehovah your God; that you may possess this good land, and cause your sons to inherit after you forever.

⁹And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind. For Jehovah searches out all hearts, and He understands every imagination of thoughts. If you shall seek Him, He shall be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever. ¹⁰Watch, now, for Jehovah has chosen you to build a house for a sanctuary. Be strong and act.

¹¹And David gave his son Solomon the pattern of the porch, and of its houses, and of its treasuries, and of its upper rooms, and of its innermost rooms, and of the house of the mercy-seat; ¹²and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of Jehovah, and for all the rooms all around, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the things dedicated; ¹³and for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Jehovah; and for all the vessels of service of the house of Jehovah; ¹⁴even gold by weight for things of gold, for all vessels of service and service; for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of service and service; ¹⁵and by weight, for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps. Also for the lampstands of silver by weight, with the weight of each lampstand, and its lamps, according to the service of each lampstand. ¹⁶And he gave by weight gold for the tables of the bread of arrangement, for table; and table; silver for the tables of silver; ¹⁷and pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups; and for the golden basins by weight for every basin; for the silver basins by weight for basin and basin; ¹⁸and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight, and for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubs of gold, spreading out and covering over the ark of the covenant of Jehovah.

¹⁹All was in writing from the hand of Jehovah. He caused me to understand all the work of the pattern. ²⁰And David said to his son Solomon, Be strong and brave, and act. Do not fear, nor be afraid, for Jehovah God, my God, shall be with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work of the service of the house of Jehovah. ²¹And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites shall be for all the service of the house of God. And with you in all work shall be every willing one with wisdom, for every service. And the rulers and all the people shall be according to all your words.

¹And David the king said to all the congregation, My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and tender. And the work is great, for the magnificent house is not for man, but for Jehovah God. ²And with all my power I have prepared for the house of my God, the gold for things of gold, and the silver for silver, and the bronze for bronze, the iron for iron things, and the wood for wood, onyx stones, and settings, and also stones of antimony and of different colors, and every precious stone, and stones of alabaster, in abundance. ³And also, because I delighted in the house of my God, I have treasure of gold and silver which I give for the house of my God, even more than all that I have prepared for the house of the sanctuary: ⁴three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir; and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; ⁵even gold for things of gold, and silver for silver, and for all the work of the hands of the skilled workers. And who is he that will willingly offer to consecrate his hand today to Jehovah?

⁶And the chiefs of the fathers, and the chiefs of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of the thousands, and the hundreds, even the chiefs of the king's work, offered willingly, ⁷and gave for the service of the house of God, of gold, five thousand talents, and a myriad of darics; and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. ⁸And he who had stones gave them to the treasury of the house of Jehovah, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹And the people rejoiced because of their willing offering, for they offered willingly to Jehovah with a perfect heart; and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰And David blessed Jehovah before the eyes of all the congregation; and David said, Blessed are You, O Jehovah, the God of Israel, our father, for ever and ever. ¹¹To you, O Jehovah, shall be the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all in the heavens and in the earth belongs to You, O Jehovah; Yours is the kingdom, and You lift up Yourself to all as Head; ¹²and the riches, and the honor come from before You, and You rule over all; and in Your hand is power and might; and it is in Your hand to make great, and to give strength to all. ¹³And now, our God, we are giving thanks to You, and giving praise to Your glorious name; ¹⁴yea, for who am I, and who my people, that we should be able to offer willingly in this way? For all is of You, and we have given to You out of Your hand; ¹⁵for we are strangers before You, and settlers, like all our fathers; our days on the land are like a shadow, and there is none abiding. ¹⁶O Jehovah our God, all this store that we have prepared to build a house to You, for Your holy name, is out of Your hand, and all is of You. ¹⁷And I know, my God, that You try the heart and are pleased with uprightness; I, in the uprightness of my heart, have offered willingly all these things; and now I have watched with joy Your people who are present here offering willingly to You. ¹⁸Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever for the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart toward You; ¹⁹and give a perfect heart to my son Solomon, to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do all, even to build this magnificent house, for which I have prepared.

²⁰And David said to all the congregation, Now bless Jehovah your God. And all the congregation blessed Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and worshiped Jehovah, and bowed to the king. ²¹And they sacrificed sacrifices to Jehovah, and offered burnt offerings to Jehovah, on the next day after that day: a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in great plenty for all Israel. ²²And they ate and drank before Jehovah on that day with great joy, and made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and anointed him before Jehovah as ruler, and Zadok as priest.

²⁶And David the son of Jesse had reigned over all Israel; ²⁷and the days that he reigned over Israel were forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three in Jerusalem; ²⁸and he died in a good old age, satisfied with days, riches, and honor. And his son Solomon reigned in his place. ²⁹And the acts of David the king, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, ³⁰with all his reign and his might, and the times that passed over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the lands.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

¹And Solomon the son of David made himself strong over his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him, and made him exceedingly great. ²And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of the thousands, and of the hundreds, and to judges, and to every honorable one of all Israel, heads of the fathers; ³and they went, Solomon and all the congregation with him, to the high place that was in Gibeon, for there was God's tabernacle of the congregation that Moses, the servant of Jehovah, had made in the wilderness. ⁴But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim, when David made ready for it, for he had stretched out a tent for it in Jerusalem; ⁵and the altar of bronze that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Solomon and the congregation sought to it. ⁶And Solomon went up there, on the bronze altar, before Jehovah, that was at the the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered on it a thousand burnt offerings.

⁷In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, Ask what I shall give to you. ⁸And Solomon said to God, You have acted with great kindness with my father David, and have made me king in his place. ⁹Now, O Jehovah God, Your word with my father David is confirmed, for You have made me to reign over a people as many as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Now give to me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this Your great people? ¹¹And God said to Solomon, Because this has been in your heart, that you have not asked riches, treasures, and honor, and the life of those who hate you, and also have not asked many days, but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may judge My people, over whom I have made you reign; ¹²the wisdom and the knowledge are given to you, and riches, and treasures, and honor I will give to you, such as none of the kings who were before you has had, and after you it shall not be so.

¹³And Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place in Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel. ¹⁴And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand, four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the chariot-cities, and with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the king made the silver and the gold in Jerusalem as stones, and he made the cedars as sycamores that are in the low country for abundance. ¹⁶And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and out of Kue, the king's merchants took them from Kue at a price; ¹⁷and they came up and brought out from Egypt a chariot for six hundred silver pieces, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their hand.

¹And Solomon said to build a house for the name of Jehovah, and a house for his kingdom; ²And Solomon numbered seventy thousand men, bearers of burden, and eighty thousand men hewing in the mountains; and overseers over them, three thousand, six hundred.

³And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As you dealt with my father David, and sent him cedars to build a house to live in — ⁴behold, I am building a house to the name of Jehovah my God, to dedicate to Him, to burn incense of sweet spices before Him, and for the continual bread of arrangement, and for burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbath, and on the new moons, and at the set feasts of Jehovah our God — this shall be upon Israel forever. ⁵And the house which I am building shall be great, for our God is greater than all gods. ⁶But who has strength to enclose a house for Him, since the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? And who am I that I should build Him a house, except to offer before Him? ⁷And now, send to me a skilled man to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and violet, and knowing how to engrave all kinds of engravings with the skilled men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom my father David has prepared. ⁸And send to me cedar trees, firs, and aliums from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut down the trees of Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with your servants, ⁹even to prepare trees in abundance for me, for the house that I am building will be great and wonderful. ¹⁰And behold, I shall give beaten wheat to the hewers, to those cutting down the trees, to your servants, twenty thousand kors of beaten wheat and twenty thousand kors of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

¹¹And Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, and sent to Solomon, Because Jehovah loves His people, He has given you as king over them. ¹²And Hiram said, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who has made the heavens and the earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, knowing discretion and understanding, who will build a house for Jehovah, and a house for his kingdom. ¹³And now I have sent a skilled man having understanding, of Hiram my father— ¹⁴the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father a man of Tyre — who knows how to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in wood, in purple, and violet, and in fine linen, and in crimson, and to engrave any engraving, and to invent any device that is given to him, with your skilled men, and the skilled men of my lord David, your father. ¹⁵And now the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, as my lord said, let him send to his servants. ¹⁶And we will certainly cut trees out of Lebanon, according to all your need, and bring them to you by floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall take them up to Jerusalem.

¹⁷And Solomon numbered all the men, the strangers who were in the land of Israel, according to the numbering with which his father David numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty-three thousand, six hundred; ¹⁸and he made seventy thousand of them burden-bearers, and eighty thousand hewers in the mountain, and three thousand, six hundred to oversee to cause the people to work.

¹And Solomon began to build the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, in Mount Moriah, where He appeared to his father David, in the place that David had prepared, in the grain-floor of Oman the Jebusite; ²and he began to build on the second, in the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

³And these are the foundations Solomon laid, to build the house of God: the length by cubits according to the ancient measure, sixty cubits; and the breadth twenty cubits. ⁴As to the porch on the front, the length, according to the breadth of the house in front, was twenty cubits, and the height a hundred and twenty; and he overlaid it inside with pure gold. ⁵And the greater house he covered with cypress wood, and he covered it with good gold, and caused to go on it palms and chains. ⁶And he overlaid the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim. ⁷And he covered the house, the beams, the threshold, and the walls, and its doors with gold; and engraved cherubs on the walls. ⁸And he built the most holy house: its length was by the front, of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he covered it with fine gold, to six hundred talents; ⁹and the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold, and he covered the upper rooms with gold. ¹⁰And in the most holy house he made two cherubs of image work, and he overlaid them with gold. ¹¹And the wings of the cherubs, their length was twenty cubits: the wing of the one was five cubits, touching the wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub; ¹²and the wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub. ¹³The wings of these cherubs spread out twenty cubits, and they were standing on their feet and their faces were inward.

¹⁴And he made the veil of violet, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and caused to go on it cherubs. ¹⁵And at the front of the house, he made two pillars thirty-five cubits high, and the capitals on their tops were five cubits. ¹⁶And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the capitals of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains. ¹⁷And he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right, and one on the left, and called the name of that on the right Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

¹And he made an altar of bronze, its length twenty cubits and its breadth twenty cubits, and its height ten cubits. ²And he made the molten sea of ten cubits from its brim to its brim, circular all around; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it all around. ³And under it was the shape of oxen, under it and all around it for ten cubits, compassing the sea all around. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast. ⁴It stood on twelve oxen, three facing the north, and three facing the west, and three facing the south, and three facing the east; and the sea was upon them above, and all their hinder parts inside. ⁵And its thickness was a hand-breadth, and its lip like the work of the lip of a cup, like a lily blossom. It received and held three thousand baths.

⁹And he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court; and he overlaid their doors with bronze. ¹⁰And he placed the sea on the right side eastward, across from the south. ¹¹And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon in the house of God: ¹²the two pillars, and the bowls, and the capitals on the tops of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars; ¹³and the pomegranates — four hundred to the two networks, two rows of pomegranates to the one network — to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the face of the pillars. ¹⁴He also made the bases; and he made lavers on the bases; ¹⁵the one sea, and twelve oxen under it, ¹⁶and the pots, and the shovels, and the forks, and all their vessels did his master Hiram make for king Solomon for the house of Jehovah, of burnished bronze. ¹⁷In the plain of Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah. ¹⁸And Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance, so that the weight of the bronze could not be searched out.

¹⁹And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, and the golden altar, and the tables on which the Bread of the Presence rested; ²⁰and the lampstands, and their lamps, for their burning was according to the ordinance, before the holy place, of refined gold; ²¹and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold — it was perfect gold; ²²and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the entrance to the house, its innermost doors to the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house to the temple, of gold.

¹And all the work that Solomon made for the house of Jehovah was finished. And Solomon brought in the dedicated things of his father David, and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels he had put among the treasures of the house of God.

²Then Solomon gathered the elders of of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, rulers of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the city of David — it is Zion. ³And all the men of Israel were gathered to the king in the feast; it was the seventh month. ⁴And all the elders of Israel came in, and the Levites lifted up the ark, ⁵and they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy utensils that were in the tabernacle; the Levitical priests brought them up. ⁶And king Solomon and all the company of Israel who were assembled to him before the ark were sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁷And the priest brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, to the sanctuary of the house, to the Holy of Holies, to the place of the wings of the cherubs; ⁸and the cherubs spread out wings over the place under the ark, and the cherubs covered the ark and its staves from above; ⁹and so long were the staves, that the heads of the staves could be seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside. And there it is to this day. ¹⁰Nothing was in the ark but the two tablets that Moses gave in Horeb, where Jehovah cut a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out from Egypt.

¹¹And it happened as the priests were going from the sanctuary — for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves without observing divisions, ¹²and the Levitical singers to all of them, to Asaph, to Heman, to Jeduthun, and to their sons and to their brothers, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, and with harps and lyres, were standing on the east of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests blowing with trumpets — ¹³and they were as one to the trumpeters, and to the singers, to cause one sound to be heard to praise and to thank Jehovah. And when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Jehovah, saying, For He is good; for his mercy endures forever; and a cloud filled the house, the house of Jehovah; ¹⁴so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of God.

¹Then Solomon spoke, Jehovah has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. ²And I have surely built an exalted house for You, and a place for You to dwell forever.

³And the king turned his face and blessed all the congregation of Israel. And all the congregation of Israel was standing. ⁴And he said, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who has spoken with His mouth to my father David, and with His hands has fulfilled it, saying, ⁵From the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of any of the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name to be there, and I have not chosen a man to be leader over My people Israel. ⁶But I have chosen Jerusalem for My name to be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel. ⁷And it was in the heart of my father to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ⁸And Jehovah said to my father David, Because it has been in your heart to build a house for My name, you have done well that it has been in your heart, ⁹but you shall not build the house, for your son who comes forth out of your loins, he shall build the house for My name. ¹⁰And Jehovah has lifted up His word that He spoke, for I have risen up in the place of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah spoke. And I have built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹¹And I have placed the ark there, where the covenant of Jehovah is, that He made with the sons of Israel.

¹²And he stood before the altar of Jehovah, before the congregation of Israel, and spread out his palms — ¹³for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, and put it in the middle of the court, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high; and he stood on it, and knelt on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands toward Heaven — ¹⁴and said, O Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens and in the earth, keeping covenant and mercy with Your servants, who walk before You with all their hearts; ¹⁵Who has kept with Your servant David, my father, that which You spoke to him; yea, You spoke with Your mouth, and You have fulfilled with Your hand, as at this day. ¹⁶And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David, my father, that which You spoke to him, saying, There shall not be cut off to you a man from before Me, sitting on the throne of Israel. Only, if your sons watch their way to walk in My law, as you have walked before Me. ¹⁷And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, let Your word be verified, which you spoke to Your servant David. ¹⁸For is it true that God shall dwell with men on the earth? Behold, the heavens, and the heaven of heavens, do not contain You. How much less this house that I have built! ¹⁹And You have turned toward the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer that Your servant is praying before You; ²⁰for Your eyes shall be open toward this house by day and by night, toward the place that You have said to put Your name there, to listen to the prayer that Your servant prays toward this place. ²¹And You shall listen to the supplications of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, that they pray toward this place; and You shall hear from Your place of dwelling, from Heaven, and shall hear and forgive.

²²If a man shall sin against his neighbor, and he shall lift up an oath on him, to cause him to swear, and he shall come and swear before Your altar in this house, ²³You shall hear from Heaven, and shall act, and shall judge Your servants, to repay the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and to justify the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

²⁴And if Your people Israel shall be stricken before an enemy, because they have sinned against You; and they shall return and confess Your name, and shall pray and make supplication before You in this house, ²⁵then You shall hear from Heaven, and shall forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and shall cause them to return to the land which You have given to them and to their fathers.

²⁶When the heavens shall be shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You, and they shall pray toward this place, and confess Your name, turning back from their sin because You have afflicted them, ²⁷then You shall hear from Heaven, and shall forgive the sin of

Your servants, and of Your people Israel, because You have taught them the good way in which they should walk, and have given rain on Your land that You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

²⁸When there shall be famine in the land, when there is pestilence, blasting, or mildew; when there are locusts or ravagers; when its enemies have distressed it in the land, in its gates, with any plague and any sickness; ²⁹whatever prayer, whatever supplication shall be made for any man, and for all Your people Israel, when they know each one his own plague, and his own grief, and he shall spread out his palms toward this house; ³⁰then You shall hear from Heaven, Your dwelling-place, and shall forgive, and shall give to each according to all his ways, because You know his heart; for You, You only, have known the heart of the sons of men; ³¹so that they shall fear You, to walk in Your ways all the days that they shall live on the face of the land that You have given to our fathers.

³²And, also, to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, and he has come from a distant land for Your great name's sake, and Your mighty hand, and Your stretched out arm; and they shall come and pray toward this house, ³³then You shall hear from Heaven, from Your dwelling-place, and shall do according to all that the stranger calls to You; so that all the people of the earth shall know Your name, so as to fear You, as Your people Israel, and to know that Your name is called on this house that I have built.

³⁴When Your people shall go out to battle against its enemies in the way that You shall send them, and they shall pray to You toward this city that You have chosen, and the house that I have built for Your name; ³⁵then You shall hear from Heaven their prayer and their supplication, and shall maintain their cause. ³⁶When they sin against You — for there is not a man who does not sin — and You shall be angry with them and shall give them up before an enemy, and their captors shall take them captive, to a land distant or near; ³⁷and they shall return to their heart in the land from which they have been taken captive, and shall turn back and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have acted perversely and have done wickedly; ³⁸yea, they shall turn back to You with all their heart, and with all soul, in the land of their captivity, where they have been taken captive, and they shall pray toward their land that You have given to their fathers, and toward the city that You have chosen and toward the house that I have built for Your name; ³⁹then You shall hear from Heaven, from Your dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and shall maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰Now, My God, I beseech You, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer of this place; ⁴¹and now, O Jehovah God, rise to Your rest; You, and the ark of Your strength; O Jehovah God, Your priests are clothed with salvation, and Your saints rejoice in goodness; ⁴²O Jehovah God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember the good deeds of Your servant David.

¹And when Solomon finished praying, then the fire came down from Heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the house; ²and the priests were not able to go into the house of Jehovah, because the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah. ³And all the sons of Israel were watching, when the fire came down, and the glory of Jehovah was on the house; and they bowed their faces to the earth, on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to Jehovah: for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

praised David by their hand; and the priests were blowing trumpets before them, and all Israel was standing. ⁷And Solomon dedicated the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah; for he had offered there the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings; for the bronze altar that Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, and the food offering, and the fat.

⁸And Solomon at that time kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a great company, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt. ⁹And they made a solemn assembly on the eighth day, because they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. ¹⁰And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and glad of heart, for the goodness that Jehovah had done to David, and to Solomon, and to His people Israel. ¹¹And Solomon finished the house of Jehovah, and the king's house; and all that came to the heart of Solomon to do in the house of Jehovah, and in his own house, he was caused to prosper.

¹²And Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut up the heavens and there is no rain and if I command the locusts to consume the land, and if I send pestilence among My people, ¹⁴and My people, on whom My name is called, shall be humbled, and shall pray, and shall seek My face, and shall turn back from their evil ways, then I will surely hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. ¹⁵Now My eyes shall be open, and My ears attentive to the prayer of this place; ¹⁶and now I have chosen and sanctified this house for My name to be there forever; yea, My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually. ¹⁷And you, if you shall walk before Me as your father David walked, even to do according to all that I have commanded you, and shall keep My statutes and My judgments, ¹⁸then I shall establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with your father David, saying, There shall not be cut off a man to you who rules in Israel; ¹⁹and if you turn away, and you shall forsake My statutes and My commandments that I have placed before you, and shall go and serve other gods and shall bow yourselves to them, ²⁰then I shall pluck them up from off My land that I have given them, and this house that I have sanctified for My name I shall cast away from before My face, and shall give it for a proverb and a byword among all the nations. ²¹And this house that was on high shall be a wonder to everyone who passes by it, they shall shudder and say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land and to this house? ²²And they shall say, Because they have forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and have laid hold on other gods and have bowed themselves to them, and served them; for this He has brought on them all this evil.

¹And it happened, at the end of twenty years, Solomon built the house of Jehovah, and his own house. ²As to the cities that Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon had built them, and he caused the sons of Israel to live there. ³And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and prevailed over it. ⁴And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities that he built in Hamath. ⁵And he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the lower, as fortified cities, with walls, two-leaved doors, and bars; ⁶and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all the desire of Solomon that he wanted to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

⁷All the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel — ⁸*they were* of their sons who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not exterminated — Solomon caused them to go for forced labor to this day. ⁹And none of the sons of Israel did Solomon make slaves for his work, but they were men of war, and commanders of his officers, and commanders of his chariots, and his horsemen. ¹⁰And these were the commanders of the deputies king Solomon had, two hundred and fifty who were rulers among the people.

¹¹And Solomon had brought up Pharaoh's daughter from the city of David to the house that he had built for her. For he said, My wife shall not live in the house of David the king of Israel, for they are holy, to whom the ark of Jehovah has come.

¹²Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of Jehovah that he had built before the porch, ¹³even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the appointed feasts three times in the year, in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Booths. ¹⁴And according to the decree of his father David, he made stand the divisions of the priests over their service, and of the Levites over their charges, to praise and to minister before the priests, according to the duty of every day, and the gatekeepers in their courses at every gate, for so was the command of David the man of God. ¹⁵And they did not turn aside from the king's command as to the priests and the Levites in regard to any matter, and to the treasures. ¹⁶And all the work of Solomon was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of Jehovah, and until its completion. The house of Jehovah was finished.

¹⁷And Solomon went to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth on the seacoast, in the land of Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent ships to him by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. And they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought it to king Solomon.

¹And the queen of Sheba had heard of Solomon's fame. And she came to test Solomon with sharp questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels bearing spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones. And she came in to Solomon and spoke with him all that was in her heart. ²And Solomon told her all her matters; and there was nothing hidden from Solomon that he did not declare to her. ³And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, ⁴and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the standing of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings that he offered up in the house of Jehovah; and there was no more spirit in her.

⁵And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my land concerning your matters and concerning your wisdom is true. ⁶But I had given no credit to their words, until I had come and my eyes had seen. And, behold, there was not declared to me half of the abundance of your wisdom. You exceeded the report that I heard. ⁷O the happiness of your men, and the happiness of your servants, these who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom! ⁸May Jehovah your God be blessed, who has delighted in you, to put you on His throne to be king for Jehovah your God. In the love of your God toward Israel, to make it stand forever, He has put you over them as king, to do judgment and righteousness. ⁹And she gave to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great plenty, and precious stones. And there has not been any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

¹⁰And also the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought in gold from Ophir, brought in alnum trees and precious stones. ¹¹And the king fashioned the alnum trees into steps for the house of Jehovah, and for the king's house, and lyres and harps for singers. and there was none like these before in the land of Judah. ¹²And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire that she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.

¹³And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, ¹⁴besides that from the traders, and that the merchants were bringing in. And all the kings of Arabia, and the rulers of the land, were bringing in gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold; he put six hundred of beaten gold on the one target; ¹⁶and three hundred shields of beaten gold; he put three hundred of gold on the one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷And the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold; ¹⁸and six steps were to the throne, and a footstool of gold was fastened to the throne; and hands were on this side and on that, at the place of the sitting; and two lions were standing near the hands; ¹⁹and twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on this side and on that. There was not any such made for any kingdom.

²⁰And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon of refined gold. Silver was not counted for anything in the days of Solomon. ²¹For the ships of the king were going to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once in three years the ships came from Tarshish bearing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. ²²And king Solomon increased more than any of the kings of the earth for riches and wisdom. ²³And all the kings of the earth were seeking the face of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart. ²⁴And they were each bringing his present, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and garments, weapons, and spices, horses and mules, a rate year by year.

²⁵And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. And he put them in the chariot cities, and with the king in Jerusalem.

²⁶And he ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷And the king made silver in Jerusalem as the stones. And he made the cedars as the sycamores in the low country for abundance. ²⁸And they brought out horses from Egypt to Solomon, and from all the lands.

²⁹And the rest of the acts of Solomon, the first and the last, are they not written in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. ³¹And Solomon lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of his father David. And his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

¹And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ²And it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard, he being in Egypt because he had fled from the face of Solomon the king, Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³And they sent and called for him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴Your father made our yoke hard; and now lighten the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke that he put on us, and we shall serve you. ⁵And he said to them, Come again to me in three days; and the people left.

⁶And king Rehoboam consulted with the aged men who had stood before his father Solomon when he was alive, saying, How do you advise to answer this people a word? ⁷And they spoke to him, saying, If you will be good to this people, and will please them, and will speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever. ⁸But he left the counsel of the aged men who had advised him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, those standing before him. ⁹And he said to them, What do you advise that we shall answer this people that have spoken to me, saying, Lighten the yoke that your father put on us? ¹⁰And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, You shall say this to the people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and you lighten our yoke — this you shall say to them, My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father; ¹¹and now, my father laid a heavy yoke on you, and I will surely add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, and I with scorpions.

¹²And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king commanded, saying, Return to me on the third day. ¹³And the king answered them sharply, and king Rehoboam left the counsel of the aged men, ¹⁴and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will surely add to it; my father chastised you with whips, and I with scorpions. ¹⁵And the king did not listen to the people, for the revolution was from God, so that Jehovah might establish His word that He spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, and the people sent back to the king, saying, What part do we have in David? yea, there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each to your tents, O Israel! Now see to your house, David! And all Israel went to their tents. ¹⁷As to the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram who was over the forced labor. And the sons of Israel threw stones at him, and he died. And king Rehoboam was alerted to mount up into a chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

¹And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem and called up the house of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors, to fight with Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam. ²And the word of Jehovah came to She-maiah, a man of God, saying, ³Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon the king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴So says Jehovah, You shall not go up, nor fight with your brothers. Each return to his house, for this thing has come from Me. and they heard the words of Jehovah, and turned back from going against Jeroboam.

⁵And Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. ⁶And he built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, ⁷and Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, ⁸and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, ⁹and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, ¹⁰and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron. These were in Judah and in Benjamin as cities of defense. ¹¹And he made the strongholds stronger, and put commanders in them, and treasures of food and oil and wine. ¹²And he put in every city shields and spears, and made them exceedingly strong. And he had Judah and Benjamin.

¹³And the priests and the Levites in all Israel stationed themselves by him, out of all their territory. ¹⁴For the Levites had abandoned their pasture-land and their property. And they came to Judah and to Jerusalem; for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them out from acting as priests to Jehovah. ¹⁵And he made stand priests for himself for the high places, and for goats, and for the calves that he made. ¹⁶And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, those who gave their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah, the God of their fathers. ¹⁷And they made the kingdom of Judah stronger, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon stronger, for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

¹⁸And Rehoboam took a wife for himself, Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David; Abihail the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse. ¹⁹And she bore to him sons: Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham. ²⁰And after her, he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom, and she bore to him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines—for he had taken eighteen wives, and sixty concubines; and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. ²²And Rehoboam made stand Abijah the son of Maachah the head, as ruler among his brothers, in order to cause him to reign. ²³And he had understanding, and spread out all his sons to all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to all the cities of defense, and gave them provision in abundance. And he demanded a multitude of wives.

¹And it happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was settled, and when he was strong, he forsook the law of Jehovah, and all Israel with him.

²And it happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt came against Jerusalem—because they had acted slyly against Jehovah — ³with a thousand and two hundred chariots, and with sixty thousand horsemen. And there was no counting the people who came with him out of Egypt: Lubim, Sukkium, and Ethiopians. ⁴And he captured the cities of defense in Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

⁵And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who had gathered to Jerusalem from the face of Shishak. And he said to them, So says Jehovah, You have forsaken Me; and I also have forsaken you in the hand of Shishak. ⁶And the leaders of Israel and the king were humbled. And they said, Jehovah is righteous. ⁷And when Jehovah saw that they were humbled, the word of Jehovah was sent to Shemaiah, saying, They have been humbled. I will not destroy them, and I will give to them a little deliverance. And I will not pour out My fury on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸But they shall become his servants, and they shall know My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the lands. ⁹And Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house. He took all, and he took the golden shields that Solomon had made. ¹⁰And king Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and deposited them into the hand of the chiefs of the runners who kept the gate of the king's house. ¹¹And it happened, from the time the king went to the house of Jehovah, the runners came in and lifted them up, and brought them back to the guardroom. ¹²And when he was humbled, the wrath of Jehovah turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely. And also good things were found in Judah.

¹³And king Rehoboam made himself strong in Jerusalem, and reigned. For Rehoboam was a son of forty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen to put His name there, out of all the tribes of Israel. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did the evil, for he had not resolved in his heart to seek Jehovah. ¹⁵And the acts of Rehoboam, the first and the last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer as to genealogy? And the wars of Rehoboam and Jeroboam lasted all their days. ¹⁶And Rehoboam lay with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And his son Abijah reigned in his place.

⁴And Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim in the hills of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel. ⁵Do you not know that Jehovah the God of Israel has given the kingdom to David over Israel forever, to him and to his sons, a covenant of salt? ⁶And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Solomon's servant, the son of David has risen up and rebelled against his lord. ⁷And vain men gathered to him, sons of worthlessness, and they made themselves strong against Rehoboam the son of Solomon; and Rehoboam was a youth and tender of heart, and could not be strong against them. ⁸And now you think to be strong against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David. And you are a great host; yea, with you are calves of gold that Jeroboam has made as gods to you. ⁹Have you not thrown out the priests of Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made priests to yourselves like the peoples of the lands? Who ever comes to consecrate himself with a bullock, a son of the herd, and seven rams, even he becomes a priest to no-gods. ¹⁰As for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; yea, priests are serving Jehovah, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, in the work, ¹¹and are offering to Jehovah burnt offerings morning by morning, and evening by evening, and sweet incense, and the Bread of Arrangement on the pure table, and the golden lampstand and its lamps, to burn evening by evening. For we are keeping the charge of Jehovah our God. And surely you have forsaken Him. ¹²And, behold, God is with us at our head, and His priests, and the trumpets, the signal to sound for battle against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight with Jehovah, the God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper. ¹³But Jeroboam had made the ambush circle to come in behind them, and they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴And Judah turned. And, behold, the battle was against them before and behind. And they cried to Jehovah, and the priests were blowing with trumpets. ¹⁵And the men of Judah shouted. And it was, at the shouting of the men of Judah, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the sons of Israel fled from the face of Judah, and God gave them into their hand. ¹⁷And Abijah and his people struck them with a great blow, and five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell slain. ¹⁸And the sons of Israel were humbled at that time, and the sons of Judah were strong. For they leaned on Jehovah the God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured cities from him: Bethel and its villages, and Jeshanah and its villages, and Ephraim and its villages. ²⁰And Jeroboam did not regain power any more Abijah's days. And Jehovah struck him, and he died.

²¹And Abijah became mighty, and he took fourteen wives to himself. And he fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. ²²And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his words, are written in the inquiry of the prophet Iddo.

¹And Abijah lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Asa reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. ²And Asa did good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. ³And he removed the altars of the alien, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the Asherim. ⁴And he commanded Judah to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. ⁵And he removed the high places and the images out of all the cities of Judah. And the kingdom was quiet before him. ⁶And he built fenced cities in Judah, for the land had quiet. And there was no war with him in these years, because Jehovah had given him rest. ⁷And he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and walls around them, and towers, two-leaved gates, and bars, while the land is before us, because we have sought Jehovah our God. We have sought, and He has given rest to us all around. And they built and prospered. ⁸And Asa had an army bearing bucklers and spears, three hundred thousand out of Judah, and two hundred eighty thousand out of Benjamin, bearing shields and drawing bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

⁹And Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a thousand thousands, and three hundred chariots. And he came to Mareshah. ¹⁰And Asa went out before him, and they set the battle in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. ¹¹And Asa called to Jehovah his God, and said, O Jehovah, it is nothing to You to help between the mighty and him with no strength. Help us, O Jehovah our God; for we rest on You, and in Your name we come against this host. O Jehovah, You are our God. Do not let man hold out against You. ¹²And Jehovah struck the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah. And the Ethiopians fled. ¹³And Asa and the people with him pursued them even to Gerar. And all of the Ethiopians fell, for there was not one left alive to them; because they had broken before Jehovah, and before His army. And they carried away very much plunder. ¹⁴And they struck all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of Jehovah had come on them. And they plundered all the cities, for there was much booty in them. ¹⁵And also they struck the tents of cattle, and they captured sheep and camels in abundance. And they returned to Jerusalem.

¹And the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded. ²And he went out before Asa, and said to him, Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. Jehovah is with you while you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. ³Yea, Israel has been without a true God many days, and without a teaching priest, and without law. ⁴And they turned in their distress to Jehovah the God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He was found by them. ⁵And in those days there was no peace to him who went out, and to him who came in, for much tumult was on all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶And they were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city. For God troubled them with every distress. ⁷But you, you be strong, and do not let your hands be feeble, for there is a reward for your work.

⁸And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he made himself strong and removed the hateful idols out of the land of Judah and Benjamin; and out of the cities that he had captured from the hills of Ephraim. And he restored the altar of Jehovah that was before the porch of Jehovah. ⁹And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and out of Simeon. For they had fallen to him in abundance from Israel when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him. ¹⁰And they were gathered to Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹And they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day, from the plunder they had brought in, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. ¹²And they entered into the covenant to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul. ¹³And everyone who did not seek after Jehovah the God of Israel was put to death, from the small to the great, from man and to woman. ¹⁴And they swore to Jehovah with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with rams' horns. ¹⁵And all Judah rejoiced on the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart; and they sought Him with all their desire. And He was found by them. And Jehovah gave rest to them all around.

¹⁶And also Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made a horrible image for Asherah. And Asa cut down her horrible image, and crushed and burned it by the brook Kidron. ¹⁷Yet the high places were not removed from Israel. Only, the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

¹⁸And he brought the dedicated things of his father, and his own dedicated things, into the house of God, silver and gold and vessels. ¹⁹And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

¹In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha the king of Israel came up against Judah. And he built Ramah, so as not to permit any going out and coming in to Asa the king of Judah. ²And Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and from the king's house; and he sent to Ben-hadad the king of Syria, who lived in Damascus, saying, ³A covenant shall be between me and you, and between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha the king of Israel, and he shall go away from me. ⁴And Ben-hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies to the cities of Israel. And they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali. ⁵And it happened, when Baasha heard, he stopped building Ramah and let his work rest. ⁶And Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its wood, with which Baasha had built. And he built Geba and Mizpah with them.

⁷And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa the king of Judah and said to him, Because you leaned on the king of Syria, and you have not leaned on Jehovah your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand. ⁸Did not the Ethiopians and the Lubim become a very great army for multitude, for chariots and for horsemen? And when you leaned on Jehovah, He gave them into your hand. ⁹For the eyes of Jehovah run to and fro in all the earth in order to be strong for those with their heart perfect toward Him. You have acted foolishly in this. For this reason, from now on there shall be wars with you. ¹⁰And Asa was angry with the seer; and he gave him up to the house of stocks. For he was in a rage with him for this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

¹¹And, behold, the acts of Asa, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

¹²And Asa was diseased in his feet in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, until his disease was severe. And also in his disease he did not seek Jehovah, but among the healers.

¹³And Asa lay with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign. ¹⁴And they buried him in his grave which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which he had filled with sweet odors and kinds of aromatic herbs, with a mixture of ointments by art. And they burned a great burning for him.

¹And his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place. And he made himself strong against Israel. ²And he put an army in all the fenced cities in Judah, and placed command posts in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured. ³And Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat, for he walked in the first ways of his father David; and he did not seek to the Baals. ⁴For he sought to the God of his father, and he walked in His commands, and not according to the deeds of Israel. ⁵And Jehovah confirmed the kingdom in his hand. And all of Judah gave a present to Jehoshaphat. And he had riches and honor in abundance. ⁶And his heart was exalted in the ways of Jehovah. And he again removed the high places and the Asherim out of Judah.

⁷And in the third year of his reign, he sent for his leaders, for Ben-hail, and for Obadiah, and for Zechariah, and for Nethaneel, and for Michaiah, in order to teach in the cities of Judah. ⁸And with them were the Levites: Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites. And with them were Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. ⁹And they taught in Judah; and with them was the book of the law of Jehovah. And they went around to all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people.

¹⁰And the fear of Jehovah was on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah; and they did not fight with Jehoshaphat.

¹¹And from the Philistines, they were bringing in a present to Jehoshaphat, and silver as tribute. Also, the Arabians were bringing flocks to him, seven thousand, seven hundred rams; and seven thousand, seven hundred he-goats.

¹²And Jehoshaphat went on to be greater, exceedingly. And he built fortresses and store cities in Judah. ¹³And there was much work for him in the cities of Judah. And the men of war, mighty men of valor, resided in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And these were their numbers, for the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the commanders of thousands, Adnah the chief, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor. ¹⁵And on his hand, Jehohanan the chief, and two hundred and eighty thousand with him. ¹⁶And on his hand, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered himself to Jehovah; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. ¹⁷And of Benjamin, Eliada a mighty man, and two hundred thousand armed men with bow and shield with him. ¹⁸And on his hand, Jehozabad; and with him a hundred and eighty thousand ready for war. ¹⁹These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities in all Judah.

¹And Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance, and contracted a marriage with Ahab. ²And at the end of years, he went down to Ahab, to Samaria. And Ahab sacrificed sheep and oxen in abundance for him, and for the people with him. And he persuaded him to go up to Ramoth-gilead. ³And Ahab the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he said to him, As I am, so are you; and as your people, so my people, even with you in battle.

⁴And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please seek the word of Jehovah today. ⁵And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, four hundred men. And he said to them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up, and God will give it into the king's hand. ⁶And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not a prophet of Jehovah still here, and we shall seek from him? ⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, One man is still here, to seek Jehovah from him. But I hate him, for he does not prophesy good about me, but evil all his days. He is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

⁸And the king of Israel called to a certain eunuch and said, Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly. ⁹And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, clothed with robes. And they were sitting in a grain-floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹⁰And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself, and said, So says Jehovah, ¹¹With these you shall push Syria until you have consumed them. And all the prophets were prophesying so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper. And, Jehovah has given it into the king's hand. ¹²And the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets speak with one mouth, good toward the king. And, Please let your word be like one of theirs, and you shall speak good. ¹³And Micaiah said, As Jehovah lives, surely that which my God says, that I shall speak.

¹⁴And he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go up to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go up and prosper, for they will be given into your hand. ¹⁵And the king said to him, Until many times must I adjure you that you speak nothing to me but the truth in the name of Jehovah? ¹⁶And he said, I have seen all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have not a shepherd; and Jehovah said, For these, no master. Let them return, each man to his own house in peace. ¹⁷And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say to you that he does not prophesy good concerning me, but rather evil? ¹⁸And he said, Then hear the word of Jehovah: I have seen Jehovah sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing on His right and His left. ¹⁹And Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab the king of Israel, and he shall go and fall in Ramoth-gilead? And this speaker said this, and that speaker that. ²⁰And a spirit went out and stood before Jehovah, and said, I will entice him. And Jehovah said, With what? ²¹And he said, I will go out and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall entice, and also, you are able. Go out and do so. ²²And now, behold, Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets. And Jehovah has spoken evil against you. ²³And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of Jehovah cross from me to speak to you? ²⁴And Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see in that day when you go from one room into another to hide. ²⁵And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the ruler of the city, and to Joash the king's son. ²⁶And you shall say, So says the king. Put this one in prison and cause him to eat the bread of pain, and the water of pain, until my return in peace. ²⁷And Micaiah said, If you indeed return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, O peoples, all of them! ²⁸And the king of Israel went up, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, to Ramoth-gilead. ²⁹And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into battle; and you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself. And they went into battle. ³⁰And the king of Syria commanded the commanders of the chariots that he had, saying, You shall not fight with small or great, only with the king of Israel by himself. ³¹And it happened, when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, He is the king of Israel. And they turned around to fight against him. And Jehoshaphat cried out. And Jehovah helped him. And God drew them away from him. ³²And it happened, when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned away from following him. ³³And a man drew with a bow in innocence, and struck the king of Israel between the joinings and the breastplate. And he said to the charioteer, Turn your hand, and you shall bring me out of the battle, for I have been wounded. ³⁴And the battle increased on that day, and the king of Israel was made to stand in the chariot before Syria until the evening. And he died at the time of the going of the sun.

¹And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. ²And Jehu the son of Hanani, the seer, went out before him and said to king Jehoshaphat, Do you love to help the bad one, and those who hate Jehovah, and by this bring wrath on you from the face of Jehovah? ³But good things have been found with you, for you have burned the Asherahs out of the land, and have fixed your heart to seek God.

⁴And Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hills of Ephraim, and brought them back to Jehovah the God of their fathers.

⁵And he placed judges in the land, in all the fenced cities of Judah, for every city; ⁶and said to the judges, Watch what you are doing, for you shall not judge for man, but for Jehovah, and He is with you in the matter of judgment; ⁷and now, let the fear of Jehovah be upon you; watch and act, for there is no perverseness with Jehovah our God, nor lifting up of faces, nor taking of a bribe.

⁸And also in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat caused to stand from the Levites and from the priests, and from the heads of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of Jehovah, and for strife; and they returned to Jerusalem. ⁹And he charged them, saying, So shall you do in the fear of Jehovah, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰And when any contention shall come to you from your brothers who are living in their cities, between blood and blood between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, then you shall warn them, and they shall not be guilty before Jehovah; and wrath shall not be on you and on your brothers; so you shall do, and you shall not be guilty. ¹¹And, behold, Amariah the chief priest shall be over you for every matter of Jehovah, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, shall be for every matter of the king; and the Levites shall be officers before you. Be strong and act; and Jehovah shall be with the good.

¹And after this it happened that the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon came in, and with them from the Ammonites, to battle against Jehoshaphat. ²And they came in and spoke to Jehoshaphat, saying, A great multitude has come against you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and, behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi. ³And Jehoshaphat feared, and set his face to seek to Jehovah, and proclaimed a fast over all Judah. ⁴And Judah was gathered to inquire of Jehovah; also they came in to seek Jehovah from all the cities of Judah.

⁵And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Jehovah, at the front of the new court, ⁶and said, O Jehovah, the God of our fathers, are not You the God in Heaven? Yea, You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is power and might; and there is none able to withstand You. ⁷Are You not our God? You have driven out the inhabitants of this land from before Your people Israel, and have given it to the seed of Abraham, Your friend forever; ⁸and they have lived in it, and have built in it a sanctuary to You for Your name, saying, ⁹If evil shall come upon us, whether sword, judgment, or pestilence and famine, we shall stand before this house and before You—for Your name is in this house — and shall cry to You out of our distress, and You shall hear and save. ¹⁰And now, behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You did not allow Israel to go against when they came out of the land of Egypt —for they turned away from them and did not destroy them— ¹¹yea, behold, they are repaying us by coming in to drive us out of Your possession, that You have caused us to possess. ¹²O our God, shall You not execute judgment upon them? For there is no power in us before this great multitude that has come against us, and we do not know what we shall do; but our eyes are on You. ¹³And all Judah was standing before Jehovah, and their infants and their wives and their sons.

¹⁴And on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, the Spirit of Jehovah came on him in the midst of the assembly; ¹⁵and He said, Listen, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and king Jehoshaphat; so says Jehovah to you, You shall not fear nor be terrified of the face of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶Tomorrow, go down against them; behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz, and you shall find them in the end of the valley, at the front of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷You shall not fight in this: station yourselves; stand and see the salvation of Jehovah with you, O Judah and Jerusalem; do not be terrified nor fear; tomorrow go out before them, and Jehovah shall be with you. ¹⁸And Jehoshaphat bowed his face to the earth, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Jehovah, to bow themselves to Jehovah. ¹⁹And the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites, and of the sons of the Korahites, rose to give praise to Jehovah the God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

²⁰And they rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in Jehovah your God, and be steadfast; believe in His prophets and prosper. ²¹And he consulted with the people, and appointed singers to Jehovah, and those giving praise to the glory of holiness, when going out before those armed, and said, Give thanks to Jehovah, for His mercy endures forever.

²²And at the time they began with rejoicing and praise, Jehovah set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, that had come against Judah; and they were stricken. ²³And the sons of Ammon stood up, and Moab, against the people of Mount Seir, to devote and destroy; and when they finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped, each man against his neighbor, to destroy. ²⁴And when Judah had come to the watchtower, to the wilderness, then they looked toward the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there was no survivor. ²⁵And Jehoshaphat and his people came to seize their plunder; and they found among them in abundance both riches and valuable things on the corpses; and they stripped off for themselves until there was no carrying it; and they were three days plundering the spoil; for it was much.

²⁶And on the fourth day they gathered at the Valley of Blessing, for they blessed Jehovah there; on account of this they have called the name of that place the Valley of Blessing to this day. ²⁷And they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat at their head, to go back to Jerusalem with joy; for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸And they entered Jerusalem with harps and with lyres, and with trumpets, to the house of Jehovah. ²⁹And there was a fear of God on all kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought with the enemies of Israel. ³⁰And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gave him rest all around.

³¹And Jehoshaphat was king over Judah, a son of thirty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³²And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, to do that which was right in the eyes of Jehovah. ³³Only, the high places were not removed, and the people still had not settled their hearts for the God of their fathers. ³⁴And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the words of Jehu the son of Hanani, which were taken up in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

³⁵And after this Jehoshaphat the king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah the king of Israel; he did wickedly to do so. ³⁶And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. ³⁷And Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying,

Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Jehovah has broken your works. And the ships were broken, so that they did not hold to go to Tarshish.

¹And Jehoshaphat lay with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Jehoram reigned in his place. ²And he had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat the king of Israel. ³And their father gave to them many gifts of silver and gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities of Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, for he was the firstborn. ⁴And Jehoram rose up over the kingdom of his father and made himself strong. And he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also of the leaders of Israel.

⁵Jehoram was a son of thirty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. ⁶And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab, for a daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. ⁷And Jehovah was not willing to destroy the house of David, for the sake of the covenant that He made with David, and as He had spoken, to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.

⁸In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king to reign over them. ⁹And Jehoram passed over with his chiefs, and all the chariots with him; and it happened that he rose up by night and struck the Edomites who were coming all around him; and the commanders of the chariots. ¹⁰And Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at that time from under his hand, because he had forsaken Jehovah, the God of his fathers. ¹¹Also, he had made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the people of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and led astray Judah.

¹²And a writing came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, So says Jehovah, the God of your father David, Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat, and in the ways of Asa the king of Judah, ¹³and you walk in the way of the kings of Israel, and caused Judah and the people of Jerusalem to commit fornication like the fornications of the house of Ahab; and also you have killed your brothers, the house of your father, who were better than yourself; ¹⁴behold, Jehovah shall strike with a great destruction among your people, and among your sons, and among your wives, and among all your goods; ¹⁵and you, with many sicknesses, with disease in your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the sickness, day by day.

¹⁶And Jehovah awakened the spirit of the Philistines against Jehoram, and of the Arabians who were beside the Ethiopians; ¹⁷and they came up into Judah and broke into it, and captured all the substance that was found at the king's house, and also his sons, and his wives; and there was not left to him a son except Jehoahaz the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸And after this, Jehovah plagued him in his bowels by disease for which there was no healing; ¹⁹and it happened, from days to days, and as the time went out, the end of two years of days, his bowels went out because of his sickness; so he died of painful diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. ²⁰He was a son of thirty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem; and he left without being desired, and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the graves of the kings.

¹And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made his youngest son Ahaziah king in his place—for all the first ones had been slain by the troop that came in with the Arabians to the battle—and Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah reigned. ²Ahaziah was a son of forty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. ³He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor to do evilly. ⁴And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after the death of his father, for his destruction.

⁵He also walked in their counsel, and went with Joram the son of Ahab the king of Israel to battle against Hazael the king of Syria, in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians struck Jehoram; ⁶and he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds with which they had stricken him in Ramah, when fighting with Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was ill. ⁷Now, the destruction of Ahaziah was from God, for coming to Jehoram; and when he had come, he went out with Jehoram to Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the leaders of Judah, and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, the servants of Ahaziah, and killed them. ⁹And he sought out Ahaziah, and they captured him—and he was hiding himself in Samaria—and brought him to Jehu, and put him to death, and buried him; for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Jehovah with all his heart. And there was none in the house of Ahaziah to retain power for the kingdom. ¹⁰And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, and she rose up and spoke to destroy all the seed of the kingdom of the house of Judah. ¹¹And Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the sons of the king who were put to death, and put him and his nurse into the storeroom of the bedroom. And Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, because she was the sister of Ahaziah, hid him from the face of Athaliah; and she did not put him to death. ¹²And he was with them in the house of God hiding himself six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

¹And in the seventh year Jehoiada made himself strong and took the captains of the hundreds, even Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. ²And they went around in Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chiefs of the fathers of Israel, and came to Jerusalem. ³And all the congregation made a covenant in the house of God with the king, and he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as Jehovah has spoken of the sons of David. ⁴This is what you shall do: the third of you going in on the sabbath, of the priests, and of the Levites, shall be keepers of the doors; ⁵and a third shall be at the king's house, and a third at the gate of the foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of Jehovah. ⁶And no one shall enter the house of Jehovah except the priests, and those ministering of the Levites; they may go in, for they are holy; and all the people shall keep the watch of Jehovah. ⁷And the Levites shall surround the king, each with his weapon in his hand; and he who goes into the house shall be put to death; and you be with the king in his coming in and in his going out. ⁸And the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded. And every man took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, the ones who were to go out on the sabbath. For Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the divisions. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest gave to the commanders of the hundreds the spears, and the shields, and the bucklers that were king David's, that were in the house of God. ¹⁰And he stationed all of the people, and each had his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, at the altar, and by the king at the house all around. ¹¹And they brought out the son of the king, and put the crown on him, and the testimony, and made him king; and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and cried, Let the king live!

¹²And Athaliah heard the sound of the people who were running and who were praising the king; and she came to the people in the house of Jehovah, ¹³and looked; and behold, the king was standing by his pillar in the entrance, and the commanders and the trumpets were by the king; and all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding with trumpets; and the singers with instruments of song, and giving signals to praise; and Athaliah tore her garments and cried, Conspiracy! Conspiracy! ¹⁴And Jehoiada the priest brought out the commanders of the hundreds, those over the army, and said to them, Bring her out from inside the ranks, and he coming after her shall be put to death by the sword; for the priest said, Do not put her to death in the house of Jehovah. ¹⁵And they laid hands to her, and she came into the entrance of the Gate of Horses, beside the king's house, and they put her to death there.

¹⁶And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and between all the people, and between the king, to be a people to Jehovah; ¹⁷and all the people went into the house of Baal and broke it down; yea, they broke down his altars and his images; and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. ¹⁸And Jehoiada put the offices of the house of Jehovah into the hand of the Levitical priests, whom David had allotted over the house of Jehovah, to offer the burnt offerings of Jehovah, as it is written in the law of Moses; with joy, and with singing, by the hands of David. ¹⁹And he stationed the keepers at the gates of the house of Jehovah; and the unclean in any way could not go in. ²⁰And he took the commanders of the hundreds, and the honorable ones, and the rulers among the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah; and they came in through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and made the king sit on the throne of the kingdom. ²¹And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they put to death Athaliah by the sword.

¹Joash was a son of seven years when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ²And Joash did the right in the eyes of Jehovah all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he fathered sons and daughters

⁴And after this it happened; it had been in the heart of Joash to renew the house of Jehovah; ⁵and he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God fully from year to year; and you shall do the matter quickly. But the Levites did not act quickly. ⁶And the king called for Jehoiada the head, and said to him, Why have you not required the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tribute of Moses, the servant of Jehovah, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of the testimony? For the sons of Athaliah, the wicked one, have broken up the house of God, and also they have prepared all the holy things of the house of Jehovah for the Baals. ⁸And the king commanded, and they made one chest, and put it at the gate of the house of Jehovah outside; ⁹and they gave a call in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring in to Jehovah the tribute of Moses, the servant of God, laid on Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰And all the leaders, and all the people rejoiced; and they brought in and threw into the chest until it was finished. ¹¹And it happened, at the time one brought in the chest to the king's overseers, by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that the money was abundant, that a scribe of the king came in, and an officer of the head priest, and they emptied the chest and took it up and returned it to its place; so they did day by day, and gathered silver in abundance. ¹²And the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of Jehovah; and they hired stonemasons and carpenters to repair the house of Jehovah; and also artisans in iron and bronze, to strengthen the house of Jehovah. ¹³And the workmen did the work, and the repair work prospered in their hands; and they set up the house of God by its proper measure, and made it strong. ¹⁴And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the silver in before the king and Jehoiada; and they made vessels of it for the house of Jehovah, vessels of serving, and of offering, and spoons, even vessels of gold and silver; and they offered burnt offerings in the house of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵And Jehoiada was old and satisfied with days, and died, a son of a hundred and thirty years at his death. ¹⁶And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, for he had done good in Israel, and with God, and his house. ¹⁷And after the death of Jehoiada, the leaders of Judah came in and bowed themselves to the king; then the king listened to them. ¹⁸And they forsook the house of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols; and there was wrath on Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt. ¹⁹And He sent prophets among them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they testified against them, but they did not listen. ²⁰And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood before the people and said to them, So says God, Why do you transgress the commandments of Jehovah, and do not prosper? Because you have forsaken Jehovah, He has forsaken you. ²¹And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones by the command of the king, in the court of the house of Jehovah. ²²And Joash the king did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada his father had done to him, and killed his son. And when he died, he said, Jehovah shall seek you out.

²³And it happened, at the turn of the year, that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came into Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people; and they sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. ²⁴For with few men the army of Syria came in, and Jehovah gave a mighty force for multitude into their hand, because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers. And they executed judgment against Joash. ²⁵And when they left him—for they left him with many diseases — his own servants conspired against him, because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed; and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, and did not bury him in the graves of the kings. ²⁶And these are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimirith the Moabess. ²⁷As to his sons, and the greatness of the burdens upon him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written in the inquiry of the book of the kings. And his son Amaziah reigned in his place.

¹Amaziah was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ²And he did right in the eyes of Jehovah; only, not with a perfect heart. ³And it happened, when the kingdom had been made strong to him, he killed his servants, those who had struck the king, his father. ⁴But he did not kill their sons, but did as is written in the law, in the book of Moses, whom Jehovah commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the sons, and the sons shall not die for the fathers; but they each shall die for his own sin.

⁵And Amaziah gathered Judah, and made them stand, according to the house of the fathers, for commanders of the thousands, and for commanders of the hundreds, for all Judah and Benjamin. And he numbered them from a son of twenty years and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice ones, going forth to battle, holding spear and shield. ⁶And he hired a hundred thousand mighty ones out of Israel, with a hundred talents of silver. ⁷But a man of God came to him, saying, O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you; for Jehovah is not with Israel, with all the sons of Ephraim; ⁸but if you will go, do it; be strong for battle; God shall make you fall before the enemy, for God has power to help, and to cause to stumble. ⁹And Amaziah said to the man of God, And what shall I do for the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God said, Jehovah has more than this to give to you. ¹⁰And Amaziah separated them, the army that had come into him from Ephraim to go to their own place; and their anger burned mightily against Judah, and they returned to their place in the heat of anger.

¹¹And Amaziah made himself strong and led his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and killed ten thousand of the sons of Seir. ¹²And the sons of Judah captured ten thousand alive, and they brought them to the top of the rock and threw them from the top of the rock; and all of them were broken.

¹³And the sons of the army that Amaziah had sent back from going with him to battle, these raided against the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth-horon, and killed three thousand of them, and seized much prey.

¹⁴And it happened, after Amaziah came in from smiting the Edomites, that he brought in the gods of the sons of Seir and made them stand as gods for himself; and bowed himself before them, and burned incense to them. ¹⁵And the anger of Jehovah burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him; and he said to him, Why have you sought the gods of the people that have not delivered their people out of your hand? ¹⁶And it happened, as he spoke with him, that he said to him, Have we appointed you a counselor to the king? Stop! Why should they strike you? And the prophet stopped, and said, I know that God has counseled to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.

¹⁷And Amaziah the king of Judah took counsel and sent to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ¹⁸And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thorn that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife; and a beast of the field that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thorn. ¹⁹You have said, behold, I have stricken Edom, and your heart has lifted you up to boast; now, stay in your house; why should you stir yourself up to evil, that you should fall, you and Judah with you? ²⁰And Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, in order to give them into their hand, because they had sought to the gods of Edom. ²¹And Jehoash the king of Israel went up, and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah the king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh that was Judah's. ²²And Judah was stricken before Israel; and they fled, each to his tent. ²³And Amaziah the king of Judah, the son of Joash, was caught by Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel in Beth-shemesh; and he carried him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the gate of the corner, four hundred cubits; ²⁴and took all the gold, and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵And Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

²⁷And after the time that Amaziah had turned aside from following Jehovah, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. ²⁸And they lifted him up on the horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

¹And all the people of Judah took Uziah; and he was a son of sixteen years; and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. ²He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after the king lay with his fathers. ³Uzziah was a son of sixteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. ⁴And he did the right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah did. ⁵And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God; and in the days he sought Jehovah, God made him prosper. ⁶And he went out and fought with the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities around Ashdod, and among the Philistines. ⁷And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gurbaal, and the Meunites. ⁸And the Ammonites paid tribute to Uziah; and his name spread abroad to the entrance of Egypt; for he became exceedingly strong. ⁹And Uziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, and at the Valley Gate, and at the

Turning, and fortified them. ¹⁰And he built towers in the wilderness, and dug many wells, for he had many cattle, both in the low country and in the plain, farmers and vinedressers in the mountains, and in Carmel; for he was a lover of the earth.

¹¹And Uziah had an army making war, going out to the battle by troops, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the superintendent under the hand of Hananiah, of the king's leaders. ¹²The whole number of the heads of the fathers of the mighty men was two thousand, six hundred. ¹³And under their hand was a powerful army, three hundred and seven thousand, five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. ¹⁴And Uziah prepared for them, for all the army, shields and spears and helmets, and breastplates, and bows, even to stones for the slings. ¹⁵And he made engines in Jerusalem, the inventions of skillful men, to be on the towers and on the corners, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. And his name spread far abroad; for he was wonderfully helped until he was strong.

¹⁶And when he became strong, his heart was lifted up to act corruptly; and he trespassed against Jehovah his God, and went in to the temple of Jehovah to burn incense on the altar of incense. ¹⁷And Azariah the priest went in after him, and eighty priests of Jehovah with him, sons of valor; ¹⁸and they stood up against Uziah the king, and said to him, It is not for you, O Uziah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but to the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are sanctified to burn incense; go out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed; and it is not to your honor from Jehovah God. ¹⁹And Uziah was angry, and in his hand was a censer to burn incense; and when he was angry with the priests, the leprosy rose in his forehead, before the priests, in the house of Jehovah, beside the altar of incense. ²⁰And Azariah the head priest and all the priests turned toward him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead. And they hurried him from there, and he also himself hurried to leave, for Jehovah had touched him. ²¹And Uziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house as a leper, for he had been cut off from the house of Jehovah; and his son Jotham was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. ²²And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, the first and the last, Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, has written. ²³And Uzziah lay with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burying-place that the kings had; for they said, He is a leper. And his son Jotham reigned in his place.

¹Jotham was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his the name of his mother was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. ²And he did the right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah did; only, he did not come into the temple of Jehovah; and the people continued to do wickedly. ³He built the Upper Gate of the house of Jehovah, and he built very much in the wall of Ophel; ⁴and he built cities in the hills of Judah, and in the forests he built palaces and towers.

⁵He also fought with the king of the sons of Ammon, and prevailed over them. And the sons of Ammon gave to him in that year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley; this the sons of Ammon turned over to him both in the second year and in the third. ⁶And Jotham made himself strong, for he had prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.

⁷And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his battles, and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹And Jotham lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Ahaz reigned in his place.

¹Ahaz was a son of twenty years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do right in the eyes of Jehovah, as his father David, ²but walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molten images for the Baals. ³And he himself burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah drove out from before the sons of Israel; ⁴and sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the heights, and under every green tree. ⁵And Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria, and they struck him, and captured from him a great captivity, and brought them to Damascus. And he also was given into the hand of the king of Israel, and he struck him with a great destruction.

⁶And Pekah the son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all sons of valor, because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers. ⁷And Zichri, a mighty one of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the son of the king, and Azrikam the leader of the house, and Elkanah, second to the king. ⁸And the sons of Israel captured two hundred thousand of their brothers, wives, sons and daughters, and also they seized from them much spoil, and they brought the spoil to Samaria. ⁹And a prophet of Jehovah was there, Oded his name; and he went out before the army that had come in to Samaria, and said to them, Behold, in the fury of Jehovah, the God of your fathers, against Judah, He has given them into your hand, and you have slain among them in rage. It has touched to the heavens. ¹⁰And now you are planning to tread down the sons of Judah and Jerusalem for male slaves, and for girl slaves to yourselves; but are not with you causes of guilt, solely yours, before Jehovah your God? ¹¹And now, hear me, and return the captives you have seized from your brothers, for the heat of the anger of Jehovah is on you. ¹²And men of the leaders of the Ephraimites: Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah, Meshilmoth's son, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—rose up against those coming in from the army, ¹³and said to them, You shall not bring the captives here, for guilt against Jehovah is on us; you are planning to add to our sin and to our guilt, for we have plenty of guilt and the glow of anger on Israel. ¹⁴And the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the congregation. ¹⁵And the men who had been called by name rose and took the captives, and they clothed all the naked ones from the spoil; yea, they clothed them and shod them, and made them eat and drink, and anointed them, and led them out on asses, even every feeble one, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palms, near their brothers, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time king Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria to help him. ¹⁷And again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and had seized a captivity. ¹⁸And the Philistines had raided against the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and captured Beth-shemesh and Aijalon, and Gederot, and Soco and its daughter-villages, and Timnah and its daughter-villages, and Gimzo and its daughter-villages, and dwelt there. ¹⁹For Jehovah had humbled Judah because of Ahaz the king of Israel, for he loosed immorality in Judah, and dealt treacherously against Jehovah. ²⁰And Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria came against him and distressed him, but did not help him, ²¹though Ahaz had taken a lot from the house of Jehovah and from the house of the king, and from the rulers, and had given to the king of Assyria; yet it was no help to him. ²²And in the time of his distress he added to act slyly against Jehovah, this king Ahaz; ²³and he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus who had struck him, and said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me. But they were to cause him and all Israel to stumble. ²⁴And Ahaz gathered all the utensils of the house of God, and he cut up the utensils of the house of God and shut the doors of the house of Jehovah. And he made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵And in every city, even the cities of Judah, he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and angered Jehovah the God of his fathers.

²⁶And the rest of his acts, and all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷And Ahaz lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but did not bring him to the graves of the kings of Israel. and his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

¹Hezekiah was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. ²And he did the right in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his father David did. ³In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and repaired them. ⁴And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and he gathered them to the plaza on the east. ⁵And he said to them, Hear me, O Levites, now consecrate yourselves. And consecrate the house of Jehovah, the God of your fathers, and bring out the uncleanness from the holy place. ⁶For our fathers have acted slyly and did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah our God, and they have forsaken Him and turned their faces away from the temple of Jehovah, and have given their backs. ⁷And they have shut the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and they have not burned incense, and have not offered burnt offering in the holy place to the God of Israel. ⁸And the wrath of Jehovah is on Judah and Jerusalem, and He has given them for a trembling, for a horror, and for hissing, as you see with your eyes. ⁹For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in exile for this. ¹⁰Now it is in my heart to cut a covenant with Jehovah, the God of Israel, and His the glow of His anger shall turn back from us. ¹¹Now, my sons, do not be negligent, for Jehovah has chosen you to stand before His face, to serve Him and to be ministers and incense burners for Him.

¹²And the Levites rose up: Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; ¹³and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴and of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. ¹⁵And they gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, and came in, according to the commandment of the king in the matters of Jehovah, to cleanse the house of Jehovah. ¹⁶And the priests went into the inner part of the house of Jehovah to clean, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah to the court of the house of Jehovah; and the Levites received and took it out to the brook Kidron outside. ¹⁷And they began to sanctify on the first of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of Jehovah; and they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they had finished. ¹⁸And they came inside to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of Jehovah, and the altar of the burnt offering, and all its vessels, and the table of the Bread of Arrangement, and all its utensils; ¹⁹and all the utensils that king Ahaz cast aside in his reign, in his treachery, we have prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of Jehovah.

²⁰And Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the heads of the city, and went up to the house of Jehovah. ²¹And they brought in seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven young he-goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the holy place, and for Judah. And he commanded the sons of Aaron, the priests, to offer on the altar of Jehovah. ²²And they killed the oxen, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled on the altar. And they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. And they killed the lambs sprinkled the blood on the altar. ²³And they brought the he-goats of the sin offering before the king and the congregation, and they lay their hands on them; ²⁴and the priests slaughtered them, and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king said, The burnt offering and the sin offering are for all Israel.

²⁵And he made stand the Levites in the house of Jehovah with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, by the command of David, and of Gad, the seer of the king, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was by the hand of Jehovah, by the hand of His prophets. ²⁶And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷And Hezekiah commanded to offer burnt offering on the altar; and at the time the burnt offering began, the song of Jehovah began, and of the trumpets, even by the hand of the instruments of David the king of Israel. ²⁸And all the congregation were bowing, and the singers singing, and the trumpeters blowing; all until the completion of the burnt offering. ²⁹And at the completion of the offering the king and all those found with him bowed and worshiped. ³⁰And Hezekiah the king and the leaders commanded the Levites to give praise to Jehovah in the words of David, and of Asaph the seer; and they praised with joy, and they bowed and worshiped. ³¹And Hezekiah answered and said, Now you have consecrated your hand to Jehovah; come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings to the house of Jehovah. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings, and every willing-hearted one brought burnt offerings. ³²And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought was seventy oxen, a hundred rams, two hundred lambs; all these for a burnt offering to Jehovah. ³³And the dedicated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

³⁴Only, the priests had become few, and were not able to skin all of the burnt offerings; and their brothers the Levites strengthened them until the work was ended, and until the priests sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright of heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. ³⁵And also, there were many burnt offerings with fat of the peace offerings, and with drink offerings for the burnt offering; and the service of the house of Jehovah was established. ³⁶And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced, because God had given preparation to the people; for the thing had happened suddenly.

¹And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and he also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem, to make a Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel. ²And the king and his leaders, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, took counsel to keep the Passover in the second month; ³since they could not do it at that time, for the priests had not cleansed themselves enough. And the people had not been gathered to Jerusalem. ⁴And the thing was right in the eyes of the king, and in the eyes of the congregation. ⁵And they established a decree to pass through a call to all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, to come to make a Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel in Jerusalem. For not many of them had done as it is written. ⁶And the runners went with letters from the king's hand, and his leaders, to all Israel and Judah; even by the king's command, saying, O sons of Israel, return to Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel. And He shall return to the remnant left of you from the hand of the king of Assyria. ⁷And do not be like your fathers, and like your brothers, who acted treacherously against Jehovah the God of their fathers; and He made them for a horror, as you see. ⁸Now do not stiffen your necks like your fathers. Give a hand to Jehovah and come to His holy place that He has sanctified forever; and serve Jehovah your God. And the fierceness of His anger will turn away from you. ⁹For when you return to Jehovah, your brothers and your sons will have mercies before their captors, even to return to this land. For Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, and He will not turn His face away from you, if you turn back to Him.

¹⁰And the runners passed from city to city in the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, even to Zebulun. And they were laughing at them, and mocking them.

¹¹However, men from Asher, and Manasseh, and from Zebulun were humbled, and came to Jerusalem. ¹²Also, in Judah the hand of God was to give to them one heart to do the king's command, and of the leaders, by the word of Jehovah.

¹³And many people gathered to Jerusalem, to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great multitude. ¹⁴And they rose up and took away the altars in Jerusalem, and all the incense altars they removed, and threw them into the brook Kidron. ¹⁵And they killed the passover offering on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah. ¹⁶And they stood in their place according to their ordinance, according to the law of Moses the man of God. The priests were sprinkling the blood out of the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷For many in the assembly had not sanctified themselves, and the Levites were over the slaughtering of the passover offerings for everyone not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah. ¹⁸For many of the people, many from Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not been cleansed, but ate the passover otherwise than was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, O good Jehovah, provide atonement for everyone ¹⁹who has prepared his heart to seek Jehovah God, the God of his fathers, yet not according to the cleansing of the sanctuary. ²⁰And Jehovah listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. ²¹And the sons of Israel, those found in Jerusalem, kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great joy. And the Levites praised Jehovah day to day, and the priests, with instruments of praise before Jehovah. ²²And Hezekiah spoke to the heart of all the Levites, those having good understanding as to Jehovah. And they ate the appointed things seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to Jehovah, the God of their fathers. ²³And all the congregation took counsel to keep another seven days. And they kept seven days joyfully. ²⁴And Hezekiah the king of Judah had lifted up to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and seven thousand sheep. And the leaders had lifted up to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheep. And the priests had sanctified themselves in abundance.

²⁵And all the congregation of Judah rejoiced, and the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came from the land of Israel, and the aliens who came from the land of Israel, and those who lived in Judah. ²⁶And there was great joy in Jerusalem, for from the days of Solomon the son of David the king of Israel, there was nothing like this in Jerusalem. ²⁷And the priests, the Levites, rose up and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came to His holy dwelling-place, to Heaven.

¹And when all this was finished, all Israel who were found went out to the cities of Judah and smashed the standing pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah, and Benjamin, and in Ephraim, and Manasseh, even to the end. And all the sons of Israel returned, each to his possession, to their cities.

⁵And as the word spread, the sons of Israel brought abundantly the firstfruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the produce of the field, and the tithe of all; they brought very much. ⁶And the sons of Israel and Judah, those living in the cities of Judah, also they tithed of the herd and the flock, even a tithe of the holy things that were sanctified to Jehovah their God, were brought in. And they piled heaps of heaps. ⁷They began to lay the foundation of the heaps in the third month, and in the seventh month they finished. ⁸And Hezekiah and the leaders came in and saw the heaps, and blessed Jehovah and His people Israel. ⁹And Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites about the heaps. ¹⁰And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, spoke to him and said, From the beginning of the bringing of the heave offering to the house of Jehovah, it was eaten, and it satisfied, and abundance was left; for Jehovah has blessed His people, and this abundance is left.

¹¹And Hezekiah ordered them to build rooms in the house of Jehovah; and they prepared, ¹²and they brought in the heave offering, and the tithes, and the holy things, faithfully. And over them was a leader, the Levite Cononiah, and his second brother, Shimei; ¹³and Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and his brother Shimei, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. ¹⁴And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the gatekeeper at the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the heave offerings of Jehovah, and the most holy things. ¹⁵And by his hand, Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and She-maiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, faithfully to give to their brothers by divisions, as to the great, so to the small; ¹⁶apart from their genealogy, to males from a son of three years and upward, to everyone who had gone into the house of Jehovah, the proper portion of a day in its day, for their service in their duties, according to their divisions; ¹⁷and enrolled genealogically the priests by the house of their fathers, and of the Levites from a son of twenty years and upward, and their duties, and their divisions; ¹⁸and the enrollment by genealogy with all their infants, their wives, and their sons and their daughters, to all the assembly, for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness. ¹⁹And to the sons of Aaron, the priests, in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every separate city, were men who were called by name to give portions to every male among the priests, and to all enrolled genealogically among the Levites. ²⁰And Hezekiah did this in all Judah, and did the good and the right and true before Jehovah his God. ²¹And in every work that he began for the service of the house of God, and in the Law, and in the commandment, to seek his God with all his heart, he worked and prospered.

¹After these things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib the king of Assyria came; yea, he came into Judah and camped against the cities of defense, and commanded to break them open to himself. ²And Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and his face was set to battle against Jerusalem; ³and he took counsel with his leaders and his mighty ones, to stop the waters of the fountains that were on the outside of the city; and they helped him. ⁴And many people were gathered, and they stopped all the fountains, and the brook that was rushing through the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water? ⁵And he made himself strong and built all the wall that was broken, and raised on it the towers, and at the outside of the wall another, and strengthened Millo, the city of David, and made darts in abundance, and shields. ⁶And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them to him, to the street of the gate of the city, and spoke to their heart, saying, ⁷Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor be cast down before the face of the king of Assyria, and before the face of all the multitude that is with him, for with us are more than with him. ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, and with us is Jehovah our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people were supported by the words of Hezekiah the king of Judah.

⁹After this Sennacherib the king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem — and he was by Lachish, and all his power with him — against Hezekiah the king of Judah, and against all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰So says Sennacherib the king of Assyria, On what are you trusting and resting in the siege in Jerusalem? ¹¹Is not Hezekiah misleading you, to give you up to die by famine, and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹²Has not Hezekiah himself removed His high places, and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Before one altar you shall worship, and on it you shall burn incense. ¹³Do you not know what I have done, my fathers and I, to all the people of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands at all able to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴Who among all the gods of these nations whom my fathers have devoted to destruction is he who has been able to deliver his people out of my hand, that your god may be able to deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁵And now, do not let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, nor believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand, from the hand of my fathers; also, surely your god shall not deliver you from my hand. ¹⁶And again his servants spoke against Jehovah God, and against His servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷And he had written letters to blaspheme Jehovah, the God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah shall not deliver his people from my hand. ¹⁸And they called with a great voice in Jewish, against the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and to terrify them, that they might capture the city. ¹⁹And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the peoples of the land, the work of the hands of man. ²⁰And Hezekiah the king prayed, and Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, about this, and they cried to Heaven.

²¹And Jehovah sent an angel, and cut off every mighty one of valor, both the leader and the ruler, in the camp of the king of Assyria; and he returned with shame of face to his land. And he entered the house of his god, and those from his bowels caused him to fall there by the sword.

²²And Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all; and He guided them on every side. ²³And many brought an offering to Jehovah, to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah the king of Judah; and he was lifted up before the eyes of all the nations after this.

²⁴In those days Hezekiah was sick, even to death, and he prayed to Jehovah, and He spoke to him, and gave a sign for him.

²⁵And Hezekiah did not return according to the benefit done to him, for his heart had been lifted up, and there was wrath on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶And Hezekiah was humbled for the pride of his heart, he and the people of Jerusalem, and the wrath of Jehovah did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷And Hezekiah had great riches and honor, and he had very many treasures of silver for himself, and of gold, and of precious stones, and of spices, and of shields, and of all desirable vessels, ²⁸and storehouses for the increase of grain, and new wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks for the stalls; ²⁹and he made cities for himself, and had possessions of flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very much substance.

³²And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his godly deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ³³And Hezekiah lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the uppermost of the graves of the sons of David; and all Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh reigned in his place.

¹Manasseh was a son of twelve years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. ²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. ³For again he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had broken down, and raised up altars for the Baals, and made Asherahs and bowed himself to all the host of the heavens, and served them. ⁴And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, of which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem shall be My name forever. ⁵And he built altars to all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of Jehovah. ⁶And he made his sons to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and did magic and divined, and used sorcery, and used mediums and conjurers; he multiplied the doing of that which was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to provoke Him to anger. ⁷And he placed the engraved image of the idol that he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to his son Solomon, In this house, and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. ⁸And I will not again remove the foot of Israel from off the ground that I appointed to your fathers; only, if they take heed to do all that I have commanded them toward all the law, and the statutes, and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. ⁹And Manasseh caused Judah and the people of Jerusalem to sin, to do evil above the nations that Jehovah destroyed before the sons of Israel. ¹⁰And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and to his people, and they did not listen.

¹¹And Jehovah brought in against them the army commanders that the king of Assyria had, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, and bound him with bronze fetters, and made him go to Babylon. ¹²And when he was afflicted, he sought the face of Jehovah his God, and was humbled exceedingly before the face of the God of his fathers; ¹³and prayed to Him, and He was entreated of him and heard his supplication, and returned him to Jerusalem to his kingdom; and Manasseh knew that Jehovah, He is God.

¹⁴And after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west of Gihon, in the valley, and at the entrance of the Fish Gate. And it went around to the tower and he made it exceedingly high, and he put commanders of the army in all the cities of defense in Judah. ¹⁵And he removed the gods of the stranger, and the idol, out of the house of Jehovah, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem, and threw them outside the city. ¹⁶And he built the altar of Jehovah, and sacrificed on it sacrifices of peace offerings and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve Jehovah, the God of Israel. ¹⁷But the people still sacrificed in the high places, only to Jehovah their God.

¹⁸And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the things of the seers, who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, behold, they are in the Book of the Kings of Israel; ¹⁹and his prayer, and his entreaty, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places in which he had built high places and made stand the Asherim and the graven images before he was humbled, behold, they are written in the Matters of the Seers. ²⁰And Manasseh lay with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

²¹Amon was a son of twenty-two years when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, as his father Manasseh did; and to all the graven images that his father Manasseh had made, Amon sacrificed, and served them, ²³and did not bow before Jehovah, like the humbling of his father Manasseh, for Amon himself multiplied guilt. ²⁴And his servants conspired against him and killed him in his own house; ²⁵and the people of the land killed all those who conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made his son Josiah to reign in his place.

¹Josiah was a son of eight years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. ²And he did the right in the eyes of Jehovah, and walked in the ways of his father David, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

³And in the eighth year of his reign, and he was still a boy, he began to seek to the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the casted images. ⁴And they broke down before him the altars of the Baals, and the images that were on high above them he cut down, and the shrines, and the graven images, and the molten images he broke down and beat small, and scattered on the surface of the grave of those who sacrificed to them. ⁵And he burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem, ⁶and in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their tools all around. ⁷And he broke down the altars and the Asherim, and he had beaten down the graven images very small; and he had cut down all the images in all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

⁸And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purified the land and the House, he sent Shaphan the son of Azariah, and Maaseiah the head of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of Jehovah his God. ⁹And they came to Hilkiah the high priest, and they gave the silver that was brought into the house of God, that the Levites who guarded the threshold had gathered from the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰And they gave it into the hand of the doers of the work, those called out in the house of Jehovah; and they gave it to the doers of the work who were working in the house of Jehovah to repair and to make strong the house. ¹¹And they gave to artisans, and to builders, to buy quarried stones, and wood for couplings, to light upon beams for the houses that the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹²And the men were working faithfully in the work. And over them were given the oversight: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the Levites all who were skilled in musical instruments; ¹³and over the load-carriers and overseers of everyone doing work for each separate service; and of the Levites were scribes and superintendents and gatekeepers.

¹⁴And when they brought out the silver that was brought into the house of Jehovah, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

¹⁵And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan. ¹⁶And Shaphan brought the book in to the king, and brought the king back word again, saying, All that has been given into the hand of your servants, they are doing. ¹⁷And they poured out the silver that was found in the house of Jehovah, and gave it into the hands of those appointed, and into the hands of those doing the work. ¹⁸And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has given a book to me; and Shaphan read it before the king. ¹⁹And it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his garments. ²⁰And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the servant of the king, saying, ²¹Go, seek Jehovah for me and for him who is left in Israel and in Judah, as to the words of the book that has been found, for great is the wrath of Jehovah that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Jehovah, to do according to all that is written in this book. ²²And Hilkiah and those of the king went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvath, the son of Hazrah, the keeper of the robes; and she was living in Jerusalem in the Second. And they spoke to her about this. ²³And she said to them, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Say to the man who has sent you to Me, ²⁴So says Jehovah, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that they have read before the king of Judah; ²⁵because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me with all the works of their hands; and My wrath shall be poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched. ²⁶And to the king of Judah who is sending you to inquire of Jehovah, you shall say this to him, So says Jehovah the God of Israel, whose words you have heard, ²⁷Because your heart is tender, and you were humbled before God when you heard His words concerning this place, and concerning its inhabitants. and were humbled before Me, and have torn your garments and wept before Me; I have even heard also, says Jehovah. ²⁸Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not look upon all the evil I shall bring upon this place, and on its inhabitants. And they brought the king word again.

²⁹And the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰And the king went up to the house of Jehovah and every man of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the inhabitants from the great to the small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Jehovah. ³¹And the king stood in his place and made the covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart, and with all his soul, to do the words of the covenant that were written in this book. ³²And he made everyone who was found in Jerusalem and in Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to stand to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³And Josiah removed all the idols out of all the lands that the sons of Israel had, and caused everyone who was found in Israel to serve, to serve Jehovah their God; all his days they did not turn away from following Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

¹And Josiah performed a Passover in Jerusalem to Jehovah, and they killed the passover offering on the fourteenth of the first month. ²And he made stand the priests over their charges, and made them strong for the service of the house of Jehovah, ³and said to the Levites who were teaching all Israel, who were sanctified to Jehovah, Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon the son of David the king of Israel built; it shall not be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve Jehovah your God, and His people Israel, ⁴and prepare by the house of your fathers, according to your courses, by the writing of David the king of Israel, and by the writing of his son Solomon, ⁵and stand in the sanctuary, by the divisions of the house of the fathers of your brothers, the sons of the people, and the portion of the house of the father of the Levites; ⁶and kill the passover offering and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of Jehovah, by the hand of Moses. ⁷And Josiah lifted up to the sons of the people a flock of lambs and young goats, all for passover offerings, for everyone who was found, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand oxen; these were from the king's substance. ⁸And his leaders lifted up for a free-will offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers in the house of God, gave to the priest two thousand and six hundred for passover offerings, and three hundred oxen. ⁹And Conaniah, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brothers; and Hashabiah, and Jeiel, and Jozabad, chiefs of the Levites, lifted up to the Levites five thousand for passover offerings, and five hundred oxen. ¹⁰And the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the command of the king. ¹¹And they slaughtered the passover offering, and the priests sprinkled out of their hand, and the Levites were stripping; ¹²and they removed the burnt offering, to distribute them by the divisions of the house of the fathers of the sons of the people, to offer to Jehovah, as it is written in the book of Moses—and so to the oxen. ¹³And they roasted the passover with fire, according to the ordinance; and they cooked the holy things in pots, and in kettles, and in pans, and rushed to all the sons of the people. ¹⁴And afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests; for the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering up the burnt offering and the fat until nightfall; and the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests; the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place, according to the David's command, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the seer of the king; and the gatekeepers were at each gate; it was not for them to depart from their service, for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶And all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day, to perform the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the command of king Josiah. ¹⁷And the sons of Israel who were found performed the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, seven days. ¹⁸And there had not been a Passover performed like it in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; yea, none of the kings of Israel performed such a Passover as Josiah performed, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were found, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹In the eighteenth year of the Josiah's reign, this Passover was performed.

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had prepared the house, Necho the king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out to meet him. ²¹And he sent messengers to him, saying, What do I have to do with you, O king of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but toward the house with which I have war; and God said for me to hasten; stop yourself from opposing God, who is with me, and He shall not destroy you. ²²But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself to fight against him, and did not listen to the words of Necho from the mouth of God; and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³And the archers shot at king Josiah. And the king said to his servants, Pass me out, for I am severely wounded. ²⁴And his servants passed him out from the chariot, and caused him to ride in a second chariot of his, and brought him to Jerusalem. And he died and was buried in the graves of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem were mourning for Josiah.

²⁵And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singers and the songstresses speak in their lamentations of Josiah to this day, and set them as a statute in Israel; and behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

²⁶And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his godly deeds, are according as it is written in the law of Jehovah. ²⁷And his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

¹And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and made him king instead of his father in Jerusalem. ²Jehoahaz was a son of twenty-three years when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³And the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem, and fined the land a hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. ⁴And the king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned about his name to Jehoiakim; and Necho took his brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.

⁵Jehoiakim was a son of twenty-five years when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah his God. ⁶Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to take him away to Babylon. ⁷And Nebuchadnezzar brought some of the vessels of the house of Jehovah to Babylon, and put them in his temple in Babylon. ⁸And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his evil deeds that he did, and that which was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehoiachin reigned in his place.

⁹Jehoiachin was a son of eight years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days; and he did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah. ¹⁰And at the turn of the year, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable vessels of the house of Jehovah, and made his kinsman Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zedekiah was a son of twenty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹²And he did the evil in the eyes of Jehovah his God; he was not humbled before Jeremiah the prophet, from the mouth of Jehovah. ¹³And also he rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; and he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart from turning to Jehovah the God of Israel.

¹⁴Also, all the heads of the priests, and the people were continually acting treacherously according to all the abominable idols of the nations; and they defiled the house of Jehovah that He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

¹⁵And Jehovah, the God of their fathers, sent to them by the hand of His messengers, rising early and sending, for He had pity on his people and on His dwelling-place; ¹⁶but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets until the wrath of Jehovah went up against His people, until there was no healing. ¹⁷And He caused the king of the Chaldeans to go up against them; and he killed their choice ones by the sword in the house of their holy place, and had no pity on the young man and the virgin, the old man and the very aged; He gave all into his hand. ¹⁸And all the vessels of the house of God, the large and the small, and treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king and his leaders, he brought all to Babylon. ¹⁹And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem; and they burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its beautiful vessels. ²⁰And he removed to Babylon those who were left of the sword; and they were slaves to him and to his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia; ²¹in order to fulfill the word of Jehovah in the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths; all the days of the desolation it kept the sabbath, to the full measure of seventy years.

²²And in the first year of Cyrus the king of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of Jehovah in the mouth of Jeremiah, Jehovah awakened the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia, and he caused a voice to pass throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, ²³So says Cyrus the king of Persia, Jehovah the God of the heavens has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has laid a charge on me to build a house in Jerusalem to Him, that is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May Jehovah his God be with him, and let him go up.

THE BOOK OF EZRA

¹And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he made a proclamation in all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, ²So says Cyrus king of Persia, Jehovah God of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Who is there among you of all His people? His God is with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Jehovah God of Israel —He is God—which is in Jerusalem. ⁴And all who remain in any of the places where he resides, let the men of his place lift up him with silver, and with gold, and with property, and with animals, besides the free-will offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

⁵Then the chiefs of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, and everyone whose spirit God had awakened, rose up to go up to build the house of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem. ⁶And all those who were around them made their hands strong with vessels of silver, with gold, with property, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. ⁷Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of Jehovah, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem and had put them in the house of his gods. ⁸Even those Cyrus king of Persia brought forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. ⁹And this is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, a thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, ¹⁰thirty basins of gold, four hundred and ten silver basins of a second kind, a thousand other vessels. ¹¹All the vessels of gold and of silver —five thousand and four hundred. Sheshbazzar made to go up all when the exiled were caused to go up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹Now these are the sons of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been exiled, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled to Babylon. And they came again to Jerusalem and Judah, each one to his own city; ²who came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

This is the number of the men of the people of Israel: ³The sons of Parosh, two thousand, one hundred and seventy-two. ⁴The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. ⁵The sons of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five. ⁶The sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand, eight hundred and twelve. ⁷The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. ⁸The sons of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five. ⁹The sons of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty. ¹⁰The sons of Bani, six hundred and forty-two. ¹¹The sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three. ¹²The sons of Azgad, a thousand, two hundred and twenty-two. ¹³The sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six. ¹⁴The sons of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six. ¹⁵The sons of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four. ¹⁶The sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. ¹⁷The sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three. ¹⁸The sons of Jorah, a hundred and twelve. ¹⁹The sons of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three. ²⁰The sons of Gibbar, ninety-five. ²¹The sons of Bethlehem, a hundred and twenty-three. ²²The men of Netophah, fifty-six. ²³The men of Anathoth, a hundred and twenty-eight. ²⁴The sons of Azmaveth, forty-two. ²⁵The sons of Kirjath-avim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three. ²⁶The sons of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one. ²⁷The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two. ²⁸The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three. ²⁹The men of Nebo, fifty-two. ³⁰The men of Magbish, a hundred and fifty-six. ³¹The sons of the other Elam, a thousand, two hundred and fifty-four.

³²The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty. ³³The sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five.

³⁴The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five. ³⁵The sons of Senaah, three thousand, six hundred and thirty. ³⁶The priests: The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three. ³⁷The sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-two. ³⁸The sons of Pashur, a thousand, two hundred and forty-seven.

³⁹The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. ⁴⁰The Levites: The sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, seventy-four. ⁴¹The singers: The sons of Asaph, a hundred and twenty-eight. ⁴²The sons of the porters: The sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, a hundred and thirty-nine.

⁴³The temple-slaves: The sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabaoth, ⁴⁴the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmi, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰the sons of Asnah, the sons of Mehunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵²the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Thamah, ⁵⁴the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha. ⁵⁵The sons of Solomon's servants: The sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Ami. ⁵⁸All the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

⁵⁹And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Ad-dan and Immer — but they were not able to declare their father's house and their seed, whether they were of Israel—⁶⁰the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two. ⁶¹And of the sons of the priests were the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. ⁶²These looked for their register among those who were counted by genealogy, but they were not found. And they were polluted from the priesthood. ⁶³And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty. ⁶⁵besides their male slaves and their slavegirls; these were seven thousand, three hundred and thirty-seven; and among them two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, ⁶⁷their camels four hundred and thirty-five, their asses six thousand, seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸And some of the heads of the fathers, when they came to the house of Jehovah which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in its place. ⁶⁹They gave according to their ability to the treasury of the ministry sixty-one thousand drachmas of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred garments for the priests. ⁷⁰And the priests, and the Levites, and many of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple-slaves lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

¹And when the seventh month had come, and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people assembled as one man to Jerusalem. ²Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel in order to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. ³And they set the altar on its bases, for fear was on them because of the people of those countries. And he offered burnt offerings on it to Jehovah, burnt offerings morning and evening. ⁴They also performed the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and the burnt offerings by number, days by days, according to the ordinance, the thing of days in its day. ⁵And afterward the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of Jehovah that were set apart, and of every one who willingly offered a free-will offering to Jehovah. ⁶From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah. But the foundation of the temple of Jehovah was not laid. ⁷They also gave silver to the cutters and to the craftsmen; and food and drink and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests, and the Levites, and all they who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began. And they made to stand the Levites, from a son of twenty years and over, to oversee the work of the house of Jehovah. ⁹Then Jeshua stood up together with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, to oversee the workmen in the house of God—the sons of Henadad with their sons, and their brothers the Levites. ¹⁰And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Jehovah, they made stand the priests in their robes with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Jehovah, according to the ordinance of David king of Israel. ¹¹And they sang praising and giving thanks to Jehovah, because He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised Jehovah, because the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid. ¹²But many of the priests and Levites, and heads of the fathers, the aged men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, they wept with a loud voice. And many shouted aloud for joy, ¹³so that the people could not tell the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of weeping of the people. For the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

¹And when the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the captivity built the temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, ²then they came to Zerubbabel and to the head of the fathers and said to them, Let us build with you, for we seek your God, as you. And we have not sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here. ³But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Israel said to them, It is not for you and for us to build a house to our God. But we ourselves will together build to Jehovah the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us. ⁴Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah and terrified them in building. ⁵And they hired counselors against them to break their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

⁶And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, wrote to Artaxerxes the king of Persia. And the letter was written in Aramaic, and translated from Aramaic; ⁸Rehum, the master of counsel in charge, and Shimshai the scribe, wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king, thus: ⁹Then Rehum the master of counsel, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates—the judges, and the emissaries, the consuls, the officials, the Erechites, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, ¹⁰and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper exiled and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest of the province Beyond the River, and now, ¹¹this is the copy of the letter which they sent to him to Artaxerxes the king: Your servants, the men of the province Beyond the River, and now, ¹²let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have come to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding the rebellious and the evil city, and are completing the walls, and have joined the foundations. ¹³Now let it be known to the king that if this city is rebuilt, and the walls completed, they will not give tax, tribute, and forced labor, and it will cause the king's revenue to suffer. ¹⁴Now because we have partaken of the palace salt, and it is not right for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and notified the king ¹⁵so that he may search in the book of the records of your fathers, and you shall discover in the book of the records, and shall know that that city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and to provinces; and insurrection was stirred up in it in the past; for which reason this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We notify the king that if that city is built, and its walls completed, then you shall have no portion Beyond the River.

¹⁷The message the king sent to Rehum the master of counsel, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their associates who dwell in Samaria, and to the rest Beyond the River: Peace! And now, ¹⁸the letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. ¹⁹And I gave a decree, and search has been made, and it is found that this city has lifted up itself against kings in the past, and rebellion and revolt have been made in it. ²⁰There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all Beyond the River. And tax, tribute, and forced labor were paid to them. ²¹Now make a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be rebuilt until the decree shall be given from me. ²²And beware of being at fault, to act on this. Why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? ²³Then as soon as the copy of the letter of Artaxerxes the king was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their associates, they hurried to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them stop working by force and power. ²⁴Then the work of the house of God in Jerusalem stopped. So it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

¹And the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God in Jerusalem. And with them were the prophets of God helping them. ³At that time Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-boznai, and their associates, came to them, and said this to them: Who has commanded you to build this house and to complete this structure? ⁴Then we spoke to them in this way, What are they, the names of the men building this building? ⁵But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they could not cause them to stop until the matter came to Darius. And then they sent back a letter concerning this. ⁶The copy of the letter which Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-boznai, and his associates the officials who were Beyond the River, sent to Darius the king: They sent a letter to him, and this was written in it: To Darius the king, all peace. ⁷Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, and it is being built with rolling stones, and timber is being laid in the walls, and that work is being done perfectly, and is prospering in their hands. ⁸Then we asked those elders and said this to them, Who commanded you to rebuild this house, and to complete this structure? ⁹And we also asked their names in order to inform you so that we might write the names of the men who are at their heads. ¹⁰And they returned the answer to us this way, saying, We are servants of the God of Heaven and earth. And we are rebuilding the house that was built many years before this, and the great king of Israel built it and finished it. ¹¹But because our fathers had provoked to wrath the God of Heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, and he tore down this house, and he exiled its people to Babylon. ¹²But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, king Cyrus placed an order to build this house of God. ¹³And also the vessels of gold and silver from the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor. ¹⁵And he said to him, Take these vessels and go. Deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built on its place. ¹⁶Then that Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God in Jerusalem. And from then even until now it has been building, but is not finished. ¹⁷Now, therefore, if it is good to the king, let there be a search made in the king's treasure house which is there at Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was given from Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem. And let the will of the king concerning this be sent to us.

¹Then Darius the king made a decree, and they searched in the house of the scrolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. ²And there was found in Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a scroll. And in it was a record written thus: ³In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king placed a decree concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the house be built, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid. Its height shall be sixty cubits; its breadth sixty cubits; with three layers of rolling stones, and a layer of new timber. And let the expenses be given out of the king's house. ⁴And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, that Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be given back and go to the temple in Jerusalem, to their place. And put them in the house of God. ⁵Now, Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and your associates, the officials who are Beyond the River, you be far from there. ⁶Let the work of this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in its place. ⁷Also I make a decree as to what you shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of that house of God, that the exact expense be given to these men from the king's property, out of the tax Beyond the River, so that they may not have to cease working. ⁸And that which they need, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of Heaven; wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as say the priests in Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail, ⁹so that they may offer sacrifices of sweet odor to the God of Heaven, and pray for the life of the king and of his sons. ¹⁰Also I have placed a decree that whoever shall alter this word, let timber be torn out from his house, and let him be impaled and hanged on it. And let his house be made an outhouse for this. ¹¹And may the God who has caused His name to dwell there destroy any kings and people who shall put their hand to alter or destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have placed a decree. Let it be done exactly.

¹²Then Tatnai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and their associates exactly did so, according to that which Darius the king had sent. ¹³And the elders of the Jews were building. And they were succeeding through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built, and finished, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the command of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes the king of Persia.

¹⁴And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. ¹⁵And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. ¹⁶And they offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and male goats, for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁷And they offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and male goats, for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they raised up the priests in their sections, and the Levites in their division, for the service of God which is in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses. ¹⁹And the sons of the captivity performed the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month. ²⁰For the priests and the Levites were purified together; all of them were pure. And they slaughtered the passover lamb for all the sons of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. ²¹And the sons of Israel ate, those who had returned from the captivity, and who had all separated themselves to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, to seek Jehovah the God of Israel. ²²And they performed the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy. For Jehovah had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to make their hands strong in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

¹And after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zeremiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the head priest, ⁶this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was a well-read scribe in the law of Moses, which Jehovah the God of Israel had given. And the king granted him all he asked, according to the hand of Jehovah his God on him. ⁷And of the sons of Israel went up some of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple-slaves to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. ⁸And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹For on the first of the first month, he laid the foundation in order to go up from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of God on him. ¹⁰For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of Jehovah, and to do it, and to teach statutes and judgments in Israel.

¹¹And this is the copy of the letter which the king, Artaxerxes, gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commands of Jehovah, and of His statutes to Israel: ¹²Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, perfect peace, and now: ¹³From me was made a decree that any one of the people of Israel, and their priests and Levites in my kingdom, who volunteers to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you; ¹⁴since you have been sent by the king, and by his seven counselors to ask about Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God in your hand; ¹⁵and to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose house is in Jerusalem: ¹⁶Even all the silver and gold which you can find in all the province of Babylon, with the free offering of the people, and of the priests, giving willingly for the house of their God in Jerusalem.

¹⁷Before any of this you shall diligently buy with this silver bulls, rams, lambs, with their food offerings, and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. ¹⁹Also the vessels which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰And the rest of the needs of the house of your God which falls to you to give, give it out of the king's treasure house. ²¹And I, Artaxerxes the king, place a decree to all the treasurers who are Beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, shall ask of you, it shall be done exactly, ²²to a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred kors of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without stipulation. ²³Whatever is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be carefully done for the house of the God of Heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? ²⁴Also, we notify you that in regard to any of the priests and the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple-slaves, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, taxes, or forced labor on them. ²⁵And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God in your hand, you appoint judges and magistrates who may judge all the people who are Beyond the River; all who know the laws of your God; and those who do not know, you cause to know. ²⁶And whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed diligently on him, whether to death, or to exile, or to confiscation of goods, or imprisonment. ²⁷Blessed be Jehovah God of our fathers, who has put this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem. ²⁸And He has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty leaders. And I was made strong, as the hand of Jehovah my God was on me. And I gathered out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

¹Now these are the heads of the fathers, and the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king: ²From the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. From the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. From the sons of David, Hattush. ³From the sons of Shechaniah, from the sons of Parosh, Zechariah. And with him were counted by genealogy a hundred and fifty of the males. ⁴From the sons of Pahath-moab, Elihoenai the son of Zerariah, and two hundred males with him. ⁵From the sons of Shechaniah, the son of Jahaziel, and three hundred males with him. ⁶And from the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. ⁷And from the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and seventy males with him. ⁸And from the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and eighty males with him. ⁹From the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and two hundred and eighteen males with him. ¹⁰And from the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah, and a hundred and sixty males with him. ¹¹And from the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and twenty-eight males with him. ¹²And from the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and a hundred and ten males with him. ¹³And from the last sons of Adonikam, these: Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and sixty males with them. ¹⁴And from the sons of Bigvai, Uthai, Zabbud, and seventy males with them.

¹⁵And I gathered them to the river which runs to Ahava. And we camped there in tents three days. And I considered the people and the priests, and did not find there any of the sons of Levi. ¹⁶Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, head men; also for Joiarib and for Elnathan, men of understanding. ¹⁷And I sent them with command to Iddo, the head of the place Casiphia, and I put in their mouth words to say to Iddo, to his brothers the temple-slaves, at the place Casiphia; that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. ¹⁸And by the good hand of our God on us, they brought us a man of understanding, from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen. ¹⁹Also came Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty. ²⁰Also came of the temple-slaves whom David and the leaders had chosen for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple-slaves. All of them were called by name.

²¹Then I called a fast there at the river Ahava, so that we might humble ourselves before our God, in order to seek from Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our goods. ²²For I was ashamed to ask of the king troops and horsemen to help us against the enemy of the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek Him for good; but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him. ²³So we fasted and prayed to our God for good. And He was pleased to hear us.

²⁴Then I separated twelve of the chiefs of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them. ²⁵And I weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God, which the king and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel who were there had lifted up. ²⁶I even weighed into their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, a hundred talents of gold — ²⁷also twenty basins of gold of a thousand drams, and two vessels of shining bronze as precious as gold. ²⁸And I said to them, You are holy to Jehovah. The vessels also are holy. And the silver and the gold are a free-will offering to Jehovah God of your fathers. ²⁹Watch and keep them until you weigh before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and the chief of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of Jehovah. ³⁰So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

³¹And we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. and the hand of our God was on us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and ambushers along the way. ³²And we came to Jerusalem, and remained there three days. ³³And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest. And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levites. ³⁴By number, by weight of all, and all the weight was written at that time. ³⁵The sons of those who had come out of the captivity, of the exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering. All was a burnt offering to Jehovah. ³⁶And they delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps, and to the governors of the province Beyond the River. And they helped the people and the house of God.

¹And at the end of these things, the leaders came near to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, as to their idolatries, even the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ²For they have taken from their daughters for themselves, and for their sons. So the holy seed have mixed themselves with the people of the lands. Yes, the hand of the leaders and the overseers has been foremost in this treachery. ³And when I heard this thing, I tore my garments and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down stricken dumb. ⁴Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel were gathered to me, because of the perfidy of the exiles. And I remained stunned until the evening offering. ⁵And at the evening offering I rose up from my fasting, and with my garment and my robe torn, I even fell on my knees and spread out my hands to Jehovah my God. ⁶And I said, O my God, I am ashamed and wounded to lift up my face to You, O my God. For our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown to the heavens. ⁷Since the days of our fathers we have been in great guilt until this day. And for our iniquities we, our kings, our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to shame of faces to this day. ⁸And now, for a little time grace has been shown from Jehovah our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His holy place, so that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage. ⁹For we were slaves, yet our God has not left us in our bondage, but has given mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to raise up the house of our God, and to make stand its ruins, and to give to us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. ¹⁰And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments ¹¹which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you go, to possess it, it is an unclean land with the impurity of the people of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one mouth to mouth with their uncleanness.

¹²And now do not give your daughters to their sons, and do not take their daughters to your sons, or seek their peace, or their wealth forever, so that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your sons forever. ¹³And after all that has come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, since You our God have held back the rod on our iniquities, and have given us such an escape as this. ¹⁴Shall we again break

Your commandments and intermarry with the people of these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had crushed us, until there is no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵O Jehovah God of Israel, You are righteous. For we are left as escapees, as it is this day. Behold, we are before You in our guilt, for none is to stand before You because of this.

¹And while Ezra was praying and making his confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great congregation of men and women and children gathered to him out of Israel. For the people wept with a great weeping. ²And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We have sinned against our God, and have dwelt with foreign women from the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. ³And now let us cut a covenant with our God to put away all the women, and those born of them, according to the counsel of the Lord and of those who tremble at the command of our God. And let it be done according to the Law. ⁴Rise up, for the matter is on you. We also will be with you. Be strong and act.

⁵Then Ezra rose up and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear that they would do according to this word. And they swore. ⁶Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the room of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And he went there, and he did not eat food, nor did he drink, for he mourned for the perfidy of the exiles. ⁷And they passed a call throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the sons of the exile, to assemble at Jerusalem; ⁸and that whoever would not come within three days according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his property would be forfeited, and he would be excluded from the congregation of the exiles.

⁹Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered to Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month. And all the people sat in the plaza of the house of God, trembling because of the matter, and because of the heavy rain. ¹⁰And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, You have trespassed and have dwelt with foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel.

¹¹And now make confession to Jehovah God of your fathers and do His will. And separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign women.

¹²Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, Right! According to your word it is on us to do. ¹³But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain. And we are not able to stand outside. And the work is not of one or two days. For we have greatly sinned in this thing.

¹⁴Please let our rulers for all the congregation stand, and let all those who have dwelt with foreign wives in our cities come at a set time, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter has turned from us. ¹⁵Only, Jonathan the son of Asahel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah made a stand against this. And Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

¹⁶And the sons of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest with men, heads of the fathers, according to the house of their fathers, and all of them by names, were separated. And they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. ¹⁷And they finished with all the men who had dwelt with foreign women by the first day of the first month. ¹⁸And among the sons of the priests, these were found who had dwelt with foreign women: From the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹And they gave their hands that they would put away their women. And being guilty they offered a ram of the flock for their sin. ²⁰And from the sons of Immer were Hanani and Zebadiah. ²¹And from the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah. ²²And from the sons of Pashur: Elieonai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah. ²³Also from the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah —he was Kelita—Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. ²⁴From the singers also were Eliashib; and from the gatekeepers, Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. ²⁵And from Israel: From the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. ²⁶And from the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. ²⁷And from the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. ²⁸And from the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. ²⁹And from the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth. ³⁰And from the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Beza-leel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. ³¹And from the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. ³³From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei. ³⁴From the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau, ³⁸and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, ³⁹and Shelemiah, Nathan, and Adaiah, ⁴⁰Machnadebai, Sheasha, Sharai, ⁴¹Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. ⁴³From the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

⁴⁴All these had risen with foreign women; and there were some of them with women, and they gave sons.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

¹The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it happened in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, ²Hanani came, one of my brothers, he and men of Judah. And I asked them about the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and about Jerusalem. ³And they said to me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great evil and shame. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire. ⁴And it happened, when I heard these words, I sat down and I wept, and mourned for days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of Heaven. ⁵And I said, I beseech You, Jehovah God of Heaven, the great and awesome God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those loving Him, and to keepers of His commandments—⁶let Your ear now be open, and Your eyes open, so that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You today, day and night, for Your servants the sons of Israel; and confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both I and my father's house have sinned. ⁷We have acted utterly corrupt against You, and have not kept the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which You commanded Your servant Moses. ⁸I beseech You, remember the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, If you sin, I will scatter you among the peoples. ⁹But if you will turn to Me and keep My commandments, and do them, though you were cast out to the outermost part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to set My name there. ¹⁰And these are Your servants and Your people whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand. ¹¹O Lord, I beg You, let Your ear be open to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who delight to fear Your name. And I beg You, bless Your servant today and grant him mercy before this man. For I was cupbearer to the king.

¹And it happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him. And I took the wine and gave to the king. And I had never been sad to his face. ²And the king said to me, Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart. Then I was very much afraid. ³And I said to the king, Let the king live forever. Why should not my face be sad when the place of my fathers' tombs, the City, lies waste and its gates are burned with fire? ⁴Then the king said to me, For what do you ask? So I prayed to the God of Heaven, ⁵and I said to the king, If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah to the city of my fathers' tombs, so that I might build it. ⁶And the king said to me, the queen also sitting beside him, For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return? So it pleased the king, and he sent me; and I set him a time. ⁷And I said to the king, If it is good to the king, let letters be given me to the governors Beyond the River, so that they may let me go through until I come to Judah; ⁸also a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, so that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which is for the house, and for the city wall, and for the house into which I shall enter. And the king granted it to me, according to the good hand of my God on me.

⁹Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. And the king had sent army commanders, and horsemen, with me. ¹⁰And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard. And it grieved them greatly that a man had come to seek the good of the sons of Israel. ¹¹So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days. ¹²And I rose up in the night, I and a few men with me. And I told no man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem. And there was no animal with me except the animal that I rode on. ¹³And I went out by night by the Valley Gate, even before the Jackal Fountain, and to the Dung Gate. And I examined the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and its gates which were burned with fire. ¹⁴Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate, and to the King's Pool. But there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. ¹⁵Then I went up in the night by the brook, and examined the wall, and turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and returned. ¹⁶And the rulers did not know where I had gone, or what I was doing. Nor had I told it yet to the Jews, or to the priests, or to the nobles, or to the rulers, or to the rest that did the work. ¹⁷Then I said to them, You see the evil that we are in, how Jerusalem is wasted, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no longer be a reproach. ¹⁸Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, and also the king's words that he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they made their hands strong for good.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard, then they mocked us and despised us. And they said, What is this that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king? ²⁰Then I answered them and said to them, The God of Heaven, He will prosper us, and we his servants will arise and build. But you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem.

¹And Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests. And they built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and made stand its doors. Even to the Tower of Meah they sanctified it, to the Tower of Hananeel. ²And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to him Zaccur the son of Imri built. ³But the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate, who laid its beams, and made stand its doors, its locks and its bars. ⁴And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz repaired. And next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel repaired. And next to them Zadok the son of Baana repaired. ⁵And next to them the Tekoites repaired. But their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord. ⁶And the Old Gate was repaired by Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams, and made stand its doors, and its locks, and its bars. ⁷And next to them Melatiah of Gibeon repaired, and Jadon of Meron, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, to the throne of the governor Beyond the River. ⁸And next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths, repaired. And next to his hand Hananiah the son of one of the perfumers repaired. And they left safe Jerusalem to the Broad Wall. ⁹And next to their hand Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, repaired. ¹⁰And next to their hand Jedaiah the son of Harumaph repaired, even across from his house. And next to his hand Hattush the son of Hashabniah repaired. ¹¹Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab repaired the other piece, and the Tower of the Furnaces. ¹²And next to his hand Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters repaired. ¹³Hanun, and the dwellers of Zanoah, repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and made stand its doors, its locks, and its bars, and a thousand cubits on the wall to the Dung Gate.

¹⁴And the Dung Gate was repaired by Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-hacerem. He built it, and made stand its doors, its locks, and its bars. ¹⁵And the Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah. He built it and covered it, and made stand its doors, its locks, and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, and to the stairs that go down from the City of David. ¹⁶After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, repaired in front of the Tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. ¹⁷After him the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani, repaired. On his hand Hashabiah the ruler of the half part of Keilah, repaired in his part. ¹⁸After him their brothers, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, repaired. ¹⁹And next to his hand Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another piece before the going up to the armory at the corner.

²⁰After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece from the corner to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. ²¹After him Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz repaired another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. ²²And after him the priests, the men of the plain, repaired. ²³After them Benjamin and Hashub repaired across from their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah repaired by his house. ²⁴After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another piece, from the house of Azariah to the corner, even to the tower. ²⁵Palal the son of Uzai repaired across from the corner, and the tower which sticks out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh repaired.

²⁶And the temple-slaves lived in Ophel, across from the Water Gate toward the east, and the tower that sticks out. ²⁷After him the Tekoites repaired another piece, opposite the great tower that sticks out, even to the wall of Ophel. ²⁸The priests repaired from above the Horse Gate, each before his house. ²⁹After them Zadok the son of Immer repaired across from his house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired. ³⁰After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired another piece. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah repaired across from his room. ³¹After him Malchiah the goldsmith's son repaired the place of the temple-slaves, and of the merchants, before the Miphkad Gate, and to the going up of the corner. ³²And between the going up of the corner to the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

¹And it happened, when Sanballat heard that we built the wall, he was angry, and it was greatly enraging to him, and he mocked the Jews. ²And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they forsake themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they make an end in a day? Will they bring to life the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? ³And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox goes up, he will even break down their stone wall. ⁴O our God, hear. For we are despised. And turn their curse on their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity. ⁵And do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You. For they have provoked You to anger before the builders. ⁶So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together to the half of it. For the people had a heart to work.

⁷And it happened, when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone up, that the breaks were being closed up, it was very angering to them. ⁸And all of them conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and do harm to it. ⁹But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. ¹⁰And Judah said, The strength of the carriers of burdens is weakening, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall. ¹¹And our foes have said, They shall not know, or see, until we come in the middle of them and kill them, and cause the work to cease. ¹²And when the Jews who lived near them came in, they said to us ten times, From all places where you shall return, they will be against us. ¹³So I stationed from the lowest parts of the place, from the back of the wall, in the higher places, even I stationed the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

¹⁴And I saw. And I rose up and said to the nobles and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

¹⁵And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had broken their counsel, all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work. ¹⁶And it happened, from that time on, half of my servants worked in the work, and the other half of them were holding the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the scale-armor. And the rulers were behind all the house of Judah — ¹⁷the ones who built on the wall, and the ones who carried a burden, bearing with one of his hands, a worker in the work; and one holder of the weapon. ¹⁸For each man of the builders had his sword tied by his side, and built. And he who sounded the ram's horn was beside me. ¹⁹And I said to the nobles and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another. ²⁰In whatever place you hear the sound of the ram's horn, gather there to us. Our God will fight for us. ²¹So we labored in the work. And half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars came out. ²²Likewise, at the same time I said to the people, Let each man with his servant stay inside Jerusalem, so that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor in the day. ²³So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, though each had his vessel of water.

¹And there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brothers the Jews. ²For some were saying, With our sons and our daughters, we are many. Let us take up grain for them, so that we may eat and live. ³*Some* also were saying, We have mortgaged our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses; let us take up grain because of the famine. ⁴And some were saying, We have borrowed silver for the king's tax, on our fields, and our vineyards, yet now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers; as their sons, so are our sons; and, behold, we are bringing our sons and our daughters into bondage, to be slaves; yea, there are some of our daughters brought into bondage. And there is no power for our hand, and our fields and our vineyards are to other men.

words, I was very angry. ⁷Then my heart ruled within myself, and I contended with the nobles and the magistrates. And I said to them, You are each man lending at interest, from his brother. And I held a great assembly against them. ⁸And I said to them, According to our ability we have redeemed our brothers, the Jews who were sold to the nations. And will you yet sell your brothers? Or shall they be sold to us? Then they were silent, and did not find a word. ⁹Also I said, The thing you do is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? ¹⁰Likewise, my brothers and my servants are lending them silver and grain. I beg you, let us leave off this interest. ¹¹I beg you, even today give back to them their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses; also the hundredth part of their money, and of the grain, the wine, and the oil, that you have taken from them. ¹²Then they said, We will restore, and will ask nothing from them. So we will do as you say. Then I called the priests and took an oath from them that they would do according to this word. ¹³Also I shook my lap, and I said, So may God shake out every man from his house and from his labor who does not do this thing; even may he be shaken out this way and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised Jehovah. And the people did according to this thing.

¹⁴And from the time that I was chosen to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I and my brothers did not eat the bread of the governor. ¹⁵The former governors that had been before me were too heavy on the people, and had taken bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people. But I did not do this, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶Yea, I also was strong in the work of this wall, nor did we buy a field. And all my servants were gathered there to the work. ¹⁷And at my table were a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us. ¹⁸And that which was prepared for me daily was one ox, six fat sheep. Also birds were prepared for me; and between ten days, in all of the wine plentifully. And with this I did not seek the bread of the governor, for the bondage was heavy on this people. ¹⁷Think upon me for good, my God, according to all that I have done for this people.

¹And it happened, when it was heard by Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that no break was left in it—though at that time I had not made stand doors on the gates—²Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do evil to me. ³And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, and I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you? ⁴And they sent to me four times in this way. And I answered them in the same way. ⁵Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, in which was written, ⁶It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says, you and the Jews are thinking of rebelling; for which reason you are building the wall, so that you may be a king to them, according to these words. ⁷And you have also set up prophets to preach about you at Jerusalem, saying, A king in Judah! And now it shall be reported to the king according to these words. Therefore, come now and let us talk it over together. ⁸And I sent to him, saying, These things which you are saying are not happening, for you pretend them out of your own heart. ⁹For they all were alarmers of us, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, and it will not be done. And now, make my hands strong.

¹⁰And I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up. And he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple. For they will come to kill you. Yea, in the night they will come to kill you. ¹¹And I said, Should such a man as I flee? And who being as I am would go into the temple and live? I will not go in. ¹²And I understood, that behold, God had not sent him. For he spoke the prophecy against me, and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³So he was hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and I should sin, and become for them for an evil name with which they might reproach me. ¹⁴My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also to the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets who are my alarmers.

¹⁵So the wall was restored in the twenty-fifth of Elul, on the fifty-second day. ¹⁶And when all our enemies heard, and all the nations who were around us saw, they were very much lowered in their own eyes. For they saw that this work was done by our God.

¹⁷And in those days the nobles of Judah were increasing their letters going to Tobiah, and those of Tobiah came to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were sworn to him because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. ¹⁹Also they reported his good deeds before me, and my words were going to him. Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

¹And it happened, when the wall was built, I made stand the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were chosen. ²I commanded that my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, be over Jerusalem. For he was as a faithful man, and feared God above many. ³And I said to them, do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot. And while they are standing, let them shut and bar the doors. And make stand guards from the people of Jerusalem, each one in his watch, and each one to be across from his house. ⁴And the city was wide on both hands, and great, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not being built. ⁵And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, so that they might be counted by genealogy. And I found a register of genealogy of those who came up at the first. And I found written in it: ⁶These are the sons of the province who went up of the exiles, of the captivity, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had removed. And they came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his city. ⁷The ones coming with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah; the number of the men of the people of Israel was: ⁸The sons of Parosh were two thousand, one hundred and seventy-two. ⁹The sons of Shephatiah were three hundred and seventy-two. ¹⁰The sons of Arah were six hundred and fifty-two. ¹¹The sons of Pahath-moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, were two thousand, eight hundred and eighteen. ¹²The sons of Elam were a thousand, two hundred and fifty-four. ¹³The sons of Zattu were eight hundred and forty-five. ¹⁴The sons of Zaccai were seven hundred and sixty. ¹⁵The sons of Binnui were six hundred and forty-eight. ¹⁶The sons of Bebai were six hundred and twenty-eight. ¹⁷The sons of Azgad were two thousand, three hundred and twenty-two. ¹⁸The sons of Adonikam were six hundred and sixty-seven. ¹⁹The sons of Bigvai were two thousand and sixty-seven.

²⁰The sons of Adin were six hundred and fifty-five. ²¹The sons of Ater of Hezekiah were ninety-eight. ²²The sons of Hashum were three hundred and twenty-eight. ²³The sons of Bezai were three hundred and twenty-four. ²⁴The sons of Hariph were a hundred and twelve. ²⁵The sons of Gibeon were ninety-five. ²⁶The men of Bethlehem and Netophah were a hundred and eighty-eight. ²⁷the men of Anathoth were a hundred and twenty-eight. ²⁸The men of Beth-azmaveth were forty-two. ²⁹The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth were seven hundred and forty-three. ³⁰The men of Ramah and Gaba were six hundred and twenty-one. ³¹The men of Michmas were a hundred and twenty-two. ³²The men of Bethel and Ai were a hundred and twenty-three. ³³The men of the other Nebo were fifty-two. ³⁴The sons of the other Elam were a thousand, two hundred and fifty-four. ³⁵The sons of Harim were three hundred and twenty. ³⁶The sons of Jericho were three hundred and forty-five.

³⁷The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono were seven hundred and twenty-one. ³⁸The sons of Senaah were three thousand, nine hundred and thirty.

³⁹The priests: The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua: nine hundred and seventy-three. ⁴⁰The sons of Immer were a thousand and fifty-two. ⁴¹The sons of Pashur were a thousand, two hundred and forty-seven. ⁴²The sons of Harim were a thousand and seventeen. ⁴³The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the sons of Hodevah, were seventy-four. ⁴⁴The singers: the sons of Asaph were a hundred and forty-eight. ⁴⁵The gatekeepers: The sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai were a hundred and thirty-eight. ⁴⁶The temple-slaves: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hashupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁷the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁸the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmai, ⁴⁹the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, ⁵²the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephteshim, ⁵³the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, ⁵⁶the sons of Nezhiah, the sons of Hatipha; ⁵⁷of the sons of Solomon's servants, the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Amon. ⁶⁰All the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.

⁶¹And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-haresa, Cherub, Addon, and Immer. But they were not able to manifest their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel: ⁶²the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two; ⁶³and of the priests, the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. ⁶⁴These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found. And they were polluted from the priesthood. ⁶⁵And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶All the congregation together was forty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty. ⁶⁷Besides the male slaves and their slavegirls, these were seven thousand, three hundred and thirty-seven. And they had two hundred and forty-five singing men and singing women. ⁶⁸Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six. Their mules were two hundred and forty-five; ⁶⁹camels, four hundred and thirty-five; asses, six thousand, seven hundred and twenty.

⁷⁰And some of the heads of the fathers gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. ⁷¹And some of the heads of the fathers gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand, two hundred pieces of silver. ⁷²And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand pieces of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. ⁷³So the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the temple-slaves, and all Israel, lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel were in their cities.

¹And all the people gathered as one man into the plaza that was before the Water Gate. And they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which Jehovah had commanded to Israel. ²And Ezra the priest brought the Law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. ³And he read in it before the plaza that was before the Water Gate, from the morning until noon, before the men and the women, and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people listened to the Book of the Law. ⁴And Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand were Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the book to the eyes of all the people, for he was above all the people. And when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶And Ezra blessed Jehovah, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed and worshiped to Jehovah with their noses to the ground. ⁷And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the Law. And the people were in their place. ⁸And they read aloud clearly in the Book of the Law of God, and they gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. ⁹And Nehemiah the governor, and Ezra the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to Jehovah your God. Do not mourn or weep, For all the people wept when they heard the words of the Law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, Go eat the fat, and drink of the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared. For this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be sorry, for the joy of Jehovah is your stronghold. ¹¹And the Levites were silencing all the people, saying, Be quiet, for today is holy, and do not be grieved. ¹²And all the people went to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words which were made known to them.

¹³And on the second day the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the Law. ¹⁴And they found written in the Law which Jehovah had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: ¹⁵and that they should make heard and cause to pass the call in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mountain and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, and myrtle branches, and branches of palm, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. ¹⁶And the people went out and brought in, and made booths for themselves, each man on his roof and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the plaza of the Water Gate, and in the plaza of the Ephraim Gate. ¹⁷And all the congregation of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths. For since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day, the sons of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. ¹⁸Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read in the Book of the Law of God. And they made the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was an assembly according to the Law.

¹And on the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel were gathered with fasting and with sackcloth, and with earth on them. ²And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of aliens, and they stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their fathers. ³And they stood up in their place and read in the Book of the Law of Jehovah their God a fourth part of the day. And a fourth part they confessed and worshiped Jehovah their God. ⁴Then Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chenani, of the Levites, stood on the stairs and cried with a loud voice to Jehovah their God. ⁵Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah said, Stand up! Bless Jehovah your God forever and ever. And blessed be the Name of Your Glory, even You being exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶You alone are He, O Jehovah; You have made the heavens, and heavens of the heavens, and all their host; the earth and all which is on it; the seas, and all that is in them; and You shall preserve them all alive. And the host of the heavens bows down to You. ⁷You are Jehovah the God who chose Abram, and brought him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and appointed his name Abraham. ⁸And You found his heart faithful before You, and cut with him the covenant to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, even to give it to his seed. And You have performed Your words, for You are righteous. ⁹And You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds. ¹⁰And You gave signs and wonders on Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of the land. For You knew that they were seething against them. And You made a name for Yourself, as it is this day. ¹¹And You divided the Sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the Sea on the dry land. And their pursuers You threw into the deep, like a stone into the mighty waters. ¹²And You led them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way in which they should go. ¹³And You came down on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from the heavens, and gave them right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments. ¹⁴And You made Your holy sabbath known to them, and commanded them commandments, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Your servant Moses.

¹⁵And You gave them bread from the heavens for their hunger, and brought forth water for them for their thirst out of the rock. And You said to them that they should go in to possess the land which You had raised Your hand to give them. ¹⁶But they and our fathers seethed, and hardened their necks, and did not listen to Your commands. ¹⁷And they refused to obey, and were not mindful of Your wonders which You did among them. But they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return them to their bondage. But You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and did not forsake them. ¹⁸Yea, when they had made a molten calf for themselves, and said, This is your god who brought you up out of Egypt, and had worked great blasphemies, ¹⁹yet You in Your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not depart from them by day to lead them in the way; nor the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. ²⁰You also gave Your good Spirit to teach them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. ²¹Yea, forty years You sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell. ²²And You gave them kingdoms and peoples, and divided them to corners. And they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

²³You also multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens, and brought them into the land which You had promised to their fathers, that they should go in and possess it. ²⁴And the sons went in and possessed the land, and You humbled the people of the land before them, the Canaanites. And You gave them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, to do with them as they desired. ²⁵And they took strong cities, and a rich land, and occupied houses full of all goods, wells already dug, vineyards and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance. And they ate, and were filled, and became fat, and lived luxuriously in Your great goodness.

²⁶But they were disobedient, and rebelled against You, and cast Your law behind their backs. And they killed Your prophets who testified against them, to turn them to You. And they worked great blasphemies. ²⁷And You gave them into the hand of their enemies, who distressed them. And in the time of their distress, they cried to You; and You heard from Heaven. And according to Your manifold mercies, You gave them deliverers, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. ²⁸But after a rest to them, they turned to doing evil before You. And You left them in the hand of their haters, and they ruled over them. But they came back and cried to You, and You heard them from Heaven, and You delivered them according to Your mercies. ²⁹And You testified against them to bring them again to Your Law; but they seethed, and did not listen to Your commands, but were against Your judgments; they sinned in them, which if a man do, he shall live in them. And they gave a rebellious shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. ³⁰Yet many years You had patience with them, and testified against them by Your Spirit, by Your prophets. Yet they would not give ear. And You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. ³¹But for Your great mercies, You did not consume nor forsake them; for You are a gracious and merciful God. ³²And now our God, the great, the mighty and the fearful God, keeping the covenant and the mercy, let it not seem little before You, all the trouble which has found us, to our kings, to our rulers, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers, and to all Your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. ³³And You are just as to all that came on us, for You have done right; but we have done evilly. ³⁴And our kings, our rulers, our priests, and our fathers have not kept Your law, nor listened to Your commands and Your testimonies with which You testified against them. ³⁵And they have not served You in their kingdom, and in Your great goodness which You gave to them, and in the large and rich land which You gave before them. And they did not turn from their evil works. ³⁶Behold, we are slaves today, even the land that You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, behold, we are slaves in it.

³⁷And it yields much increase to the kings whom You have set over us because of our sinning. And they rule over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure; and we are in great distress. ³⁸And because of all this, we are cutting a covenant and writing it, and our rulers, Levites, and priests are sealing it.

¹And the ones being sealed were Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, ²Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These were the priests. ⁹And the Levites were both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui, of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰and their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiiah, Hanan, ¹¹Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹²Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³Hodijah, Bani, Beninu. ¹⁴The rulers of the people were Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, ¹⁸Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹Mesheza-beel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²²Pelataiah, Hanan, Aaiah, ²³Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, ²⁴Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek, ²⁵Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple-slaves, and all those who separated from the people of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all knowing and discerning ones, ²⁹were holding fast to their brothers, their honored ones; and were entering into a curse and into an oath, to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to keep and to do all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord, and His judgments and His statutes.

³⁰And we swore that we would not give our daughters to the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons. ³¹And if the people of the land should bring goods or any food to sell on the Sabbath, we would not take from them on the Sabbath, or on the holy day. And they would forego the seventh year, and the interest of every hand. ³²Also, we put commands on ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God, ³³for the Bread of Arrangement and for the continual food offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of God. ³⁴And we made fall the lots among the priests, and the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn on the altar of Jehovah our God, as it is written in the Law; ³⁵also to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of Jehovah; ³⁶also to bring the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the Law; and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God. ³⁷And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all kinds of trees, of wine, and of oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; and they, the Levites, might have the tithes in all the cities we worked.

³⁸And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites, tithing the Levites; and the Levites shall bring up the tithes of the tithes to the house of our God to the rooms, into the treasure-house. ³⁹For the sons of Israel, and the sons of Levi, shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine, and the oil, to the rooms, and there shall be the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who ministers, and the gatekeepers and the singers. And we will not forsake the house of our God.

¹And the rulers of the people lived at Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of the tenth to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts in other cities. ²And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to live in Jerusalem.

³And these are the rulers of the province who lived in Jerusalem — but in the cities of Judah, a man lived in his possession in their cities—Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the temple-slaves, and the sons of Solomon's servants. ⁴And in Jerusalem lived some of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin. From the sons of Judah were Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the sons of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. ⁶All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight mighty men.

⁷And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. ⁸And after him were Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight. ⁹And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer. And Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city.

¹⁰From the priests were Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, ¹¹Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God. ¹²And their brothers who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two. And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, ¹³and his brothers, rulers of the fathers, two hundred and forty-two. And Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴and their brothers, mighty men, were a hundred and twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zabdiel, a son of one of the great men. ¹⁵Also from the Levites were Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni. ¹⁶And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the rulers of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God. ¹⁷And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the leader of the beginning, he gave thanks with prayer. And Bakbukiah the second from his brothers, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four. ¹⁹And the gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who kept the gates, a hundred and seventy-two. ²⁰And the rest of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each one in his inheritance. ²¹But the temple-slaves lived in Ophel; and Ziha and Gispa were over the temple-slaves. ²²And the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. ²³For it was the king's command concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, the matter of the day in his day.

²⁴And Pethahiah the son of Mesheza-beel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. ²⁵And for the villages, with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived at Kirjath-arba, and in its villages; and at Dibon, and in its villages; and at Jekabzeel, and its villages; ²⁶and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-palet; ²⁷and at Hazarshual, and at Beersheba, and its villages; ²⁸and at Ziklag; and at Mekonah, and in its villages; ²⁹and at En-rimmon; and at Zareah; and at Jarmuth; ³⁰Zanoah; Adullam, in their villages; at Lachish, and its fields; at Azekah, and its villages. And they camped from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom.

³¹And the sons of Benjamin from Geba were at Michmash; and Aija; and Bethel, and their villages; ³²and at Anathoth; Nob; Ananiah; ³³Hazor; Ramah; Gittaim; ³⁴Hadid; Zeboim; Neballat; ³⁵Lod; and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. ³⁶And of the Levites, the divisions of Judah were for Benjamin.

¹And these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³Shechaniah, Rehum, Mere-moth ⁴Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah, ⁵Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah. These were the rulers of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

⁸And the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah. Mattaniah was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers. ⁹And Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were next to them in the watches. ¹⁰And Jeshua fathered Joiakim, and Joiakim fathered Eliashib; and Eliashib fathered Joiada; ¹¹and Joiada fathered Jonathan; and Jonathan fathered Jaddua. ¹²And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the rulers of the fathers: from the house of Seraiah was Meraiah; from Jeremiah was Hananiah; ¹³from Ezra was Meshullam; from Amariah was Jehohanan; ¹⁴from Melicu was Jonathan; from Shebaniah was Joseph; ¹⁵from Harim was Adna; from Meraioth was Helkai; ¹⁶from Iddo was Zechariah; from Ginnethon was Meshullam; ¹⁷from Abijah was Zichri; from Miniamin, of Moadiah was Piltai; ¹⁸from Bilgah was Shammua; from Shemaiah was Jehonathan; ¹⁹and from Joarib was Mattenai; from Jedaiah was Uzzi; ²⁰from Sallai was Kallai; from Amok was Eber; ²¹from Hilkiyah was Hashabiah; from Jedaiah was Nethaneel.

²²The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were written rulers of the fathers; also the priests until the reign of Darius the Persian.

²³The sons of the Levites, the rulers of the fathers, are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. ²⁴And the rulers of the Levites were Hashabiah; Sherebiah; and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers next to them, to praise and to give thanks according to the command of David the man of God, watch by watch. ²⁵Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were guards of the gates, the guard at the thresholds of the gates.

²⁶These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jushua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

²⁷And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, and with thanksgiving, and with singing, with cymbals, harps, and with lyres. ²⁸And the sons of the singers gathered themselves, both out of the plain country around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathi; ²⁹and from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth—for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.

³⁰And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

³¹Then I brought up the rulers of Judah on the wall, and chose two great thanksgiving choirs. One went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate. ³²and after them went Hoshaiah, and half the rulers of Judah; ³³even Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah; ³⁵and many of the priests' sons with trumpets — Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, ³⁶and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe was before them.

³⁷And at the Fountain Gate across from them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall above the house of David, even to the Water Gate eastward. ³⁸And the other thanksgiving choir were going to the opposite side, and I after them, and half of the people on the wall, from beyond the Tower of Furnaces, even to the Broad Wall; ³⁹and from above the Ephraim Gate, and above the Old Gate, and above the Fish Gate, and the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of Meah, even to the Sheep Gate. And they stood still in the Prison Gate. ⁴⁰So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, and I, and half of the rulers with me. ⁴¹And the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elieoenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah were with trumpets. ⁴²And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer; and the singers sang aloud with Jezrahiah as their overseer.

⁴³And that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced. For God had made them rejoice with great joy. And the wives, and the children, rejoiced so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even at a distance.

⁴⁴And at that time some were chosen over the rooms for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather to them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the Law for the priests and the Levites. For Judah rejoiced for the priests, and for the Levites who waited.

⁴⁵And both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the watch of their God, and the watch of the cleansing, according to the command of David, of his son Solomon. ⁴⁶For in the past days of David and Asaph, there were heads of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. ⁴⁷And all Israel gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, every day its portion, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah. And they set the holy things apart for the Levites; and the Levites set apart for the sons of Aaron.

¹On that day they read in the Book of Moses in the ears of the people. And it was found written in it that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God forever, ²because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. But our God turned the curse to a blessing. ³And it happened, when they had heard the Law, they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel. ⁴And before this, Eliashib the priest, who was set over the rooms of the house of our God, who was related to Tobiah — ⁵and he had prepared for himself a large room where they had in days past laid the food offering, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the offerings of the priests.

⁶But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king of Babylon, I came to the king. And after some days I asked leave from the king. ⁷And I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil which Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God. ⁸And it grieved me very much. And I threw all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. ⁹Then I commanded, and they purified the rooms. And I returned there the vessels of the house of God, with the food offering and the frankincense. ¹⁰And I was aware that the portions of the Levites had not been given, for the Levites and the singers who did the work had each one fled to his field. ¹¹Then I contended with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them, and set them in their place.

¹²Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the new wine, and the oil, into the treasuries. ¹³And I made treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah. And next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were counted faithful, and on them was to distribute to their brothers. ¹⁴Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds which I have done for the house of my God, and in its keeping.

¹⁵In those days I saw in Judah ones treading wine-presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading asses; and also wine, grapes, and figs, and all burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I testified against them on the day they sold food. ¹⁶Men of Tyre also lived in it, who brought fish and all wares, and were selling on the Sabbath to the sons of Judah even in Jerusalem. ¹⁷And I contended with the nobles of Judah and said to them, What is this evil thing that you do, defiling the Sabbath day? ¹⁸Did not your fathers do this, and did not our God bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by defiling the Sabbath. ¹⁹And it happened, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And I made stand some of my servants at the gates, so that there should be no burden brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰And the merchants and sellers of all the wares stayed the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. ²¹Then I testified against them and said to them, Why are you staying around the wall? If you do it again, I will send a hand against you. From that time they did not come on the Sabbath. ²²And I commanded the Levites that they should be cleansing themselves, and they should come guarding the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. O my God, remember me for this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy.

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had dwelt with women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab. ²⁴And their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and there was no knowing to them to speak Jewish, but according to the language of each people. ²⁵And I contended with them, and put a curse on them, and struck some of them, and I plucked their hair. And I made them swear by the name of God, saying, You shall not give your daughter to their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons, or for yourselves. ²⁶Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved by his God; and God made him king over Israel. But women from other lands caused even him to sin. ²⁷Shall we then listen to you, to do this great evil, to sin against our God in living with foreign women? ²⁸And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Hononite. And I chased him from me. ²⁹Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites. ³⁰And I cleansed them from all aliens, and appointed watches to the priests and the Levites, each one in his business, ³¹and for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good!

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

¹And it happened, in the days of Ahasuerus — he is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over a hundred and twenty-seven provinces—²in those days when king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom in Shushan the palace, ³in the third year of his reign, he made a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The power of Persia and Media, the nobles and the princes of the provinces, were before him, ⁴when he made known the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honor of his excellent greatness many days, even a hundred and eighty days. ⁵And when these days were fulfilled, the king made a banquet for all the peoples who were found in Shushan the palace, both to great and to small, for seven days in the court of the garden of the king's palace. ⁶*There was* overlaying with white linen and violet, with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of white marble. The couches were of gold and silver, on a red and white and pearl and black marble pavement. ⁷And they gave out drink in vessels of gold, the vessels differing from one another, and royal wine in abundance, according to the hand of the king. ⁸And the drinking was according to the law, no one compelling; for so the king had ordered every first one of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. ⁹Also Vashti the queen made a banquet for the women in the royal house which king Ahasuerus owned.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he said to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who served before the face of Ahasuerus the king, ¹¹to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, in order to make known to the people and the princes her beauty. For she was beautiful to look upon. ¹²But Vashti the queen refused to come at the king's command by his eunuchs. And the king was very angry, and his fury burned within him. ¹³And the king said to the wise men who knew the times—for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment; ¹⁴and ones next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who saw the king's face, who sat first in the kingdom—¹⁵What shall be done with queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the command of king Ahasuerus by the eunuchs? ¹⁶And Memucan answered before the king and princes, Vashti the queen has not only done wrong to the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of Ahasuerus the king. ¹⁷For the matter of the queen shall go out to all women, to make their husbands despised in their eyes, in their reporting that king Ahasuerus said to bring in Vashti the queen before him, but she did not come. ¹⁸And this day the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard the queen's word shall say the same to all the king's princes, and there shall be contempt and strife.

¹⁹If it please the king, let there be a royal decree from him, and let it be written among the laws of Persia and Media so that it shall not pass away, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus. And let the king give her royal estate to a neighbor who is better than she is. ²⁰And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be throughout all his empire, for it is great, all the wives shall give their husbands honor, both the small and the great. ²¹And the saying pleased the king, and the princes. And the king did according to the word of Memucan. ²²And he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to peoples and peoples, according to language, so that every man should be ruling in his house; and speaking according to the language of his people.

¹After these things, when king Ahasuerus' wrath had calmed down, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what he decreed against her.

²And the king's servants who served him said, Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. ³And let the king choose officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, so that they may gather together every beautiful young virgin to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the hand of Hegai the king's eunuch, keeper of the women, to give their purifications. ⁴And let the young woman who pleases the king rule instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

⁵In Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, and his name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been led away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had exiled. ⁷And he was rearing Hadassah—she is Esther—his uncle's daughter, for she had no father nor mother. And the young woman was fair of appearance and beautiful of form. And at the death of her father and mother, Mordecai took her for his daughter. ⁸And it happened, when the king's command and his order was heard, and when many young women had been gathered to Shushan the palace, into the hand of Hegai, Esther was taken into the king's house, into the hand of Hegai, keeper of the women. ⁹And the young woman was good in his eyes, and she rose in favor before him. And he hastened her purifiers, and her portions, to give them to her. And seven young women were seen to be given to her out of the king's house. And he moved her and her maids to the best place in the house of the women.

¹⁰Esther had not revealed her people or her kindred, for Mordecai had commanded her that she should not reveal it. ¹¹And Mordecai walked to and fro every day in front of the court of the women's house in order to know Esther's welfare, and what would be done with her. ¹²And when the turn of each young woman had come to go in to king Ahasuerus, at the end of her being purified twelve months according to the law of the women—for so were fulfilled the days of their cleansings: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with fragrances and with perfumes of the women. ¹³And in this way the young woman goes in to the king. All she says is given to her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house. ¹⁴She goes in the evening, and on the morning she returns to the second house of the women, into the hand of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She does not come in to the king any more, unless the king delights in her, and she is called by name. ¹⁵And when the turn of Esther had come—she being the daughter of Abihail, Mordecai's uncle, whom he had taken to himself for his daughter—to go in to the king, she did not seek a thing except what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, said. And Esther had favor in the sight of all who looked on her. ¹⁶And Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she rose in grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins. And he set the royal crown on her head, and made her to rule instead of Vashti. ¹⁸And the king made a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, Esther's banquet. And he ordered a rest for the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. ¹⁹And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate. ²⁰Esther had not revealed her kindred or her people, as Mordecai had commanded her. For Esther obeyed Mordecai's command, as she did when she was reared by him.

²¹In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who guarded the threshold, were angry, and sought to stretch out a hand against king Ahasuerus. ²²And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it to Esther the queen. And Esther told the king in the name of Mordecai. ²³And when the matter was searched into, it was found out; and the two of them were hanged on a tree. And it was written in the Book of the Matters of the Days before the king.

¹After these things king Ahasuerus enlarged Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and raised him, and set his seat above all the princes with him. ²And all the king's servants who were in the king's gate were bowing and worshiping Haman, for the king had so commanded for him. But Mordecai did not bow nor worship. ³And the king's servants who were at the gate of the king said to Mordecai, Why do you disobey the king's command? ⁴And it happened, when they spoke daily to him, and he did not listen to them, they told Haman, to see if Mordecai's matters would stand. For he had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow nor worship him, then Haman was filled with fury. ⁶And it was light in his eyes to reach forth a hand against Mordecai alone; for they had revealed to him Mordecai's people. And Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus, the people of Mordecai.

⁷In the first month, it is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they made fall Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman day by day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. ⁸And Haman said to king Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are different from every people, and they are not doing the king's laws. And it is not for the king's gain to let them alone. ⁹If it pleases the king, let it be written to destroy them; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries. ¹⁰And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' vexer. ¹¹And the king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, also the people, to do with them as seems good to you. ¹²Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written according to all that Haman had commanded to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to its writing, and to every people according to their language. It was written in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed with the king's ring. ¹³And the documents were sent by the runners into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take what they owned for a prize. ¹⁴A copy of the writing to be given as law in every province was published to all people, to be ready for that day. ¹⁵The runners went out, being hurried by the king's word. And the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink. But the city Shushan was perplexed.

¹And Mordecai understood all that was done, and Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middle of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry. ²And he came until he was before the king's gate; for there was no entering into the king's gate in clothing of sackcloth.

³And in every province, wherever the king's word and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth and ash were spread on many.

⁴And Esther's maids and her eunuchs came and told her. And the queen was exceedingly writhed in pain. And she sent clothing to clothe Mordecai and to take away his sackcloth from him. But he did not accept. ⁵And Esther called for Hatach, of the king's eunuchs, who was made to stand before her. And she charged him as to Mordecai, to know what this was and why this was. ⁶And Hatach went out to Mordecai, to the city street in front of the king's gate. ⁷And Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and of the sum of the silver which Haman had said to weigh into the king's treasuries for the Jews in order to destroy them. ⁸Also he gave him a copy of the writing of the law which was given at Shushan in order to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to reveal to her, and to command her that she should go in to the king to make supplication to him, and to seek from him help for her people. ⁹And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. ¹⁰Again Esther spoke to Hatach, and ordered him to go to Mordecai — ¹¹for all the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his, execution; except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter so that he may live. But I have not been called to come into the king these thirty days.

¹²And they told Mordecai Esther's words. ¹³And Mordecai said to take back to Esther, Do not imagine within yourself to deliver yourself in the king's house, more than all the Jews. ¹⁴For if you are completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance shall rise up to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house shall perish. And who knows if you have attained to the kingdom for such a time as this? ¹⁵And Esther said to take back to Mordecai, ¹⁶Go, gather all the Jews being found in Shushan, and fast for me. And do not eat or drink three days, night or day. My maidens and I will also fast thus. And so I will go in to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I have perished, I have perished. ¹⁷And Mordecai passed over and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

¹And it happened on the third day that Esther put on royal clothing and stood in the inner court of the king's house, before the king's inner house. And the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house, in front of the gate of the house. ²And it happened, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she rose in favor in his eyes. And the king held out the golden scepter that was in his hand to Esther. And Esther drew near and touched the top of the scepter. ³And the king said to her, What shall be done to you, O queen Esther? And what is your wish? It will be given to you also, even to half of the kingdom. ⁴And Esther answered, If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet which I have prepared for him. ⁵And the king said, Cause Haman to hurry to do the word of Esther. And the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

⁶And the king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, and it shall be granted to you? And what is your wish? And it will be done, to half of the kingdom. ⁷And Esther replied and said, As to my petition and my request, ⁸if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow according to the word of the king. ⁹And Haman went out that day joyful and good of heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai in the gate of the king, that he did not stand up or move for him, he was full of fury against Mordecai. ¹⁰But Haman held himself in, and came to his house, and sent for and brought in his friends, and his wife Zeresh. ¹¹And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and his many sons, and all to which the king had promoted him, and how he lifted him up above the princes and the servants of the king. ¹²And Haman said, Also, Esther the queen did not let anyone come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared, except me. And also tomorrow I am called to it with the king. ¹³Yet all this is no gain to me as long as I am seeing Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate. ¹⁴And his wife Zeresh said to him, and all his friends, Make a wooden gallows fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak to the king and let them hang Mordecai on it; and go in with the king to the banquet, rejoicing. And the thing was good in Haman's eyes, and he caused the wooden gallows to be made.

¹On that night the king's sleep fled, and he said to bring in the book of the records of the Matter of the Days. And they were being read before the king. ²And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bighthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the guards of the threshold who sought to send forth a hand against king Ahasuerus. ³And the king said, What honor and dignity was done to Mordecai for this? And the king's young servants, of his ministers, said, Nothing has been done for him. ⁴And the king said, Who is in the court? And Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the wooden gallows which he had built for him. ⁵And the king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. ⁶And Haman came in. And the king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? And Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself? ⁷And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor, ⁸let the royal clothing be brought, which the king puts on himself, and the horse that the king rides on, and the royal crown which is set on his head; ⁹and let this clothing and horse be given into the hand of one of most noble men, of the most noble princes, and let them dress the man whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on the horse through the street of the city, and call out before him. In this way shall be done to the man whom the king delights, in honoring him! ¹⁰And the king said to Haman, Hurry! Take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do so to Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not fail to do any of all the things you have spoken. ¹¹And Haman took the clothing and the horse, and dressed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and called out before him. In this way shall be done to the man whom the king delights, in honoring him!

¹²And Mordecai came again to the king's gate, but Haman hurried to his house mourning, and his head covered. ¹³And Haman told his wife Zeresh, and all his friends, everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, If Mordecai is of the seed of the Jews, before whom you have begun to fall, you shall not prevail against him, but shall surely fall before him.

¹⁴And while they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived, and they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

¹And the king and Haman came to the banquet of queen Esther. ²And the king said again to Esther on the second day of the banquet of wine, What is your petition O queen Esther, and it shall be given to you. And what is your request? It shall be done, to the half of the kingdom. ³And Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴For we are sold, my people and I, for destruction, for murder and for perishing. But if we had been sold for male slaves and slavegirls, I would have kept silent, though the adversary could not make up for the king's loss. ⁵And king Ahasuerus answered and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, this one? And where is this one, he who is filled with pride in his heart, to do so? ⁶And Esther said, A man, an enemy, and a hating one—Haman! This evil one! And Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. ⁷And the king, rising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden. And Haman remained to beg for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. ⁸And the king returned out of the garden to the place of the banquet of wine. And Haman had fallen on the couch on which Esther lay. And the king said, Will he also violate the queen with me in the house? The word went from the king's mouth, and they covered Haman's face. ⁹And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said before the king, Also, look! The wooden gallows which Haman made for Mordecai, the one who had spoken good toward the king, is standing at Haman's house. And the king said, Hang him on it! ¹⁰And they hanged Haman on the wooden gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai. And the king's wrath lay down.

¹On that day king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the vexer of the Jews, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her. ²And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. ³And Esther spoke yet again before the king and fell down at his feet. And she begged him with tears to put away the evil of Haman the Agagite, and his purpose which he had plotted against the Jews. ⁴Then the king held out the golden scepter to Esther, and Esther rose up and stood before the king, ⁵and said, If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor before him, and the thing is right before the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the documents—a sly plan by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite — which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. ⁶For how shall I be able to look on the evil that shall find my people? Or how shall I be able to look on the slaughter of my kindred? ⁷And king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Haman's house to Esther, and they have hanged him on the wooden gallows because he put forth his hand against the Jews. ⁸And you write to the Jews according to the good in your eyes, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring. For the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, there is no taking back.

⁹And the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors, and the princes of the provinces which were from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews; according to their writing and according to their language. ¹⁰And he wrote in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed with the king's ring. And he sent letters by riders on horseback, riders on royal steeds, stallions, even sons of mares. ¹¹In them the king gave to the Jews in every single city the right to gather together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province, the ones compressing them, both little ones and women, and to take what they owned for a prize, ¹²on one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, on the thirtieth of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. ¹³The copy of the writing to be made law in every province was openly revealed to all peoples, even to the Jews being ready for this day, to avenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴The runners, riders on stallions, royal steeds, went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king's command. And the order was given at Shushan the palace. ¹⁵And Mordecai went out from before the king in apparel of the kingdom, of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple. And the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. ¹⁶For the Jews it was light and gladness and joy and honor. ¹⁷And in every province, and in every single city, the place wherever the word of the king and his law touched, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews fell on them.

¹And in the twelfth month, that is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and his order came to be done, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to take power over them—though it was turned around, so that the Jews ruled, they over the ones hating them — ²the Jews gathered together in their cities in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, to stretch out a hand against those seeking their evil. And no man stood in their presence, for their fear fell on all the peoples. ³And all the rulers of the provinces and the satraps, and the governors, and those doing the business which was to the king, were lifting up the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell on them. ⁴For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out into all the provinces, for this man Mordecai was going on and growing greater. ⁵And the Jews struck against all their haters with a stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they desired to those who hated them. ⁶And in Shushan the palace the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, ⁸and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, ⁹and Parmash-ta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, ¹⁰the ten sons of Haman the son of Ham-medatha, the vexer of the Jews, they killed. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil.

¹¹On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. ¹²And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the provinces of the king? And what is your petition, and it is given to you? And what further request, and it will be done?

¹³And Esther said, If it pleases the king, let it be given to the Jews in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree; and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the wooden gallows. ¹⁴And the king commanded it to be done so. And the order was given at Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵And the Jews in Shushan also assembled on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay their hands on the spoil.

¹⁶But the rest of the Jews in the king's provinces gathered and stood for their lives, and a rest from their enemies, and to kill seventy-five thousand of their foes. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil.

¹⁷On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁸And the Jews at Shushan assembled on the thirteenth day of it, and on the fourteenth day of it, and to rest on the fifteenth of the same, and to make it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁹On account of this the Jews of the villages, who lived in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and a day of sending portions to one another.

²⁰And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, near and far; ²¹to cause to rise among them to act on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly; ²²as the days in which the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day, to make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions to one another, and gifts to the poor. ²³And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them, ²⁴because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the vexer of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to torment them and to destroy them. ²⁵But when Esther came to the king, he commanded by the letter, Let his evil plot which he plotted against the Jews return on his own head; and they hanged him and his sons on the wooden gal-lows. ²⁶On account of this they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. For on account of this all the words of this letter, and what they saw concerning this matter, and what had touched them, ²⁷the Jews rose up and took on themselves and on their seed, and on all joining themselves to them, even not to pass, to be keeping those two days according to their writing, and according to their time every year; ²⁸and that these days should be remembered and acted upon in every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not pass from among the Jews, and their memory not perish from their seed.

²⁹And Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. ³⁰And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus; words of peace and truth. ³¹This was in order to confirm these days of Purim in their set times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had ordered them, and as they had decreed for themselves, and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and of their cry. ³²And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim. And it was written in the book.

¹And king Ahasuerus laid a tax on the land and on the isles of the sea. ²And all the acts of his authority and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, with which the king made him great, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the kings of Media and Persia? ³For Mordecai the Jew was second to king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and pleasing to the multitude of his brothers, seeking the welfare of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB

¹There was a man in the land of Uz, his name was Job. And this man was perfect and upright, and fearing God, and turning away from evil. ²And seven sons and three daughters were born to him. ³And his possessions were seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was greater than all the sons of the east.

⁴And his sons feasted in the house of each one on his day. And they sent and called their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. ⁵And it happened, when the days of feasting had gone around, Job would send and sanctify them. And he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt sacrifices according to all their number. For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. This Job always did.

⁶And a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah. And Satan also came among them. ⁷And Jehovah said to Satan, From where have you come? And Satan answered Jehovah and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ⁸And Jehovah said to Satan, Have you set your heart on My servant Job, because there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, fearing God and turning away from evil?

⁹And Satan answered Jehovah and said, Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰Have You not made a hedge for him, and for his house, and for all that is his all around? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹But put out Your hand now, and touch against all that is his, and see if he will not then curse You to Your face. ¹²And Jehovah said to Satan, Behold, all that is his is in your hand! Only, do not lay your hand on him. And Satan went out from the face of Jehovah.

¹³And a day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their brother's house, the firstborn. ¹⁴And a messenger came to Job and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses were feeding beside them. ¹⁵And the Sabeans fell on, and took them away. And they killed the young men with the edge of the sword; and I, I alone have escaped to tell you. ¹⁶While this one was still speaking, this other also came and said, The fire of God has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the young men. And it has destroyed them; and I, I alone have escaped to tell you. ¹⁷While this one was still speaking, this other also came and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands and swooped down on the camels. And they have taken them away. And they have killed the young men with the edge of the sword; and I, I alone have escaped to tell you. ¹⁸While this one was still speaking, this other came and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the firstborn. ¹⁹And, behold! A great wind came from the wilderness and touched the four corners of the house. And it fell on the young men, and they died; and I, I alone have escaped to tell you. ²⁰And Job rose up and tore his robe, and shaved his head. And he fell down on the ground and worshiped. ²¹And he said, I came naked out of my mother's womb, and naked I shall return there. Jehovah gave, and Jehovah has taken away. Blessed be the name of Jehovah. ²²In all this Job did not sin, nor charge wrong to God.

¹Again a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah. And Satan also came among them to present himself before Jehovah. ²And Jehovah said to Satan, From where have you come? And Satan answered Jehovah and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and walking up and down in it. ³And Jehovah said to Satan, have you set your heart on My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, fearing God, and turning away from evil? And he is still holding to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to swallow him for nothing.

⁴And Satan answered Jehovah and said, Skin for skin. Yea, all that a man has he will give for his life. ⁵Put out Your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face. ⁶And Jehovah said to Satan, Behold, He is in your hand; but preserve his life. ⁷And Satan went out from before the face of Jehovah. And he struck Job with bad burning ulcers form the sole of his foot to the top of his head. ⁸And he took a broken piece of pottery with which to scrape himself. And he sat down among the ashes.

⁹And his wife said to him, Are you still holding fast to your integrity? Curse God and die! ¹⁰But he said to her, You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Also, shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

¹¹And three friends of Job heard of all this evil that had come on him. And they each one came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite; Bildad the Shuhite; and Zophar the Naamathite. And they had met together to come to lament with him, and to comfort him. ¹²And when they lifted up their eyes from a distance and did not recognize him, they lifted up their voice and wept then. And each one tore his robe. And they sprinkled dust on their heads toward the heavens. ¹³And they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights. And no one was speaking a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.

¹After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. ²And Job spoke and said: ³Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night which said, A manchild has been conceived. ⁴Let that day be darkness! Let not God look on it from above, nor let the light shine on it. ⁵Let darkness and the shadow of death seize upon it. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that blackens the day terrify it. ⁶*As for* that night, let darkness seize it! Let it not be joined to the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months. ⁷Behold, let that night be silent; let no joyful voice come in it. ⁸Let those curse it who curse the day, those ready to stir up Leviathan. ⁹Let the stars of its twilight be dark; let it wait for light, but have none. Let it not see the eyelids of the dawn. ¹⁰For it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb; nor did it hide misery from my eyes.

¹¹Why did I not die from the womb, come from the womb and expire? ¹²Why did the knees go before me; or why the breasts, that I should suck? ¹³For now I would have lain down and have been quiet; I would have slept. Then I would have been at rest, ¹⁴with kings and wise men of the earth, who built ruins for themselves; ¹⁵or with princes; they had gold; they filled their houses with silver; ¹⁶or as a hidden miscarriage, I would not have been; like infants who never saw light. ¹⁷There the wicked cease from turmoil; and there the weary are at rest; ¹⁸the prisoners are at ease together; they hear not the voice of the slave driver; ¹⁹the small and the great, he is there; and the slave free from his master.

²⁰Why is light given to the miserable one; and life to him who is bitter in soul; ²¹who is waiting for death, but it is not; and they dig for it more than for treasures? ²²They are rejoicing to exultation. They are glad when they find the grave. ²³To a man whose way is hidden, God has made a hedge about him. ²⁴For my sighing comes before my food; and my groanings are poured out like the waters. ²⁵For the dreadful thing I dreaded has come on me; and that which I feared has come to me. ²⁶I am not at ease, nor am I at rest; nor am I quiet; yet turmoil comes.

¹And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said: ²Shall one try a word with you, you who are weary? But who can hold back with words? ³Behold, you have instructed many; and you have made weak hands strong. ⁴Your words have upheld him who was falling, and you have made feeble knees strong. ⁵But now it has come upon you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. ⁶Is not your reverence your hope; your hope the uprightness of your ways? ⁷I beg you, remember, Who ever perished, being innocent? Or where were the righteous cut off? ⁸As I have seen, the ones who plow iniquity and sow misery reap the same. ⁹They perish from the breath of God, and by the blast of His anger they are consumed.

¹⁰The lion roars; and the voice of the lion and the teeth of the young lions are broken; ¹¹the old lion is perishing for lack of prey; and the lioness' offspring are scattered.

¹²Now a word was stolen to me, and my ear received a whisper of it. ¹³In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, ¹⁴fear and trembling met me, and made my many bones dread.

¹⁵Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up; ¹⁶it stood still, but I could not discern its form; an image was before my eyes; there was silence; then I heard a voice: ¹⁷Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be purer than his Maker? ¹⁸Behold, He puts no trust in His servants; and He charges His angels with folly! ¹⁹How much more those that dwell in houses of clay; whose foundation is in the dust; they crush them before the moth! ²⁰They are shattered from morning till evening; they perish forever with no one regarding. ²¹Is not their cord pulled in them? They die, but not with wisdom.

¹Call now. Is there anyone answering you? And to which of the saints will you turn? ²For vexation kills the fool, and passion puts to death the simple. ³I have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling-place. ⁴His sons are far from safety; yea, they are crushed in the gate; nor is there any deliverer. ⁵The hungry eat his harvest, and take him to the thorns, and the snare snuffs up their wealth. ⁶For affliction does not come forth from the dust, nor does trouble spring up out of the ground; ⁷for man is born to trouble, and the sons of the flame rise, flying upward.

⁸Truly, I would seek to God, and to God I would commit my cause; for He is doing great things, and there is no searching them; marvelous things to which is no numbering, ⁹giving rain on the face of the earth and sending water on the face of the field; ¹⁰to set the lowly on high; yea, the mourners become very high in safety; ¹¹breaking the plots of the crafty, nor did their hands perform the undertaking.

¹⁶Behold, blessed is the man whom God corrects; and despise not the chastisement of the Almighty. ¹⁷For He wounds, and He binds up. He shatters, and His hands heal. ¹⁸He will deliver you in six troubles; yea, in seven no evil shall touch you. ¹⁹In famine He will redeem you from death; and in war from the hand of the sword. ²⁰You shall be hidden from the whip of the tongue; and you shall not be afraid of violence when it comes. ²¹You shall laugh at violence and at famine; and you shall not be afraid of the beasts of the earth. ²²For you shall be in covenant with the stones of the field; and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you. ²³And you shall know that your tent is in peace; and you shall visit your home and shall miss nothing. ²⁴And you shall know that your seed will be numerous, and your offspring as the grass of the earth. ²⁵You shall come to the grave in full vigor, like a stack of grain comes up in its season. ²⁶Consider this. We have searched it out; it is so. Hear it, and know it for yourself.

¹And Job answered and said: ²Oh that my vexation were carefully weighed, and my ruin lifted in the balances together! ³For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas; on account of this my words have been rash. ⁴For the arrows of the Almighty are within me; their fury is drinking my spirit; the terrors of God are set against me. ⁵Does the wild ass bray over tender grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder? ⁶Are tasteless things eaten without salt? Or is there taste in the slime of an egg? ⁷My soul refuses to touch them; they are sickening food to me.

⁸Who will give it that my desire might come, and God would grant my longing; ⁹and God would be willing and crush me; let loose His hand and cut me off? ¹⁰And it is yet my comfort; and I would exult in pain not spared; for I have not hidden the words of the Holy One. ¹¹What is my strength that I should wait? And what is my end that I should prolong my life? ¹²Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh bronze? ¹³Is not my help within me? And is wisdom driven from me?

¹⁴To the faint, mercy is due from his friend; for he forsakes the fear of the Almighty. ¹⁵My brothers have dealt deceitfully, like the torrent; like the streams of torrents, they vanish; ¹⁶those darkened from ice, in which the snow hides itself. ¹⁷At the time they are warmed, they are cut off; when it is hot, they vanish from their place. ¹⁸The paths of their way bend; they go to nothing, and are lost. ¹⁹The troops of Tema looked; the travelers of Sheba hoped for them; ²⁰they were ashamed because they had hoped; they came there, and were ashamed. ²¹Surely now you have become like it; you see my dismay, and are afraid. ²²Did I indeed say, Give to me? Or, Offer a bribe for me from your wealth? ²³Or, Deliver me from a foe's hand? Or, Redeem me from the oppressor's hand?

²⁴Teach me, and I will be silent; and cause me to understand in what I have erred. ²⁵Right words are powerful, but what does your arguing argue? ²⁶Do you intend to criticize words, and the speeches of one who is hopeless, that are as wind? ²⁷Yea, you cause even an orphan to fall; and dig a pit for your friend. ²⁸And now, please look on me. For if I lie, it is before your face. ²⁹Turn back, I beseech you; let there be no wrong. Yea, return again, for my righteousness is in it. ³⁰Is there wrong in my tongue? Cannot my palate discern desirable things?

¹Is there not a warfare to man on earth? And his days like the days of a hireling? ²As a servant pants for the shade, and as a hireling looks for his wages, ³so I am caused to inherit months of vanity; and weary nights are appointed to me. ⁴When I lie down, I say, When shall I rise up? But the night is long, and I am full of tossings, until dusk. ⁵My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and it runs afresh. ⁶My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are ended without hope.

⁷Remember that my life is a breath; my eyes shall not return to see good. ⁸The eye of him who sees me shall gaze at me no more; Your eyes are on me, and I am not. ⁹As the clouds fade and vanish, so he who goes down to Sheol shall not come up. ¹⁰He shall return no more to his house; nor shall his place know him any more.

¹¹Therefore, I will not hold my mouth; I will speak in the distress of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. ¹²Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, that You set a watch over me? ¹³When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint, ¹⁴then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me with visions; ¹⁵so that my soul chooses strangling and death rather than my bones. ¹⁶I am wasting away; I would not live always. Let me alone, for my days are vanity. ¹⁷What is man, that You should magnify him, and that You should set Your heart on him, ¹⁸and visit him every morning, trying him every moment? ¹⁹How long will You not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle? ²⁰I have sinned; what do I do to You, O Watcher of man? Why have You set me as a target for You, so that I am a burden on myself? ²¹And why do You not pardon my transgression, and make my iniquity pass away? For now I shall lie down in the dust, and You shall seek me; but I will not be.

¹And Bildad the Shuhite answered, saying: ²Until when will you speak these things, since the words of your mouth are like a mighty wind? ³Or does God pervert judgment? Or does the Almighty pervert the right? ⁴If your sons have sinned against Him, and if He has sent them away in the hand of their transgression, ⁵if you would seek earnestly to God, and make your prayer to the Almighty, ⁶if you were pure and upright, surely now He would rise for you, and make whole the abode of your righteousness. ⁷And your beginning was small, yet your end would greatly increase. ⁸For, I beg you, ask of the former generation, and prepare to the search of their fathers; ⁹for we are but of yesterday, and we know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow. ¹⁰Shall they not teach you, and tell you, and bring words out of their heart? ¹¹Can the rush grow up without mire? Can the reed-grass grow without water? ¹²While it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down, it dries out before every plant. ¹³So are the paths of all those forgetting God; and the hope of the ungodly shall perish; ¹⁴whose hope is cut off, and his trust as a spider's house. ¹⁵He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand; he shall hold fast to it, but it shall not endure. ¹⁶He is moist before the sun, and his branches shoot forth on his garden. ¹⁷His roots are wrapped around a heap; he sees a house of stones. ¹⁸If one destroys him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen you! ¹⁹Behold, this is the joy of His way, and out of the earth others shall grow.

²⁰Behold, God will not cast away the innocent, and He will not help the evil-doers, ²¹until He fills your mouth with laughter, and your lips with rejoicing. ²²Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame; and the tent of the wicked shall not be.

¹And Job answered and said: ²Truly I know it is so; but how can man be just with God? ³If he would argue with Him, he cannot answer Him one of a thousand. ⁴He is wise in heart and mighty in strength; who has been hard against Him, and been at peace—⁵He who moves the mountains, and they do not know; when He overturns them in His anger; ⁶who shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble; ⁷the One speaking to the sun, and it does not rise; and He sets a seal around the stars; ⁸stretching out the heavens by Himself, and walking on the waves of the sea; ⁹who made the Bear, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south; ¹⁰who is doing great things past finding out; yea, marvelous things without number?

¹¹Behold, He goes by me, and I do not see Him; and He passes on, but I do not perceive Him. ¹²Behold, He takes away who can turn Him back; who will say to Him, What are You doing? ¹³God will not withdraw His anger; the helpers of pride stoop under Him. ¹⁴How much less shall I answer Him, and choose my words with Him! ¹⁵Though I were righteous, I could not answer Him; I seek mercy for my judgment. ¹⁶If I had called and He had answered me; I would not believe that He had listened to my voice; ¹⁷He who breaks me with a tempest, and adds to my wounds without cause; ¹⁸who will not allow me to take my breath, but fills me with bitterness. ¹⁹If I speak of strength, behold, He is mighty; and if of judgment, who can summon me? ²⁰If I justify myself, my mouth will condemn me; though I am perfect, He shall declare me perverse; ²¹though I were perfect, I would not know my own soul; I despise my life. ²²It is One; so then I said, He is consuming the perfect and the wicked. ²³If the whip kills suddenly, He will mock at the testing of the innocent. ²⁴The earth is given into the hand of the wicked; He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not He, then who is it?

²⁵Now my days are swifter than a runner; they flee away; they see no good; ²⁶they have passed away like the reed ships; as an eagle swoops on food. ²⁷If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will loosen my face and be cheerful, ²⁸I am afraid of all my sorrows; I know that You will not hold me innocent; ²⁹I have been condemned; why should I labor in vain? ³⁰If I wash myself with snow, and make my hands clean with soap, ³¹yet You will plunge me into the ditch, and my own clothes will abhor me.

³²For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him; that we should come together in judgment; ³³there is no mediator between us, who might lay his hand on both of us. ³⁴Let Him take His rod away from me, and let not His dread make me afraid; ³⁵then I would speak, and not fear Him; for I am not so in myself.

¹My soul loathes my life; I will leave my complaint on myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. ²I will say to God, Do not condemn me; make me know why You contend with me. ³Is it good to You that You should crush, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and You shine on the counsel of the wicked? ⁴Have You eyes of flesh; or do You see as a man sees? ⁵Are Your days as the days of man?

Or Your years like the days of man, ⁶that You seek out my iniquity, and search for my sin? ⁷You know that I am not wicked; and there is no one delivering out of Your hand.

⁸Your hands have made me and shaped me together all around; yet You destroy me. ⁹Remember, I beseech You, that You have formed me as clay; and will You bring me to dust again? ¹⁰Did You pour me out like milk; yea, curdled me like cheese? ¹¹You clothed me with skin and flesh, and knitted me with bones and sinews. ¹²You have made me have life and favor, and Your providence has kept my spirit. ¹³And these You have hidden in Your heart; I know that this was with You. ¹⁴If I sin, then You watch me; and You will not acquit me from my guilt. ¹⁵If I am wrong, woe to me! And if I am righteous, I will not lift up my head, being filled with shame and seeing my pain. ¹⁶And if it rise, You would hunt me as a lion; and again You show Yourself wonderful in me. ¹⁷You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your anger with me; changes and warfare are with me. ¹⁸Why then did You bring me from the womb? I would have died, and no eye seen me. ¹⁹I would have been as though I had never been, carried from the womb to the grave. ²⁰Are not my days few? Then cease, and set me alone, that I may take a little comfort. ²¹before I go; and I shall not return; to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death; ²²a land of obscurity, the darkness of the shadow of death, and not any order; even the shining is as darkness.

¹And Zophar the Naamathite answered and said: ²Should not a flood of words be answered? And should a man of lips be justified? ³Should your lies make men silent? And will you mock, and no one make ashamed? ⁴For you have said, My doctrine is pure; and, I am clean in Your eyes. ⁵But who will grant that God would speak and open His lips against you, ⁶and would tell you the secrets of wisdom, that sound wisdom is manifold? Know then that God forgets some of your iniquity for you. ⁷Can you find out God by searching? Or can you search out the end of the Almighty? ⁸Heights of the heavens! What can you do? It is deeper than Sheol; what can you know? ⁹Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. ¹⁰If He passes through and shuts up, or gathers together, then who can turn Him back? ¹¹For He knows the vanity of men; and He sees deceit, and will He not consider? ¹²For foolish man takes heart, and man is born a wild ass's colt. ¹³If you prepare your heart, and stretch out your hands toward Him; ¹⁴if iniquity is in your hand, put it far away and do not let wickedness dwell in your tents; ¹⁵surely then you shall lift up your face without blemish; and you will be steadfast, and will not fear; ¹⁶for you shall forget your misery, and shall remember it as waters that have passed; ¹⁷and your lifetime shall rise more than the noonday; you shall fly; you shall be as the morning. ¹⁸And you shall trust, because there is hope. Yea, you shall look about and you shall lie down in safety. ¹⁹You shall lie down, and shall be no one terrifying; yea, many shall seek your favor. ²⁰But the eyes of the wicked shall be consumed, and escape shall perish from them; and their hope shall be like the breathing out of the soul.

¹And Job answered and said: ²For truly you are the people, and wisdom will die with you. ³I also have a heart as well as you; I do not fall short of you. And with whom are not things like these? ⁴I am a laughing-stock to his friends—who calls on God, and He answers him—the just, the upright one is a mockery; ⁵a flaming brand despised in the thoughts of him who feels secure; it is ready for those with slipping feet. ⁶The tents of robbers are at ease, and those provoking God secure, to whomever God brings into his hand.

⁷But now please ask the animals, and they will teach you; and the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you; ⁸or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; and the fish of the sea will recount to you; ⁹who of all these does not know that Jehovah's hand has done this?

¹⁰In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all flesh of man? ¹¹Does the ear not try words? And the mouth taste food for itself? ¹²With the aged is wisdom, and understanding in the length of days. ¹³With Him is wisdom and strength; He has forethought and understanding. ¹⁴Behold, He breaks down, and no one builds; He shuts against a man, and no one opens. ¹⁵Behold, He holds back the waters, and they dry up; and He sends them out, and they overflow the earth. ¹⁶With Him is strength and sound wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are His. ¹⁷He causes wise men to go stripped; and He makes judges fools. ¹⁸He loosens the bonds of kings, and he binds their loins with a girdle; ¹⁹making priests go away stripped; and He overthrows the mighty; ²⁰turning aside the lip of the trusted men; and He takes away the reason of the aged. ²¹He pours scorn on nobles, and He unties the belt of the mighty; ²²revealing deep things out of darkness; and He brings the shadow of death to light. ²³He gives greatness to the nations, and He destroys them; spreading out the nations, and He leads them out. ²⁴He takes away the heart of the heads of the people of the land; and He causes them to wander in a wasteland with no path. ²⁵They grope in the dark, and there is no light; and He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

¹Behold, my eye has seen all this; my ear has heard and understood it. ²As you know, I also know; I do not fall short of you. ³Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue with God. ⁴But you are imputers of lies; you are all worthless healers. ⁵Oh that you would stop speaking entirely; and it would be your wisdom! ⁶Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the arguments of my lips. ⁷Would you speak unrighteously for God, and speak deceitfully for Him? ⁸Will you lift up His face, or will you contend for God? ⁹Is it good that He should search you out? Or as one man mocks another, do you mock Him? ¹⁰He will surely reprove you if you secretly lift up faces. ¹¹Shall not His highness make you afraid, and His dread fall on you? ¹²Your remembered sayings are like ashes; surely your backs are backs of clay. ¹³Be silent from me, that I may speak; and let what will pass over me. ¹⁴Why do I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my hand? ¹⁵Behold, He will kill me; I will not wait, but I will justify my ways before His face. ¹⁶He also is my salvation, for an ungodly one shall not come before Him. ¹⁷Listen carefully to my words, and let what I say be in your ears; ¹⁸see now, I have set my cause in order; I know that I shall be justified. ¹⁹Who is he who will strive with me? For then I would be quiet and die.

²⁰Only two things do not do to me, O God; then I will not hide myself from Your face: ²¹Withdraw far away Your hand far from me, and let not Your terror make me afraid. ²²Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and answer me. ²³How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my transgressions and my sin. ²⁴Why do You hide Your face and count me for Your enemy? ²⁵Will You terrify a leaf driven to and fro? Will you pursue the dry stubble? ²⁶For You write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the sins of my youth. ²⁷You also put my feet in the stocks, and watch all my paths; You set a limit on the soles of my feet. ²⁸And he wears out like a rotten thing, like a garment which a moth eats.

¹Man born of woman is short of days, and full of turmoil. ²He comes forth like a flower, and withers; he also flees as a shadow, and does not stand. ³Also do You open Your eyes on such a one, and bring me into judgment with You? ⁴Who gives a clean thing out of an unclean? No one! ⁵Since his days are fixed, the number of his months is with You, and You have appointed his bounds, and he cannot pass over; ⁶look away from him so that he may rest, till he shall enjoy his day as a hireling.

⁷For there is hope of a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and its shoot will not cease. ⁸Though its root becomes old in the earth, and its stump dies in the dust; ⁹yet at the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth branches like a plant. ¹⁰But man dies and is cut off, and man expires; and where is he? ¹¹As the waters go from the sea, and a river wastes away and dries up, ¹²so man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep.

¹³Who will grant that You would hide me in Sheol; You would conceal me until Your anger turns back; that You would set a limit for me and remember me? ¹⁴If a man dies, will he revive? All the days of my warfare I will wait, until my change comes. ¹⁵You shall call, and I will answer You; You shall long to the work of Your hands. ¹⁶For now You number my steps; do You not watch over my sin? ¹⁷My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and You cover over my iniquity. ¹⁸And surely a falling mountain crumbles away, and the rock moved out of its place. ¹⁹The waters wear away stones; its outpouring wash the dust of the earth; and You cause the hope of man to perish. ²⁰You overpower him forever, and He passes. You change his face, and send him away. ²¹His sons come to honor, and he does not know; they fall, but he does not mark it. ²²But his flesh is pained within him; and his soul mourns over him.

¹And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said: ²*Should* a wise man answer with windy knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? ³Should he reason with speech that is not useful, or with words having no profit in them? ⁴Yea, you do away with fear, and take away devotion before God. ⁵For your iniquity teaches your mouth; and you choose the tongue of the crafty. ⁶Your mouth condemns you, and not I; yea, your own lips testify against you.

⁷Were you the first man born? Or were you made before the hills? ⁸Have you heard the secret counsel of God? And do you limit wisdom to yourself? ⁹What do you know that we do not know? Or understand, that is not with us? ¹⁰With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, mightier than your father as to days. ¹¹Are the comforts of God small with you, and a word dealing gently with you? ¹²Why does your heart carry you away? And why do your eyes flash, ¹³that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth? ¹⁴What is man that he should be clean? And he born of a woman, that he should be righteous? ¹⁵Behold, He puts no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in His eyes; ¹⁶how much more is filthy man loathed, who drinks iniquity like water!

¹⁷I will tell you; hear me, and I will declare this that I have seen; ¹⁸that which wise men have told, and have not hidden from their fathers; ¹⁹to them alone the land was given; and no alien passed among them. ²⁰All the days of the wicked he is laboring in pain; a number of years are stored up for the ruthless. ²¹A fearful sound is in his ears; the destroyer shall come on him when he is peace. ²²He does not believe that he shall come back out of darkness; he is awaited by the sword. ²³He wanders for bread. Where is it? He knows that the day of darkness is at his hand. ²⁴Distress and pain terrify him; they shall overpower him, as a king ready for the attack; ²⁵because he stretched out his hand against God; and acts mighty against the Almighty. ²⁶He runs at him with a stiff neck, with the thick layers of his shields, ²⁷because he has covered his face with fat; yea, he has put fat on his loins. ²⁸And he dwells in cut-off cities; in houses where not any dwells in them, which are ready to become heaps. ²⁹He shall not be rich, nor shall his wealth hold out; nor shall he stretch out their gain on the earth. ³⁰He shall not escape from darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches; and he shall turn at the breath of His mouth. ³¹Let not he being deceived trust in vanity; for his reward shall be vanity. ³²Before his day it shall be fulfilled, and his branch shall not be green; ³³he shall shake off its unripe grape as the vine; and he shall cast its flower like the olive. ³⁴For the company of the ungodly shall be bleak; and fire shall devour the tents of bribery; ³⁵they conceive mischief and generate evil; and their belly prepares deceit.

¹And Job answered and said: ²I have heard many such things. You are all miserable comforters. ³*Shall* windy words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer? ⁴I also could speak as you. If your soul were in the place of my soul, I could bind words against you and shake with my head at you. ⁵I might make you strong with my mouth, and the moving of my lips could spare you. ⁶If I speak, my pain is not held back; and though I forbear, what ease do I get? ⁷But now He has made me weary. You have made all my company desolate. ⁸And You have plucked me; for it is a witness, and my failure rises up against me; and it answers to my face. ⁹His anger has torn, and hated me; He gnashes at me with His teeth; my enemy sharpens His eyes at me — ¹⁰they have gaped at me with their mouth, and scornfully struck my cheek; they gather themselves together against me. ¹¹God has delivered me to the perverse; and He has turned me over into the hands of the wicked. ¹²I was at ease, but He has shattered me; yea, He has also taken hold on my neck and broken me to bits; and He has set me up as a target for Him. ¹³His archers surround me; He splits my inward parts and has no pity; He pours out my gall on the ground. ¹⁴He breaks me with break on top of break; He runs on me like a warrior.

¹⁵I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and I have thrust my horn in the dust. ¹⁶My face is reddened from weeping; and the shadow of death is on my eyelids, ¹⁷though no violence is in my hand, and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸O earth, do not cover my blood, and let not my cry have a place. ¹⁹Even now, behold! My witness is in Heaven; and He who testifies of me is on high. ²⁰My scorers are my friends; my eye pours out tears to God. ²¹O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his friend! ²²For the years that are few will come; and I shall go the way from where I shall not return.

¹My spirit is broken; my days are extinct; graves are for me. ²*Are* not mockeries with me? And my eye rests on their insults. ³Please lay down a pledge for me with Yourself; who is he who will strike my hand with me? ⁴For You have hidden their heart from understanding; on account of this You shall not exalt them. ⁵He tells against friends for a share; even his son's eyes shall be consumed.

⁶He has also set me as a byword of the peoples, and I am a spitting of the faces. ⁷And my eye is dim from grief; and all my members are like a shadow. ⁸Upright ones shall be amazed at this; and the innocent shall stir himself against the ungodly. ⁹And the righteous shall hold firmly on his way; and he of clean hands adds strength.

¹⁰And now all of them, go back and please come again; and I shall not find among you a wise man. ¹¹My days have passed; my plans are broken off, the desires of my heart. ¹²They set night for day; light is near in the face of darkness. ¹³If I wait for Sheol as my house; I have spread out my bed in the darkness; ¹⁴I have said to corruption, You are my father; to the worm, My mother and my sister. ¹⁵And where then is my hope? And as for my hope, who shall see it? ¹⁶They shall go down to the bars of Sheol, when our descent together is in the dust.

¹And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said: ²Until when will you set a snare for words? Consider, and afterwards we will speak. ³Why are we counted as animals? Are we stupid in your eyes? ⁴*One* tearing himself in his anger, shall the earth be forsaken for your sake? Or shall the rock move from its place?

⁵Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out; and the spark of his fire shall not blaze. ⁶The light shall be dark in his tent; and his lamp shall be put out above him; ⁷the steps of his strength shall be hampered; and his own counsel shall tumble him. ⁸For he is thrown into a net by his own feet; and he is walking on a snare; ⁹the trap shall take him by the heel; a snare shall prevail over him; ¹⁰the noose is hid for him in the ground, and a trap for him on the way. ¹¹Terrors frighten him on every side, and shall scatter him at his feet. ¹²His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and calamity shall be ready at his side. ¹³It devours parts of his skin; the firstborn of death eats his parts. ¹⁴His hope shall be rooted out of his tent, and you marched to the king of terrors. ¹⁵What is not his shall dwell in his tent; brimstone is scattered on his home. ¹⁶His roots are dried up beneath, and his branch shall wither above. ¹⁷His memory perishes from the earth, and there is no name to him on the face of the street. ¹⁸They push him from light to darkness, and they make him flee from the world. ¹⁹He shall have no son nor kinsman among his people, nor any remnant in his dwellings. ²⁰Those after him shall be amazed at his day; and those before were seized with horror. ²¹Surely these are the tents of the perverse, and this the place God has not known.

¹And Job answered and said: ²Until when will you torment my soul and break me in pieces with words? ³This ten times you have shamed me; you are not ashamed that you have wronged me. ⁴And if indeed I have erred, my error remains with me. ⁵If truly you magnify yourself against me, and plead my misery against me, ⁶know now that God has overthrown me and His net has closed on me. ⁷Behold, I cry out, Violence! And I am not answered; I cry aloud, but there is no justice.

⁸He has fenced up my path so that I cannot pass; and He has set darkness on my paths. ⁹He has stripped me of my honor, and He has taken the crown from my head. ¹⁰He has broken me on every side, and I go; and He has uprooted my hope like a tree. ¹¹And also His wrath glows against me, and to Himself He counts me as His foe. ¹²His troops come together and they heap up their way against me; and they camp around my tent.

¹³He has put my brothers from me; and my knowers are truly alienated from me. ¹⁴My near ones have fallen away, and my friends have forgotten me. ¹⁵The sojourners in my house, even my slave-girls, count me as a foreigner; I am an alien in their eyes. ¹⁶I called my servant, but he does not answer; I must beg him with my mouth. ¹⁷My breath is strange to my wife, and I must beg to the sons of my mother's womb. ¹⁸Even young children despise me; I rise, and they speak against me. ¹⁹All the men of my counsel detest me; even this one I have loved has turned against me. ²⁰My bone clings on my skin and on my flesh; and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

²¹Have pity on me! Have pity on me, you my friends. For the hand of God has touched me. ²²Why do you pursue me, as God does, and are not satisfied with my flesh? ²³Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were engraved in a book! ²⁴Oh that they were cut with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever! ²⁵For I know that my Redeemer is living, and He shall rise on the earth at the last; ²⁶and after my skin has been struck off from my flesh, yet this, I shall see God, ²⁷whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not a stranger; though my reins be exhausted in my bosom.

²⁸For you may say, Why do we persecute him? And the root of the matter is found in me. ²⁹Fear for yourselves because of the sword; for fury brings punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment.

¹And Zophar the Naamathite answered and said: ²So my thoughts cause me to answer, even because of my haste in me. ³I have heard the instruction of my chastisement; and the spirit from my understanding makes me reply. ⁴Do you know this from of old, from the setting of man on earth, ⁵that the exulting of the wicked is near an end, and the joy of the ungodly is for a moment? ⁶Though his height mounts up to the heavens, and his head touches to the clouds, ⁷he shall perish forever like his dung; they who see him shall say, Where is he? ⁸He flies off like a dream, and is not found; and is driven away like a night vision. ⁹An eye glimpsed him, but will not again; yea, his place shall not again see him. ¹⁰His sons seek the poor's favors; and his hands shall restore his wealth. ¹¹His bones are full of his youthful vigor, but it lies down on the dust with him. ¹²*Even if* evil is sweet in his mouth — he hides it under his tongue, ¹³*he* spares it, and will not leave it; yea, keeps holding it in his mouth—¹⁴*yet* his food in his belly shall be turned; the gall of asps is within him. ¹⁵He swallows wealth, but vomits it; God drives it out from his belly. ¹⁶He shall suck the poison of asps; the viper's tongue shall slay him. ¹⁷He shall not see the rivers, the flowings of torrents of honey and curd; ¹⁸giving back his gain, and he will not eat. As to the wealth of his trading, even he shall not enjoy it. ¹⁹For he crushed and forsook the poor; he stole a house, but he had not built it. ²⁰Surely he shall not know ease in his belly; he will not escape with his things of desire. ²¹There is no survivor for his eating; because of this, his good will not last. ²²In the fullness of his scorn, it is strait for him; the hand of every wretched one shall come upon him. ²³It shall happen at the filling of his belly, He shall cast on him the fury of His wrath, and He shall rain on him while he is eating. ²⁴He may flee from the iron weapon, a bow of bronze shall pierce him. ²⁵One draws it, and treads it from behind, even lightning from his gall; terror is upon him. ²⁶All darkness is hidden for secret treasuring; fire not blown shall consume him; those left in his tent shall be broken. ²⁷The heavens shall expose his iniquity; and the earth shall be raising itself up against him. ²⁸The increase of his house shall depart, flowing away in the day of His wrath. ²⁹This is the evil man's portion from God, and the inheritance of his word from God.

¹And Job answered and said: ²Listen carefully to my speech, and let this be your comfort; ³Rise with me and I shall speak; then after I have spoken, you may mock. ⁴*As for* me, is my complaint to man? And why should not my spirit be short? ⁵Turn toward me and be astonished, and put your hand on your mouth. ⁶And if I remember, I am dismayed; and trembling seizes on my flesh.

⁷Why do the wicked live? They grow old, and become mighty in power. ⁸Their seed is established with them before their face, and their offspring before their eyes. ⁹Their houses are in peace, without fear;

nor is God's rod upon them. ¹⁰His bull mates and does not fail; his cow calves and does not miscarry. ¹¹They send their little ones out as a flock; and their children dance. ¹²They lift up voice at the timbrel and lyre, and rejoice at the sound of the flute. ¹³They spend their days in good, and in a moment go down to Sheol. ¹⁴And they say to God, Depart from us, for we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways—

¹⁵What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? And what do we profit if we entreat Him? —¹⁶Behold, their good is not in their hand! The counsel of the wicked is far from me. ¹⁷How often is the lamp of the wicked put out, and their calamity comes on them! He shares out pangs in His anger; ¹⁸they are as straw before the wind, and as chaff that the tempest steals away. ¹⁹God stores up his iniquity for his sons; He repays him, and he knows. ²⁰His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty. ²¹For what is his delight in his house after him, and his number of months is cut off? ²²Shall any teach God knowledge, since He shall judge the exalted?

²³One dies in his full strength, wholly secure and at ease; ²⁴his sides are full of milk, and his bones are wet with marrow. ²⁵And another dies with bitter soul, and never eats with pleasure; ²⁶they lie down together on the dust, and the worms shall cover over them.

²⁷Behold, I know your thoughts, and the plots you would wrongfully do against me; ²⁸for you say, Where is the house of the noble, and where the tent, the dwellings of the wicked? ²⁹*Did* you not ask those who go along the highway; and do you not know their signs? ³⁰For the wicked is kept for the day of calamity—they shall be brought to the day of wrath. ³¹Who shall declare his way to his face? And who repays him for what he has done? ³²Yet he shall be brought to the graves, and watch shall be kept over his tomb. ³³And the clods of the valley shall be sweet to him; and every man shall draw after him; and there is not any number before him. ³⁴How then do you comfort me with vanity? Yea, in your answers remains treachery.

¹And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said: ²Can a man be useful to God? For a wise man, may he be useful to himself? ³*Is it any* pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways perfect? ⁴Will He reprove you because of your reverence, or enter into judgment with you? ⁵*Is not* your wickedness great, and is there no end to your iniquities? ⁶For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing, and you have stripped the naked of their clothing. ⁷You have not given water to the faint to drink, and you withheld food from the hungry. ⁸And the earth is to him, the armed man; and the honored one lives in it. ⁹You have sent widows away empty, and have crushed the arms of orphans. ¹⁰On account of this snares are all around you, and suddenly dread troubles you; ¹¹or darkness, so that you cannot see, and a flood of waters covers you. ¹²*Is not* God high in Heaven? And you look at the leading stars, for they are high. ¹³And you say, What does God know? Can He judge through the dark cloud? ¹⁴Clouds are a covering for Him, and He does not see; and He walks the circuit of the heavens. ¹⁵Do you keep to the old way which evil men have trod?—¹⁶*they* were seized, but there was not time; their foundation was poured out by a flood; ¹⁷who said to God, Depart from us; and, What can the Almighty do to them? ¹⁸Yet He filled their houses with substance—and the counsel of the wicked is far from me. ¹⁹The righteous see it and are glad; and the innocent scornfully laugh; ²⁰truly our adversary is not cut down, and fire has eaten their wealth. ²¹Intimately know Him, and be at peace; good shall come to you by them. ²²Now receive the law from His mouth, and put His words in your heart. ²³If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up; you shall put injustice far from your tents. ²⁴Then you shall lay gold on the dust, even among the rocks of the torrents of Ophir. ²⁵Yea, the Almighty shall be your gold and silver, a tower to you, ²⁶for then you will delight over the Almighty, and you will lift up your face to God.

²⁷You shall make your prayer to Him, and He will hear you; and you shall pay your vows. ²⁸You shall also decide a thing, and it will stand for you; and light shall shine on your ways. ²⁹For they have humiliated you; and you shall say, Pride! And He shall save the lowly of eyes. ³⁰He shall deliver one not innocent; and will deliver by the cleanness of your hands.

¹And Job answered and said: ²Even today my complaint is bitter; my hand is heavy over my groaning. ³Oh that I knew where I might find him, I would come in to His seat; ⁴I would order my cause before Him, and I would fill my mouth with arguments. ⁵I would know the words He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me. ⁶Would He plead against me with greatness of strength? No, surely He would put it in me. ⁷There the righteous might reason with Him; and I would be forever delivered from my Judge. ⁸Behold, I go forward, but He is not there; and backward, but I do not see Him; ⁹to the left where He works, but I cannot see; He turns to the right, but I do not see Him. ¹⁰But He knows the way with me. When I am tried, I shall come forth as gold. ¹¹My foot has held fast in His steps; I have kept His way and have not turned; ¹²nor have I departed from the command of His lips; I treasured the words of His mouth more than my portion. ¹³But He is in one mind, and who can turn Him? Yea, His soul desires, and He does it. ¹⁴For He fulfilled my lot, and many like these are with Him. ¹⁵On account of this I am troubled from His presence; I consider, and am in dread of Him. ¹⁶For God makes my heart weak, and the Almighty troubles me. ¹⁷In this I was not cut off by darkness; yea, He covered the thick darkness from my face.

¹Why since times are not hidden from the Almighty, even those knowing Him do not see His days? ²They move the landmarks; they seize and pasture flocks; ³they drive away the ass of orphans; they take the widow's ox for a pledge; ⁴they turn the needy out of the way; the poor of the earth have hidden together. ⁵Behold, like wild asses in the desert, they go out in their work, seeking early for prey; the desert yields food for him for their young. ⁶They reap his fodder in the field, and they glean the wicked's vineyard. ⁷They lodge naked ones without clothing, and give no cover against the cold. ⁸They are wet with the showers of hills, and embrace the rock for lack of shelter. ⁹They seize the orphan from the breast, and lay a pledge on the poor. ¹⁰They make them go without clothing, and hungry they lift up the sheaves. ¹¹They press out oil between their walls; they tread winepresses, but are thirsty. ¹²Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded cries for help; yet God does not charge unseemliness. ¹³They are among rebellors against light; they do not recognize His ways, nor do they stay in His paths. ¹⁴The murderer rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night he is a thief. ¹⁵And the adulterer's eye keeps watch for twilight, saying, No eye will see me; and he puts a covering on his face. ¹⁶In the dark he digs through houses; they shut themselves up by day; they do not know the light. ¹⁷For alike are morning and the shadow of death to them; for he knows the terrors of death's shadow. ¹⁸He is swift on the waters; their part is cursed in the earth; he does not face the way of the vineyards. ¹⁹Drought and heat eat up the snow waters; Sheol those who have sinned. ²⁰The womb shall forget him; the worm shall suck on him; he shall be remembered no more; and injustice shall be broken like a tree. ²¹He ill-treats the barren that bear not, and does no good to the widow. ²²He also draws the mighty with his strength; He rises up, and no one is sure of life. ²³He gives security to him, and he leans on it; yet His eyes are on their ways. ²⁴They are lifted up for a little while, but they are not; and they are brought low; they are gathered in like all others, and wither like the heads of ears of grain. ²⁵And if not, then who will prove me a liar, and make my speech into nothing?

¹And Bildad the Shuhite answered and said: ²Rule and fear are with Him. He makes peace in His high places. ³Is there any number of His armies? And on whom does His light not rise? ⁴How then can man be justified with God? Or how can one who is born of a woman be pure? ⁵Behold, even the moon—and it is not bright—and the stars are not pure in His eyes; ⁶how much less man who is a maggot; and the son of man who is a worm!

¹And Job answered and said: ²How have you helped the powerless, or saved the arm with no strength? ³How have you advised the ones not wise; or fully declared wise plans? ⁴With whom have you spoken words? And whose breath came forth from you?

⁵The departed spirits are made to writhe from beneath the waters, and their inhabitants. ⁶Sheol is naked before Him, and the Pit has no covering. ⁷He stretched out the north over the empty place; and he hung the earth on nothing. ⁸He binds up the waters in His thick clouds; and the cloud does not burst under them. ⁹He covers the face of His throne, spreading His cloud over it. ¹⁰He has described a circle with darkness on the surface of the waters to the boundary of light. ¹¹The pillars of the heavens tremble and are stunned at His rebuke. ¹²With His power He quiets these, and by His understanding He shatters pride. ¹³By His Spirit the heavens were beautiful; His hand pierced the fleeing snake. ¹⁴Lo, these are the edges of His ways; yea, what a whisper of a word we hear of Him! And the thunder of His might, who can understand?

¹And Job continued the uplifting of his discourse, and said: ²As God lives, He has taken away my judgment; yea, the Almighty has made my soul bitter. ³As long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils; ⁴my lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit. ⁵Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die, I shall not retract my integrity from me. ⁶I hold fast by my righteousness, and I will not abandon it; my heart shall not shame me any of my days. ⁷Let my enemy be like the wicked, and he who rises against me as the perverse. ⁸For what is the hope of the ungodly when He cuts off, when God pulls out his soul? ⁹Will God hear his cry when distress comes upon him? ¹⁰Will he delight in the Almighty? Will he call on God at every time?

¹¹I will teach you by the hand of God; that which is with the Almighty I will not hide. ¹²Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; when then do you become vain with this vanity? ¹³This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the inheritance of ruthless men that they shall receive from the Almighty. ¹⁴If his sons become numerous, the sword is for them; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. ¹⁵Those remaining of him shall be buried in death, and his widows shall not weep. ¹⁶Though he heaps up silver like the dust, and prepares clothing like the clay; ¹⁷he may prepare, but the just shall put it on; and the innocent shall divide the silver. ¹⁸He builds his house like a moth, and like a booth that a watchman makes. ¹⁹The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered; he opens his eyes, and he is not. ²⁰Fears shall overtake him like waters; a tempest steals him away in the night. ²¹The east wind lifts him up and he is gone; for it whirls him out of his place. ²²For it will hurl at him, and will not spare; from its hand he will surely flee. ²³He shall clap His hands at him, and shall hiss him from his place.

¹Surely there is a mine for the silver, and a place where they refine gold. ²Iron is taken out of the earth, and bronze is smelted from stone. ³He sets an end to darkness, and to every extremity He searches out a stone of darkness and death-shade. ⁴He opens a shaft far from the visitor; they are forgotten by man's foot; they hang far from men; they swing to and fro. ⁵*As to* the earth, out of it comes bread; and under it, it is turned up like fire. ⁶The place of sapphires is in its stones, and it has dust of gold. ⁷*There is* a path not known to birds of prey, nor has a falcon's eye caught sight of it; ⁸the sons of pride have not trodden on it; the lion has not passed by it. ⁹He places his hand on the flint places; He overturns mountains by the roots. ¹⁰He cuts out rivers among the rocks, and His eye sees every precious thing. ¹¹He restrains the floods from overflowing; and He brings the hidden thing to light. ¹²But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding? ¹³Man does not know its value, nor is it found in the land of the living. ¹⁴The deep says, It is not in me; and the sea says, It is not with me. ¹⁵Pure gold cannot be given instead of it; and silver cannot be weighed as its price. ¹⁶It cannot be weighed against the gold of Ophir, against precious onyx, or sapphire; ¹⁷gold and crystal cannot be ranked with it, nor its exchange a vessel of fine gold. ¹⁸Coral and rock crystal cannot be mentioned; yea, the getting of wisdom is above jewels. ¹⁹The topaz of Ethiopia cannot be ranked with it; it cannot be weighed against pure gold. ²⁰Where then does wisdom come from, and where is the place of understanding? ²¹Yea, it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the birds of the heavens; ²²the Place of Ruin and death say, We have heard its fame with our ears. ²³God knows its way, and He knows its place. ²⁴For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under all the heavens; ²⁵making a weight for the winds, and measuring out the waters by measure. ²⁶When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the flash, the thunderclap, ²⁷then He saw it, and declared it; He prepared it, and He also searched it out. ²⁸And to man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom! And to turn from evil is understanding.

¹And Job continued the lifting up of his discourse, and said: ²Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God watched over me; ³when His lamp shone on my head, when I walked through darkness by His light; ⁴as I was in the days of my harvest, when the intimacy with God was on my tent; ⁵when the Almighty was yet with me and my children were around me; ⁶when I washed my steps with curds, and the rock poured out rivers of oil; ⁷when I went out to the gate by the city;

when I prepared my seat in the street. ⁸The young men saw me and hid themselves; the aged rose up, stood up; ⁹the princes held back with words, and they laid a hand on their mouth; ¹⁰the leaders' voice was hidden; yea, their tongue clung to the roof of their mouth.

¹¹For the ear heard, and blessed me; and the eye saw, and witnessed for me. ¹²For I delivered the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no helper to him. ¹³The blessing of the perishing came on me; and I made the widow's heart to sing. ¹⁴I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my judgment was like a robe and a diadem. ¹⁵I was eyes to the blind, and feet for the lame. ¹⁶I was father to the poor, and the cause which I did not know, I searched out. ¹⁷I broke the fangs of the perverse, and cast the prey out of his teeth. ¹⁸Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply days like the sand. ¹⁹My root was open to the waters, and the dew lay all night on my branch. ²⁰My glory was fresh with me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. ²¹They listened to me and waited, and kept silence for my counsel. ²²After my words, they did not go on, and my speech dropped on them. ²³And they waited for me like the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain. ²⁴I laughed on those when they did not believe; and they did not make the light of my face to fall. ²⁵I chose out their way, and sat as chief; and I lived like a king among the troops; as the mourners, and he who comforts.

¹But now those that are younger than I laugh at me; those whose fathers I would have refused to set with the dogs of my flock. ²Also, what profit for me was the strength of their hands; or full vigor had perished from them? ³They are lifeless with want and hunger, those who gnaw the dry ground which was formerly waste and desolation; ⁴those plucking mallow by the bushes, and broom roots for their food; ⁵they are driven from the midst; they shouted against them as a thief; ⁶they dwell in the chasms of the torrents, in the holes of the earth, and in rocks. ⁷They bray among the bushes; they huddle together under the nettles; ⁸sons of fools; yea, sons without a name; they have been whipped out of the land. ⁹And now I am their song; yea, I am their byword. ¹⁰They despise me, and they keep away from me; they do not spare spit from my face; ¹¹Because He has loosed His bow-string, and afflicted me, they also have thrown off the bridle in my presence. ¹²On my right hand a brood rises; they push away my feet and raise their destructive ways against me. ¹³They have broken down my path; they profit by my ruin; they have no helper. ¹⁴They come on, as through a break; they roll on under a ruin. ¹⁵Terrors are turned on me; they pursue my soul like the wind, and my goods pass away like a cloud. ¹⁶And now my soul is poured out within me; days of affliction have seized me. ¹⁷The night pierces my bones on me, and my gnawings never lie down. ¹⁸By the great force of my disease my garment is disfigured; it chokes me like the mouth of my coat. ¹⁹He has cast me into the mire; and I have become like dust and ashes.

²⁰I cried to You, but You did not answer me. I stood up, and You considered me. ²¹You changed to be cruel to me; You assault me with the might of Your hand; ²²You lift me up to the wind; You cause me to ride on it; and You melt me in a storm. ²³For I know that You will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. ²⁴Surely He will not stretch out His hand to the ruin-heap; behold, they cry for help in their misfortune. ²⁵Did I not weep for him whose day is hard; and my soul grieved for the poor? ²⁶When I looked for good, then evil came; and when I waited for light, then darkness came. ²⁷My bowels have boiled, and not rested; the days of affliction confront me. ²⁸I go in mourning, with no sun; I stood up in the assembly, and I cried out. ²⁹I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to daughters of the ostrich. ³⁰My skin is blackened on me, and my bones are burned with heat. ³¹And my lyre has turned to mourning, and My flute vibrates to the sound of weeping.

¹I made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I look intently on a virgin? ²For what is the portion from God above? And what is the legacy from the Almighty on high? ³Is it not disaster to the perverse, and calamity to the workers of iniquity? ⁴Does He not see my ways, and count all my steps? ⁵If I have walked with vanity, or my foot has hurried to deceit, ⁶let me be weighed in a just balance so that God may know my integrity. ⁷If my step has turned aside out of the way, or my heart has walked after my eyes, and if any blot has held fast to my hands, ⁸let me sow, and let another eat; and let my harvests be rooted out. ⁹If my heart has been enticed by a woman; or I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, ¹⁰let my wife grind to another, and let others crouch over her. ¹¹For that would be a shameful scheme, and is iniquity for judges. ¹²For it is a fire that devours to the Place of Ruin, and it would root up all my gain. ¹³If I despised the cause of my male slave or my slavegirl when they contended with me, ¹⁴what then shall I do when God rises up? And when He calls me to account, what shall I answer Him? ¹⁵Did He who made me in the belly not make him? And did not One shape us in the womb? ¹⁶If I have withheld from the desire of the poor, or I have caused the widow's eyes to fail, ¹⁷or have eaten my bit alone, and the orphan has not eaten it—¹⁸for from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother's womb I guided her—¹⁹if I have seen any perish for lack of clothing, or there was no covering for the needy; ²⁰if his loins have not blessed me, and he warmed himself with the fleece of my flock; ²¹if I have lifted up my hand against the orphan when I watched in the gate as my help; ²²let my shoulder fall from the back, and let my arm be broken from the elbow. ²³For trouble from God is a terror to me, and I could not do the thing because of His majesty. ²⁴If I have made gold my hope, or have called fine gold my trust; ²⁵if I rejoiced because my wealth was great; or because my hand had gotten much; ²⁶if I looked to the light when it shone, or the moon marching in splendor, ²⁷and my heart was secretly enticed, or my mouth has kissed my hand; ²⁸this also would be an iniquity for the judges; for I would have denied God above.

²⁹If I rejoiced at the ruin of my enemy, and I was excited when evil found him; —³⁰also I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse—³¹if the men of my tent did not say, Who can find one not being satisfied from his meat — ³²the stranger did not sleep in the street, for I opened my doors to the traveler— ³³if I covered my transgressions like Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, ³⁴then let me fear before a great multitude, and let the scorn of families frighten me; and I will be silent, and not go out the door. ³⁵Oh that I had one to hear me! See, my mark! Let the Almighty answer me, and let my Accuser write an indictment. ³⁶Surely I would carry it on my shoulder, and bind it like crowns to me. ³⁷I would tell Him the number of my steps. Like a prince, I would go near Him. ³⁸If my land cries out against me, or its furrows weep together; ³⁹if I have eaten its strength without silver, or have caused its owner to expire; ⁴⁰let thorns come forth instead of wheat, and a weed instead of barley.

The words of Job are finished.

¹And these three men rested from answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then burned the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; his wrath burned against Job, because he had justified himself rather than God. ³Also his wrath burned against his three friends, because they had not found any answer, yet they had condemned Job. ⁴And Elihu had waited for Job with words, because they were older than he in days. ⁵When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, then his anger burned. ⁶And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and you are very aged; so I held back and was afraid to make my knowledge known to you. ⁷I said, Days will speak, and many years will make wisdom known. ⁸But it is a spirit in man giving them perception, even the breath of the Almighty. ⁹*It is* not the great that are wise, nor the aged who perceive justice; ¹⁰so then I say, Listen to me; I will declare my knowledge, I also. ¹¹Behold, I waited for your words; I listened to your reasons while you searched out words; ¹²yea, I paid attention to you, and behold, not one of you proved Job wrong, nor answered his sayings; ¹³that you not say, We have discovered wisdom. It is God who will scatter him, not man. ¹⁴And he has not ordered words against me, and I will not answer him with your words.

¹⁵They are broken; they do not reply again; words have departed from them. ¹⁶Shall I wait because they do not speak, because they stand, not answering again? ¹⁷I also will answer my share; I will declare my knowledge, I also. ¹⁸For I am full of words; the spirit inside me pressed on me; ¹⁹behold, my breast is like wine that has no vent; it bursts like new wineskins. ²⁰I will speak so that I may be relieved; I will open my lips and answer. ²¹I will not now lift up the face of a man, nor eulogize any man. ²²For I do not know how to eulogize; else after a little my Maker will take me away.

¹However, Job, now hear my speech and listen to all my words. ²Behold, now I have opened my mouth; my tongue has spoken in my mouth. ³My words shall be from my upright heart; and my lips will clearly speak knowledge. ⁴The Spirit of God made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life. ⁵If you are able, answer me; set yourself in order before me. Stand up! ⁶Behold, I am toward God as you; I also was formed from the clay. ⁷Behold, my terror shall not frighten you; and my burden shall not be heavy on you. ⁸Surely you have spoken in my ears, and I have heard the sound of words. ⁹*You said*, I am pure, without transgression; I am clean, and no iniquity is in me; ¹⁰behold, He finds alienation on me; He considers me His enemy; ¹¹He puts my feet in the stocks; He watches all my paths. ¹²Behold, you are not right in this. I will answer you, for God is greater than man. ¹³Why do you contend against Him, since He does not give account to you for any of His matters? ¹⁴For in one way God may speak, and in a second, but one does not notice it. ¹⁵In a dream, a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men; while they slumber on the bed, ¹⁶then He opens the ear of men and seals their instruction, ¹⁷that He may turn man from his deed; that He might conceal pride from man. ¹⁸He holds back his soul from the Pit, and his life from passing by the sword. ¹⁹He is also chastened with pain on his bed, and enduring strife in his bones; ²⁰so that his life loathes bread, and his soul desirable food. ²¹His flesh wastes away, not seen; and his bones laid bare, they were not seen. ²²Yea, his soul draws near to the Pit, and his life to the dealers of death. ²³If there is a messenger for him, a mediator, one among a thousand, to declare for man his uprightness, ²⁴then let Him be gracious to him and say, Deliver him from going down to the Pit, for I have found a ransom! ²⁵His flesh shall be fresher than in vigor; let him return to the days of his youth. ²⁶He will pray to God, and He will accept him, and he will see His face with exultation; for He will restore to man his righteousness. ²⁷He will observe to men, and say, I have sinned, and I have perverted uprightness; and it was not equally repaid to me; ²⁸He has redeemed my soul from passing over into the Pit, and my life shall see the light. ²⁹Lo, all these things God does two or three times with a man, ³⁰to bring back his soul from the Pit, to be illuminated with the light of the living.

³¹Pay attention, O Job; listen to me; be silent, and I will speak. ³²If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justify you. ³³If not, you listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.

¹And Elihu answered and said: ²O wise men, hear my words; and you who know, listen to me; ³for the ear tries words as the palate tastes food. ⁴Let us choose for ourselves what is right; let us know among ourselves what is good. ⁵For Job has said, I am righteous; also, God has taken away my right; ⁶should I lie against my right? My wound is incurable, yet I am without rebellion. ⁷What man is like Job, who drinks up derision like water; ⁸who goes in company with those who work iniquity, and walks with wicked men? ⁹For he has said, It is no benefit for a man when he is accepted with God. ¹⁰So, O man of heart, listen to me; far be it from God to do wickedness; and the Almighty, to do evilly. ¹¹For He repays man's work to him; and according to a man's day, He causes him to find. ¹²Yea, surely God will not do evilly, nor will the Almighty pervert justice. ¹³Who has given the earth as a deposit with Him? Or who has laid the whole world? ¹⁴If He sets His heart on him, if He gathers his spirit and his breath to Himself, ¹⁵all flesh shall perish together, and man shall return to dust.

¹⁶But if you have understanding, hear this; listen to the sound of my words: ¹⁷Shall one who hates justice restrain it? Or will you condemn a righteous, mighty one ¹⁸who says to a king, O worthless one; to nobles, O evil one? ¹⁹*Much less to Him* who does not accept the face of rulers, nor regard the rich before the poor; for all of them are the work of His hands. ²⁰In a moment they die, and a people are shaken at midnight; yea, they pass away, and the mighty will be taken without a hand. ²¹For His eyes are on the ways of a man, and He sees all his steps. ²²There is no darkness nor shadow of death, to hide there those who work iniquity.

²³For He does not still impose on man to go before God in judgment. ²⁴He will break mighty men in pieces, without inquiry; and make stand others in their place. ²⁵So He knows their works; and He overturns in the night, so that they are crushed.

²⁶He strikes them for evil deeds in the place of the spectators; ²⁷for so they turned from following Him, and they did not consider all His ways so as ²⁸to cause the cry of the poor to come to Him. For He hears the cry of the afflicted. ²⁹And He gives rest; who then can condemn? And when He hides His face, who then can see Him? Even it may be against a nation and a man together, ³⁰from the reigning of ungodly men, from being snares for the people.

³¹For has any said to God, I have taken away; I will not pervert? ³²Besides what I see, You teach me; if I have done iniquity, I will not do it again. ³³Must He repay you because you rejected it? For you must choose, and not I; therefore, speak what you know. ³⁴Men of heart will say to me, and a wise man who hears me will say, ³⁵Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words are not with insight. ³⁶Would that Job may be tried to the end, because his answers are like men of iniquity. ³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God.

¹And Elihu answered and said: ²Do you think this to be just, you that say, I am more just than God? ³For you say, What will it benefit you? What shall I profit more than if I had sinned? ⁴I will answer your words, and your friends with you. ⁵Observe the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, they are higher than you. ⁶If you sin, what do you do against Him? Or if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him? ⁷If you are righteous, what do you give to Him? Or what does He receive from your hand? ⁸Your wickedness is for a man like yourself; and your righteousness may profit a son of man. ⁹From the multitude of tyrannies, they cry out; they cry because of the arm of the many. ¹⁰But no one says, Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, ¹¹teaching us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens? ¹²There they cry, but He does not answer, because of the pride of evildoers. ¹³Surely, God will not hear vanity, nor will the Almighty look upon it.

¹⁴How much less when you say you do not see Him! Judgment is before Him, and you are waiting for Him. ¹⁵And now, because His anger has not visited, and He does not recognize great stupidity, ¹⁶even Job vainly opens his mouth; he multiplies words without knowledge.

¹And Elihu continued, and said: ²Wait for me a little, and I will show you that there are yet words for God. ³I will bring my knowledge from afar, and I will credit righteousness to my Maker. ⁴For truly my words are not false; the perfect One in knowledge is with you.

⁵Behold, God is mighty, and He does not despise. He is mighty in strength of heart. ⁶He will not keep the wicked alive, but He gives justice to the afflicted. ⁷He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous, but they are like kings on the throne; yea, He causes them to sit forever, and they are very high. ⁸And if they are bound in chains, or caught in cords of affliction, ⁹then He declares to them their work and their transgressions, that they have behaved proudly.

¹⁰He also opens their ear to instruction, and commands that they turn back from iniquity. ¹¹If they hear and serve, they shall spend their days in good, and their years in pleasures. ¹²But if they do not obey, they shall pass away by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge. ¹³But the ungodly in heart heap up anger; they cry not when He has bound them. ¹⁴Their soul dies in youth, and their life ends among the sodomites.

¹⁵He delivers the afflicted by his affliction, and opens their ears by oppression. ¹⁶And he also would have lured you from the mouth of distress to a wide place not cramped under; and the setting of your table would be full of fatness. ¹⁷But you have filled up the judgment of the wicked; judgment and justice take hold; ¹⁸for beware wrath, that He not lure you with His scorn; then a great ransom cannot turn you aside. ¹⁹*If* your cry for help is set in order, then not in distress, but with all the strong forces?

²⁰Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place. ²¹Beware! Do not turn to iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction.

²²Behold, God is exalted in His power. Who is a teacher like Him? ²³Who has appointed Him His way; or who can say, You have done wrong? ²⁴Remember that you magnify His work, of which men have sung; ²⁵every man has seen it; man beholds it from afar. ²⁶Behold, God is great, and we do not know; the number of His years cannot be searched out. ²⁷For He draws up the drops of water; they distill rain into mist. ²⁸Which the clouds drip down, and drop upon men plentifully.

²⁹Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds, the crashing of His canopy?

³⁰Behold, He spreads His light about Him, and He covers the bottom of the sea. ³¹For He judges the people by them; He gives plenty of food. ³²He covers His hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark; ³³its thunder tells about Him; also the cattle, as to, what is coming.

¹My heart also trembles at this, and it leaps from its place. ²Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice, and the rumbling that comes out from His mouth. ³He lets it loose under the whole heavens, and His lightning to the wings of the earth. ⁴After it, a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic voice; and He will not hold them back when His voice is heard. ⁵God thunders wondrously with His voice; He does great things, and we do not know. ⁶For He says to the snow, Fall on the earth; also to the shower of rain, and the shower of heavy rains. ⁷He seals up the hand of every man, so that all men may know His work. ⁸Then the beast goes into its lair, and they stay in their dens. ⁹Out of the storeroom comes the tempest, and cold from scattering winds. ¹⁰Ice is given by God's breath, and the expanse of waters is frozen. ¹¹Yea, He loads the cloud with moisture; He scatters His lightning cloud; ¹²and it is turned around by His guidance, so that they may do whatever He commands them on the face of the world of the earth. ¹³Whether as a whip, or for His land, or for mercy, He finds it.

¹⁴Listen to this, O Job; stand still and consider the wonderful works of God. ¹⁵Do you know when God placed them, and caused the lightning of His cloud to shine? ¹⁶Do you know the balance of the clouds, the wonderful works of Him who is perfect in knowledge; ¹⁷*how* your garments are warm when the earth is still from the south wind? ¹⁸Can you beat out the expanse with Him, hard like a cast mirror? ¹⁹Make us know what we shall say to Him; for we cannot arrange our case because of darkness. ²⁰Shall it be told to Him that I would speak? If a man speaks, surely he will be swallowed up. ²¹And now men cannot look upon the light when it is bright in the clouds; when the wind has passed and cleared them.²²Golden splendor comes out of the north; God is awesome in His majesty.²³We cannot find Him, the Almighty; He is exalted in power; and He does not violate justice and abundant righteousness.²⁴So, men, fear Him; He does not regard any who are wise of heart.

¹And Jehovah answered Job out of the tempest and said: ²Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? ³Now gird up your loins like a man, for I will question you; and you teach Me. ⁴Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare if you know understanding. ⁵For do you know who has set its measurements? Or who has stretched a line on it? ⁶On what were its bases sunk? Or who has cast its cornerstone, ⁷when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? ⁸Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it burst out; it came forth from the womb? ⁹When I made the clouds to clothe it, and darkness its navelband; ¹⁰and I broke My limit on it, and set bars and doors; ¹¹and I said, You shall come to here, but no further; and here your proud waves shall be set?

¹²Have you commanded the morning from your days, and caused the dawn to know its place, ¹³that it might take hold of the wings of the earth; that the wicked might be shaken out of it? ¹⁴It is turned like clay under a seal; and they stand out like a garment. ¹⁵And their light is withheld from the wicked, and the high arm shall be broken. ¹⁶Have you gone to the springs of the sea; or have you walked in searching of the deep? ¹⁷Have death's gates been opened to you; or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? ¹⁸Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth? Declare, if you know it all! ¹⁹Where is this, the way light dwells; and where is the place of darkness, ²⁰that you should take it to its territory, and that you should perceive the paths to its house? ²¹You know, for then you were born, and the number of your days is great.

²²Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the store-houses of the hail, ²³which I have reserved for the time of distress, for the day of battle and war? ²⁴How is it, the way the light is distributed; and how does the east wind spread itself on the earth? ²⁵Who has cut a channel for the flood; or a way for the thunderclaps, ²⁶to make rain fall on the earth where no man is, a wilderness and no man in it; ²⁷to satisfy the waste and desolation, and to cause the source of grass to sprout? ²⁸Is there a father for the rain? Or who has begotten the drops of dew? ²⁹From whose womb comes forth the ice; and the frost of the heavens, who fathered it? ³⁰The waters hidden like stone, and the face of the deep is captured. ³¹Can you bind the bands of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? ³²Can you bring out the constellations in their season; or can you guide the Bear with its sons? ³³Do you know the limits of the heavens; can you establish their rulership on the earth? ³⁴Can you lift your voice to the clouds, so that floods of water may cover you? ³⁵Can you send lightnings, that they may go and say to you, Here we are? ³⁶Who has put wisdom in the inward parts; or who has given understanding to the mind? ³⁷Who can by wisdom number the clouds; or who can lay down the jars of the heavens, ³⁸when the dust is melted into hardness, and the clods cling fast together? ³⁹Will you hunt the prey for the lion, or fill the appetite of the young lions, ⁴⁰when they crouch in dens, and sit in the cover of their hiding-place? ⁴¹Who provides food for the raven when its young ones cry to God and wander about without food?

¹Do you know the time when the wild goats of the rock bear? Do you observe the calving of deer? ²Can you tell the months they fulfill; or do you know the time for their bearing, ³when they crouch and bring forth; they send out their pangs? ⁴Their young ones are strong; they multiply with grain; they go forth and do not return to them. ⁵Who has sent out the wild ass free; or who has untied the bands of the wild ass? ⁶To whom have I assigned the desert for his home, and the salt land for his dwellings? He laughs at the turmoil of the city; he does not hear the driver's shouts; ⁸he seeks out mountains for his pasture; and he searches after every green thing. ⁹Will the wild ox consent to be your servant, or spend the night by your feed-trough? ¹⁰Can you tie the wild ox in the furrow with his rope? Or will he harrow the valleys for you? ¹¹Will you trust him because his strength is great; or will you leave your labor to him? ¹²Will you have faith in him, that he will return your seed, and bring it to your grain-floor?

¹³The wing of the ostriches flap joyously, though not the stork's pinions for flight. ¹⁴For she leaves her eggs to the earth, and lets them warm on the dust; ¹⁵and forgets that a foot may crush it, or the beast of the field may trample it; ¹⁶she treats her young roughly, as if not hers; for her labor is vanity without fear; ¹⁷because God has made her forget wisdom; and He has not given to her a share in understanding. ¹⁸At the time she lifts up on high, she laughs at the horse and its rider.

¹⁹Have you given the horse its strength; have you clothed its neck with a mane? ²⁰Can you make him leap like a locust; the majesty of his snorting is terrifying? ²¹They paw in the valley, and he rejoices in his strength; he goes out to meet the weapons; ²²he mocks at fear, and is not terrified; and he does not turn back from the sword. ²³The quiver rattles against him, the flashing spear and the javelin. ²⁴He swallows the ground with quivering and trembling, and he does not stand still for the sound of the ram's horn. ²⁵When the ram's horn sounds, he says, Aha! And he smells the battle from a distance, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

²⁶Does the hawk soar from your understanding? Will he spread his wings toward the south? ²⁷Or does the eagle mount up at your mouth, and make his nest on high? ²⁸He lives and stays on the rock, on the crag of the rock and the stronghold. ²⁹From there he seeks food; his eyes see afar off. ³⁰And his young brood also sucks up blood —and where the pierced ones are, there he is.

¹And Jehovah answered Job and said: ²Shall a reprovor contend with the Almighty? He who reproves God, let him answer it.

³Then Job answered Jehovah and said: ⁴'Behold, I am vile! What shall I answer You? I will put my hand to my mouth. ⁵Once I have spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice, but I will go no further.

⁶And Jehovah answered Job out of the tempest and said: ⁷Gird up your loins like a man, and I will question you; and you teach Me. ⁸Will you also set aside My judgment; will you condemn Me so that you may be justified? ⁹And have you an arm like God; or can you thunder with a voice like His? ¹⁰Adorn yourself with majesty now, and with grandeur, and clothe yourself with glory and honor; ¹¹pour forth the outbursts of your anger; yea, look on everyone who is proud, and bring him down low; ¹²look on everyone who is proud and humble him; and trample the wicked in their place; ¹³hide them in the dust together; bind their faces in darkness. ¹⁴And I also will confess to you that your right hand can save you.

¹⁵Now behold Behemoth, which I made along with you; he eats grass like an ox; ¹⁶see, now, his strength is in his loins, and his force in the muscles of his belly; ¹⁷he hangs his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together; ¹⁸his bones are like tubes of bronze; his bones like bars of iron; ¹⁹he is the first in the ways of God; his Maker brings near his sword. ²⁰For the mountains yield food for him, and all the beasts of the field play there. ²¹He lies under the lotus, in the hiding-place of the reed and the marsh; ²²the lotus trees cover him in its shadow; the willows of the brook circle him. ²³Behold, he is confident, even if Jordan burst forth against his mouth. ²⁴Shall any take him before his eyes, or pierce his nose with snares?

¹Can you draw out the leviathan with a hook, or hold down his tongue with a cord? ²Can you put a reed rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw with a thorn? ³Will he multiply pleas for help to you; or will he speak soft words to you? ⁴Will he cut a covenant with you; will you take him for a slave forever? ⁵Will you play with him as with a bird; or will you tie him up for your maidens? ⁶Shall your partners bargain over him; shall they divide him among the merchants? ⁷Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, or his head with fishing spears? ⁸Put your hand on him; remember the battle; you will not do it again!

⁹Behold, his hope has been made false; will he not be cast down at the sight of him?

¹⁰None is so fierce as to dare to stir him up; who then is able to stand before Me?

¹¹Who has gone before Me that I should repay? All under the heavens, it is Mine! ¹²I will not keep silent as to his limbs, or the matter of his powers, or the grace of his frame. ¹³Who can take off the the face of his covering; who can come with his double bridle? ¹⁴Who can pry open the doors of his face? Terror is all around his teeth.

¹⁸His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are as the eyelids of the dawn. ¹⁹Out of his mouth go burning torches; sparks of fire fly out. ²⁰Smoke goes out of his nostrils like a boiling pot fired by reeds. ²¹His breath kindles coals; and the flame goes out from his mouth. ²²Strength abides in his neck and terror dances before him. ²³The folds of flesh cleave together, cast firm on him; he cannot be moved. ²⁴His heart is cast hard as a stone, even cast hard as a piece of riding millstone. ²⁵The mighty are afraid from his arising; from the crashings they miss the way. ²⁶The sword, the spear, the dart, and the javelin overtake him, but will not hold. ²⁷He counts iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood. ²⁸A son of a bow cannot make him flee; slingstones are turned to stubble by him; ²⁹darts are counted as straw; he laughs at the shaking of a javelin.

³⁰Points of potsherds are under him; he spreads sharp marks on the mire. ³¹He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment; ³²he makes a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be gray-headed. ³³There is nothing like him on earth, one made without fear. ³⁴He beholds all high things; he is king over all the sons of pride.

¹And Job answered Jehovah and said: ²I know that You can do all, and no purpose is withheld from You. ³Who is this hiding counsel without knowledge? So I declared, but did not understand things too wonderful for me; yea, I did not know. ⁴I pray, Listen, and I will speak; I will ask You, and You will make me know. ⁵I have heard of You by hearing of the ear, but now my eye has seen You; ⁶therefore, I despise myself, and I have repented on dust and ashes.

⁷And it happened, after Jehovah spoke these words to Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My anger flows against you and your two friends. For You have not spoken the right about Me, as My servant Job. ⁸And now take for you seven bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job, and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. And My servant Job will pray for you. Surely I will lift up his face so as not to do with you according to your folly, in that you have not spoken the right about Me, as My servant Job. ⁹And Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Jehovah spoke to them. And Jehovah lifted the face of Job. ¹⁰And when he prayed for his friends, Jehovah turned the captivity of Job — and Jehovah added to Job all which had been, to double. ¹¹And all his brothers and all his sisters came to him; and all knowing him before. And they ate bread with him in his house and consoled him and comforted him as to all the evil that Jehovah had brought on him. And they each gave him a piece of money, and each one ring of gold.

¹²And Jehovah blessed the latter days of Job more than the earlier days. And to him were fourteen thousand sheep and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. ¹³And he had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. ¹⁵And in all the land not was found any women as beautiful as Job's daughters. And their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. ¹⁶After this Job lived a hundred and forty years. And he saw his sons, and his grandsons, even four generations. ¹⁷And Job died, being old and full of days.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

¹Blessed is the man who has not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, and has not stood in the way of sinners, and has not sat in the seat of scorners. ²But his delight is only in the law of Jehovah, and he meditates in His law day and night. ³And he shall be planted like a tree by the rivulets of waters, which will give its fruit in its seasons; and its leaf will not wither; and all which he does will prosper. ⁴Not so are the wicked; but are only as chaff which the wind drives about. ⁵On account of this the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. ⁶For Jehovah is knowing the way of the righteous — and the way of the wicked shall perish.

¹Why have the nations raged and the peoples are meditating on vanity: ²The kings of the earth set themselves; yea, the rulers have plotted together against Jehovah and His anointed, saying, ³We will break Their bands in two, and throw off Their cords from us. ⁴He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; Jehovah shall mock at them. ⁵Then He will speak to them in His anger, and He will terrify them in His wrath; ⁶Yea, I have set My king on My holy mount on Zion.

⁷I will declare concerning the statute of Jehovah: He said to Me, You are My Son. Today I have begotten You. ⁸Ask of Me, and I will give the nations as Your inheritance; and the uttermost parts of the earth as Your possession. ⁹You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

¹⁰Now, then, be wise, O kings; be taught, O judges of the earth: ¹¹Serve Jehovah with fear; yea, rejoice with trembling. ¹²Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish from the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little.

O the blessings of all those who flee to Him for refuge!

PSALM 3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom

¹O Jehovah, how my adversaries have multiplied! Many are the ones who rise against me. ²Many are saying of my soul, There is no salvation for him in God. Selah.

³But You, O Jehovah, are a shield around me; my glory and He who lifts up my head. ⁴I cried to Jehovah with my voice, and He heard me out of His holy mountain. Selah.

⁵I laid down, and slept; I awoke, for Jehovah kept me. ⁶I am not afraid of myriads of people who have been set against me all around. ⁷Arise, O Jehovah! Save me, O my God! For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone; You have broken the teeth of the wicked.

⁸Salvation belongs to Jehovah; Your blessing is on Your people. Selah.

PSALM 4

To the chief musician, for stringed instruments, A Psalm of David.

¹Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness. You gave room to me in distress. Have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

²O sons of men, until when shall My glory be for a reproach? Will you love vanity? Will you run after a lie? Selah.

³But know that Jehovah has set apart the godly for Himself; Jehovah hears when I call to Him. ⁴Tremble and do not sin; speak within your own heart on your bed and be still. Selah.

⁵Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and trust in Jehovah. ⁶Many are saying, Who will show us any good? O Jehovah, lift up the light of Your face on us. ⁷You have put gladness in my heart, more than in the time their grain and their wine grew. ⁸I will both lie down in peace and sleep; for You alone, O Jehovah, will make me dwell in safety.

To the chief musician, for flutes. A Psalm of David.

¹Give ear to my words, O Jehovah; consider my meditation. ²Attend to the voice of my cry, my King and my God; for I will pray to You. ³You will hear my voice in the morning, O Jehovah, I will set myself for You in the morning, and I will look up. ⁴For You are not a God enjoying wickedness; nor shall evil live with You. ⁵The boasters shall not set themselves before Your eyes; You hate all workers of iniquity. ⁶You shall destroy those speaking lies; Jehovah will despise the man of blood and deceit.

⁷But I, in the plenty of Your grace, I will come into Your house; I will worship in Your fear toward Your holy temple, O Jehovah.

⁸Lead me in Your righteousness, because of my enemies; make straight Your way before me. ⁹For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is engulfing ruin; their throat is an open grave; they flatter with their tongue. ¹⁰O God, Hold them guilty; let them fall from their own counsels. Drive them away in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against You. ¹¹But let all who put their trust in You rejoice; let them shout for joy forever, because You cover them. And let those who love Your name be joyful in You. ¹²For You, O Jehovah, will bless the righteous; You will surround him with favor, as with a shield.

To the chief musician, for eight-stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, do not rebuke me in Your anger; nor chasten me in the heat of Your fury: ²have mercy on me, O Jehovah, for I am weak; heal me, O Jehovah, for my bones are troubled. ³My soul also is greatly troubled —; and You, O Jehovah, until when? ⁴O Jehovah, return, deliver my soul; save me for Your mercy's sake. ⁵For there is no memory of You in death; who shall give thanks to You in Sheol? ⁶I am weary in my groaning; I shall make by bed swim in all the night; I melt my couch with my tears. ⁷My eye is dim because of grief;

it wastes away because of all my vexers.

⁸Depart from me, all workers of iniquity, for Jehovah has heard the voice of my weeping. ⁹Jehovah has heard my plea; Jehovah will receive my prayer. ¹⁰Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled; they shall turn back, ashamed in a moment.

A song of David, which he sang to Jehovah on the words of Cush the Benjamite.

¹O Jehovah my God, I seek refuge in You; save me from all who pursue me, and deliver me; ²lest he tear my soul like a lion, breaking and there be no one to deliver. ³O Jehovah, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands: ⁴if I have repaid evil to my friend or if I have plundered my vexer without cause — ⁵let the enemy pursue and overtake my soul; and trample down my life to earth, and lay my honor in the dust. Selah.

⁶Arise, O Jehovah, in Your anger; be lifted up at the rage of my vexers; and awake for Me! You have commanded judgment. ⁷And the assembly of the peoples shall surround You; and over it You will return on high; ⁸Jehovah will judge the people. O Jehovah, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity on me. ⁹O let the evil of the wicked come to an end; and You will establish the just; for the righteous God is a trier of hearts and reins. ¹⁰My defense is on God, who saves the upright of heart.

¹¹God is a righteous judge; and God is angry with evildoers every day. ¹²If he will not turn, He will whet His sword; He has trod His bow, He made it ready; ¹³yea, He has fitted for him instruments of death. He will make His arrows hot for pursuers. ¹⁴Behold, he writhes with iniquity and he will conceive mischief; and he has fathered falsehood; ¹⁵he dug a pit and bored it, and has fallen into the ditch which he has made. ¹⁶His mischief shall return on his own head, and his violence shall come down on his own crown.

¹⁷I will thank Jehovah according to His righteousness, and will praise the name of Jehovah most high.

PSALM 8

*To the chief musician, on the harp
A Psalm of David.*

¹O Jehovah, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth; You have set Your glory above the heavens! ²Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings, You have ordained strength, because of Your vexers, to cause the enemy and the avenger to cease.

³When I look upon Your heavens, the work of Your fingers: the moon and the stars which You have fixed; ⁴what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man, that You visit him? ⁵For You have made him lack a little from God; and have crowned him with glory and honor. ⁶*You* made him rule over the works of Your hands; You have put all under his feet—⁷all flocks and oxen, and also the animals of the field, ⁸the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, all that pass through the sea-paths.

⁹O Jehovah, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

PSALM 9

*To the chief musician, To die for the Son.
A Psalm of David.*
